New steel stacks which will accommodate 16,000 volumes have recently been installed in the library at Northwestern University.

A hobby club for women is being organized on the Oregon State campus.

Forty-six thousand volumes are added annually to the library of the British museum.

CONSOLATION!

What if you do get "bumped" occasionally!

You will find soothing comfort and consolation in the wonderful flavour of Turrets.

20 for 25c

TURRET

CIGARETTES

Mild and Fragrant

Save the valuable "POKER HANDS"

"LITERATURE and MORALS"

LECTURE BY

JOHN ERSKINE

Author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy"
Professor of English, Columbia University
Poet — Dramatist — Pianist

Friday, 7th February

at 8.15 p.m.

HYGEIA HOUSE, 40 ELM STREET

Tickets $1.00 at S.A.C. Office, Hart House

MEET AT K1. 6738 VARSITY TEA ROOMS

328 BLOOR ST. W.

THE ART METROPOLE

Branch of

THE HUGHES OWENS CO., LTD.

36 ADELAIDE STREET WEST

Dealers in

ORAUGHTING OFFICE SUPPLIES
MATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENTS
SURVEYING AND OTHER SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS
ARTISTS' MATERIALS ZEISS MICROSCOPES
LABORATORY SUPPLIES

ESTABLISHED 45 YEARS

P. Leone

BARBER

BEAUTY SHOPPE

BRANCHES

366 Bloor W. K1. 6551

340 Bloor W. K1. 6213

Medical Arts Bldg. K1. 1211

340 BLOOR ST. WEST

Shoe Shine Parlor

Hats Cleaned and Blocked

The favourite Shoppe of the students, both men and women.

Varsity Students!

Buy your

Clothes

Made-to-Measure

Wholesale.

Where?

At

ROYAL

TAILORS

Headquarters

468

Wellington

St. W.

Toronto

Suits

$22.50 to

$50.00

Tuxedo Special $24

Every Courtesy Shown

PUBLIC LECTURES

WEST HALL,

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

THURSDAYS at 5 p.m.

Feb. 6—William James
Mrs. W. A. Kirkwood

Feb. 13—Proust.....L. A. MacKay

ADMISSION FREE

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

VARSITY DEFEAT P.C.C. 2-1 TYING ROUND TO FORCE THIRD GAME

SWIMMERS COMPETE IN MEET TO-NIGHT

Annual Interfaculty Event for Fitzgerald Cup in Hart House Pool

LIST OF ENTRIES LARGE

To-night brings together the various faculties in the annual interfaculty swimming meet. This meet, which is held in Hart House pool each year in competition for the Fitzgerald Cup, promises to be the best yet.

The keenest competition exists between the various faculties. University College, led by the redoubtable J. Boddy, star of previous intercollegiate championship teams, is out to win the trophy. School of Science, the present trophy holders are determined that they shall keep what they already have, but Dents, led on by Eddie Sinclair, will give a good account of themselves.

Owing to graduation, many of last year's stars are no longer around, so many places are to be filled to-night. The swimmers have been practicing faithfully and they deserve a good crowd. The list of entries is large and much promising material will be uncovered to-night. All the winners of the meet will be sure starters at the intercollegiate meet in Montreal on February 28th.

Entrants are reminded that the meet starts at 8.20 sharp. Mr. Winterburn is the official starter and this means the meet will start on time. The list of entries follows:

50 yards—D. Rea, Davidson, Pierdon, Stewart, Henderson, Tedman.
100 yards—Boddy, Marsh.
150 yards—Parmenter, Clough, Henderson, Buchanan.

200 yards—Clough, Pierdon, Craig, Johnston, Tedman, Buchanan.
300 yards—Sinclair, Clute, McFee, Withrow, Crocker, Balfour, Woodcock.

400 yards—Marsh, Rogers, Dixon, Armstrong, Towers, Crocker.
800 yards—Dents, U.C., A. and B, Trinity.

HOCKEY REFEREES FOR WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The following have consented to act as referees in the women's interfaculty hockey league: U.C.: H. Ebbs, R. Baldwin; St. Hilda's: H. Martin, H. Little; Vic: M. Hager, C. Bennett; H. Science: R. Clute, A. Lachner; Meds: J. Lind, D. Williams.

Mc's LUNCH
A very convenient place to eat.
West side of Yonge St.
Half-way between Wellesley and Maitland.
Best value in city for the price, 35c.
550 YONGE STREET

The DOUBLE ADVANTAGE of a SAVINGS ACCOUNT

4%

1. Your Surplus Income earns 4% interest.
2. Your money is always easily accessible.

Chequing privileges and 4% interest on Savings Accounts

TORONTO GENERAL TRUSTS CORPORATION

BAY AND MELINDA STREETS

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity juniors made a great comeback last night to beat Parkdale Canoe Club 2-1 and force the Big Four group playoffs into a third game. Both teams played sparkling hockey and kept the rink in a continual uproar. Smillie and Levinsky supplied the scoring punch and got great support from their team-mates. Sid Hetherington at right wing turned in a fine effort and Hunnisett in goal was good.

The deciding game will be played at the Arena Saturday night and a big house should be on hand. The juniors got a lucky break in securing a week-end when the local pro collection will be performing in other parts.

The Blue intermediates play their return game with Bradford at the Varsity Arena to-night. Coach Bill Dewar's men spotted the opposition one goal in the game at Bradford Saturday but should take the game and round up in Ross Workman's Winter Palace.

The Varsity-Bradford game will not start until ten bells. This will enable the red hot sport fans to take in the Interfaculty Swimming Meet at Hart House before wandering up to watch the second sextet scuffle Bradford.

To-morrow night the preliminaries of the Senior Assault will be held. The assault promises to be better this year than it has been for some time. Last year a number of Varsity's best men were laid up with scarlet fever at the time of the Senior Assault. One of the best features this season is the fact that competition will be very keen in practically every class.

St. Hilda's are sitting pretty in the interfaculty hockey league with two wins out of two starts. Last night the Saints took the Victoria sextet into camp by a 2-0 score. St. Hilda's were superior to the Scarlet and Gold in goal, but aside from that the teams were very evenly matched as they each had an equal share of the play.

The women's intermediate basketball team had only a very slim turnout at practice last night. This was partly due to the late notice given, but everyone should be out on Wednesday as the team plays its first game on Monday when it goes into action against Varsity seniors. Last year the seconds beat the firsts so miracles do happen, even at college.

The women's hockey club has taken action with regard to the postponement of interfaculty games. A ruling has been made that games must not be postponed for any reason whatever except lack of ice. This is a very wise move because if many games are put off it takes a very long time to get the schedule completed and the playoffs cannot be arranged until it is uncomfortably close to exam time.

PROMISING MATERIAL FOR SENIOR ASSAULT

Coach Buxton Feels Bouts Should Be Very Keen

The senior assault-at-arms in Hart House gymnasium on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, at 7.30, should certainly prove to be a lively affair. There are a great many contestants for the boxing, wrestling and fencing teams, and most faculties are well represented. Coach Buxton is very enthusiastic about the quality of boxing the various boxers are showing and feels that the competition should be very keen.

In the boxing field, School of Practical Science have not only more contestants entered but their boxers are all very good, thus it is believed that they should win the most points. University College has a very bad showing, with only two or three entries.

There will be good bouts in every weight, except perhaps in the heavy-weight, where there is not much competition. According to Mr. Martin, the gymnasium director, the 134 lb. and the 145 lb. weights will provide the greatest interest. McKinney of Victoria and Campbell, last year's intercollegiate champion, will be the stars in the former weight, and McLeman and Beck will be the keen competitors in the latter class.

In the featherweight Teddy Fell should make the fans blink and his opponent too. Fell has been specializing in feinting and swaying and this punch has been developed wonderfully under the close coaching of Mr. Buxton. Watch Teddy Fell!

In the light-heavyweight there is Eaton. Eaton is a born aggressive fighter. McNutt, his opponent, is a born boxer, and is, incidentally, a very shifty southpaw. He should give Eaton some trouble.

In the fencing, the 134 lb. class should create the greatest interest. Walker has been showing up well and will probably meet the winner between Watt and Mueller. The 145 lb. class should also provide great competition. McKinney, last year's intercollegiate champion of the 134 lb. weight, has now moved up and should be the greatest drawing card of the wrestling field.

Mention should also be made of Tyson in the heavyweight class. He has also been showing up to great advantage.

A great deal of sifting has been taking place in the fencing aspirants, and the very best will put up a good show at the assault. Lee and Dunlop, who were on the intercollegiate team last year, are back again.

WOMEN BASKETEERS HOLD KEEN PRACTICE

Final Selection Not Made Yet and Squad Still Has Twelve On It

SEPARATE WORKOUTS

The women of the intercollegiate basketball team are turning out to practices twice a week in preparation for the tournament which is to be held at Western University in three weeks' time. They went through a snappy workout last night at U.T.S. gym, under the direction of Coach Marion Forward, who is concentrating on the defensive system. The training at present is mainly shooting and passing; there has been little scrimmaging, and as yet the team has no signals or plays of any kind.

The final selection has not been made, and the squad still has twelve members including Honor Tett, Louise Crouch, Wilma Hazlitt and Eleanor Sedgewick of last year's team, and Marion Henderson, Sally Ballard, and Willy Ann Luckett, who have moved up from the intermediates.

Last night the seniors and the intermediates practiced together, but from now on, there will be separate workouts.

U.C. DEFEATS S.P.S. IN PITCHERS' DUEL

In one of the best baseball games of the season Junior U.C. defeated Junior S.P.S. by a score of 3-1.

The game went for four innings and at no time was the issue certain. Both pitchers were in excellent form and displayed wonderful pitching.

Jr. U.C.—Doherty, Grant, Tomlinson, Gibson, Little, Broughton, Moran, Smith, Craig.

Jr. S.P.S.—Chalmers, Wilson, Newman, Adams, J. Howe, Carhane, P. Howe, Carmichael, Ward.

HECTIC STRUGGLE FEATURES GAME

(Continued from page 1)

grabbed the puck from a centre-out and flipped it between Hunnisett's feet for P.C.C.'s first score. Both teams then set to work desperately to notch the goal which would give them the lead. The net minders had some miraculous escapes, but both managed to keep the puck out.

In the final twenty minutes the pace was faster than ever. Hunnisett was called on to make several good stops from close in and Smillie, Hetherington and Co. tested Carey with hard drives. Parkdale presented a stone-wall defensive system and broke up many Blue attacks. Both sides had chance after chance to score in the last ten minutes but the bell rang with the count on the round knotted at 3-1.

The entire Varsity team played good hockey from start to finish and there were no particular stars. However, the sterling work of Sid Hetherington, Smillie and Williamson deserves special mention. Levinsky was as effective as ever on the defence besides counting one of the goals. The ever-reliable Hunnisett played a brilliant game in the nets and had a lot to do with his team's victory.

Teddy Oliver at centre for Parkdale was their most effective player. Kitson, the Bowman brothers and Hall also featured for Billy Sloan's outfit.

Varsity—Goal, Hunnisett; defence, Levinsky and Williamson; centre, Brant; wings, Hetherington and Smillie; alternates, Cunningham, Bennett and Hendry.

Parkdale—Goal, Carey; defence, R. Bowman and S. Bowman; centre, Oliver; wings, Hall and Corson; alternates, Kitson, Johnson and Pepler.

BE PREPARED

SUDDEN emergencies often call for ready cash. If you have it you do not need to worry.

PREPARE for such occasions by building up an interest-bearing savings account in the BANK OF MONTREAL, which protects the savings of many thousands of Canadians from one end of the Dominion to the other.

Branches in every city and town of importance throughout Canada.

Bank of Montreal

Established 1817

Total Assets in excess of $900,000,000

JUNIOR MEDS DEFEATED BY UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

University College junior quintet earned a 14 to 12 victory from junior Meds in yesterday's Sifton Cup basketball game at Hart House. It was the first time in two years that U.C. had handed the Meds a reverse.

McDonnell stood out for the winners, while Jessel and Heller were prominent on the Med line-up.

U.C.—Forwards, Cochrane, Agnew; centre, Foote; guards, McDonnell, Tindal; spars, Schuck, Scott, Anderson, Bowman, Lee.

Meds.—Forwards, Richardson, Jessel; centre, Henry; guards, Sinclair, Heller; spars, Dick, Kassler, Lachner, Conn, Alpert.

OVERCOME HANDICAPS IS OPINION GIVEN

(Continued from page 1)

Mr. Saunders is not yet thirty. He had not passed his entrance to high school when at the age of twenty-two years his vision failed him so that he could not read print. In 1923 he went to the Halifax School for the Blind and the next year to the High School in his home town of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, then to Dalhousie University, from which he graduated "with great distinction" in 1928.

"All the work at 'Dal' was done through the co-operation of the students there. In other words, I studied right along with some of the boys that were taking the same courses. They did the reading for me," said Mr. Saunders in speaking of his undergraduate work at Dalhousie.

Coming to the University of Toronto last session as a graduate student, this blind student has been working mainly with hired readers. "Except on the mornings when I hear Professor Jackson's lecture in Money Credit and Prices, I work with a reader from nine o'clock to twelve thirty or one o'clock; then from two till four or five and in the evenings from seven thirty until eleven o'clock," he said in explaining his daily program.

"In the first place people who do not know me very well annoy me with too

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

269 College St. TRINITY 6987
Harry Winfield, Prop.
CIGARS - MAGAZINES
Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries
Name your city
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Lending Library.

RENT A VARSITY TUXEDO

For a perfect fit and comfort

Over 200 New Suits To Choose From

Varsity Cleaners & Dyers

519 YONGE ST.

Kingsdale 6280

$2.00 Rate to Students

much sympathy. Blindness is expensive, but the social handicap is not so great. One with guiding vision as I have is not nearly as dependable socially. For the most part, I don't consider myself blind. I skate, dance and go to operas and shows," he said when questioned as to the inconveniences of his blindness. Regarding the virtues of the talkies, he replied "Not bad at all for me. I haven't been to enough of them to know."

Mr. Saunders spoke of the difficulty of blind people establishing themselves in industry. "I do not say that a blind person is fully as capable as a sighted person using the same amount of effort. But by a lot of hard work and intensive application one may bring into play all the other faculties at one's command and perhaps accomplish as much," he concluded.

DON'T FORGET WOMEN'S UNION

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE 3T2 CLASS PARTY

Wednesday, February 5th, 8.00 p.m.

3T2 U.C.

75c. or Year Card

Coming Events

TUESDAY, FEB. 4

5.00 p.m.—Meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. at Wymilwood.

7.30—3T2 Victoria skating party. Meet in college hall at 7.30. Eats in Annesley Hall after. Everybody out.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 5

5.15—Prof. C. A. Chant on "Does Science Abolish God?" in the music room, Hart House. All men students cordially invited.

8.00 p.m.—U.C. 3T2 class party in Women's Union. Admission 75c or by year card.

THURSDAY, FEB. 6

U.C. 3T3 class party will be held at the Women's Union. Bring your year cards.

FRIDAY, FEB. 7

9 p.m.—Foresters' At-Home, Hart House.

TUESDAY, FEB. 11*

6.45—Annual athletic at-home of Victoria College. Dinner at Burwash Hall. Dancing at Wymilwood.

8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of Trinity College Science Club in Trinity College Library. Mr. R. K. Young will speak on Modern Astronomy. Refreshments and dancing. Everybody welcome.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 12

9 p.m.—Annual Dental At-Home at the Royal York Hotel. Subscription $5.00.

FRIDAY, FEB. 21

9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22

8.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

University women at Cornell University will be allowed to stay in the Junior Prom which lasts until 4.30 in the morning.

COLLEGIANA

By G. G. B.

Florida has solved the problem! When dances and lectures clash, eliminate the lectures!

A four day spring recess will be granted students in April, the university council has decided. This will be the first time the university has had a spring recess. It is in keeping with the council's plan to eliminate conflict between social affairs and studies. House parties will come during this recess.

Florida Alligator.

This is what happened after the pledge-night theatre programme in prohibitionist Minnesota. They can still teach us how!

"After the performance the janitor picked up a bushel-basket full of empty bottles that were strewn over the floor. Exit lights were broken and ropes used in the lobby to hold back the crowds were taken," Rydean said.

Minnesota Daily.

"Harold", who created such a to-do in his effort to find a suitable partner for the Arts Ball, has a feminine counterpart at McGill.

WANTED

One male partner for the Alma Mater. No blonde hockey stars or athletically inclined meds need apply. Only teetotallers and women haters will be considered. First come, first served.

McGill Daily.

They do funny things down in Montreal.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

All those willing to sew on costumes in connection with the forthcoming Players' Club production, "The Witch" are asked to report to Hazel Howard, Katherine Black or Alma Johnson as soon as possible.

McGill Daily.

We knew that in certain circles people get seen in for the winter, but we didn't think they did it for McGill dramatics.

***

We wonder if any of our co-eds ever tried this one? It worked in Minnesota.

Even chaperoning has its advantages, according to a certain Minnesota woman recently placed in charge of the Winchell Cottage at 519 Beacon Street.

Compensation for her duties came last night when a freshman girl wished to exceed her quota of permits allowed each week for social engagements. She appealed to the matron in charge and was told she might accept the date if her escort would bring the chaperone a box of candy or else take her with them to the theatre.

Minnesota Daily.

McGill adds a new colour to the spectrum.

LOST

A man's scarf. Coarse Silk. Scotch kilt in colour, between Medical and Biological Buildings.

McGill Daily.

CO-EDS STRIVE FOR PERFECT RIFLE SCORES

University of Washington Daily.
Possibly training for the time when they will rifle hubby's pockets.

A woman student of Northwestern University paid her last $3 for violating a parking law and as she had no more money to buy her lunch, the judge ordered the arresting officers to take her to lunch, despite the fact that they were married.

Secretarial Training
—in your spare time

During the winter months, why not make use of a little of your spare time between lectures?

Full or part time, mornings or afternoons, every day or on special days, we provide individual instruction on subjects necessary to secretarial training.

For further information telephone KI. 5588, or write,

The Gregg College
"Toronto's model school for Gregg Shorthand and Secretarial subjects."
Bloor and Bay Sts. Toronto

CONCLAVE OF LEAGUE
ATTRACTS MANY

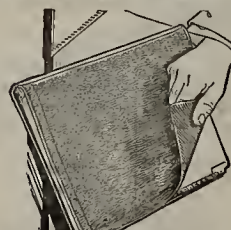

(Continued from page 1)

Britain and France have been taken by McGill University and Ottawa University respectively. Speeches in French will be made by the Ottawa delegates. The single delegate from the University of Manitoba will be supported by graduates of that university living in Toronto. The University of New Brunswick will also be represented by graduates resident in Toronto.

The executive will this week publish a list of the nations chosen by students at the University of Toronto.

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

SOLID
BLACK LEATHER

FIBRE
BACK, STEEL
HINGES

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

C. O. T. C.

AIR FORCE

All candidates for commissions or for summer training with the R.C.A.F. will report at C.O.T.C. Headquarters, 184 College Street, on Wednesday, 5th February, for interview with Flight Lieutenant Wait of the R.C.A.F.

FREEMANS—Varsity Valets
for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of Formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best quality.

Rates same as usual $2.00 only

FREEMAN DRESS EXCHANGE
571 YONGE STREET KI. 3270

Your Savings

Will Earn

4%

Interest

— AT —

CENTRAL CANADA
LOAN AND SAVINGS COMPANY

Head Office:
TORONTO

Corner KING & VICTORIA STS., TORONTO

Branch Office:
OSHAWA

ASSETS OVER ELEVEN MILLIONS

BULLETIN BOARD

VICTORIA

The annual Victoria College At-Home will be held in Hart House on February 21st. The lists will be open in the college office from Tuesday, 1.30 p.m. until Friday 1.00 p.m. of this week. If the lists are oversubscribed the members of the first and second years will be awarded tickets in order as their names appear on lists. A limited number of tickets are also available for girls.

INTERFACULTY SWIMMING

Men competing in the meet are asked to pick up their passes after 1 p.m. at the Athletic Office, Hart House.

3T2 U.C. DANCE

Everybody out for final 3T2 class party to-morrow night at 8 p.m. in the Women's Union.

3T2 VICTORIA

Skating party to-night at Little Vic Rink. Meet in college hall at 7.30. Refreshments and entertainment in Amesley Hall at 10.15. Please bring unpaid class fees.

FABIUS CLUB

The Tuesday group of the Fabius Club will meet at 7.30 sharp in the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street. Members are urged to be present in order that the best possible discussion may result.

VICTORIA ATHLETES

Holders of invitations to the Athletic At-Home to be held on Tuesday, Feb. 11, who have not already signed the list in the college should do so to-day (Tuesday) from 1.30 to 2.00 p.m. if they expect to attend.

RADIO CLUB

A regular meeting of the U. of T. Radio Society will be held in Room A, Hart House, at 1.30 p.m. to-day. Members are requested to attend. A cordial invitation is also extended to anyone interested in Amateur Radio.

SENIOR ASSAULT

Will all those intending to enter the assault please sign the list in the Athletic Office before 5 p.m. to-day. If you have not already done so please make out your eligibility certificate at the same time. This is the final notice.

U. C. WOMEN

Will the following turn out at 6 o'clock sharp for hockey against Vic I to-day, Tuesday: M. Pirie, D. Starr, D. Porter, H. Gillies, H. McGibbon, E. Govan, G. Beatty.

SUNWHEAT BISCUITS
HAVE GREAT DEMAND

(Continued from page 1)

enjoys themselves. "They taste like raw straw, but it's being done, so we eat them."

"A Hutton House resident said: 'The biscuits are marvellous things to have in one's pockets while skating at the Varsity rink, and what a help they'll be around exam time.'"

Miss Sophie Boyd, secretary to Miss Kilpatrick, the dean of women at University College, said she had to go to eight different shops on Saturday in order to get a few packages of the biscuits. She thought the reason people were receiving the biscuits with such confidence, was the fact that the formula for them had been discovered by a university, and so they knew they weren't a quack.

Screened after midnight by Nebraska university students have been forbidden by the Lincoln chief of police.

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and
HOODS

HARCOURT & SON
103 King St. W., Toronto

throat
easy
Wm. L. Wainman
CIGARETTES

for 25¢
NO COUPONS
ALL QUALITY

EMMANUEL COLLEGE
EXCAVATIONS NOISY

(Continued from page 1)

in any case are written in the Chapel, and far enough removed from the disturbing element.

Except on the west wings it is not greatly noticed in the college, but the library itself is wracked by the blustrious impacts. On the whole, however, the entire affair seems to be regarded with interest, and will probably continue to be, providing there is no riveting machine deafening the ears, during May.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

OL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5th, 1930

No. 76

REGISTRAR DENIES ANY AUTHORIZATION TO MAKE STATEMENT

No Statement to Press Concerning Abolition of First Year Pass

NOTHING DEFINITE YET

"Varsity" Unable to Get Statement Regarding Doings of Council

"No one was authorized to make a statement to the press regarding the abolition of the first year of the Pass Arts course," said A. B. Fennell, Acting Registrar, to "The Varsity" yesterday. A morning paper of that date had carried a news story, saying that the Council of the Faculty of Arts had passed unanimously a resolution to abolish the first year of the Pass Course, Arts.

"The Varsity," on the other hand, had been unable to get any statement regarding the doings of the Council and had carried a story to that effect.

"There are eighty members of the Council," continued Mr. Fennell, "and any one of them might have been the authority for the statement in the downtown paper." He thought that the whole thing was so much in the air as yet "that no one should issue anything definite on it."

When asked if the story of the unanimous resolution was correct, Mr. Fennell replied that he was not at liberty to speak definitely on the subject at all.

FRANKNESS EMPHASIZED AS A MODERN TREND

Special to "The Varsity"
Boulder, Colo.—Psychological technique in the personality class at the University of Colorado has disclosed things to students, things that even their own fraternity brothers or sorority sisters hesitated to tell.

Members of the personality class conducted by Prof. Thomas Howells of the psychology department during the first term of the academic year had the experience of seeing themselves as others see them.

The modern trend of frankness among college students was certainly emphasized in the results obtained recently in the mutual scrutiny to which members of the class subjected themselves.

Six members of the class expressed themselves bluntly on an unattractive girl student who was the idol of her sorority friends.

Their verdict was that she had too much halitosis to be entirely desirable for an evening's company in the parlor. Her teeth were dirty, and dandruff was evident in her otherwise lovely hair. She was a bit conceited and on occasions tried to bluff her way through tight class room situations in the opinion of her six critics.

Otherwise, they found, she was a socially attractive girl bubbling over with enthusiasm and talkativeness.

This little personality student sat unabashed as she went over the picture her fellow students had presented.

PROFESSOR'S OPINION EXTENDS FAVORITISM TO YOUTHS' ORATORY

Denies Boys' Parliaments and Boys' Oratory Detrimental to Students

ARTICLE SCORES WORK

Winners of Oratorical Contests Comment on Scathing Criticism

"I do not believe that Boys' Parliament work or Boy Oratory has a detrimental effect on students," stated Professor C. E. Auger, Registrar of Victoria College, in commenting upon a recent article in "The Canadian Forum."

The article referred to is a scathing criticism of Boys' Parliament work and oratorical contests in general.

"Innocent youths whose only weakness has been a tendency to fluency of language are brought together by the Fagins of the boys' work organizations, and are taught all the vicious arts of the modern politician. They pass noble resolutions which they will never have the responsibility to carry out. They listen to sentimental platitudinous orations by the chief professional windbags of the provincial capital city and are taught to model themselves on these masters. They get their pictures in the papers and are received by the Lieutenant-Governor and after this course of training (Continued on page 4)

CONDEMN INSURANCE FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

Fabians Point Out Economic Difference Between Canada and Great Britain

AT WOMEN'S UNION

"The institution of an unemployment insurance scheme in Canada," was discussed at a group meeting of the Fabian Club, in the Women's Union Tuesday night. It was thought that the adoption in toto of the British unemployment insurance scheme in Canada would not be advisable due to the various differences between the two countries. One of the most obvious of these differences was the distinction between the Canadian scheme of provincial administration of matters pertaining to property and civil rights, and the British scheme of one centralized administration at Westminster. It would, therefore, be necessary to have the provinces come to some agreement with the dominion authorities before a national scheme could be adopted. The seasonal nature of agricultural employment and the great administrative difficulties attending the application of any unemployment insurance scheme were also considered.

It was felt that the scheme should be adopted, mainly as a preventive measure, rather than a relief measure. In this connection the use of differential premiums based on the unemployment rate in each particular firm was recommended. The use of a provincial plan, which could later be made national, was discussed and the resultant handicap to that province's manufacturers was warmly debated.

The meeting was generally agreed that some scheme would be advisable, but, that it would have to be specially adapted to meet Canadian conditions.

John Erskine,

Satirist who wrote "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," who will speak in Hygeia Hall on "Music and Morals," February 7.

PROFESSOR'S STATEMENT MEETS DISAPPROVAL

Supposedly Strong Support Given by Canadians to League

The statement that the "let George do it" attitude toward the League of Nations in Canada was made by Professor Norman MacKenzie at the annual meeting of the Toronto branch of the League of Nations Society. He was opposed by two women members of the audience, who declared that Canadians gave strong support to the League.

Professor MacKenzie emphasized the need of pacifist education, and referred to the proposal of Miss Agnes McPhail to have $100 spent for this purpose to every $100 spent on national defence.

W. L. Grant, principal of Upper Canada College, was elected president of the society.

T.I.C.C.U. DISCUSSES REPENTANCE, SALVATION

The weekly meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. was held at Wymilwood last night, there being a good attendance. Bob Taylor, Knox College, spoke on "Repentance." He exemplified repentance from two sources; the 51st Psalm, repentance in David and the New Testament and the Prodigal Son. One aspect of which he spoke was "that repentance is essential to salvation."

"Varsity" Literary Contest

The prize awards for "The Varsity" literary issue will be divided as follows:

Poetry—1st prize $15; 2nd prize $10.

Prose (not to exceed 1,000 words)—1st prize $15. 2nd prize $10.

Art (pen or ink drawings)—1st prize $10.

The material must be handed in by one o'clock on Thursday, February 13, either at the News Office, Hart House, or at the Women's Office, in University College. The material should be written on one side of the page only, and preferably typewritten.

Poems should be reasonably short, and prose should be of short story or "feature" variety. There will be at least two pages devoted to literary matters in the insert, which will appear in the issue of Monday, February 17. It is hoped that there will be a large number of contributions received. The prizes offered are substantial and competition should be keen. There will not be another literary issue this season.

The $70 which is to be expended on the awards exhausts the $100 donated by the Literary and Debates Committee last autumn to "The Varsity" for literary prizes. The material submitted will be judged by N. A. Benson, M.A., and P. E. Ussher, B.A.

All undergraduates who pay S.A.C. fees are eligible to enter this contest.

PROS OFFER CONTRACT TO 'SAINT' OF MCGILL

Though Acceptance is Likely May Put Off Jump Until After Graduation

Special to "The Varsity"

Montreal, Que.—Ralph St. Germain, star centre of the McGill University hockey team and flashy quarterback of the football squad, has been offered a contract with the Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League which is to come into effect at once. While it was learned yesterday that he would probably accept it, it is thought that he will put off the jump until after graduation.

The "Saint," as he is known to his friends and sport fans here, is reported as being willing to sign with a major professional team, but he has ambitions of playing football for the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association in the Big Four next fall.

It is understood that he has been on the call list of Canadians, Ottawa and an American club for some time.

LIGHT HALTS DRIVING AT EAST ENTRANCE

Necessity of Coming to Stop on Icy Street Causes Acute Traffic Problems

"AN INSULT" SAYS STUDENT

The stop sign at the intersection of Queen's Park Crescent and St. Alban's, just before it enters the university grounds, has been criticized by many student drivers. The sharp rise in the road as it approaches the Crescent from the grounds is the cause of an acute traffic problem. Drivers who apply their brakes coming up the hill with the intention of stopping at the intersection find that the car not only comes to a halt, but slides backward down to the foot of the incline, or is unable, once stopped, to proceed on upward due to the exceedingly slippery condition of the road at this spot. The slightest covering of snow is sufficient to transform this corner into an icy slide, polished by the futile skidding of the wheels of car after car.

In most cases the only way a car without chains can cross Queen's Park Crescent by this road is to back down, wait for an opening and gather the necessary momentum going up the hill to cross the Crescent without stopping. Many students, in fact, disregard the (Continued on page 4)

VARSITY SECONDS ELIMINATED AS BRADFORD TAKES O.H.A. GROUP

ANNUAL ART EXHIBITION OPENS NEXT MONDAY

Work of Members Should Be At Warden's Office by Tomorrow Night

The exhibition of work by members of Hart House has become an established part of the Art activities of the House and always draws a large number of visitors to the Sketch Room. The first exhibition of this kind was held five years ago and the standard of the work shown has steadily improved.

This year the exhibition will open on Monday 17th February and continue till 1st March.

Any member of Hart House, whether undergraduate, graduate or faculty, may submit his work for exhibition as long as it is not technical, that is, purely architectural, anatomical, etc. All exhibits should be framed and if members have not frames available, they should see the Keeper of the Prints, F. D. Shannon, third year Medicine, who is almost always in the Sketch Room between 1:30 and 2 p.m. Hart House owns a number of frames and mats available to members for such an exhibition.

All exhibits should reach the Warden's office not later than 6 p.m. on Thursday 13th February. The hanging committee will consist of Mr. F. S. Haines, Curator of the Art Gallery and Professor H. Wasteneys.

CO-EDS ARE LACKING IN GYM FACILITIES

Great Demand for Gym Makes Conditions Unsatisfactory for All Concerned

COULD USE SIX MORE

Are university women interested in "keeping fit" by exercise?

"Yes, indeed they are," says Miss I. G. Coventry, physical director for women, to whom this question was put. "The handicap is, as ever, lack of gymnasium accommodation."

Miss Coventry went on to explain that fourteen separate classes of girls have to use one gymnasium during the week, before others, for whom physical training is not compulsory can be encouraged to take their exercise there. The room is not available after five o'clock, because basketball and baseball teams practice then, and in the evening the administration department makes use of it. "Oh, we could very conveniently make use of six gymnasiums," Miss Coventry said.

"At the present time, I have two classes of girls who are taking fencing voluntarily. Numbers of others play volleyball, basketball and badminton whenever they have the opportunity. Girls whom we have started on corrective exercises are quite enthusiastic about keeping them up," Miss Coventry concluded.

Miss B. Hamilton of the Social Service Department, said: "Girls are interested enough in out-door sports. Look at the crowds at the skating rink every night. But I don't think any of them would make a voluntary effort to take up folk-dancing, for instance, in a room already so crowded that their elbows are constantly jostled and their toes stepped on."

Students at Barnard College for Women agree with Dean Virginia Gildersleeve of that institution that prohibition is a failure.

Bradford Registers 4-2 Victory Taking Second Game of Round

MCCARTNEY FEATURES

Blues Hold Opponents Scoreless in Final Stages of Game

Bradford intermediates carried off their O.H.A. group championship last night when they defeated Varsity seconds 2 to 1 at the local arena. The final score on the round was 4 to 2, Bradford having won the first game by 2 goals to 1.

Last night's game provided some interesting hockey and was featured by a crowd of enthusiastic Bradford rooters. The visitors had a clear edge on the play in all but the last ten minutes when the Blue and White, three goals down on the round, opened up a desperate attack.

Evans opened the scoring after thirteen minutes of play in the first period when he walked right on McCartney and flipped the puck over the Blue goalie, who was down on the ice. Bradford presented a close-packed, five-man defence and stopped most of the U. of T. attacks at the blue line.

Play was even for the first half of the next period and both net minders had some close calls. Evans scored his second counter for the visitors, grabbing a loose puck after Turan had carried it through the defence and shooting from close in. The goal came after 17 minutes of fast going.

Varsity awakened up somewhat in the last stanza, but still showed lack of finish around the nets. Turan saved what looked like a sure goal for Blue when he threw his stick after Clute was right through. Varsity finally scored when Clute and Ferguson (Continued on page 4)

SEES IMPROVEMENT IN RADIO RECEPTION

Professor Reads Paper Before Royal Astronomical Society

SOLAR SYSTEMS FEW

"Radio reception should improve during the next few months," stated Professor W. E. Harper of Victoria, B.C., in a paper read before the meeting of the Royal Astronomical Society last night. The prediction was based on the fact that radio reception is poorest when the sun spots are most active.

Professor Harper was unable to be present at the meeting in person, but his paper was read by Dr. R. K. Young, Professor of Astronomy. The paper presented an outline of the progress in astronomy during the past year.

The discovery of four new comets was reported. It is believed that comets do not belong to our solar system; evidence shows them to have been captured by it about a million years ago.

It was also shown that if the collision theory holds, there are very few solar systems like our own, a belief contrary to popular opinion. It has also been conclusively proved by experiments with infra red and ultra violet rays that no lunar atmosphere exists.

At the conclusion of the reading Dr. Young and Mr. Leach performed a number of interesting experiments with the wave motion and electron theories. Refreshments were served.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Usher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Campus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: G. J. Northrup

Assistant: L. H. Leslie

THE VARSITY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5th, 1930

BIGGER AND . . . ?

During the recent months there has been an increasing amount of space devoted by the popular magazines to the questions of college education, and a very familiar sight is the acknowledgement "by an ex-Dean" or "by an old student" under a heading which reads "Do our colleges fail to educate"? or perhaps, "What of our younger generation"? Some of these reflections have been noted in the news columns of this paper in times past, and in general, it will have been observed that while some of these essays are profound, the majority are shallow.

Taken by themselves, these articles can very well be disregarded, for, as Mark Twain observed with respect to the weather, people talk about it a lot, but nobody ever seems to do anything. On the other hand, however, such probings into colleges and their systems as we have mentioned can be regarded seriously as a symptom and an indication of the increasing interest in college life on the part of those who have little or no actual experience with it.

A college education, one might note, is becoming in the public estimation what a high school matriculation and the essentials of arithmetic and writing and reading were twenty-five and fifty years ago respectively. And advanced as Canada may seem in this respect, we have yet a long, long way to go.

Investigation would show at the University of Toronto that a very small percentage of those now attending lectures are the children of a university graduate, let alone children with both parents Bachelors of Arts or of some Science. When, in the future, as is inevitable, we find that the large percentage of students come from homes with a clear understanding of what college is like, and what it can do and cannot do, the university atmosphere will undergo a decided clarification.

We are, then, in for great changes. Our universities will become larger and more important. Those in this country who are inclined to sniff at colleges, at college students and college professors, will be well advised to look about them and take out a little insurance. The expansion in numbers will largely be among the faculties which teach some art of doing, while among the arts of pure science and thinking, the expansion will be rather upward and towards the development of that quiet and competent atmosphere which now distinguishes those universities where the students are the children, even the descendants, of graduates.

In time, Canada will have her Oxford and her Harvard, at the same time she will have her institution of fifteen thousand students with courses in salesmanship, short story writing and hog-calling.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Professor Urwick

On Examinations

Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:
Is it too late to offer some comment upon your very interesting editorial of a quite recent date concerning the examination system?

I agree, of course, that our method of testing students is imperfect. But do you not overlook one important point? Examinations are not only a test of a student's knowledge; they also test his ability to use and apply his knowledge. Now it is true that some very good students make a poor showing in examinations. They are nervous; they get cold feet before the examination begins; they fail to do themselves justice. But, after all, can we call a man quite first class unless he can meet the test of bringing his knowledge to bear effectively—at short notice, at a critical moment, in difficult circumstances? That is the test of efficiency in life; should a student go out from the university with a first class label if he fails in this test? I remember a classic example many years ago at Oxford. One of the most brilliant Balliol scholars was placed only in the second class in his finals. The Master of Balliol, Jewett, upbraided the examiners—he is said to have told them that the man knew more than they did—and promptly appointed the unsuccessful student to a Balliol Fellowship. But the examiners were certainly not quite wrong. The man was really a scholar, but in many ways an ineffective one. He could never have qualified for the position of Master of Balliol; and the novelist, Mrs. Humphrey Ward, showed her acumen by taking him as her model for the most tragic figure in her once famous novel, Robert Elsmere.

You see, an examination is—slightly, I think—a test of something more than mere knowledge. And a good test, if fairly conducted. If a man has worked at his subject and can use his knowledge readily and well, then, (Continued on page 4)

Art and Drama

Sketch Room

The Sketch Room certainly presents a most impressive appearance at the present time. Sculpture by Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Hahn, and truly most interesting sculpture, is on view. Symbolism is the prevailing note, and naturally too, for the medium employed there restricts in a manner the use of a great number of figures such as is possible in painting.

A gigantic bit of statuary by Mr. Hahn called "Music", but which might more aptly be called "The Power of Music", shows a massive, stately and almost divine figure of a man with a lyre symbolical of music. The massiveness is emphasized by a background of clouds. Below are shown two figures overcome by the magic strains and another apparently striving to free himself from the spell which the music has cast over him.

Two interesting attitudes toward Man and Woman are reflected in two distinctive bits of modelling by both artists. Mrs. Hahn emphasizes the greater religious and emotional susceptibilities of Woman and portrays her as the comforter of Man in misfortune. Mr. Hahn's interpretation is the conventional one—Man's protective and Woman's trusting attitude. The individual treatment is extremely interesting. While Mr. Hahn is interested solely in the expression of the symbolism, Mrs. Hahn has added line and rhythm to make a purely decorative statue.

"Fate", a very impressive bit of bronze, is powerfully suggestive, but the suggestion is a trifle vague.

"A Woman Reading", is quite a realistic piece of modelling. There is a suspicion, however, that the woman is not the type that would be interested in books. She is the very image of "Punch's" original.

"War's Toll", by Mrs. Hahn, is most significant in its symbolism. Beauty of line and rhythm are not surpassed by the modelling here. Past experience impresses us with the stark reality of this picture. The greedy claw of the monster representative of war swallowing up the worlds manhood is effectually rendered.

"A Dead Tree", by Mrs. Hahn, regarded from its human and emotional aspect, is very appealing.

"Contemplation", a rather good piece of craftsmanship, but rather conventional and consequently not very absorbing.

"Island", in brass by Mrs. Hahn, is a harmony of rhythm. A strikingly Lismor-like tree growing out of glacier-smoothed rocks.

"Cedars", by the same artist, represents another type of treatment. Here the rhythm is attained by a repetition of form not by sympathy as in "Island".

The portraits of Indians have a historical and physiological interest. All show some exceptionally fine modelling, the full figure of "Thunder Cloud" especially.

Portraits as a rule are rarely interesting unless the model is a striking character. "Elizabeth Wood", by Mrs. Hahn is an exception. The features are beautifully moulded.

"Fountain Figure" is a very happy conception and for simple beauty it is unexcelled. A young mermaid is enjoying very much the antics of a slippery little fish trying to wriggle out of her grasp. It is a ray of sunshine in a darkened room. J. M. F.

CHAMPUS CAT

The pun of the month comes from Acta Victoriana. Query—Who wrote Liebestraum? Answer—I haven't the Liszt idea.

C—C

Not to be outdone, we shall certainly put that on our Liszt.

C—C

Now that the social season is at its height—way, way up, in fact—we wonder that someone does not start an agitation for the emancipation of men. The necessity of this movement will be realized by anyone who has ever worn a men's dress shirt. If one wears the model into which one climbs via the rear, there is the arm-spraining procedure of buttoning it; on the other hand, the front entrance model requires the insertion of studs, an operation which would tax the elasticity of Houdini and the patience of a Stoic.

C—C

And then five hours or so wondering when one is going to trip over the white expanse beneath one's chin.

C—C

In spite of the fact that the necessity of secrecy was carefully impressed upon the representatives of "The Varsity", downtown papers carried news of the decision which the Council of the Faculty of Arts reached concerning the Pass Course. If this is a joke on "The Varsity", it strikes us as rather a course type of humor.

Judging by the number of discussions featured lately in the columns of this paper, a profitable business might be that of manufacturing round tables.

C—C

We are told that the yo-yo is a favourite tedium-whiler with the American students. Yo-yo and a bottle of rum, we therefore deduce, is the formula for a good time.

Aunt Fanny.

Tom Stone, Canadian artist, whose works are at present on exhibit in the Grange Kraft Shop, was the guest of honour at this week's tea given by Miss D. Kilpatrick, Dean of U. C. Women, at the Union. There was a large turnout to meet the guest and become acquainted with each other.

PROF. EDGAR'S BROTHER DIES; PROMINENT K.C.

Professor Pelham Edgar of the English department of Victoria College, has suffered a bereavement in the loss of his brother, James T. Edgar, K.C., whose funeral was held yesterday. The late Mr. Edgar was Professor Edgar's eldest brother, and was one of the most prominent members of Toronto's legal profession. Their father was the late Sir James Edgar, K.C.M.G., Q.C., Speaker of the House of Commons in the first Laurier administration. Professor Edgar's brother had served in the Riel Rebellion of 1885 under Colonel Otter.

"LITERATURE and MORALS"

Lecture by
JOHN ERSKINE
Author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy", Professor of English, Columbia University.
Poet—Dramatist—Pianist
Friday, 7th Feb. at 8.15 p.m.
Hygeia House, Elm St.
Tickets $1.00 at S.A.C. Office, Hart House

FOUND

A five dollar bill. Write to K. Evans, 144 Springhurst Ave., City.

FOR SALE

Portable Typewriter. German make. Phone Hyland 5943.

STUDENTS WANTED

to make collections. Part time. Commission basis. Apply Thursday, Room 1115, Excelsior Life Bldg.

STUDENT RATE 8 Lessons $5.00

This rate is offered to students only. Applicants must present registration card.
Jack Slater's orchestra at Thursday advanced classes. Dancing till midnight.
Beginners' class Tuesday 8.30. Private lessons by appointment.

DACOSTA

Studio of Dancing
Columbus Hall RA. 8650

A Colorful Trio . . .

Ensembles of rayon. These very fine three-piece pyjama sets include pyjamas and lounging coat, with unusually clever trimmings and combination of colour. Regularly $5.98, $6.98 and $7.98. Special at ..... $3.98

Tune in Every Wednesday, 7 p.m., C.F.C.A. Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

153 Yonge Street At Richmond St. AD. 8898
788 Yonge Street Next door to Uptown Theatre KL. 3800
2496 Yonge Street Close to Capital Theatre HU. 4780
OPEN EVENINGS

THE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE MAGAZINE

announces that a prize of TEN DOLLARS will be given for the best short story (not exceeding 1500 words) written by a student of University College for the next issue of the magazine. The editors may withhold the award if there is no contribution of sufficient merit.

Other contributions will be welcomed, in verse, or critical and imaginative prose. Discussions of current interests are especially acceptable.

All contributions must be sent to the Editor, at the office of the U.C. Lit. before February 18th.

PUBLIC LECTURES

WEST HALL,
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
THURSDAYS at 5 p.m.

Feb. 6—William James
Mrs. W. A. Kirkwood

Feb. 13—Proust.....L. A. MacKay

ADMISSION FREE

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and
HOODS

HARCOURT & SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

WALL STREET

with RALPH INCE and AILEEN PRINGLE

A drama of love and high finance

On the Stage—

Vaudeville's Wise-Cracking Bumpkin

HARRY J. CONLEY

"Stick as Ever"

5 R.K.O. Acts Last Show 9 p.m.

THE ARTS HIPPODROME

FREEMANS-Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date style and best quality.

Rates same as usual $2.00 only

FREEMAN DRESS EXCHANGE

871 YONGE STREET KI. 3270

BRADFORD ELIMINATES VARSITY IN INTERMEDIATE O.H.A. PLAYOFFS

SPEAKING OF SPORT

To-night the Senior Assault preliminaries will be run off at Hart House. To-morrow night the finals will be held. Everyone who can possibly make both nights' bouts, is urged to be on hand. In the 135 lb. class boxing and wrestling in particular there are many good men and the elimination bouts will show plenty of action.

Bradford eliminated Varsity intermediates from the O.H.A. race when they handed the Blues a 2-1 defeat here last night and by virtue of a victory by the same score in Bradford Saturday, took the round 4-2. The men from up Yonge Street deserved the decision. The red-shirted sextet presenting a stubborn defence and a good goalkeeper held out Varsity until the last six minutes in the third period when Captain Leake's crew managed to dent the net for a single tally.

University College showed that it still retains a lot of its pristine vigour by knocking off the Interfaculty Swimming Meet title at Hart House last night. The Red and White made quite a splash amassing 26 points to the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Sciences' 18. Dents were third, Vic fourth and Meds last.

McGill basketball five play Varsity here Friday night in the first local intercollegiate game. Varsity and McGill have both defeated Western in their first game. Friday's encounter will put one team in first place.

The West Toronto junior O.H.A. team won their group last night to enter the O.H.A. playoffs. Right now the west-end six look to be the strongest junior outfit in this part of the province. If the Junctionites and the Big Four winners should hook up, it should be a great pair of games.

Betty Carter and Margot Thompson, both freshies at St. Hilda's, have been moved up to the intercollegiate hockey team. Both girls had been counted on for the Saints in the interfaculty league, but they have been doing very good work with the Varsity team and there is every indication that they are now permanent members of the senior squad. Incidentally both Miss Carter and Miss Thompson played basketball for St. Hilda's in the interfaculty league.

FORESTRY DEFEATS KNOX IN INTERFACULTY GAME

Forestry's Superior Team Play Accounts for Top-Heavy Score

Forestry defeated Knox College yesterday in a one-sided game of interfaculty basketball by the score of 26-7. Forestry's playing was superior to that of their opponents, who were new at the game. At half time the score was 12-5 and in the second period fourteen points were piled up by the Foresters, while Knox only registered a single basket.

For Forestry, Grainger, Leslie and Wiley worked well together. The best player for Knox was Anderson, who got six of his team's seven points.

Forestry—Simpson, Start, Grainger, Raeburn, Leslie, Gray, Townsend, Wiley.

Knox—I. Davidson, T. Anderson, D. Davidson, Perry, Glen, Goforth, Coleman, Robbie.

LONE SCORER WINS FOR VIC IN WOMEN'S HOCKEY

Fast Skating by Dot Starr Scoring Single Goal for U. C.

U.C. junior women's hockey team dropped their second game when Vic I took them into camp by a score of 2-1. Rox Vanstone stood out for Vic, scoring both their goals. She has been playing defence, and was moved up to centre for this game. Dot Starr was best for U.C. and she scored their lone tally on a nice solo effort. She was by far the fastest skater on either team and really earned another score, but Ev Craw, goal, Molly Jarrett, Eunice Noble, defence; Rox Vanstone, centre; Ev Watson, Billy Fowler, wings; alternates, Isabel McKillop, Billy Jansen, Mary Thom. U.C. I—Helen Pirie, goal; Grace Beatty, Helen Gillies, defence; Dot Starr, centre; Dorothy Porter, Helen McKibbin, wings; Betty Govan, sub. eral lovely saves

U.C. TAKES TROPHY IN SWIMMING MEET

In Doubt Till Final Event but Success Is Insured by Relay Win

S.P.S. CAME SECOND

University College captured the FitzGerald Trophy last night at the annual interfaculty swimming meet at Hart House by topping the list with a final score of 26 points. School of Practical Science was second with 18 points, thus relinquishing the Cup they held last year to U.C.

The final score was in doubt until the relay, the last event on the card, was run off. U.C., by winning the 5 points, brought their score from 21 to 26. The final scores for the different faculties were, U.C. 26, S.P.S. 18, Dents 13, Vic 8, Meds 3.

Last year's 100 yard breast stroke was changed to a 200 yard breast stroke, and was won by E. Sinclair of Dents in 3 minutes and 13.5 secs.

RESULTS

50 yards free style—1, P. Tedman, U.C.; 2, M. Henderson, U.C.; 3, J. Pierdon, S.P.S. Time, 26 2-5.

200 yards free style—1, T. Marsh, Dents; 2, G. Glass, Vic; 3, L. Boddy, U.C. Time, 2:24.

Fancy diving—1, B. Nevitt, S.P.S.; 2, D. Gunn, Meds; 3, M. Henderson, U.C.

100 yards back stroke—1, L. Boddy, U.C.; 2, J. Towers, S.P.S.; 3, S. Smith, U.C. Time, 1:18 4-5.

100 yards free style—1, J. Pierdon, S.P.S.; 2, P. Tedman, U.C.; 3, J. Craig, S.P.S. Time, 1:03 2-5.

200 yards breast stroke—1, E. Sinclair, Dents; 2, E. Withrow, S.P.S.; 3, H. McFee, U.C. Time, 3:01 3-5.

440 yards free style—1, G. Glass, Vic; 2, T. Marsh, Dents; 3, J. Towers, S.P.S. Time, 6:03.

200 yards race—1, U.C.; 2, S.P.S.; 3, Dents. Time, 1:53 3-5.

In individual score, Tedman of U.C.; Marsh, Dents; Glass of Vic, all scored 8 points.

Individual swimming championship of the university, represented by the Durnan Trophy, will be decided on the results of competitions next week.

Co-eds may not converse with men at the University of Detroit while on the campus.

SENIOR ASSAULT OPENS TO-NIGHT

Seventy-five Competitors Will Furnish Thrills and Action in Mammoth Assault

GUELPH REPRESENTED

The semi-finals of the Senior Assault will be held to-night in the big gym at Hart House at 7.45 p.m. Guelph will be represented by a man-eating squad which hopes to carry off the interfaculty title. With seventy-five competitors, this will be a mammoth assault that should furnish a night of thrills and action.

Bain of Trinity, the slashing new find in the heavyweight class, will be unable to compete owing to injuries nor will Mervynne, the Californian giant, be able to crush any opponents since he is not in the running owing to a dislocated elbow. These men, as well as McKinney, who has a bad knee, will all be given a chance to make the team next week.

The fencing will be held in the fencing room on Thursday at 5 p.m. and the sixteen exciting final struggles will be held Thursday night. To-day's draw:—

BOXING

118 lbs.—Huestis, Vic, vs. Henu or Cruickshank, O.A.C.; Rapsey, of Trinity, (bye).

135 lbs.—Scott or Morris, O.A.C., vs. Keshin, Meds; Heddle, Trin. vs. Stevens, S.P.S.; Walsh (bye).

147 lbs.—Wall, S.P.S., vs. Godfrey, O.A.C.; McLennan, Meds. (bye).

175 lbs.—McNutt, Forestry, vs. Reynolds, O.A.C.; Stewart, Trin. vs. Eaton, S.P.S.

WRESTLING

112 lbs.—Kinnear, U.C. vs. Buckingham, O.A.C.; Brownlee, S.P.S., bye.

118 lbs.—Hilliard, Dents, vs. Wighton, O.A.C.; Barrow, Trin, bye.

123 lbs.—Harkness, Meds, vs. Wilson or Archibald, O.A.C.; Robertson, Meds, vs. Bannister, S.P.S.

134 lbs.—Price, S.P.S. vs. Watt, Grad Studies; Mueller, Grad Studies vs. La Pointe or Dunlop, O.A.C.; Walker, U.C. vs. Jenner, Grad Studies.

145 lbs.—Taylor, S.P.S. vs. Campbell, Dents; Walker, U.C. vs. Dempsey, or La Pointe, O.A.C.

158 lbs.—Smith, S.P.S. vs. Chesepew or Watt, O.A.C.; Cameron, Meds, vs. Mason, Dents.

RUGBY SCHEDULE

The C.I.A.U. has drawn up the senior intercollegiate rugby schedule for 1930. The season begins on October 11th with the Red and White in the opening ceremonies with Varsity, and ends November 15th.

Oct. 11 McGill at Toronto.
Queen's at Western
18 Queen's at McGill
Western at Toronto
25 Toronto at Queen's McGill at Western
Nov. 1 Toronto at McGill
Western at Queen's
8 Queen's at Toronto
Western at McGill
15 McGill at Queen's Toronto at Western

DENTS DEFEAT MEDS IN HOCKEY SERIES

Fast and Clean Game Through-out: Minimum of Penalties Dealt Out

Dents defeated Meds last night on the west cushion two to one in the interfaculty hockey series. The game was fast and clean throughout and a minimum of penalties was dealt out.

Both teams entered into the spirit of the contest and the game was played only as Meds and Dents can play it. There was no score in the first stanza but in the second Muchmore for the Dents scored when he got the puck at centre ice and worked through for a goal. In the third Fleming scored when he was fed a pass by Walden. Dewar was the best player for Meds.

Dents—Goal, Connors; defence, Dewar, Henry; forwards, Mahaffey, Heron, Walden. Subs, Fleming, Muchmore.

O'Connor, Lowrie. Subs, Thompson, Meds—Goal, Bennett; defence, Nodwell, R. Williams; forwards, Cock, Perras.

There are only 50 co-eds attending the University of Detroit.

University Travel Club

(Sixth Year)

"He who from travel would bring home knowledge must take knowledge with him."—Dr. Johnson.

The Club's "Special European Travel-Study Tours" for 1930 sail June 20th, June 27th and July 4th.

Scotland, England, Holland, Belgium and France

FIVE COUNTRIES - $416 (All expenses)

Special extension to the Passion Play at Oberammergau—conducted by Dr. A. H. Young, Professor of German, Trinity College.

Members of the staff invite you to take advantage of the Club's excellent and reliable fund of knowledge and experience pertaining to travel.

Educational Directors:—Professor A. H. Young, M.A., D.C.L.

Professor E. A. Dale, M.A., Ox. Miss Laila Scott, M.A.

For further information apply to:—WALTER H. BILBROUGE, Assistant Secretary, 508 McKinnon Bldg, Adelaide 9548 or 20 Inglewood Drive, Hyland 5364.

Rowing Club Elections

The Rowing Club elections will be held in the Lecture Room at 5 o'clock on Friday, February 14. Nominations must be in the Athletic Office not later than February 7th. There will be a lecture with motion pictures, by Professor London in the Lecture Room on February 5th at 5 o'clock. All those interested in rowing are requested to attend.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

359 College St. Trinity 5987

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

THE SIGN OF THE LANTERN

Open Sundays

5 WILCOCKS STREET

Breakfast, Luncheon, Afternoon Tea, Dinner

Sandwich Shop—open 7.30 a.m. to 11.30 p.m.

KINGSDALE 2259

Bridge Parties

Fraternity Dinners

"... but I must remark upon the place travel occupies in the education of the modern world."—Sir Robert A. Falconer.

IT is now possible for almost every student to complete his or her education by travel.

$424.<sup>25</sup> and 43 Days

will enable you to see

SCOTLAND - HOLLAND

ENGLAND - BELGIUM

FRANCE

on the Canadian University Students' Tour arranged and directed by the N.F.C.U.S.

OCEAN CROSSING via CANADIAN PACIFIC

APPLY S.A.C. OFFICE, HART HOUSE TR. 5036 For Further Information A. GORDON BURNS, Travel Secy.

Northwestern University is to have a new one million dollar library.

Registration in the Ohio State College at Columbus reached 8680 for the winter quarter.

TUXEDOS AT FREEMAN'S 571 Yonge Street, are latest models.

Harkness and McKinney

Intercollegiate mat men, who will display their wares in the Senior Assault.

UPRECHT STARRING IN BDX AS U.C. WINS FRDM DENTS

Sr. U.C. turned in an almost perfect game in the interfaculty baseball schedule when they overwhelmed Jr. Dents by the score of 17 to 2. Uprecht, former Oke junior star, gave a wonderful exhibition in the box, striking out the first nine men to face him. A walk, one hit, and three more strike outs made up Dents' remaining efforts.

Sr. U.C. has a well balanced team, which hit Brett, Dents' slab artist, freely. They look hard to beat for the title.

Sr. U.C.—Caldecott, Beauregard,

Wilson, Uprecht, Collingwood, Holton, Davies, MacCallum. Jr. Dents—Gardner, Brett, Diamond, Wood, Orton, Harrington, McNeil, Nursery.

On to Murray's ye Men of Varsity!

Uptown, Downtown, Eastside, Westside—wherever sports, shows or just dates take Varsity men out o' nights, there is a MURRAY SANDWICH SHOP where you'll find some of "the boys" gathered for a late snack, chatting over their coffee and cigs—remember, after the first cup, the coffee is "on the house".

MURRAY'S

770 Yonge St., next Uptown Metropolitan Bldg. Basement 62 Front St. W., next Royal York 12 Queen St. East

Boxing - Fencing - Wrestling
HART HOUSE GYMNASIUM
ADMISSION 25c
TO-NIGHT--7.30 p.m.

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 5
5.15—Prof. C. A. Chant on "Does Science Abolish God?" in the music room, Hart House. All men students cordially invited.

8.00 p.m.—U.C. 3T2 class party in Women's Union. Admission 75c or by year card.

THURSDAY, FEB. 6
7.30 p.m.—Thursday discussion group will meet at Women's Union, 79 St. George St.
8.00 p.m.—U.C. 3T3 class dance will be held at the Women's Union. Bring your year card.

FRIDAY, FEB. 7
9 p.m.—Foresters' At-Home, Hart House.

TUESDAY, FEB. 11
6.45—Annual athletic at-home of Victoria College. Dinner at Burwash Hall. Dancing at Wymilwood.
8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of Trinity College Science Club in Trinity College Library. Mr. R. K. Young will speak on Modern Astronomy. Refreshments and dancing. Everybody welcome.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 12
9 p.m.—Annual Dental At-Home at the Royal York Hotel. Subscription $5.00.

FRIDAY, FEB. 14
8.30 p.m.—Malvern ex-pupils at-home to be held at the Collegiate Auditorium.

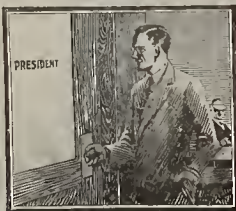

FRIDAY, FEB. 21
9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22
8.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26
9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

Dinner guests at the Women's Union last evening were Lady Falconer, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace, Dr. Chamberlain, Professor Emeritus of the Botanical Department and of the University of Chicago, and the members of the executive of the University Arts Women's Club, with their husbands, who are professors of arts subjects in the University of Toronto, but not affiliated with any college.

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $6.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1866

In the Days to Come

WHAT part will you take in business life five, ten, fifteen years from now? Will you be the head of a business, or will you be content to drift along with the tide?

The man with vision—the man who realizes the possibilities of the future and determines to profit by them—will lay the foundation of his future capital out of his present earnings.

MAKE YOUR BANK BOOK
MARK YOUR PROGRESS

The Royal Bank of Canada

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 2)

when he is faced with ten or twelve fair questions of which he need only answer a proportion (say half or two-thirds), he will almost certainly be able to show both his knowledge and his ability—if he can keep his head.

Your alternative is attractive, but I fear unsound. A deliberately composed thesis may be excellently done, and yet fail altogether to serve as an all-round test. Nowadays we tend to set great store on the thesis method. But it may be quite deceptive. Especially in the case of a clever student who, with little real knowledge, can work up a special case under ideal conditions.

If not examinations, then I fancy the only alternative is the old Chinese method. Shut up each candidate for a fortnight in a cell, and let him write out all he knows. The strain itself is some test of capacity; perhaps the strain upon the wretched examiners is an added advantage. But would our undergraduates welcome the change?

Yours, etc.,

G. J. Urwick.

Scooped

Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:
In reading your hallowed pages this morning, I was overjoyed and yet, rather amazed to discover that, at such a late date, your editorial staff has taken cognizance of the "Yo-Yo" craze.

Marvellous are the powers of observation possessed by the "Varsity" reporters. Wonderful their acumen and respective noses for news. And yet this infallible instinct was absent from them during the early months of the fall term. For did not a "Yo-Yo" club be organized with great fanfare, live a mushroom existence, and finally pass into the limbo of all forgotten crazes in this very residence upon which "The Varsity" and its staff keeps such a watchful and disapproving eye?

And further, sir, let it be known through the chaste pages of your correspondence column, that relics of the finger-torturing dad still haunt the rooms of this house—forgotten—wrapped in the dust of oblivion. O keen perspicacity of "The Varsity", O keen-nosed news-hounds, to tell us this delicious bit of news "just two months late".

In the interests of the press,
K. C. Coleman,
Trinity, 3T1.

Student Government

Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:
Recently there appeared in this column two rather severe criticisms that undergraduates did not get sufficient opportunity to express themselves in Hart House debates. The writers

Yo-Yo Proves a Teatime Topic As Conversation Waxes Tropic

By A. E. F. Allan

"Do you go in for yo-yoing, Mr. Schnitzelheimer?"

Your correspondent gazed with awe at the massive proportions of the great Alexander Gesundheit Gustav Adolph Schnitzelheimer, All-America football star, who sat opposite him at one of the little pink tables of the Old Oaken Bucket Tea Room on McCaul Street.

"Yo-yoing?" The incomparable Schnitzelheimer swished his tea contemplatively with one of the Bucket's immitable buns. "Well, I don't go in for it as a usual thing. But I always think there's nothing like a good, stiff glass of yo-yo when you feel low and your reflexes aren't functioning."

We blushed. "Perhaps—ah—you don't quite understand, Mr. Schnitzelheimer. 'Yo-yo' is a recent importation from your own country. It is—ah—it is a thing—er—on the end of a string."

The one and only Schnitzelheimer was delighted. He choked gleefully, sending a delicate spray of orange pekoe across the table.

"Hol Ho!" he chorled. "Yo-yo! Of course how stupid of me! . . . A thing on the end of a string. Why, yes. You see them wherever you go. On the street—on the campus. I even saw them on the train when I was coming up here. Yes, yo-yo is a wonderful institution. I'm all for it. If you are studying and get tired, all you have to do is to get up and yo-yo for a while for relaxation. . . . Hehl hehl! On the end of a string! Great stuff! . . ."

The renowned Alexander Gesundheit Gustav Adolph picked up a pretzel and plunged it into his tea-cup. "Yes," he said, "it's a little hard to get the proper co-operation sometimes. But, still, as the poet so nicely has it, 'Some women were born to be made!'"

Somewhat bewildered, we seized a muffin and fell to with that verve, that joie de vivre, that je ne sais quoi, that honi soit qui mal y pense which has always been characteristic of our family.

After a moment of silence, broken only by the tinkle of tea as it rushed past the Schnitzelheimer larynx, we veered off with: "And what do you think of the long dresses, Mr. Schnitzelheimer?"

"Well, I wouldn't wear them myself," he confided, "but I can see them, all right. I admit, they cover a multitude of sins. But you will agree that they do get tangled up with the furniture and things. Still, I suppose that is the price we must pay. . . . And they'll do one good thing, anyway. . . ."

"What's that, Mr. Schnitzelheimer?" "They'll make the first five rows at a musical show mean something more than just another way to spend three dollars."

A series of green and blue bubbles was rising from the bottom of the All-America's tea-cup where the crumbling pretzel lay.

We said a little prayer to the god of discretion.

"Hod do you like Intolerance, Mr. Schnitzelheimer?" we ventured.

"Don't know yet," he boomed from the midst of a cream puff. "Gimme time. . . . But tell me, how's the yo-yoing?"

BULLETIN BOARD

VICTORIA MEN

Hart House Musicals will be held on Sunday, Feb. 9. Lists will be open in the college from 1.30 to 2.00 p.m. on Wednesday.

INTERCOLLEGIATE POLO

A practice will be held to-night at 7.30 in the Hart House pool for all members of the water polo squad. Tickets for the game against M.A. A.A., February 15th, will be available Thursday of this week.

OARSMEN ATTENTION

Professor London will give an address with moving pictures to all men interested in rowing in the Lecture Room, Hart House, at 5 p.m., Wednesday, Feb. 5th. Men who have been turning out on the machines should all be present.

JUNIOR HOCKEY

Practice Wednesday at 1 o'clock and Thursday at 1.30.

were quite pointed and earnest in their zeal for undergraduate privileges. As the Editor has pointed out, at the debates where undergraduates were encouraged to speak (McGill and N.F. C.U.S.) those individuals were significantly absent.

It seems that there are certain people whose regard for the rights and privileges of undergraduates as a whole, is only stirred when their own particular desires are most unfortunately curbed, or their self-conceived importance fails to receive recognized expression. A similar type of mind emerges from oblivion at times of great crises in Student Government.

It is nearly always difficult to get a quorum for regular meetings of student government. The same group of individuals usually compose the quorum each time. This same group waste their time to attend meetings, accept the responsibility for what is transacted, do the necessary work and worrying, and things go smoothly. But let something occur that does not exactly meet the approval of the wise and retiring absentees! Then they rise in all their offended dignity, in all the valour of righteous indignation, to defend the rights, privileges and democratic liberty of those whom they represent—on occasions.

Now, Mr. Editor, my only point is this: if those who profess to be so interested in student privileges and rights, would manifest their zeal by more frequent presence at, and more active participation in, the actual meetings and responsibilities of the bodies concerned, mistakes and crises might be more often avoided. If the work and responsibility were not so frequently left to a few, it is quite probable that trouble would be prevented rather than regretted.

If the rights of representative student government are so important, let them be consistently exercised; if not, let us admit it and abolish them.

Respectfully yours,
Chas. W. Leslie.

Editorial Note—Mr. Leslie must understand that in all democratic governments those who carry on the work are never noticed until they make a mistake. The public is then their severest critic. The people always gives its representatives a good deal of rope until they blunder. Then it descends upon them with all the justifiable fury that an aroused intelligent public can command.

The University of Minnesota has taken steps towards the organization of an association of university dads.

A new library building costing $200,000 is to be built at Utah State Agricultural College.

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

SOLID
BLACK LEATHER

FIBRE
BACK, STEEL
HINGES

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

Kl. 6738

528 BLOOR ST. W.

PROFESSOR'S OPINION

EXTENDS FAVORITISM

(Continued from page 1)

they go out into the world with heads so swollen and so empty that most of them never recover. These boy orators, as a class, make poor students as most educational authorities will agree. These are some of the statements contained in the article.

"I have not connected the incidents closely enough to speak from wide experience," continued Professor Auger, "but we have at present four students at the college who have taken part in oratorical work. Although they may not head their class, yet they are outstanding students. They appear to look at things with a broader point of view. Coming in contact with people's opinions has given them a wider outlook than the average student whose contact has been limited."

"Do you think the publicity received by such contests as 'The Star' held would have a bad effect?" the professor was asked.

"There is a great danger here. However, if a boy can withstand the publicity he's strengthening his character in doing so, and gaining untold experience which will stand him in good stead in later years."

"Boy Parliaments get away from the selfish ideas of modern politics where the leader of the party in power does all the legislating," explained Mr. E. Lautenslager, prominent orator and debater of Victoria College. "Many of the most prominent members make no speeches on the floor of the house, but do their work quietly at home." He wondered if they considered Sir William Hearst and Hon. Vincent Massey windbags of the provincial capitol.

Mr. F. Hotson, winner of the first "Star" contest, was very hesitant in commenting upon the article.

"We don't necessarily model ourselves after the windbags, but the average intelligent young man could use his own judgment," he asserted.

LIGHT HALTS DRIVERS

AT EASTERN ENTRANCE

(Continued from page 1)

exact letter of the law in this case and drive up the hill and past the stop sign without doing any more than eyeing the southbound traffic for an opening.

According to several students, there is little necessity for a stop sign being placed at such a point in any case. The visibility is good from any direction, it was pointed out, and the traffic on that side of Queen's Park Crescent only assumes proportions comparable to that of other stop streets, at the zero hour rush in the morning. Furthermore, it is apparent that a one-way street such as Queen's Crescent does not require the protection of stop signs to the same extent as streets carrying double lines of traffic, especially at this spot, where the sudden incline of St. Albans up to the Crescent makes it both dangerous and inconvenient to motorists in cold weather. If the signs were removed this danger would be decreased insofar as southbound traffic would anticipate incoming cars from the university grounds and be able, except during the rush hour, to make allowance for them.

G. L. English, C. and F., declared to "The Varsity" that the establishment of such a regulation was "an insult to anyone's intelligence. This morning," stated English, "I slipped down that hill four times and finally

RENT A
TUXEDO
$2.00
STUDENTS
PRICE ONLY
NEW SUITS
LATEST STYLE
TELEPHONE
Trinity 8218

Mallabar
COSTUMER
450-452 SPADINA AVE
at College St.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

DANCING LESSONS

REDUCED RATES

By special request Mr. Walford will continue these low rates during Jan., Feb., and March. Private lessons the only way to learn successfully.

Strictly Private - 6 for $5.00

Semi Private - 6 for $4.00

(Two pupils taking same lesson)

Class Lessons - 6 for $6.00

HARRY WALFORD—KI. 4882

Address—66 WELLESLEY ST.

Why invest in a new suit, rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

BRADFORD BEATS VARSITY

IN 4-2 VICTORY

(Continued from page 1)

rushed, the latter taking the pass and making no mistake with his shot.

The game ended with the Blue and White boring in desperately in attempts to score.

McCartney's work in goal featured for Varsity, while Leake, Statham and Clute worked hard all the way. The "T" defence looked weak at times and the forwards were slow in breaking.

Bradford played an aggressive game throughout, being particularly effective defensively. Harmon in goal, and Turan at centre, were best for the visitors, who were lacking in substitutes of the team playing the full 60 minutes.

Varsity—Goal, McCartney; defence, Graham and Smith; centre, Clute; wings, Leake and Statham; alternates, Ferguson, Percy, Conn.

Bradford—Goal, Harmon; defence, Stephenson and Evans; centre, Turan; wings, Waller, Belfry; alternates, Feaver, Crake, Cook.

had to back up with several other cars behind me and take the slope with a flying run. Anybody who obeys the law at that corner will probably be fined for obstructing traffic."

The VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6th, 1930

No. 77

EXAMINATIONS STILL ESSENTIAL ESTIMATE EFFICIENCY OF MIND

Both MacDonald and Robins
Uphold Urwick's Letter
Answering Editorial

FIND FLAW IN FEDERATION

Time Limits More Irksome to Low Intelligence
Than Thesis

On being interviewed yesterday afternoon two members of the staff stated that of examinations and the alternative, a deliberately composed thesis, they preferred the former. They coincided with the opinion expressed in Professor E. J. Urwick's letter which was printed in Wednesday's "Varsity", in reply to an editorial that appeared in this paper at a recent date. Professor J. F. MacDonald, University College, said: "I think I agree with the case that Professor Urwick has put forward for examinations. Intelligence tests are given a time limit, and after all, examinations are only intelligence tests. The British, and to some extent the Canadian, civil service, adopts a system of competitive examination. Given a fair examination and a sensible examiner they are to be preferred to the thesis." Speaking of the alternative, Professor MacDonald remarked: "To speak frankly, you can never be quite sure who has prepared the thesis."

Professor J. D. Robins, Victoria College, also agreed that examinations provided the better system. "Of course

(Continued on page 4)

TRADE COMMISSIONS REQUIRE CANDIDATES

Positions Open to Eight New Men Meeting Requirements of Examination

LANGUAGE EXAM NO BAR

Special to "The Varsity"
Ottawa, Feb. 5, 1930.—The Department of Trade and Commerce will conduct examinations shortly for the selection of eight new Junior Trade Commissioners. The successful candidates will undergo a year's training in Ottawa prior to being sent abroad as assistants to Canadian Trade Commissioners in foreign countries. Candidates must be over twenty-one and not more than thirty-one years of age. University training and a knowledge of French, German, Italian or Spanish are the qualifications, but failure to pass in the language examinations will not be held against the candidates.

Canada's expanding commercial interests have made it necessary to increase the Commercial Intelligence Service outside of Canada. Seven new Canadian trade offices were opened abroad in 1929, another is to be opened shortly in San Francisco, and several additional offices will be established before the end of this year. The position of Assistant Trade Commissioner calls for a knowledge of Canadian import and export problems, foreign exchange, transportation and general economics. Candidates should be unmarried, of good appearance and capable of dealing with problems as they are presented. Examinations will be both written and oral, four points being given for the former and six for the latter.

(Continued on page 4)

Literary Issue

Can you write a lyric, a sonnet, or a pastoral, or a diatribe in free verse? If so, you stand a good chance to win a $15 or a $10 prize in "The Varsity" literary issue. Or if you feel that you can pen a peppy short story and draw a pen or pencil sketch, you may be in line for cash awards in the contest.

All material must be handed in by a week from to-day, Thursday, Feb. 13, at 1 p.m. at the News Office in Hart House or the Women's Office in University College. All undergraduates are eligible. Contributions should be written on one side of the page only and preferably typed.

COMMITTEE BROOKS NO FOOD CRITICISM

Men's House Committee Resigns Following Vindication of Critical Letter

AUTHOR OFFENDS STANO

Special to "The Varsity"
Edmonton, Alta.—An unprecedented state of affairs was caused in the two non-sectarian men's residences of the University of Alberta, by the resignation last Tuesday evening of the Men's House Committee elected at the close of the session 1928-29. The members of the Committee were W. Nelson Gourlay, chairman, Earl Bowser, Murray Dumouchel and M. G. McCallum. Resignation followed immediately upon a general meeting of male residents, held in the dining room of the Athabasca directly after the evening meal, from 7 to 8 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 28. It marks the climax to a series of events dependent on a letter in "The Gateway" of January 16, appearing under the caption, "Last Sunday's Residence Supper", criticising in general the residence meals with particular reference to the one served the previous Sunday evening and signed "Vagabond".

Being unable to obtain the desired apology for statements made in the letter, the House Committee asked the author, Mr. A. W. Hobbs, to vacate his room. Before doing so, Mr. Hobbs requested a general meeting in which he might explain his position. The request was granted, and a motion was carried by a very substantial majority asking that Mr. Hobbs be not forced to leave residence. It was followed by a unanimous vote of confidence in the House Committee. Both motions the House Committee saw fit to disregard.

The first cause of the incidents culminating in the resignation of the House Committee last Tuesday was the evening meal served on Sunday, Jan. 12th. The food served was unfavourably regarded by the majority of the men who entered the Athabasca dining room to eat it.

It is reported that over half of them walked out, including members of the House Committee.

The letter which began the controversy was written that evening and set up in type by the order of the Editor of "The Gateway" the following day. The letter, as published the succeeding Thursday, was signed "Vagabond". It was in the nature of a general complaint, indefinitely and vaguely worded, and both praising and blaming.

*Registration in both the University of California at Berkeley and at the University of California at Los Angeles showed a decrease from last year.

ORGANIZER JAILED OF NATIONAL ORDER AND HELD FOR BAIL

Lived at King Edward Hotel Omitted to Pay Bill; Arrested for Fraud

"OR." HALL JUMPS BILL

Resented Students' Discussion
but His Warnings
Ineffectual

"Dr." Alfred Hall, well known "psychologist", was held in Toronto on a charge of jumping his hotel bill. He was arrested in his office in the Manning Chambers the other evening by Detective-Sergeant George Winters and Detective Thomas Whitlaw of detective headquarters.

"Dr." Hall is well known all over the province of Ontario, not only as a psychologist, but also as a lecturer and organizer. His organization won great notoriety during the last Hart House debate. He is the loyal gentleman of the National Order of Canada, who resented the growth of "University Children". Despite his warnings, they were allowed to discuss national matters freely.

He is alleged to have been living at the King Edward Hotel but deplores the fact that they sent him a bill of $220 for accommodation.

Lodged at Dundas Street West station, hall was first fixed by Crown Attorney Eric C. Armour at $2,000. Due to the efforts of Hall's counsel, the bail was reduced to $1,000. No bail has yet been supplied.

HART HOUSE ELECTIONS

The House Committee of Hart House, with the approval of the Board of Stewards, announces that the election of members to the Standing Committees of the House will take place on Wednesday, March 5th.

All male undergraduates are cautioned to present their Hart House Fee Receipt and registration card to the Hall Porter as soon as possible and have their membership stamp affixed since this card must be shown when voting.

Nasal Organs, Narrow Orators Broadened by Bottle, Bombast

With our customary insatiable curiosity we were tracking down the spoor of a prospective interviewee across the front campus. After several weary hours a moving speck caught our eye in the distance. Removing the speck and recovering our eyes we hastened on and soon drew abreast of Mr. Hotsenslaeger. We would have liked to have finished the drawing, as his profile has been acclaimed in the saloons of Europe, but he fled away; terror was written on his face with a Waterman's.

With great difficulty we closed in on him, and opened up. "What do you think . . . ?" we began. "I don't," he cried. "I have no statement to make." With a ferocious cry we launched ourselves on his back and broke an empty champagne bottle over his brow. As he grovelled in a snow drift we held a most interesting main-ate.

"What do you think of Boy Orators and Parliamentarians?" we demanded. His breathing came hoarse. "Nay, nay," he replied, "how can I answer. Do I model myself upon

MALE VISITORS LACK ROOFTREE

The League of Nations Club have had a number of offers of billets for the co-eds from other universities who will be in Toronto February 21st, 22nd and 23rd as delegates to the Model Assembly of the League. However, no invitations have as yet been received by the executive for about twenty men who will also be here as assembly delegates.

It is hoped that those who will be extending the hospitality of their residences to the visitors will get in touch with Miss Enid Walker, 55 Baby Point Rd., Ju. 7778, as soon as convenient.

ALUMNI FEDERATION HOLD THEATRE NIGHT

"Journey's End" Proves Aid to Fund for Student Employment

1600 SEATS AVAILABLE

"Journey's End" will be the play presented at the University of Toronto Alumni Federation Theatre Night on Monday evening, February 17. The same English company which appeared here in this popular production this fall will be at the Royal Alexandra again.

"The money is being raised to help maintain the Student Employment Bureau in its work next year," stated Miss Mona Lavelle, editorial assistant of the University of Toronto Monthly, when interviewed on the subject.

"The tickets are at the regular Royal Alexandra prices," continued Miss Lavelle, "and may be obtained from the Alumni Federation office at 43 St. George Street. Since the students are the ones who will benefit by the fund, we hope they will help us to sell the 1600 seats we have at our disposal."

Mrs. G. Howard Ferguson, Lady Falconer, Mrs. W. W. Evans and Mrs. Monk will be the patronesses for the evening.

CONCERT TICKETS ISSUED

Eighty single tickets, which will admit men only for the Sunday Evening Concert to be held in the Great Hall on Sunday next, 9th February, will be issued at the Hall Porter's desk at 1 p.m. to-day.

Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey

The plenipotentiary of Canada in Washington, who it is learned from a reliable source, has been appointed to take the place of the late Peter C. Larkin, former commissioner from Canada in England. Mr. Massey is a graduate of this university and is connected with many activities here, being one of the syndics of Hart House theatre.

GOD MUST BE MIND BEHIND THE UNIVERSE

Science and God Discussed
From the Viewpoint of Astronomy

STAR STUDY ADVANCES

"We can have no such organized constitution as our universe is without a great mind at its origin. And what can that mind be if not God?" This was the conclusion reached by Professor C. A. Chant in his lecture in the Music Room, Hart House, Wednesday afternoon on the subject, "Does Science Abolish God?"

He dealt with his subject from the viewpoint of astronomy. This branch of science is an ancient one as opposed to the newer sciences such as physics. But like them, vast developments have taken place in recent years.

Astronomy began with the earliest human community and its growth paved the way for these other sciences. There are two main reasons for its development. The first is that the ancient people wished to carry on commerce and to do so it was necessary to take their directions from the stars. The second reason for its development is the element of time.

Because of the narrow outlook of the peoples of primitive communities, advancement in the science of astronomy was small. It was not until the Greeks began their observations regarding the movements of the heavenly bodies that any continuous development can be marked. The earlier Greek astronomers sought to relate movements of planets to ordinary experiences in life.

Copernicus' theory that the sun was the centre of the universe marked a change in the development of astronomical science. Such men as Galileo, Kepler and Newton accepted and made improvements on Copernicus' theory. Herschel was the first to become interested in distance as relating to the heavenly bodies. After his death modern astronomers took up his work and by a series of experiments made the first actual statement of the distance of any given star from the earth. This distance has later been found to be much greater than that estimate, but likewise the extent of our universe has been found to be almost beyond conception.

The fact that the composition of the stars is the same as that of this

(Continued on page 4)

NONE OF 'VARSITY'S' BUSINESS - LOUDON REGARDING THE TEST

C.O.T.C. Commander Refuses to Speak About Length of Drill

STRAIN OVERCOMES CAOET

Test Lasting Over Six Hours
Rouses Much Feeling in Corps

"I have nothing to say," said Professor T. R. Loudon, Officer Commanding the University C.O.T.C., when asked by "The Varsity" whether or not the hours of the test for the members of the corps would be shortened this year.

Professor Loudon briefly but emphatically informed the reporter yesterday that it was none of "The Varsity's" business if the hours were shortened or not.

It will be recalled that last year the test lasted in some cases for over six hours with but two extremely short intervals for rest. So severe was the strain of the continuous drilling that one man was overcome with fatigue and required medical attention.

The test started at 1.15 and was not completed until after eight o'clock. The officer in charge was severely censured, it is understood, for its length and severity. Considerable feeling on the subject was expressed at the time and there has been considerable discussion as to whether or not the members of the corps would be forced to undergo as severe a test this year.

McMASTER UNIVERSITY MUST BE SOLD NOW

Both Provincial Government and U. of T. Have Options on Adjoining Land

WILL EXPAND IN HAMILTON

"The land and buildings of McMaster University are for sale," said Dr. H. P. Whidden, Chancellor of the university in an interview with "The Varsity". He also intimated that he did not believe they would be used for apartment houses.

Both the provincial government and the University of Toronto have options on land adjoining their territory, but whether they might buy McMaster or not depends on the price they would be willing to pay. The Chancellor intimated that he did not consider the buildings suitable for a Women's Building unless expensive alterations were carried out.

With regard to the reason for the removal of the university to Hamilton, Dr. Whidden said that it was largely a matter of progress. If McMaster is to remain independent, if it is to progress in the future as it has since its foundation in 1887, it must have more land on which to build.

"In Toronto we have less than two acres, while in Hamilton we will have ninety," said Dr. Whidden. "Thus we shall be able to have larger theological seminaries, bigger buildings for the Arts and Sciences, more spacious dormitories and greater facilities for recreation and sport. In Hamilton McMaster will be able to grow bigger and better for the benefit of her students and the world at large, and that is the reason we are going there in September."

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.
ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hasel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager
A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: Hasel Hammond Assistant: Isabel Jordan

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6th, 1930

THIS BUSINESS OF ABOLITION

We noted with pleasure in yesterday's issue that the question of abolition of first year Pass Arts is "very much in the air as yet". As far as we are concerned the matter can stay in the air, we think that is the very best place for it, and, although this may be only accidental, or due perhaps to our remarkable powers of persuasion, nearly all the undergraduates with whom we have discussed the matter, have agreed with us, and although the undergraduates evidently have no voice in deciding the matter, that is no reason why they should not express their opinion, when, as occasionally happens, they have one.

Our opinion may be wrong, but at least we are open to enlightenment on the subject, which at present seems to be surrounded with an air of mystery and solemn secrecy. All that is known is that there is a Council of eighty members which meets from time to time and declines to make statements, and we have a feeling that a great many people are going to receive a huge shock if they wake up some morning and find that that grand old institution, first year Pass, has "folded its tents like the Arabs and silently stolen away."

Such an event, we consider, would be bound to cause disruptive changes in the essential structure and character of our university, and we have yet to see how those changes would be for the better. If they would mean the shortening of the Pass Course to a three year course which, as far as we can learn they would, the result would certainly be, we think, for the worse. Surely there are advantages to be derived from a university education besides the possession of a degree, advantages which would certainly be lessened by shortening the period spent at the university. Even though the entrance requirements were raised so that the quota of knowledge required for a degree remained practically the same, will anyone contend that the value of a university education can be judged by the amount of knowledge the graduate carries away with him? If so, they would probably be disposed to undervalue that large class of students who can blissfully forget everything they have learned the day after examination.

People who oppose the introduction to a university of such short courses as salesmanship and hotel management should, we think, object to the curtailing of the Pass course on the same principle. Four years seems little enough time to gather in the experiences that university has to offer. The experiment of a three year course has been tried, and, as matters stand, it is possible to enter the second year of the Pass course, and graduate in three years. It might be worth while to ask those who have done so whether they think they would have been any the worse for spending one more year at college.

There may, of course, be advantages on the other side that we have overlooked. We have not been given an opportunity to hear the case. It is rumoured, for instance, that this university is costing the province a lot of money, and that the new proposal is to cut down expenses. But then again we are told that the province is now supporting only one university where once it supported three, and is therefore very well able to bear the burden.

Again, it is said that the standard of scholarships would be raised. More people would enter honour courses. We think not. If it were to become established that a degree in Pass Arts could be obtained in three years at the university, and that the majority of people were spending only three years there, the practical superiority of an honour degree would have to be very clearly demonstrated before an increasing number of students would consent to spend an extra year at university to obtain it.

We would like to see anything done that would tend to raise the scholastic standards of our university. And we have a constructive proposal to make, but suspecting that it might be rather bomblike in character, we hesitate to drop it. We have had it pointed out to us that there really are a lot of people in first year Pass Arts who have no business to be at a university at all, some people, even, who just intend to spend a year or two at the university for social reasons and who therefore choose the easiest way of doing it. To eliminate all such undesirables, why would it not be possible to raise the entrance requirements for first year Pass Arts to Honour

Art and Drama

U.C. Players' Guild

Miss Marion Lossing produced the first original play of this year at the Guild yesterday, a piece called "The China Pot". It is extremely short and though there is a suggestion of personal tragedy in it, it is, to all seeming, essentially a problem play. A father and mother contest for the future of the daughter, who is poised between a social and an artistic career. The mother and father are quite well portrayed and the argument is worked out logically and with a deal of realism. Not only is the question of the aesthetic versus the practical, as the guiding principle of life brought up, but the question of a child's right to make her own life's decisions, unbiased by parental opinion. In the attempt to achieve realism, though, the authoress submerged too much of the characters of her personae, making the child a nonentity. Also the play stopped short with the argument. Nevertheless the dialogue was smooth and it made an intelligent and capable portrayal of a very possible problem of very possible people.

Two of the best actors in the Guild helped with the presentation, Miss Patricia Godfrey and Mr. Jim Knights playing the mother and father, extremely well. Miss Helen Musson, as the daughter, also did rather well, although she had less opportunity. The piece was altogether quite worth while not only for its own sake, but carrying on the tradition of the Guild for original dramatic work.

B.D.B.

Headline in Toronto daily: "City Decides Not To Buy Ferry". We hope that the ferry is resigned to its fate.
C-C

An old roue on the staff speaking of the fable of the Hare and Tortoise said: "That's the one Aunt Fanny tortoise."
C-C

That sure is Theophilus one we ever heard!
C-C

"New planets found", says morning paper, but has not a word to say as to what they're going to do with them now they have found them!
C-C

She: "I'm telling you for the last time you can't kiss me."
He, relieved: "Ah, I knew you'd weaken eventually!"
C-C

It is a sure sign that exams are approaching when we hear these ultra brainy people saying that they have made up their minds that they are going to fail their year!
C-C

Snow use talking, the winter sure is slipping away! Soon "The Varsity" VolExElVee'd will be no more and a lot of people will be out of a job until the first of May.
C-C

For the benefit of aspiring cartoonists in the next literary issue it has been suggested by Elsie D. that they draw their interpretation of fifteen men on a dead man's chest!
C-C

Or else the gushing eo-ed who melted into tears.
C-C

The amount of insight Aunt Fanny showed in the wearing of dress shirts yesterday was positively uncanny. She must belong to one of these women's fraternities!
C-C

Despite the fact that it is advertised that the best way out of a difficult situation is to calmly "light an Abdulla" we defy anyone to do that with aplomb when caught smoking a pipe in a residence where there are fire insurance regulations!
C-C

Not that we have ever had the experience, mind you, but we have heard . . . . .
C-C

Further advice to cartoonists: Re well known slogan for dentifrice "Comes out of the tube and lies flat on the brush". This can be tastefully arranged with the help of a stout lady, a crossing sweeper and a London underground station entrance!
C-C

We are asked to deny the rumour that the Sunheat biscuit is responsible for the recent collapse in the price of wheat (Adv't).
C-C

This being enough to fill a little space we will wend our weary way across the champus.
Pey.

Matriculation level, while retaining Pass Arts as a four year course, and make the entrance requirements for Honour courses correspondingly higher? Would this be too drastic?

CASH PRIZE OFFERED IN ORATORY CONTEST

St. Margaret's Alumnae Offer Twenty-five Dollars Cash Award

FUTURE FUND GIVEN U.C.

The annual women's public speaking contest will be held under the auspices of the Women's Undergraduate Association on Wednesday, February 12 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street. The prize, which will be $25 cash, is being donated by the St. Margaret's College Alumnae, and money for future prizes in public speaking is being turned over by the alumnae to Principal Wallace of University College, so that in future the award will come from the University College board. There will be three judges, a prominent lawyer of the city, and two women teachers in secondary schools. The subject matter of the speeches is left to the taste and discretion of the contestants. The desired length of the speech is from ten to twenty minutes. Miss Dorothy Kilpatrick, dean of women, University College, is entertaining the judges and members of the Women's Undergraduate Association of University College at dinner before the contest and serving tea to the contestants afterwards.

BELIEVE THAT PARENTS MAY AID DEFICIENT IN STUDIES

Special to "The Varsity"

Waco, Texas—Believing that parents, when notified of the deficiency of their sons and daughters in courses at Baylor University, will be able to aid these students in passing their subjects, the faculty of the university adopted a recommendation submitted by Dean W. S. Allen that he be given the authority to notify the parents of students of their failure in one or more courses.

This recommendation will go into effect during the present quarter and will be followed each quarter thereafter, Dean Allen stated. Dean Allen stated that at the end of the fifth week of each term, cards would be sent to all the professors in the university which will be filled out with the names of all the students.

As soon as these cards are received at the Dean's office, letters will be sent to the student reported failing and also to the parents of this student. Both letters will probably contain recommendations as to what should be done or what has caused the deficiency.

Dean Allen stated that he believed that this method of promoting scholarship would prevent another occurrence similar to that of the fall quarter when such a large number of failures were reported.

Only truly fine quality and perfect blending could produce the mildness and fragrance of

Winchester

CIGARETTES

Blended Right!

20 for 25c.

SATURDAY VICTORIA and all next week Wed. and Sat. Mats.

Dumbbells Co. Ltd. presents

DUMBELLS At Home In a MAMMOTH REVUE

Romanelli and 24-Piece Band—20-Voice Chorus—Beauty Ballet—Dumbbell's Greatest Stars—plus 6 Broadway Headliners.

ALL RESERVED
47c.—70c.—95c.—Tax extra
No Waiting in Line

SEATS NOW EL 9002

"LITERATURE and MORALS"

Lecture by JOHN ERSKINE
Author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy", Professor of English, Columbia University.
Poet—Dramatist—Pianist
Friday, 7th Feb. at 8.15 p.m.
Hygeia House, Elm St.
Tickets $1.00 at S.A.C. Office, Hart House

Varsity Students!

Buy your Clothes—Made-to-Measure—Wholesale—Where? At ROYAL TAILORS
Headquarters: 468 Wellington St. W. Toronto
Suits $22.50 to $60.00

Tuxedo Special $24

Every Courtesy Shown

WANTED

Tenors, Baritones and Basses for chorus work in "The Way of the World". Also men for dancing chorus. Telephone MAUREEN O'MARA to-day at Hudson 8754-w.

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

ANOTHER SUMMER TOUR TO EUROPE with PROFESSOR ROBINS

Under the Auspices of the STUDENTS' TRAVEL CLUB and the CUNARD LINE
JUNE 20 to AUGUST 24 Optional Later Return Sailings

FRANCE—Paris, Versailles, Avignon (the French Riviera), Nice, Monte Carlo. ITALY—Genoa, Rome, Florence, Venice, Milan, Italian lakes. SWITZERLAND—Lucerne, motor trip through the Swiss Alps by Furka, the Rhone Glacier, Interlaken, Lucerne, the William Tell country. The Austrian TYROL—Innsbruck. GERMANY—Munich. The Passion Play at Oberammergau; Wiesbaden; the Rhine by boat; Cologne. BELGIUM—Brussels; the Canadian Battle Front by motor (Ypres, Hill 60, St. Julien). Gent; Bruges. HOLLAND—Amsterdam; The Hague. ONE WEEK IN LONDON, ENGLAND, and SCOTLAND and NORTH WALES by motor. Oxford, Stratford-on-Avon, Kenilworth, Warwick, Chester, North Wales, the English Lakes, Windermere, Keswick (the Wordsworth country), Carlisle, Dryburgh, Abbotsford, Melrose (the Scott country), Edinburgh, the Trossachs (Loch Lomond, Loch Katrine, Ayr (the Burns country), Glasgow.

Excellent hotel accommodation and motor service everywhere. Inclusive price, $760.00. (One week longer than last year.) Apply for further information and address applications to either Professor J. D. Robins, Victoria College, Tel. Kenwood 5854w or Miss Alta Lind Cook, 111 Pears Avenue, Tel. Randolph 7789. The Students' Travel Club also offers programmes to all parts of Europe with sailings from first of May. Unusual itineraries include Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Warsaw, Berlin, Madrid, Motor Trips through Austrian Tyrol and Dolomites, the Pyrenees, the French Alps. For information apply to Miss Alta Lind Cook, General Canadian Representative, 111 Pears Avenue, Tel. Randolph 7789.

Boxing - Fencing - Wrestling

HART HOUSE GYMNASIUM

RINGSIDE 75c - ADMISSION 50c

TO-NIGHT--7.30 p.m.

FINAL BOUTS IN THE SENIOR ASSAULT WILL BE HELD TO-NIGHT

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Last night's B. W. and F. preliminaries provided a big evening for the followers of the mat and ring game. The bouts were run off well and were hotly contested.

One of the feature bouts was the 135 lb. wrestling between Lapointe of O.A.C. and Mueller of Grad Studies. The former flopped Mueller twice within a minute and got a big hand from the crowd.

Godfrey, O.A.C., and Wall, S.P.S., in the 145 lb. boxing, which went to the Guelph man, was a study in contrasts. Godfrey, a long, lanky red-haired youth, put up an aggressive showing against a shorter and chunkier opponent. Wall seemed to be bothered by an easily remedied affliction—hair waving in his eyes, and might have made a little better showing without that handicap.

The only K.O. of the evening was a technical knockout scored against McNutt of Forestry in his bout with Reynolds, O.A.C., in the 175 lb. class. McNutt had an edge up to the middle of the last round when a right hook by Reynolds connected with his chin. McNutt took a count of nine and a few seconds later the bout was stopped with the Forestry man hanging helplessly over the ropes.

To-night the finals will be held and there is a nice card. Bert Tyson of S.P.S. will again do the iron man stunt, competing in both heavyweight boxing and wrestling. The 160 lb. boxing between Wilton, Trinity, and Swales, O.A.C., should give the fans lots of action.

To-morrow night's McGill-Varsity Senior Intercollegiate Basketball with an intermediate game as an opener will give the followers of the cage game plenty of amusement. And of course there is going to be "music" after.

The women's senior basketball team goes into action to-night in the first game of the city league. The Blue and White sextet is playing Margaret Eaton at 6 o'clock at the U.T.S. gym. The Margaret Eaton girls have not been defeated by a Varsity team since 1927, when the Blue team, intercollegiate champions that season, took their measure twice in three games.

Indications are that Sally Ballard, St. Hilda's, will make the position of sub forward on the Varsity senior basketball team. She has played for the Saints in the interfaculty league for two seasons and for the Varsity intermediates last winter. Miss Ballard is very small and light, but she has plenty of speed and is a good shot. She should worry the Margaret Eaton defence considerably.

Meds are well up in Group II of the women's interfaculty hockey league with two wins and one defeat. Last night the Medettes downed U.C. 1-0 in overtime. Vera Peters of Meds was the best player on the ice. She was effective at all times and scored Meds lone tally.

Varsity intermediate hockeyists will journey to Guelph to-night, where they take on O.A.C. in the first fixture of the intercollegiate series. The Blue and White are fresh from elimination in group 4 of the O.H.A. Bradford, represented by a good team ousted the students from the running Tuesday night. However, the locals were beaten by a team of players who are fast and clever, and who should make a fine showing in the playdowns. The fact that Varsity failed to come out on top is no indication that they will do likewise in the intercollegiate games.

The Aggies always provide strong opposition before the winner is declared. Varsity captured the title for 1928-29 and with a squad which appears stronger than last year's, should repeat their success.

The Board of Governors of McGill University has mapped out an extensive building programme, which will include a new gymnasium and union, new dormitories and a stadium seating 50,000.

Rental of Tuxedos at FREE-MAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

95 YONGE ST.

The Men's Shoe Shop

To-day's young men demand comfort as well as style and long wear. Every pair of shoes in our extensive stock is superbly designed, quality built and keen to give loyal service. Reasonably priced, too.

J. G. KNOX & TALBOT CO.

Open Evenings

EL. 1709

PARKDALE VS. VARSITY DECIDES GROUP FINAL

Championship Game in O.H.A. Should Fill Arena Saturday Night

WINGS TO DECIDE ISSUE

When Varsity juniors and Parkdale Paddlers cross sticks Saturday night for the championship of the Big Four O.H.A. group the Arena Gardens should be pressed down and overflowing with the crowd of hockey fans come out to see two fast junior sextets do battle for the title. The Canoeists took the students into camp at the Bloor Street arena 2 to 1 and then last Monday the Blue and White tied the round with a like score.

Both teams possess powerful defences. The Bowman brothers are quite a match for the local pair, Alec Levinsky and Williamson. There is little difference between Hunnisset and Carey at the opposite ends of the rink. The strength of the opposing wing lines will doubtless decide the issue. The Paddlers have a smart centre man in Ted Oliver and he will be a hard man to keep off the score sheet. However, Coach Sullivan has his blue-shirted men working hard and checking back incessantly. Smilge has added a much-needed punch to the offensive.

TRINITY WINS FIRST GAME IN FOUR YEARS

O. A. C. Defeated 24-11 in An Interfaculty Basketball Game

SCOTT SCORES 10 POINTS

Trinity defeated O.A.C. 24-11 in an interfaculty basketball game. Trinity certainly gave the fans a surprise by their victory, for it is their first in four years. Scott, their stalwart centre man, was by far the best on the floor, scoring 10 points. Rapsey, the forward line, turned in a fine effort. The defence stood out well.

The O.A.C. team could not do much against Trinity although they tried hard. The Aggies' combination play was too weak to be at all effective. Malcolm and Hale were the pick of the losers.

Trinity—Scott, centre; Moore and Rapsey, wings; Berwick and Ingram, defence; snbs, Barker, Chappel and Clark.

O.A.C.—Hale, centre; Jensen and Malcolm, wings; McFee and Reid, defence; snbs, Sealer, Nottingham and Minshell.

U.C. 3T2 HOLD CLASS PARTY

The U.C. 3T2 class party, held last night at the Women's Union, was a decided success, much of the enjoyment being due to the fact that it was free from gate crashers and the auditorium was not overcrowded. Stewart Bell and his orchestra provided the music. The patronesses of the party were Miss Kilpatrick, Mrs. C. N. Cochrane and Miss Cole.

China has 600 miles of air mail and passenger service now that the route between Shanghai and Hankow has been extended to Hankow.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

269 College St. Trinity 5987

Harry Winsford, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

O.A.C. ENTRANTS STAR IN SENIOR ASSAULT

Keshin, Meds; Scott, O.A.C. Provide Boxing Feature of Evening

FINAL CONTESTS TO-NIGHT

The semi-finals of the Senior Assault were run off last night in the big gym. The card was a lengthy one and the fans were treated to some fine exhibitions of the manly arts.

The Aggies had a man entered in every event and will have plenty to say in the final settlement to-night. Outside of the poor condition of some of the contestants, the bouts uncovered some good material for the intercollegiate team. Considering the short time at his disposal Coach Chilcote succeeded in rounding out a few good mat men.

Keshin displayed a good knowledge of the fist game, his bout with Scott being the pick of the boxing card. McNutt had the better of the light-heavy argument up until Referee Alex Sinclair awarded Reynolds a technical K.O. because of the Forester's poor condition. Harkness did the expected in taking his event. La Pointe had Mueller pinned to the mat twice before the Grad knew where he was.

In the bantamweight division Huestis, Vic, mixed things with Hern of O.A.C. The Vic boxer used his uppercut to good advantage and had the Aggie pretty well worried. Huestis earned the decision in the third round.

Keshin, Meds, and Scott, O.A.C., provided the boxing feature of the evening. Keshin packs a powerful right and his fast left repeatedly found a good resting spot on Scott's physog, but he failed to follow up his advantage at times.

The 147 lb. event brought Wall, S.P.S., and Godfrey, O.A.C., together. Godfrey had a big advantage over the doughty engineer in a long reach, and his left jab kept Wall from keeping up his effective in-fighting. But Wall put up a good fight and his right almost won him the bout.

The only K.O. on the card came when Reynolds, O.A.C., got the decision in the light-heavyweight event over McNutt, Forestry, on a technical in the third round. McNutt had the better of the bout in the first and second stanzas and had the Aggie well in hand with plenty of blows on the face. But the Forester's condition was bad and Referee Sinclair stopped the bout.

In the 112 lb. class Kinnear, U.C., and Buckingham, O.A.C., provided plenty of action. When things got interesting the boys found themselves entangled in the ropes. Buckingham displayed that tried feeling and Kinnear secured a neat fall to take the event.

Hilliard, Dents, took Wighton, O.A.C., into camp in the 118 lb. division by a little clever headwork. The dentist turned the Sonnenberg trick; he got the Aggie on the mat with a flying tackle and a scissor hold gave him the fall in three minutes.

There were two wrestling bouts in the featherweight division. Harkness, Meds, displayed too much for Wilson, O.A.C., and received the judge's call. There was little action between Robertson, Meds, and Bannister, S.P.S. Neither went to the mat. Robertson was declared the winner.

Taylor, S.P.S., found an evenly-matched man in Campbell, Dents, but the 145 lb. call finally went to Campbell. Walker, U.C., and Dempsey, O.A.C., put up a more interesting performance. The bout went overtime and Dempsey secured a fall. Walker tried hard, but Dempsey found the ropes to keep him off.

The shortest event of the night was the Mueller, Grad, versus La Pointe,

DOLLAR DAY

SATURDAY

Bloor and Yonge Store Only

Clearances of many smart lines at only a fraction of regular prices.

KNITTED SILK VESTS AND KNICKERS

$1
Values to $1.95

An unusual opportunity to secure a supply of very fine quality Vests and Knickers in a lovely quality of knitted silk. White, Pink, Orchid, Maize, Peach and Nile in small, medium and large sizes. Vests and Knickers may be had to match.

20 Only PULLOVER SWEATERS

$1

Chiefly in light pastel shades, and some are soiled. Regularly priced at $3.95 and $5.95. Small and medium sizes.

KNITTED SILK BOUDOIR COATS

$1

Bed jackets and three quarter length coats—in fine quality rayon, distinctively trimmed. They were regularly $5.

EVENING DRESS

FLOWERS

$1

Large clusters and individual flowers in Chiffon, Velvet, Gold and Silver—regularly to $3.95.

HANDKERCHIEFS

10 for $1

Irish Linen handkerchiefs in plain colours and a large selection of Cambrics and Lawns for children and school girls.

HAND EMBROIDERED—IRISH LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS 5 for $1

Pure Irish Linen hankies, beautifully embroidered by hand in white or colours. Many are regularly 50c each.

BLOOR AND YONGE STORE ONLY

Evangeline Shop

731 Yonge St. at Bloor—Kingsdale 8323

O.A.C., 134 lb. bout which went less than a full minute. The Aggie wasted no time whatsoever and got both falls on head holds. Walker, U.C., and Jenner, Grad, in the same class, provided the busiest session. Jenner got the first fall in one minute, but Walker came right back to take the bout with two falls in short order.

Cameron, Meds, took the first 158 lb. event from Mason, Dents, on two falls via the head method in a minute and a half. Chepeswick, O.A.C., pinned Smith, S.P.S., to the mat in fast time to take the second bout in this division.

The draw for to-night is as follows:

BOXING
112—Newman, U.C., vs. Field, S.P.S.
118—Rapsey, Trin, vs. Huestis, Vic.
125—Fell, S.P.S. vs. Boland, O.A.C.
135—Sterns, S.P.S. vs. Walsh, Tr. at 4.30; Keshin gets bye.
147—McLennan, Meds. vs. Godfrey, O.A.C.
160—Wilton, Trin. vs. Swales O.A.C.
175—Reynolds, O.A.C. vs. Eaton of S.P.S.
Heavyweight—Tyson, S.P.S. vs. Robinson, Tr.
WRESTLING
112—Brownlee, S.P.S. vs. Kinnear, U.C.
118—Barron, Trin. vs. Hibbard.
123—Harkness, Meds vs. Robertson, Meds.
134—Max Walker, U.C. vs. La Pointe O.A.C. at 4.30; Price, S.P.S., a bye.
145—Dempsey, O.A.C. vs. Campbell, Dents.
158—Cameron, Meds. vs. Chepeswick, O.A.C.
174—Shute, Meds, vs. Ewart, O.A.C.
Heavyweight—Tyson, S.P.S. vs. W. Chepeswick, O.A.C.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets

for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE

571 YONGE STREET

KL. 3270

Coming Events

THURSDAY, FEB. 6
Thursday Tea Club of U.C. in Croft Chapter House. All U.C. students and graduates of the departments in charge are invited.
7.30 p.m.—Thursday discussion group will meet at Women's Union, 79 St. George St.
8.00 p.m.—U.C. 3T3 class dance will be held at the Women's Union. Bring your year card.

FRIDAY, FEB. 7
5 p.m.—Eastern racial problems group at Wymilwood.
9 p.m.—Foresters' At-Home, Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 8
4.30 p.m.—Newman Club tea dance.
SUNDAY, FEB. 9
5 p.m.—Newman Club tea.
7 p.m.—Chief of Police General D. C. Draper at Newman Club.

Pembers' are the Pioneer Hairdressers of
Toronto

Anything you require in Permanent Waving, hair treatments, hair tinting, marcelling or anything in hairdressing and dermatology. You cannot go wrong if you come to Pembers. Every person knows that Pembers has been established thirty-eight years, and has given general satisfaction which is proven by the confidence reposed in this firm. Why therefore risk beautiful hair to any person that is not well known as an artist in this line.

Even if you have poor hair it needs even greater skill to bring that beautiful gloss and increase of growth.

Pembers' treatments have proven that they are capable of restoring hair to a healthy condition.

For hair tinting we have the largest and best equipped establishment in Canada, and no case is too difficult for us to correct and restore to its natural colour and beauty.

W. T. Pembers Stores
LIMITED

129 Yonge Street
Toronto, Ont.
Phones EL. 2226-7 & 1933

Branch Store
Open Evenings
272 Yonge St.,
Phone AD. 4197

TRADE COMMISSIONS REQUIRE CANDIDATES

(Continued from page 1)

The work is interesting and holds great opportunities for advancement. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary of the Civil Service Commissions and must be filed with the Commission at Ottawa by February 27. Candidates are advised to obtain the following government publications:

Annual Report of the Trade Bureau of Canada (Summary); Canada, 1930, obtainable at Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Ottawa, free; Natural Resources and Commerce of Canada, obtainable at Natural Resources Intelligence Service, Department of the Interior, free; the Commercial Intelligence Journal, published by the King's Printer, Ottawa, $1.00 per year. Candidates who wish to obtain this publication are advised to procure the issues for the last three months.

GOD MUST BE MIND

(Continued from page 1)

earth, together with their ordered movement, and the accumulated distances throughout whose large extent the law of gravity holds true, is indication of a unity that is not guided by human minds.

There must be some great master mind controlling the universe and what can it be, if not God?

THESIS VS. EXAMINATIONS

(Continued from page 1)

one starts out by admitting that the examination system is inadequate and sometimes unjust," Professor Robins began, "but I think that no practicable substitute has yet been found. In a small class where the professor is in close touch with each member of his class throughout the year the thesis might be acceptable. But where you have large classes and several colleges a uniform examination is necessary. Examinations are one of the penalties that we have to pay for federation and for our numbers."

TUESDAY, FEB. 11

1.30—Nomination meeting for permanent executive of 3T9 U.C. and U.C. representative for Moss Scholarship. West Hall U.C.

6.45—Annual athletic at-home of Victoria College. Dinner at Burwash Hall. Dancing at Wymilwood.
8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of Trinity College Science Club in Trinity College Library. Mr. R. K. Young will speak on Modern Astronomy. Refreshments and dancing. Everybody welcome.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 12

8.00 p.m.—Annual contest in public speaking for U.C. women at the Union.

9 p.m.—Annual Dental At-Home at the Royal York Hotel. Subscription $5.00.

THURSDAY, FEB. 13

4.30—Women's Press Club at the Union. Short story week.
7.30 p.m.—In Women's Union, 79 St. George St., Thursday Discussion Group of the Fabius Club.

FRIDAY, FEB. 14

8.30 p.m.—Malvern ex-pupils at-home to be held at the Collegiate Auditorium.

MONDAY, FEB. 17

8.15—Combined meeting of the Victoria College and University College French Societies at the Women's Union.

FRIDAY, FEB. 21

9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College Arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22

3.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26

9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

The Table Round

HOT AIR?

Denunciation of boy parliaments is voiced in no uncertain manner in an editorial comment in the current issue of the "Canadian Forum". Boy orators, claims the writer, are nothing more than mechanical dummies. They owe their existence, we are told, to the assiduity of wordy politicians in teaching them all the knavish tricks of their trade, and emerge as mere hot air artists.

Personally, I do not favour the boy parliamentarian idea, but hesitate to attack it in such unmeasured terms as these. No doubt it is a fertile source of hot air, and no doubt, too, certain windbags are only too ready to take advantage of the opportunities afforded to exploit the immature mind. Whether the result is quite as depressing as stated in the "Canadian Forum", is another question. I do not think it is. But certain minds do take on an unnecessary self-importance, and bulk large in their own estimation, as the result of the pomp and ceremony and gravity which attends such gatherings as that of the Older Boys' Parliament.

The boy orator type, as fostered by a city daily, is generally peculiarly susceptible to celebrity and publicity and frequently spoiled by it.

P.E.U.

MOTION PICTURES IN CANADA

There has been a great deal said about the impossibilities of producing successful Moving Pictures in Canada. With the exception of the recent unfortunate production at Trenton of the film, "Carry On, Sergeant!", there has been only one genuine attempt to produce a real all-Canadian Motion Picture, which has proven that pictures can be made in Canada. "The White Road", a six-reel silent drama, was produced in Toronto last year by a cast of Toronto artists, the story and scenario written by a Toronto author and directed by the author.

The following extracts from "The Beaver", a Canadian National Weekly, bear out this contention. "The picture carries many thrills, the stoke-hole scene of a Liner (really the huge boiler room of the T. Eaton store) is a real thriller. The opium den scene (taken in Jenkins Art Gallery), the tough underworld scenes and the "wild party" which ends in a fight and murder in a Chinese restaurant in the underworld, are well staged, cleverly acted and wonderfully photographed". . . . "That we have the actors, authors and photographers right here in the Queen City was demonstrated to 'The Beaver' representative when he viewed and heard criticized the 'White Road', Toronto's first all-Canadian movie".

There is no doubt that successful motion pictures can be made in Canada and in next week's instalment, we will explain the wonderful field open to this new Canadian industry.

M.S.S.

BULLETIN BOARD

LEAGUE OF NATIONS CLUB

The executive of the League of Nations Club will meet to-day in the Privateer office, 16 Harbord Street, at 7.30 p.m.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

Regular meeting of the Women's Press Club postponed till next Thursday. Byrne Sanders, editor of "Chatelaine" will speak. Leave the 13th open for the Press Club, members.

THURSDAY TEA CLUB

The departments of English, Classics and Oriental Languages will be in charge of the tea to be given by the Thursday Tea Club of University College in Croft Chapter House this afternoon from four to six. All University College students are invited, and students and graduates of these departments are especially urged to attend. Mrs. Oswald Smith and Mrs. W. R. Taylor will receive; Mrs. J. F. Macdonald and Mrs. T. J. Meek will pour tea.

SWIMMING EXECUTIVE

Meeting of the Swimming Club executive on Friday night at 5.30 p.m. in Hart House pool. Arrangements for the next international water polo game will be discussed.

ROWING IS DISEASE STATES T. R. LOUDON

Main Essentials Team Work and Constant Attention to Business

ROWING CLUB'S NEW HOME

"The purpose of this meeting is to show what you are up against in rowing and to find those who are serious about it," stated Professor T. R. Loudon, in addressing the Rowing Club yesterday. "If you are to get anywhere in rowing you must take it seriously, for once you miss a practice, you are out entirely."

"In this, rowing differs from all other sports, and needs constant attention to the business on hand. The main essential is team work and you have to fit yourself so you can balance perfectly with the other seven men.

U.C. 3T9

A mass meeting of the members of the fourth year, U.C., both men and women, will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 11 at 1.30 in the West Hall, University College. Nominations for the permanent executive will take place and also nominations for the U.C. candidate for the Moss Scholarship. The election will be held on Friday, Feb. 14, the hours to be announced later. All members of the graduating class of U.C. are requested to be present.

BADMINTON CLUB

The U.C. Women's Badminton Club has made a good start by posting a ladder challenge list in the Assembly Hall at the Women's Union. It is hoped that plenty of challenging will make this a peppy season for the players.

FABIUS CLUB

Members will note that the Fabius Club discussion group scheduled for to-night will be held next Thursday, February 13th at 7.30 in the Women's Union, 79 St. George St.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

The game between U.C. and Household Science has been postponed till Friday, Feb. 7 from 5 to 6.

Constant practice is necessary in order to get the team to work together.

"It is well to remember rowing is expensive and one shell costs over eleven hundred dollars here. In order to make a team, fairly regular attendance at the Hart House machines is required and once on the water you must turn out every day. Morning rowing practices have nearly been abolished, and nearly all practices take place after school.

"Despite all the work connected with rowing you cannot chase a crew away from the waterfront. In fact it gets to be more of a disease than a sport. Once we are in our new club house on the Humber, it will mean a wonderful change and we shall have a much better opportunity for developing better crews."

DEADLINE FOR ART EXHIBIT

The annual exhibition of work by members of Hart House will open on Monday week, 17th February. All exhibits should reach the Warden's office not later than 6 p.m. on Thursday, 13th February.

Church's Shoes for the Campus

THE reputation of Church's shoes for wear comfort and smartness gives them entry everywhere. College men will find styles for every campus occasion. In all sizes. At $12, $12.50 and $13.

Street Floor
Bay Street

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

Varsity Tea Rooms

328 BLOOR ST. W.

Mc'S LUNCH

A very convenient place to eat. West side of Yonge St. Half-way between Wellesley and Maitland. Best value in city for the price, 35c.

550 YONGE STREET

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $8.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1865

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

Special to "The Varsity"

Norman, Okla. — How would you like to be given a brush instead of a pencil, a sheaf of paper, and sent into a small stall with only a board to write in and be told that you were to take your examinations there, all of them at one sitting, even though this sitting might last three days and nights and might end in your death? Such was the type of examination given the Chinese student under the old Imperial government, according to a man who has spent five years in China, Ray L. Six, instructor in geology. All of the students—and the Imperial University at Nanking could accommodate 10,000 at one time—were graded on a competitive basis. Six recalls.

Some died in the strenuous ordeal, but the winners in the examinations were given offices in the Imperial government.

This has all been changed under the present regime. The Chinese student takes much the same kind of examination as the American now. In fact, the Chinese teachers have taken up the Western intelligence test idea with enthusiasm and are forever giving tests of one kind or another to their students.

RENT A
TUXEDO
$2.00
STUDENTS
PRICE ONLY
NEW SUITS
LATEST STYLE
TELEPHONE
TRINITY 8218

Mallabar
COSTUMER
450-452 SPADINA AVE
at College St.

COLLEGE GOWNS
CAPS and
HOODS

HARCOURT & SON
103 King St. W., Toronto

Year Card or 75c.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE 3T3 CLASS PARTY

Thursday, February 6th, 8.00 p.m.

AT THE
WOMEN'S UNION

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

CL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7th, 1930

No. 78

COLGATE PRESIDENT PAYS FINE TRIBUTE TO VARSITY SPIRIT

George Cutten Writes Letter to Sir Robert Expressing Appreciation

SPORTSMANSHIP PRAISED

Blue Team to Get Precedence
On Schedule for Next Year's Games

Glowing tribute to the fine spirit of sportsmanship which University of Toronto players show is paid by the president of Colgate University in a letter to Sir Robert Falconer, following the recent visit of the senior basketball team to that university.

The letter, which Sir Robert Falconer has given to "The Varsity" for publication, proceeds as follows:

Colgate University,
Hamilton, N.Y.

Sir Robert Falconer, President,
University of Toronto.
Dear Sir Robert:

I want to write you of the fine impression which your team made at Colgate on Monday night. Unfortunately I was out of town and could not witness the game, but in inquiring about it yesterday, I heard from different sources words of praise concerning the fine spirit of sportsmanship which the Toronto team displayed. Later I talked with the coach and he told me of one incident which he said was the finest piece of sportsmanship which he had ever seen on a basketball court; and when the Toronto coach spoke of the game for next year, our coach said, "You may have any place on our schedule." I just mentioned this to show how much the team was appreciated and what a fine impression they made.

With all good wishes, etc., I remain,
Most sincerely yours,
George B. Cutten.

JOHN MOSS AWARD NOT YET ANNOUNCED

Arts Colleges Will Vote On Their Various Candidates
by April 1st

"No announcement as yet has been made about the Moss Scholarship. The various candidates have not yet been chosen by their colleges. April the first is the last day for the selection of candidates," was the reply of the Alumni Federation to "The Varsity's" question as to when the results will be published.

The John H. Moss Scholarship is awarded annually by the graduating class in Arts in each of University College, Victoria College, Trinity College and St. Michael's College. They select by vote who they think the best all-round man or woman in the final year.

The award is then made to one of the four students so selected by a committee consisting of Sir Robert Falconer, the president of the Alumni Federation, and three of its members. The character and standing of the candidate and academic standing is also taken into consideration.

The preference is usually given to the candidate who is likely to participate in post-graduate work. It was awarded in 1925 to Miss A. N. Wilson, Trinity College; in 1926 to Miss N. C. Story, St. Michael's College; in 1927 to W. L. Smith, Trinity College; and also to G. deB. Robinson, University College; in 1928 to Miss H. E. Oliver, Trinity College, and M. N. Kenny, Victoria College.

Literary Issue

Generous prize awards will go begging unless you send in your contribution to "The Varsity" literary supplement—now! $70 is being spent on this issue to make the competition worth while. The awards will be divided as follows:

Poetry—1st prize $15; 2nd prize $10.
Prose (not to exceed 1000 words)—1st prize $15; 2nd prize $10.
Art (pen or pencil drawings)—1st prize $10.

All undergraduates are eligible to enter the contest. Awards will be withheld if the contributions do not merit reward. The judges are N. A. Benson, M.A., and P. E. Usher, B.A. All material must be handed in by Thursday, Feb. 13, at 1 p.m.

Frank O'Leary

Captain of Varsity basketball, who met McGill to-night at Hart House.

ALUMNI FEDERATION OBTAINS MANY JOBS

No Unusual Positions Recorded
As Facilities Are Limited

THEATRE NIGHT FEB. 17

One hundred and forty-six pupils, plus an unknown number who were taken by department stores, secured jobs during the Christmas season as a result of the activities of the Alumni Federation's Student Employment Bureau. "The Varsity" learned yesterday in an interview with K. B. Conn of the Federation. It was impossible to ascertain the number who were employed by the department stores, said Mr. Conn, as they did not keep a record of these. About two hundred or more were advised to apply at the department stores.

Asked if he had heard of any odd or unusual situations which the students had filled, Mr. Conn said that it would require greater facilities than they had at present to keep close track of all the situations and that a job would have to be very unusual to attract special notice at present.

The Theatre Night which the Alumni Federation is putting on at the Royal Alexandra, February 17, is for the purpose of raising funds to permit the Students' Employment Bureau to function more efficiently. For the year up to December 15th the Federation had found positions for three hundred and forty-eight, Mr. Conn said. This represented an increase of ten over the figures for the preceding year.

NU SIGMA NU HOUSE HAS SCARLET FEVER PUT IN QUARANTINE

Source of Epidemic Unknown
Thought to Have Spread
After Meds At-Home

COEOS RECEIVE TREATMENT

Medical Student Placed In Isolation Hospital Following Outbreak

Scarlet fever epidemic again threatens the university. F. G. Kergin, of sixth year medicine is at present quarantined in Isolation Hospital, following a general quarantine of his residence. It is understood that twenty men of the Nu Sigma Nu fraternity were quarantined for three days beginning last Monday. Whether or not the Medical at-home was to blame for the outbreak is not indicated.

"There is not the slightest indication as to where the infection came from," said a member of that fraternity in an interview with "The Varsity" last evening. "Of course there are plenty of cases around the city, with about fifteen in Isolation Hospital."

Several co-eds, notably of Queen's Hall, who were present at the Medical at-home, have voluntarily been examined and had treatment administered to them.

The first year students of University College dispersed themselves on Thursday evening at one of the best class parties of the season in the Women's Union. Appropriate decorations added to the atmosphere created by Lou Coleman's orchestra. Miss Kilpatrick, Miss Boyd, Professor and Mrs. Cochrane received.

Don Smillie

Who was moved to the forward line by Coach Sullivan and is supplying much-needed scoring punch.

JUNIOR FINAL TICKETS

Tickets for the Varsity-Parkdale Junior Final to be played at the Arena Gardens on Saturday, Feb. 8th, are now on sale at the Athletic Office.

EXAMINATION SYSTEM IS FAVOURED BY DONS OVER ALTERNATIVES

Alternatives Suggested are Preparation of Thesis and Ranking by Professors

SYSTEM IS BEST ADVANCED

Substitute Tests Fall Down
When Applied Under Certain Conditions

Is the present examination system at this university all right? Or should it be replaced by a prepared thesis? Members of the faculty favour the present system of written examinations.

Professor G. Norwood of the department of classics at University College said: "I can think of no good substitute for the present examination system which is almost universal, and in my opinion, a much fairer test of the student's ability than is generally acknowledged."

"There are two alternatives to the written examination. One is the preparation of a thesis and the other is individual ranking by the professor."

"If the first method were adopted I think that far more students would fail than do so under the present system. They would be required to display a more extensive knowledge of the subject than they now are. Again, any malcontent might accuse another student of having received help on his thesis and no one would be able to tell whether or not his statement was true."

"The second alternative would entail great unpleasantness for both staff and students and would really be unfair to both. If a professor were to fail a man it would immediately be charged that he had discriminated against him, that he was playing favourites."

"As an examiner who has undergone the monotony of correcting hundreds of similar papers I would like to see a new examination system, but can think of no good substitute for the present one."

"It is easy to see what is wrong with the present examination system," stated Professor G. M. A. Grube, of the department of Classics at Trinity College, "but quite difficult to suggest a better method."

"The prepared thesis idea would serve for the more advanced honour students, but I do not think it would be practical in the comparatively elementary stages. An examiner can get quite a good idea of how much a student knows from the manner in which he answers a few questions, which are usually on the fundamental and salient points of the work."

"Also there would always be some doubt as to the exact authorship of a long essay."

"In my opinion the present examination system is the best solution to the problem yet advanced."

John Baillie Confirms Rumour of Resignation

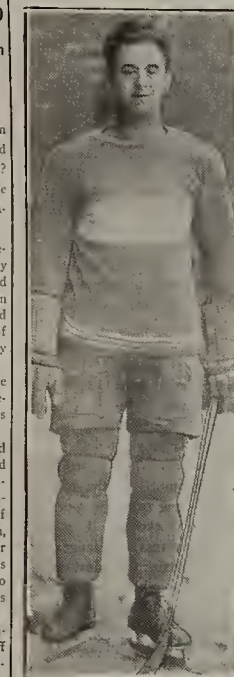

"It is true that I am leaving Emmanuel College," stated Professor John Baillie to "The Varsity." "I am to take the chair of Theology at the Union Theological College, succeeding Professor William Adams Brown."

At Principal Gandier's office no report of Professor Baillie's resignation had been received. It was stated, however, that rumours were abroad to the effect, but they had not been officially confirmed as yet.

O.A.C. RETAIN SENIOR ASSAULT TITLE PILING UP POINTS ON WRESTLING CARD

"Varsity" Staff

The men and women of "The Varsity" staff will meet at the Women's Union to-day at 4.30 o'clock. This includes all probationers.

Alex Levinsky

The burly defence star and one of Coach Frank Sullivan's hopes in the championship game with Parkdale to-morrow night.

EMMANUEL COLLEGE WORK WELL ADVANCED

Building to be Four Stories Finest Architecture in
Toronto

FROZEN EARTH OETERS MEN

Excavation work on the future site of the new Emmanuel College is ahead of schedule. The steam shovels tearing up the earth are already down to a depth of 12 feet and are going 6 feet further. Thirty per cent of the area has already been excavated and all work will be completed inside of the next 12 days.

"Work has been going very slowly the last four days on account of the frost. While the men are getting clumps of frozen earth into one truck we could have three other trucks loaded," said the superintendent of the contract.

"We are starting to pour concrete next Monday and will follow the steam shovel as it proceeds on the work. There are seven trucks in use and a total of 22 men on our daily payroll."

The new building is 178 feet long and 94 feet wide and will be 4 stories in height. It will be, undoubtedly, the finest piece of architecture in Toronto, following the same lines as the dining room of Burwash Hall. The building will connect with Victoria College library on the second floor only.

Meds Place Second, Followed Closely by School, Trinity,
Dents, U.C. and Vic

MANY GOOO BOUTS ON CARD

Varsity Represented By Many Good Men in the Boxing
Division

The Ontario Agricultural College walked off with another Senior Inter-faculty Assault by running up a total of thirty-one points in the bouts which were concluded at Hart House last night. Meds were second with twenty-two, School third with twenty, Trinity fourth with eighteen and then Dents, University College and Vic with eleven, four and three points respectively.

A good crowd witnessed a series of clever, snappy contests which were run off in excellent fashion.

The heavy boxing final between Tyson and Robinson gave the fans a real kick. Both men stepped into each other and the judges had to order an extra round. Tyson had superior condition and forcing the fight with heavy body punches finished strongly to take the decision.

In the 175 lb. division Eaton and Reynolds started like two wild men from Borneo. Eaton, who packs a punch like Luis Firpo, connected with a right swing to the jaw and the Guelph man took a count of nine. A few seconds later Eaton landed another wallop and Referee Alex Sinclair didn't even bother to start a count. The entire bout lasted less than a minute.

In the 160 lb. boxing Wilton was far too good for Swales of O.A.C., and gave his opponent a bad beating. The bout was stopped in the third round.

The 147 lb. bout was another walk-away. McLennan easily outboxed Godfrey and scored a technical K.O. in the last minute of the third round.

Walsh and Keshin put on a great display in the 135 lb. section. Keshin started fast and took the first round. Walsh solved his style and aided by greater speed and superior footwork, came on to win.

In the 125 lb. division Fell gave Boland a boxing lesson, taking each of the rounds by a mile.

Rapey and Huestis in the 118 lb. were very evenly matched but the decision went to Rapey who was a trifle smoother boxer.

Lapointe of O.A.C. showed himself to be the flashiest wrestler of the meet when he took two falls from Walker in the 134 lb. class. Lapointe took six straight falls to win three bouts in the Assault. Walker made a fine showing against the Guelph grappler, who is one of the best matmen to show here in some time.

In the heavyweight Chepewick took two falls from Tyson who later in the evening won the heavy boxing title. (Continued on page 3)

DR. TORY WILL ADDRESS MOODEL LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

President of the League of Nations Society of Canada
Here On 21st

On Friday evening, February 21st, H. M. Tory, president of the League of Nations Society of Canada, will speak at the Model Assembly.

Dr. Tory, who is president of the University of Alberta, a graduate of McGill and Cambridge, has been president of the Advisory Council for Scientific and Industrial Research for Canada since 1923. He has written various papers in scientific journals on Pyrometry, and many interesting papers on educational problems.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: J. J. Strenkovsky Assistant: H. A. Wallace

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7th, 1930

WHAT OF WAR?

War has always been a popular subject in literature and at no time is this more amply demonstrated than at present, when almost every new novel seems to deal with the great struggle of nations that took place so recently. The question of war is one that is perplexing the great statesmen of every country, and it will doubtless remain as one of the problems that the rising generation will be called upon to solve.

War, we are told, is to be abolished. A new and better era of peace and prosperity is to be inaugurated. Nations shall no more rise against nation, and the world will never again be subject to the dreadful ravages of strife. That is, of course, if the dreams of statesmen come true. But amid all this welter of schemes, plans and ideas, little progress is being made to ensure lasting peace.

The literature of war is of two kinds; that which glorifies it and that which presents it under its true colours. To the former school belong those writers who paint in glowing tints the glorious deeds, the heroism, the self-sacrifice which war evokes. They depict the courage, the valour, of men in time of stress and danger, of endeavour against colossal odds, and they emphasize the finest qualities of which human nature is capable. On the other side, we are given a picture of stark outlines, of men twisted and distorted with physical and mental agony, of suffering and bestial elements and the shattering, ruthless, forces which enter the modern combat.

In the good old days, when war was by nature more of a personal encounter, when battle-axes and coats of mail were the accoutrements, valour, courage, skill, were essentials. And behind it all, there was the glamour of courts and fair ladies and knightly chivalry. War then was something to write about, to exalt and to praise. But all that is changed now. It has become a business, not a pastime. And it is carried on with the ruthless efficiency which characterizes modern business. With science as its handmaid, the problem of how to kill as many people as possible in the shortest time has been simplified.

Men no longer count; they are mere pawns in the scheme of things. Tactics are directed from far behind the lines, and victory goes to the side with the most death-dealing weapons. And under these conditions, individual courage and bravery no longer count for anything. Science, not character, determines the outcome.

Since the talk of abolishing war is so prevalent, it would be interesting to know what attitude is being developed towards war in the generation which is growing up and which only knows—at present—the horrors of war indirectly. Controversy has raged over books like "All Quiet on the Western Front" which ruthlessly discard the veneer of glamour and romance and adventure and present a picture that is appalling in its stark, bare outlines. Is that the true view of war? And if so, should it be inculcated into the youth of to-day? Morbid, drab, and ugly it may be, yet it seems to come from the pen of a susceptible but truthful writer. We feel that such a document as "Journey's End", with its combination of the ruthless wastage and torturing disruptive force of war, and the essential human qualities that lie behind the combatants, is a more balanced picture, and one that should be equally effective in inducing a hatred of war.

There can be no doubt that the glorification of war in literature is a misleading influence and one that tends to minimise its ghastliness and uselessness. Poetry and prose that exalts the glamour of arms may be splendid nationalistic and patriotic fuel, but it is of little service as far as promoting the cause of international peace is concerned. However the goal is to be effected, there is no dispute as to that.

Human nature is a perverse quality. All the emphasis upon the unpleasant side of war is likely to have little effect. The desire for experience is usually strong enough to overcome whatever repugnance may be aroused. What should be stressed is the futility, the wastage, the colossal profitless expenditure, which war involves. As an investment it ranks with the South Sea Bubble of Walpole's day. That is the point that ought to be driven home.

The nobler human qualities do not reveal themselves only in time of war. There is ample scope in the world at peace for hero-

Art and Drama

Pomander Walk

The Dramatic Club of the University College Alumnae Association usually chooses something worth serious effort for their productions. In "Pomander Walk", one of Louis N. Parker's pretty effusions, which opened its first public night at Hart House last evening, they made a poor choice. If the club desired to show how well Edgar Stone could direct and how well the members of their group and the men who assisted could act, they did the right thing. But as a play that in itself would attract and hold an audience the production of "Pomander Walk" never should have been chosen.

Of the play itself the less said the better. Perhaps the remark that it was a "pretty little thing" carries the impression best for there were certainly pretty little people and pretty settings and pretty ladies and pretty costumes and a pretty love story, but what else?

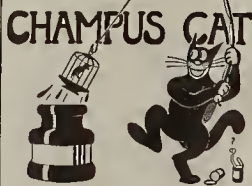

So dear and quaint a play and what a delightful sentiment running through it and what a wonderful boy naval brigade officer who, to conclude the play, throws out his manly frill and cries, "Cut me off with a shilling, but I shall marry this girl." It is most unfortunate that Parker, who has written things worth while, did not have Miss Ruth Pennymint marry the one-legged man of Sir Peter or Dr. Sternroyd or even Fisherman Eyesore.

It is indeed a tribute to the cast to point out that the audience as a whole seemed to enjoy the play. The same play done by any group less fine than that of the U.C. Alumnae Association and under less capable direction would have been a complete "flop" as far as the audience is concerned, but because of the excellent work of the entire cast, the play did for some little time hold our attention and it was in their work that we took definite delight.

The acting surpassed anything we have seen at Hart House this year and there has been some good histrionic work done there during the present season.

Ivor Lewis was an excellent admiral and "By Jehosaphat" H. E. Hitchman was a good husband. Andrew Allan as Dr. Sternroyd did a magnificent piece of work and had his gestures studied down to the slightest detail. Miss Pearl Gray gave the devotees of Hart House another of her charming displays. L.G.

AUTOBIOYUG

We are writing an autobiography under what we believe is an entirely new plan. As our past is generally rather dull and uninteresting we have decided to ignore it in this work and write about the future only. Here is a snatch from chapter ten:

C-C

Scene—Campus, 1956.
"Well my boy," I said to Gaspard Jr., as we strolled across the campus, "it is nearly twenty years since the last time I crossed these beautiful old grounds of the university."

"By Jove," he replied, "I'll bet you have been looking forward for a long time to see your dear old Alma Mater again, eh Dad?"

"Alma Mater," I mused, struggling to recall the vaguely familiar name. "I can't just place her. Was she one of those Pass Arts women?—I say son, how is it nearly all these students around here are almost seven feet tall?"

"Sun Wheat biscuits, Dad; they have been eating them for nearly twenty-six years. And by the way they put a new one on the market the other day with all the newest vitamins in it with the exception of K, Q and Z, which are found in caraway seeds, artichoke peelings and onion fumes."

C-C

"Hey son, why are all those cops standing guard over that long row of metal studs on the ground by U.C.?" I asked curiously.

"Oh that's the mile of nickels for the New Women's Building," answered Little Gaspard. "They only have (Continued on page 4)"

"LITERATURE and MORALS"

Lecture by
JOHN ERSKINE
Author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy", Professor of English, Columbia University.
Poet—Dramatist—Pianist
Friday, 7th Feb. at 8.15 p.m.
Hygeia House, Elm St.
Tickets $1.00 at S.A.C. Office, Hart House

Headquarters
for
ACADEMIC GOWNS
CAPS
HOODS

See our samples
and prices
before buying

Sainthill-Levine & Co.

LIMITED

218 Wellington Street West

PHONE EL. 5391

THE PROGRESSIVE STUDENT FAVORS RIMLESS GLASSES

The New Williams solid white gold rimless glasses and spectacles are more becoming and more adaptable to the features than the heavy, cumbersome shell rim type, now no longer in favor with students of discernment.

These new mountings are smarter, neater, and enhance the appearance.

Have your present lenses duplicated in one of these beautiful new mountings. A wide selection at Williams stores.

J. Williams
Prescription Optician

5 RICHMOND ST. EAST

268 BLOOR ST. WEST

ism, self-sacrifice, valour. In the air, on the frontiers of civilization, in the research laboratory, wherever human problems are demanding solution, the world is crying out for men of vision, men of courage, men of faith . . . . .

Let us beat our swords into ploughshares—and ploughshares may they remain.

ENERGY

at your fingertips

the best milk chocolate bar
made

JM28

5¢ 10¢ and 25¢ sizes

HART HOUSE THEATRE

(By permission of the Syndics)

Monday, Feb. 10th

8.30 p.m.

JOYCE

HORNYANSKY

'CELLIST

Tickets: $1.90, and Students $1.10, including tax, at Heintzman & Co., 195 Yonge St. Mail orders to Management, Katherine Whetham, 1012 C. P. R. Bldg., WA. 4302.

SATURDAY and all next week

VICTORIA Wed. and Sat. Mats.

Dumbells Co. Ltd. presents

DUMBELLS At Home In a MAMMOTH REVUE

Romanelli and 24-Piece Band—20-Voice Chorus—Beauty Ballet—Dumbell's Greatest Stars—plus 5 Broadway Headliners.

ALL RESERVED
47c.—70c.—95c.—Tax extra
No Waiting in Line

SEATS NOW EL. 9002

You see and hear all the foremost players of the screen

100 STARS 1000 HOLLYWOOD BEAUTIES SHOWS IN ONE

TO-DAY

UPTOWN

TO-DAY

COMING TO-MORROW

The Incomparable Comedy Stars
WILTON & WEBER

Presenting "Mr. America"
100% Variety of Fun

CLAIRE VINCENT

exhibiting
"An Etching From Life"

ADA BROWN

The Plantation "Mammy"

OTHER FINE ACTS

MATINEE 30c

Except Saturday

On the Screen

Billie DOVE

The Painted Angel

Her First Singing, Dancing and Talking Role

THE SIGN OF THE LANTERN

Open Sundays

5 WILLCOCKS STREET

Breakfast, Luncheon, Afternoon Tea, Dinner
Sandwich Shop—open 7.30 a.m. to 11.30 p.m.
KINGSDALE 2259

Bridge Parties

Fraternity Dinners

VARSITY-McGILL BASKETBALL TO-NIGHT--"BIG FOUR" FINAL SAT.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Once again the Ontario Agricultural College has won the Senior Assault. The men from Guelph, by virtue of their good wrestlers and their number of boxers who reached the finals, amassed enough points to carry off the meet.

* * *

There were several standout bouts on the evening's card. The heavyweight boxing which Tyson won from Robinson after an extra round was a smart contest. Wilton and McLennan in the 160 and 145 boxing outclassed their opponents, winning handily. Eaton of S.P.S. scored the only clean knockout of the night by smacking down Reynolds of O.A.C. in less than one minute from the start. Lapointe of O.A.C. took two straight falls from Walker, U.C. in a sparkling contest.

* * *

Varsity needs a win in to-night's basketball game with McGill in order to keep abreast of the fast travelling Queen's quintet. Varsity won their first game at Western last Saturday while McGill have beaten Western and lost to Queen's, who have also beaten Western. The two outfits are evenly matched and a good game should result. McGill have several stars in the persons of Don Young and Faulkner. Captain George O'Leary is playing a nice game at centre for the Blue and is getting fine support from Currie and Davey.

* * *

University of Toronto juniors and Parkdale Canoe Club juniors are called to provide one of the feature games of the season at the Arena to-morrow night. On past performances the teams must be rated as equal and the breaks may decide this group title.

* * *

The women's senior basketball game with Margaret Eaton has been postponed until Tuesday night. The Blue and White team was hardly prepared to play yet as it had no signals or plays. However, Coach Marion Forward had them doing centre plays at last night's practice and as she has been concentrating on her defensive system the team should be ready for games next week.

* * *

Wilma Hazlitt is doing very good work at the practices and it looks as though she will be the pivot player on the forward line again this year. Miss Hazlitt is in second year University College. She made the senior team last year in her freshman year and what is even more remarkable she was captain of it. Miss Hazlitt would be a valuable player on any team. She is a very good shot and she makes many openings for the other players.

* * *

The intermediate basketball team will have the final workout in preparation for Monday's game against the seniors, to-day at one o'clock in the Lillian Massey gym. The seconds have only been practicing for one week and they will need a lot of luck and hard work to get anywhere against the intercollegiates.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

269 College St. TRINITY 5987

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city
We Have Your Home Town Paper
Lending Library.

LOST

Parker Fountain Pen between 722 Spadina Ave. and Bloor Street. Name engraved. Reward. Phone Esther Hanna, King. 9438.

O.A.C. RETAINS SENIOR ASSAULT CHAMPIONSHIP

(Continued from page 1)
Chepeswick is an experienced grappler and knew a little too much for his opponent.

Another Chepeswick won the 154 lb. section, taking two falls from Cameron.

Shute defeated Evatt in the 174 lb. class by virtue of his aggressiveness. Brownlee had an edge in his bout with Kincaid in the 118 and had his man in difficulties several times.

During the evening a sabre exhibition was given by Lee and Dunlap, preceded by a few words by Mr. Walters, fencing instructor.

VARSITY MEETS P.C.C. IN FINAL TO-MORROW

Evenly-Matched Teams Deadlocked on the Round and Winner Favored for Title

LOOK FOR CAPACITY HOUSE

Varsity juniors and Parkdale Canoe Club clash to-morrow night at the Arena Gardens in the deciding game for the Big Four O.H.A. group championship. Man for man there is little to choose between the rival sextets. The Paddlers took the first encounter by a 2 to 1 score, but the Blue and White puck-chasers came right back to cop the return game by the same score and tie up the round. There was a large turnout for the last game and the fans were treated to one of the most exciting hockey battles of the season, so there is likely to be a capacity house for to-morrow night's performance.

Hunnisett, the Blue goal tender, is a veteran as juniors go and is a great source of strength to the team. Varsity has probably an edge at this position. Both defences are rugged, hard bumping duos who can relieve the pressure on the forwards by effective rushing when necessary. Levinsky and Williamson have not much advantage over Parkdale's Bowman brothers. At centre Art Brant will have his hands full in holding Ted Oliver, the Paddlers' star forwards in check. If Don Smillie can get his wicked drive on the nets and the speedy Hetherington plays up to form they should have a slight edge on the P.C.C. wings. Hall and Corson. Both outfits are well stocked with subs and they will probably get lots of work to do as the pace is likely to be pretty hot. The winner of to-morrow night's encounter is favoured by the experts to go a long way in the quest for the junior O.H.A. title as the competition has been very keen and the quality of hockey high in the Big Four junior group this season.

ST. MIKE'S BEAT PHARMACY IN INTERFACULTY SERIES

St. Mike's took a close game from Pharmacy last night 3-2 in the inter-faculty hockey series. Pharmacy had the best of the play throughout the game and should have scored on several occasions. The first session ended with the score 2-2.

Regan and Cerre netted the puck for the ultimate winners while Williams and Beckett each put one in for the Chemists. St. Mike's scored the winning counter just after the second period opened when Cerre got his second goal. All five scores rolled in while the respective goal keepers saved many more legitimate counts. The Pharmacy forward line of Grice, Williams and Sanderson were all outstanding and kept the play well in St. Mike's half for most of the game. Cerre and Regan turned in standout performances for St. Mike's.

BOXING

118—Rapsy, Trin., defeated Huestis, Vic.
125—Fell, S.P.S., defeated Boland, O. A.C.
147—McLennan, Meds, defeated Godfrey, O.A.C., technical knockout, third round.
160—Wilton, Trin, defeated Swales, O.A.C., technical knockout, third round.
175—Eaton, S.P.S., defeated Reynolds, O.A.C., knockout, first round.
Heavy—Tyson, S.P.S., defeated Robinson, Trin., decision after extra round.

WRESTLING

112—Brownlee, S.P.S., defeated Kincaid, U.C., decision.
118—Postponed.
123—Harkness, Meds, defaulted to Robertson, Meds. (Harkness wrestled Wednesday night, Ill.)
134—Lapointe, O.A.C., defeated Walker, U.C., straight falls.
145—Campbell, Dents, defeated Dempsey, O.A.C., decision.
158—Chepeswick, O.A.C., defeated Cameron, Meds, straight falls.
174—Shute, Meds, defeated Evatt, O. A.C., decision.
Heavy—Chepeswick, O.A.C., defeated Tyson, S.P.S., straight falls.

VARSITY AND MCGILL BASKETBALL TONIGHT

Blue and White Play Their First Home Game With Strong Red and White

MUSIC AFTER THE GAME

Varsity senior basketball quintet play their first home game of the intercollegiate season to-night against the strong McGill cagers. The Blue and White are present holders of the title and are out to repeat their success of the last two years. However, the other teams in the circuit appear to be much stronger this year and the locals will have to play their best to down the Red and White. Queen's handed the McGill five a loss in Montreal last week and the Montreal squad is anxious to retrieve lost ground in to-night's fixture.

McGill is represented by an experienced crew of basketballers. Don Young of football fame is capturing the visiting team. This is his second year with the team. He was a member of the Ottawa Rideaus when they won the Dominion championship.

This year's Varsity team will give a good account of itself and provide the crowd of basketball fans that will be on hand at the opening tilt plenty of excitement. George O'Leary is in for his best year at the cage game. Right now there are few better players in the city. Sakler and Currie team up to form an experienced pair of guards. "Buff" Horton, former Riverdale Grad star, is producing the brand of ball which made him a much-respected forward. Davey is fast and plays an aggressive type of game. The Blue and White are not lacking in good relief men in Sniderman, Riggs, Wood and Cock.

Frank Hunnisett

Captain of the Blue Juniors, whose goal tending has been a powerful factor in the team's showing.

S.P.S. LEAD INTERFACULTY TRACK WITH U.C. CLOSE

Gord Jermyn Breaks Record for the Quarter in the New Time of 52 Sec.

After Thursday's events in the Indoor Interfaculty Track Meet S.P.S. was leading by only 4 points. U. C. pulled up seven points yesterday by winning first and third in quarter, and second and third in the mile walk. School did poorly, winning only second place in the quarter. St. Mike's entered the scoring column when Daly heeled and toed his way to first place in

Let's Talk About New Coats

It's an interesting conversational topic just now when we're getting a bit tired of our winter wear.

Our Coat Salon is featuring for immediate wear over a suit—tweed coats, some with collars of Fox, Wolf or Lapin, others untrimmed, with such novel collar and sleeve touches. In flecked, nubbed or monotone tweeds. Sizes 14 to 20 in the group.

$45.00

EATON'S
Fourth Floor, James St.

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

the good time of 7 min. 33 secs.

Gord Jermyn was the sensation of the meet, winning the quarter in the record time of 52 secs. flat. This broke his own previous record by 1.2 secs, and set up a record that is not likely to be broken for some time to come.

RESULTS

Quarter Mile—1, G. Jermyn; 2, Thompson, S.P.S.; 3, D. Smith, U.C. Time: 52 secs.

One Mile Walk—1, Daly, St. Mike's; 2, Crawshaw, U.C.; 3, Merritt, U.C.

STANDING TO DATE

1—S.P.S. 31 Points
2—U.C. 27 Points
3—Dents 5 Points
4—St. Michael's 5 Points
5—Meds 4 Points

FIRM, FLAWLESS LEAD, AND STRAIGHT-GRAINED CEDAR MAKES ELDORADO "THE MASTER DRAWING PENCIL"
FOR SALE AT THE COLLEGE BOOKROOM

For service and low rates see FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
571 YONGE STREET KI. 3270

AN ADVANCE SHOWING of New Spring Samples for Suits Made-to-Measure at $35 and $40

College men will appreciate the very exclusive patterns we are showing at these prices. Every garment tailored in the usual Cambridge fashions.

FITZPATRICK & O'CONNELL, LTD.
254 Yonge Street---Just North of Shuter

BASKETBALL HART HOUSE GYMNASIUM--TO-NIGHT

7-30--McMaster vs. Varsity
(Intermediate Intercollegiate)

8.30--McGILL vs. VARSITY
(Senior Intercollegiate)

Admission 70c and tax.

Music

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon
In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

Coming Events

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from page 2)

400 yards to go before they begin excavating."

C—C

"Great Galloping Ganders!" I ejaculated, as I looked at the spot where the Little Red School House had stood. "Is that heap of ruins all that is left of S.P.S.? Why that is the place where all the he-men came from! I suppose they are still a pretty sturdy outfit!"

"I'll say they are!" Little Gaspard agreed. "Most of them are perfect wows at table tennis."

C—C

"And I suppose they still shout their Forty Beer yell?"

"Well no, not very often. The Meds asked them to discontinue it because they could not get their proper rest during lectures. You occasionally hear it though, but only at special times when permission has been granted by the S.A.C., and only then at certain hours and not within 500 feet of any building."

"Why is that, son?"

"Can't you see what happened to their own building," said Junior, pointing to the red ruin.

C—C

"I say, dad, how about coming over to my frat for lunch to-day?" cried little Gaspard eagerly.

"Ugh, I'm sorry, son, but if I'm not back in my sandwich boards and on Yonge Street by one o'clock, the boss will fire me. So long."

Gaspard McGuffey.

A workshop for arts and crafts is the newest addition to the equipment of the Smith College day school.

Tuxedos at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street. Our latest models.

P. Society in Room 43 of the Physics Building. Speaker: Mr. H. B. Speakman, Director of the Ontario Research Foundation.

430—Women's Press Club at the Union. Short story week.

7.30 p.m.—In Women's Union, 79 St. George St., Thursday Discussion Group of the Fabius Club.

FRIDAY, FEB. 14

2 p.m.—370 women's class party at Women's Union.

8.30 p.m.—Malvern ex-pupils at-home to be held at the Collegiate Auditorium.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19

8.00 p.m.—Biological Club Conversation at the Biological Building. A popular exhibit and demonstration of Biological methods and activities. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 20

8.15—Combined meeting of the Victoria College and University College French Societies at the Women's Union.

FRIDAY, FEB. 21

9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College Arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22

3.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26

9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

STUDENT RATE
8 Lessons $5.00

This rate is offered to students only. Applicants must present registration card.

Jack Slater's orchestra at Thursday advanced classes. Dancing till midnight. Beginners' class Tuesday 8.30. Private lessons by appointment.

DACOSTA
Studio of Dancing
Columbus Hall RA. 8650

Lovely Laura's Simply Wild Now Her Character's Defiled

By L.L.L.

Friday, 7th, 1930.

Dear Betty:

This is just a note, but its the most simply terrible and hateful news I ever had. Its so awful that I haven't been able to sleep for nights and nights, and I haven't been able to do anything all day because I've got to catch up the sleep I loose at nights. This is the terrible thing. I've been in jail. Thats not all either, I've lost my job. Now isn't that the most ghastly putrid thing you simply ever heard.

I was getting along wonderfully at the office. It was too gorgeous to last. Everyone would do anything for me and I was so thrilled with my success when the blow fell. Just when Nora, thats the girl that was in the office too, was telling me all about the new gorgeous chifon dress she was getting if she got her raise, the door opened and two great handsome-looking men came in. They looked like Arrow Collar Ads set on Roman gladiators. They were exquisitely wonderful. I thought that my dream man had arrived at last but Fate had overdone it and sent me twins. The biggest one turned to Fred, he's the boy that always brings me down in the mornings. "Who runs this here office," he said. Fred, the dumbbell, just grins and joking like points at me and said "She does most of the time". Then believe it or not, he came over and arrested me and before I had time to say "Hello", I had taken a ride to the police station. I was so bewildered. I was afraid that they'd dress me in one of those awful blue dresses with the white strips and you know, I never could wear blue. Well they started asking me about selling shorts and certificates and bulls and bears, till I didn't know whether it was a case for the Humane Society or the Zoo. They asked me how much stock I had, but I satisfied them that I hadn't any unless you counted the herd of Jerseys, Papa has at home.

Honestly dear, I was in a state of perpetual torment and I never breathed for over six hours. Then to make matters worse just as the Sergeant and I were getting on beautifully and he had asked me about going to the Police Hall, they found it was all a mistake and they didn't want me at all and that my pictures wouldn't be in the papers and I couldn't have a lawyer or a bail or nothing. It was my boss they were really looking for. Now I'm out of a job and my character is defiled.

Your disconsolate friend,

Laura Louise.

P.S.—My sergeant is coming to see me to-night. But if the police try to hold me again, I'll slap his face—L.L.

BULLETIN BOARD

THE M. AND P. SOCIETY

A meeting of the M. and P. Society will be held at 4.30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 13th, in Room 43 of the Physics Building. Mr. H. B. Speakman, Director of the Ontario Research Foundation, will speak on "University Education and Industrial Research."

BOXERS AND WRESTLERS

Will all entrants in the Senior Assault please meet in the big gym in Hart House to-morrow (Saturday) at 2 p.m. This is important and necessary.

VIC S. C. M.

The eastern racial problems group will meet Friday at 5 in the blue room at Wymilwood. Mr. W. S. B. Wong, a Chinese student in attendance at Trinity, will be present to lead the discussion. Visitors welcome.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

Hockey games for first and second teams to-day at 6.00 p.m. sharp. Everyone out on time.

There will be a meeting of the Athletic Board of University College at 3 p.m. Friday. Sullivan, MacCallum, Armstrong, Spence, McGibbon, Drury, Arnold, Secombe, Vila, Thorburn, Cook, McDonnell and Gray are requested to be present. The meeting is very important and a report of intercollegiate and interfaculty activities will be made by each manager.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

The Handwriting on the Wall

Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

Are there no limits to which these Co-Eds will go to obtain notoriety? At a recent party in Hart House five of them must have thought they could join the ranks of (in)famous women by scrawling their names on the marble walls. They were fooled, however, for these walls have been cleaned since.

These women sure must have gone to a lot of trouble, and must have been contortionists to have written their names when and where they did. In the interests of a trace of respectability,

DISGUSTED.

The "Four Lazy Fugacities"

Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

Big things are taking place in the national history of the Dominion and the Empire these days. Within the near future the statesmen of our Empire propose to wipe out what for many decades past have been prominent features of our political and local landscape. In short they propose to do away with the four legal restrictions that have persisted from colonial days on the powers of our legislature.

On the one hand the rhetorical doctrine proclaims that at last the day of freedom is at hand, at last we are to be free from the yoke that has bound us in subjection, at last our national life will be free to develop to its fullest extent. On the other hand the strict Imperialist decries the step as the loosening of the knot that holds the bonds of Empire together; the commencement of a development that will eventually lead us out of the Empire into God knows where. And yet these two groups form a relatively small proportion of the population. In between we have the great mass of the people who, because the change will not interfere with the routine of their daily lives, are taking little or no interest in it.

The great mass of the people we believe are right. They realize that the strict Imperialist has entirely misconstrued the conception of loyalty. The Empire never has been and never can be held together by means of legal ties. To say that the fact that the Canadian Parliament will have power to pass legislation with extra-territorial effect will hurt our allegiance to the Empire is nothing short of ridiculous.

On the other hand the rhetorical doctrine is equally wrong. Canada has never been subject to Imperial domination since she received responsible government. To say that Great Britain has any desire to regulate the domestic life of Canada is to misconstrue entirely a friendship that has meant much to us. The power of disallowance about to be revoked has not been used to disallow Canadian legislation since 1878.

If the changes will satisfy that restless and turbulent element of our national life that can brook no thought of suppression whether real or imaginary by all means let them have it. The foundations of Empire will continue to rest upon the solid rock of middle-class opinion, based neither on legal conceptions of loyalty nor on restless desire for useless autonomy, but on genuine affection and fellowship. If our loyalty to the Empire has to depend on the fate of a few out-of-date legal conceptions that loyalty is not worth offering.

H. G. STEEN.

Stocking up on Stockings

A bewildering array of dainty and serviceable hosiery, chifon and service weights, full-fashioned, smartest of heels, at various prices, from as low as

$1.00

A few extra pair at these prices will always be useful.

Tune in Every Wednesday 7 p.m. CFCA Virginia Dare and her boy friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET
At Richmond
AD. 5898768 YONGE STREET
Next door to Uptown Theatre
Kl. 3800
OPEN EVENINGS2498 YONGE STREET
Next door to Capitol Theatre
HU. 4780

The Coffee House

Luncheons
Dinners
Teas

Open Evenings

till 8 p.m.

After the Game—After the Theatre

Ruth Macdonald

34 Avenue Road

Special attention given to students for luncheons and dinners.

Have Your Brakes Tested AND SAVE 10

SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE

205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

Kl. 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

Christian Science

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, St. George St. at Lowther

(Close to the University)

Services—Sunday, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.

Subject for Sunday, Feb. 9th, will be

"SPIRIT"

Wednesday Service 8 p.m.

In the Church Auditorium including

Testimonies of Healing Through

Christian Science

You are cordially invited to attend the services and use the

Free Public

Reading Rooms

1504 Metropolitan Bldg.

Adelaide and Victoria Sts.

Open 9.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.

Where the Bible and all authorized

Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased, and periodicals subscribed for.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

SHERBOURNE CHURCH Sherbourne and Carlton Streets

REV. RICHARD ROBERTS, D.D.

Morning and Evening

11 A.M.—"THE CHRISTIAN REVOLUTION"

7 P.M.—"THE INHUMANIST"

TORONTO THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

52 ISABELLA STREET

Lectures on Comparative Religion, Philosophy and Science every Sunday evening at 7.15.

Sunday, February 9th

"The Elixir of Life"

By FELIX BELCHER

Questions answered and free lending library.

Old St. Andrew's Church

(Cor. Jarvis and Carlton Sts.)

Minister:

Rev. Dr. J. R. P. Solater, D.D.

Services 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit."

Students Cordially Welcome

Deer Park United Church

ST. CLAIR AVENUE

(One block east of Avenue Rd.)

Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A.

Minister

Rev. Douglas Kendell, M.A.

Assistant Minister

Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A.

will preach at

11 a.m.—"Whose Son?"

7 p.m.—"Ancient Wisdom for a Modern World", 3—Time and the Everlasting.

Bernard Longbottom—Organist and Choirmaster.

Students cordially invited.

College St. United Church

College at Bathurst

REV. R. J. WILSON, D.D.

Minister

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 9th

11 a.m.—Monsieur Thelin, Labor

Bureau of the League of Nations,

Geneva. Subject: "Christ and Labor."

7 p.m.—An Evening of Songs-

Handel's "Messiah" by the Choir.

Strangers and Visitors are invited

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

Medical Arts Coffee Shop

Students will find this new shop exceptionally handy and attractive.

Come in after the game, or the theatre. Always open.

Our Twilight Musical Hour is particularly inviting.

NEW MEDICAL ARTS BUILDING

BLOOR WEST - at St. George

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

OL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10th, 1930

No. 79

CHIEF DRAPER GIVES ADDRESS TO CLUBMEN ABOUT ENFORCEMENT

Cited Instance of War to Show Example of Co-operation

URGED REFORM OF LAWS

Asked Aid of Private Citizens to Combat House-breaker

Chief of Police General D. C. Draper gave an extremely interesting address at Newman Club yesterday evening. His subject was "Co-operation and International Police Forces". He pointed out that co-operation was a dominant principle of to-day and that the idea of competition has become a subsidiary. As an example he referred to the Great War when the Allies showed such splendid co-operation under Marshall Foch. "The history of law enforcement dates back thousands of years and began with the individual," stated General Draper, and went on to picture a wealthy merchant hiring a bodyguard to protect himself and his property. In the times of the Greeks and Romans we find the first records of organized law enforcement. Toronto's Chief Constable then explained how modern criminals are often international and that modern transportation aids the criminal to escape quickly. "The greater the co-operation the greater the protection to the law-abiding citizen," remarked General Draper in referring to international police methods. He urged reform of the extradition laws, which he claimed protected the international criminal, particularly in the country to the south of us, where these laws are not uniform throughout the various states. In the close of his address General Draper (Continued on page 4)

TWO LADIES ARE NOT A COUPLE IN HART HOUSE

An attempt is being made to impress upon members of Hart House that Sunday evening concerts are intended for members of the house and their guests only. Instead of the former wording on the tickets, "Admit One Couple", the following has been substituted: "Admit One Undergraduate Member of Hart House and Guest". This change has been made, explained Warden Bickersteth, because of cases in the past where two ladies have made use of one of the double tickets—perhaps a sister or mother of a member. While technically a "Couple" may be two persons, it is not the intention of those issuing the much sought after tickets that they should be disposed of in this way in the event of the grantees being unable to make use of them themselves.

Irate Firemen Answer Fake Alarm

With much clanging of bells and shrieking of sirens five trucks of the Toronto Fire Department drew up at the corner of Hoskin Ave. and Devonshire Place shortly after seven o'clock yesterday evening. Traffic was interrupted and an eager crowd soon collected expecting to see smoke and flame emerge from South House or from the Kappa Alpha House. In this they were disappointed for "the visiting firemen" moved on after one of them had replaced the glass in the fire alarm box. "Do you know who sent in the alarm?" "The Varsity" asked the fire department. "No, that's what we'd like to find out," was the reply.

Sixty-third Birthday of Head Recalls Achievements of Past

Responsible for University's Great Progress and Expansion

PRESIDENT SINCE 1907

Won Scholarship in Trinidad and Went to Europe to Continue

To-day Sir Robert Falconer attains his sixty-third birthday, bringing to mind his distinguished career as a scholar and educationist. President Falconer was born in Charlottetown of Loyalist stock. His family moved to Trinidad where he attended Queen's Royal College, winning the Gilchrist scholarship which enabled him to study at the University of London. He obtained his B.A. at London and his M.A. and Litt.D. at Edinburgh. Then he continued with post-graduate work in Germany.

Sir Robert Falconer who is receiving congratulations on his sixty-third birthday to-day.

CENSORSHIP SELFISH ERSKINE RAPS LAW

"Pollyanna" Not For His Child and Mother Goose Made Nasty

BOOKS COMPLIMENTED

"Adam met Lilith in a meadow, he took her in his arms, and the cow looking at them over the fence, stopped chewing its cud, and I'm told by my critics that that sentence, from 'Adam and Eve' is indecent," said John Erskine, novelist and professor of English at Columbia University, in his lecture on "Literature and Morals" in Hygeia Hall on Friday evening.

"I admire the compliment the law pays to the influence of literature on the reader," the speaker continued, "but youth especially has enormous power of resisting any influence whatever. Every country has been con-

SAYS CAPITALISTS FINANCED REVOLT

British Relations with U.S.S.R. Defended by London Debaters

HOUSE REVERSES VERDICT

The Huron College debating team was victorious in the debate held by the Trinity College Literary Society in Trinity House, Friday evening, on the subject: "Resolved that this house welcomes the resumption of diplomatic relations between Great Britain and U.S.S.R. (Russia)." The London team, who upheld the affirmative, won by 27 votes to 14. The debate then became open and a second count was taken, resulting, this time, in a victory for the opposition with 18 votes to 11. "Trade and world peace are the common interests for which diplomatic relations are necessary," declared D. W. Rorke of Huron College, first speaker for the affirmative. Basing his argument on these two points, he showed how vastly Britain's trade had increased since 1921 until 1927 when relations with Russia were termin-

(Continued on page 4)

HALL NOT FOUNDER OF NATIONAL ORDER BUT ONLY ORGANIZER

National Scribe Sends Letter to "Varsity" Editor Re Article

SCORES SLURRING REMARKS

Declares National Order Has Accomplished A Good Deal of Good

The editor of "The Varsity" has received the following letter from the National Scribe of the National Order of Canada:

The Editor, "The Varsity", University of Toronto, City.

Dear Sir:

My attention has been called to your article in your last issue and we regret exceedingly that you have seen fit to allude to Dr. Hall as the founder of this Order as this is in every sense erroneous and, had you taken the trouble you might easily have found out that Hall was the paid organizer in every sense of the word.

We have, apparently, trodden on someone's corns in regard to a recent debate in Hart House and we might say that we had a good deal of support in our contention that this debate should not have been permitted.

We have been unfortunate in having Hall connected with us as an organizer, but we naturally did not delve as closely into his past as the Saturday Night and, without reference to this paper, you would not have been able to produce the evidence that you have produced in your article.

Despite your slurring remarks as to our lofty ideas, you will find from the various newspapers which have a much larger circulation than your own, that we have accomplished a good deal of good and are trying to accomplish a good deal more, and we would imagine that your students as loyal subjects of the Dominion, would be with us in any effort that we might put forward towards making Canada a better country. We, also, wish to remark that the members in this Organization were not brought into the Order by any effort on the part of Hall, but were brought in by the

(Continued on page 4)

BLUE AND WHITE WIN FIRST TITLE IN SEVEN YEARS IN JUNIOR O.H.A.

Ladies Permitted To Use Hart House

There are three regular occasions on which women, when introduced by members, are allowed to enter Hart House (1) on the occasion of dances, (2) on the occasion of Sunday Evening Concerts, and (3) on Visitors' Day. On the occasion of the recent dinner in Hart House given in honour of the retiring Chancellor, the Rev. Dr. R. P. Bowles, the Board of Stewards and the Hall Committee allowed this dinner to be held in the Great Hall and made an exception regarding their ruling about women and permitted a limited number of ladies holding official positions in the College to attend.

WELCOMES CRITICISM SAYS GUEST ARTIST

Norman Wilks, Pianist, Plays at Sunday Concert in Hart House

HEARD ABOUT CRITICISM

"So you are from 'The Varsity,'" said Norman Wilks, the guest artist at the Sunday Evening Concert last evening. "I hear you have always some interesting things to say about us." When assured that all musical criticism in "The Varsity" had ceased the pianist expressed regret. "Personally," he said, "I should rather welcome criticism, as long as it is intelligent." Mr. Wilks commented on the exceptional attention and evident appreciation of Hart House audiences.

He had just played to the largest gathering ever to attend a Sunday Evening Concert. His program included selections from Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin, Jervis-Road, Ireland and Bridge. Ireland's "Ragamuffin" was so well received that he played it again as an encore together with Chopin's Waltz in E minor. At times the audience seemed puzzled by the artists' style, but general expressions of approval were heard on all sides.

PROFESSOR DISPLAYS SECRETS LIQUID AIR

J. S. Satterly Revives Goldfish in Physics Lecture

DANGEROUS TO DRINK

"Presto, Revive!" and lo and behold a goldfish, which had been a moment before frozen as hard as granite, slowly wiggled and came to life. The modern Blackstone who performed this miracle was none other than Professor J. S. Satterly of the Physics Department.

The students of the various years and faculties crowded into the lecture room and remained spellbound as that mysterious substance called liquid air was put through its paces.

Envious eyes watched the cooling beverage pass the Professor's lips as he imbued heartily. According to the latter, however, it was an indulgence fraught with the greatest danger, for once inside it was sure to prove more unruly than the strongest spirits.

To illustrate the spherical state the professor poured the frosty liquid on his highest appendage, where it danced merrily, steaming away under the heat (Continued on page 4)

Reserved Punch for Final Struggle with Parkdale Canoe Club

VARSITY ALWAYS IN LEAD

Hetherington Shows Stellar Exhibition of Hockey

Varsity juniors won the championship of the Big Four O.H.A. group when they defeated Parkdale Canoe Club three to two in the third game of the playoff series at the Arena Gardens on Saturday night. The final score on the round was six to five for the Blue and White, each team having won one of the previous games two goals to one. This is the first junior group title for a U. of T. team since 1923.

On the night's play Coach Sullivan's squad clearly deserved a win. They showed much more effectiveness on the attack than their green-shirted rivals, and appeared to have kept considerable punch in reserve after the previous two grueling struggles. The P.C.C. forwards showed signs of leg-weariness and displayed a woeful lack of finish around the net, missing what looked to be sure goals on more than one occasion.

Play was fairly even in the first period and both teams missed wonderful chances to score when right in on the net. The goalies were working overtime keeping the puck out. After seventeen minutes of play Brant put the Blues in the lead when he came in fast from the blue line and taking Hetherington's pass, slammed the puck past Carey.

Levinson opened the second session with some nice rushes and then P.C.C. came right back with several dangerous attacks. Johnson tied the count after ten minutes of play when, unmarked in a scramble in front of the "T" cage, Oliver passed the puck out to the wing man, who shot it across the goal mouth, and hitting the post, was deflected in. Goalkeeper Humsett protested the score, claiming the puck had not crossed the line, but the goal was allowed.

Varsity went into the lead again after the face off in the final period, when Williamson carried the puck the length of the ice and passed to Hetherington right in front of the nets, the diminutive right winger making no mistakes with his shot. The crowd was in an uproar as Parkdale worked frantically to equalize. The Paddlers missed some golden opportunities and once had the disc right in front of the (Continued on page 3)

Loyal Subjects Rise When Anthem Radioed

Is it necessary to stand at attention when "God Save the King" is heard over the radio? Some patriotic students, who were in a popular Huron Street coffee shop the other night when the program included the National Anthem, seemed to think it was. After a moment of hesitation, they stopped eating and stood up in their places.

People who were passing by peered through the windows in an effort to ascertain why everyone was standing. A few individuals even came into the shop to find out what it was all about. After looking around in a puzzled manner they, too, caught the familiar strains and came to attention.

Miss Minerva Sinclair, 311 U.C., a co-ed who took in this little performance remarked, "I never felt so silly in my life. It seemed to be quite a natural thing to do, but we certainly must have looked foolish."

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor—K. J. Erwin Assistant—V. Geller

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10th, 1930

THE WHEAT POOL, A HOLD UP?

The opponents of co-operative marketing by small producers are taking what may be the final plunge against the Wheat Pool. The success of the Pool has always been hindered by the proponents of individualism in the west, and now when that organization is doing what any sane private corporation would, howls are raised that may be heard not only in Canada but more clearly and less intelligently in the foreign markets of the world. Honest means of opposition are not enough; but, as is not unusual when private firms desire to tear down confidence, the grossest of lies are resorted to. The latest and greatest of these unfair statements was the rumour circulated that the Wheat Pool fears a crash and is asking the Federal Government for assistance.

To many in the east the Wheat Pool only comes into prominence when the bakers raise the price of bread and claim it is because the Pool controls the sale and marketing of Canadian wheat. They forget to point out that the privately-owned firms are doing the same and that it is to preserve the thousands of small farmers from incurring tremendous loss that these ordinary means of sane marketing are being used.

The Pool has been found to be a necessity in the west, for the farmer has enough worry over the possibilities of poor crops due to drought, frost or one of the many other causes of failure, without having to worry about selling the wheat. If the small farmer were in the position of men with means that can hold on to their wheat until the right price is offered, there would be no need for a system of co-operative marketing, but he is not, and so the Pool has filled a need that has been present for a long time.

It was not because the western farmer wanted to "skin" the buyer in Liverpool that they combined into a huge organization that worked in the form of a Pool. It was because he found that he had to protect himself against the rapacious buyers, with no persons but their own shareholders to consider, that he was driven into joining forces.

During the war it was found that government control of wheat was the most beneficial for all concerned. But after the clouds of Mars began to disappear from the skies it was felt that the government could not continue in its capacity of protector of the rights of the small farmer, and so he was left to himself. The chaotic conditions that followed proved that some form of co-operation was necessary and despite the weak-kneed farmers, there was formed, in the different provinces, organizations for the sale of wheat.

The Pool has been going on now in slightly different form since about 1924 with a good deal of success, but never has the test of its power been as serious as at present. The propaganda of those who lost a chance for profits because of this excellent scheme has been powerful and insistent, and now when prices on the world market for wheat are low they see their chance of smashing sledge-hammer blows on the thin edge that they feel they have inserted into the powerful Pool.

Nobody with the tiniest bit of business sense would suggest that the farmer sell his wheat at an unusually low price when by waiting a short time he can receive something like the price really due him. That is simply what the officials of the Wheat Pool are doing! They are storing the wheat until the market is more favourable for the producers of that commodity. They are not gambling as they have been accused of doing. They are not holding up the people of Great Britain by demanding high prices. They are not trying to cause a wheat shortage as their Canadian opponents are claiming. They are simply trying to get a fair deal for the small farmers, who cannot themselves, when unorganized wait for better prices.

The Pool is run on a solid business basis, or the bankers, who are the most cautious creatures in the world, would not support it. The Pool has its department that delves into the statistics of wheat demand and possible supply and it has a firm basis for saying that if it holds on for a short time there will be a demand insistent enough to permit a decent price for the results of the farmers' toil.

The governments of Saskatchewan, Alberta and Manitoba are correct in offering public support to the Pool. They realize the meaning of lack of confidence in an organization consisting of so

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Boys' Parliament

Editor of "The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

Boy orators and boy parliamentarians have been receiving unwarranted publicity of late. Not only unwarranted, but unfair. In the first place, as any well-informed person knows, the Boys' Parliament has nothing in common with Oratorical Contests. The article in the Canadian Forum, quoted in your issue of February 6th, was so filled with mis-statements as to be eloquent of ignorance concerning the Boys' Parliament and much else. We do not write however on that faux pas in criticism: the question on which our pens grow ink is the treatment meted out to a certain first year student, Fred Hotson by name, who was fortunate or unfortunate enough to win an Oratorical Contest once upon a time. With the Editor of the "Round Table" of February 6th, we agree that the publicity attendant upon oratorical contests and parliaments will provide dangerous hazards for any boy. But this does not mean that all who emerge are afflicted with a swelled head.

During the autumn term Fred Hotson was subjected to a severe "razz" by a reporter who not only consistently misinterpreted the freshman's statements, but misquoted him. A third person was present during that famous interview and vouches for the truth of this statement. Hotson has been a student here now for the better part of a year. From his record we have every reason to believe that the criticism was unwarranted. Yet in the issue of February 6th there appears a thinly disguised masterpiece of juvenile wit bearing the same old insinuation.

We do not believe it to be the policy of "The Varsity" to pour ridicule on Oratorical Contests or the Boys' Parliament. We regard the undergraduate newspaper most highly, and do not mean this to be destructively critical. These lines are to express sincere regret that a student should be made the butt of continual undeserved censure to gratify the literary ego and further swell the long-since swelled head of a smart young reporter who possesses a perverted sense of newspaper ethics.

Sincerely yours,
Howe Martyn
Edward Joffille
Frank M. Cryderman
Earl Lautenslager

Editorial Note—If the young fresh-Hotson, has been misquoted we regret it very much. Reporters on "The Varsity" have always been told to be fair to their subjects and that is the case on almost all occasions.

Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

As a Pass Arts student I am writing to say that I agree entirely with your editorial on "This Business of Abolition". I think that the proposal to have equal requirements for Honour and Pass students entering the university would do much to raise university standards.

In this way, students taking the general course would lose that terrific inferiority complex which most "just Pass" students now have. This would react upon their work. At present it's "not done" for most Pass students to take an interest in their studies, but if students of equal calibre simply de-many thousands of members, for nowhere else can there be created a panic so easily. But there would be no idea of panics in the minds of the farmers if they were left alone. The prairie provinces are not moved by the desire to pay debts contracted by co-operative organizations; but they see clearly that insidious and open propaganda must be killed and that the Pool is an organization run by officials who know their affairs.

To say that because of the orderly marketing of wheat the favourable sentiment of the big buyer in Liverpool will be changed to hatred, is piffle. Sentiment does not enter into that phase of the question; it is simply a matter of cold business acumen, a desire to break the Pool on one side and a desire to get cheaper wheat on the other. Those who hold the interests of the small producer as of prime importance will wish more power to the Pool. This exaggerated crisis will be the first step towards strengthening the lily-livered weaklings and adding greater confidence to those pioneers of producers' co-operation in Canada.

CHAMPUS CAT

THE DWEADFUL DWAGON

Chapter 4

Sorrow reigned in the home of Slo Gin, for all the household mourned the passing of his father, the wealthy silk worm tamer. As our hero sat in silence by the bier, methodically swallowing each lump that came into his throat, he could hear the silk worms bleating pitifully and the servants in the kitchen salting the bird-nest soup with their scalding tears and letting the dressed dog brains burn unnoticed in their grief.

C—C

"I found him hanging from the candelabra with his hands tied behind his back,—and the police said it was suicide," moaned Slo Gin.

The missionary placed a kindly hand upon the youth's shoulder. "It is as I have always told you, my boy," he said, "there are some things in this life which we cannot understand."

C—C

"Perhaps after all it was for the best. Think of poor Fling Flem's father who died of opium poisoning last week."

"Opium!" cried Slo Gin. "That is the answer. I cannot bear this any longer. I shall smoke the pipe to dream away my sorrow!"

"No, no, anything but that!" gasped the missionary, trying in vain to restrain the grief-stricken lad. "Opium is a terrible thing. Even Russian vodka is better than that. Try vodka, Slo Gin," he coaxed, "They say that there is a good grade of wood alcohol in it—"

But Slo Gin had gone.

C—C

Chapter 5

Slo Gin strode blindly through the streets, jostling pedestrians and upsetting rickshaws in his mad career. Bursting into an artisan's shop, he swallowed a quart of lacquer and washed it down with a bottle of linseed oil before the terrified craftsman could lift a hand.

C—C

Feeling well varnished, our hero staggered out into the street with the red liquid dripping from his lips.

C—C

And so on, dear reader. Far be it from us to bother you with further shameful details of Slo Gin's drunken crime wave, don't read this far. Suffice to say that when Slo Gin began throwing stolen lipstick about the market place he aroused suspicions and was arrested in mistake for "The Dragon" who had killed his father and lipstuck his stomach.

C—C

Chapter 6

Concerns the effort of Gay Flea to gain her sweetheart's release by pleading with the young mayor of Sun Tan. This chapter will be omitted and must be imagined.

We have almost decided to have Slo Gin properly executed and put out of his misery next Monday, but we cannot seem to bring ourselves to do it.

Gaspard McGuffey.

ecided to take either a general or special course, then the general course might develop some pride in itself.

Incidentally the extra year at university would deter many who drift into First Year Pass to get free from school or just to "have a good time" (Continued on page 4)

The Glad Hand . . . .

is the hand that is perfectly groomed and clad in the glove that is worthy. Kid gloves, of fine skins, perfect in fit, developed in the new Spring colours, with trimming that introduces a contrasting colour ..... $1.98

Tune in Every Wednesday, 7 p.m., C.F.C.A. Virginia Dare and her Bay Friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET
At Birmahood
AD. 5095

788 YONGE STREET
Next door to Uptown Theatre
EL. 3600

2494 YONGE STREET
Next door to Capitol Theatre
HU. 4780

OPEN EVENINGS

HART HOUSE THEATRE

(By permission of the Syndics)

Monday, Feb. 10th

8.30 p.m.

JOYCE

HORNYANSKY

'CELLIST

Tickets: $1.90, and Students $1.10, including tax, at Heintzman & Co., 195 Yonge St. Mail orders to Management, Katherine Whetham, 1012 C. P. R. Bldg., WA. 4302.

DANCING LESSONS

REDUCED RATES

By special request Mr. Walford will continue these low rates during Jan., Feb., and March. Private lessons the only way to learn successfully.

Strictly Private - 6 for $5.00
Semi Private - 6 for $4.00
(Two pupils taking same lesson)
Class Lessons - 8 for $5.00
HARRY WALFORD—RT. 4882
Address—65 WELLESLEY ST.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

WARNER BROS.

SHOW of SHOWS

You see and hear all the foremost players of the screen

100 STARS
1000 HOLLYWOOD BEAUTIES
100 SHOWS IN ONE

TO-DAY
UPTOWN
TO-DAY

THE INCOMPARABLE COMEDY STARS

WILTON & WEBER

Presenting "Mr. America"
100% Variety of Fun

CLAIRE VINCENT
exhibiting
"An Elching From Life"

ADA BROWN
The Plantation "Mammy"

OTHER FINE ACTS

MATINEE 30c
Except Saturday

On the Screen

Billie DOVE

The Painted Angel

Her First Singing, Dancing and Talking Role

Have Your Brakes Tested

AND SAVE 10

SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE

205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

Why invest in a new suit. Rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street.

STUDENT RATE
8 Lessons $5.00

This rate is offered to students only. Applicants must present registration card.

Jack Slater's orchestra at Thursday advanced classes. Dancing till midnight. Beginners' class Tuesday 8.30. Private lessons by appointment.

DACOSTA
Studio of Dancing
Columbus Hall RA. 8650

COLLEGE GOWNS
CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON
103 King St. W., Toronto

VARSITY JUNIORS DEFEAT PARKDALE TO WIN BIG FOUR GROUP

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity Juniors sure pulled down one sweet win over Parkdale Canoe Club Saturday night. It was a great game and the crowd showed its appreciation in no uncertain manner. The Boys in Blue had a good edge in play and should have won by more than one goal.

Sid Hetherington, the diminutive Varsity right winger, was the outstanding star of the game. Sid scored two goals, made the pass for a third and showed enough polish around the nets to make Howie Morenz jealous. Levinsky and Williamson on the defence, were great and Cunningham and Brant at centre played good hockey. Smillie at left wing got out of a sick bed to play and was below form.

Parkdale Canoe Club's first goal was handed to them on a gold platter. Johnson, the Paddlers' good left winger, got a passout from behind the net and standing at one side, let a shot go for the corner. The puck slid along the ice and hitting the goal post, was deflected out at an angle, which showed that it had never passed the goal line. The goal judge flashed the light and Referee Harry Batstone allowed the goal. Varsity protested it and the goal judge was changed.

Frank Sullivan's men combined better than the Canoe Club sextet and their shooting was much superior. Smillie, who has been ill all week, was the only Blueshirt who had trouble in locating the net.

The juniors certainly didn't get any of the breaks when they drew Owen Sound as their next opponents. The northerners have a heavy scoring team and are bound to give Captain Hunnissett and his worthies plenty of trouble.

McGill's basketball team showed a smart game here Friday night when they defeated the locals. Don Young, at centre, proved himself to be a clever field general and was a big factor in his team's victory. This loss should spur McCutcheon's men to greater efforts. The Blue will have an opportunity to redeem themselves when they play Queen's and McGill on the latter's floors this week.

The women's senior intercollegiate hockey team invades Kingston on Wednesday for the first game of the annual home and home series. The Blue and White girls have had hard luck in the last week or so. Helen McKinley, the goalie, was hit in the face by the puck and Fran Crookes, the Blue's star defence player, is laid up with a bad knee. Both these girls were out of the Pats game Saturday night and there is not much hope that they will be able to play at Queen's this week.

The Varsity sextet has not been able to get anywhere in the City League this season. Saturday night, the Blue team went down to its third straight defeat when Pats defeated them by a 6-0 score. Incidentally Pats is leading the group with three wins in three starts, and Aura Lee is right behind with only one defeat.

The Varsity women's intermediate basketball team meets its seniors tonight in the opening fixture of the City League. The game is scheduled for 7 o'clock at the U.T.S. gym. The seniors are in excellent condition, and have been going exceedingly well in practice. The intermediates will be without the services of Mary Sackie on the defence. Miss Sackie has a bad arm and will be out of the game for at least a week.

0-0 AT WOMEN'S MATCH

The women's interfaculty hockey game between Meds and Vic seconds, Saturday afternoon at the Varsity rink, proved a no-score game in spite of ten minutes overtime.

Both sides played good hockey and were at their best. It was a hard-fought game on soft ice, the ends being particularly bad. Mary Lewis was off for a short time due to a fall, but otherwise the game was swift and smooth.

THE SIGN OF THE LANTERN Open Sundays
5 WILCOCKS STREET
Breakfast, Luncheon, Afternoon Tea, Dinner
Sandwich Shop—open 7.30 a.m. to 11.30 p.m.
KINGSDALE 2259
Bridge Parties Fraternity Dinners

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of Formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
671 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

McMASTER DEFEATS INTERMEDIATE TEAM

Baptists Break Fast to Gain Better Shots From Close In

GROOME STAR OF GAME

McMaster University intermediate basketball team defeated Varsity 37 to 32 in the preliminary fixture to the senior game with McGill at Hart House Saturday night. The game was a repetition of the last time these two teams met. The Baptists broke fast to get into position for a shot from close under the cage. All their points came within a small area from the basket while, on the other hand, the Blue and White players resorted to long shots with only mediocre success.

McMaster has a real star in Groome at centre. He passed the ball consistently and yet was rewarded by notching 14 of his team's points. Reynolds and Patterson form a clever pair of forwards. Hal Collins was the outstanding performer on the losing aggregation. He piled up a total of 14 points, and with any kind of luck on some of his shots, would have counted more. Carr came through with 8 points. Calderone turned in a nice effort on the defence.

McMaster (37)—Forwards, Patterson (8), Reynolds (6); centre, Groome (14); guards, B. Whidden (3), Lam (6); spares, Mitchnick, Lillie, H. Whidden.

Varsity (32)—Forwards, Carr (8), Collins (14); centre, Sobel (3); guards, Calderone (1), Riley (2); spares, Graham, Buchanan, Douglas (4).

Referee—Percy Miller.

BASKETBALL SENIORS BOW BEFORE MCGILL

Montrealers' Defence Proves Too Much For Varsity Quintet

OPPONENTS ALWAYS LEAD

Varsity senior basketball quintet lost its first home game of the intercollegiate series to McGill 28 to 22 at Hart House gymnasium Saturday night. The Montrealers had a slight edge in the play and excelled defensively to deserve the victory.

McGill opened the scoring shortly after the commencement of the game when Captain Don Young sunk a pretty basket from outside the Blue and White defence. From that point on, the Red and White retained the lead, but not without a great deal of difficulty. The locals kept pressing throughout the entire 40 minutes of play and put up a real battle.

McGill were on the favourite side of a 15 to 9 count at the end of the first half, due largely to the efforts of Peiker, a guard. Peiker broke away from "Buff" Horton, his check, for three pretty baskets and the "T" squad called a two-minute rest. Peiker again broke away for another basket and Riggs was sent in to relieve Horton. His presence on the floor considerably strengthened the Blue defence. He contributed a couple of foul shots and George O'Leary dropped two perfect set-shots to keep the locals in the hunt.

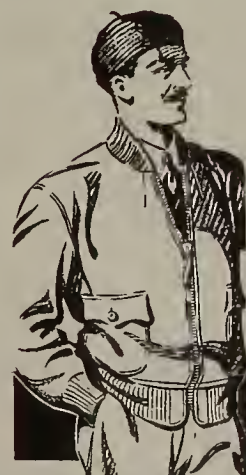

The visitors put up a strong defensive game in the second frame and were able to keep the 6-point lead they had earned in the first period to the end of the match. Horton netted two points when O'Leary shot short on a free throw. McGill objected and reference was made to a rule book. The basket was sustained.

Varsity (22)—Forwards, Horton

FOR SMART

WINTER WEAR

We have just received from England some of the smartest Windbreakers we have seen for some time. You cannot fail to like the soft, luxurious leather from which they are made . . . and then the hookless fastener to simplify things when your fingers are nearly frozen. You can get them in either a beige or a chocolate shade—both equally smart.

PRICED AT $25—SECOND FLOOR—JAMES ST.

THE T. EATON CO LIMITED

Varsity at Melrose

At the Millrose A.C. games held in New York Saturday night, Johnny Fitzpatrick of the University of Toronto placed second in the 60 yard dash. The Canadian relay team composed of Fitzpatrick, U. of T., Ralph Adams, U. of T., Dore, Hamilton, and Miller of Hamilton, came second in the 880 yard relay.

PATS DEFEAT WOMEN IN SENIOR HOCKEY MATCH

Former Superior At All Times but Varsity Regulars Absent

The champion Pats took the measure of the Varsity women's senior hockey team on Saturday night six to nothing. Pats were superior at all times, and only occasionally did Varsity threaten. However, the Blue girls were handicapped by the absence of three of their regulars. Helen McKinley, goal, who was injured a week and a half ago, Fran Crookes, who has an injured knee, and Adele Statten.

Pats took an early lead, scoring after about two minutes of play, on a pretty solo effort by Mary Porter. A few minutes later the forward line combined for another tally.

Dot Roffey added another early in the second period, and Mary Porter made it 4-0 after about five minutes of play in the same frame. In this terminated attack, and were unlucky not to score on several occasions.

In the third period Pats tallied twice with Dot Roffey carrying the puck both times.

Dot Roffey and Mary Porter were the best players on the ice and were as good defensively as when carrying the puck. Margot Thompson and Naomi Slater were the pick for Varsity.

(9), Davey (4); centre, O'Leary (5); guards, Sakler (2), Currie; spares, Cook, Riggs (2), Sniderman, Wood.

McGill (28)—Forwards, Faulkner (3, Small (7); centre, Young (2); guards, Moore, Peiker (8); spares, Weldon (6), Rice (2), Calhoun.

KNOX DEFEATS EMMANUEL IN TUSSELE FRIDAY 3-0

Good Defence by Knox Goalie When Theologs Clash on Ice

Knox defeated Emmanuel three to nothing Friday evening on the centre cushion in the interfaculty hockey series. Knox scored twice in the first period when Baulch and K. Davidson beat the Emmanuel goalie easily. The Knox goalie was quite superior and made several good saves. In the third period Houston for Emmanuel passed the puck to Coleman for Knox and the latter popped it in. Houston made a brilliant dash down the ice and shot, but Barclay for Knox made a good save.

Knox—Goal, Barclay; defence, Boyd and Greene; forwards, Baulch, K. Davidson and Coleman; subs, D. Davidson, Goforth and Jack.

Emmanuel—Goal, Pointon; defence, Addison and Crosby; forwards, Fennell, Romans and Houston; subs, Binington and Armstrong.

VARSITY JUNIORS WILL PLAY WITH OWEN SOUND

Home and Home Games Will Feature O. H. A. Play-off

Varsity juniors will meet the Owen Sound Greys in the second round of the junior O.H.A. playoffs according to the draw arranged by the O.H.A. committee. The Blue and White will play the first game of the round in Owen Sound Wednesday night and the return fixture is here Friday at the Arena Gardens.

In spite of their tough three-game playoff with Parkdale Canoe Club, Frank Sullivan's men are in great shape for the playdowns. Owen Sound is rated as one of the strongest junior teams in the province. The Orange and Black drew a bye in their group and then easily defeated Guelph in their first championship games, taking the round 17-5. Owen Sound must be considered as serious opposition for the Blue and a great pair of games should result.

JUNIORS TAKE TITLE

(Continued from page 1)

open net, but the entire Varsity team fell on it in a wild scramble and a score was averted. Oliver finally tied the score on a pass from Johnson with but two minutes to go. Forty-five seconds later, however, Hetherington skated through the entire P.C.C. team to tally the winning counter for the Blue and White.

SUMMARY

1—Varsity—Brant (Hetherington) 17
Second Period
2—Parkdale—Johnson (Oliver) 10
Third Period
3—Varsity—Hetherington (Williamson) 9
4—Parkdale—Oliver (Johnson) 18
5—Varsity—Hetherington 1845
Varsity—Goal, Hunnissett; defence, Levinsky and Williamson; centre, Brant; wings, Smillie and Hetherington; alternates, Cunningham, Bennett, Hendry, Funston (sub goal).
P.C.C.—Goal, Carey; defence, S. Bowman and R. Bowman; centre, Oliver; wings, Corson and Hall; alternates, Kitson, Johnson and Pepler.
Referee—Harry Batstone.

MEOS DOWN DRUGGISTS SKURKO SCORING ACE

Senior Meds squeezed out a one-point victory over Pharmacy in a low-scoring interfaculty basketball game played Friday afternoon. Skurko of Pharmacy was the scoring ace of the game, netting seven of his team's nine points. Fox and Scott had four apiece for the winners, and Garbe earned two more for a total of ten.

Senior Meds (10)—Fox (4), Good, Scott (4), Hurwitz, Goldenberg, McEachern, Garbe (2).

Pharmacy (9)—Wadland (1), Hern, Skurko (7), Fox, Walsh (1), Cameron, Smith, Russell, Norris, Beckett.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

260 College St. TRINITY 5987
Harry Winfield, Prop.
CIGARS - MAGAZINES
Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries
Name your day
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Landing Library.

Arthur Wing Pinero's "TRELAWNY OF THE 'WELLS'" AT HART HOUSE THEATRE
February 13, 14, 15
Presented by TRINITY COLLEGE DRAMATIC SOCIETY
Saturday Matinee
Seats Now--Box Office TR. 2723
ADMISSION 50c. and 25c. plus tax

Coming Events

MONDAY, FEB. 10
5 p.m.—Dr. Georges Thelin of Geneva in the Music Room, Hart House.
4.00-6.00—Graduate Students' Tea, 81 St. George Street.

TUESDAY, FEB. 11
1.30—Nomination meeting for permanent executive of 3TU U.C. and U.C. representative for Moss Scholarship. West Hall U.C.
5.00 p.m.—Meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. at Wymilwood.

6.45—Annual athletic at-home of Victoria College. Dinner at Burwash Hall. Dancing at Wymilwood.

8.00 p.m.—Mrs. Tmanuel Hahn on "Modern Sculpture" at the Women's Union, auspices of the U.C. Women's Literary Society.

8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of Trinity College Science Club in Trinity College Library. Mr. R. K. Young will speak on Modern Astronomy. Refreshments and dancing. Everybody welcome.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 12
Riverdale ex-pupils annual at-home, Roof Gardens, Royal York.

5.15 p.m.—Professor John Line on "Why Pray in a World of Law?" in the Music Room, Hart House.

8.00 p.m.—Annual contest in public speaking for U.C. women at the Union.

9 p.m.—Annual Dental At-Home at the Royal York Hotel. Subscription $5.00.

THURSDAY, FEB. 13

4.30 p.m.—A meeting of the M. and P. Society in Room 43 of the Physics Building. Speaker: Mr. H. B. Speakman, Director of the Ontario Research Foundation.

4.30—Women's Press Club at the Union. Short story week.

7.30 p.m.—In Women's Union 79 St. George St., Thursday Discussion Group of the Fabius Club.

FRIDAY, FEB. 14

2 p.m.—3TU women's class party at Women's Union.

8.30 p.m.—Malvern ex-pupils at-home to be held at the Collegiate Auditorium.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19

8.00 p.m.—Biological Club Conversa-

SAYS CAPITALISTS FINANCED REVOLT

(Continued from page 1)
ated. Germany and United States are now receiving the benefits of that disruption, leaving Britain with a narrowed foreign market for her goods, and a greater unemployment problem.

In developing the idea of world peace, Mr. Rorke emphasized the necessity of resuming relations with Russia. "There couldn't be world peace if the two countries would not speak," he asserted.

J. T. Wilson, Arts '30, first speaker for the Opposition, deplored "Russia's insidious and underhand diplomacy with Britain in the past." He made a special point of Russia's extreme youth under Soviet control and her impoverished condition. In further denunciation of Russia, Mr. Wilson exclaimed, "Her avowed intent is the overthrow of all existing governments and to bring all peoples to Communism."

"If Russia is hostile to England, it will affect us in India," argued M. H. MacLeod of Huron College. He developed his argument to show how a break between Russia and Great Britain would affect other nations and the cause for world peace.

zation at the Biological Building. A popular exhibit and demonstration of Biological methods and activities. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 20

8.15—Combined meeting of the Victoria College and University College French Societies at the Women's Union.

FRIDAY, FEB. 21

9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College Arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22

8.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26

9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

FRIDAY, FEB. 28

8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.

Plagiarized Poetry Produced 'Proximates Poorest of Papers'

By P. A. Gardner

Just to demonstrate our flair for anticipating projected ideas, we are having our own literary issue to-day. Frankly, we think the contributors are all pretty "lousy," but we've got to get rid of the prize-money somehow.

(First Prize):
A Seeker in Search of a Soul
Augustus Addison
"Twas only yesterday I pranced
And gambolled through the fringed glade,
Nor upward gazed, nor heavenward glanced—
Beside me pranked a wanton maid.

Within my breast there sudden smote
A plangent pain, a scythe-like sob:
A voice internal, far remote
Harsh bade me flee the madding mob.

Now eagerly I glimpse my goal,
A seeker searching for a soul.

(Second Prize):
DEAD FISH
Benjamin Blopp

Far, far beyond
my ken there floats,
there flaccid floats
a regiment of corpses,
sad bulging bodies
floating aimlessly hither and thither, they achieve nothing.
Is life like this?
can it be thus?
alas, I fear it is so.
tchik, tchik!

(First Prize):
Had Thackeray Paralyzed Triceps?

Geoffrey Guggins
For months one has scarcely been able to pick up a magazine (Ed. Note.—Could Thackeray?) without reading therein some vicious and amentiae reference to the question: Were the Thackeray triceps paralyzed?
Certainly not! is my courteous retort. Could the Master have written "Barry Lyndon"? Could he have edited "Vanity Fair"? Could he have typed "Dombey and Son"? had those great triceps been powerless? No, a thousand times (if this does not exceed the word limit) no! The tide is bound to turn. Not many years hence I predict the world of letters will celebrate the Tercentenary of the Thackeray Triceps.

(Second Prize):
SOUR SUNLIGHT
Furness Flingaway
"You shut! you foul vermin! take your filthy hands off my neck!"
"Hit me! roll me in the mud! tear my shimmy ta bits! I love ya, I tell ya!"
"Aw, get the hell away from me!"
And with a spin of his wrist he sent her sprawling. She still gazed at him like a fawning puppy. She threw him a kiss. Disgusted, he threw her a boulder. She accepted it without a word. "Kid, I love ya!" she sobbed.
"Take me, I don't want nothin'. Just take me for your own, that's all!"
"Huh!" he replied, and lurching towards her, chin dripping with beer, he grabbed her. "Alright," he muttered, "I'll take you! I'll take you!"
***

Sour sunlight, curdling a bunch of bones. What the hell is this thing called life? Who cares anyhow?

BULLETIN BOARD

DR. THELIN TO SPEAK

Dr. Georges Thelin of the International Labour Office, Geneva, will speak in the Music Room, Hart House, at 5 o'clock to-day. Dr. Thelin has come to Canada at the request of Mr. Albert Thomas, director of the International Labour Office, to study the relation of the Canadian churches to Labour and Industry. He is a young lawyer still under forty-five, and is one of the leaders of the Life and Work Movement. All men students cordially invited.

JUNIOR HOCKEY

There will be a practice at Arena Gardens, Tuesday at 12.30 to 1.30. Game at Owen Sound on Wednesday.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS CLUB

The attention of the members of the Foreign Affairs Club is called to the meeting with Dr. Georges Thelin of the International Labour Office, Geneva, in the Music Room, Hart House, at 5 p.m. Monday.

RIVERDALE EX-PUPILS

Tickets for Riverdale ex-pupils may be procured from Jack Hick, III School, or Ted Baker, II C. and F., Roof Gardens, Royal York Hotel, on Wednesday, February 12th.

THEOLOGDS ARE NEEDED

(Continued from page 1)

"Your mission will help you in every way it can. It will pay your transportation to the place that you are assigned to and your lodgings while there. You will also receive a salary of fifteen dollars a week if you stay for more than eighteen weeks.

"However, while you are at the mission you will be entirely on your own initiative. Sometimes there will be a church ready for you, in other places a school house or a vacant barn will have to be your church. If you are fortunate you may have a car to drive but in most districts a bicycle or a horse will be your only means of transportation, when you want to visit the scattered homes of your congregation.

"At first you may be discouraged but by constant effort you will achieve success in the spreading of the gospel of Jesus Christ among people who without you would not feel the healing touch of the Master."

U. C. WOMEN'S LIT.

The open meeting of the U.C. Women's Literary Society, will be held on Tuesday, February 11th at 8 p.m., in the dining room of the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street. Mrs. Emanuel Hahn, a sculptress of note, will talk on "Modern Sculpture", illustrating her talk with lantern slides. Admission 25 cents.

INTERFACULTY HOCKEY

There will be a meeting of the Committee of Management in the athletic office on Tuesday at 1.30. Important.

VICTORIA

Tickets for the athletic at-home on Tuesday, Feb. 11th, will be on sale at the college at 1.30 to-day. Later in Room 12, Middle House.

BOXERS AND WRESTLERS

It is necessary that all entrants in the Senior Assaut, both in boxing and wrestling, should turn out to-night. The performances made during the next few days will, to a large extent, determine the personnel of the team. When you come, bring your Intercollegiate Eligibility Certificate, and if you have not already had it filled in, do so to-day.

63rd BIRTHDAY OF HEAD

(Continued from page 1)

faculty of medicine is to-day one of the best on the continent; and the report of the Carnegie Foundation groups the University of Toronto along with Harvard and Swarthmore as having the best honour courses in America. During his administration Sir Robert has won the highest esteem of faculty and students. The fact that the attendance has increased by about 2000 is a tribute to him.

Of late there have been undue rumours about the president's resignation, but he has smilingly denied them. Sir Robert is a builder from whom we can still expect a great deal.

Two hundred and fifty couples were present at the Annesley Hall at-home held on Friday evening. The rooms were effectively decorated to portray a thunder storm and the tea room was cozy with tapestries and cushions. Chancellor and Mrs. Wallace, Miss Addison and Miss Helen Day received.

Two Biltmore Shoes

fashionably important for Spring

The Slim Buckled Strap

—is the smart Shoe with afternoon frocks. This Biltmore with its short-cut vamp and slender buckled strap is shown in black kid and brown kid. At $12.

The Suede Tie

—will be the choice of the woman who looks to her shoes to complete the chic of her Spring Tailleur. These three-eyel tie are in black or brown-shaded suede. At $10.

Shoe Department—
Third Floor

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS
Kl. 6738
328 BLOOR ST. W.

PROFESSOR DISPLAYS SECRETS OF LIQUID AIR

(Continued from page 1)

produced by concentrated thought, according to the physiologist.

Eggs, sausages and various vegetables, frozen to a crisp by the liquid air, flew to all parts of the room when struck by a lustily wielded hammer.

The famous "Percy" played no small part in adding to the morning's entertainment.

CENSORSHIP SELFISH ERSKINE RAPS LAW

(Continued from page 1)

cerned about the decency of its books, and made some fool law about them. As a matter of fact censorship is merely in the interests of your kind of book, not decency. It used to be— if you wanted to damn a book over here, you called it a French novel; now Paris damns a book or a film by calling it American."

Mr. Erskine said he modelled his stories on the great tales in the Old Testament, Homer and Shakespeare. He said that he could tell the story of Joseph, and there was nothing he would like better, but—"It would ruin it utterly, if we had to run the censor's pencil through everything objectionable in it."

The speaker declared that he would not allow a child of his to read a story like "Polyanna", which he described as assinine. "We can't be delicate about a matter which concerns the morals of our children," he said. Quite the nastiest book by all odds that Mr. Erskine had ever read, was one in which a friend of his had simply blocked out certain words in a copy of "Mother Goose".

"When we say 'Beauty', let not say 'Prettiness', let us have a complete picture of life as it is," the speaker concluded.

CHIEF DRAPER GIVES ADDRESS TO CLUBMEN

(Continued from page 1)

described the escapades of a house-breaker and asked for co-operation on the part of the private citizen in combatting this type of thief.

"The habitual criminal is the most despicable creature on earth," he declared. Votes of thanks were moved by M. J. Daly and by M. J. Kelly, who occupied the chair.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

263 Bloor Street West
Near Avenue Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.

Open daily, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $8.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1885

FREEMAN'S—571 Yonge Street—is the largest concern for the rental of dress clothes.

HALL NOT FOUNDER

OF NATIONAL ORDER

(Continued from page 1)

individual efforts of several people who have the good of the Organization at heart, and one member would bring in another member.

We trust you will be courteous enough to give this letter the same display in your paper you gave to the article in Saturday Night.

Yours very truly,

National Scribe,

National Order of Canada.

Editorial Note—The students of this university have also "the desire to make Canada a better country", but they never have believed that the muffling of free thought and discussion would do it.

CDRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 2)

(if there really are any such), thus the general classes would be smaller and there would be more chance of individual contact.

Yours truly,

"TV Year Pass"

"... but I must remark upon the place travel occupies in the education of the modern world."—Sir Robert A. Falconer.

IT is now possible for almost every student to complete his or her education by travel.

$424.<sup>25</sup> and 43 Days

will enable you to see

SCOTLAND - HOLLAND
ENGLAND - BELGIUM
FRANCE

on the Canadian University Students' Tour arranged and directed by the N.F.C.U.S.

APPLY S.A.C.
OFFICE, HART HOUSE
TR. 5036
For Further Information
A. GORDON BURNS,
Travel Sec'y.

OCEAN CROSSING via CANADIAN PACIFIC

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

SOLID
BLACK LEATHER

FIBRE
BACK, STEEL
HINGES

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11th, 1930

No. 80

THELIN DESCRIBES LABOUR CONVENTION OF GENEVA OFFICE

Reduction in Hours and Improvement of Labour Conditions Is Aim

FIFTY-SIX NATIONS

Conventions Must Be Ratified by State Before Becoming Operative

"There can be no peace without social justice and it was primarily for that reason that the International Labour Office was created," stated Dr. Georges Thelin of Geneva in the Music Room, Hart House, yesterday. "It is in reality the social department of the League of Nations, but is quite independent of the League, and has its own rules of procedure."

"The organization consists of delegates from fifty-six separate states and the only large nations which are not represented are the United States and Russia. The conference meets once or twice yearly and each country has four delegates. The government selects two and the fourth delegate represents capital."

"Every delegate has a vote and a convention must pass the conference with a two-thirds majority. A convention of the office must come before the government of the separate states within sixteen months and must be ratified by the national parliament to become law, but a state is not bound to accept these conventions. But once a parliament passes the convention it is bound to it for ten years."

"A few of the conventions of the League are the forty-eight hour week, protection of child and woman workers and great strides have been made in the east and in central Europe. There has been some difficulty in obtaining an eight hour day, but Great Britain will probably ratify it soon and also Italy and France. In India the working hours have been reduced from seventy to sixty hours weekly."

"The influence of the International Labour Office is being felt in Japan, Persia and China. We are just beginning to research into wage conditions and will soon have a report on it."

Dr. Thelin answered several questions about what the Labour Office (Continued on page 4)

ATHLETIC AT-HOME COMMITTEE READY

Crests and V's to be Given Along With Mulock Cup

"To-night's Athletic At-Home should by far be the most enjoyable event on Victoria's social calendar for this year," said W. A. (Bill) Clarke to "The Varsity" yesterday.

The tremendous success which the At-Home received last year has forced the committee in charge to leave no stone unturned in making this evening a never-to-be-forgotten affair.

The At-Home will first take the form of a dinner to be held at 645 in Burwash Hall. Then the guests will go over to Wynilwood where they will enjoy a few hours of music as dispensed by Stan St. John.

During the course of the dinner the Mulock Cup, symbolic of the interfacally rugby championship will be presented to the college. Players on various teams will receive their crests, while the Victoria V's will be presented to the fortunate athletes.

Literary Issue

Contributions are already pouring in for "The Varsity" literary supplement to be printed in connection with next Monday's issue of the paper. Sit down and write yours now—or as soon as the lecture is over. Last chance to win prize money will elapse on Thursday of this week at one o'clock. Material must be handed in either at the News Office in Hart House or the Women's Office in University College. Poems and stories should be written on one side of the paper only, and preferably typewritten.

Prize awards are as follows:

Poetry: 1st prize, $15; 2nd prize, $10.

Prose (not to exceed 1000 words): 1st prize, $15; 2nd prize, $10.

Art (pen and ink or pencil drawings): 1st prize, $10.

The contest has been made possible through the donation of $100 by the Literary and Debates Committee for literary contests in "The Varsity". The judges are N. A. Benson, M.A., and P. E. Ussher, B.A.

SIR JOSHUA REYNOLDS PRAISED BY GRIER

British Artist Showed Influence of Victorian Taste in Portraits

GREAT PAGEANT OF PEOPLE

"It is hard to discover a clearer picture of England in the eighteenth century, than that given by Sir Joshua Reynolds," declared Wylly Grier, A.R.C.A., in his lecture on that eminent English painter given at The Grange, under the auspices of the university Department of Extension.

"He has a great pageant of people of infinitely different physical types and costumes; all over-dressed; people who eat and drink with barbarous gusto; indulge in coarse jokes; a race whose men ogled the women, smirking in return—but all done in the grand manner, using a conversation decorated with ancient Greek references. It was an age when people worshipped beauty to such an extent that they climbed on the tables in the drawing rooms, or sat up all night for but a glimpse of the Countess of Coventry and her sister—noted beauties of the day. Yet he shows you the sterling character of the Britisher as well as his foibles."

Describing the early methods of the painter, Mr. Grier said that Reynolds had formed the habit of placing his patrons always in the one position, with a hat beneath their arms. When a bolder spirit insisted on wearing his, the young painter automatically added the one under the arm as well. His work was true to life and very characteristic in spite of the fact that much of it was done by assistants, leaving the finishing touches to the master hand. But he also showed the influence of the taste of his time—ladies in gorgeous garments were painted amidst bosky woods, or Grecian columns, or, as in one case, carving her husband's initials on a tree in a primeval park with her coiffure disarrayed.

In one respect at least, his character resembled that of Nelson, for Nelson shifted his telescope to his blind eye when he didn't wish to see, and Sir Joshua Reynolds shifted his ear trumpet to his deaf ear when he didn't wish to hear.

This is the first of a series of art lectures to be given at The Grange for students and all who wish to attend.

Fay Thinks Co-operation Needed In Present World Wheat Crisis

President Better

"The Varsity" learned last night that the President, Sir Robert Falconer, who has been troubled with a severe cold, is feeling rather better.

FOOD OUSTS KNOWLEDGE IN CO-EDS' INTEREST

Is interest in eating ousting zeal for learning among co-eds in our fair university? A glance at the bulletin board at the University College Women's Union shows headings: "Who Has Toronto's Biggest Cook-book Collection?"; "Specialist in Diet—Beauty Clinics"; "Diet for Beauty, Brains, Brawn", not to mention the omnipresent "Sun Wheat".

Chocolate bars and the biscuit-and-milk service are always popular for between lectures, Miss Barber of the Women's Union affirms, but not to an alarming degree, although the consumption has been increasing lately. Chocolate bars and "brain-food" (Sun Wheat) are very much in demand at the Victoria College Book Bureau by both men and women.

But in spite of any apparent increase of activity elsewhere, the Hart House Tuck Shop is still supreme in its own line, and sultanas and milk over the counter there after a swim draw the greatest numbers.

PROFESSOR ODES PENANCE FOR ERRING STUDENTS

Spends Week in Fasting and Prayer on Behalf of Science Pupils

Special to "The Varsity"

By passing the week in humiliation and prayer, Professor J. C. Brown of the North Carolina State College believes that he atoned for the sins of his class in electrical engineering. In a recent examination he found to his dismay that the class average was 12 per cent. When the class appeared the next day they found this notice on the door: "The papers from this class are the poorest I ever got in 20 years of teaching. It would be wise not to bother me for the rest of the week, which I must pass in humiliation and prayer."

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Abolition of First Year Pass

Do you consider that the abolition of first year Pass Arts would be wise?

Miss Lois Reynolds, IV Victoria Pass—

"Yes, I do. The intellectual propensities of present first year Pass students would be more appreciated in the home-town high school."

T. A. Gavin, I U.C., Commerce and Finance—

"When students can get their honour matric at high school why should they spend their money on a year in Pass here? The only advantage is in developing them in the university atmosphere."

Gordon Forbes, I Victoria, Pass—

"No, I am against it. The difference between high school and university life is so great that it takes a year to become acclimatized. If you take first year Pass away that leaves only two for enjoyment."

Miss Frances Dale, IV U.C., Pass—

"Not particularly. Students would lose grounding in subjects not taught in honour matric, as ancient history. In first year Pass you get away from depending on knowledge from a book and have to discover it for yourself. On the other hand, a student is better prepared for an honour course by taking honour matric, which I do not think is adequately covered in first year Pass."

Ted Milliken, III Vic, Pol. Sci.—

"No, because I think first year Pass is easier than honour matric, and gives the lesser intellectual lights a better chance of getting into honour courses. Otherwise I wouldn't be where I am."

J. Drummond, Dent I—

"Yes, it would relieve the congestion in the Hart House line at noon."

New Buildings

Victoria College students were startled yesterday morning to find that a new addition to their campus had sprung up. A small shed, of tasteful and simple, though not ornate architecture, had been erected during the past week between the old college building and the excavation for Emmanuel College, but students were unaware of its purpose until yesterday when a large sign announced: "Emmanuel College Registrar's Office".

Officials yesterday neither refuted nor denied the rumour that the shanty was the first wing of the greater Emmanuel College.

"Varsity" News Writer Plays at Royal York

Miss Eleanor Smith, III English and History, U.C., has been distinguishing herself in the field of music in another capacity than that of reporter for "The Varsity". Music lovers who were present at the Royal York Hotel on Sunday night heard her give a worthy rendering of Rubenstein during one of Dr. Harvey Robb's weekly Sunday evening recitals. Miss Smith has always studied under Dr. Robb, and has had her A.T.C.M. for several years. Last year she gave a recital of her own at the Toronto Conservatory of Music as well as playing in Conservatory concerts at Massey Hall.

"She works hard, but seems to thrive on it, for the more she has to do, the better she is," declared her doctor father when questioned concerning possible "music versus college" complications.

YO-YO NOT ON SALE AT THE TUCK SHOP

Students Not Impressed By Possibilities of Latest Craze

NO MOVE TO IMPORT

The Tuck Shop at Hart House has upheld its reputation for being up-to-date by being one of the first places in Toronto to sell Sun-Wheat biscuits, but it does seem to be lacking in the latest craze—the Yo-yo.

When the manager of the Tuck Shop was interviewed yesterday by "The Varsity", he seemed at a loss when "yo-yo" was mentioned. The reporter soon gave him an idea of this new invention and told him that they were made for the recreation of tired students.

Apparently no one has asked for them at the Tuck Shop and it seems that there is no possibility of the Tuck Shop importing the yo-yo from the United States. However, if the yo-yo craze increases, the manager asserted "The Varsity" that steps would be taken to get a stock on hand.

The general impression gained from the students who were in the Shop at the time of the interview did not augur well for the popularity of the sport.

Gordon Fee, II U.C., thought that he had reached the age of discretion and would not be affected by the advent of the yo-yo on the campus. He did express admiration for one student in second year B. and M. whom he had seen performing with the yo-yo with what he thought was unusual proficiency.

Don Dowdes, I Victoria, thought that the yo-yo would not gain much popularity in University of Toronto circles and stated definitely that he

PROFESSOR ADVISES COLLEGE SHUT-DOWN FOR LAZY STUDENTS

Dr. Archibald MacMechan of Dalhousie University Writes in Magazine

PROFESSORS DISAGREE

"Would Leave Too Many of Us Without Jobs"—Principal Wallace

"It would leave too many of us without jobs," is the answer of Dr. Malcolm Wallace, principal of University College, to the proposal to close the doors of Canadian universities, which is advanced by Archibald MacMechan, Professor of English at Dalhousie in the current issue of MacLean's Magazine. "Let us disestablish all Canadian universities at once, turn the staff out to grass and release the poor students from the hateful tyranny of learning anything whatever," suggests Dr. MacMechan.

"Our students constitute, with the rich old invalids who winter in California, our one leisure class," he claims further. Dr. Wallace, however, believes that people underestimate the amount of work done by students. In addition to studies which are often pursued when others are playing, they frequently earn money in vacation jobs.

E. K. Brown of the English department of University College, takes the view that leisure consists in not having to work for a living, and that this puts students in the leisure class. But, he says, "Leisure is the one condition for creative work. I believe that every extracurricular activity has its value, but even should a student succeed in carrying his course at the same time, it is purchased at the cost of leisure."

"Why not abolish the arts degree?" proposes Dr. MacMechan, claiming that "Young men and women come to college not to be educated, but for college life." Mr. Brown feels that this would not be stopped by eliminating the B.A. degree. Rather, he points out, the situation would be aggravated, since pleasure seekers would no longer be under any obligation to study.

As for the rarity of enthusiastic teachers: "I don't believe a word of it," affirms Dr. Wallace. "As much pleasure can be obtained from an hour's teaching as from an hour spent in any other pursuit. Teaching can, indeed, be a sheer delight."

Dr. Wallace states one of the chief qualifications for teaching English literature, which Dr. MacMechan terms a "manifest absurdity", is to be able to read poetry decently. After that little can be done beyond explaining some passages and then saying, "I like this, don't you?"

Both Dr. Wallace and Mr. Brown strongly maintain the enthusiasm of the English staff in both teaching and study.

would not think of buying one even if they were sold at the Tuck Shop.

However, one student in III year U.C., expressed himself entirely in favour of them.

"It is good clean fun," he declared, "and it would undoubtedly keep the men from worse habits."

He ridiculed the idea that they were silly and informed the reporter that they required a great deal of skill, so that they might be manipulated satisfactorily and spectacularly.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Usher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: G. G. Brooks

Assistant: M. L. McKay

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11th, 1930

THE UNIVERSITY IS MEDIEVAL

In the passing of the last few years it has been becoming increasingly evident that the system of higher education on the North American continent leaves something to be desired. Evidence for this statement is to be found in the critical tone of an ever-growing index of essays on college education in both popular and serious magazines; in the fact that articles and anecdotes and biographies of and by prominent educators usually seem to be faintly apologetic; and most particularly in the experimental systems of education which spring up from time to time in the United States and even in Canada. These new schools usually demonstrate a sense of the weakness of the old education by branching out in a new direction; in a line which the proponents of the school believe will satisfy that indefinable something to be desired which we noted above.

News reviews last week, carried an account of the proposed school for women at Old Bennington, Vermont. This school has the distinguished backing of such notables as the Hon. John William Davis, former U.S. Ambassador to Great Britain and President Ernest Wilkins of Oberlin College, and has an endowment of $1,500,000, and will have an extra $850,000 from which the interest will be applied to scholarships only. Bennington College throws aside the sanctified traditions of Vassar, Wellesley, Smith and such elite schools, and proposes to train girls to live their lives in the happiest and most useful way. The prospectus intimates that "The type of intellectual asceticism which fears that contact with practice and reality will destroy the field for culture will have no place at Bennington." At the end of four years the Bennington student will reveal her knowledge to the faculty through "examinations, theses, or other objective tests."

Then looking back several years, we recall the Meiklejohn Junior College at the University of Wisconsin, founded by a noted educator who was called in to make a notable experiment. Dr. Meiklejohn's school takes freshmen—the more promising youths—and for two years subjects them to a special kind of instruction, and then turns them into the third year of the regular Wisconsin curriculum. The students are tutored, rather than lectured, then they go into the university with the other students and learn what is happening and what may happen. Unfortunately, Dr. Meiklejohn's system has not been working long enough for its results to become apparent.

A survey of educational systems would not be complete without mention of Antioch College in Ohio, a very well-known and much studied departure. It has been operating for some time, and its method consists of alternate study and practical work. Arrangements are made with manufacturing firms and business houses to take students on for four or five months, at the end of which period they return to school for a like number of months, and thus shifting from study to work, complete their education. Again, there are foundations such as the Telluride. This is a scholarship trust fund established by a wealthy mining engineer some twenty years ago. The proceeds of the endowment are used to send worthy students to university; it maintains a ranch school in the west, and also supports "Telluride Houses" at several universities, and notably, at Cornell. The Cornell house may be likened to a fraternity, but the bond is not social but academic. Scholarship is stressed, and the students live together in an atmosphere of study.

It can hardly be gainsaid that such experiments as we have mentioned recognize an inherent defect in the university of the twentieth century and seek to remedy it. What this defect may be, and how it may best be remedied, is hardly for us to say. But at the same time, it is not hard to examine the university, and to conclude that it is not at all native to the North American continent—a continent which in many respects is different from Europe.

The university as we know it, is a European product. The university grew out of the Middle Ages, when the brilliance of the classics of Greece and Rome, long hidden in secluded libraries and monasteries, was once more revealed. Examine the structure of the earliest university and compare it with the twentieth century specimen in America. There is not a great deal of difference between the essentials of their organizations.

But in the results and in the products the differences are wide. The original university idea in Europe was either aristocratic trifling or sheer intellectual intensity. Heidelberg and the Studentkorps, Oxford and "town and gown" typify the former; the poor student

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Correction

"The Varsity" sincerely regrets the error in proof-reading that seemed to cast an aspersion on a freshman from Victoria. This appeared yesterday under a letter headed "Boys' Parliament".

Hart House Beer?

The Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

Your editorial and correspondence columns are ever pregnant with helpful advice and constructive criticism on a variety of topics. There is one matter, however, which appears to have escaped notice through some inadvertence, and to which I feel it my duty to draw your attention.

In order to procure "that which maketh glad the heart of man" (and possibly that of woman also), a student is obliged to undertake an arduous journey either to 454 Spadina Avenue, to 617 Yonge St. Assuming that one such return journey is made daily, the time thus expended amounts to at least 25 minutes per day, or roughly 95 hours per academic year. The loss of this time which might otherwise be more profitably employed may easily make all the difference between passing and failing one's examinations.

I therefore suggest, Mr. Editor, that for the sake of our academic prestige, the S.A.C. should approach the O.L.C.B. with a view to the latter establishing a beer store in Hart House.

Apart from the saving of time which would ensue from such a step, many other advantages commend themselves to all thoughtful people. The proximity of facilities for beer-drinking would result in the inculcation of this wholesome habit in many youths who would otherwise remain uninitiated owing to the sheer exigencies of distance. The spread of such vicious and

(Continued on page 4)

With the Theatres

UPTOWN

"The Show of Shows" . . . tons of Technicolor smeared all over the place! You never saw so much colour, and you never saw colour mean so little. . . . Waves of it surging back and forth without any thought for the laws of Nature, and with a general effect vaguely suggestive of an acute attack of indigestion. . . . Warner Brothers' stars struggle valiantly—sometimes frantically—only to be outdone by a tilt of the Bordeni eyebrow and a bite of the Beatrice Lillie lip. Without these two and Frank Fay, who holds the show together, one shudders to think of what an evening with this orgy might mean. There are acres of painted flats and bilious curtains, and chorus formations from every Broadway season since Flora-of fairy stories who lived in a garret and committed fabulous things with a magic beer mug may represent the latter. Or better, let us refer to the stupendous learning of the true European student, who, in Germany, so dissected and analyzed Shakespeare, or who considered a working knowledge of twenty-one languages, not including sub-dialects, as essential to a study of philology, much to the stupefaction of American visitors who hoped to work with three or four.

The old university is built upon a theory that excludes everything except study; in it the modern dilettante has no place. It turned out Rembrandts in learning as a lithographing plants now shoots forth art calendars; it was like the guild system applied to the pursuit of knowledge; a close-knit and exclusive association whose end was the production of a few priceless samples of perfect workmanship.

The guild has gone, and in its place the industrial revolution has given us mass production. The guild was old European, medieval rooted; mass production is undeniably American in application, though not altogether in invention. And now, in America, manufacturers would dream if making automobiles for the masses in a guild. Individual artists? Absurd!

Yet to-day we are trying to force mass production upon a system that is as medieval as the guild. The university is not meant for mass production, nor is it constructed to produce the type of graduate that most people want. Social grace; the ability to make "contacts", sell contracts and policies; build bridges; fill teeth; exercise appendices; manage hotels; rub away excess embonpoint; make a good fourth at contract bridges; all these capacities are demanded in tremendous lots. Scholars?

The experiments we have noted seek to remedy the anomaly. Success has not yet been achieved, but if, and when it is, we shall have a system which recognizes mass education and provides for it a special and modern structure, and discards an idea of education whose knell was rung when steam entered upon the industrial scene.

CHAMPUS CAT

Dapper Jake

A handsome rake was Dapper Jake, Alaska's gift to frails, With headlong vim they fell for him And for his crooning tales.

He panned for gold and wealth untold, In stream and river side, But all his lust for yellow dust Was never satisfied.

He vowed one day to "Laska" Fay, His latest wench, by heck, That gold he'd find or else he'd wind A rope around his neck.

She shook with fright and held him tight, And wouldn't let him go, Of no avail was her sweet wail, He went for one last throw.

He dug the muck but all he struck Was blasted little stones, When bits of twigs came with his digs He swore in varied tones.

As all his toils for golden spoils Were unrewarded yet, He heaved a sigh and itched to try His suicidal threat.

The shining sun shone on his gun, As forward brought it he, He shoved the gat against his hat And counted one two three.

But e'er was heard that fatal third Someone the gun knocked 'way, The shot went wild and made him riled, There stood "Alaska" Fay.

It struck the bank and made a clank They ran to find out why, The earth Jake toed, a mother lode Stared at him in the eye.

In one wild spree he made whoopee At Bar X Ranch that night, With "Diamond" Sal his newest gal, She cleaned him out alright.

O.A.

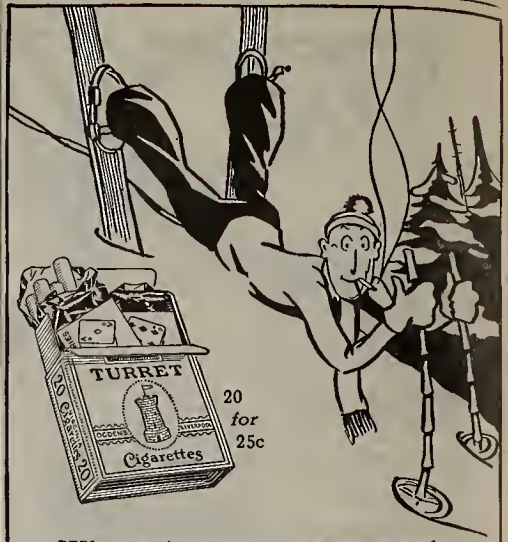

dora. . . . and some that Broadway mercifully never saw. John Barrymore does a Shakespeare and wonders how he ever happened to tumble into a revue. There are two untitled sequences for which the jaded eyes sing a Te-Deum.

—A.E.F.A.

SHEA'S

Billie Dove proves in "The Painted Angel" that a girl can remain pure in a naughty world. An erstwhile Queen of the New York Night Clubs comes in for a little coy satire at the hands of the scenario writer—or perhaps it was Fanny Hurst—but the Bay Street

(Continued on page 4)

When a cigarette becomes as popular as Turret, you can depend on its quality being exactly right . . . always.

TURRET

CIGARETTES

Mild and Fragrant

Save the valuable "POKER HANDS"

COPY IS OVERDUE

Space will not be reserved for late pictures and write-ups for Tonontonsis unless a written notification is left at the S.A.C. Office, Hart House, by—

FRIDAY, FEB. 11th

Alumni Federation

THEATRE NIGHT

In aid of the Student's Employment Bureau

Journey's End

ROYAL ALEXANDRA THEATRE

Monday, February 17

Tickets—$2.50 to $1.00.

Tax Extra.

On sale at Alumni Office, 43 St. George St., or by mail to Royal Alexandra Theatre.

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

Varsity Students!

Buy your Clothes Made-to-Measure Wholesale.

Where?

At

ROYAL

TAILORS

Headquarters:

468

Wellington

St. W.

Toronto

Suits

$22.50 to

$60.00

Tuxedo Special $24

Every Courtesy Shown

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

SOLID
BLACK LEATHER

FIBRE
BACK, STEEL
HINGES

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

Mc'S LUNCH

A very convenient place to eat.

West side of Yonge St.

Half-way between Wellesley

and Maitland.

Best value in city for the price.

35c.

550 YONGE STREET

JUNIOR HOCKEY TEAM PLAYS OFF WITH OWEN SOUND WEDNESDAY

VARSITY HOCKEYISTS EXPECT TOUGH GAME

Play Owen Sound in O. H. A. Playoffs Wednesday Next

TEAM SHOWS GOOD FORM

The Varsity junior hockey squad has drawn a tough assignment in the second round of the O.H.A. playoffs. They meet the strong Owen Sound Greys on the latter's ice on Wednesday night and play the return game here on Friday night. The Greys have an enviable record in the O.H.A., having won the Dominion title in 1924 and 1927 and have usually managed to go a long way in the race since then, figuring in the finals and semifinals several times. This year they drew a bye in their group and have shown considerable strength in exhibition tilts. They defeated Guelph 17 to 5 in the first round of the playoffs.

However, the Blue and White has faced a much more strenuous schedule than their rivals and should be right at the top of their form. The team seems to have come through the three game struggle with Parkdale with few bad effects and ought to take the Greys on the round. They have just about shaken off the scoring slump which held them back in the middle of the season, the shake-up in the forward line and the addition of Williamson having greatly strengthened the squad.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity juniors are going into a tough game to-morrow night when they play Owen Sound on the latter's home ice. The Owen Sounders have not had the stiff group games that the Blue have gone through and while they may be fresher than Frank Sullivan's men the lack of regular competition may make itself felt. There being no junior team of anywhere near equal strength in the Owen Sound district the Orange and Black got a bye in their group, carrying with it the right to enter the first round of the O.H.A. playoffs. To put the squad in shape for the playdowns the Owen Sound management brought in strong teams from outside for exhibition games. The Georgian Bay boys lost to Hamilton Graftons, a strong commercial team, and also to Stratford juniors who were eliminated by Kitchener in their group finals. The Sounders took the measure of Toronto Marlboros and the Imperial Oil team, present leaders of the Toronto Mercantile League. Drawn against Guelph the northern outfit beat them 7-3 in Guelph and 10-2 at home, taking their first round O.H.A. games 17-5.

Wally Graham, Varsity track star and intercollegiate one-mile champion, came sixth in a field of sixteen in the two-mile invitation race at the Millrose A.C. games in New York Saturday. The time was fast and Graham's showing was very creditable. Fitzpatrick and Adams of Varsity and Leigh Miller and Dore of Hamilton forced the American team to set a new record in winning the 880 yard relay.

The Intercollegiate Assault is being held at McGill this year on February 21st and 22nd. The Varsity B. V. and F. coaches are working hard these days in an effort to choose the best squad possible. Some of the men are practically sure of positions, but other places are still open for the final choice.

The water polo team has run up against a tough break. A Varsity vs. Nationals senior O.H.A. game was switched to Saturday the 15th the same night that M.A.A.A. are scheduled to play Varsity here in an International Water Polo League game. The water polo team needs the support of the student body in this game. The entry of Varsity in this league next year depends upon their making expenses this season. The league is doing a great deal to advertise Varsity both in Canada and across the line. If Saturday's game is a financial flop the club may have to withdraw from international polo.

Students who are going to the hockey game Saturday should remember that if they wish to come down for the dance which follows the polo game, tickets must be purchased beforehand as none will be sold after the water polo game has been played. Everyone who can possibly support the polo team is urged to do so.

The Varsity women's intercollegiate basketball team turned in a nice game both offensively and defensively when they won the first game of the City League by a 40-20 score last night. The Blue and White seniors are in good shape now and they have an excellent chance to take the title.

Margaret Eaton, last year's champions, have not been defeated by a Varsity team since 1927, but it looks as though the seniors will do it this year.

The intercollegiate has a big edge in foul shooting last night. They counted six out of eight tries, while the best the seconds could do was two out of eight. Eleanor Sedgewick, the intercollegiate snappy side centre, sunk four out of five attempts. Incidentally the game was very clean all the way through. Most of the fouls called were of the careless variety.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 2)
pernicious habit as playing bridge or billiards or reading trashy novels would be decidedly checked. The shocking spectacle of students consuming such deleterious and noxious substances as Eskimo pies, chocolate bars, cream puffs, and this diabolical "pop", would, I am confident, materially disappear.

It is not, therefore, a question of academic prestige alone. Questions of morals and health reinforce the case. Perhaps in these days of sex equality, the taking of the step which I advocate would necessitate the installation of similar facilities in the Women's Union. If so, tant mieux. Yours etc., R. E. Knowles, Jr.

A Suggestion

Editor, "The Varsity".
Dear Sir:
May I add a word to the much vexed question of examinations? Professor Urwick suggests that examinations are like an emergency in life and thus the exam is a fair test of a student's ability to meet a situation.

There is one way in which I think examination regulations handicap those students who are most ready to meet such emergencies. I mean the student who has become a proficient typist. In any emergency where a man must get his knowledge quickly, concisely and clearly to another, the laborious method of writing by hand is surely out of date. The man who is prepared, will either dictate or type his ideas.

Of course, length is not always an advantage in writing an exam, but

George Spence

Captain and rover of Varsity's International Water Polo Team which plays Montreal here Saturday night.

VARSITY AND MONTREAL IN WATER POLO MATCH

Dancing and Skits Will Help to Make an Interesting Evening

Saturday night at Hart House Varsity and Montreal A.A.A. will play the final game of the International Water Polo League. The winner of this contest will take second place to New York A.C., which has clinched the title.

Varsity defeated Penn A.C. here and in Philadelphia and lost to M.A.A.A. 7-5 in Montreal. M.A.A.A. defeated Penn in Montreal but lost in Philadelphia. This will amply demonstrate that Montreal and Varsity are most evenly matched and a close game should result.

Tickets will admit to both the inter-faculty gym competition at 8 o'clock and the polo game at 8.30. There will be a half time skit which is guaranteed to keep the crowd in an uproar. Following the game there will be a dance at which real music will be provided. Din and cosy retreats will be available on the track for those who wish a breather from the tension of the evening.

WILD SHOOTING FEATURES SENIOR SCHOOL-VIC GAME

School Downs Victoria by 12-7 With Both Teams on the Defensive

Senior School yesterday took a close game from Senior Vic in the inter-faculty basketball series by 12-7. Both teams played a cautious defensive game in the first half, but opened up in the final few minutes to provide some good play.

The Scarlet and Gold five-man defence forced the Engineers to shoot from a distance, while the latter's defence broke up Vic's attempts under the basket. The shooting was pretty wild at times. Hutcheon, Pasternak and Helper played the major part in the School win and Tilton and Vaughn were the best of the defeated.

Sr. Vic—Tilton (2), Vaughn (3), Devitt (2), Searle, Cowie. Subs, Lautenslager, Perkins, Berry, Clarke. Sr. S.P.S.—Mercer (2), Hutcheon (4), Pasternak (4), White, Helper (3). Subs, Lake, Ireland, Ballachey.

The DOUBLE ADVANTAGE of a SAVINGS ACCOUNT

4%

1. Your Surplus Income earns 4% interest.

2. Your money is always easily accessible.

Chequing privileges and 4% interest on Savings Accounts

TORONTO GENERAL TRUSTS CORPORATION

BAY AND MELINDA STREETS

SENIOR WOMEN TRIM INTERMEDIATE TEAM

Score 40-20 in Opening Game of City League Last Night

SLOW, STEADY GAME

Varsity women's senior basketball team defeated the intermediates by a 40-20 score last night in the opening fixture of the city league. In the first half the play was very even, and there was not much to choose between the teams. The combination work of the seniors was at all times superior to that of their rivals, but the seconds got off on the right foot by scoring the first basket on a beautiful long shot by Muriel Atkins. From then on they played a slow, steady game, watching for sure openings and passing back to the guards many times before they got inside the seniors' defence. The intermediates played a fast, dashing style of game and got in close on beautiful team work for several easy shots. When the rest period came, they were leading by a 17-14 margin.

In the second half the seniors demonstrated their superiority in no uncertain fashion. Wilma Hazlitt went down behind her defence repeatedly and engineered several plays from the corner which resulted in close in shots. Louise Crouch ran wild this period and scored 11 points. Frau Dale and Norma Bateman on the intercollegiate defence were outstanding, while Willie Ann Luckett did some very good work for the seconds.

Seniors—Wilma Hazlitt (4), Louise Crouch (18), forwards; Eleanor Sedgewick (16, side centre; Frances Dale, centre; Norma Bateman, Honor Tett, guards; subs, Sally Ballard (2), Jean Allen, Edythe Peake.

Intermediates—Willie Ann Luckett (10), Muriel Atkin (8), forwards; Victoria Quinlan (2), side centre; Loreto McGarry, centre; Isobel Wright, Gwenn Murrell-Wright, defence; subs, Dorothy Crawford, Bessie Lowry, Olive Macklin.

DURNAN TROPHY AWARD

The Durnan Trophy, emblematic of the individual swimming championships of the university will be awarded the end of this week to the winner of the series of six events to be run off Tuesday and Thursday at 5.00 p.m. and Saturday at 12.00. To-night the free style events at 50 and 200 yards will be held, and keen competition is assured. All contestants are asked to be on hand in good time so as to get the events completed on the scheduled days.

SMOOTH AND STRONG AND UNIFORM ALWAYS IS... ELDORADO "THE MASTER DRAWING PENCIL" FOR SALE AT THE COLLEGE BOOKROOM

SR. U.C. LOSES TO DENTS IN WELL FOUGHT GAME

Losers Show Much Improvement With Marron Star-ving in Nets

A much improved team turned out to represent Senior U.C. against Dents last night. Though they went down by a score of 4-0, it does not show the respective merits of the two teams.

The first two periods were closely contested, Moore of Dents getting the only goal in the first session. In the last 10 minutes Mahaffey counted twice and Mutchmore once. The periods were limited to ten minutes owing to the late arrival of the teams, but some good hockey was crowded into this space. Marron in goal for U.C. played a great game and made some fine saves with the opposing forwards right on top of him. Dents were generally more effective than U.C. and combined better.

Mahaffey and Moore showed up well for the winners and Evans turned in a nice game for U.C.

Dents—Goal, Connor; defence, Dalton, Henry; centre, Mahaffey; wings, Mutchmore, Moore; subs, Fleming, Gibson, Devins.

U.C.—Goal, Marron; defence, Ward, Bruce; centre, Collingwood; wings, Evans, McGibbon; sub, Cook.

Johnny Farquhar, veteran Canadian hockey player and sports writer, has been signed to coach the Wisconsin hockey team.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

289 College St. TRINITY 5987

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

P. Leone

BARBER
BEAUTY SHOPPE
BRANCHES

356 Bloor W. Kl. 6551
340 Bloor W. Kl. 6213
Medical Arts Bldg. Kl. 1211
340 BLOOR ST. WEST

Shoe Shine Parlor
Hair Cleaned and Blocked
The favourite Shoppe of the students, both men and women.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of Formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
571 YONGE STREET KL. 3270

Saturday Evening
8.30

INTERNATIONAL WATER POLO--M.A.A.A. vs. VARSITY

8 p.m.--Interfaculty Gymnastic Competition, Main Gymnasium

Admission including both events, 70c. and tax.

Hart House
Pool

Music

Coming Events

TUESDAY, FEB. 11

1.30—Nomination meeting for permanent executive of 370 U.C. and U.C. representative for Moss Scholarship. West Hall U.C.
 5.00 p.m.—Meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. at Wymilwood.
 6.45—Annual athletic at-home of Victoria College. Dinner at Burwash Hall. Dancing at Wymilwood.
 8.00 p.m.—Mrs. Emanuel Hahn on "Modern Sculpture" at the Women's Union, auspices of the U.C. Women's Literary Society.
 8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of Trinity College Science Club in Trinity College Library. Mr. R. K. Young will speak on Modern Astronomy. Refreshments and dancing. Everybody welcome.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 12

4.20—Professor Dale will speak at the U.C. Players' Guild.
 Riverdale ex-pupils annual at-home, Roof Gardens, Royal York.
 5.15 p.m.—Professor John Line on "Why Pray in a World of Law?" in the Music Room, Hart House.
 8.00 p.m.—Annual contest in public speaking for U.C. women at the Union.

9 p.m.—Annual Dental At-Home at the Royal York Hotel. Subscription $5.00.

THURSDAY, FEB. 13

4.30 p.m.—A meeting of the M. and P. Society in Room 43 of the Physics Building. Speaker: Mr. H. B. Speakman, Director of the Ontario Research Foundation.
 4.30—Women's Press Club at the Union. Short story week.
 7.30 p.m.—In Women's Union, 79 St. George St., Thursday Discussion Group of the Fabius Club.

FRIDAY, FEB. 14

Open meeting of the Medical Society. Address by Sir Robert Falconer.
 Election of permanent executive of 370 U.C. and the U.C. representative for the Moss Scholarship.

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

K1. 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

Why Not Spend
43 Days
and $424.25
and See
These Places
Next Summer?

A SPECIAL ALL STUDENT TOUR

Arranged and directed by

THE NATIONAL FEDERATION OF CANADIAN UNIVERSITY
STUDENTS

Sailing via Canadian Pacific

Phone TR. 5036, S.A.C. Office Hart House, and have folder mailed to you.

COLLEGIANA

By G. G. B.

Here is a singular example of "The President's English".

As a matter of fact, all but one member of the starting five is a Seattle high school graduate.

Washington Daily.

Although such garb as pink hair bows and organdie dresses will be in vogue at the affair, lack of costumes should be no hindrance to attending the affair, according to Miss Hoag.

Minnesota Daily.

We would imagine it would be a decided hindrance.

CO-EDS PREFER FOOD

McGill Daily.

That's a habit co-eds have.

The position of national minorities in the Soviet Union will be the subject for discussion at the next regular meeting of the Friends of the Soviet Union Club at 11.30 a.m. to-day in room 104, Minnesota Union. All students are invited to attend.

Minnesota Daily.

Page Chief Drifter!

FACULTY INVITED

TO WARD PARTY

Utah Chronicle.

Conservative or liquor?

Ann Arbor, Mich. — (Special) — Charges of disorderly conduct placed against nine students of the University of Michigan who were arrested in a raid on an alleged blind pig at Ann Arbor, have been withdrawn, and the undergraduates are expected to be called at state's evidence against the operator of the place.

Oklahoma Daily.

O tempora, O mores! Not only boot-leggers, but stool pigeons as well.

PILGRIMS SELECT

CAST FOR COMEDY

Washington Daily.

We might suggest "Canterbury, here I come!" as a name for the performance.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19

8.00 p.m. — Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet at Hart House pool.
 8.00 p.m.—Biological Club Conversation at the Biological Building. A popular exhibit and demonstration of Biological methods and activities. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

CO-OPERATION NEEDED

(Continued from page 1)

present deadlock and what he considered would be the ultimate result.

"I think the policy of the Canadian Wheat Pool is justified," Mr. Jackson stated. "I also think that the wheat pool is right in holding for the highest price. Present difficulties are due not to present conditions, but those of 1928, and to the fact that European countries have been passing legislation that demands a greater use of domestic supplies. In 1928 crops were unusually good and it was necessary to carry them over into this year. But European countries had large crops of their own, and production here in 1929 was much less on account of climatic conditions than in 1928."

It is the belief of Mr. Jackson that this 1928 "carry-over" will begin to correct itself very shortly, and then there will be demands from Europe. When the Australian and Argentine wheat will be used up, there will be a demand for the higher grade Canadian wheat. One must not expect an immediate change in demands from Europe but there is a gradual increase. In time, Mr. Jackson stated, prices here will go up more nearly to what they should be. This change will go on through February and when immigration opens up, there will be the greatest demand for our own wheat. In the meantime, this business will have to endure. Needs will ultimately bring prices to what they should be, despite the lesser supplies of 1929, and then wheat and all other interests will benefit accordingly.

To Professors E. J. Urwick, H. R. Kemp, V. W. Bladen and G. E. Jackson, all members of the Department of Political Economy, the wheat pool question was one on which they could not give their views, for one reason or another. Mr. Urwick told "The Varsity" that he could give no opinion on the subject as an economist, and he feared if he did so it would be only that of a biased person. Mr. Kemp expressed himself as being rather unfamiliar with wheat pools and their operations. Mr. Jackson and Mr. Bladen wished to say nothing on the matter at the present time.

Rental of Tuxedos at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

Secretarial Training
—in your spare time

During the winter months, why not make use of a little of your spare time between lectures?

Full or part time, mornings or afternoons, every day or on special days, we provide individual instruction on subjects necessary to secretarial training.

For further information telephone KI. 5588, or write,

The Gregg College

"Toronto's model school for Gregg Shorthand and Secretarial subjects."

Bloor and Bay Sts.

Toronto

WITH THE THEATRES

(Continued from page 2)

audience remains as pure as the heron. It isn't really a very naughty world, anyway . . . just a playful sort of world with plenty of hooks on which to hang revue sequences, showing that Miss Dove can wear tights and bridal gowns and can't sing. Edmund Lowe and several others suffer with the little lady. . . . And the stage bill will depress you to tears.

—A.E.F.A.

EMPIRE

The New Empire Company revives George M. Cohan's "So This Is London". The play, of course, as followers of the theatre know, is one of Cohan's best comedies and has been played and replayed for quite a number of years. It is good light entertainment and is handled quite fairly by the cast, although last night it lacked finish that will come as the week progresses. Robert Leslie as Hiram Draper, major, is passable, while Dierdre Doyle handles her part with a good deal of understanding and finish.

—J.L.M.

Professor III

Stricken with a bad cold, Professor W. G. McIntosh of the Department of Mechanical Engineering was forced to remain at his house yesterday. The possibility of his returning to-day was in doubt. Meanwhile his classes are being handled by other members of the staff at S.P.S.

A piece of canvas from the tent in which the first students were graduated in 1841 has been presented to Oberlin College.

BULLETIN BOARD

U. C. ELECTION

Members of 370, both men and women are reminded that nominations for the permanent executive and the U.C. candidate for the Moss Scholarship will take place to-day in the West Hall, U.C., at 1.30.

STADIUM USHERS

C.A.A.U. Indoor Championships, on February 20th. All Overseers, Head and Regular Ushers are asked to sign the list posted in the Athletic Office, Hart House, signifying that they can be present. Assistant Ushers are also asked to sign from which to pick the balance of a total of 80 ushers.

JUNIOR O.H.A.

The team will entrain at the North Toronto depot at 8.10 a.m. Wednesday morning. Since there is no later train during the day it will be necessary to catch the early one.

RADIO CLUB

The U. of T. Radio Society will hold a meeting to-day at 1.30 p.m. in Room A, Hart House. Preparations for the International tests will be made. All members are requested to attend.

TRINITY DRAMATICS

Trinity College Dramatic Society presents "Trelawny of the Wells", by Pinero, at Hart House Theatre on Thursday, February 13th.

INDOOR TRACK MEN

All men wishing to compete at the Coliseum meet on Feb. 21, must place their entries in the Athletic Office before Wednesday, Feb. 12 at 5 p.m.

B. W. and F.

The following men will appear on Wednesday at 4.30 p.m. to decide the wrestling representative for the Inter-collegiate Assault:

118—Hilliard vs. Barren
 123—Harkness vs. Bannister
 135—Watt vs. Mueller
 Price vs. French
 Jenner vs. Lye
 145—Campbell vs. McKinney
 Walbert vs. Taylor

BOXING—

160—Wilton vs. Bain.

U. C. WOMEN

Hockey practice to-day 6-7! Every-one out! There is a game for the second team against Vic on Wednesday at 5 o'clock at Little Vic Rink.

THE ART METROPOLE

Branch of
THE HUGHES OWENS CO., LTD.

36 ADELAIDE STREET WEST

Dealers in

DRAFTING OFFICE SUPPLIES
 MATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENTS
 SURVEYING AND OTHER SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS
 ARTISTS' MATERIALS ZEISS MICROSCOPES
 LABORATORY SUPPLIES

ESTABLISHED 45 YEARS

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $6.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1065

THELIN DESCRIBES LABOUR CONVENTIONS

(Continued from page 1)
 had conducted and showed how the cost of the office was a million dollars yearly while one battleship alone cost over twenty-five millions. He felt the church could be a great help due to its benefit of forming public opinion and so it was very useful.

"Twenty-nine conventions have been adopted at the conferences, and these have had over four hundred ratifications," said Dr. Thelin. In answer to the charge that the labour representatives did not truly represent the worker the speaker was unwilling to answer.

RENT A
VARSITY TUXEDO

For a perfect fit and comfort

Over 200
New Suits
To Choose
From VARSITY
Cleaners &
Dyers
519
YONGE ST.
Kingdale
6280

$2.00 Rate to Students

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and
HOODS

HARCOURT &amp; SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

ROYAL ONTARIO
MUSEUM253 Bloor Street West
Near Avenue Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.

Open daily, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
 Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

Arthur Wing Pinero's "TRELAWNY OF THE 'WELLS'" AT HART HOUSE THEATRE

Presented by TRINITY COLLEGE DRAMATIC SOCIETY

February 13, 14, 15

Saturday Matinee

ADMISSION 50c. and 75c. plus tax

Seats Now--Box Office TR. 2723

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12th, 1930

No. 81

Wycliffe Twenty Years Behind In Theology Approach Is Charge

Press Club

The University Press Club will meet for luncheon on Thursday at one o'clock in the North Common Room of Hart House. The speaker will be Harry Anderson, Managing Editor of "The Globe".

ONLY FRENCH SPOKEN IN BLOOR RESIDENCE

Victoria Women Ban Mother Tongue to Polish Gallic

SWISS MA'M'SELLE RULES

There is now at least one residence in the university in which French is the everyday language. Victoria College French House, at 127 Bloor St. West, instituted this rule at the beginning of last session. Mademoiselle Riese, who came directly from Switzerland last fall, took full charge of the house and instituted the novel rule of the house that French only should be spoken in the halls and downstairs rooms, with a fine of one cent for every lapse into English. Often even men calling at the house, and wishing to do their part, speak French much to the delight of their lady friends. In Annesley Hall dining-room a special table is reserved for the girls of the French House, and the French conversation at meals is very animated. To an onlooker, it even appears to be more entertaining than the conversation at the ordinary tables.

Since Christmas the girls have made their rules more severe and aim to speak French all the time they are in the house. This is decidedly more difficult and lapses are naturally more frequent. Mademoiselle, however, is delighted with their enriched vocabulary. They have Sunday tea each week around the fire in their own common room, and occasionally guests like Miss Addison, Professor Rowell or Professor Lasserre join them in this social hour. They have much fun playing games like charades, although Mademoiselle admits that the girls sometimes do cut the syllables. (Continued on page 4)

VIC ATHLETIC AT-HOME PROVES IMPORTANT EVENT

Crests Presented to Members of College Teams During Evening

One of the most enjoyable evenings of the Victoria College social season was held last evening when the Victoria Athletic Union had their annual at-home.

The at-home took the form of a dinner held in Burwash Hall, followed by a dance in Wynnwood. During the course of the dinner the various teams received their crests, while the Victoria V's were also presented.

The teams represented at the at-home were Track, Tennis, Rugby, Soccer, Rowing, Basketball, Water Polo, Handball, Hockey, B. W. and F., all members of Varsity teams.

Skipper Hill, coach of the Inter-faculty Rugby Cup winners, was presented on behalf of the players, with a small token of their esteem for him. Replying to the presentation he outlined the benefits to be derived from active participation in sport.

The enjoyable evening was due to the committee in charge, under the chairmanship of W. A. "Bill" Clarke.

Student Startles Commission of Synod by Bold Allegation

PRESS DENIED ENTRY

Resignation of Faculty Asked Unless Student Problems Are Faced

That the approach to theology at Wycliffe College is twenty years behind the times, was the startling accusation made by a student of Wycliffe College, according to reliable information reaching "The Varsity".

This statement was made at the recent meeting of the Anglican Commission appointed by the Synod to interview representatives of all congregations, institutions and Theological colleges in the Church in order to find out in what way the work of the church can be improved and made more effective. A meeting with the students of Wycliffe College was held last Monday.

A reporter of "The Varsity" was denied admittance to the meetings and it is said that the staff of the college were not allowed to be present.

"If the faculty of theology cannot answer the intellectual problems of the students it is up to the faculty to resign in a body, and get one that can," the student is reported to have said.

Considerable criticism of the Bishops followed. There is not enough co-operation between the Bishops and the student clergy, another student stated, according to reports.

One student on being interviewed (Continued on page 4)

EPIDEMICS THREATEN STUDENT DOMICILES

Three Cases of Measles Appear at South House, Burwash

QUEEN'S HALL GETS SCARE

Another university epidemic in the form of three cases of measles is evident in South House, Burwash Hall. C. J. L. Bates of I Victoria College, has just recovered from the malady and returned from Isolation Hospital recently.

His brother, R. P. Bates, also of first year, is at present in Isolation Hospital with the same disease. The Bates brothers hail from Japan. It is rumoured that another student who is also ill, is likely to be quarantined soon.

What action college authorities will take on the matter could not be learned late last evening.

A near panic arose on Monday night, when Miss Margaret Sibbitt developed what was believed to be symptoms of scarlet fever. Her two room-mates with all their worldly goods, were promptly banished to the infirmary—the one available refuge—to escape contagion. While the rest of the house, fearing the plague or quarantine, laid plans for escape. However, morning proved their fears to be groundless, as Miss Sibbitt was suffering only from a severe cold.

Mrs. Emanuel Hahn, some of whose sculpture was on view with that of her husband in the Sketch Room of Hart House last week, and Miss Agatha Chapman, president of the University College Women's Literary Society, were dinner guests at the Women's Union last evening.

NEED FOR ENGINEERS GREATER IN CANADA THAN IN THE U. S. A.

Schoolmen Urged to Stay Here to Prepare for Influx from South

CONSIDER ALL FACTS

Science Graduates Are Sought and Opportunities Proffered Undergraduates

"I wish you would consider all the facts in the case before you think of leaving Canada," said J. H. Brace, manager of the Western Division of the Bell Telephone at the Engineering Society meeting yesterday. "Engineers are needed here in Canada more than in the United States," continued Mr. Brace. "In the future we will see an influx of men from the south to northern countries. I went south myself but I never drew a happy breath until I came back to Canada."

"The problems which confront our company are being and will be solved by your graduates. Hence there are real opportunities in our organization for Science graduates. We need two kinds of men; those who want to delve into research work, and those who want to develop themselves for executive positions."

"We propose to make opportunities for undergraduates as well as graduates. If undergraduates will come to us for summer work they will be much more valuable to us by time of graduation," concluded the speaker.

"There are, as yet, no definite standards set for structural welding," said Dave Lloyd, speaking on acetylene welding. "There are six cardinal points in welding which we call procedure control; namely, design, selective material, selection and testing of welders, preparation, welding technique, and the finishing and testing. "Structural welding hasn't really come yet. Pipe welding just became successful this last year though they have been welding for the last eleven years."

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Presents Wheat Pool Queries

Do you think the Wheat Pool is justified in its present stand of demanding a fair price?

J. W. H. Doherty, I Modern Languages, University College—

"It is purely a business proposition. Experts have studied the situation and come to the conclusion that they will get their prices sooner or later. The safest thing to do is to wait for a better price."

Ray Wilson, IV Economics, University College—

"I think they are justified in demanding a fair price, but owing to Liverpool controlling wheat prices John Bull will not pay the price they ask because they can get the available supply from the Argentine."

Bert Alexander, I Commerce and Finance, University College—

"It is justified in demanding a slightly higher price than is usually taken, but if they put it too high they are setting things at loggerheads. It ties money up, raising the interest."

Joelyn Moore, II English and History, University College—

"I think they are justified in supporting the small farmer. In the meantime the local increase in price might be partially rectified by cultivating new American markets, especially in those New England states which have recently expressed a desire for Canadian wheat."

J. K. Webb, II Law, Victoria College—

"I think it is entirely justified. Its aim is to provide machinery for securing adequate prices for the individual farmer, and the satisfactory nature of the operations in the past justifies its stand in the present situation."

F. N. Veigh, III English and History, University College—

"I think they are justified in raising the price as long as it isn't detrimental to imperial trade interests. However, I don't think they will get the price they are asking."

INVESTIGATION REPORT UPHELD OVERWHELMINGLY BY MEN'S S.A.C.

Bronchitis Confining Sir Robert To Bed

Sir Robert Falconer, who has been ill during the past day or two, is still confined to his bed. The president is suffering from bronchitis and a feverish cold.

"Sir Robert is certainly not in a dangerous condition," Lady Falconer told "The Varsity", last evening, "but on account of his fever is still confined to his bed."

NOMINATIONS CLOSED AT U. C. CONCLAVE

Permanent Executive and Moss Scholarship Candidates Are Listed

ACCLAMATION FOR BELL

Nominations for U.C. Representative for the Moss Scholarship, and for the permanent executive of the class of 370, University College, were received at a mass meeting of the class yesterday in West Hall, University College.

The J. H. Moss Memorial Fund was the gift of friends of the late J. H. Moss, K.C., B.A., and provides an annual sum of $300.00 to be awarded to a student selected from a group of four representing the graduating years of each of the four Arts colleges.

The following were nominated to represent U.C. in the competition for this award: Jack Hendry, Miss Constance Shiell, Walter Martin, Leon Leppard, Clarence Tracy, Miss Dorothy Millicham, Frank Burton, Arthur Halliday, B. D. Beamish, J. J. Knights.

The following persons were nominated for the permanent executive of 370 U.C.: president, H. B. Bell, a.c.; vice-president, Miss Clara Gray, Miss Anne Harris, Miss Edith Webster, Miss Grace Macaulay; secretary, S. T. Beauregard, B. D. Beamish, Frank Burton; treasurer, Miss Elda McFarland, Miss Euphemia Walker.

Special Committee Appointed to Consider Details of New Scheme

FRUITS OF RYAN FRACAS

Responsibility of Members Elected by Students Insured

The report of the Committee of Investigation on student government, that was drawn up by three members of the faculty headed by Dean A. T. DeLury, was passed as presented by the members of the Men's Students' Administrative Council at Hart House yesterday afternoon. The motion was passed by an overwhelming majority, while a special committee of five members of the council was appointed to consider the details of working out the scheme.

This report came as the result of charges made by the editor of "The Varsity" last year when he charged that student government was not run in a manner that would rest responsibility with the elected members of the students of all faculties.

The gist of the four recommendations are as follows: that the Joint Executive be made responsible to the S.A.C.; that the editors of the Torontensis and "Varsity" be made ex-officio members of the Joint Executive; that the Advisory Board of Publications be abolished and that only members of the regular teaching staff of the university be appointed to the Joint Executive by the president as the faculty representatives. (Continued on page 4)

MOOT SCHOOL YELL AFTER BIBLE VERSION

Tag With Explosives Added by All Embryo Engineers on Continent

"TOIKE OIKE" OFFICIAL

What is the Schoolmen's war cry? Is it the familiar one which begins with "Toike Oike! Toike Oike!" and after an extended period ends up with "—we don't give an (asterisk) for any (asterisk) man, who don't give a (asterisk) for us". Or is it the four lines which are published in the Handbook? These latter begin with "Toike Oike" and end with "Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!"

Nate Adams, President of the Engineering Society, unravelled this puzzle for "The Varsity" in an interview last night. The "Toike Oike", explained Mr. Adams, is the official yell of the Faculty of Applied Science at the University of Toronto. On the other hand the section beginning, "We are, we are . . ." is generally considered a rallying call for all embryo engineers in the universities of the continent. Mr. Adams said he had heard the latter given in the western universities and understood it to be widely known.

For this reason the "Toike Oike", which belongs peculiarly to the U. of T. engineers, is published in the Handbook.

Professor E. J. Urwick, of the department of Economics, was the guest of honour this week at Miss Kilpatrick's Tuesday reception in her room at the Women's Union.

FUTURE MUST LOOM ABOVE THE PRESENT IN PLAN OF SUCCESS

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen Urges U. C. Fourth Year to Value Time

ANNUAL GRADS' DINNER

Complexity of Modern Life Does Not Alter Simple Rules

"Don't bother about the present. Subordinate the present hour always to the future one," said Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, speaking at the dinner to the graduating year of University College last night in Hart House. "That is the whole secret of success."

It was Mr. Meighen's belief that the man of to-day must have a plan of his life—a plan such as any business or government must have if it is to progress. The man setting out in the world must decide what place he aims to fill. He must decide on the merits of monetary considerations, the place that health is to play in his scheme, and finally the place of literature, education and those things of cultural value.

"To-day, a man must be a success in his middle thirties if he is to be a success at all," said Mr. Meighen. "There is no sight more pitiful than a man who took days of early life too pleasantly and finds himself a drug on the labour market at forty-five. Unless he can say that he is master of his own life he can never say that he is a success. The man who values the hours, measures the hours, immediately after graduation is the man who will be successful."

"There is no rule like 'Subordinate the present to the future'. The degree to which the present is subordinated to the future is in direct proportion to a man's success. It is quite all right to enjoy the blossoms, the roses of to-day, if we look to and prepare for the frost to follow."

Mr. Meighen believed that the only principles of success that were worth while, were the simple ones. "The difficulties of to-day are the same ones that had to be overcome generations back, though the complexity of life is much greater. But, however, complex life is, the rules of success are the same that have stood for generations. (Continued on page 4)

CANNOT SAY WHERE MODERN ART BEGINS

Mrs. Hahn Tells U. C. Women Fine Works Apply in Any Age

A very charming and interesting talk on sculpture was given by Mrs. Emanuel Hahn last evening to the U.C. Women's Literary Society. In art the change has been gradual and it is impossible to say when modern art began," Mrs. Hahn said. She explained that modernity was half of all art and the other half is eternal and immutable. The fine works of art can be applied to any age and may be analyzed by almost a mathematical formula. No sculptor aims at imitating nature accurately. Sculpturing has more profound and artistic qualities than any artistic "license" is used even at the loss of naturalness.

Mrs. Hahn showed some slides of figures representing the French, German and other European schools, among which were many of the works of Mestronne. Mestronne was a Servian shepherd who had been educated in Paris. His "Woman at Prayer" is among the collection at the Grange and one of his best works.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... Lou GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkowsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor—A. E. F. Allan

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12th, 1930

THE REPORT

The action of the men's student council yesterday in accepting the principles of the report of the committee of investigation, is the first step towards clearing up the problems of student government at the university. The question of students looking after their own problems has caused a good deal of trouble not only at this university, but at many others. The big failing here, as the report points out, was the fact that the members of the Joint Executive were not completely responsible to the body that appointed them and as a result the first clause of the recommendations suggesting complete responsibility was put forward.

Responsibility of the executive body to the student representatives as a whole is as necessary as responsibility of the Cabinet to the House of Commons. Without it there is no truly representative government. What is very important from a selfish point of view is the fact that no editor of "The Varsity" can be impeached, so to speak, before the executive body, but must go before the whole body of elected members.

As matters stand at present the Joint Executive is appointed by both the men's and women's councils. To make them responsible to the S.A.C. would mean the fusion of both men's and women's councils. That is one of the primary jobs of the elected committee of five to consider. Before that is cleared up the question of dealing with blunders of the Joint body cannot be adequately handled.

With the executive completely responsible to the student representatives there can be no fear that unfair or arbitrary actions will take place and if they do, the Joint Body will have to lay its reasons for doing so before the student body and if defeated will of necessity have to resign.

The clause giving the editor of the undergraduate paper and the editor of the Torontonensis seats on the Joint Executive is sound, for if any criticism of their policies arises, they are then in a position to place their cases before the executive body, a privilege that was previously denied them. That involves the abolition of the Advisory Board of Student Publications and gives its power to the Joint Executive. That does not mean necessarily that all the suggestions concerning "The Varsity" will be dealt with by the Joint body, for the committee of investigation recommends a sub-body of the Joint Executive to do some of the work that was previously under the hand of the Advisory Board. But this sub-body will be responsible to the Joint Executive.

The final clause of the four is of greatest importance to all students. Dean DeLury's committee felt that the members appointed by the president of the university should be members of the regular teaching staff. That clause shows the importance placed on the fact that the appointees of the president must be in close touch with the thoughts and feelings of the students. If this be the case an important principle is laid down that will mean a good deal towards less friction in the operation of the students' government.

We heartily support the action of the men's student council and with a few exceptions that do not matter when the principles are there, agree with the report of the investigation committee. We take this opportunity of thanking them for their work on the question.

Thanks are also due to the committee headed by L. M. Gelber that last year went before the Caput and asked that the student government be investigated. We sincerely hope that a system of student government that will function well will be drawn up at present and make for the lubricating of all troubles that may arise.

CANADA'S ARTISTS RANK WITH HER STATISTICIANS

So Says Arthur Lismer, Stressing Tabulation of Country's Scenes on Canvas

"Canadian painters who are setting down Canadian scenes on canvas are quite as necessary to the nation as the employees of the government who tabulate the mineral and timber wealth and other national resources," declared Arthur Lismer, A.R.C.A., when speaking to the women's S.C.M. art group yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Lismer, instead of speaking on pictures in the Art Gallery, invited the members of the group to his studio on Bedford Park Avenue, where they viewed with interest and pleasure many canvasses in the making.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Wants Beer

Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

In to-day's issue of "The Varsity," it is suggested by a contributor to your correspondence column that provisions be made for the purchase of beer by students in Hart House. I regret, however, to observe that this letter is written in such a facetious vein, as much can seriously be said in favour of such a proposal.

In the first place, students are men—not boys—and as such one cannot reasonably expect them to abuse a privilege any more than one can expect the public generally to abuse it. When such villages as Capreol and Spanish River have their Government Liquor Stores, surely a community of the five or six thousand people who comprise the university should be accorded the same facilities?

Besides this, at present any student desirous to exercise the rights conferred on him by the Liquor Control Act is generally obliged to do so away from the university precincts. This exposes out-of-town students to the danger of forming undesirable companionships, and might prove prejudicial to his complete participation in academic life.

Do we not commonly find that the most incorrigible inebriates come from teetotal homes? In view of this, does it not seem unwise to attempt to keep the student body in a pampered isolation and in child-like ignorance of what is a splendid servant, but a dangerous master,—the use of alcoholic stimulants? Let them learn to use it as a servant that it may not become their master when face to face with the realities of life.

Yours truly,
'32, U.C.

Boy Orators

Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

The article in the February "Forum" entitled Young Orators is highly illusory and certainly either prejudiced or misinformed. The form of "youthful depravity" that causes the unknown author great anxiety is one calculated to instill in the minds of the members highest ideas and an enthusiasm to carry on Tuxis and Trail Ranger work in the churches to the best of their ability. According to the sophisticated writer, poor innocents are enticed to the Parliament to train them in all the vicious machinations of modern politics. We carry out the traditional British Parliamentary procedure in the sittings of our House, but this is as far as actual politics are followed. The educative value of a practice in parliamentary procedure is unquestionable.

In regard to legislation, we realize our limitations, but past experience has proven that our resolutions have greatly helped boys in shaping their yearly program. We do not hold party caucuses, as insinuated, for the carrying out of party politics; the only caucuses we hold are either open forum discussions or meetings of the select standing committees, in which all join regardless of their position in the House. Nor do we construct party machines for electing one another to office. Three or four are nominated for Premiership at a final meeting of all the members. The following year they stand for election, usually having little acquaintance with their electors. The members of the Cabinet are chosen by the Premier in conference with the Boys' Work Board, due attention being given to representation by localities and the merits of the boys themselves.

The pictures of some of our members may get into the papers, as does all news, but it is not on the request of the members themselves, nor is it always done with their consent. The statement that the class of boy orators is the "most completely worthless of all" in academic work, implies an attack on students in general, and is obviously incorrect. Our scholastic record grades from scholarship downwards, as do all normal records of any organization. The fact that Professor Auger declines to ratify the statement proves its inaccuracy, or perhaps Victoria College is not a sufficiently high centre of learning to fall into the writer's category.

CHAMPUS CAT

We note with considerable interest the suggestion advanced in yesterday's correspondence column that the authorities establish a brewers' warehouse in Hart House. While by no means venturing to take sides in a risky controversy, we visualize certain advantages which such an innovation would bring with it. For example, it would be no longer necessary to provide Hart House membership cards, because anyone with a good nose could take a couple of tentative sniffs and then conclude "A member of Hart House."

C—C

Anheuser-Busch beer is unfortunately confined to the United States of days bygone, but still, one might sing "Under the Anheuser-Busch" with the old gusto and with froth at the mouth, at Sunday Evening Songsters.

C—C

Anyway, if the argument gets too heated, we shall have to get back to beer facts.

C—C

Prohibitionists and their opponents would doubtless have to beery the hatehat.

C—C

To beer not to beer.

C—C

Unpleasant word to pronounce, brewer. After two quarts most people speak of going over the corner of Brewer and Yonge.

C—C

With the Tuck Shop handing out half-dozen this intangible Hart House atmosphere might become a little more tangible.

C—C

Mr. R. E. Knowles, jr., the author of the letter in yesterday's correspondence, speaks like a man who has had experience and is now Sadder Budweiser, to steal from a popular ballad which, for reasons obvious to those who have heard it sung, cannot be printed here.

C—C

If Mr. Knowles has his way, it will be no longer necessary for aspiring young politicians to travel to Osgoode. They may be called to the bar right here in Hart House.

C—C

"We can, we can, demolish forty beers." All right, go ahead and try it. Aunt Fanny.

INTERNATIONAL RELAY ARRANGED BY RADIO CLUB

Contact With Foreign Stations Sought by Enthusiasts on Local Campus

Final arrangements for the International Amateur Radio Relay Competition were made at the mid-day meeting of the Radio Club yesterday. C. H. Sheddon, IV S.P.S., was in the chair. Every member of the club will take his turn in attempting to get in touch with other stations during the competition. The apparatus which will be used consists of a broadcasting and receiving set. The shifts start next Sunday morning. For every station which is "hooked" up an O.K. is awarded. The competition which has the largest number of O.K.'s wins. In order to recognize the country in which a station is located each country will have a definite prefix added on to its signature.

He admits that accurate statistics are not available, and even his "fairly wide investigation" is vague. To the best of my knowledge none of the parliament boys were asked what life-worlds they intended to follow. In other words, his percentages are purely conjecture. Moreover, even were they to be true, his last sentence is not justified. We believe that we get boys of the finest quality to our Parliament who will not be a disgrace either to themselves or to their country in whatever walk of life they enter.

Finally, such charges as swelled heads, professional windbags, are ridiculous, and are not worthy of further comment. Thanking you for the space, I remain,

Yours, etc.,

Don. Buchanan,
371 Victoria.

FLOWERS

for St. Valentine's Day

Flowers from Simmons will express the depth of your affection in more ways than you think possible.

Simmons and Son LIMITED

348-350 YONGE STREET, corner Elm

Phone Elgin 9287, 9288 or Adelaide 2072

WARNER BROS.

SHOW OF SHOWS

You see and hear all the foremost players of the screen

100 STARS	1000 HOLLYWOOD BEAUTIES	100 SHOWS IN ONE
-----------	-------------------------	------------------

TO-DAY UPTOWN TO-DAY

KHIE KAT
HIPPOTRODOME
RKO WINDMILL

NOW PLAYING

The Incomparable Comedy Stars
WILTON & WEBER
Presenting "Mr. America"
100% Variety of Fun

CLAIRE VINCENT
exhibiting
"An Etching From Life"

ADA BROWN
The Plantation "Mammy"

OTHER FINE ACTS
MATINEE 30c
Except Saturday

On the Screen
Billie DOVE
The Painted Angel
Her First Singing, Dancing and Talking Role

COPY IS OVERDUE

Space will not be reserved for late pictures and write-ups for Torontonensis unless a written notification is left at the S. A. C. Office, Hart House, by—

FRIDAY, FEB. 14th

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS
Rt. 6738 328 BLOOR ST. W.

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

SOLID
BLACK LEATHER

FIBRE
BACK, STEEL
HINGES

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

BLUES AND GREYS MEET AT OWEN SOUND TO-NIGHT IN O.H.A.

REAL TUSSLE SEEN FOR VARSITY JUNIORS IN DURNAN TROPHY

Second Round Win Sought for Safe Margin in Return Tilt

BLUE DEFENCE STRONGER

The Varsity juniors took a train early this morning to Owen Sound for the first of home and home games to be played with that team. The team was confident of a win and were delighted that the first game of the series is to be played on Owen Sound ice that they may have the advantage of playing the final game of the round in Toronto. Frank Sullivan's boys have had a difficult group to overcome on their way to the championship and it has been a training that will stand them in good stead when they play Owen Sound to-night. Owen Sound had no stiff opposition in their group, and may have a lot of good form that has not been unpacked. The Varsity boys are ready for the best that the Sound can show, however, and expect to come out on top.

Hetherington on right wing is perhaps the most outstanding man on the team and if he keeps up to form in the forthcoming series he will maintain an excellent record. Brant at centre is fast and plays good combination, but will have a tricky man in McMeeken to oppose. Smilie consistently plays a star game.

The Varsity defence, composed of Williamson, the clever stick handler who has lately joined the team, and Levinsky. Levinsky is always a strong and steady player who does sensational rushes and is the pillar of strength on the juniors. Owen Sound is somewhat weak on the defence line since their stellar pair were broken up early in the season through injuries and the present defence is one that is much weaker than Varsity's. The Owen Sound goalie is hard to beat and will probably turn in as good a game as Hunnisett.

Hart House Tank Sees Faculty Mermen Vie for Point Supremacy

TWO EVENTS COMPLETE

Yesterday afternoon saw the first events for the Durnan Trophy run off in the Hart House tank. There were two events decided yesterday, the 50 and 200 yard free style. The races were keenly contested and the trophy holder is still in doubt. This will be solved on Thursday at 5 p.m.

The following were the winners: 50 yd. free style—1, Henderson, U.C., 25 4-5 sec.; 2, Tedman, U.C., and Pierdon, S.P.S., 26 3-5 sec. 200 yd. free style—1, Glass, U.C., 2:28; 2, Marsh, Dents, 2:28 4-5; 3, Towers, S.P.S., 2:39 4-5.

POINTS TO DATE

1—Glass, Vic	1325
2—Marsh, Dents	1325
3—Henderson, U.C.	1303
4—Pierdon, S.P.S.	1230
5—Towers, S.P.S.	1143
6—Armstrong, U.C.	1035
7—Sinclair, Dents	1018

VIC WOMEN DEFEAT ST. HILDA'S PUCKSTERS

Norma Bateman and Molly Jarrett Figure on Scoring Sheet

St. Hilda's women's hockey team were defeated by Vic last night when the Red and Gold were on the long end of a 2-0 score. The game was fairly fast, and quite scrappy, with both teams displaying good combination. Except in the first period when Vic had an edge, play was quite even. Norma Bateman scored both goals, but the first was the result of a solo rush by Molly Jarrett and a nice centre play. Sally Ballard stood out for St. Hilda's.

Vic I—Ev Craw, goal; Molly Jarrett, Eunice Noble, defence; Norma Bateman, centre; Billy Jansen, Billy Fowler, wings; subs, Mary Thom, Isabel McKillop.

St. Hilda's—Kay Steele, goal; Frances Bristocke, Helen McCall, defence; Marry Morrin, centre; Sally Ballard, Marjory Winspear, wings; subs, Laura Wilson, Nora Bary.

JUNIOR BASKETEERS HAVE TITLE CINCH

Fourth Game is Unnecessary in City League Schedule

The Varsity junior basketball team are champions of the Toronto City League this season. They defeated Y.M.H.A., the other team in the group, in two games, winning the third by default. The fourth game will thus not be necessary, but it has not been definitely decided whether to play it or not.

A switch has been made in the line-up which is calculated to strengthen the team considerably. Grant being shifted to centre, replacing Willis. Douglas and Kay will continue to hold down the forward jobs, while Coles and Captain Harry Newman are the regular guards. Miller, Ford, Willis and McDonnell are capable substitutes.

Coach McCutcheon's squad have a 35-34 victory over the strong Broadview juniors to their credit. This speaks well for the strength of the Blues as the Broadview outfit are reputed to be a "wonder" team.

FREEMAN'S—571 Yonge Street—is the largest concern for the rental of dress clothes.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity juniors left this morning for Owen Sound for their first game in the first round of the O.H.A. playoffs. The Blue and White will be facing a considerable handicap in playing on a strange ice surface, smaller than their home rinks. The Owen Sound sextet will have the "silkological" stimulus of a home crowd behind them and also a familiarity with the playing conditions. Owen Sound will be out to secure a substantial lead for the return game at the Arca Gardens on Friday night, and unless Frank Sullivan's men are much too good for the Orange jerseyed men the latter may take the decision on their home ice.

Owen Sound have always drawn good crowds when they have faced Toronto teams here, and generally have played their best hockey on Toronto ice. Unless Varsity hands them a real trimming up in the Sound to-night there should be another big house when the two teams hook up here Friday night.

Queen's have still a slim chance to qualify for a playoff position in the Senior A group of the O.H.A. series. Nationals' two tie games, one with Varsity and the other with the Tricolour complicate matters a great deal. If these games affect the final group standing they will be replayed. A victory for Varsity over Nationals here Saturday will put the college sextet into first place and assure them of a playoff position.

"Buff" Horton, former Broadview "Y" and Riverdale Grads basketball luminary has been dropped from the intercollegiate cage quintet. Absence from practice is the probable reason. Horton has been playing at right forward and his position will be filled by Riggs. Collins has been moved up from the intermediates to fill the vacancy in the senior squad.

The Varsity women's hockey team left for Kingston this morning, where they meet the Red, Yellow and Blue girls in the first game of the intercollegiate series. Varsity won the title last year, and will certainly make a good fight to retain it. Although the Blue team has not been able to get anywhere in the City League, these games have been excellent practice for the series with Queen's.

Varsity will be handicapped by the absence of Fran Crooks, star fair-haired defence player. She has a bad knee and will not be able to play for a time. However, it is good news that Helen McKinley, who was injured two weeks ago, will be back in goal.

Athol Wesley, well-known Toronto girl athlete, will handle the team at Queen's, since Coach Bill Dewar was unable to make the trip. Miss Wesley coached the U.C. interfaculty sextet to the championship in 1927 and was rated as the best feminine net custodian, until her retirement from hockey last year. She starred with the Aura Lee team for several seasons and her sensational playing had much to do with their winning the Ontario title in 1928.

MEDS KEEP SECOND PLACE IN INTERFACULTY HOCKEY

Retain Group Playoff Berth by Defeating Senior School

Senior Meds retained their hold on the second place in their interfaculty group when they defeated Senior School two to one yesterday. The game was one of the best of the present series, and there was little to choose between the two teams. In the first two periods play was fast and furious, and both net guardians were given their anxious moments.

Heavy checking and fast skating forced Referee Leo Latchford to hand out several penalties, mainly for minor offences. After two cantos the teams were still deadlocked in a scoreless tie.

Early in the third frame, Read notched the first counter of the game for the Schoolmen, but Meds fought right back and Williams tied it up on a play which the Engineers protested as offside. However, Allen salted the game away for the Meds when he fooled Mooser completely on a beautiful long shot. By this win Meds kept in striking distance of Senior Dents, who are riding merrily along on top S.P.S.—Goal, Mooser; defence, Algie, Hancock; centre, Watson; wings, Read, Grosvenor; subs, Crerar, Davidson.

Meds—Goal, Bennett; defence, Williams, Nowdwell; centre, Parris; wings, Lowrey, Burchell; subs, Allen Thompson.

FINE CAROS FEATURE INTERFACULTY SHOOTING

The first of a series of interfaculty miniature rifle matches fixed during the last week in January, provided unlooked-for competition. Three men tied for first position, two for fourth, two for sixth, and two for eighth. In spite of lack of adequate practice, due to a shortage in the number of available rifles of required calibre, the team turned in the fine average of 94.9. When it is considered that the bull's eye fired at is less than three-eighths of an inch in diameter, and is situated twenty-five yards distant from the firing point, the team is all the more congratulated in making such a fine showing.

The team and scores: Cooley 97, Leggett 97, Sherwood 97, Mitchell 96, Milliken 96, Trotter 94, Perkins 94, Reid 93, English 93, Haugh 92.

An enterprising fruit dealer at Minnesota University had a great scheme. He sent a letter to all the fraternities at the university. A crate of apples would be sent the "fraters" each week free of charge providing they sent in the names of their fathers and the parents were willing to pay for the apples.

A resolution for the support of India's movement for freedom from British rule was signed by more than 120 townspeople and students at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

MONEY TALKS

By THE ROYAL BANK

DON'T LET IT SLIP THROUGH YOUR FINGERS!

SENIOR O.H.A. STANDING
	W	L	T	TP
Nationals	3	1	2	2
Varsity	3	2	1	2
Queen's	1	4	1	2

Next game: Feb. 15, Nationals at Varsity.

INTERFACULTY GYMNASTICS

The Interfaculty Gymnastic Competition will be held on the Hart House big gym on Saturday, March 15th, at 8 p.m. in conjunction with the water polo game.

The preliminaries will be held in the same place on Thursday at 5 p.m. The events are High Bar, Parallel Bars, Horse and Mats.

Each competitor will do one movement on each piece of apparatus.

Intercollegiate rules will govern and the judges will be Nat Keefe and Harold Greenwood.

School, the present holders of the Harold A. Wilson Trophy, have a strong team, but will have to do well to beat U.C. who have a very likely looking team.

This year the intercollegiate meet is at McGill on Feb. 22. The Varsity squad will also enter the Ontario championship meet at the Toronto Central Y.M.C.A. on March 1st.

All entries for the interfaculty meet must be in not later than Wednesday of this week.

At the first meeting of the Menorah Round Table last Monday night, Maurice Starkman, of Osgoode, spoke on the History of the Jews from the beginning of the reign of David. The paper dealt with the Biblical part of the history and in most cases Mr. Starkman's interpretations of certain doubtful passages and events were inclined towards the liberal and critical view.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY
259 College St. TRINITY 5887
Harry Winfield, Prop.
CIGARS - MAGAZINES
Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries
Name your city
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Lending Library.

Throat easy
Buckingham CIGARETTES
20 for 25¢
NO COUPONS
ALL QUALITY

SCHOOL TRIMS MEDS IN BASEBALL FIXTURE

Jr. School defeated Jr. Meds in a closely contested baseball game yesterday afternoon by a score of 7-4. Both teams played a good brand of baseball, making few errors. School's pitcher, Shapiro, gave a fine display of his wares, striking out one batter after another.

Jr. School—Chalmers, Carbone, Carmichael, Shapiro, Howe, Newman, Howe, Adams, Eaton, Wilson.

Jr. Meds—Charron, Stubensky, Stein, Coutway, Carrot, Mogder, Wilcox, Stein, Goldenberg.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of Formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
671 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

After the Party it's MURRAY'S

for... that's where you'll find the rest of the Varsity crowd, wading into Murray's delicious food, smoking the odd fag and sipping a cup of steaming hot Java—and Boy! what coffee—you only pay for the first cup—after that it's "on the House."

MURRAY'S

770 Yonge St.
Next Updown
62 Front St. W.
Next Royal York
Metropolitan Bldg.
Basement
12 Queen St. East

Arthur Wing Pinero's "TRELAWNY OF THE 'WELLS'" AT HART HOUSE THEATRE
February 13, 14, 15
Presented by TRINITY COLLEGE DRAMATIC SOCIETY
Saturday Matinee
Seats Now--Box Office TR. 2723
ADMISSION 50c. and 75c. plus tax

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 12
4.20—Professor Dale will speak at the U.C. Players' Guild.
Riversdale ex-pupils annual at-home, Roof Gardens, Royal York.
5.15 p.m.—Professor John Line on "Why Pray in a World of Law?" in the Music Room, Hart House.
8.00 p.m.—Annual contest in public speaking for U.C. women at the Union.

9 p.m.—Annual Dental At-Home at the Royal York Hotel. Subscription $5.00.

THURSDAY, FEB. 13
4.30 p.m.—A meeting of the M. and P. Society in Room 43 of the Physics Building. Speaker: Mr. H. B. Speakman, Director of the Ontario Research Foundation.
4.30—Women's Press Club at the Union. Short story week.
5.15—Toronto tennis Board meets in Room 82, U.C.
7.30 p.m.—In Women's Union, 79 St. George St., Thursday Discussion Group of the Pabius Club.

FRIDAY, FEB. 14
12.00-2.00—Election of 370 U.C. permanent executive, and representative for Moss Scholarship, in West Hall. Open meeting of the Medical Society. Address by Sir Robert Falconer.
Election of permanent executive of 370 U.C. and the U.C. representative for the Moss Scholarship.
2 p.m.—370 women's class party at Women's Union.
8.30 p.m.—Malvern ex-pupils at-home to be held at the Collegiate Auditorium.

SATURDAY, FEB. 15
8.30 p.m.—International Water Polo, Montreal vs. Varsity at Hart House. Dance afterwards.
8.20—373 Victoria class party at Annesley Hall.

MONDAY, FEB. 17
8.00 p.m.—Illustrated lecture by Miss Ethel Conway on Petra, the Rock-hewn City, in Castle Memorial Hall. Admission free.

TUESDAY, FEB. 18
1.30-2.00 p.m.—Rev. Stanley Russell will speak at Wymilwood. All students welcome.
8.15 p.m.—Joint Vic-Trinity debate in Wymilwood: "Resolved that in the opinion of this house the C.O.T.C. should still be tolerated."
8.15 p.m.—Lit. meeting for all men in University College, Junior Common Room.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19
8.00 p.m.—Women's Interfaucy Swimming Meet at Hart House pool.
8.00 p.m.—Biological Club Conversa-

RESIDENCE SPEAKS FRENCH

(Continued from page 1)
in a place where no Frenchman would divide the word.

Mademoiselle declares that she is very glad to be associated with Victoria College since everyone has proven so friendly. "It is a great thing," she remarked, "to be able to forget oneself completely and laugh and joke in another language than one's own. The girls are certainly progressing wonderfully."

WYCLIFFE IS BEHIND 20 YEARS STUDENT SAYS

(Continued from page 1)
refused to give his name, but remarked that the discussion was very broadminded.

Six phases of the work of the church were described by six students of Wycliffe, it is understood, the phases including such questions as to whether the right type of men are being prepared by the church for the ministry, how radio is affecting the church attendance and contributions, and whether the church is making any successful effort to hold the young people.

The members of the commission were Chancellor Sisborne of Ottawa, Canon Gould, and Bishop Owen of Niagara Diocese.

Three hundred and eighty-seven students who are working their way through Princeton University earn an average of $568 yearly.

zation at the Biological Building. A popular exhibit and demonstration of Biological methods and activities. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 20
8.15—Combined meeting of the Victoria College and University College French Societies at the Women's Union.

FRIDAY, FEB. 21
9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College Arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22
8.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

TUESDAY, FEB. 25
8.00 p.m.—Victoria College Dramatic Society at-home in Wymilwood.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26
9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

FRIDAY, FEB. 28
8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.

Things to Do on Movie Nights Feature Wild Impromptu Fights

By A. E. F. Allan

THINGS TO DO AT THE MOVIES

Join the mob scene at the back of the theatre. Why do all the nice people stick their elbows in your ribs? Look hopefully at the usher and hold up two fingers. Why does he give you a dirty look? Or is that a dirty look? Perhaps it means, "Slip me two bits and I'll see what I can rustle up for you." . . . . . Whisper something reassuring to your companion. Why is the two-ton female ahead standing so determinedly on your toes? Ask her . . . . . Is that any way for a lady to talk? . . . . . Are those two vacant seats in the back row? Make a dive for them. Who was that you just socked on the jaw? Did you know him? Is it all right to sock the jaws of people you don't know? What is he saying to you? Tell him it isn't polite to address people to whom one has never been properly introduced. . . . . Sit down. Stand up and try to find out what's going on. Is that the news reel? . . . . . What's all the commotion down front? Is there a fire? Or a fight? What's the big idea of the general stampede in the aisles? Is this the annual exodus? Get ready for a good night's work. Grab your frail, gently but firmly, halfway between position A and position B. Ready? Dash madly out into the aisle shouting, "Murder! arson! pillage! turbulence! Hart House election!" Tuck the frail under one arm, the overcoat under the other. Put your hat on your head, tie your scarf over the lower portion of your face and drape your gloves over your ears. What are all the people screaming for? Run like hell. Why are all the people trying to push you back? What's that map suddenly stuck up against yours for? Why don't you give it a hefty shove with your knee? . . . . . Name ten people whose maps you'd like to give a hefty shove with your knee . . . . . Are those two empty seats down there in the sixteenth row? Shove like mad. Who are all the insane people behind you? Is it possible that they see the two empty seats in the sixteenth row, too? Run, push, squirm, swear, shout. . . . . Is this civilization? What's that dripping off your eyebrows? Sweat? . . . . . What's this looming up? The sixteenth row? Push the frail ahead of you. Step over feet. Step on 'em. That's the old fight in there! Sink down . . . . . Are these the seats? Sink down . . . . . When you come out of the faint, look around you. What's happening on the screen? Is that the heroine? Or old home week in a dishpan factory? Why does her voice sound as if it came from the other end of a drain-pipe? Is that one of those sound effects? What's the matter with her complexion? Is she supposed to look like an advanced case of leprosy? Or is that just because she's in natural colours? . . . . . Who is that jabbing you in the back of the neck? Turn around and glare . . . . . How tall do you suppose that book is in front of you? More than seven feet? Or is he sitting on a set of unabridged encyclopedias? . . . . . What is that being rammed into your left ear? Is it an old lady with an umbrella or a child with a stick of candy? Feel your ear gingerly. Now look at your hand. Well, what is it? Glue? or blood? . . . . . Who's doing that, anyway? . . . . . Pick up the walking stick belonging to the aged person beside you. Turn around and deliver a few well timed blows to the entire row behind . . . . . Now settle down for a good sleep. You deserve it.

BULLETIN BOARD

TORONTONENSIS REPS

There will be a meeting of the Torontonensis Board Thursday, Feb. 13 at 5.15 p.m. in Room 82, U.C. Representatives from Dentistry and Household Science are especially requested to be there.

SWIMMERS

Important practice for all U.C. and Household Science swimmers to-night at U.T.S. pool at 7 sharp. This is the last separate practice before the final ones at Hart House next week.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The first spoon shoot of the season is being fired this week. Spoons will be given to the high man in each of the four classes.

U.C. SWIMMING TEAM

The picture of the U.C. swimming team will be taken on Thursday at 4.30 in S.P.S. Building. Smith, Henderson, Boddy, Clant, Tedman, Buchanan, McFee, Dixon; bring your bathing suits.

FUTURE MUST LOOM ABOVE THE PRESENT

(Continued from page 1)

tions, the same that we learned at our mother's knee. The world to-day is under the impression that the smart man, by means of trickery, can be a success. That theory is a delusion. The tricky man is stupid, he is a fool. The whole secret is 'Don't bother about the present—subordinate the present hour always to the one to come.'

The speaker was introduced by Principal M. W. Wallace, 976, who spoke briefly on the value in the uni-

U.C. ELECTIONS

Election of the permanent executive of 370 U.C. will be held on Friday, February 14 in the West Hall of University College between 12.00 and 2.00 o'clock. At the same time voting will take place to elect the U.C. representative for the Moss Scholarship.

LECTURE

Illustrated lecture by Miss Ethel Conway on Petra, the Rock-hewn City, in Castle Memorial Hall, Monday evening, February 17th at eight o'clock, under the auspices of Trinity, Wycliffe, Knox, McMaster, and Emmanuel Colleges, the Toronto Bible College, and the Royal Ontario Museum.

S.C.A. SERIES

The second address of the S.C.A. Hart House series will be given this afternoon at 5.15. Professor John Line will speak on "Why Pray in a World of Law?" in the Music Room. All men students cordially invited.

versity of an Alumni Association and its dinners, which helped to keep alive the "family relationship" often lacking in a large university.

Dr. James Brebner, Registrar of the university, Alex Stringer, president of U.C. Lit., and Herb Bell, president of IV year, were then called upon for a few remarks.

H. J. McLaughlin, IT3, was the toast master and read letters of regret from the President of the university, Sir Robert Falconer, and former principal Maurice Hutton, who were unable to be present, due to illness.

Among the distinguished graduates present were: W. A. McKinnon, former Canadian Trade Commissioner in London, Eng.; George Henwood, Attorney General of Alberta; A. F. Barr, former Varsity rugby coach; R. W. Carr, editor of the "McLean Publications" staff; J. S. McLean; H. A. Clark; R. D. Hume; Geo. A. Cornish; Archibald Wood, and Alex Dewar.

Bridge was played in the West Common Room after the dinner.

Co-eds at the University of Oklahoma as a whole do not favour marriage. Their preferences run from aviation to school teaching.

Dainty Lingerie for the Fair Co-Ed

Dance sets of flat crepe de chine, cleverly designed and fashioned of excellent quality crepe, in lace or tailored styles. Many to choose from . . . $3.98

Tune in Every Wednesday 7 p.m. CFCA, Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET At Richmond St. 5808 708 YONGE STREET Next door to Uptown Theatre Rt. 3600 2496 YONGE STREET Next door to Capital Theatre HU. 4780 OPEN EVENINGS

INVESTIGATION REPORT OVERWHELMINGLY UPHELD

(Continued from page 1)

"We accept the report of the Investigation Committee of the Caput in 1910 and that a committee be appointed to work out the details and said committee report to this council," was the motion passed.

The following committee was appointed: A. J. Stringer (chairman), N. D. Adams, T. V. O'B. Wilson, C. J. Daly, and Edwin Joliffe.

A. J. Stringer moved that the report be accepted in toto. Considerable discussion followed the motion. It was found that it would be necessary to carefully examine the details of the report in order to ensure no technical difficulties.

Lou Golden then moved an amendment to the motion, that a committee be appointed to carefully study the report and report to the council.

When this report has been duly considered by the S.A.C., and any necessary changes made, it will be referred back to the Caput for ratification after it has passed the Caput it will be again passed by both Student Councils and finally become active.

McGILL SAVANT CALLED IN U.S. MURDER TRIAL

Psychologist Gives Evidence for State in N.J. Court

Special to "The Varsity" Montreal. — Called to the United States to assist in the prosecution of a murderer, Professor W. D. Tait, head of the Department of Psychology at McGill, has returned to Montreal. He acted as a witness during a murder trial which was held recently.

Professor Tait is considered to be one of Canada's leading psychologists, and was thus asked by the State of New Jersey to aid them in prosecuting Maher, the defendant in the Wittpen-Maher murder trial. He was employed in an advisory capacity to the physicians working for the state, testifying in regard to the mental condition of Maher from the psychological angle.

The McGill professor stated that this occasion was possibly one of the first where a psychologist had been called in to support the prosecution in a state murder trial. He regards this as indicative of the fact that the psychological aspect is beginning to be recognized as having a place in court. Dr. Tait added that he received every courtesy while engaged in his work, not only from the state physicians, whom he assisted, but also from the Bar and Bench.

WE SEE SAME STARS AS ANCIENTS DID

"If Romans and Grecians could come alive to-day they would see exactly the same stars as we see to-day," declared Professor R. K. Young of University College, in his illustrated address before the Trinity College Science Club last night.

Professor Young dealt first with the solar system and the relative sizes of the planets. He then spoke of the millions of stars comprising the universe, stressing the fact that we are just on the threshold of astronomical knowledge.

Among those present at the meeting were Canon Raoul, honorary president of the club, and Professor H. C. Simpson, founder of the club.

COLLEGE GOWNS CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON

108 King St. W., Toronto

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

253 Bloor Street West Near Avenue Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.

Open daily, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

DANCING LESSONS

REDUCED RATES

By special request Mr. Walford will continue these low rates during Jan., Feb., and March. Private lessons the only way to learn successfully.

Strictly Private - 6 for $5.00
Semi Private - 6 for $4.00
(Two pupils taking same lesson)
Class Lessons - 8 for $6.00
HARRY WALFORD—Rt. 4382
Address—65 WELLESLEY ST.

RENT A TUXEDO

$2.00

STUDENTS PRICE ONLY

NEW SUITS LATEST STYLE

TELEPHONE TRINITY 8218

Mallabar COSTUMER

450-452 SPADINA AVE 31 College St.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (St. Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

For service and low rates see FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

Why Not Spend 43 Days and $424.25 and See These Places Next Summer?

A SPECIAL ALL STUDENT TOUR

Arranged and directed by

THE NATIONAL FEDERATION OF CANADIAN UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Sailing via Canadian Pacific

Phone TR. 5036, S.A.C. Office Hart House, and have folder mailed to you.

SCOTLAND

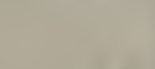

ENGLAND

BELGIUM

HOLLAND

FRANCE

STUDENT RATE 8 Lessons $5.00

This rate is offered to students only. Applicants must present registration card.

Jack Slater's orchestra at Thursday advanced classes. Dancing till midnight. Beginners' class Tuesday 8.30. Private lessons by appointment.

DACOSTA

Studio of Dancing Columbus Hall RA. 8650

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY, 13th, 1930

No. 82

LIBERTY OF THOUGHT AT WYCLIFFE BRINGS THEOLOGY CRITICISM

Opinion of Backwardness Not Generally Held Says
Dr. Taylor

INCIDENT MERELY A RIPPLE

Desire to Cause Sensation Blamed for Outbreak
Among Students

"The student body of Wycliffe College has always been allowed the freest expression of their thoughts," said Dr. Taylor, acting principal of Wycliffe, when he was interviewed by "The Varsity" regarding the assertion of a Wycliffe student that in theology Wycliffe was twenty years behind the times.

"It is unfortunate that one of our students should express himself in this manner, for I do not consider that this is the opinion of the rest of the students. Each man is allowed to have his own ideas, but we are not justified in considering them as representative of the whole college.

"When the Anglican commission appointed by the Synod met the students privately on Monday, it was not in order to exclude the faculty or the press, but it was merely in accordance with their custom to discuss the problems of a group with that group alone. The commission gives suggestions in the most general way. Their mission is one of general well being for the church at large rather than authoritative in the operations of a Diocese.

"Because we have these little difficulties within our college it does not prove that we are decadent, it proves that we are alive, that we are progressive in our thoughts as well as in our theology.

"Wycliffe has always stood for progress."
(Continued on page 4)

TO FLY OR NOT TO IS NOT PROBLEM HERE

Queen's Club Has Airplane;
McGill Also Organizes
Flying Club

COST IS PROHIBITIVE

"As far as we know there is no movement afoot for a Toronto University Flying Club," said E. A. Allcutt, associate professor of Mechanical Engineering. "All our flying is done in conjunction with the Officers' Training Corps."

Queen's University has taken the step of organizing a Flying Club, as well as McGill, but there would be no advantage of such to the University of Toronto on account of its connection with the O.T.C., except as a
(Continued on page 4)

THERAPISTS REVEL AS KIDS

The "Kids' Party," given last night to the senior class, Occupational Therapy, by the students of the first year at the home of their president, Marion Gibson, 88 Roxborough Dr., was a riotous success. Pantie dresses, frilly dresses, even the scanty attire of a six months old, bobbing curls and pigtails were in keeping with "London Bridge is Falling Down", lollypops and luscious ice-cream cones.

Press Club

The University Press Club will meet for luncheon in the north common room of Hart House to-day. The speaker will be Harry Anderson, the managing editor of "The Globe".

PRAYER IF ANYTHING IS SPIRITUAL ACTIVITY

Dr. John Line Thinks Prayer
Not Shut Out by Researches in Biology

MANY PHASES ENTER

"We may regard prayer, whether we practice it or not, whether we believe in it or not, as the spiritual activity of man," asserted Dr. John Line, associate professor of Ethics at Victoria College, in his address in Hart House yesterday afternoon on the question, "Why Pray in a World of Law?"

Proceeding from this definition, Dr. Line went on to show the difference between the quiet meditation of our problems which anyone can indulge in and concrete prayer. "In concrete prayer we are exchanging thoughts; we are in contact with the mind of God. When we think of prayer as a communion with God, that is where the question comes."

Dr. Line then divided his question into what he called its negative and positive elements.

He considered the negative side first: "I do not think that these recent researches in biology and physics completely shut out the possibility of prayer as a communion with God," the speaker declared. He went on to say that the scientists believe that the ultimate laws of matter are modifiable in just the way freedom or creativity required. "If the world is an ultimate law in that sense, surely it cannot preclude the idea of communion of our mind and the corresponding mind of God."

In developing the positive argument, Dr. Line stated, "The world offers a definite basis or belief in the reality of prayer. These principles which offer this reality are the commonplace influences of one mind on another and the exchange of ideas. It is a perfectly natural thing that God, energizing all reality, should influence our minds," Dr. Line concluded.

NEW SYSTEM OF FEES BEGINS NEXT YEAR

Students Who Fail Before
Fourth Year Not Charged for Torontonensis

WILL BE OONE GRAUALLY

There will be a new scheme of levying S.A.C. fees next year, according to a recommendation sent to the Board of Governors by the Joint Executive, reported A. G. Burns, secretary of the S.A.C.

Under the new scheme $2.00 a year will be paid by every student regardless of his year or faculty. In addition he will pay $4.00 in his graduating year, the latter to go towards the Torontonensis expenses.

In previous years the fee was $3.00 per year and no additional fee at graduation. It was divided, $1.00 for "The Varsity", $1.00 for administration and $1.00 for Torontonensis. This students in a four year course paid $4.00 towards the latter. On the other hand students in Medicine paid $6.00 and students in Dentistry, $5.00 towards the Torontonensis. This of
(Continued on page 4)

CABARET STYLE USED AT DENTAL FUNCTION AS ONE INNOVATION

Numerous Graduates Attend and Renew Acquaintances at Annual At-Home

MUSIC AND COLOUR CHARM

Novelty Numbers and Dances
Keep Guests Merry
All Evening

The annual At-Home of the faculty of Dentistry was held last evening in the Junior Ballroom of the Royal York hotel. Like all the Dental functions of the present season the student dance was exceptionally well attended by graduates, numbers of whom came in from out of town to renew college acquaintances.

The entertainment committee broke away from the traditional practice this year and made the party into a cabaret dance, an arrangement which found great favour with the guests.

The elegant furnishings of the spacious ballroom were enhanced by tall stately palms and floral designs, while the tables around the walls were decorated with sprays of roses and the garnet and azure colours of the Dental College.

A delightful and varied musical program was furnished by a popular city orchestra, which displayed its versatility during the supper hour by changing its selections from the modern dance numbers to light and classical operatic excerpts from the works of the favourite composers.

Bubble, Ball and Chain, and Eclipse dances and other novelty numbers helped to keep the guests in a merry frame of mind and while the long evening away.

Mrs. A. E. Webster and Mrs. A. D. A. Mason were the patronesses.

The Dental At-Home committee, under the direction of President W. Fothergill Dewar, consisted of J. B. G. Stewart, V. B. O'Reilly, R. Wiley, H. Jamieson and R. Wright.

MEASLES SCARE OVER

There is no likelihood of an epidemic of measles in Burwash Hall, Victoria College authorities informed "The Varsity" yesterday. Two residents of South House succumbed to German measles a few days ago, but in neither case was the attack serious. No further outbreak has been reported.

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Unearths Opinions on Exams

"Is the present system of examinations an unfair test of ability?"

Miss Jane Grey, II Modern Languages, University College—

"Yes, I think they're a curse! It depends so much on who sets them—and they leave no room for originality."

Miss Beatrice Collins, III English and History, Victoria College—

"Yes. Essays or a term mark should count equally with the final examinations. If that were the case we'd know more about our work before Christmas than we do."

Miss Mary Parkes, III English and History, Victoria College—

"Yes. Too much depends on the last spurt. It would be preferable to have sets of term exams each of which would count equally with the final."

Miss Vera Weinstein, II Medicine—

"No. But it isn't too good, although it's better than the Chinese system where they lock up those under examination, for two weeks."

B. W. Stevens, IV Medicine—

"The present system is a poor test of ability, but a great stimulus for work."

H. E. Smith, II S.P.S.—

"With a large class the professor does not know all the students and it is the only possible way of testing one's ability."

UNIVERSITY BURSAR QUOTES CALENDAR ON QUESTION OF LIQUOR

Hopes of Beer in Hart House Dashed As Impossible
at Present

NOT PERMITTED BY L.C.A.

If Habit Becomes Prevalent
New Rules Could Be Made
Thinks Moure

Within a week there have been two letters addressed to "The Varsity" advocating the sale of beer in the university, preferably at Hart House.

Anyone holding high hopes of seeing this suggestion become a reality will be disappointed to learn that at present it is an impossibility. Sir Henry Drayton, Chief Commissioner of the Liquor Control Board of Ontario, informed "The Varsity" yesterday that under the Ontario Liquor Control Act the sale of beer at Hart House would not be permitted.

J. B. Bickersteth, Warden of Hart House, had no comments to make on the subject except that it came under the jurisdiction of the university as a whole, not under Hart House, merely a unit of the university.

"What you want," he declared, "is a general statement regarding the university regulation."

An extract from page 36 of the Arts Calendar was pointed out by F. A. Moure, Bursar of the university. It read: "The university lays down three general rules designed to prevent hazing, the use of intoxicants, and gambling." Mr. Moure added: "I cannot at the moment recall any other regulation in that regard, but I should think that if the habit were to become prevalent there would soon be one."

Competition Closes

Last chance for entries in the literary competition is today. Nothing will be accepted after one o'clock this afternoon. Material must be handed in at the News Office in Hart House, or the Women's Office, in U.C.

$25 is being awarded in the poetry section; $25 in the prose section; and $10 in the art section. Results will be announced in the supplement which will appear in Monday's issue of "The Varsity".

Varsity GAINS ONE-GOAL LEAD IN SLUSHY GAME AT OWEN SOUND

Sir Robert Improves
Effective Defence Work and Hunnissett in Goal Decide the Issue

RETURN GAME FRIQAY

Rain Pours Through Roof in Last Period and Rink Becomes Lake

Special to "The Varsity" by Larry Dawson, Sports Editor
Owen Sound, Feb. 12 — Varsity juniors will carry a one-goal lead into the return game against Owen Sound in Toronto Friday night by virtue of a 1 to 0 victory over the Orange and Black here to-night. The game was played on soft ice and conditions became worse as the game progressed, rain pouring down on the ice in the last period and turning it into a lake.

Hunnissett's great goal-tending and the effective Blue and White defensive play decided the issue. Varsity seemed slowed up a little by the smaller ice surface, but both teams suffered from the slushy ice. The puck was exceedingly hard to control and there was a tendency for ragged hockey.

In addition to Hunnissett's fine work in goal, Hetherington's stick handling and Brant and Levin's checking were the bright spots in Varsity's play. McMeekin at centre for Owen Sound turned in a great game as did Matthews on the defence and Healy in the nets.

Hetherington got the only score of the game one minute after play had started in the first period when he grabbed a pass out from Brant and drove it past Healy. Both teams set a good pace with McMeekin and Matthews engineering attacks on the Varsity cage.

Varsity came right back and forced Healy to save on shots from Smilie and Hetherington on the receiving end of nice passing attacks. McLellan
(Continued on page 3)

Through the co-operation of university authorities, it is provided that the exchange scholars are exempt from tuition or student fees.

A. Gordon Burns, the local representative of the National Federation of Canadian University Students,
(Continued on page 4)

FACULTY DISAGREES OVER PHILIP GROVES

Discussion Started by Talk
Given by Noted Author
About Fiction

SPEAKER ASSERTS NOTHING

"And what is truth?" was the wondering thought of many as they departed from the meeting of the English Association held in University College last night, where Philip Grove, noted Canadian author, set forth his impressions of "Fiction and Non-Fiction" and then threw the house open to discussion.

"We don't know, and never shall know," said Mr. Grove. "You divide your reading into science, history and fiction. But the science yesterday is untrue to-day."

Mr. Grove ended his most interesting speech by encouraging discussion, and stating that he did not dogmatically assert any point, for "Nothing is. Everything becomes."

"I deny the entire thesis," said Professor T. H. Underhill of the department.
(Continued on page 4)

U.C. CO-EDS COMPETE IN PUBLIC SPEAKING

Twenty-Five Dollar Prize Won by Isabel Jordan of the First Year

PRINCIPAL WALLACE AWARO

Miss Isabel Jordan, president of first year, University College, was awarded the twenty-five dollar prize for public speaking offered by the St. Margaret's College Alumnae Association, in the Women's Union last night. Seven women, undergraduates of University College, entered the competition, each one speaking for twenty minutes on a subject of her own choosing. Miss Jordan spoke on "The Lost Art of Conversation."

The judges were Miss Wood, principal of Haverhill College, Miss Marjorie Ford, national secretary of the Y.W.C.A. and Mr. Lewis Duncan, a prominent barrister. Mr. Duncan, who announced the decision of the judges, said that in making the award, weight of matter, continuity, manner of delivery, and humour among other things were taken into consideration.

Miss Clara Gray, president of the Women's Undergraduate Association, who acted as chairman, announced that after this year Principal Malcolm Wallace would award this prize for public speaking, and thus the annual contest would be done away with.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. Gordon Burns, B.A.

Night Editor: G. Macdougall. Ass't: W. Barlow, M. Douglas

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13th, 1930

IN NEED OF NOURISHMENT

Among the great matters that are clamouring for the attention of the great minds of this academic world, there is one omni-present problem of the most intimate interest to all undergraduates, and, we might venture to assume, to graduates and members of the faculty as well—that is, the matter of food. Proof—if proof were needed to show that the academic mind can descend from its lofty heights to contemplate such mundane matters—has been given in more than ordinary degree lately, first in the cordial welcome tendered the latest creation for capturing the illusory vitamin, and second, in the playful interest evinced on all sides when one sophisticated spirit suggests the desirability of a more convenient access to alcoholic beverages in our midst.

An extreme case, of course, is the food-consciousness of the Household Science people, whose highest ideal is a well-balanced diet, whose minds dwell in a constant atmosphere of food values, and whose lighter diversions lie in making up the deficiencies in their own daily supply of calories, vitamins, proteins, roughage, and all such delectable refreshments. Far be it from us to deprecate their efforts; our highest aim at the moment is to find ways and means of gratifying our own inner desires, when they clamour for satisfaction of a less technical but perhaps equally enjoyable sort.

For example, we had four lectures yesterday morning (and attended all of them), were obliged to eat breakfast at eight o'clock or not at all, and were unable to obtain any further "stimulation of the flagacities" (for reference see Bernard Shaw) until lunch at 1.15 p.m. Imagine, all you who have ever been in a similar situation, what must have been our condition between the hours of twelve and one. Suffice it to say that we felt, without exaggeration, somewhat less bright and intelligent than usual. The effect on the spirits, the morale, shall we say the clan of the class, other members of which were evidently in the same condition, could not help but be such as to greatly impair its intellectual contribution. And when it is considered that similar harrowing experiences must be undergone by countless others around us daily, the combined numbers of the red corpuscles which get eaten up by white corpuscles per person per diem will be seen to constitute a serious menace to the university as a whole.

But, it will be objected, is there not in your midst, yea, even in Hart House, a veritable Tuck Shop where students repair in large numbers, and upon presentation of a paltry sum regale themselves with quantities of a chocolate-coated confection known as a Sultana? Even so; nor are we overlooking the fact that the co-ed can fortify herself at the Women's Union with peanuts and an innocent glass of milk. But even as we utter the words, the voices of countless students rise in angry protest that these are not sufficient for their needs. "A Tuck Shop in U.C. and one in the Library", is one of the demands. And perhaps, the congestion in the rotunda of University College being what it is, it might be safe to suggest that a canteen located there could not, at any rate, make matters worse, and might do a lot of good. But if the above were considered too undignified an innovation, as it probably would be, we might consent to its removal to some less conspicuous, but equally central position.

Another experience with which any who have gone through it will sympathize, is the one that follows an evening spent at the Library, and with spring approaching slowly but surely, this habit will probably be getting more prevalent. There is nothing like two hours of hard study to give one an appetite, and the natural inclination of anyone staying at the Library until the final tinkle of the little bell wrenches the book from his reluctant hands, is to rush forth and revive himself with food and drink without delay. Unfortunately, however, with the single exception of one coffee shop near the campus which seems to be dedicated almost exclusively to the denizens of the college it is closest to, there is a lamentable scarcity of suitable places within a reasonable distance. The omission of such an important adjunct to a well-equipped university has troubled us for some time, and we have often wished, like many others, that something might be done about it.

We would not go so far as to suggest that a cafeteria be built in the middle of the front campus, we realize that the people that are given to playing games there at certain seasons would object, besides which it would be a doubtful addition to the architectural beauties of the place. But we think something satisfactory could undoubtedly be done, and we appeal to all those who will admit an interest in the matter of food, or who ever have suffered from a wild desire to obtain such without loss of time, during the pursuit of their academic careers, to help us in this serious plight.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Don Is Not Don

The Editor, "The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

The letter signed "Don Buchanan, 371 Victoria", which appeared in your columns Wednesday, was not written by—

Yours truly,
Don Buchanan,
370 Victoria.

The Wheat Pool

Editor, "The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

Permit me to congratulate you upon your excellent editorial of yesterday concerning the wheat pool. It comes at a most propitious time and should be of particular interest to the thinking student. Most of the condemnations of the pool's policy, arise, I believe, from an almost total ignorance of the facts and from one's inability to see farther than one's nose.

Your editorials, I must say, show a pleasing departure from those gossipy but little meaning editorials that so often characterized "The Varsity" in the past. The columns of a student paper should always be open to vitally important affairs concerning the country at large. I remain, Yours, Fred Parker.

Horrified by Letters

The Editor, "The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

It is with no little surprise and sorrow that I have read letters in the last two editions of "The Varsity" containing the most shameless and sinful suggestions to institute the sale of intoxicants in Hart House. That such ideas should be permitted to find their way into print—and so to corrupt and pervert the minds of the young manhood of our country—certainly lowers your journal in the estimation of all decent people, and in my opinion calls for an immediate investigation by the S.A.C.

The first of these letters, written by a certain Mr. Knowles, is clearly too absurd to deserve any comment. I might, however, allude to the reference to the Demon Rum, as "that which maketh glad the heart of man". Let anyone suffering from such a delusion visit the slums, the insane asylums, the hospitals, or the prisons of the country; let him seek to discover what brought people to these places; let him then revise his estimate. Perhaps, in the fulness of time, this man will find himself in one of these places, and will have ample opportunity to repent that he did not mend his ways and seek the way of Salvation.

The writer of the letter in Tuesday's issue is the more reprehensible in that he makes his proposals seriously. I can well understand his shame, in using "32 U.C." as a despicable cloak of anonymity. It is your duty, Mr. Editor, to reveal the identity of this person, in order that he may be exposed to the odium, the ignominy, the calumny, the disgrace, which he so thoroughly deserves. The only iota of sense he exudes is when he refers to intoxicants as "a dangerous master". Even this falls far short of the truth, and words utterly fail to describe the evil and sin of drinking.

Such letters as these I regard as the handwriting on the wall. Apart from the use of alcohol, we may observe the growing sinfulness and ungodliness of the world in the habits of cigarette smoking, gambling, dancing, and the modes in women's attire. Let those who can, read the handwriting on the wall. The Almighty will not suffer these things, and as surely as we tolerate such sinful practices, so surely will we be the victims of the same fate as so justly overtook Sodom and Gomorrah.

'30, VIC.

With the Theatres

VICTORIA

The Plunketts have dusted out the dead, dear Victoria to provide housing for a glorified vaudeville bill titled "The Dumbells at Home". Red Newman, Pat Rafferty, Fred Emney, Morley, and Al, are there with the old bag of tricks. But honours go to a damsel yclept Madeline Killen. She smacks of Broadway, and appears to have everything. The chorines are personable and—believe it or not—intelligently costumed. Unless you are a hardened old two-on-the-aister, you'll find this revue worth a matinee. The question, of course, remains—can the Dumbells keep it up week after week? The trouble with reviving the old comedy sketches is that no number of charming comedienne can take the place of Joek Holland. . . . Don't be critical.

—A.E.F.A.

CHAMPUS CAT

Good evening ladies and gentlemen of the radio audience. This is CAT announcing from the twentieth floor of the new nineteen storey Gallstone skyscraper in Toronto, Canada.

C—C

The following program is sponsored by the Thugg Bros., lead pipe manufacturers in the United States and Canada, whose slogan is "the best pipe for the best sewage." Thugg pipe is strong, reliable and enduring and guaranteed to do the heaviest work. It is used by all the best people in Chicago. Ask your plumber.

C—C

We will now turn you over to New York, where the next voice you hear will be my own, as I am being turned back by the immigration authorities.

C—C

Good evening Friends, this is Aloysius Sasparilla speaking. We are now about to broadcast the inauguration address of Skipper Schmeller of the Swiss Cheese boring club of Geneva. Please stand by for your Swiss announcer.

C—C

Good evening radio fans, this is William Tell speaking. We are now all set to give you a running commentary of the big event as seen from a knot hole in the east stable. You will pardon me if my voice sounds a bit faint, ladies and gentlemen, I am standing away from the microphone so that you will not catch my cold. An apple a day you know—

C—C

Pardon the interruption, ladies and gentlemen, this is Aloysius Sasparilla again, we regret to announce that Mr. Tell has just burned out one of his tubes and we are unable to carry on the entertainment.

C—C

Instead we will now present the weather report for to-morrow. A marked depression is hovering over five of the night clubs with a slightly rising temperature for to-night. In the lower lake region there will be more weather to-morrow.

C—C

Through the courtesy of Bucket and Bucket Co., members of Telephone Exchange, we will now present the day's stock market quotations in open, high, low, intermediate and reverse—blah blah.

Gaspard McGuffey.

—my choice every time, they are blended right.

Twenty for 25c

Winchester

CIGARETTES

SAVE THE "POKER HANDS"

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Toronto Announces

A FREE LECTURE

on

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

entitled

"Christian Science: The Revelation of the Perfect Man"

By ALBERT F. GILMORE, C.S.B. of Boston, Massachusetts.

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church,
The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.,

in

MASSEY MUSIC HALL
Shuter and Victoria Sts.

THURSDAY EVENING, FEB. 13, at 8.15

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Alumni Federation

THEATRE NIGHT

In aid of the Student's Employment Bureau

Journey's End

ROYAL ALEXANDRA THEATRE

Monday, February 17

Tickets—$2.50 to $1.00
Tax Extra.

At Alumni Office, 43 St. George St., or the Royal Alexandra Theatre.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

Varsity Students!

Buy your Clothes Made-to-Measure Wholesale.

Where?
At
ROYAL TAILORS

Headquarters: 468 Wellington St. W. Toronto

Suits $22.50 to $50.00

Tuxedo Special $24

Every Courtesy Shown

Mc's LUNCH

A very convenient place to eat. West side of Yonge St. Half-way between Wellesley and Maitland.

Best value in city for the price, 35c.

550 YONGE STREET

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

259 College St. Trinity 5987

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

Why invest in a new suit, rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1865

ANOTHER SUMMER TOUR TO EUROPE

with PROFESSOR ROBINS

Under the Auspices of the STUDENTS' TRAVEL CLUB and the CUNARD LINE

JUNE 20 to AUGUST 24 Optional Later Return Sailings

FRANCE—Paris, Versailles, Avignon (the French Riviera), Nice, Monte Carlo. ITALY—Genoa, Rome, Florence, Venice, Milan, the Italian lakes. SWITZERLAND—Lugano, motor trip through the Swiss Alps by Furka, the Rhone Glacier, Interlaken, Lucerne, the William Tell country. The Austrian TYROL—Innsbruck. GERMANY—Munich. The Passion Play at Oberammergau; Wiesbaden; the Rhine by boat; Cologne. BELGIUM—Brussels; the Canadian Battle Front by motor (Ypres, Hill 60, St. Julien); Ghent; Bruges. HOLLAND—Amsterdam; The Hague. GREAT BRITAIN IN LONDON, ENGLAND, and SCOTLAND and NORTH WALES by motor. Oxford, Stratford-on-Avon, Kenilworth, Warwick, Chester, North Wales, the English Lakes, Windermere, Keswick (the Wordsworth country), Carlisle, Dryburgh, Abbotsford, Melrose (the Scott country), Edinburgh, the Frossachs (Loch Lomond, Loch Katrine, Ayr (the Burns country), Glasgow.

Excellent hotel accommodation and motor service everywhere. Inclusive price, $760.00. (One week longer than last year.) Apply for further information and address applications to either Professor J. D. Robins, Victoria College, Tel. Kenwood 5884 or Miss Alta Lind Cook, 111 Pears Avenue. Tel. Randolph 7789

The Students' Travel Club also offers programmes to all parts of Europe with sailings from first of May. Unusual itineraries include Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Warsaw, Berlin, Madrid, Motor Trips through Austrian Tyrol and Dolomites, the Pyrenees, the French Alps.

For information apply to Miss Alta Lind Cook, (General Canadian Representative), 111 Pears Avenue. Tel. Randolph 7789.

JUNIORS DEFEAT OWEN SOUND 1-0 IN FIRST GAME OF ROUND

NO BREAKS FOR EITHER TEAM GAME ENDS IN NO-GOAL TIE

Varsity and Queen's Tie at Kingston in Women's Intercollegiate

QUEEN'S HAO SLIGHT EDGE

Queen's on Offensive in Second Period and Both Rough in Third

Kingston, Feb. 12—Varsity and Queen's women played a 0-0 tie in their intercollegiate fixture at Kingston last night. Both teams missed several beautiful chances to score, Varsity being especially unlucky in this respect. Queen's had a slight edge on the play, in the second and third periods. Play began slowly with each team cautious, feeling the other out. The forward lines combined effectively and Naomi Slater, Varsity defence, checked extremely well, stopping several determined Tricolour attacks.

Queen's began the second period with an offensive which kept Varsity pretty well bottled up in their own territory. The Blue and White displayed skill at poke-checking, however, which kept Queen's out from the goal, and towards the latter part of the period themselves gave the fans heart failure when they just failed to push the puck across the line.

In the third frame play was rougher, and quite fast. Margot Thompson missed the net by inches when she had the goalie clearly beaten. Both teams tried hard for a tally, and spoiled their own chances by repeated forward passes.

Betty Carter was the star of the game, her thrusts were always dangerous, and she checked back in outstanding manner all through. Dot Starr, too, held the Queen's captain and star forward, Irene Gordon, well in check, and combined well on the forward line. The defence was strong and Dama Lumley, goalie, is deserving of mention.

For Queen's, Irene Gordon and Dora Snell were best, and Beth Patterson had to make several sensational saves to keep Varsity off the score sheet.

Queen's—Beth Patterson, goal; Helen McGregor, Ida Muirhead, defence; Gladys Simmons, centre; Irene Gordon (captain), Dora Snell, wings; subs, Bea Clendinnen, Mary Ewart, Lorimer Henderson, Peggy Laidlaw.

Varsity—Dama Lumley, goal; Naomi Slater, Adele Statten (captain), defence; Margot Thompson, centre; Betty Carter, Dot James, wings; subs, Helen McKinley, Rox Vanstone, Dot Starr.

EMMANUEL OUTPLAYS A STRUGGLING KNOX

King-Beacon Combine Works Against Brother Theologs Rohe, Anderson Star

Emmanuel defeated Knox 41 to 24 in a rather listless basketball game yesterday. Emmanuel is a well drilled team and their continual spectacular plays had Knox almost gasping. They would just sweep down the floor with very little opposition. Knox tried hard but it was of no avail.

King was the best on the floor scoring many points for his team. Beacon was also good for Emmanuel, making some beautiful passes to King who notched the points.

Rohe and Anderson of Knox were the best on their team. Many of the plays started by these men were broken up by the opponents.

Knox—Rohe, Anderson, Wallace, Glen, Perrie; subs, Coleman, Goforth. Emmanuel—King, Beacon, Snell, Ashton, Shepley, Suler, Knowles, and Karns.

SENIOR BASKETBALL TEAM TO HAVE HARO WEEK-END

Result Decides Whether Varsity is in Intercollegiate Race

Varsity senior basketball team has a strenuous week-end in store for it this week when it meets Queen's on Friday night in Kingston and then goes on to Montreal to play McGill Saturday evening. The Blue and White must take both of these fixtures if they are to stay in the running in the intercollegiate race. Queen's have scored a victory over the Red and White, while McGill downed the local students last week in Hart House. Western appears to be the weak sister in the circuit, having been beaten in their three starts.

The Varsity quintet, faced with the prospect of losing the title which they won last year, is taking its practices seriously and Coach McCutcheon is getting the most out of his squad. "Buff" Horton, the former Riverdale star, has been dropped from the lineup. Horton missed too many practices and his case should be an example to the other members of the aggregation. "Eppa" Riggs will replace him at right forward. Riggs is a clever cager who has been grounded in the fundamentals of the game. He combines well, and despite his small stature, plays an aggressive type of basketball.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

The Blue juniors literally swam to victory last night at Owen Sound, and the game in spits was a combination of hockey and water polo. The slushy ice slowed up the fast-skating teams. The Arena Gardens with hole-proof roof will be the scene of some mighty fine hockey on Friday night. And we are calling Varsity to enter the second round in the O.H.A. race.

Frank Sullivan's lads had the edge in the encounter. The front line has been developing a passing attack that is getting the necessary goals while the defence trio is becoming more effective. Hetherington scored the lone tally on a pass from Brant, while Levinsky played a big part in keeping the Orange and Black from tying up the game. The juniors are improving with every game and the brand of hockey they are dishing up will carry them far.

The water polo squad faces M.A.A.A. on Saturday night. The event is attracting a lot of interest as this will be the final game of the year at the Hart House pool. Montreal beat Varsity in the former's pool, but since then have lost to Penn and New York. Should the Blue and White win they will end up in a tie for second place which is quite a creditable showing in their first season of international water polo.

Coach McCutcheon's men have their work cut out for them this week-end. On Friday they journey to the Limestone City where they engage the Tricolour in the evening, and on Saturday night they play McGill. Queen's with two victories and no defeats, are on top of the intercollegiate and seem to be the team to beat. If Varsity takes both they should emulate last year's champs. They have been working hard in preparation and will make the Tricolour and Red and White step plenty.

Varsity women's hockey team held Queen's to a 0-0 tie in Kingston last night in the first game of the intercollegiate series, so in the return game in Toronto, the teams will start on an even basis. Score on the round counts in these games, so neither team will be starting under a handicap when they play in Toronto.

Betty Carter, Varsity's red-haired centre, was the star of the game. She is a freshee at St. Hilda's, and this was her first intercollegiate game.

The Blue team has been running in tough luck this season. Fran Crooks was out of last night's game with a bad knee and yesterday morning when the girls were leaving for Kingston, Helen Hilliard, star forward, was taken ill on the train and could not go. An emergency call was sent out for Dot Starr to go down on the noon train. However, with these two players back in the game Varsity should be able to take the return game here without much difficulty.

By virtue of a 4-0 win from Aura Lee, second placers in the women's City Hockey League, Pats, last year's title holders, remain undisputed leaders of the league. There is not much chance of Pats being beaten by any other team now so this game practically gives them the championship.

St. Hilda's hockey team tasted defeat on Tuesday night for the first time this season. With three straight wins to their credit, the Saints were favoured to win from the Victoria sextet, and the Red and Gold win was a surprise to all. Norma Bateman, who starred on the intercollegiate hockey team last year, was playing for Victoria and her presence gave her team an edge over the Saints.

Coach Marion Forward is working her basketball team at top speed in preparation for the cage tournament at Western next week. The girls are going great in practices and should be in good shape by then. Eleanor Sedgewick is playing especially well. She is the fastest player on the team and she is a dead shot anywhere in close to the basket. This is Miss Sedgewick's second year on the team and she should have a very steady influence on the newer players.

VARSITY GAINS LEAD

(Continued on page 3)

came close to getting a counter when Hunnisett just managed to get in front of a fast shot from in front of the goal. Frank Sullivan's men had an edge in the first period, the Sounders being entirely unable to get around the blue defence pair.

Owen Sound forced the play at the opening of the second period and had the crowd on their toes. Then the blue forwards went in to their opponents' blue line and checked them to a standstill. Varsity missed what looked like a sure tally when Cunningham and Bennett missed Williamson's pass in front of the Owen Sound goal. The referee was calling them closely and the penalty box was kept occupied. Owen Sound seemed to find themselves in this period and got going better.

At the beginning of the third period the ice was covered with water and there were puddles deep enough to hide the puck. Puck-carrying was a tough job and long shots kept the goalies busy. With Hunnisett out of his cage McMeekin shot wild for a while as a lucky break for the blue. The Northerners took a leaf out of the Varsity book and went right in after them. Hunnisett made some great saves on shots from McMeekin and McConnachie. About half way through the period the rain began to sift through the rink roof in torrents. Varsity were fighting to protect their one-goal lead and keep the Sound sextet from drawing on even terms for the return game. Varsity shot the puck up the ice at every opportunity and the Orange boys kept boring in. Levinsky was as steady as a rock on the Varsity defence and his great de-

How they love to hear your voice

MAKE it a weekly event in their lives — and yours. Arrange a certain day and hour each week to call the folks at home, the call to be charged to the home telephone.

Each call will take little of your time and it will mean more to mother and dad than a score of letters.

Look in the telephone book for information about rates and service to your home town. You will find the charges surprisingly low.

W. J. CAIRNS,
Manager.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada

defensive work was invaluable in keeping the homesters at bay. Owen Sound swarmed around the blue goal in the last part of the period, but failed to get one by Hunnisett.

SUMMARY
FIRST PERIOD
1—Varsity—Hetherington (Brant) 1
Penalties—McLellan, Williamson, Brant, McConnachie, Levinsky, Cunningham.

SECOND PERIOD
No score.
Penalties—McConnachie, Brant, Hetherington, Locking, Pickard.

THIRD PERIOD
No score.
Penalties—Williamson.
Varsity—Goal, Hunnisett; defence, Levinsky and Williamson; centre, Brant; wings, Smilie and Hetherington; alternates, Bennett, Cunningham, Hendry.

Owen Sound—Goal, Healey; defence, Matthews and McConnachie; centre, McMeekin; wings, McLellan and Locking; alternates, Nichol, Pickard and Cameron.

Referee—Ernie Collett, Toronto.

U.C. WILL HAVE A HARO STRUGGLE TO KEEP TITLE

Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet Promises to be Peppy Event

The Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet scheduled for next Wednesday night at 8 p.m. at Hart House pool promises to be a peppy event. Not only the four Arts colleges, but also Household Science, Meds, and O.C.E. are entering contestants. Last year's winners, U.C., will have to put up a fight to keep the title.

Besides the usual speed, style and ornamental swimming, diving, relay and novelty races, and long plunge, two exhibition numbers will be staged, one by Mr. Blomfield, international trick canoeist. The other will consist of ornamental and trick swimming by a team of girls.

In the past speed and plunge records have been made by Varsity women, but not recognized.

FREEMAN'S—Varsity Valets
for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of Formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
671 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

95 YONGE ST.

The Men's Shoe Shop

To-day's young men demand comfort as well as style and long wear. Every pair of shoes in our extensive stock is superbly designed, quality built and keen to give loyal service. Reasonably priced, too.

J. G. KNOX & TALBOT CO.

Open Evenings

EL. 1709

Arthur Wing Pinero's "TRELAWNY OF THE 'WELLS'" AT HART HOUSE THEATRE
February 13, 14, 15

Presented by TRINITY COLLEGE DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Saturday Matinee

Seats Now--Box Office TR. 2723

ADMISSION 50c. and 75c. plus tax

Coming Events

THURSDAY, FEB. 13

- 4.30 p.m.—A meeting of the M. and P. Society in Room 43 of the Physics Building. Speaker: Mr. H. B. Speakman, Director of the Ontario Research Foundation.
- 4.30—Women's Press Club at the Union. Short story week.
- 5.15—Toronto-Toronto Board meets in Room 82, U.C.
- 7.30—Model Assembly committee meeting at Women's Union.
- 7.30 p.m.—In Women's Union 79 St. George St., Thursday Discussion Group of the Fabius Club.
- 8.30 p.m.—"Trelawney of the Wells" presented by the Trinity College Dramatic Society in Hart House theatre.

FRIDAY, FEB. 14

- 12.00-2.00—Election of 3TD U.C. permanent executive, and representative for Moss Scholarship, in West Hall. Open meeting of the Medical Society. Address by Sir Robert Falconer.
- 2 p.m.—3TD women's class party at Women's Union.
- 8.20-3TD Victoria Valentine Party in Annesley Hall. Games for non-dancers. Admission 75 cents.
- 8.30 p.m.—Malvern ex-pupils at-home to be held at the Collegiate Auditorium.

SATURDAY, FEB. 15

- 8.30 p.m.—International Water Polo, Montreal vs. Varsity at Hart House. Dance afterwards.
- 8.20-8.30 Victoria class party at Annesley Hall.

SUNDAY, FEB. 16

- 9 a.m.—Holy Communion in Hart House Chapel.
- 11 a.m.—Universal Day of Prayer for students. Special service in Victoria College Chapel. Address by Chancellor Wallace. All students cordially invited.
- 4.30—International tea under the auspices of the Student Christian Association in Annesley Hall. All foreign students cordially invited.

MONDAY, FEB. 17

- 8.00 p.m.—Illustrated lecture by Miss Ethel Conway on Petra, the Rock-hewn City, in Castle Memorial Hall. Admission free.

TUESDAY, FEB. 18

- O.C.P. Grads dance at Royal York.
- 1.30-2.00 p.m.—Rev. Stanley Russell will speak at Wymilwood. All students welcome.
- 8.15 p.m.—Joint Vic-Trinity debate in Wymilwood: "Resolved that in the opinion of this house the C.O.T.C. should still be tolerated".
- 8.15 p.m.—Lit. meeting for all men in University College, Junior Common Room.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19

- 1.15 p.m.—U. of T. Liberal Club luncheon. Professor Fay will speak on "Immigration and Unemployment."

- 8.00 p.m.—Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet at Hart House pool.
- 8.00 p.m.—Biological Club Conversation at the Biological Building. A popular exhibit and demonstration of Biological methods and activities. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

- 8.15 p.m.—Meeting of the U.C. Classical Association at the Union, 79 St. George Street.

THURSDAY, FEB. 20

- 8.15—Combined meeting of the Victoria College and University College French Societies at the Women's Union.

For service and low rates see FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

FACULTY DISCUSS GROVES

(Continued from page 1)

ment of History. "Do we turn to fiction for realities of life or for amusement?"

"I entirely agree, and have always admired the works of Mr. Grove," said Principal W. L. Grant of Upper Canada College.

Professor W. J. Alexander, erstwhile of the department of English, changed the tone: "It is not so much what is said, as the personality of the author impressed in his work, that makes art."

"Though I must disagree with Mr. Grove's opinion of Anglo-Saxon humour and romance, yet I admire his books," said Professor M. W. Wallace. "As to contemporary literature we must pass this time of changes. We must make up our minds, then we will have great literature."

CRITICISM AT WYCLIFFE

(Continued from page 1)

gress in affiliation with other colleges, for advancement of Christian thought, for friendship with other religious denominations, and I believe that she will continue to do so.

"This event is merely one of the ripples that agitate for a time the sea of our college life, but it is forgotten as soon as it reaches the further shore and our college is able to advance, freer and better for the criticism."

It seemed to be the consensus of opinion amongst some of the students of Wycliffe that it was merely the desire of someone at the college for the sensational that caused the outbreak.

WOMAN'S PLACE PROBLEM DECIDED BY CO-EOS

Washington Women Experiment in Privileges of Cooking and Cleaning

Special to "The Varsity" Seattle, Wash.—"A woman's place is in the home." That statement comes not from the annals of the caveman but from three University of Washington co-eds in this year of jazz, 1930. In the home management house on the lower end of the campus three senior women in home economics are experimenting with woman's age-old privileges, cooking, cleaning and washing.

They are of the opinion that "Keeping a house is a woman's job just as an office is a man's. When a woman is old enough to retire then apartment hotels are all right, but not while she is young and active."

FRIDAY, FEB. 21

- 9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College Arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22

- 8.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

TUESDAY, FEB. 25

- 8.00 p.m.—Victoria College Dramatic Society at-home in Wymilwood.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26

- 9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 27

- 8.30 p.m.—Trinity College annual conversation at the college.

FRIDAY, FEB. 28

- 8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.

The Table Round

MOTION PICTURES IN CANADA (Continued)

There are a number of Canadian people interested in the film business who are trying to establish a quota of one reel per week of Canadian or British film on the bills of Ontario picture houses, which indicates a trend of thought that is well worth considering. First, these Canadian motion picture people consider news reels produced in Canada equal to the best American news reels, otherwise they would not demand more Canadian-produced film. This fact alone dispels the false theory that the atmosphere in Canada is not suited to motion picture photography. Also, it is well known that most of the leading film companies of America have, for a number of years, sought "locations" and "shot" numerous and important scenes in different parts of Canada for their productions.

The advent of the "talkies" should stimulate interest in the production of pictures in Canada. What a wealth of material we have to work on . . . stirring historical stories of Empire interest, pioneering days that belong only to Canada, modern, social and industrial life and developments that are abreast with the world and some of the finest scenery on the earth.

Large sums of money are spent annually in advertising Canada to other countries, but what stronger or cheaper medium of advertising than Canadian pictures, really made in Canada, could there possibly be found? Why have we no Canadian motion picture industry? Is it because we are afraid to compete with our neighbours? Or are we content to wait until foreign interests come into Canada to develop and control the film industry completely?

M.R.S.

BULLETIN BOARD

TRACK MEET

The two-mile indoor race scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 13, has been postponed till a later date. Watch for further announcements. The relay race will be run as scheduled.

FABIUS CLUB

Thursday group of the Fabius Club will meet at 7.30 in the Women's Union. This is the meeting postponed from last Thursday, and a full attendance of the members is asked.

S.C.M. GROUP

S.C.M. group in eastern relationships will meet in Annesley Tea Room from 5 to 6 on Friday, Feb. 14.

PHARMACY DANCE

Class of '30 Pharmacy Grads dance at Royal York Hotel, Tuesday evening, February 18.

MEN'S HOCKEY

Intermediate hockey practice to-day at 1.30.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS CLUB

There will be a meeting of the executive of the League of Nations Club to-night (Thursday) at 7.30 in the Women's Union.

DRAMA AND REALISM RELATIVELY DEFINED

Prof. Dale Discusses O'Neill's and Shakespeare's Use of Double Time

SHOWS VALUE OF POETRY

"To a good many people, drama and realism mean the same thing," said Professor E. A. Dale, of the Department of Classics, University College, in an address to the U.C. Players' Guild at the Women's Union yesterday. "Poetry and the drama frequently reach their highest points in each other," he continued.

"O'Neill has claimed that in prose the dramatic privileges of poetry, although the conventions of the poetic drama allow fuller expression of the emotional situation and the author's comment on his characters. O'Neill is evidently so bent on having the audience understand the intensity of the situation that in one of his plays he uses double time to fill his play with explanations.

"In Shakespeare's work the double time scheme was not mentioned by any critic till the beginning of the nineteenth century. Would this have escaped notice for so long if he had written in prose?"

Mr. Dale concluded with a brief review of "Othello", pointing out that by means of poetry the author revealed the inner feelings of a simple man with much finer effects than could have been accomplished by means of prose.

Admission to the course in practice teaching of the University of North Carolina will hereafter be restricted to honour students only.

PROF. WRONG WILL OPEN MODEL ASSEMBLY

Discussions Will Include Disarmament After London Conference

The conference to be held by delegates to the Model Assembly of the League of Nations which meets at the University of Toronto on Feb. 21, 22 and 23, will be opened by Professor George Wrong, acting president of the League Council.

Reports to be discussed include: disarmament as viewed from the result of the London Naval Conference, admission of Russia to the League, amendments to the covenant to bring it into line with the Peace Pact, and European Tariff Truce.

Rev. Dr. Salem G. Bland will be the guest speaker at a luncheon to be held in the Roof Garden of the Royal York on February 21.

Sir Robert Falconer, Sir Herbert Ames and Dr. H. M. Tory, will speak to the secretary-general's report on Friday evening, Feb. 21.

The Granite Club will be the scene of a dinner dance at which Sir Herbert Ames will speak in terms of a critic on the sessions of the assembly. The sermon prepared for the League at Geneva in 1927 will be given by Rev. Canon H. J. Cody on Sunday morning at St. Paul's Cathedral.

Universities in the United States and Canada will be represented at the conference, the total number of delegates being about 150.

Among the dinner guests at the Women's Union last night were Mrs. W. R. Taylor, honorary president of the Women's Undergraduate Association; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Duncan, and Miss Staunton, Mrs. Mowat, and Miss Molly Gray, of the executive of the St. Margaret's College Alumnae Association.

Make Your Reservations

To-day

for the

Tea Dance

Arcadian Court

Saturday Afternoon

February 15th

4 to 6 o'clock

Tickets, including Tea $2.00

Beautiful surrounding, floor and music that simply compel your feet to dance, delicious tea. Telephone Mrs. Wilkin, Arcadian Court hostess —Adel. 8711—for reservations.

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

Kl. 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

NEW SYSTEM OF FEES (Continued from page 1)

course was unfair and is the part which is intended to be adjusted by the change.

According to the new rule students in a two year course, such as Pharmacy, will pay $2.00 a year for their "Varsity", and administration and $4.00 in their graduating year for the Torontonensis.

Students who fail in their second or third year will not have to pay towards Torontonensis expenses.

It must be understood that the change will become effective gradually and applies next year to the first year only, while the present third year will next year pay under the present scheme, namely $3.00 and nothing extra. Thus it will take 5 years before all the faculties are totally under the new rule.

The extra dollar the students have been paying for the last four years in addition to their $3.00, to wipe out a debt, is going to be removed next year in any case.

MOOT STUDENT EXCHANGE

(Continued from page 1)

In touch with "The Varsity", stated that only yesterday he received a letter, a part of which told about a McGill student taking this exchange course at University of British Columbia. This student, Fred Stone, said that similarities between these two great universities are greater than their dissimilarities. He intimates that the school spirit is very strong at that university and also he said that hazing and other forms of violent initiation are being abandoned.

This scheme certainly provides a student with a great opportunity. Through it he may go away for a part of his education, and it is hoped, wide his experience. But more than this, it is hoped that through this scheme a sort of link will be formed between the various universities in Canada.

TO FLY OR NOT TO FLY (Continued from page 1)

courtesy to itself.

Although Queen's has the exclusive use of its own machine, Professor Allcut thought the university has the advantage of the Toronto Flying Club where there is a larger choice of machines. Besides, it would be too costly a proposition for the university even with the co-operation of the

RENT A TUXEDO $2.00 STUDENTS PRICE ONLY NEW SUITS LATEST STYLE TELEPHONE TRINITY 8218

Mallabar COSTUMER 450-452 SPADINA AVE at College St.

COLLEGE GOWNS CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON 108 King St. W., Toronto

HARCOURT & SON 108 King St. W., Toronto

government, because the Toronto Club itself is not making money. In connection with Camp Borden, students carry on the intensive study in the university and continue their course in the Canadian Officers' Flying Corps. Three summer vacations are devoted to flying.

Large sums of money are spent on each student, and a large reserve is desired. Also the restrictions are being raised, only university and R.M.C. students being admitted now.

After graduating it is not compulsory to join the Force. All flying is encouraged and certainly there is no competition with commercial or civilian flying.

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon

In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14th, 1930

No. 83

Beer Arouses Student Opinion Irate Correspondents Protest

Typical Victorians?

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:
Concerning '30 Vic, who "animadverts" in yesterday's issue of "The Varsity". Had this letter been signed anything but '30 Vic, we might have considered it unseemly levity, but knowing Victoria to be the last stronghold of sanctified Methodism, we cannot but place credence in the good faith of your correspondent.

Since it is our opinion that this noble example of godliness and purity is, in corresponding with "The Varsity" wasting "his sweetness on the desert air", may we humbly suggest that he join the T.I.C.C.U., and institute a series of revival meetings on the Front Campus. There is no telling how many degenerate souls he may pluck as "brands from the burning".

It seems quite to the point to cite the incident of an old professor of U.C., who was being consulted by a student concerning some of his academic work. The professor with due hospitality offered the young man a strong dram of the Demon Rum. "I do not drink", was the prompt answer. "Then have a cigar", said the professor. "I do not smoke", was the virtuous reply. "Then, for God's sake man, have an apple", exploded the professor.

We would suggest that '30 Vic, "have an apple".

Yours truly,

Three Residents of Knox College.

W. A. Dalby Barclay, '30 U.C.

A. Wilson, '30 U.C.

M. C. Young, '32 U.C.

Knowles Staggers

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

I am still staggering from the effects of the two terrible blows dealt me in to-day's "Varsity". Mundane felicity is denied me by the news on your front page that Sir Henry Drayton does not consider Hart House a fit location for a brewery warehouse. Eternal felicity is denied me in the letter from '30 Vic. Life is certainly tough.

However, I take heart in the hope that this 4.4 beer may be sold in Hart House. Sir Henry Drayton can't stop this at any rate. Let the Hall Committee take steps at once. If they fail to act, let us swamp the committee at the coming Hart House elections with members pledged to take these steps.

Yours truly,
R. E. Knowles, Jr.

Urges Investigation

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

I thoroughly agree with the admirable stand which '30 Vic' has taken on the recent liquor menace, which has become so startlingly apparent of late in your correspondence column, and I wish to compliment him on so righteously representing the best traditions of the college in which he is registered. Things at the University of Toronto are indeed in an alarming state, as was revealed on Tuesday night when U.C. undergraduates at the conclusion of their banquet participated in a disgraceful orgy of bridge.

With reference to the liquor menace I think certain definite steps should be taken and would recommend (1) That the Board of Governors and the S.A.C. hold a corporate prayer meeting on behalf of those souls which are in such imminent danger of Sodom and Gomorrah and that the offending parties be exposed and tried before a committee consisting of Dr. Shields, Premier Ferguson, and Messrs. Gooderham and Worts. Some startling reforms will doubtless result from such a course.

Yours in expectancy,
D. C. MASTERS,
370 U.C., English and History.

Tolerance for Beer Drinkers

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

The letter of '30 Vic, in to-day's correspondence certainly aroused my admiration. It is truly a fine bit of oratory, but in my opinion the style is better suited for the pulpit than for the columns of a university daily. I quote: "That such ideas should be able to find their way into print, and so to corrupt and pervert the minds of the young manhood of our country . . ."

Does '30 Vic really think that the university student is so weak minded as to be corrupted and led astray by every new opinion with which he comes into contact? What a fine conclusion of affairs would result if such were the case!

Secondly, '30 Vic says that a visit to the slums, the insane asylums, the hospitals or the prisons will enlighten anyone as to the effects of the Demon Rum. But in this he is disregarding other more important factors, namely, the defects in our social and economic systems as well as other failings to which the human race is addicted. And he fails to see that the suppression of intoxicants alone will, unfortunately, do very little to better conditions for the poor and degenerate, as witness the United States under the Volstead Act.

Next, speaking of the writer of the second letter, he says, "I can well understand his shame in using '30 U.C.' as a despicable cloak of anonymity." If '30 Vic has so much courage of conviction then why does he use the same "despicable cloak" to hide his own identity? Is he perhaps afraid of being recognized as one of those who indulge in the sinful and ungodly habits of cigarette smoking and dancing?

Lastly, I wish to make it clear that I am not advocating the sale of in- (Continued on page 4)

MODERN CONDITIONS GROWING NO WORSE

Jazz and Cigarettes Are Not Indicative of Moral Decadence

YOUTH NOT CONCERNED

"I wouldn't like to go so far as to say that present modern conditions such as jazz, cigarette smoking and dancing are signs of the moral decadence of youth," stated Reverend F. J. Moore of the Students' Christian Association. "The authors of the letters appearing in 'The Varsity' concerning the beer question are evidently just having some amusement and are not meant in a serious vein.

"The writer of the '30 Vic letter was evidently continuing the argument in the same way and so I do not think that he meant his letter to be taken as a serious tirade on modern youth. I do not substantiated and charges are at all substantiated and I would not go that far in any statement of modern day life. In fact there is no great importance of difference in present day moral life and youth does not seem bound for the fate which overtook Sodom and Gomorrah."

WESTERN PROJECTS WILL BE DISCUSSED AT CLOSING DEBATE

Final Hart House Debate Will Take Place Wednesday,
February 26

WESTERN M.P. TO SPEAK

Debates Committee Elections
To Be Held Under
New System

The final Hart House debate of the season will take place on Wednesday, February 26, it was ascertained at the Warden's office yesterday. Although the exact wording of the subject has not been decided as yet, it is understood that it will deal with the economic and political experiments of the western provinces.

The Debates Committee has invited as one of its honourable guests E. J. Garland, M.P. for Bow River, Alberta. "As a westerner who is interested in the wheat pool and other western projects, Mr. Garland should speak as an authority on the subject," stated T. V. Kennedy of the committee.

"The list of undergraduate speakers on the paper, as yet incomplete, includes Vincent Webb of the Faculty of Medicine, J. S. Gibson of Victoria College, and Lou Golden, editor of 'The Varsity'. As this is the final (Continued on page 1)

MEMORY OF ANCIENT FIRE REVIVED TO-DAY

Forty Years Since Main University College Building
Was Destroyed

GUESTS FIND IT IN FLAMES

Forty years ago to-day a disastrous fire effectively destroyed University College. That building, which was at the time the main building of the University of Toronto, contained the library, the museum, convocation hall, the executive offices for the university, dormitories for men and women as well as class rooms for all Arts subjects including sciences.

The evening of the fire was one of special moment—it was the night of the annual conversation which corresponds to the Arts Ball of the present day. Great preparations were being made for the event including the provision of lamps for the show- (Continued on page 4)

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Asks About Hart House Beer

Do you think that the Ontario Liquor Control Board should start a beer store in Hart House?

E. W. Pagel, III Pass, University College—

"Of course there should be a beer store in Hart House. It would act as a sort of inspiration and help your imagination to function."

Miss Marjorie Pugh, IV Household Science—

"I don't like the idea at all. It just isn't done in Canadian universities, and it's creating a sort of continental atmosphere."

N. D. Adams, IV S.P.S.—

"No, I don't think the beer shop idea would work at all. The average man who goes to Hart House isn't the type who would patronize it."

Miss Agnes Jamieson, III Pass, University College—

"A beer shop? I should say not. It's hard enough to get the men to let you walk on the sidewalk between Hart House and the Meds Building now. I don't know what it would be like if they were supplied with liquid refreshment at Hart House."

CONTINENTALS VALUE SCIENTIFIC TRAINING DECLARES DR. FIELDS

Italy Is In Apple-Pie Order States Professor After European Trip

OUTLINES LECTURE SERIES

Dr. Gini Is Not Here To Copy
Our Educational System

"Professor Gini of the University of Rome will deliver three lectures at the University of Toronto in March," stated Professor J. C. Fields research professor of mathematics. "He will land at New York on March 17th and will come here en route to Minneapolis to give three lectures on statistics.

"There is no truth whatever in the rumour that Professor Gini is coming to this university to study our system of federated colleges in order to put the same system into effect in Italy. He is merely stopping off here on his way to the University of Minnesota where he is to deliver a course of lectures."

When asked what impressions he received on his recent trip to Europe Professor Fields said: "Science and scientific men are rated much higher in Europe than they are here. At the time of the war the French Minister of War and Minister of Marines were both mathematical men. And scientific men are high in the governments of many European nations.

"In Europe generally and in Germany particularly there is great interest in scientific research. The universities over there are simply research institutions. At a congress in Prague one German professor reported a class (Continued on page 4)

NOMINATIONS FOR DEBATES COMMITTEE NOW OPEN

The election of the Debates Committee will take place at the last debate of the year to be held on Wednesday 26th February, 1930. Nominations open at 9 a.m. on Wednesday, 19th February and close at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, 25th February. Nominations for this committee may be obtained at the Warden's office on and after Tuesday, 18th February. They must be filled in with the names and addresses of the mover and seconder as well as with the name and address of the nominee. The form must be signed by mover, seconder and nominee.

FORMER VARSITY STUDENT MAKES BRILLIANT SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY

Sir Robert Makes Splendid Recovery

It was learned late last night that Sir Robert Falconer's condition is much improved and that he is making a fine recovery. It was also ascertained that the illness at no time was considered serious.

MODERN NEWSPAPER QUESTION DISCUSSED

"Fine and Noble Calling"
Says Managing Editor of "Globe"

ADDRESSES PRESS CLUB

"I feel that our calling is a fine and noble calling. It does not give the monetary returns that the others do, but it does give the joy of achievement and the gratitude of service. The standard of Canadian newspaperdom stands high and I hope that you will help to keep it so," said H. W. Anderson, managing editor of "The Globe", and veteran newspaperman, speaking to yesterday's luncheon of the University Press Club in Hart House.

Mr. Anderson gave some of the "bulls" made by members of parliament when he began his long membership of the Ottawa press gallery. One referred to another member's handling of a certain issue in the words, "He stepped on a coiled adder and dropped it like a hot brick". Another spoke of a minister as "opening Pandora's box and out stepped the Trojan horse". Yet another said that he had only one word to say and that he would "say it in two words".

Dealing with some questions of the modern newspaper Mr. Anderson said that he felt that the sports department was the most likely to expand in the next few years, because new games were constantly gaining the public attention.

SHORT SHORT STORY DISLIKED IN CANADA

Play Up One Incident Only,
Make It Live, Advises
Miss Sanders

ALL EXPERIENCE VALUABLE

"Keep away from what is morbid and too strange," Miss Byrne Sanders, editor of "The Chatelaine", advised the members of the University Women's Press Club. "The short short-story of the type in 'Liberty' is too strong for the Canadian market.

"In short-story writing the hardest thing is to make the characters live. Pick on one incident and play it up. Cut out everything that has nothing to do with the main action. In articles the universal viewpoint must be kept in mind. Don't send articles of local interest to national magazines.

"Valuable experience is to be got on a small town paper. I have written news, society notes, dramatic criticisms, blah-blah stuff for women, advice for the love-lorn—everything. It is surprising how many people think they can write without training. It is not easy—you must be trained for it. You must learn the technique, the things to do, and the things not to do, and then work harder at it than at any other profession.

Dr. J. Collip, Now at McGill, Brings New Honours to Canadian Science

COLLEAGUE OF BANTING

Medical Experts Laud Efforts Ending in Production of New Hormone

A remarkable discovery which, it is claimed, will be of tremendous aid towards the general health and well-being of women, has been made in the biochemical laboratories of McGill University by a University of Toronto graduate, Dr. James Bertram Collip, now head of the Department of Biochemistry at McGill University. This is the third successive great discovery made by medical science of recent years.

Dr. Collip, after much experimenting, has succeeded in the purification of the hormone or internal secretion having effects somewhat similar to the internal pituitary gland. This substance, it is claimed, will have a remedial effect on certain feminine disorders and will remarkably improve the general health of the patients who receive the drug.

The discovery is lauded by medical experts as being possible of great benefit, and Sir Arthur Currie describes it as "complete success rewarding Dr. Collip's efforts".

Dr. Collip graduated from the University of Toronto in 1911, and joined the staff of McGill University after having held a post in the University of Alberta. He is recognized as one of the leading biochemists in Canada, having few equals and having been associated with Dr. F. G. Banting and Dr. C. H. Best in the discovery of insulin. He was also one of the recipients of the Nobel Prize awarded for that discovery.

DOCTORS MAKE FEW SCIENTIFIC ADVANCES

Temperature of Pork Chops
Is Subject of Much Research

RESEARCH IS CREATIVE

"Only 20 per cent. of the doctors who have their degrees in science, make any contribution to it," stated H. B. Speakman, Director of the Ontario Research Foundation before the Mathematical and Physical Society yesterday afternoon.

He assured the society that their training was not at fault, nor the opportunity to do research work lacking—although he had himself refused positions to 120 applicants who were not of the right type. "The ultimate criterion of a research laboratory, is its personnel, not its equipment."

The members were urged to decide at once the branch of science in which they were most interested, if they would be successful. "Try at university to escape the horrible people who insist that you do a certain amount of this and that. If you're interested in something, work at it yourself. Research is creative—an expression of what is in a person."

Describing the work carried on by the Foundation he said that he spent part of his time deciding at which temperatures pork chops were best kept, and that one problem brought to them was that of linoleum ruined on a concrete floor—which he attributed to the fact that the floor was not perfectly clean, from a biological point of view.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. Gordon Burns, B.A.

Night Editor—H. D. Brice

Assistant—M. G. Gaughan

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14th, 1930

SEE CANADA FIRST

The scheme fostered by the National Federation of Canadian University Students for exchange of third year undergraduates of Canadian universities is worthy of the whole-hearted support of every university in this country. The University of Toronto, located as it is in the most self-opinionated city in Canada, can especially well afford to aid this plan and give every encouragement possible to make it a success. It offers students a chance to broaden their outlook, to grasp the immensity of the country and some of its problems, and to gain first-hand knowledge as to the trend of thought and opinion in sections other than their own.

The nations of North America, unlike most of those of Europe, do not fall into geographical divisions. Canada has no economic or topographical unity. The interests of the manufacturing east are not those of the agrarian west. St. James St. and Portage Ave. are as wide apart in interest as the poles. Halifax looks across the Atlantic to Europe; Vancouver faces the Pacific and Asia.

The bonds that link the Dominion under common government are largely artificial. That being the case, all steps which will ensure the strengthening of national unity should be encouraged. Much has been said about the importance of the C.P.R. in binding east and west; very little about the part played by the Canadian Press, equally significant in its field. Now the universities of Canada have their opportunity to deal with this vital need.

Under the N.F.C.U.S. scheme, third year arts students of Ontario and Quebec universities may take their work at universities in the Maritimes, the prairie provinces, or in the University of British Columbia. The benefits of such a plan can hardly be exaggerated. The difficulties of transportation and other costs are largely met by the provision whereby the Federation pays tuition and student fees at the university where studies are being pursued. The system of selection, in which a special committee, consisting of one member of the faculty and one student, chooses the student or students to be exchanged, strikes us as rather inadequate. Not more than one per cent. of the total enrolment may be exchanged. This is doubtless on account of the limited financial resources of the Federation.

If sufficient support is forthcoming, it may be possible to extend the scheme to post-graduate work and to other years of undergraduate study. Let us hope the day is not far distant when we may breathe the air of Acadia, or feel the freshness and youth of the prairie lands, or drink in the sea atmosphere of the Pacific coast. We do not suggest a wholesale transportation of students, however, and at present the restriction of numbers is not unreasonable. Care should be exercised to see that students of exceptional ability are given an opportunity to make this exchange. In this way the fullest returns will be derived from the scheme.

Academic atmosphere usually reflects to a certain extent the predominant characteristics of the community or section in which the university is located. The spaciousness and breadth of the campus at the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, contrasts with our own restricted area. Its prairie outlook is markedly different from our limited horizon. Each university has its individual features and predominant aspects, despite the common basis of organization and our curricula on which most of them rest. Even without the altered outlook provided in a distant section of the country, the variance of atmosphere on the campus itself is a broadening factor in the education of the exchange student.

Education in its completest sense includes breadth of mind, a quality which, because it is so indefinite, is too often left in the background when college curricula are being assembled. Travel is essential to cultivation, but the fleeting, kaleidoscopic impressions to be gained from a three months' tour embracing three or four countries are not in the same class as the permanent aspects to be gleaned from eight months spent in some other part of Canada, where outlook and problems and atmosphere are totally different. The men of to-morrow must be given a chance to see for themselves conditions elsewhere in the country, to grasp the essential differences between east and west, to acquire the foundation that will enable them to solve the problems facing Canada.

We would be far better off in every way if less stress were placed upon technical training and turning out students fit to succeed in business and more emphasis laid upon equipping students with a comprehensive idea of the needs of this country.

Art and Drama

"Trelawny of the Wells"

For two and a half hours last night the Trinity College Dramatic Society did things to Pinero's dear old lavender-scented "Trelawny of the Wells". They have two more nights at it and, unless I am radically out in my calculations, ought to show to better advantage with the passage of time. The sets may have had something to do with it. If they didn't, they should have. But, in any case, the first two acts were pretty bad. Fortunately, things began to look up in the third, while the fourth had distinct merits. And the women's costumes have an authentic air.

Miss Erika Mundy as Miss Trafalgar Gower, the chlorinated spinster of Cavendish Square, is the pick of the cast. She does a real bit of character work and gives a smooth performance. Miss Margot Clarkson as Rose Trelawny survives a slow start to leave the impression of an understanding playing of the title role. Miss Jane Mason as Avonia Bunn, actress, is a bright spot; but should watch her diction. As Sir William Gower, R. J. Winyard fails to make the most of his part, but is fairly satisfactory.

A. W. A. Brown as the playwright, Tom Wrench, is good despite a pair of trousers which are not a triumph for the costume department. Owen Barrow as the Irish stage manager, O'Dwyer, does an excellent characterization in broad strokes which are a relief after the almost negative subtleties of the rest of the evening. Miss Barbara Scadding as the players' comic slavey does a lot with her bit. Miss Leotitia Wilson as Imogen Parrot, the actress who has "arrived", shows her experience on the stage.

As for the rest of the players—there are twenty-three in all—they may not be annoying but they don't seem to be going anywhere. They certainly don't get anywhere.

A lack of depth and definiteness in characterization and atmosphere is the trouble with the production. It will be faster and smoother to-night and to-morrow, but nothing but a more experienced cast will give it depth. This, of course, is the price an undergraduate dramatic society must pay for a play with this number of characters. But, then, when one thinks of Trinity, one thinks of "Cyrano" . . . Which is a different story entirely. —A.E.F.A.

We like this idea they have of posting the menu on the board outside the Great Hall in Hart House. By reading after lunch each day we can now find out what we have been eating.

And speaking of beer for Hart House, what could be a sweeter thought than a row of beer kegs (with tops) along the wall of the lunch room by the tuck shop? "Come hither Drawer, the bung holes are calling!"

Up to date few of us have seen a real live yo-yo in action. Can it be that it is unable to stand the cold climate, or is it simply because our campus has not yet been made yo-yo conscious?

Please don't give a sentence using the word "sedition". Why don't you help your sister wash seditions?

That last one may be awarded first prize, which is a subscription for next year's Privateer.

This is relinquish we are using to print this column.

"What do you do when there is no school in the summer time?"

"Well, if it is hot, I perspire."

Gaspard McGuffey.

Learn the Newest Dance Steps
NEW CLASSES start next week
Beginners, Tuesdays
Advanced, Thursdays
at 8:30
New classes in Tap and Theatrical, Wed. 6-15
Private lessons with Mr. De Costa or Miss Chalmers by appointment

DACOSTA
STUDIO OF DANCING
Columbus Hall RA. 650

Cigarette advertising has been banned from the Haverford News, the undergraduate weekly newspaper at Haverford College, Pa.

A loss estimated at $100,000 was caused by a fire of unknown origin at Harvard University recently.

Journey's End

Royal Alexandra Theatre

Monday, February 17

TICKETS ON SALE

ROTUNDA, U.C.

TO-DAY 9-12

Headquarters for ACADEMIC GOONS CAPS HOODS

See our samples and prices before buying

Sainthill-Levine & Co.
LIMITED

218 Wellington Street West

PHONE EL. 5391

Your Success Depends on Your Eyes

Long periods of study both day and night . . . . .

Yours eyes work overtime.

Success depends on clear thinking and clear thinking and concentration are difficult if your eyes are under a strain from unsuitable or wrongly fitted glasses. A little adjustment may safeguard your eyes and make your studies easier. Drop in and let us give you this well-known Williams service. There will be no charge.

Uptown Store in the Medical Arts Building at 268 Bloor Street West is so handy.

J. Williams
Prescription Optician
5 RICHMOND ST. EAST

268 BLOOR ST. WEST

THE Best MILK CHOCOLATE MADE!

Neilson's JERSEY MILK CHOCO

5¢ 10¢ and 25¢ sizes

THE NEW HIPPODROME
RKO WINDMILL

Avast There—Here Comes A Storm of Laughter—Saturday

WEAVER BROTHERS & ELVIRY

with their HOME FOLKS

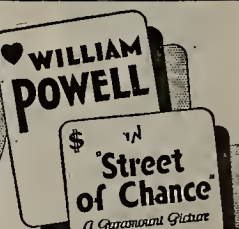

Side-splitting yokel comedy that will leave you gasping for breath
OTHER R.K.O. ARTISTS

THE MARRIAGE PLAYGROUND

Where parents play and children pay. Edith Wharton's splendid novel, "The Children" ALL-TALKING

ALL-TALKING NOW PLAYING

The story the newspapers would not print—of Broadway's greatest card game and its tragic sequel

UPTOWN

The Coffee House

Luncheons
Dinners
Teas

Open Evenings till 8 p.m.

After the Game—After the Theatre

Ruth Macdonald

Special attention given to students for luncheons and dinners.

34 Avenue Road

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon

In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

BLUE JUNIORS PLAY RETURN GAME WITH OWEN SOUND TO-NIGHT

VARSITY JRS. MEET OWEN SOUND GREYS VARSITY BASKETEERS WIN O.A.C. VICTORY

Coach Frank Sullivan Hopeful to Maintain Fast Pace Set by Team

STRONG DEFENSIVELY

Varsity juniors meet the Owen Sound Greys in the return game of their second round in the O.H.A. to-night at the Arena Gardens. The Blues earned a one-goal lead to take into to-night's fracas when they downed the much-touted Owen Sounders 1 to 0 right in their own home town. But the conditions under which the game was played were more suitable for water polo and it is difficult to compare the two teams. The Owen Sound sextet is reputed to be an aggregation of fast skaters. They had no chance to demonstrate it Wednesday. The local students have by no means got the round sewed up in a bag, but their single goal should prove mighty valuable.

Just now Coach Frank Sullivan has got his men working together and a considerable improvement in the combination of the wing line is evident. If the juniors can maintain the fast pace they have set in their last two

Douglas, Carr and Buchanan Star for Blue Team Accounting for Points

CARR PROVIDES COMEDY

Flashing an undeniable offensive after trailing for the first half of the game, Varsity's intermediate basketballers took a well-earned 32-27 decision from O.A.C. last night on the latter's home floor. Mike Carr was outstanding throughout the game, playing the entire forty minutes and scoring 16 of his team's points.

Varsity's regular five were chiefly responsible for the victory. Douglas, at centre, with Carr and Buchanan on the wings, accounted for all the points scored, while Calderone and Riley stood up well on the defence, and provided the punch in more than one well-planned foray into agricultural territory. Varsity used a five-man defence system in their own half of the court which had the Aggie attackers games they should have little difficulty in eliminating the Georgian Bay crew. Sid Hetherington, stellar right winger, is playing his best hockey since he entered junior ranks. He notched the only goal of the game at Owen Sound and in the final tilt with Parkdale Canoe Club he was responsible for all three of Varsity's counters. Hetherington is making a name for himself with his superb goal-tending, and was an important factor in Varsity's win last Wednesday. Alec Levinsky all through the season has been a tower of strength defensively.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity Juniors are in for a great battle to-night when they will seek to hold or increase the one-goal lead gained by whitewashing Owen Sound on Wednesday up in the Big Bay city. Owen Sound supporters claim that their team will play better hockey on the big Arena ice surface and the Varsity backers predict the same for their favourites. But both sides are unanimously agreed that it will be a great game. A large number of Owen Sounders are making the trip and will make their presence felt in no uncertain fashion. The Orange and Black have been a great attraction in Toronto for some years, as far back as 1924, when they won the O.H.A. and Canadian Junior Championship, and their teams have always merited the support they have received.

Varsity's fighting finish against Parkdale Canoe Club has earned them plenty of supporters in the city and right now the juniors are playing the best hockey that any Blue and White junior aggregation has displayed in a long time. Not since Red Porter, Sandy Summerville, et al, were burning up the ice as members of Varsity junior sextets about six and seven years ago has any Varsity junior outfit attracted such attention.

Owen Sound has several players who should please the crowd to-night. McMeekin at centre is a smart skater and stick-hanlder and the large ice surface at the Arena should enable him to get going properly. Matthews, the short, stocky, red-headed defenceman, is another who ought to make a hit. Nichol, centre ice alternate, is also a shifty player. Locking, at left wing, who had been getting plenty of goals up until Wednesday night's game, seems about due. Sutcliffe, Owen Sound's star defenceman, who has been out of the game through injuries, will relieve "Pickle" McConnachie on the rear-guard. Sutcliffe is being used as a last resort, and Owen Sound is hoping that his injured shoulder will stand up well enough to permit him to be effective.

If Varsity can get a couple of quick goals in the first period to-night they ought to trim the Sounders. But if the Northerners get the first counter it's going to be some game.

Varsity Seniors can take first place in the senior O.H.A. race by defeating Nationals at the Varsity Arena to-morrow night. If Nationals win it will ensure the present leaders a playoff position. Varsity have had a week's rest, but Nationals had a tough old battle at Queen's Monday night. A Varsity victory will leave Queen's only a very remote chance to get into the group playoffs.

Following the Interfaculty Gym Meet at Hart House to-morrow night at 8 o'clock Varsity and Montreal A.A.A. put on their splash at 8.30. From 9.30 to midnight there will be dancing. Those who are going to take in the hockey game and then wander down to Hart House for the dance after the water polo, must purchase their tickets before the game is over.

Varsity's snior basketball team play at Queen's to-night and at McGill Saturday. Varsity must take one of those games or they will be practically out of the running.

Varsity's senior feminine cage team plays Margaret Eaton School to-day, in the second game of the City League. The Blue seniors defeated the Varsity intermediates last week in the opening game of the season, and showed up very well then. The game is scheduled for 7 o'clock and is Margaret Eaton's home game.

Wilma Hazlitt, second year University College, was elected captain of the senior intercollegiate basketball team at Wednesday night's practice. She made the team last year as a fresbie and was also elected captain of it. It was an unprecedented thing for a first year girl to have the position, and the fact that such a thing did happen in her case, and her re-election this year, says a great deal for the calibre of Miss Hazlitt's playing. It also shows the implicit confidence which the team has in her leadership.

plainly puzzled, and broke quickly for their own plays.

Carr provided the comedy feature of the game when he failed to apply the brakes soon enough on a speedy incursion under the enemy basket, and crashed through a door at the end of the floor, disappearing in a snow-bank outside.

Varsity Intermediates — Buchanan (10), Carr (16), Douglas (6), Calderone, Riley, Sobel, Graham, Humphrey.

O.A.C. — Hewer (10), H. Hull, Haeberlin (8), G. Hull (8), Griffiths (1), Elliott, Crane, Gollehou.

The University of Southern California football varsity will not have a captain next fall. Fourteen letter men graduate, including eight regulars.

INTERMEDIATE HOCKEY GAME AT VARSITY ARENA

Varsity's intermediate hockey team plays its first game in the Intercollegiate group this afternoon at 3.30 at the Varsity Arena. Western University will be the Second's opponents and promise to be a real threat in the group this season. The Purple and White have a 6 to 1 victory over McMaster to their credit which is better than the Blue and White was able to do against the Macs in the O.H.A. group.

After just being nosed out for the leadership of the O.H.A. group by Bradford the Blue and White are out to capture the intermediate intercollegiate title, and plenty of action is promised to the fans who turn out this afternoon.

ARENA GARDENS
Varsity vs. Owen Sound
Junior O.H.A. Playdowns
Friday, Feb. 14th at 8.20 p.m.
Tickets on sale at Athletic Office

Two of a Kind

Whether it's Judy O'Grady or the Colonel's lady the subject of feminine conversation is apt to be

HOSE

The problems of where to find a good looking, serviceable type at a moderate price are many.

Here's the Solution:—

EATON'S

$1.00 REAL SILK HOSE

Full Fashioned, Of Course

Service weight, with mercerized garter top and extra splittings in the feet. In suntan, beige, grey, rose, taupe, gunmetal, black and white.
Sizes 8½ to 10

Phone AD. 5011 or AD. 5511

Main Floor, Yonge St.

T. EATON & CO.

INTERNATIONAL WATER POLO

Saturday Evening, 8.30 p.m., in Hart House Pool

M.A.A. vs. VARSITY

Interfaculty Gymnasium Competition
Main Gymnasium, 8.00 p.m.

Admission for both events 70c and tax. Music.

VARSITY AND NATIONALS MAKE READY FOR GAME

To-morrow night at Varsity Arena the fans are in for another of those torrid Varsity-National hockey set-tos. Every time these two teams have hooked up so far this season the result has been in doubt right up to the final minute of play. In the games between the two teams to date the Blue and White sextet won the first encounter, tied the second, and lost the last time the teams met. If Varsity can capture this contest they will regain the league leadership and be sure of a place in the group playoffs.

The Sea Fleas have been improving with every game and although they did not eradicate the Queen's outfit in their last encounter as expected, were more outlucked than outplayed.

Rental of Tuxedos at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

ARTISTS AND DRAFTSMEN
THE WORLD AROUND, CALL
ELDORADO
"THE MASTER
DRAWING
PENCIL"
FOR SALE AT THE
COLLEGE BOOKROOM
©1929

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
571 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY
259 College St. TRINITY 5987
Harry Winfield, Prop.
CIGARS - MAGAZINES
Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries
Name your day
We Have Your Home Town Paper
Lending Library.

VALENTINE SKATING PARTY

TO-NIGHT

GOOD MUSIC 15 SELECTIONS

VARSITY RINK

Regular Prices

VARSITY ARENA

Saturday, Feb. 15th at 8.15 p.m.

NATIONALS vs. VARSITY

Senior O.H.A.

Reserved Seats 95c and tax. Admission 47c and tax.
Student Season Ticket Coupon No. 23.

Special Sale Price $9.50

There are still a few pairs left from our stock-taking sale. These are chiefly broken sizes and a few discontinued styles.

Oxfords and high shoes in black and tan—regular price from $12.50 to $15.00. Sale price to clear, $9.50.

73 King St. West
16 Bloor St. East

Dack's
Shoes for Men
(from maker to wearer)

Coming Events

FRIDAY, FEB. 14

12.00-2.00—Election of 3TU U.C. permanent executive, and representative for Moss Scholarship, in West Hall. Open meeting of the Medical Society. Address by Sir Robert Falconer.
2 p.m.—3TU women's class party at Women's Union.

8.20—3TU Victoria Valentine Party in Annesley Hall. Games for non-dancers. Admission 75 cents.

8.30 p.m.—Malvern ex-pupils at-home to be held at the Collegiate Auditorium.

8.30—3TU Victoria women's party to the men, in Wymilwood.

SATURDAY, FEB. 15

8.30 p.m.—International Water Polo, Montreal vs. Varsity at Hart House. Dance afterwards.

8.20—BT3 Victoria class party at Annesley Hall.

SUNDAY, FEB. 16

9 a.m.—Holy Communion in Hart House Chapel.

11 a.m.—Universal Day of Prayer for students. Special service in Victoria College Chapel. Address by Chancellor Wallace. *All students cordially invited.

4.30—International tea under the auspices of the Student Christian Association in Annesley Hall. All foreign students cordially invited.

5.00 p.m.—Newman Club tea.

7.00 p.m.—Benediction in Newman Club Chapel.

7.30 p.m.—Mr. H. Anderson, editor-in-chief of Toronto "Globe" will address Newman Club.

8.30-10.30—U.C. Women's Union illustrated lecture by Dr. MacMillan and Mrs. Dow on well known hymns and carols. Refreshments. Students and their friends welcome.

MONDAY, FEB. 17

8.00 p.m.—Illustrated lecture by Miss Ethel Conway on Petra, the Rock-hewn City, in Castle Memorial Hall. Admission free.

TUESDAY, FEB. 18

O.C.P. Grads dance at Royal York. 1.30-2.00 p.m.—Rev. Stanley Russell will speak at Wymilwood. All students welcome.

COLLEGE GOWNS CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON
108 King St. W., Toronto

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS
Kl. 6738 328 BLOOR ST. W.

Have Your Brakes Tested
AND SAVE 10
SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE
205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

See the Advance
Showing of
"CAMBRIDGE CLOTHES" for Spring, 1930

These Styles and Fabrics are particularly smart

FITZPATRICK & O'CONNELL
LIMITED

254 YONGE ST., Just North of Shuter

CORRESPONDENCE (Continued from page 1)

toxics on university grounds, in fact, I am scarcely interested in the question. I write this letter only from a love of tolerance for the other man's opinion, and because I hate to see your correspondence column used as a means to practice sermonizing.

Hoping that the "same fate as so justly overtaken Sodom and Gomorrah" be not meted out to "The Varsity" for printing this,

Yours sincerely,

I. EDELL,
'31 U.C.

Denounces "30 Vic"

The Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

No longer does one wonder at the reputation enjoyed by Victoria for narrow-mindedness and intolerance when he reads the letter written by '30 Vic in your issue of Feb. 13th. If there were many like this man at Victoria it would justly deserve the name of "Hallelujah Hall".

Nobody condones drunkenness for one moment, but the view that to take a drink is sinful, is surely too absurd to warrant any comment. Beer and wine as well as spirits are used in moderation by many gentlemen and when anyone says that it is impossible to refrain from over-indulgence, he merely shows that he has gathered his information from temperance cranks and fanatics who do not form their opinions from the facts of the case at all.

Does not '30 Vic remember that Christ Himself enjoyed a glass of wine? I have no doubt that if there had been any beer or Scotch in Palestine He would have derived great pleasure from a stein of beer or a whiskey and soda when He was hot and tired after a hard day's work.

Of course neither '30 Vic's opinion nor mine can be taken as representative of the feeling at Victoria on this matter as everyone thinks differently on the liquor question, but most of the men at the college are much more tolerant than is '30 Vic.

Yours truly,

J. M. McLEAN,
Vic '30.

SUNDAY SONGSTER

The sixth Songster of the year will be held in the Music Room of Hart House on Sunday evening next at 8.45 p.m. In the absence of Mr. J. Campbell McInnes, Mr. E. Mazzoleni, musical director at Upper Canada College, will conduct the program.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

Lovely Laura's Picture Charms Romance Hastens to Her Arms

By L.L.L.

Still at Auntie's.
Feb. 14th

Dear Betty:

I'm much better than I was last week. Of course, I have a simply ghastly cold, but that's seasonable and the handkerchief people have to make money sometimes. You see dear, the weeks been full of the most exciting adventures. I've been pleasantly notorious. It gives such a thrill. Because of my arrest, that is of course my illegal arrest, I had my picture in the paper. It didn't do me justice, of course, but just the same it wasn't bad. I bought ten copies of the paper so I could send my friends a symbol of my progressiveness. Well here's the simply divine news that I'm bursting to tell. I got a letter last night and it was from a man that saw my picture in the paper and wants to see the original. He was so polite and so romantic. He didn't try to be fresh or hasty, but oh, so reserved and gentlemanlike. He's coming to Toronto next week and wants to be properly introduced to me. He may be old-fashioned because he suggested a chaperon. Why Betty I had to look up a dictionary to know what a chaperon was and do you know they actually went out of date with wasps' waists and the great awk. Its so easy to imagine what he looks like. He's dark with great brown eyes staring from a mass of chestnut hair. Probably he's over six feet tall and if he only has a Southern accent he'd be perfect. I'm so thrilled at the idea.

Papa wants me to come home since I'm not working, but I must convince him to let me stay over till next week. He didn't approve of my adventure with the police and was frightfully angry when he saw my picture in the paper. Poor Papa! Why there's thousands of girls would give anything for the advertising. Publicity like that's genuine.

So with all my thrills and flutters for next week, I am

Your dearest friend

Laura Louise.

P.S.—I forgot to say that his name is Lemuel d'Avernon O'Shae. Its foreign and contains so many possibilities.—L.L.

BULLETIN BOARD

WATER POLO

Members of the international water polo team are all asked to meet the coach in the locker room at 5.30 this afternoon.

WOMEN SWIMMERS

Practice for all entrants in the Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet to-night at Hart House pool. Please meet at the Hall Porter's desk at 7 sharp.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

There will be a reading for the evening play at 4 o'clock to-day at the Women's Union.

U.C. ATHLETIC BOARD

Meeting to-day (Thursday) at 3.00 p.m. The following please be out: T. E. McDonnell, A. MacCallum, F. N. Veigh, E. G. Arnold, H. A. Drury, H. A. Thorburn, R. A. Armstrong, F. Brebner, C. MacGibbon, J. Vila, G. Spence, M. Seccombe, W. M. Gray, A. E. Cook, P. H. Sullivan and J. T. Jackson.

U. C. LIT.

The honorary president of the University College Literary and Athletic Society has awarded a prize, the conditions for which are posted in the main rotunda of University College. Nominations and voting will take place at the meeting of the Lit. on Tuesday, February 18th, after the award of the Maurice Cody Prize has been announced.

COMMERCE CLUB

The Commerce Club will meet at 1.30 to-day at the Lecture Room. The speaker will be Leighton Foster, superintendent of insurance for Ontario.

U.C. WOMEN'S UNION

Dr. MacMillan will lecture on some of the finest of our well-known hymns Mrs. Dow has kindly consented to illustrate these and to lead the group in singing, after which refreshments will be served in the common room. All students of University College and their friends are welcome.

WESTERN PROJECTS WILL BE DISCUSSED

(Continued from page 1)

debate, the elections for the debates committee of 1930-31 will be held. A new system of voting has been adopted this year.

"In previous years," explained Mr. Kennedy, "a great many 'short-time' visitors have been on hand to vote for their chosen candidates. This year the voters must be on hand before the end of the third speech on the paper, and must remain until nine-thirty before voting."

WORLD-WIDE SERVICE WILL BE OBSERVED

On Sunday, February 16th, at 11.00 o'clock in the morning, a special service will be held at Victoria College Chapel for the students in the University of Toronto. "This service will be observed throughout the world, wherever there is a Students' Christian Society, for it is a world-wide movement," said F. G. Moore. The call was issued by the chairman and many churches will be taking part in this annual event. Chancellor Wallace of Victoria College will give the address and Mr. Moore will conduct the prayers. The International Day of Prayer was held at Knox College last year.

"This is the beginning of International Week," said Mr. Moore. "The Students' Christian Association will be at home at Annesley Hall at 4.30 Sunday afternoon. All students are cordially invited to attend. The International Students' Service will hold a tag day on Wednesday, Feb. 19th with the co-operation of the Menorah Society. The tag day will be held for the intentions of the Students' Service. It is hoped that all students will respond to the call and do their utmost to make the International Week a success."

CONTINENTALS VALUE SCIENTIFIC TRAINING

(Continued from page 1)

of 149 in the Theory of Numbers. Here that would be a post-graduate course in which one or two would be registered."

Professor Fields was particularly impressed with Mussolini's work in Italy. "He put down the eight secret societies there, the Black Hand and seven others. Everything is in apple order. Besides the secret societies the bandits, beggars, and other nuisances have been eliminated."

"The title of one of the lectures is 'The Democratic Policy of the Italian Government', and if this lecture presents the policy of the Italian government to the people it should prove of a popular nature and pack Convocation Hall.

MEMORIES OF ANCIENT FIRE REVIVED TO-DAY

(Continued from page 1)

ing of slides. The sub-curate was carrying them up the stairs (which were in almost the same position as the stairs to the women's cloak room now), when one lamp fell. He immediately carried it down to the door below the stairs, but it was locked and he had to abandon the little blaze. Such was the origin of that unfortunate fire.

The fire began about half-past six in the evening, but it was some time before the fire-fighting apparatus arrived, due to the fact that one student who thought he had sent in the alarm from College street had only succeeded in breaking the key in the box. About eight o'clock the guests, resplendent in evening dress, began to arrive in horse-drawn carriages and were given a warm, if unexpected, welcome. In spite of the inconvenience, lectures were resumed, unfortunately, within three days.

Beautiful Hosiery Attractively Priced

Number Five Thousand, the stocking that fulfills your ideals. Perfect in colour and weave, in a range of forty colours, with the smartest of French heels ..... $1.50

Chiffon and service weight.

Tune in Every Wednesday 7 p.m.
CFCA, Virginia Dare and her
Boy Friends

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET
At Richmond
AD. 8898

768 YONGE STREET
Next door to Uptown Theatre
Kl. 5600

2496 YONGE STREET
Next door to Capitol Theatre
HU. 4780

OPEN EVENINGS

THE ART METROPOLE

Branch of

THE HUGHES OWENS CO., LTD.

36 ADELAIDE STREET WEST

Dealers in

DRAFTING OFFICE SUPPLIES

MATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENTS

SURVEYING AND OTHER SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS

ARTISTS' MATERIALS ZEISS MICROSCOPES

LABORATORY SUPPLIES

ESTABLISHED 45 YEARS

Christian Science

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, St. George St. at Lowther
(Close to the University)

Services—Sunday, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.

Subject for Sunday, Feb. 18th, will be

"SOUL"

Wednesday Service 8 p.m.

In the Church Auditorium including

Testimonies of Healing Through

Christian Science

You are cordially invited to attend the services and use the Free Public Reading Rooms
1504 Metropolitan Bldg.
Adelaide and Victoria Sts.
Open 9.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.
Where the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased, and periodicals subscribed for.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA SHERBOURNE CHURCH

Sherbourne and Carlton Streets

REV. RICHARD ROBERTS, D.D.

both Services

11 A.M.—

"THE GRACE OF GOING DOWN IN THE WORLD"

7 P.M.—

"THAT ONE FACE"—What was It Like?

RENT A
TUXEDO

$2.00

STUDENTS'

PRICE ONLY.

NEW SUITS

LATEST STYLE

TELEPHONE

TRinity 8218

Mallabar

CUSTOMER

450-452 SPADINA AVE

at College St.

Deer Park United Church

ST. CLAIR AVENUE

(One block east of Avenue Rd.)

Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A.

Rev. Douglas Kendall, M.A.

Ministries

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

11.00 a.m.—Rev. J. R. P.

Slater, D.D., of Old St. Andrew's Church. "Pillars of the Church."

7.00 p.m.—Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A., "Ancient Wisdom for a Modern World. 4: The Folly of Idealizing Yesterday."

Students cordially invited.

Bernard Longbottom—Organist and Choirmaster.

TORONTO THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

52 ISABELLA STREET

Lectures on Comparative Religion, Philosophy and Science every Sunday evening at 7.15.

Sunday, February 16th

"The Seven Great Gods"

By ALFRED E. S. SMYTHE

Questions answered and free lending library.

Old St. Andrew's Church

(Cor. Jarvis and Carlton Sts.)

11 a.m.

Rev. G. Stanley Russell, B.A.

7 p.m.

The Minister,

"I seek a room off my own."

Students Cordially Welcome

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

381 Huron Street

(Five minutes walk from Hart House)

SEPTUAGESIMA.

7.00, 8.00, 9.30 a.m.—Holy Eucharist.

11.00 a.m.—Sung Eucharist and Sermon. Preacher: Rev. C. J. S. Stuart, M.A., B.D., Rector. Stainer in A and D. Motet: "Hail, true Body", Willan.

7.00 p.m.—Evensong and Sermon. Preacher: Rev. R. S. Rayson, M.A., B.D., Assistant Priest. Anthem: "Lord, for Thy tender mercies' sake", Farrant.

DANCING LESSONS

REDUCED RATES

By special request Mr. Walford will continue these low rates during Jan., Feb., and March. Private lessons the only way to learn successfully.

Strictly Private - 8 for $5.00

Semi-Private - 8 for $4.00

(Two pupils to a single lesson)

Class Lessons - 8 for $5.00

HARRY WALFORD—Kl. 4882

Address—55 WELLESLEY ST.

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17th, 1930

No. 84

I. S. S. SEEKS FUNDS TO HELP STUDENTS ALL OVER THE WORLD

Wednesday Tag Day Intended to Provide Funds for Needy

WAR SAW INCEPTION

Bulgaria Especially Unfortunate in Condition of Its Students

On Wednesday the 19th the Student Christian Association, the Students' Administrative Council and the Menorah Society are co-operating in an effort on behalf of International Student Service. For three years now they have held a Tag Day on behalf of this international society, and it is to be hoped that all students of the University of Toronto will rally to their support.

The International Student Service is the successor organization to the Emergency European Student Relief, which was carried on after the war in those countries which suffered economic collapse, and left the universities and student classes in grave danger of being wiped out.

At the present time there is less physical need amongst students than four or five years ago, though in Bulgaria the situation is extremely grave. Of the 3,600 students in Sofia, half are living on less than eleven dollars a month, and as many as eight students are living in a single room. I.S.S. is appealing for fifteen thousand dollars for its work in Bulgaria, and the general secretary has written to say that he believes, not only the future of Bulgaria, but the peace of students all over the world are going to react to their appeal.

In South Africa it is impossible for a native student to take any of the professional university courses, and there are about six native doctors for fifteen million natives in the country. I.S.S., this year, is bringing five or six of the most promising students to Europe to take medical courses. These students will not simply be given a dole; they will have to get part time work and help themselves through college.

Another work carried on by I.S.S. is an international student sanatorium in Switzerland. In some centres as (Continued on page 2)

HYMNS AND CAROLS THEME OF LECTURE

Women Hear Music of Many Nations to Appear in New Book

Dr. Alexander MacMillan gave a very interesting lecture at the Women's Union last night on hymns and carols, commenting particularly on the musical accompaniment. Mrs. D. R. Dow, accompanied at the piano by Miss Dorothy Beatty, interpreted different examples and then the audience sang the hymns with her.

The examples sung were hymns which will be in the new United Church Hymn Book. The tunes were derived from old German, Bohemian, Belgian, Scotch, English, Irish and Welsh airs.

U.S. STUDENT ENVOYS TO ATTEND TORONTO MODEL LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

U.C. Magazine Offers Short Story Prize

The University College Magazine is offering a $10 prize for a short story, not to exceed 1,500 words. Contributions will be accepted from U.C. undergraduates. They must be in the hands of Clarence R. Tracy, the editor, or at the offices of the Literary and Athletic Society by Tuesday, February 18.

The magazine will make its appearance for the spring term early in March.

WILL BE ICE-FREE WITHOUT ENGINEERS

Give Rivers 1000 Years Alone and They Will Get Own Freedom

SAYS INSTITUTE SPEAKER

"Keep the engineers off the rivers another thousand years and those rivers will carve out their own channels and be ice-free," declared Professor Barnes of McGill University in his lecture on "Winter Waterways" before the Royal Canadian Institute which met in Convocation Hall Saturday evening.

"There is 40 per cent liquid ice in water all the year round and it is only waiting for 32 degrees to freeze. When you boil a kettle for tea you are boiling 40 per cent liquid ice and you pour ice water on your tea leaves," he said.

Professor Barnes went on to describe his experiments with ice, in the laboratory and on the river. After working for a long time against nature he decided to work with nature and try to imitate the action of the (Continued on page 2)

WORLD WILL BE SAVED BY STUDENTS IF AT ALL

Victoria Chancellor Thinks Them More Alive to Coming Conflict

East met West at a tea given by the S.C.A. for the foreign students in Annesley Sunday afternoon.

It was an appropriate beginning of International Week and the Chinese students' stand on internationalism was brought forward in a clever talk given by Wilfred Wong.

Mr. Misumi of Japan presented the various aspects of social service work in Tokyo, and told of the extent to which English influence is apparent.

Mont Serin of Trinidad commended the Methodist Church for the results it has achieved in relieving the labour problem occasioned by the imparting of Indian labour to his native island. Australia was represented by Dr. Maldon who, after touching on some more important aspects of his country, told of some rare and strange animals which are native to Australia only.

The speakers were introduced by Miss Janet Fallis, president of the Women's Council and a singing of negro spirituals was led by Harry Dodge.

Canada's First International League Conclave Opens This Week

MEETS IN FIVE SESSIONS

Harvard, Princeton and Vassar Co-operate with Canadian Organizations

The first international "Model Assembly" of the League of Nations to be held in Canada will take place in Toronto this week, (Friday, Saturday and Sunday; February the 21st, 22nd and 23rd.)

For the first time universities of other countries are sending delegations to represent their nation at a Canadian "Model Assembly". Harvard, Princeton, and Vassar Universities are co-operating to represent the United States of America with a delegation composed of one delegate from Harvard, one from Princeton, and two from Vassar. Princeton will also send a delegation of three to represent Switzerland; and one delegate to co-operate with the University of Ottawa in representing France.

Nine Canadian universities are sending delegations to participate in the "Model Assembly". McGill University will be represented by two delegations; one, of women from the Royal Victoria College, will represent Nicaragua; while the men of McGill will come as delegates from Great Britain. Queen's University will represent Germany; Ottawa will speak for France. The University of New Brunswick is representing Belgium. The University of Manitoba will send one delegate to represent Albania. The University of Western Ontario is sending a delegation as representatives of Poland, while three Western graduates now resident in Toronto will represent Portugal. A delegation from Osgoode Hall is preparing to state Italy's case; while McMaster University will represent Bolivia.

Non-university organizations are contributing some interesting material and delegations. Chief among these is the Chinese Nationalist Party of America, which will send a delegation to represent China under the leadership of K. Y. Wang, chief inspector to America of the Chinese Nationalist Party. Another interesting delegation is that from the Ontario Older Boys' Parliament, which will represent Canada with several of its ministers.

General Sessions of the "Model Assembly" will be held Friday and Saturday, mornings and afternoons, in (Continued on page 2)

INTERNATIONAL BASIS FOR MIGRATION KNOT IS JAPANESE HOPE

Flowery Kingdom Ambassador Speaks to "Varsity" in Hart House

STATES COUNTRY'S NEEDS

Dining at High Table, Says Japan Has Educational Unemployment

An international basis for the settling of migration problems was prophesied by Hon. I. M. Tokugawa, Japanese minister to Canada in an interview with "The Varsity" during a visit to Hart House on Friday.

Explaining that the problem of surplus population in Japan was not so acute since the acquiring of Korea and other nearby territories because these places provided a place to export surplus population and also a source of food supply. Mr. Tokugawa said that if a government as is the case with Canada had decided upon a definite quota of Japanese immigration there was no intention on the part of the Japanese Government to exceed the quota. He mentioned Brazil and the Philippine Islands as making no discrimination against the Japanese.

On the question of Japanese educational problems Mr. Tokugawa said that the whole country had a great belief in education. The higher education had so far spread he said, that boys fitted for the trades, who had become educated, were unwilling to take any job which did not give the opportunity to use their educational advantages. "It is a kind of educational unemployment," he said.

The minister was entertained at luncheon at the High Table in the Great Hall at Hart House and was afterwards shown over the House by the Warden. A tour of the university buildings was also included in his program.

ROWING CLUB ELECTS ITS NEW EXECUTIVE

A meeting of the University of Toronto Rowing Club was held in Hart House Friday. The results of the election were as follows: president, R. N. Starr; 1st vice-president, T. R. Sarjeant; 2nd vice-president, H. O. Halderson; secretary-treasurer, W. J. Palmer; committee, J. Chalmers, J. Jackson, G. Pearson.

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Probes Undergraduate Morality

"Is '3TO Vic' justified in his denunciation of student dancing, smoking and drinking?"

Miss Bliss McQuarrie, II Meds.—"He wrote as if he'd be glad if the fate of Sodom and Gomorrah would overtake this harmless generation."

Miss Esther Brichaupt, II Pass, U.C.—

"One extreme is about as bad as another, and '3TO Vic' has gone to the other. I think he is serious."

T. H. Reid, IV C. and F.—

"He's just shooting a line, trying to impress people with his own importance."

Miss M. E. Scott, III Pass, Vic.—

"The letter was ridiculous! Heavens no! I don't think he was justified in writing what he did. I hope nobody thinks he's representative of '3TO Vic.'"

F. U. Slater, IV C. and F., Vic.—

"A lovely letter, but he didn't mean it!"

Miss Minerva Sinclair, III Pass, U.C.—

"'3TO Vic'? Somebody cramped his style in his youth and he hasn't been able to have a good time since."

BLUE AND WHITE SENIORS SUCCUMB TO SEA FLEAS' BRILLIANT HOCKEY

Pick 'Varsity' Editor To Head Press Body

Lou Golden, editor of "The Varsity", was elected president of the Interprovincial University Press Association at Montreal Saturday afternoon. The election was unanimous. Other Toronto men elected to the general executive were P. E. Ussher and N. J. DeWitt, also of the staff of "The Varsity". Delegates from Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Ottawa were present.

PASS ARTS STUDENT IS U.C. MOSS CHOICE

Miss Millichamp Once Won Governor General's Prize

PERMANENT POSTS FILLED

Miss Dorothy Millichamp, in the balloting that took place Friday, was selected as the U.C. nominee for the Moss Memorial Scholarship. As the result of this securing the U.C. nomination, Miss Millichamp will be one of four candidates from each of the four Arts colleges, in the competition for the Scholarship valued at $300.

Miss Millichamp matriculated from Oakwood Collegiate in 1925 and came to Varsity at the opening of the session of 1926, entering the General Course. She secured Grade A in her Second Year and was awarded the Governor General's Prize for General Proficiency in that year.

At the election which took place at the same time for the permanent executive of the graduating year, the following were successful: H. B. Bell, (by acclamation) president; Miss Grace Macaulay, vice-president; S. S. T. Beauregard, secretary; Miss Elda McFarland, treasurer.

ANNESLEY GIVES IMPETUS TO INTERNATIONAL WEEK

Representatives Speak at Tea S.C.A. Gives for Foreign Students

The International Day of Prayer for students was observed in the University of Toronto by a special service in Victoria College Chapel on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Chancellor Wallace, the new chancellor of Victoria College, spoke of the problems the students would have to meet. "The students are the ones who will save the world, if the world is to be saved. They are the ones who are most alive to this greater conflict now coming," Mr. Wallace continued. The Asiatics, Chinese and others have been getting first hand what we have studied in books. Africa for some time has been struggling against cultural imperialism of Europe. They cannot see why everyone should rise to the standard of the white man—if it were a rise.

"The world is one. What is happening in China to-day will profoundly effect Canada in the future," concluded Mr. Wallace.

Fifty co-eds report daily at the University of Washington for rifle drill.

Nationals Make Sure of Tie or Better at End of Schedule

DESERVE 3-2 WIN

Stewart, Paul and Whitehead Give Fine Display of Hockey

The National hockey team made sure of at least a tie for first place in the final standing in the O.H.A. Senior A group by defeating Varsity seniors 3 to 2 in a fast, close-checking game at the "T" Arena Saturday night. On the night's play the Sea Fleas deserved the verdict. They played a more aggressive game throughout, at times outskating and outplaying the Blue and White. Varsity had a one goal lead at the end of the first period, but from then on the Redshirts had an edge on the play, tying the score in the second period and scoring the winning counter in the last frame.

Nugent opened the scoring two minutes after the initial face-off when he skated right in on LeBarr after tricking the "T" defence, and shoved the puck into the nets. Varsity came to life in the last half of the period, Whitehead tying the score after ten minutes of play when he came in fast after Paul had carried the puck up, and batted in the rebound from the latter's shot. Just two minutes later, Stewart secured the puck from a face off near centre, stickhandling his way in alone and let fly a backhand shot at Mueller. The Nationals' netminder stopped the shot, but Stewart clammed home the rebound to put the Blues one up.

Nationals got a rather fluky goal two minutes after the second period had begun when Kenny Kane shot the puck out from behind the Varsity net and it glanced in off LeBarr's skate. Whitehead was in the penalty box at the time. It was a tough break for the Blue and White.

The winning goal came after three minutes of play in the last period. With Paul serving a penalty for tripping, Ken Kane rushed up the left boards, carried the puck in behind the nets and passed out to Lough, who was unmarked. The stocky centre man flipped the disc in and put the Fleas one up. Varsity tried hard for the balance of the time, but the good work of Mueller and the Nationals' defence, held them off the scoring sheet.

Stewart, Paul and Whitehead were best for the Blue and White. The defence pair got in some effective rushing and were prominent all round. Stewart at centre played a great game and was just about the best stickhandler on the ice. (Continued on page 7)

THREE BORED STUDENTS WALK OUT OF LECTURE

Principal Wallace Advises Trio Not to Come Back

"If any member of this class is bored, he is at liberty to leave," said Principal Malcolm Wallace of University College, to his 9.00 o'clock class last Friday morning. There had apparently been some shuffling and signs of inattention. Taking him at his word two or three men arose and made their way to the door. "And don't come back," suggested the Principal as they went out the door. Interviewed by "The Varsity" Principal Wallace refused to comment further on the matter.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32
ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.
NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkowsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: A. E. F. Allan

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17th, 1930

PROGRESS

For the first time in the history of "The Varsity" a special literary supplement is published in mid-season. For some years past there have been special Christmas literary supplements, but the move of having one during any other part of the year is a new one and we think not an unsuccessful one. It is true that the quality of the material in the issue to-day is not all of the highest, but that does not matter to a great degree for it is real student effort.

The step taken towards giving the student paper a literary supplement is in large part due to the money given by the Literary and Debates Committee of the Students' Council. Without their donation it would have been an impossibility, for the students as a whole do not like to contribute unless there are substantial prizes.

In the Christmas literary issue prizes of three and two dollars were given for first and second prizes. The result was that the contributions were neither as good nor as numerous as when the prizes given were fifteen and ten dollars. Not that the student verse and prose writers are mercenary, of course, but they just want healthy awards for the offspring of their brains.

The step of giving the undergraduate paper a literary touch, which is an impossibility under ordinary conditions, brings on the question of increasing the size of "The Varsity". The University of Toronto is twice the size of McGill and yet that institution has a paper of greater length, and of one more column and consequently more room for student activity and student literary effort.

The size of "The Varsity" is one of the questions that must be dealt with immediately for unless the paper is increased in size it is impossible to give an adequate representation of what is going on at the university, let alone extra features such as literary supplements. If the paper be increased in size and prize money be offered, there is no reason why "The Varsity" should not provide an outlet for student effort every fortnight in addition to handling some of the events, not entirely interesting to the student body as a whole, but of vital interest to a few. Often the editorial staff of "The Varsity" finds that it cannot give adequate reports to speeches of notable visitors at the university as in the case of Ramsay Macdonald.

Another important factor is the sports end. Without much doubt the sports page of "The Varsity" or any other newspaper is more closely read by more people than any other page, including the editorial, and if we are to cover the important events in even fair space the size of the paper must be increased. With too limited space the editors are not given a fair opportunity of doing as well as they might.

HOWE MARTYN GETS "LIMITATION" PRIZE

Not Sufficient Competition to Warrant Second Award

The Victoria Women's Undergraduate Association announces that Howe Martyn, fourth year Philosophy, is the only winner in their recent essay contest on the subject of "Schemes for the Limitation of First Year Women Students into Victoria College".

The judges, Dr. N. J. DeWitt and Professor C. B. Sissons, felt that Mr. Martyn's contribution was the only one worthy of the ten dollars first prize, and that there was not sufficient competition to warrant the awarding of a second prize.

VARSITY-McGILL DEBATE DISCUSSES DEMOCRACY

Messrs. Leslie and Gelber to be Toronto's Representatives at Montreal

"Resolved that democracy is still safe from the world is the subject of the last inter-university debate for the year. It will take place at McGill University, Wednesday, February 11. Toronto will be represented by L. M. Gelber, University College IV, and C. L. Leslie, Victoria IV. Mr. Gelber is one of this year's Rhodes Scholars while Mr. Leslie is a member of the Joint Executive of the S.A.C. and chairman of the Literary and Debates Committee. They will not debate as

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Attacks Victorianism

The Editor, "The Varsity".

Dear Sir: The letter expressing horrorification at certain "beery" suggestions is evidently to be taken seriously, since written by a "Vic" man(?).

I heartily agree with the description of rum as "that which maketh glad the heart of man", but a patronizing smile is the only answer to such utter damfoolishness as his claim that rum brings men to such places as the slums, hospitals and prisons. He reminds me of a certain Evangelist Hall of some centuries ago, who described brandy and water, then a popular refreshment, as "a glass of fluid fire and liquid damnation".

Quite obviously, he has not yet seen the gutter and asylums at close quarters, or he would have found that those in them, are in them, simply because they were born into them. The only cause of a respectable man's getting into the gutter is women—and even then, is the use of liquor and sin?

His utter unacquaintance with history or the practical things of life is amply shown when he speaks of the "growing sinfulness" of gambling, dancing, and women's attire. Surely he knows that gambling has been going on for centuries, and that dancing and women's attire is more decorous than ever before. But possibly he knows nothing of these last two "sins". Might I suggest, Mr. Editor, that this Victorian moralist expose himself, "to the odium, the ignominy, the calumny, the disgrace, which he so thoroughly deserves?"

Yours, etc,
Stu. Brownlee.

U.S. ENVOYS ATTEND

(Continued from page 1)

East Hall, University College. At these sessions, conducted as are the actual sessions of the League at Geneva, reports of committees engaged in studying world problems which came before the last session at Geneva will be presented and discussed by the delegates from the point of view of the nation they represent. A plenary session will be held Friday evening.

WILL BE ICE-FREE

(Continued from page 1)

sun on ice-bergs. For this a chemical was needed which acted like the sun. Thermite was chosen because of its immense radiation. An iceberg could be disintegrated within twenty-four hours by putting thermite in it. It was possible, he said, by the use of thermite, to keep the St. Lawrence River open all year for navigation. Slides and moving pictures were shown demonstrating the action of thermite on the ice in the St. Lawrence River.

The snow congestion problem is no longer a problem, according to Professor Barnes. Calcium chloride was tried on snow, but it was objectionable since it left so much slush. A formula has been devised which leaves no slush, since it is put on the pavements before the storm. When snow falls it melts and does not pile up.

"If you only sprinkle it on before the storm, you can sit back, fold your hands and thank God your pavements are wet," he said. Philadelphia is trying it out this winter. Toronto had asked him for a demonstration, he said, and he had refused, but he promised that some day he would give one, with pleasure.

a team, but will pair off with the McGill debaters, as upon the occasion of the McGill visit here. Mr. Gelber and K. B. Baker of McGill will support the motion and Mr. Leslie and Allan Edson of McGill will oppose it.

CHAMPUS CAT

THE DWEADFUL DWAGON
Another Chapter

In deep despair Slo Gin sat silently awaiting his end in the dank dungeon of Sun Tan. At dawn he was to be executed for a series of murders which he had not committed. He tried to recall some of the words of wisdom and consolation from the good missionary, but it was useless, all he could think of was, "Execution! Death! Execution!"

Unnoticed, the sliny water swirled about his ankles and a couple of spiders lunched off the back of his neck.

C—C

There was a creak of rusty bolts and Slo Gin looked up. With a cry of joy the missionary swept past the jailer and embraced the youth. Tears filled Slo Gin's eyes. He had expected Gay Flea.

"What shall we do?" asked the missionary after they had exchanged greetings. "We must get you out!"

"Why not take my place?" suggested our hero after some thought. "You would make a swell martyr, and besides it would be a tremendous stimulus to the wonderful work you are doing in China."

C—C

"That would be capital!" cried the missionary.

"Capital punishment," corrected Slo Gin.

"Ah yes, and what will they use to execute me?" inquired the good man, beaming.

"Turpentine," replied our hero.

"Good bye lad!" cried the missionary affectionately, when they had exchanged clothing. "Where will you be heading for?"

"Wherever Gaspard takes me," the boy replied.

"Probably to the junk on the river."

"Just the place for you," said the other.

"But sir, I can't leave you like this. What will happen to you?"

"Ah," replied the missionary, "in my college days I was in the Players' Guild and I shall act like a madman and baffle them all."

C—C

"O jailer," called the missionary. The turnkey entered the cell. "This is not an example of the wonderful work that we are doing in China," grunted the good man, kicking the jailer in the teeth, "but it is nevertheless necessary."

C—C

As the two were about to slip out, four huge, evil looking guards filled the doorway. Too late! It was sunrise.

Together the youth and the missionary were led into the courtyard, where the executioner stood, waiting with the turpentine. In a moment the guards had stripped them and they stood naked and unashamed in the dawn.

For the last time they faced the sun to feel the kindly ultra-violet rays steal through their tissues and react on the lipoids to form vitamin D. An expression of peace lit the face of the missionary. The wonderful work which he had been doing in China was completed. His job was done.

A vision of Gay Flea flashed before Slo Gin's eye. A lump arose in his throat. A hush. The executioner raised his hand—

C—C

And Gay Flea? She eventually married a paper hanger and raised two little rebel generals, a cafe proprietor and five laundrymen.

THE END

Gaspard McGuffey.

I. S. S. SEEKS FUNDS

(Continued from page 1)

many as fifty per cent of the students have active forms of tuberculosis, and the I.S.S. sanatorium enables a large number to receive treatment and at the same time continue their studies.

There is also an International Institute for Students Self-help and Co-operative Enterprises at Dresden, and the International Labour Bureau for stu-

Cincinnati Orchestra

FRITZ REINER, CONDUCTOR

MENDELSSOHN CHOIR & SOLOISTS

Massey Music Hall, Feb. 20, 21, 22

(Thursday, Friday and Saturday Even. Next Week, Orchestral Concert Sat. Afternoon).

Seats $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 Plus Tax

Good seats available at all prices.

Have Your Brakes Tested AND SAVE 10

SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE

205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

Avast There—Here Comes A Storm of Laughter—

WEAVER BROTHERS & ELVIRY

with their HOME FOLKS

Side-splitting yokel comedy that will leave you gasping for breath OTHER R.K.O. ARTISTS

THE MARRIAGE PLAYGROUND

Where parents play and children pay. Edith Wharton's splendid novel, "The Children" ALL-TALKING

ALL-TALKING NOW PLAYING

UPTOWN

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

A limited number of openings for summer work with a reliable Toronto firm. Minimum guarantee offer to those satisfactory. Apply between 2 and 5, Tuesday, Feb. 18, at Alumni Employment Office, 43 St. George Street.

TUXEDO FOR SALE

Tailor-made, good shape, size 37. Twelve dollars for three pieces. Apply S.A.C. Office.

TO-NIGHT

Theatre Night

Journey's End

Royal Alexandra Theatre

TICKETS $1.00 to $2.50

Learn the Newest Dance Steps NEW CLASSES start next week

Beginners, Tuesday Advanced, Thursday at 8.30 Private lessons with Mr. Da Costa or Mr. Clifflins by appointment

DA COSTA STUDIO OF DANCING Columbus Hall RA. 8650

FREEMAN'S—571 Yonge Street—is the largest concern for the rental of dress clothes.

DANCING LESSONS

REDUCED RATES

By special request Mr. Walford will continue these low rates during Jan., Feb., and March. Private lessons the only way to learn successfully.

Strictly Private - 6 for $5.00 Semi Private - 6 for $4.00 (Two pupils taking same lesson) Class Lessons - 8 for $5.00 HARRY WALFORD—RI. 4882 Address—66 WELLESLEY ST.

"THE VARSITY" SPECIAL LITERARY SUPPLEMENT

VERDICT

The judges of "The Varsity" literary section, N. A. Benson, M.A., and P. E. Ussher, B.A., congratulate the contestants both for the amount of material submitted and the quality of it. In selecting what was to be printed, except in the case of exceptionally good work, not more than one contribution by any one person was chosen. Altogether well over one hundred pieces of prose and poetry were submitted, and the task of the judges, in selecting the two best amongst each class, was not an easy one. It was decided to award one prize in the prose contest to a humorous entry as well as one to a serious contribution, which explains why some of the able serious work was not rewarded.

In connection with the art contributions, the judges violently disagreed. N. A. Benson contended that "Grinning Fool", by J. P. Oughton, should be given first prize as a new departure in modern art. The judges were unanimous in considering S. J. Bochner's "Head of an Old Man", the best piece of work contributed, omitting "Grinning Fool". Some of the art work submitted was of high quality, but could not be used because of the expense of having a large number of cuts made.

The judges announce the prize awards in the literary contest as follows:

Poetry: 1st prize: ($15), "History", by Henry Noyes, U.C.; 2nd prize: ($10), "Flyleaf for a Copy of Rupert Brooke", by B. D. Beamish, U.C.

Prose: 1st prize: ($15), "Kismet", by Margaret Davidson, U.C. 2nd prize: ($10), "A Psychic Phase of Pstudent Psuicide", by A. J. Ouellette, O.C.E.

Art: ($10), "Head of an Old Man", by S. J. Bochner.

A Modern Phantasmagoria

By Harry C. Elliott

We lift the receiver to our ear. It is like opening the door into an ante-chamber lit by rows upon rows of quivering blue mercury lamps. At pause and then begin to dial. As once the lights go out and across the dark, huge, glowing numerals spin and tumble, some blazing far down and down others vanishing with a crack. When they have ceased the dark is absolute excepting for an infinitely faint violet tinge that dances before the eyes.

Suddenly, with a clap of thunder and in a terrific rain of thunderbolts and zig-zags the world of darkness disappears. Magically we find ourselves floating in a uniform expanse of pale grey-blue. It is cool and fresh like the fore-sunrise sky in May. We float as serenely as souls come to Nirvanah at last. There is a faint, far-away humming much like that one hears just before going under ether, but it is much thinner, more melancholy and peaceful.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

263 Bloor Street West
Near Avenue Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.
Open daily, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $8.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1965

Honourable Mention

Grinning Fool

By J. P. Oughton

Night Out

By Elsie F. Wilson

Every Wednesday night at half past seven Ivy went out. Mrs. Everett Plaxton supposed that even maids liked to get out once a week, although they must get rather tired of necking in the movies. But what else could they do?

"Did you fix the orange juice for breakfast, Ivy?"
"Yes'm."
"I hope you have a nice time, Ivy."
"Yes'm."
Lord—what a dumb fool!

The street car was crowded and hot, and Ivy lurched from side to side every time the car started. She got off at Queen Street, walked three blocks to the left, one to the right, and turned up a dark lane. A man stepped out from a doorway.

"Ah—Ivy. Got the money?"
"Ikke, I—No."
"No? Say, when do you reckon to pay me?"

"I'm saving up, Ikke. I'll pay you."
"Yeh—when?"
"Soon, as soon as I can. Six months maybe."

"Say, kid, where do you get your funny ideas? To Hell with 'em! I want that money now, see? And you're going to get it for me yourself, see? Ever staged a hold-up? No? Well, you're going to get initiated to-night, see? Here, come on with me."

He half led, half dragged her along the dark lane, and stopped her in front of a dirty grey building. He pushed her into the shadowy vestibule.

"Here, take this." He thrust a revolver into her hand. "I happen to know that a man will be coming out of there in five minutes. He'll have enough money on him to pay what you owe me. It's up to you, now, to make him hand over the money. Squeamish? You needn't be. You didn't have no qualms about borrowing the money from me, did you? All right, then, get your man when he comes out that door, see?"

She stood alone in the vestibule. What did one do with a revolver? Hold it up, steadily. Say, "hands up!" Shout it. No, the police might hear. Just say it firmly, naturally, one finger on the trigger. A crooked jerk—lead through a man's breast.

Holding up men was easy, she thought, once you got used to it. You could do anything if you only made up your mind to it. But you couldn't make a man give up his money if your hand trembled like the throbbing throat of a nightingale. Stiffen up your arm—so. No, don't stick it out like that. He'll see it too soon. Careful—finger off the trigger.

What was it all about? Oh yes, the man who was to be robbed for his money. Money. She did not need money, now. Her mother had gone home from the hospital, well again. She did not need money. But Ikke—she had forgotten him. Of course, he wanted his money back.

Five minutes. More like five years. Hell can be crammed into five minutes.

Footsteps were coming down the stairs. Heart beating like a trip-hammer. Door opens. Grab your revolver. Stiffen your arm. There he is—now—no, now!

"Hands up!"

He had not heard, he did not stop. She had not made a sound. Her lips were dry. Now, shout it—hurry—"Hands up!"

He stopped this time, turned to her, lifted his hands—But—

It was Bob! She was to marry Bob soon. Then why was she standing here pointing a revolver at him? Anyone would think she wanted to kill him, instead of marry him. Her hand was trembling again. One little crook with your finger, a ball of death—

God! what had she done? A sharp report and a smell of smoke. Bob—Bob—what was the matter? Bob—stand up! Bob—Bob—

Then Ikke's voice came in her ear, his hands were pulling her away from Bob's body.

"You little fool! I didn't tell you to kill the man. Run, girl, there's a street car at the next corner. You dropped the revolver back there? Hell! I'll go back for it. Get on the street car and go home. And for Pete's sake, keep your mouth shut."

On the street car again. Men and women jostling her. Wonder what they'd say if they knew they were rubbing shoulders with a murderer. A murderer! She had killed the man she loved. Kecke Street next, then Lane, Russell—She got off at Russell Street. Her hand was not trembling as she pressed the buzzer.

Funny.

Lights were still burning in the house.

"Have a nice time, Ivy?"

"Oh yes—yes'm."

She went upstairs, undressed, pulled on a bathrobe over her cotton pyjamas. She got out her Bible, and read her nightly chapter.

"Thou shalt not kill."

It was one of the Ten Commandments. She had killed a man. She had broken one of the Commandments. Was there a brimstone Hell for her?

A bell rang through the house. Men's voices were in the hall. Then Mrs. Everett Plaxton's high-pitched voice broke out.

"Yes, my maid has a dark coat and a red hat. But what has that got to do with you? Murder?"

"Murder you say? Then it can't be Ivy. She hasn't the gumption to kill a flea. You say you have traced her here? Impossible. Shot a man? Why, she couldn't shoot a house if she were ten yards away from it. I'll call her."

Wait. Ivy!

"Yes'm."

Ivy crept downstairs, her feet bare.

"These officers are accusing you of—of murder."

"Yes'm."

"They say—you shot a man."

"Yes'm."

"Well, idiot, why don't you tell them they are liars. Can't you speak?"

"Yes'm."

"Well—Then, horrified, incredulous—"You—didn't—shoot—a man?"

Ivy fixed her eyes on a glint of cold steel, met eyes of cold steel—

"Yes'm."

Phantom

By B. D. Beamish

The leaves are quiet in the forest
The wind is dead on the hill
Even the twittering sparrows
Now are still.

A cloud is cloaking the sunshine
The gleam of the grass is dead,

WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM

43 glorious days with your $424.<sup>25</sup>
friends and fellow students,
and all expenses for

SCOTLAND
HOLLAND

ENGLAND
BELGIUM

FRANCE

A Special All Student Tour

arranged and directed by

The National Federation of Canadian University Students

A chaperone will go with the Tour and an experienced leader will also accompany it throughout.

For further information apply to A. GORDON BURNS, S.A.C. Office, Hart House, TR. 5036.

Sailing via Canadian Pacific

All Nature's glittering silver
Turned to lead.

Lo! It has come, the moment
When she will speak to May,
She, whom we buried last May-day
Over the sea.

Stay! Oh God! It is ended—
A chip, and sunbeam shone.
I heard her voice in the silence!
She came—and she's gone!

Chance Meeting

By C. T. Shiell

You were not young nor old, nor grave nor gay,
There was no sudden beauty in your face,
No secret in your eyes that I should feel
Our paths had crossed in an enchanted place.

Only an autumn dusk, a phantom air,
An early lamp shedding a yellow light;
The coming of your footsteps, and again
The sound of their going into the voiceless night.

And yet the moment that you passed me by,
A flame of longing kindled in my heart
For all the men you counted as your friends,
But in whose lives I had not any part.

It might have been that they could answer me,
Could see a meaning in my senseless
tears;
Or understand how common things may change
To sudden champions against my fears.

And all that was myself cried out to you,
Imploping that you should not leave me there,
Outside the circle of enchanted souls
Splendid the knowledge that I sought to share.

You did not hear; and I shall never know

Whether your coming cast a spell on me,
Or whether darkness and the yellow lamp
About you too were working wizardry.

Storm

By Joyce Plumtree

Blow
Blow
Black wind of Storm
Rumble longer
Rumble longer
Where the thunder legions form.
Let the lightning leap and fly
In jabbing cracks across the sky!
If I live or if I die,
I care not.
I am one with storm and blast
And all the tempests of the past,
Blind and Strip me,
Cut and whip me,
Find me laughing to the last!
I defy you
I defy
Every god of earth and sky.
Whirl me to the mountain crown,
Hurl me from the crags to drown,
Bring the heavens crashing down,
I dare you!

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

369 College St. Trinity 6987

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

throat easy

Buckingham CIGARETTES

20 for 25¢

NO COUPONS

ALL QUALITY

First Prize in Poetry

History

By Henry Noyes

History is a caravan that winds
Through shadowy mountains to the present plain
Laden with tales of battles and the rain
Of thudding arrows, ambuscades and blinds,
Religion weaving hate in royal minds,
Black superstition and insidious gain,
And bitter wars that count a million slain:
A sea that rushes and recedes and grinds.

"And to what end?" you ask. If you should stand
Beside the mounting stair of ocean, view
Its billion waves and ever churning sand,
And ask, "But why?" the wind would whirl anew,
Fling a thousand pebbles in your face,
Laugh and pass outward on its merry race.

Quite Right

By Paul A. Gardner

Geoffrey sat in his study; a sheet of tinted, perfumed notepaper was in his hand and, incidentally, before his eyes. Incidentally, because Geoffrey was not at the moment seeing notepaper.
He was seeing a naive, young face, tanned a little, so that the startling blue eyes seemed jewels set in amber of a rare shade. He was seeing a lovely girlish body . . . but no, he must not see these things! And suddenly he became again aware of the letter before him, the daringly intimate letter from Sophia whom he had met but three days ago, and who now suggested with amazing coolness that an affair would be pleasant, would it not?

He crushed the letter angrily. My God! what did she mean by such audacity! Could one love a woman who made proposals of that sort?
Now, Gerry . . . But why must he be obsessed with Gerry? She was done with him, out of his life, a dim memory of the past. Dim? Well, not yet, but before long, by God!

But what if . . . nonsense! that was her look-out. He had warned her.
She had paid no heed. Why not? Because she had loved . . . oh rot! rot!
rot! Loved! how could a child like that love? Well, a child like that could give herself—like that! Oh, what of it? She got her pleasure from it. But had she? Was not her pleasure the delight of anticipation, the hope of eternal love? Eternal love! God! so it had come to that!
Soliloquizing in the language of the wishy washy poets, the sentimental scenarists! Of course not! her pleasure was, like his, a joy for an hour, a delight of the time, but after . . .
well, he had felt rather ashamed of himself. Probably she had too. Still,
of course, it was just foolishness.
Restraint must break sometimes.
Nothing would come of it; nothing could come of it . . . yes, it could!
Well, what of it? There he was back again. Making crazy circles, that was all. Stop it, Geoffrey, you ass!

Sophia . . . Ah, back to her again.
That was better, but not much. She had a body too. And she knew it! Ah yes, Sophia knew exactly how much her body meant. She was versed in the subtleties of its use. Like Lucy in Huxley's book. Only Lucy would never have made that proposal. And by letter! My God! it seemed incredible. Made Lucy seem old-fashioned . . . old-fashioned? Rot! Still, there were two kinds of passion, old and new. Lucy's of course was new, after all, but Gerry was old-passion-
ed. Her passion was free, unrestrained. She did not study her body, calculate how to get most physical satisfaction, and as often as possible; she did not pigeon-hole notes on passion.
What she gave she gave without consciously offering. She loved; she gave. That was it. Sophia studied and loaned, cannily, selfishly. But after all, was not that better? The loan was returnable at once; there was no interest to pay . . . no interest to pay? But what if he became like Lucy's Walter? Oh, for God's sake, how could he! No man with an ounce of guts could be so weak as that.

Gerry . . . if he went back to her she would give him all her love, as before, all herself. Yes, but wouldn't one get tired of that sort of thing?

Gerry wouldn't. He felt that. She would never wake up, unless one jarr'd her terribly. Then she might be destroyed—like a sensitive sleepwalker. Probably she was being jarred now—it was a fortnight ago, and he had promised to write. Well, the jar might be gradual enough not to harm her. Let her be jarred by his not writing, if it had to be. Better than jarring her in person. And it would come to that.

But what of Sophia? Well, the awareness of her body had long ago become alertness; but at least one need not feel permanently obligated
 . . . unless one were a Walter? Oh,
Lord! for the last time, he was not a Walter! Still . . .

A tiny breeze tumbling in swirled a breath of the perfume into his nostrils. He saw Sophia, awaiting him.
His body tautened. He rose, jammed on his hat, and was gone.

Beside the quiet lake a little blue-eyed girl was sitting. Her tanned face was stained with tears, and an occasional sob shook her. But logic was coming to her aid.

"He warned me," she was saying,
in a tone strangely dull for the owner of those eyes. "He warned me."
But all at once a flood of tears burst forth again.

A few moments and she had once more achieved that desirable dullness of tone. "Look at it from his side, Gerry!" she commanded herself. "He wasn't the sort to love long. He knew it. He was kind to leave me . . .
kind . . . but," her lips quivered and her voice trembled with a regrettably girlish quaver, "he might have written and told me!" Another shower of pearl-like tears.

Again a little while and she was able to resume dully, "But he thought it was better to let me find out gradually. He didn't want to shock me suddenly. I guess he was right . . .
of course he was right . . . quite right."

A silence; no more tears; the fountain was dried up. Then, in a tone as far removed from the dullness as sunset from early dawn, "But I cannot go on without him! The lake isn't the same: it's hideous: it's a monster. The grass is slimy like the green on the mill pond. The daisies are dreadful staring unfriendly things.

Nothing's the same. Oh, dear God!
is it right to go on without him, when everything's like this? It isn't, is it?
Oh, dear God, wouldn't it be right, quite right, to go away from it all now? Please, God, send the hideous lake up now and let it devour me. I want it to devour me, now that he's gone . . . Oh, thank you, God . . .
it's coming, it's coming . . . it's so slow:
I must go and meet it! I'm coming, monster lake, you can have me now, because he's gone . . . he's gone . . ."

A thousand pearls on the fresh grass; the innocent daisies gazing still at the gentle blue lake. God in His Heaven and all right with the world
 . . . quite right!

First Prize Drawing

Head of an Old Man

By S. J. Bochner

Think of What You Did in London

By Alfred Bailey

Think of what you did in London;
Think of all the roses clustered
In the gardens down at Kew.

Change your thoughts from roses,
sudden;
Turn your face from this fine lustre;
Now look what's become of you.

In the Cafe Forty-Three,
Where they dance till dawn has broken,

There you drank your soul away.

Dark men strumming ukeleles;
All your clothes in port wine soaked;
Where you reeled till dawn of day.

All Forever Gone

By Royden H. Lambert

All day I'm cooped in an office cell
Perched on a little stool,
But I dream sometimes of a little dell
And an old swimming pool.

How I recall scenes long gone
And memories that I love,
Of the old picturesque winding Don
And the Viaduct above.

Then I see again the beaten way
We always used to follow,
As we wandered on a Summer's day
To old Hogg's Hollow.

I count again the railway ties
Or balance on the rails,
And once more chase the butterflies
In the old Rosedale Vales.

Once more I tread the Half-mile Bridge
And climb its girders low,
Or struggle up the old Clay Ridge
To see the cliffs below.

How I recall the hours so spent
At Life's benign sunrise,
In youthful pleasure surely sent
From God's own Paradise.

Oh! How I remember those days,
Those dear ones since passed on,
Those hidden haunts by secret ways,
All forever gone.

Ski

By Rosamund McCulloch

Long slim tracks in gleaming snow
Murky shadows deep below
A ragged moon whose laughing light Throbs through the silence of the night

A breathless pause, a racing start,
A mad descent, a racing heart,
That wild exquisite ecstasy
Is all too brief for those who ski.

Darkness shot with stabbing stars,
Muffled voices, sickening jars,
A doctor with a plaster cast
To hold my broken ulna fast
Adhesive bandages to brace
All my shattered ribs in place.

Here in the antiseptic gloom
Of my quiet little room
I lie, and dream of windy hills
Where every ardent skier thrills
Perhaps I shall not try it twice
But I have skied—and paid the price.

First Prize in Prose

Kismet

By Margaret Davidson

This is the story of a man who lived in the town of Wentworth. Wentworth is situated on the banks of a canal—the residential section being on one side, and the business section across the water. Joining the town is a swinging bridge. When a boat comes along the canal it sounds a warning whistle as a signal for the bridge to turn. When this happens, the traffic on either bank is held up until the return of the bridge permits passage.

James Jackson had been born and brought up in Wentworth. As a little boy he had played near the bridge and it was a great honour, indeed, to be allowed to stay on the bridge while it turned out. It was an opportunity to see a real boat close at hand.

When Jackson reached years of discretion he decided to marry, but he did not wish to ask the future Mrs. Jackson if she were willing until his business was well established.

One day Jackson received word that he was to meet several well-known business men and discuss certain financial matters with them. If he agreed to their terms his business success would be assured and he would be free to marry the lady of his choice.

Eagerly, on that bright summer morning, Jackson left his house for the office. With his mind filled with rosy thoughts, he did not hear the whistle of an approaching boat. As luck would have it, the very moment he reached the canal's edge the bridge swung away. A trifle impatiently Jackson brought his car to a sudden halt, with the result that it stalled.

The boat passed along and the usual crowd was waiting to cross the bridge. In a few moments it became obvious that something was wrong with the machinery. It was a matter of some ten or fifteen minutes before the bridge resumed its normal position.

It was then a question for Jackson to get his car started. Although this took but a short time he was in a frenzy. When he arrived at the office his business friends were leaving. The deal was settled and he had been left out. One of the more sympathetic of the men advised him to introduce good methods and habits into his business life.

Jackson was forced to postpone any thoughts of marriage for a few years. During this time he worked steadily and well. At the end of several years of hard work he felt that he was in a position to marry. Happily the object of his affections was still single and it was to her he turned. Arrangements were made for the wedding and Jackson felt happier than he had since the incident of the bridge.

It so happened that, as he was driving to the church, the bridge swung out as they drew near to it. Nothing disastrous occurred, but the event, coupled with the memory of the former one, completely upset Jackson. During the ceremony his replies were halting and indistinct. His friends believed him to be nervous and they were right. They often jollied him about it in later years, but they never knew the reason for it.

Many years later Jackson and the bridge again met, but under very different circumstances. Mrs. Jackson was lying in the hospital across the canal. She was very ill. The doctors told Jackson that he had better stay at home and that they would call him if he were needed.

Now the call had come and it had been urgent. But once more the bridge came between Jackson and his goal. When he reached the hospital his wife was dead.

A few days ago I was visiting in Wentworth and as is usual was examining the points of interest. A friend took me along the canal till we came to the bridge. Since a boat was nearing he suggested that we get on the bridge and stay there while it swung out. I was very glad of the chance as I happen to be interested in that sort of thing. As the bridge swung outwards I noticed a line of cars halted by the edge of the canal waiting for the bridge to be swung back.

"A funeral?" I asked my friend.

"Yes," he answered. "Why, it must be old James Jackson's. Poor devil!"

"He had a strange horror of this bridge—it amounted almost to a craze with him. He was always afraid it would keep him from his destination."

"Just as well, then," I suggested, "that he can't see himself now."

Spring Song

By Nora I. Milten

Oh, Spring has come to England
With ragged skirts of mist,
All edged with glistening dewdrops
Green, rose and amethyst.
Oh, Spring has come to England and
Brought the birds again,
And the hedges crowned with beauty
and
The kindly April rain.

Oh, Spring has come to England
With dawn upon her lips,
And little misty minds that prate
Of shipping and of ships.
Oh, Spring has come to England and
The land has found her fair,
And twined a wreath of rainbow blooms within her sea-blown hair.

Rendezvous

By Edward Parsons

Cold are the hands
That do not give—
Bloodless the years
That misers live;
But warm are your days, dear,
For you have given
To a starving soul
A glimpse of Heaven.

Time will never touch
With malicious hand
The lovely thoughts we share
In our own free land.
Let the years fly
With ceaseless flying—
We shall not care, dear:
Love is undying.

Music

By John K. Thomas

I shall remember how your slender hands
Touched at bewitching chords so carelessly,
And how you felt but could not understand
Why song must haunt the heart so restlessly.

(This was the rhapsody that stirred Etain,
Lost sweeping echo of immortal dreams,
With throbbing counterpoint of human pain
That Yassin heard by distant passionate streams.)

Than spring's first greenness you were more lovely
More moving-sweet than June, that must transfix
The rose in agony. You did not see
Pain bursting on creation's crucifix.

And I was glad that you were not awake
To the ultimate silence that stifles every word.
That you were so splendidly young and could dominate
The intolerable ache of Life's slow minor third.

A Psychic Phase of Pstudent Psuicide

By A. J. Ouellette

Good old Uncle Jim raised me and educated me. How often has he said, with his eyes full of tears as he lay under the table amongst the bottles, or as I helped him out in the cow shed to unwrap the rolling-pin from around his neck, "Son, son, keep clear of them damn women!" Ah, if I had only listened! Good old Uncle Jim!

This much is due to me though, that I did obey the voice of Uncle's wisdom for the first three years. But when I got into Fourth Year—oh, judge me not too harshly, ye who know not what Fourth Year is—enough! I met her at the Freshmen's Reception, which is the first big event of the season for the Third and Fourth Years. She cast a glance at me and I reciprocated by throwing a chair at her head. From that moment we belonged to each other. I was lost. For her dear sake I deserted the known paths and counsels of Uncle Jim and became, alas, ah woe, oh—but whoa! I became, in short, a social butterfly.

Honora was small, petite I used to say. This is a popular characteristic, these days of tea-room parties and tea-room prices, although for my part I have never observed the least connection between size and capacity. But I digress. She came from out of town and so she lived in one of the women's residences. But nothing held me back. Lost to all shame I called there in person and repeatedly. I took her to all the dances, shows, tea-fests, cat-fights and other events of the social year.

It was so bad and I came around so often (every month in fact) that the Dean of the Ladies' Residence got to calling me "Joe" and telling me about her love affair. (It appears that she had given him up, and incidentally broken him up, for the sake of her career. "Poor fellow! He took it very hard!") I was so far gone that I felt rather flattered by the confidence, until one of the other habits told me that the recital of this story, with all the harrowing details, was a sort of informal formula of Residential approval. Apparently the same was invariably bestowed upon all who came often enough. But even that did not warn me—did not awaken that sixth sense which is supposed to guard the drunkard and the fool, as well as young and innocent. And so it happened, one evening, in the taxi on the way home from the Graduation Ball.

I was sitting back comfortably, with one arm looped about her neck a couple of times as I searched with my free hand for my flask which she had lifted (frequently) earlier in the evening. "Joe," she whispered into the very ear she had bitten with deep affection not three minutes before. "Joe, it is all over. I cannot marry you." (It occurred to me that I had not asked her to do as yet, that formality having slipped my mind in the press of social duties.) "Joe, I cannot marry you. I have to consider my career."

It hit me out of the clear blue plush of the taxi roof. (I had been gazing at it as I meditated upon the ubiquitous cupid of the genus jehu.) Just imagine my embarrassment. What was I to do? I was only a poor, innocent boy from the country. What did I know of the wicked city? I gazed into her eyes for a moment, to see if she really meant it. When I examined her teeth and made her jump up and down a few times, but apparently there was no doubt of it. There was nothing left for me to do but to sock her a good one or, technically speaking, to lead with my left to the jaw. But there is no use in hitting them there. That is one of their strongest points. I ought to have known better. However the chauffeur, who turned out to be a fairly good scout after all, came around and helped me. Together we knocked her down and I sat on her for the rest of the way home, occasionally, when she became too obstreperous, walloping her with a wrench loaned for that purpose by my friend, the driver.

At last we arrived. We got out. The taxi went away and we were alone. "Darling!" she gurgled, "My own itty Joesy-Woesy! My caveman! I take it all back." Forthwith she fell upon my neck and proceeded to do so. Just as I was passing out I saw myself in a cow shed uncoiling rolling-pins . . . voices . . . blackness, going down . . . down . . . black.

I am leaving a cruel world without regret. You need not search for my will; what little I have I need for myself. As for this manuscript, it can be posted on the way to the dock. Won't it be just my luck if the water is cold and full of eels! But farewell, au revoir, manana, good-bye.

I come, Uncle . . . . . I come!

On a Futuristic Picture

By Evelyn R. Seager

A futuristic mountain
Beside a glassy lake,
A mound of clefts and shadows
And purple over-light,
A yellow square-built station
Beside a bright blue lake,
And a stretching, bright blue heaven
Over all.

The shadow of the station
Is yellowed on the lake
Toward the scintillating rivers
Of the snow upon the hills,
With the glowing, bright blue heaven
And purple rocks comes sloping down

To where the ripples break;
An orange, white-capped mountain
Beyond a lazy plain,
And the brilliant, bright blue heaven
Over all.

A rough cleft in the mountain
Before the orange hill
And a geometric rampart
Comes winding toward the lake;
An orange mountain-picture
On the bright blue water still,
And a shining, bright blue heaven
Over all.

The statue of some patriot
Based on the dark blue rock
Is facing o'er the water
Toward the orange mountain-top,
Over all.

Annapolis Bay

By Kenneth J. Erwin

Tired men. A dozen tired men stretched on the gray gravel of the shore and a tired ship in the bay. Our little ship had been faster than the yacht. Besides, we knew this coast, and so we put into this little secluded spot to hide. Let the coast-guard look for the crew that murdered its captain. We arrived here just in time, for the wind fell. The sea was calm now. Sunrise was not far away.

We had been approaching Boston when we were called by a yacht. Seemingly danger, we turned full sail to the wind and battered our way along the coast northward. Our light little boat was tossed about somewhat but our cargo was our salvation. The coast-guard plunged heavily in their attempt to make speed and we could see their light disappear and appear again farther in the distance each time. We did not dare to put out to sea; that would have been suicide. We were hugging the coast of Maine, out-distancing our pursuers easily, when we ran into another coast-guard. They approached us and commanded us to stop. That was an absurd command in the storm. Then several men crowded to the bow and signalled that tain. They threatened to let the Canadians enforce the law if we did not yield. The affair was taking on a serious aspect when one of our men recognized the new captain. He had sold a thousand cases for him in New York the year before. So we countered with a threat to have him and his crew impeached if they pressed the charge. The man was taken back, but he was helpless. To prevent the whole business becoming a farce, they laid the charge that we were importing liquor to the United States. But our cargo was intact, and the officers were forced to recognize our papers for Cuba.

It was our last experience in rum-running. The motor-boats left while we supposedly waited for a Cuban wind. But we have not left Annapolis Bay.

That incident in the Upper Reach changed our whole lives. It was the beginning of a new day for us. There is a fascinating power to Annapolis Bay in the morning sun. The moisture-laden atmosphere blurs the brightness of the day. It was the impression of the Upper Reach and that incident in the quiet environment changed our whole lives. Now we are the men of Annapolis Bay.

There is a light fog over those hills yet to me. A light fog that adds a

Honourable Mention

George Russell (AE)

By J. M. Friedman

they would fire. Shots were exchanged and one of their men wearing a white cap fell. We kept on riding the waves while our second pursuer pitched about. The night was black as pitch when we crossed the bay and we have to while the clouds cleared a little. Our position was soon known to us and we proceeded on the dying wind to Annapolis Bay. The place was our headquarters. The upper beach on the north side of Annapolis Bay.

It was a tiny inlet, wedge-shaped, with severe lines broken by black juttings in the water. My own little boat lay at ease in the quiet harbour. La Petite I called her. And she surely looked petite that morning on the Upper Reach—her bow and stern impudently holding aloft in careless curves, her tall straight sail rising upward in a loose, graceful sweep, casting a dark triangular shadow which seemed to support her as it was reflected in the dark water of the bay. Motionless, erect, graceful, petite . . .

The sun was not up long when we were surprised to hear the purr of a powerful motor, and a coast-guard yacht came down the inlet, sending the water lapping on the shores. It was the States' coast-guard. We hurried down to the skiff and rowed to the boat. The yacht had slowed down when we saw another follow her around the bend. We were sure both had dogged us here. We loaded our rifles and stood ready. The first yacht waited for the second. She carried the Canadian ensign.

The Americans demanded our surrender for the murder of their captain. They threatened to let the Canadians enforce the law if we did not yield. The affair was taking on a serious aspect when one of our men recognized the new captain. He had sold a thousand cases for him in New York the year before. So we countered with a threat to have him and his crew impeached if they pressed the charge. The man was taken back, but he was helpless. To prevent the whole business becoming a farce, they laid the charge that we were importing liquor to the United States. But our cargo was intact, and the officers were forced to recognize our papers for Cuba.

It was our last experience in rum-running. The motor-boats left while we supposedly waited for a Cuban wind. But we have not left Annapolis

Bay.

That incident in the Upper Reach changed our whole lives. It was the beginning of a new day for us. There is a fascinating power to Annapolis

Bay in the morning sun. The moisture-laden atmosphere blurs the brightness of the day. It was the impression of the Upper Reach and that incident in the quiet environment changed our whole lives. Now we are the men of Annapolis Bay.

There is a light fog over those hills yet to me. A light fog that adds a

Second Prize in Poetry

Flyleaf For a Copy of Rupert Brooke

By B. D. Beamish

You will forget:

If we meet one day not again,

Some day you'll wonder whence this volume came;

My face, my voice will go and then

My very name.

I shall forget.

This is the tragedy of life:

That I must read dead sonnets, with a date,

Cold sonnets, once with fervour rife

In 'Twenty-Eight.

touch the gray-stoned old fort, once our council-chamber, now our home, with a wand, and leave amethysts and emeralds and rubies on the rotting window-sills . . . diamonds in the crevices of the rocks, brilliant, thousand-sided diamonds vying with each other in the metallic shadow of the mist.

There is no horizon. Beside me, small hills roll up out of the placid serenity of Upper Reach and behind me they pile up on each other, an undulating mass, in a vain attempt to reach an ever-receding goal in altitude. The mist hides their last efforts as it hides the limits of everything. From where I sit the view is magnificent in its simplicity. I think I have burst in upon the workshop of Nature and found her at work upon a masterpiece of which mortal eyes can never see. And the mist has hidden it in shame and made it indescribably perfect. Even yet Nature's servant-girls haunt the place, silently protesting upon the intrusion, coming and going.

Even yet there are tired men lounging on the white gravel of the shore, humming a dolorous tune or murmuring an old sea-song. Nothing disturbs the inertness of Annapolis Bay, now. Only tired men mumbled languorous love-letters, languid, murmuring in their indolent lassitude . . . tired men . . . victims in the grasp of Annapolis Bay.

Pearls

By Harry C. Elliott

Poems are, like pearls,
Born of a sharp unrest
Still, when their makers have vanished
Living along the years;

Out of the deep
They come to the singer's breast.
Poems are like pearls indeed—
And pearls means tears.

Arms

By V. G.

"We will not have it!"
They cried in a chorus.
"The statesmen must rally
"And do something for us."

The problem was hard
And the statesmen were too,

Heartbreak

By S. Gampel

Dead are the breezes of life and of motion,
Dead is the bloom on the cheek of the rose,
Dead is my heart, near the murmuring ocean,
Mingling her grief with a sufferer's woes.

Over the dunes lies the mansion of mourning,
By the dark stream, 'neath a sad willow's shade;
The touch of the hand of the Unknown, adorning
Her brow and her bosom, in death is she laid.

No more shall those eyes with the light of the living,
Be oped on the hillocks, moon-tintured with gold,
Nor ever those lips of hers tremble, while giving
A noble heart's tribute, a sigh for the old.

Ah, sleep'st thou, sleep'st thou, darling, contented,
By a hand undesigning, entranced, in Spring?
How viewed He thy heart and thy soul, nor relented,
And left me forlornly my sorrow to sing?

But they said, "Now our ships,
"We'll get rid of a few."

So navies are smaller.
The statesmen don't care.
(They know the next war
Will take place in the air.)

Queen Street

By V. Geller

For no good reason at all the quacketer wore a scarlet fez.

As he addressed the passing streams of sober orientals and half-drunk whitties his eyes rested on a narrow curtained window across the street where a greasy hag of a gypsy beckoned to loitering bohunks. Twisting his mouth in a manner peculiar to his racket he spied away.

"Come closer, gentlemen, just a little closer . . . that's right, thank you.
Now, gentlemen, I have been fortunate in obtaining for you something unusual in the way of entertainment.
Er, two Hawaiian ladies, gentlemen, two Hawaiian ladies will sing and play the ukelele for you in about fifteen minutes. This is ab-so-lutely free, so don't go away if you want to hear and see something with a kick.
Meanwhile, gentlemen, I am going to give you a demonstration of the amazing powers of my famous remedy for piles, boils, eczema, corns, all disorders of the skin in all parts of the body,
all parts of the body."

Every now and then another sucker joined the herd in front of the mountebank's stand which consisted of an open valise loaded with bottles of his famous remedy and parked on a chair at the entrance to a short lane.
Entertainment . . . outside . . . in this dam weather . . . Two Hawaiian ladies . . . apray! They knew it was bunk. Perhaps a few Polacks believed him. Polacks are strong as oxen and just as dumb. Anyway he was more interesting than that serewy evangelist up the street who was always squawking about Glory and Salvation.

They were a hard-boiled outfit, coarse and vulgar. Shivering English trainees in faded overcoats that didn't fit . . . wop construction men with whiskers like dukes . . . three or four West Indian cullud boys on their way to the negro pool room . . . Russians, red and white . . . husky Finn lumberjacks who didn't know what it was all about . . . assorted pan-handlers who spent their nights in some stinking bunkhouse on York Street and their days in the bread-lines of the Ward . . . two or three kids who should have been at school
. . . . . Some people say that Canada is prosperous.

A bum victrola in the doorway of an adjacent pawnshop was murdering the latest hit (of 1926). A member of the corps du ballet of the Globe Theatre came along. What used to be her face was a riot of colour . . .
paint, paint . . . red, white and blue like the Union Jack. A bo who looked like Lon Chaney at his worst gave her the glad eye but she rejected his advances and walked on.

It wasn't long before someone was arrested. The familiar clang of the wagon pierced the dusty air and it was seen to turn up Chinatown. Some of the boys went over to see who was going for a ride. A batless drunk lay bleeding and swearing in a semiconscious condition near the square where the Chinese always gather to discuss Far Eastern politics. The van stopped and a huge Clydesdale of a cop got out. He was in no hurry as he wobbled over to his quarry. Toronto cops are never in a hurry unless they're chasing reds out of Draper's Park.

The bull waved his arms at the crowd, signifying that they were to beat it. He bent over his quarry. "Well, well, so it's Andy! Bay Rum again, eh, Andy? Get up, old boy, get up."

Andy swore. He was suffering. Perhaps we moderns swear because we are suffering too. He was too loose to walk and the cop had to drag him along, much to the anger of the mob, some of whom began to yell. "He's all right . . . Leave the poor beggar alone . . . Hoaroy for Chief Tearbomb." The cop felt a little uncomfortable and was highly relieved when the wagon shot away.

The crowd dispersed and returned to the street of pawnshops and foreign restaurants. The racketeer with the fez was beginning all over again. "Two Hawaiian ladies, gentlemen, two Hawaiian ladies."

Like ellahy.

The Elegy

By F. L. M.

"Ave Maria, Ave Maria." Softer and softer grew the strains till all was quiet again save the pat-pat of little feet as the soloist retraced his steps and the breathing of the large and solemn congregation. The service was continued. It was in Latin with the exception of a few inarticulate mutterings which were in English. The low hum of voices which were chanting the lesson in unison with the priest and now and then saying their beads, "Hail Mary, Hail Mary"—continued to break the silence. Finally the chimes rang out "ding-dong, ding-dong," and the service was concluded.

One by one the members of the congregation rose and filed out. Few words were exchanged till they reached the open air, where some gathered to discuss the weather, their social affairs, the business of their neighbours and without doubt, the service. Others went on their way, some homeward bound—some to their work, but each to his daily task. Gradually by ones, twos, or threes the groups were broken and the crowd dispersed, but one (a little fellow), remained and he remained unnoticed. He was standing in the doorway and although it was a cold, frosty morning he had his cap in his hand. It was the outward sign of respect for the Church. Whether their act of respect were genuine or merely an adherence to form it would be difficult to say. But one had only to look into his clear blue eyes, which reflected so plainly his boyish faith and trust, to know that with him at least it was sincere.

He stood there some minutes while the sun streaked his brown hair with gold and the cold north wind played roughly with his curls, but he took no notice of them for his mind was occupied with the words of his solo, "Ave Maria, Ave Maria, hear my humble cry." How often he had sung that piece he did not know, but never before had those words haunted him or lingered upon his lips as they did now. It was his favourite song and had been from the first time he heard it, (long before he could read or sing). To-day as he sang some great emotion seemed to stir within him and to surge through his body, his blood tingled, his pulses throbbed and he sang, as never before, completely unconscious of the audience.

He was thinking of this new experience when the cold wind caused him to shiver and roused him from his reverie. Then for the first time he realized that his hands and feet were numb with the cold and his head was aching. Immediately he buttoned up his coat across his chest, put on his cap and trudged off towards the school. All the way he talked to himself, planning, arguing, debating and finally coming to the forgone conclusion that he would sing as usual "Ave Maria," at the early mass on the following Tuesday.

Tuesday came. The doors of the Cathedral were again closed upon a similar congregation. "Ave Maria, Ave Maria." Softer and softer grew the strains of the organ till all was quiet again save the sound of sobbing and the quick breathing of the large and solemn congregation. The service was continued. It was in Latin. The low hum of voices, which were chanting the lesson in unison with the priest, alone broke the silence. "Ding-dong, ding-dong" sounded the chimes and the mass was concluded, but no one stirred except the father who knelt before the Cross—rose, and stepped into the aisle where a small white casket lay.

The words came slowly as he blessed the lifeless form which it enclosed and his feet faltered as he passed back and forth, from side to side, sprinkling it with holy water. Then upon the stillness fell the sound of chimes; the priest stepped aside; from the head of the casket the altar boys removed the long, burning candles; the pallbearers stepped forward and bore the little form to its last resting place. It was all over in the twinkling of an eye. One by one the people rose and filed out. No words were spoken and few glances were exchanged till they reached the open

The Story of a Self-Made Man

By B. Borsook

Bartholomew Pull was a self-made man. He said so himself, in the speech which he was now delivering before a meeting of the Society for the Promotion of Earnest Endeavour. Hard work, perseverance and courage accounted for his success in life. Never did he think of the pecuniary rewards which were awaiting him at the top of the ladder. He strove to serve society. And here he was, Bartholomew Pull Esq., president of the Noiseless Soup Spoon Corporation of America, the envy of the business world, the idol of all office-boys.

His life story is one of struggle against enormous odds. Like a tiny ship on a stormy sea, he had been tossed up and down, to the left and to the right, until at times he thought he must yield. But no—he toiled and fought and writhed, surrender he would not, and at last like the tiny ship mentioned above, he "reached port."

At the age of nineteen, he had entered college. Even now the struggle had begun. His father had said to him on that solemn occasion when he was leaving for school, "My boy, in order that you may succeed in your academic endeavours, you must give up the luxuries to which you have been accustomed, you must make sacrifices. Therefore, I am keeping the Packard at home, but you may take the Buick. Also, your allowance will be cut to twenty-five dollars per week. Good-bye and good luck!"

At college, his sacrifices were tremendous. Just imagine the struggle that he must have had with his inner self, when no less than four times a week, he literally had to tear himself away from a bridge game in order to appear on the field for rugby practice. He starred for his team, clinched the cup for his Alma Mater. And how did he do it? It was certainly not because of his mere 195 pounds, or even that Harry Batrook and Lep Peadley were his team-mates. No—he, himself, unassisted, had scored the winning touchdown. This was perseverance, this was courage. Of course it is true that one of the half-backs on the other team had dropped the ball on his own 5-yard line and Bartholomew Pull had picked it up and gone over the line to win the game. But he would have made that touchdown, even if he had had to run the whole length of the field. He himself disclosed this fact in his speech before the S.P.E.E.

For his academic record he had no apologies to make. He had passed every year. He knew that anxious hearts at home were watching his progress and he also knew that he had to make his year if he was to play rugby again next season. So he worked and worked. Success crowned his labours. Yes, he passed every year in spite of the fact that he was the star of the college rugby team and had to devote a lot of time to the game.

Then Lucretia had come into his life. That was in his fourth year. Up to that time, he had been careful not to associate with girls, lest his attention be detracted from his work. He had rarely gone to more than one dance a week. Lucretia Vanderbilt was a demure little thing, so sweet, so charming. Bartholomew met her at a sorority tea. When he told her how hard he had worked and striven, (she really did not know that it was he who had scored the winning touchdown in the game described two paragraphs above), she looked up into his eyes and whispered, "O Bart, you're wonderful!" And he looked into her eyes and said, "My Lucretia!" From that moment, they knew that they were meant for each other. Bartholomew promised to give up smoking, stop gambling and attend all lectures, so that he might graduate brilliantly and make his little darling happy.

Graduation day came and was gone. Bartholomew looked for a position. Walking the streets, he chanced to apply at the offices of the Vanderbilt Co., world's largest yo-yo manufacturers. Can you imagine his surprise, when he learnt that the president of this great company was none other than Lucretia's father? He was en-air where all gathered in groups to mourn and to pay tribute to the little lad who had left them to sing "Ave Maria" in a greater choir.

A Professor Writes to His Neice

By Arthur C. Cochrane

University College,
Toronto, Canada.

My dear Mary Catherine:

Even a professor in the English department of a university which has been characterized by a member of its own faculty as being "mildewed with discretion" may be extremely busy at intervals. For the past few days I have been reading essays by budding moralists, would-be Platonians and conscientious purists. It has been due to the fact that I have had to wade through these "works of art" that I have been slow to answer your letter.

Please do not regard the fact that this is a typewritten letter as a gesture of insolence. I hammer away at my Remington merely for the sake of clarity—you know what a terrible "hand" I have. Moreover, Mary Catherine, you would agree that the dictum which states that one must never type a message to a friend, except regarding a matter of business, is an instance of conventionalism, and therefore may be properly broken, according to your views. Yet I believe, that to type such a letter without an explanation, would be a demonstration of ignorance.

Bernard Shaw wrote a book expressly for intelligent women. He addressed it to the women in order to attract the attention of the males and, as he anticipated, probably more men have read the book than women. However, Shaw's book on capitalism and socialism was an eloquent tribute to the intelligence of the modern woman. Man may laugh at the silly war which is waging among the weaker sex regarding the merits and demerits of the long and short skirts, yet with all their apparent trivial enterprise, he will have to acknowledge that they are his intellectual superiors. If co-education ever disappears, it will be the women who will inhabit Hart House with the mere males begging permission to attend their debates at which the prime minister and the leader of the opposition, both right honorable ladies, will be the guest speakers. A community likened unto the kingdom of the bees will be established. The beautiful queens will occupy the seats of the mighty while the dull drones will be only too glad to perform the menial duties of a devoted slave.

Even to-day, Mary Catherine, women exert a tremendous, if insidious, influence in the world. I am convinced of the truth of the statement that "the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world." As yet, of course, few monuments have been erected to commemorate the lives of these invisible rulers, these powers behind the scenes. Only a pile of dirty dishes!

Amos expounded the inevitable Law of Justice. Taking his word for it, then, it stands to reason, does it not Mary Catherine, that the time is gaged as a salesman, not because he was Lucretia's betrothed, but because of his ability. When the sales-manager decided to leave the company, who should be promoted but Bartholomew Pull? Was he not the best man for the position? And so he rose and rose and still higher did he rise, until there was no longer any post for him to take.

All this time, Lucretia was inspiring him to greater achievements. When finally they were married, Bartholomew decided to strike out for himself. Just as on that solemn day when his father had sent him off to school, so Lucretia's father said to him, "My son, the road is hard and long. You will have to fight your own battles, solve your own problems. I will give you some advice and a little financial assistance. There is a great field for noiseless soup spoons. As yet, competition is negligible. I advise you to become a soup spoon manufacturer and I will start you off by giving you a hundred thousand dollars. From now on, you will have to depend upon yourself." So Bartholomew became a noiseless soup spoon manufacturer. Again, by dint of perseverance and by forever following the motto, "Strive for Society," he reached the pinnacle of success.

This was the personage who was now addressing the Society for the Promotion of Earnest Endeavour; Bartholomew Pull Esq., president of the Noiseless Soup Spoon Corporation of America, a self-made man.

The New Gloves for Spring

are Here . . . . .

For your Easter outfit and for the days of warmer weather there are smart novelty kid gloves, in colour combinations to match any suit. The skins are fine pliable kid and the designs are clever.

Special . . . . . $1.98

Tune in Every Wednesday, 7 p.m., CFCA, Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

164 YONGE STREET
At Richmond
AD. 5898

768 YONGE STREET
Next door to Uptown Theatre
RT. 3090
OPEN EVENINGS

2496 YONGE STREET
Next door to Capital Theatre
HV. 4780

coming when women shall come into their own. For centuries women were not even granted the opportunity of showing that they were the mental equals of the descendants on the side of Adam. To-day man is confronted with an awful catastrophe. Having been given the inch, woman demands the mile. Man foresees the spectacle of his supremacy tottering to ruin. In a frantic last minute endeavour to hurl back the enemy he makes a gallant stand at a Pass of Thermopole. But you know what happened at Thermopole, Mary Catherine.

The Great War gave women a big "break". While our dear boys were doing great deeds overseas, their sisters stepped into their jobs and made good. When the titanic struggle was over, the boys came back to find that there were no positions vacant. They tried to make it quite clear to the women that their place was in the home, but in vain. Those men, however, who were too old to take their place on the battlefield, still retained the important positions in business. As a result, few responsible positions were given to the fair sex. Man realized that it was a case of the survival of the fittest and he entertained a sneaking suspicion that he was not the fittest. He determined to put his heel on the neck of the species which threatened to usurp his god-given rights.

Following the war of 1914-18 a weak-kneed politician by the name of Lloyd George extended the franchise to the women. At that time there grew up a band of opportunists known as suffragettes. Their platform was the furtherance of women's interest. Their influence was particularly evident in the anti-saloon league in the United States. Gradually they managed to elect several of their number to the various legislative houses. To-day Miss Agnes McPhail is the only woman member of the Canadian Houses of Parliament. She is regarded as the thin edge of the wedge, or the beginning of the end of the supremacy of man.

The above, my dear Mary Catherine, is my answer to your query regarding the present status of your kind in the civilization of to-day, and the probability of their rising above said status. I must return to my academic labours. More essays await my critical pencil. Unless they prove to be less fantastical than the content of this letter, I fear I will be compelled to give them a low mark.

Your loving uncle,
Jeremiah.

The Tiddle of the Taddle

By Douglas Sheppard

On my tummy on the grass
I hear the twittering swallows pass
Far overhead; and down below
I hear the gurgling Taddle flow.

Funny, chuckly little elf—
Tells me all about himself;
Tells me how they used to haze
Freshmen in the early days—
To dip them in the creek and then
To bring them dripping home again;
Tells me all about the fire,
And the organ-man they hired,
For a dollar, hired to play
(Like Nero) as it burned away;
How they threw out Sam Peter's trunk—

And then poor Sam (who wasn't drunk);
Tells of the manuscripts the students
Saved (for themselves) with wondrous prudence . . .

Taddle spread these tales around—
That's why they put him underground.

Out beneath the Hart House lawn Little Taddle babbles on.
Babbles underneath the hummock
As I lie there upon my stummock.

Renewal

By M. B.

Into the garden I run, I run
When the day is come
And the feet of the sun
Print gold upon poppy and wall and tree

There does my heart lie weeping down

Till its love comes home
And the fretful town
Dims into a half-blown memory.

Deep in the grain I hide, I hide
From the world too deep

And the way too wide
While the garden says without any word,

"Here, my child, shall I give you rest
Where the grasses sleep
On my quiet breast
And the only watcher is one grey bird."

So do I be till night, till night
Uncovers my eyes
And a star in its flight
Looks down on the child whose weeping is done.

The garden stirs in a shadowed sleep
As I smiling rise
And silent creep
From the grass to my world all new begun.

COLLEGE GOWNS CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

" . . . but I must remark upon the place travel occupies in the education of the modern world."—Sir Robert A. Falconer.

IT is now possible for almost every student to complete his or her education by travel.

$424.<sup>25</sup> and 43 Days

APPLY S.A.C.
OFFICE, HART HOUSE
TR. 5036

For Further
Information
A. GORDON BURNS,
Travel Sec'y.

will enable you to see
SCOTLAND - HOLLAND
ENGLAND - BELGIUM
FRANCE

on the Canadian University Students' Tour arranged and directed by the N.F.C.U.S.

OCEAN CROSSING via CANADIAN PACIFIC

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KL. 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

SOLID
BLACK LEATHER

FIBRE
BACK, STEEL
HINGES

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

FLEAS BEAT SENIORS

VARSITY BASKETEERS TAKE ANOTHER STEP IN JUNIOR O. H. A.

Lose 43-20 at Kingston, but Extend McGill in 35-31 Struggle

EFFECTUALLY ELIMINATED

Special to "The Varsity" by Staff Writer

Montreal, Feb. 17.—The University of Toronto basketball team is without a chance of winning the senior intercollegiate title. On Friday night they suffered a severe defeat at the hands of the leading Queen's University quintet, going under 43 to 20, while on Saturday evening here they played brilliant basketball to lose out to McGill University by four points, 35 to 31.

Both games were fruitful of good cage work with the Blues in the McGill game reaching their best form of the college series. In the Queen's game, however, though playing good basketball, they seemed to be out of the contention entirely, with Sutton doing some uncanny work around the nets and gathering in 16 points. In the set-to with the red and white Smail did the same, taking 16 counters, but most of the latter's shots were from in close while Sutton netted them from anywhere and everywhere.

In the McGill game it was an entirely different story. Although the red and white led for the entire contest, it might as easily have begun the other way around as Varsity was their equal on the evening's play. Varsity counted first through O'Leary, but McGill came back to take the lead, and at half time led by 24 to 20. It was a hectic game that kept the spectators in a continual uproar. In the second half the blues equalled the McGill men in the counting and had the better of the play. The men of McCutcheon took plenty of chances, knowing that elimination would stare them in the face if defeated and they went at the set-to with plenty of vim and dash. The result was that for part of the game they carried the reds off their feet.

Smail was the highest individual scorer, counting 16 points, while Earl Davey counted nine points for the blues' high mark. O'Leary turned in another iron man evening, playing a full game, two in two nights. Don Wood caught the eyes of the spectators with his well-executed pivoting and fast breaking while he and Currie made a good defensive combination.

On Friday the blues started out in fine fashion and for fully two minutes they had the leather in their possession without the ultimate winners even touching it. But due to their fear to take the chances that they did in the Saturday game they refused to shoot until in close and that went a long way towards their downfall. Queen's began to count early and often and at half time were leading the parade with a 20 to 5 count.

In the second half, however, Varsity played a more dashing type of game, and for a time were holding the tricolour, but they slowly faded again. Sutton, Dickey and Elliott were the big noises for the Kingstonians, while their defence, especially in the first half, stood out with a vengeance. George O'Leary was the blues' high man with six points and their most consistent threat.

McGill—Forwards, Faulkner and Smail; centre, Young; defence, Pecker and Moore; subs, Wilson, Rice and Calhoun.

Varsity—Forwards, Collins and Davey; centre, O'Leary; defence, Currie and Cook; subs, Sakler, Wood, Riggs and Sniderman.

Referee—L. E. Bennen of Montreal. Queen's—Forwards, Sutton and Elliott; centre, Dickey; defence, McLaughlin and Bews; subs, Fenwick, Carter and Myer.

Varsity—Forwards, Davey and Riggs; centre, O'Leary; defence, Sakler and Cook; subs, Currie, Wood, Sniderman and Collins.

Referee—Percy Millar of Toronto.

3-2 Win Gives Fighting Blue
Youngsters Series With Owen Sound

LEVINSKY SCORES TWICE

Varsity juniors advanced another step in the O.H.A. race when they defeated Owen Sound 3-2 on Friday night at the Arena Gardens in their second game. By virtue of a 1-0 victory on the Orange and Black's ice the Blues took the round by 4-2.

Frank Sullivan's lads were much the superior in every department of play and should have run the score up much higher, but they failed to take advantage of the breaks of the game. Rushes several times had the students in scoring position with only Healey to beat, but their efforts about the goal were too poor to shove the puck into the net. The Sounders tried hard and entering the final stanza two goals down, they sent four and five men down in a determined effort to tie up the round, but the Blue defence trio proved too much for them.

Varsity carried the play into the Sounders' area in the first period. Their offensive game had the Orange worried and Healey in the nets had plenty to do. Levinsky scored the first counter on one of the prettiest plays of the season. He rushed right through the forward line and circled the defence, drew the goalie out and shoved the puck in. Hetherington and Brant showed the fans some nice combination work.

Smailie scored Varsity's second on a pass from Brant with a bullet-like shot in the second stanza. A minute later Locking netted the first counter for the Greys. Levinsky took a pass from Brant from the corner and tallied his second of the night. Locking scored the final goal when his fast shot hit Hunnissett's skate and was deflected into the nets.

The final period was scoreless. Varsity had several opportunities to score but were missing passes and the goal on wild shots. The Greys sent every man down in the final few minutes to change the score, but the smart defensive work of Hunnissett, Levinsky and Williamson kept them from tallying.

Levinsky turned in a fine game, and Hunnissett, Williamson and Brant were outstanding for Varsity. Locking, Healey in goal, and Matthews, were the pick of the Greys.

Varsity—Goal, Hunnissett; defence, Williamson and Levinsky; centre, Brant; wings, Hetherington and Smailie; alternates, Cunningham, Bennett and Hendry.

Owen Sound—Goal, Healey; defence, Matthews and McConnachie; centre, McKeekin; wings, McClelland and Locking; alternates, Nichol, Pickard and Sutcliffe.

Referee—M. J. Rodden.

Eddie Sinclair

Stewart Varsity defence man in the International Water Polo League fixture played in the Hart House tank last Saturday night.

Two more events of the Interfacuity Indoor Track and Field Meet were run off Thursday in Hart House. U.C. are now leading S.P.S. by three points having won first and second in the standing high jump and a second in the relay race.

3-2; JUNIORS TAKE GREYS 4-2 ON ROUND

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity's 3-2 defeat by Nationals Saturday night reinforces the belief that the senior sextet's chances of beating out Nationals for the O.H.A. title are very slim until "Red" Porter can put a better sub forward line on the ice. Game after game has demonstrated that when McMullen, Harley and Stewart are benched or Murray, Bell and Marshall drop over the boards the Blue team is weakened by at least forty per cent. The reserve trio's scoring punch is conspicuous by its absence and the subs are also less effective defensively. Freddy Murray, the diminutive left winger, is by far and away the best of the three, his defensive play being right up to the mark. Nationals can place two high class forward lines on the ice, and besides their latest additions to the squad, Ken Kane and Charlie Delahay, who both got into action Saturday night, have strengthened the team considerably. Varsity's regular forward line is a match for the two Kanes and "Weiner" Lough, but Murray, Bell and Marshall are much less effective than a three chosen from Collins, Convey, Delahay, Underwood and Beal. There is also a possibility that Harry Watson, Granite and Olympic star, who five years ago was considered to be Canada's greatest amateur hockey player, may soon get into the game with the Sea Fleas.

Varsity juniors neatly eliminated Owen Sound in the second round of the O.H.A. playoffs and will meet the survivor of the Parry Sound-Newmarket round. The Sounders took the first game 2-1 at home and the return game is at Newmarket to-night. Varsity will play at either Parry Sound or Newmarket Thursday and at the Arena Gardens Saturday.

Varsity's senior basketball team lost both its week-end games to McGill and Queen's. The Tricolour defeated the Blue 43-20, but Varsity made a much better showing against McGill, losing the game by a small margin.

Varsity women's senior basketball team are leading the city cage league with two straight wins. The Blue sextet defeated Margaret Eaton last year's champions by a 34-30 score on Friday night. This is the first time since 1927 that Varsity has been able to down a Physical Education team. Although the play was pretty close all the way Varsity had a slight edge and they should be able to pull out a win when they play their return game to-morrow on their home floor at U.T.S.

Hockey fans were disappointed to find that Saturday's T.H.L. fixture between Varsity and Toronto Ladies was called off. It was cancelled at the last minute and the managers were not notified early enough to announce it. It is not yet known when the game will be played.

M. A. A. A TRIUMPHS IN WATER POLO TILT BLUE CO-ED CAGERS ANNEX LEAGUE GAME

U. of T. Nosed Out 6-5 Here
Despite Fine Display
in Tank

GRAHAM ARMSTRONG SCORE

In the most hotly contested water polo game seen in the Hart House tank this season, Montreal Athletic Club defeated University of Toronto 6 to 5 on Saturday evening.

The game was late in starting, but the fans and fanettes were well repaid for the wait. Before the start of the game Mel Hamilton treated the crowd to an exhibition of fancy diving.

At the sound of Leo Latchford's whistle both teams were in the water and ready to go. Montreal secured possession first and were up the pool and tried out Varsity's goal keeper, but Ayres was right on his toes to make a wonderful save.

Then followed a couple of minutes of play. Suddenly Gilday of Montreal shot up the pool to score the first goal of the game. Toronto came back strong with Graham sinking a counter.

Toronto looked to be in for a win when Armstrong scored the second goal for Toronto. Then a tussle in front of the Toronto goal after the face off resulted in a penalty shot for Armstrong, whose accurate eye made sure of the third Varsity goal.

Montreal seemed to come to life after this and Gilday and Allan each scored for M.A.A.A. on some neat combination play. Period ended with the score tied, Varsity 3, M.A.A.A. 3. The period was featured by the close checking, long passing and good combination play on both sides.

The last half opened with long passing being relied upon. Neither team seemed to want to make advances. Then Montreal sunk three goals in quick succession to get a commanding lead.

But Toronto was not to be outdone and Graham brought the fans to their feet with as neat a shot as has been

Superior Defence System Is Factor in 34-30
Victory

MARGARET EATON VICTIMS

Varsity women's senior cage team defeated the Margaret Eaton sextet 34-30 in a league fixture at the M.E.S. gym Friday night. The Blue team took the lead right at the beginning and although play was very close, managed to keep out in front the whole game. The two teams played entirely different types of games. Varsity use a six man defence, all the players falling back behind centre to check on losing possession of the ball. The Blue and White broke up many plays at mid floor in this way and Louise Crouch on the front line was especially effective. M.E.S. check man for man and they worried the Varsity defence considerably, making it very difficult for the Blue guards to get the ball out to their forwards. However, Varsity's system enabled the Blue and White to protect their lead and when the rest period came they were leading 19-15.

In the second half each team scored 15 points and neither had much of an (Continued on Page 8) seen about these parts. Armstrong scored again on a penalty shot, to make the score 6 to 5. Toronto was fighting desperately and was in scoring position when the whistle blew to end the game.

Leo Latchford, the referee, was so excited that he fell in the pool, much to the delight of the crowd.

Toronto—Armstrong, Alexander, Graham, Glass, Spence, Sinclair and Ayres.

M.A.A.A.—Gilday, Thwaites, Allan, Morwood, Light, Rodger, Cornforth.

THE LAST of the SOUTH!

You'll be sad when you leave—you'll wish to live over again the joyous hours of play and lazy contentment now fading away behind you. Not least among your many happy memories will be the ease and freedom from bother you enjoyed while travelling; so much so in fact that when next year rolls round again—once more you'll wend your way to Eaton's Travel Dept.—the first step on the way to blissful sunny days.

TRAVEL DEPT.
FOURTH FLOOR
THE T. EATON CO. LIMITED

SECONDS START WELL IN INTERCOLLEGIATE

Varsity Intermediates Take Western into Camp
at Arena

SCORE IS 3-2

Varsity Intermediates defeated Western three goals to two on Friday at the Varsity Arena. Western skated on a fair team whose short passes in their combination are their best asset. Varsity had the edge on the play throughout, but neither team played good hockey.

Clute scored in the first period on a pass from Statham. Tieman for Western tied the score on a pass from Brown. In the first minute of play in the second stanza Leak scored for Varsity on a lucky shot from the defence line. Western immediately scored again when Schnarr clipped one past McCartney. Pereyina popped in the winning goal for Varsity before the play slowed up. Western could not thwart the Varsity combination and the game was slow. Graham for Varsity used some tricky stick handling, but his rushes were slow. Schnarr for Western was the hardest working man on the ice.

VARSITY SENIORS SUCCUMB

(Continued from page 1)
For Nationals, Kenny Kane, Lough and Mueller were outstanding. The first-named travelled at top speed all night and figured in two goals. The Sea Flea defence showed up well and Mueller in the nets played his usual stellar game.

Varsity—Goal, LeBar; defence, Whitehead and Pan; centre, Stewart; wings, McMullen and Harley; alternates, Bell, Murray and Marshall.

Nationals—Goal, Mueller; defence, McKay and Nugent; centre, Lough; wings, K. Kane and J. Kane; alternates, Delahay, Beal and Convey.

Referee—Jack Hemphill.

The Valentine Party held by the class of J.T. Victoria College, at Annesley Hall Friday night, provided games as well as dancing for the large crowd which attended.

In the last period an unusual incident occurred when a Western man was given five minutes for threatening one of his own team-mates.

Varsity—Goal, McCartney; defence, Graham, Smith; forwards, Clute, Statham, Leak; subs, Ferguson, Conn, Pereyina.

Western—Goal, Jewel; defence, Stewart, Sinclair; forwards, Schnarr, Brown, Armstrong; subs, Tieman, Yeandale, Patterson.

FREEMAN'S—Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
671 YONGE STREET
KI. 3270

Coming Events

MONDAY, FEB. 17

8.00 p.m.—Illustrated lecture by Miss Ethel Conway on Petra, the Rock-hewn City, in Castle Memorial Hall. Admission free.

TUESDAY, FEB. 18

O.C.P. Grads dance at Royal York. 1.30-2.00 p.m.—Rev. Stanley Russell will speak at Wymilwood. All students welcome.

5.00 p.m.—Meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. at Wymilwood.

8.15 p.m.—Joint Vic-Trinity debate in Wymilwood: "Resolved that in the opinion of this house the C.O.T.C. should still be tolerated".

8.15 p.m.—Lit. meeting for all men in University College, Junior Common Room.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19

Tag Day by International Student Service.

Annual Newman Club ball in Crystal Ball Room, King Edward Hotel. Tickets at Newman Club.

1.15 p.m.—U. of T. Liberal Club luncheon. Professor Fay will speak on "Immigration and Unemployment."

4.20—Meeting of the U.C. Players' Guild.

8.00 p.m.—Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet at Hart House pool.

8.00 p.m.—Biological Club Conversation at the Biological Building. A popular exhibit and demonstration of Biological methods and activities. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

8.15 p.m.—Meeting of the U.C. Classical Association at the Union, 79 St. George Street.

THURSDAY, FEB. 20

8.15—Combined meeting of the Victoria College and University College French Societies at the Women's Union.

FRIDAY, FEB. 21

9.30 a.m.-3.00 p.m.—Model Assembly of the League of Nations.

The care-free atmosphere of Palm Beach formed the background for the party given at Wymilwood Friday night by the 3T1 Victoria women to the men of the class. Sea-shells, properly engraved for the occasion, were interesting favours.

Favours, consisting of valentine baskets, were given at the 3T3 class party at Amesley Hall, Saturday night, and decorations followed the valentine motif. Those receiving were Professor and Mrs. Lane, and Miss Addison.

8 p.m.—Special session, Model Assembly.

9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College Arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22

9.30 a.m.-2.30 p.m.—Model Assembly of the League of Nations.

8.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

SUNDAY, FEB. 23

11 a.m.—Special service at St. Paul's conducted by Canon Cody and Sir Herbert Ames in connection with the Model Assembly.

TUESDAY, FEB. 25

8.00 p.m.—Victoria College Dramatic Society at-home in Wymilwood.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26

9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 27

8.30 p.m.—Trinity College annual conversation at the college.

FRIDAY, FEB. 28

8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.

9 p.m.—P.C.I. Ex-Students Association first annual At-Home.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6

German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig", "Ein Knopf", at Women's Union.

Nockines, Nocturnal Nuisance, Plebiscites Proposed Bier Garten

By P. A. Gardner

Nockines has returned. Seventy-five years ago, when "The Varsity" was but a diaper, Nockines used to stumble about stopping people on the way to seven-o'clock (them wuz the good ol' days) for their opinions on the current topic of least importance. We have been lucky enough to get him to resume his old position on our staff.

The original Nockines, of course, lived many years ago in Siam. Bulgarian of extraction, he was known as the Arabian Blight. Everyone knows the story of how he travelled in a shower-bath, which was not really a kitchenette at all, but an enormous sandwich board called trunk in Sanskrit. Nockines is also said to have carried a spade, which he laughingly claimed was for digging up suckers.

Nockines' query for the day is "What is your opinion of the proposed beer-garden to be erected on the premises of TeFaster College, to the furtherance of academic efforts?"

T. Towels, U.C.—"I feel that this proposal is merely a stein of the times. Now that Wycliffe is agitating for the Continental Sunday, I see no reason why there should not be a Clox-TeFaster joint effort to establish such a joint."

Rev. Bored-Quite, Dents.—"Never as long as I am Acolyte of this Mosque and Press-Agent for the Skittish Empire shall such a free-and-easy institution be—instituted in my City, by Jingo!"

Miss Fanny Frothblow, Religious Economy—"In spite of the prevalent opinion that such a proposal is foolish, I feel that it just isn't dumb. It might create just that Bohemian atmosphere for which our own coffee-shops are nobly striving."

W. K. Eaves, S.P.S.—"Why, why! Do you really think that S.P.S. men would patronize such a place? Drink beer? Not we; and if our example means anything no one will drink it—in public. Of course, in the privacy of one's own theatre, it is a different matter."

Stodd G. Ness, Vic.—"Our feeling on the matter is that a beer-garden would be quite untraditional. Tush! it would inevitably lead to trapeze-performers, ballet-dancers and other depravities. No, no, U.C. is bad enough! Let us not descend to the beer-garden. Let us line up at the Liquor Store. Youth refuses to retreat!"

Jimmy Jinks, Wycliffe—"A few short weeks ago I should have replied we as a college have replied No! and we should have clenched our teeth. But now we smack our lips. Now, with twenty years lifted from our shoulders, we are gleeful, gladsome, gay. Aye, aye, we cry, lift the beer-garden high, and let it overflow among us."

BULLETIN BOARD

LEAGUE OF NATIONS CLUB

The League of Nations Club wishes to advise delegates of the Model Assembly that owing to numbers participating in the assembly, it has been necessary to change the Friday noon luncheon at which Dr. Salem Bland will be speaking, from Hunts to the Roof Garden of the Royal York hotel. Please advise Miss Joyce Plumtre 7 North Sherbourne Street, RA. 0740, if you will be attending.

VICTORIA WOMEN

The Victoria women senior-junior dinner will be held to-night at 7 in the King Edward Hotel.

PLAYERS' GUILD

Final casting reading of Evening Play at 4 p.m. in the Women's Union to-day.

U.C. LIT.

U.C. Lit. meeting to-morrow night at 8.00 p.m. Voting for the G. O. Smith and Maurice Cody prizes. Debate: "Resolved that the University of Toronto is mildewed with discretion". Refreshments.

P.C.I. ATTENTION!

Graduates of Parkdale Collegiate asked to communicate with R. W. Anderson, 1437A Queen St. W., to have their names placed on the mailing list of the newly formed Ex-Students' Association.

BLUE CO-EDS CAGERS WIN

(Continued from page 3)
advantage. Play was faster and rather rough. With about three minutes to go Varsity lost Norma Bateman, star defence player, via the personal foul route. Jean Allen was sent on in her place and turned in a very creditable effort.

For Varsity Eleanor Sedgewick was very effective, her floor work was good and she was the high scorer of the game with 20 points. Jane Bell was outstanding for Margaret Eaton. She scored 12 points, mostly on spectacular long shots from outside the Blue defence.

Varsity—Wilma Hazlitt (4), Louise Crouch (10), forwards; Eleanor Sedgewick (20), side centre; Frances Dale, jumping centre; Norma Bateman, Honor Tett, defence; subs, Sally Ballard, Jean Allen, Edythe Peake. Margaret Eaton—Isabel Tirie (4), Gertrude Johnston (8), forwards; Jane Bell (12), side centre; Marion Tuck, jumping centre; Betty McCannan, Ruth Hamilton, defence; subs, Dot O'Neill, Margaret Woolaver, M. Ryan.

Simpson's February Sale of Spring Suits

Buy in February and save 20%

$36

March Price, $45

$31.60

March Price, $39.50

$28

March Price, $35

$23.60

March Price, $29.50

$18

March Price, $22.50

A small Deposit of 25 per cent. will Reserve any Suit in the Sale until April 1st

Third Floor

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

SCHOOL TUCKS AWAY GYMNASIUM SUPREMACY

Water Polo Curtain Raiser Provides Basis for Varsity Team

School of Science I was the winner Saturday night, of the Annual Inter-faculty Gymnastic Competition held in Hart House gymnasium. S.P.S. I was closely followed by University College, Trinity and S.P.S. II, respectively.

The competition preceded the international water polo game between M.A.A.A. and University of Toronto. The programme consisted of three events, high bar, parallel bars and an exhibition of fencing.

The intercollegiate team was picked this week and will be composed of Ivey, Heslop, E. Heslop, Jacob, Wilkinson and Johnson. The meet is in Montreal on Feb. 22nd.

Ottawa Derby Winner

Emil St. Godard, winner of the 100 mile dog derby held in connection with the Ottawa Winter Carnival, with the Chateau Laurier Gold Challenge Trophy which he won in addition to the prize of $1,000. St. Godard's time for the course of approximately 100 miles was 8 hours 13 minutes 23 seconds, creating a world's record for the 100 mile course. Earle Brydges, of Cranberry Portage, won second place from the famous Alaskan musher, Leonard Seppala, by a scant 28 seconds.

—Canadian National Railways Photograph.

OVERSEAS EDUCATION LEAGUE

under the auspices of

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE DOMINION OF NEW ZEALAND

THE GOVERNMENT OF NEWFOUNDLAND and the Departments of Education of Manitoba, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Ontario, British Columbia, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island

Organized in 1910

Seventh Annual Visit of University Undergraduates

(Including Graduates of 1929 and 1930; Normal School Students and Senior Students of certain Schools and Colleges).

SUMMER PROGRAMME, 1930

(Subject to change)

GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE (TOGETHER WITH GENEVA AND OBERAMMERGAU)

June 21st

June 29th

June 30th

June 30th—July 4th

July 4th—July 10th

July 10th—July 14th

July 14th—July 17th

July 17th—July 21st

July 21st—July 24th

July 24th—July 27th

July 27th—Aug. 11th

Aug. 11th—Aug. 17th

Aug. 17th—Aug. 23rd

August 23rd

August 30th

Sail by S.S. "MINNEDOSA" from Montreal.

Arrive at GLASGOW.

From Glasgow to St. Andrews via the Trossachs.

ST. ANDREWS.

EDINBURGH.

Grasmere (English Lake District).

HARROGATE.

YORK.

STRATFORD-UPON-AVON.

OXFORD.

LONDON.

GENEVA and OBERAMMERGAU.

PARIS.

Sail from Cherbourg by S.S. "Empress of Australia"

Arrive at Quebec.

Total Cost $535

Special provision is being made for men students to sail by the "Empress of Scotland" on May 28th from Quebec direct to Southampton, to enable them to attend the Royal Tournament at Olympia and the Aldershot Military Tattoo. On the conclusion of this Special London programme, this group will join the Undergraduates' party at St. Andrews on June 30th.

Application forms containing the usual detailed information regarding the above Tour are available at the Offices of the OVERSEAS EDUCATION LEAGUE, Boyd Building, Winnipeg, MAJOR FRED J. NEY, Honorary Organizer or HENRY BUTTON, Hon. Secretary, Eastern Division, ALDINE HOUSE, 224 BLOOR STREET WEST, TORONTO.

OVERSEAS EDUCATION LEAGUE

The VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18th, 1930

No. 85

PERMANENT COURT IS OPENING TOPIC MODEL ASSEMBLY

Professor G. M. Wrong Will Open First Session on Friday Morning, Feb. 21

WORLD TOPICS ON AGENDA

Sir Robert Falconer to Speak at Convocation Hall
Friday Evening

Professor George M. Wrong, the Acting-President of the Council, is opening the Model Assembly of the League of Nations in East Hall of University College at 9.30 a.m., Friday, Feb. 21st.

Reports on amendments to the covenant, the reorganization of the permanent court and American adherence to the court, will be discussed Friday morning.

Friday afternoon the Jewish-Arab claims in Palestine and minorities are on the agenda with the later report discussed further at the evening session in Convocation Hall with Sir Robert Falconer, Sir Herbert Ames and Dr. H. M. Tory speaking.

Saturday morning starts with the disarmament report and will discuss extrajudicial in China before the lunchcon adjournment.

Saturday afternoon the delegates will discuss the European triff truce, social and humanitarian work, the admission of Russia to the League, transit and communications, and possibly calendar reform.

ATHLETES STAND HIGH IN STUDIES

T. A. Reed Considers Sporting Activities a Benefit
Academically

"There is every reason to believe that participation in college and university athletics is not prejudicial to the attainment of high academic standing," stated T. A. Reed, when asked by "The Varsity" to give his views on the statement by officials at Columbia that university athletes obtain high academic standing as a general rule.

"Although no official statistics are kept on the matter," said Mr. Reed, "I would certainly say that the academic records of our athletes are as good on the average as those of other students. In many cases participation in some form of sport enables a student to do better in his studies than he would otherwise. A fit body means a clear mind. You probably know the Latin proverb, 'Mens sana in corpore sano.'"

"I would not care to give an opinion on the matter," stated Mr. Fennell, acting registrar, when questioned by "The Varsity" on the same subject. "As we do not keep any figures about athletic activities on the part of students, I am not in a position to say how it affects their studies."

The report referred to above from Columbia University states that out of twelve Varsity teams, the numerical average attained in examinations was 9.06, while that of the whole university was 9.45. In comparative averages, the freshman tennis team ranged highest, followed by the Varsity swimming team. Other teams which ranked higher than the general average of all students were the rifle squad and the fencing team. The basketball, rowing, track, baseball, and football teams were all below the general average.

Represent Varsity In Intercollegiate

The following are the Varsity entries in the Intercollegiate Assault:
Boxing—112, Field; 118, Rap-sey; 125, Fell; 135, Walsh; 147,
McLennan; 160, M. Wilton; 175,
Eaton; Heavy, Robinson.
Wrestling—112, Brownlee; 118,
Hilliard; 123, Harkness; 134,
Jenner; 145, Walker; 158, Smith;
174, Shute; Heavy, Tyson.
Fencing—Dunlap, Lee, Clark.

BRITAIN UNHURT BY COLE SYSTEM

Says Professor Urwick in Lecture to Social Science Department

GUNMEN ARE USELESS

"England is not deteriorating because of the Cole," said Professor E. J. Ur-wick, speaking at the Social Science Department, "nor do criminals in the States always go unpunished, but these assertions and the causes behind them are certainly signs of an upset in the proper balance of society." The principle of reciprocity which should underlie the successful working out of our social and economic life was the keynote of the lecture, and Professor Urwick pointed out that in social work to-day the development of this same principle should be the underlying aim of all social workers. It is easy to see that the gunmen of Chicago who prey upon the community and contribute nothing to the advancement and building up of its life are upsetting this balance, but the social workers who merely try to provide relief and fail to encourage their clients to give something in some way to the service of the community in which they live are also contributing to the overweighting of the scales.

Professor Urwick was introduced by Professor J. W. MacMillan of Victoria College, who pointed out that this was the Sir Charles Loch Memorial Triennial Lecture given by Professor Urwick in London, England, on January 9th before a distinguished group of social workers.

Sir Charles Loch, who died in 1922, was for thirty years secretary of the London Charity Organization Society and this Triennial Lecture founded in his memory was given first in 1927 by the Bishop of Durham and the
(Continued on page 4)

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Opinions on Larger "Varsity"

"Would an increase in the size of 'The Varsity' be justified?"
Iron Millar, IV Household Economics, University College—
"Decidedly so; I think 'The Varsity' has been excellent since Christmas."
W. West, V Medicine—
"It should be enlarged, according to the Victoria men expound on their beer theories."
D. H. Ward, IV Arts, University College—
"Very unnecessary, unless the extra material could be both educational and of interest to the student body."
I. Davidson, III Arts, University College—
"It should be enlarged, according to 'The Specialist'. Fewer wholesale houses are sending out catalogues this year."
Dr. Hetherington, Medicine—
"If 'The Varsity' is to be kept a university daily, I don't see how there would be enough news, but of course if world news is to be added, then only would an increase in size be advisable."
D. L. Griffith, I Arts, University College—
"After trying to read yesterday's Literary Issue, I should say not."
Marion Ross, II Medicine—
"What would they put in 'The Varsity' if there were a bigger issue?"
R. P. Douglas, I Medicine—
"Only if there's a heavy week-end in sports."

CAN NOT CONFIRM CHOICE FOR NEW WYCLIFFE CHIEF

Rumour Names Archdeacon
R. B. McElheran, Winnipeg, for Principalship

APPOINTMENT TENOURED

Registrar Declines to Divulge
Name of Prospective
Appointee

"There is nothing for publication," replied Mr. Burch, registrar and bursar of Wycliffe College, when he was asked by "The Varsity" for confirmation of the rumours which give the appointment of principal of Wycliffe College to Archdeacon R. B. McEl-heran of Winnipeg.
"Anything that may have been published in any of the papers regarding the appointment is mere conjecture," stated Mr. Burch. "There has been no information given out on the subject."
(Continued on page 4)

TWO ON EXCHANGE HERE FROM U.B.C.

Student Exchange Expected to be in Full Operation
by Next Year

That the Canadian student exchange arranged by the National Federation of Canadian University Students will meet with popular response among students is the opinion of A. G.
Burns, secretary-treasurer of the Men
Students' Administrative Council, although it is as yet too soon to expect actual exchanges to be taking place.
Next year will be the first real opportunity for students to avail themselves of the arrangement, since it will for the first time be in force at the beginning of the term.

At present there are two students on exchange from the University of British Columbia, taking post-graduate work at Toronto. No Toronto students have as yet, to the knowledge of A. B. Fennell, acting registrar of the university, shown indications of desiring to leave on exchange, but it is naturally expected that the movement will be toward, rather than away from, Toronto.

COMMITTEE WORK ON NEW WOMEN'S BUILDING PLANS

Optimistic As to Possibility of Sympathetic Donors Being Found

ASK STUDENT ASSISTANCE

800 Out-of-Residence Women
Will Secure Dining Facilities

That the committee for the advancement of the possibility of a women's building is optimistic and persevering was revealed in an interview with Miss Kilpatrick, Dean of University College women, and Miss Berta Hamilton, chairman of the publicity section of the committee. They feel assured that when the need is properly known and understood, donors will be found sympathetic to the cause of women students.

Four meetings have been held since the beginning of the college term, at which the requirements have been fully discussed. Such vital needs as an infirmary, gymnasium, swimming pool, Great Hall, common rooms, committee rooms, and offices for Dr.
Gordon, and for student societies,
will be cared for in the plans.

The 800 women students who are not registered in any of the colleges, and are not in residence, will be overjoyed to find that the dining room is to be solely for their use, and that in all probability the building will have the felicitous location of Devonshire Place.

When asked whether the aid of a student committee would be welcomed,
Miss Hamilton thought it would be a splendid idea if a few representatives of the women undergraduates would attend the coming meeting and offer assistance, after which it might be decided in what manner it could best be rendered.

The committee for publicity has been hard at work, and has much to report at the meeting of the committee as a whole, at Annesley Hall next week. Miss Hamilton felt that more definite statements could be given to
"The Varsity" after this meeting.

U. OF T. MENORAH WIN NORTHWESTERN DEBATE

Lorie Tarchis, Sydney Hermant and Harry Green Are Toronto Speakers

The University of Toronto Menorah
Society debating team composed of Lorie Tarchis, Sydney Hermant and Harry Green, defeated the team from Northwestern University in the annual talk between the two societies Sunday night at Chicago. The subject under discussion was: "Resolved that Judaism as an organized religion, fills the needs of the modern Jew." The Toronto team upheld the affirmative, the decision being unanimous.

ANNOUNCE RESULTS OF INTERFACULTY GYM TESTS

D. Ivey, Pharmacy I 1013
W. Heslop, S.P.S. IV 1000
E. Heslop, S.P.S. IV 909
W. Jacobi, U.C. 900
R. Wilkinson, S.P.S. 894
R. Johnson, U.C. 860

The above are the winners in the Interfaculty Gym Competition with the total numbers of points scored by each.

Examination Forms To be Filed by March 1

Students in the Faculty of Arts are reminded that applications for the annual examinations should be filed on or before March 1st. Forms of application may be obtained at the Registrar's Office, Simcoe Hall, or at the offices of the College Registrars.

WORK PRESCRIBED TO CHASE WORRIES

Women Medical Students Were a Commonplace Ten Centuries Ago

FARMERS FIND STUDY HARD

"The way to stop worry is to divert it from the track it has worn in the mind," said Dr. G. B. Porter, men's medical advisor for the university, in a talk on the problem, "Why Worry?"
to the Medical Society meeting Friday afternoon. Dr. Porter prescribed work as the best diversion for any worry.

The members of the first medical school formed in Italy in 1099 believed in an untroubled mind as a cure for health. "In this school," the speaker stated, "there were women medical students and yet we think it is a modern thing."

Dr. Porter stressed the fact that there should be a proper balance between work and exercise. The premature deaths of Sir Walter Scott and Prince Albert, Queen Victoria's cousin, he gave as examples of what overwork, worry and lack of exercise could do. "The husky, conscientious student from the country feels academic life harder than the more or less weak student who has been used to a sedentary life," he maintained.

Dr. Porter then went on to consider the increased life span of to-day.
"More people to-day have an expectation to live for 50 years than 30 years ago, due to preventive medicine but not to 100 years of age," asserted the doctor.

DISAPPROVE BAN ON FREE PRACTICE

Russian Medical System Has Little Favour in Eyes of University Doctors

STATE CONTROL IN BRITAIN

Medical men at the University of Toronto do not think that the Russian ban on private doctors is a good move.
This new law prohibits doctors in Soviet Russia from giving private treatment to patients or maintaining private offices. Patients must now obtain medical advice or treatment from state doctors.

Dr. C. H. Best, head of the department of physiology, said: "Something approaching state control of medicine, the 'panel' system, has been in vogue in England for some time. It is a sort of state insurance scheme."

"A doctor, on the state payroll, would have perhaps a thousand patients on his panel, each of whom contributes a small sum to the government and in return receives medical attention from the doctor in charge of his panel. The system has been found to be quite effective and popular. Less than one per cent of the people have asked to be transferred to another panel."

"The problem is being widely discussed here at present and undoubtedly has its points. It means that poor people receive medical aid which they
(Continued on page 4)

NO SIGN OSGOOD WILL AFFILIATE IN NEAR FUTURE

Unwillingness to Take First Step Alleged to be Hindrance

ADJUSTMENT NECESSARY

Osgoode Official Fails to See Any Advantage in Mooted Union

The affiliation of Osgoode Hall with the University of Toronto, as a possibility, has been considered at times by officials within the university, although no immediate steps are being taken towards this end, despite the fact that the recently established undergraduate course in law is admittedly the basis for graduate work in law.

"There is no immediate indication that Osgoode Hall may become affiliated with the university," Professor W. A. Mackenzie, professor of law, told "The Varsity". "The establishing of the new law course may be a step in that direction, however."

"It has been felt that there was some need of an undergraduate course in law, as the basis to the graduate course. But since there are radically different requirements for entry to graduate courses within the university and Osgoode Hall, much adjustment will be necessary before the affiliation could take place."

"As the constitution now stands," the secretary of the Law Society of Upper Canada, which administers Osgoode Hall, told "The Varsity" in a recent interview, "Osgoode has two classes of students. There are those who have served an apprenticeship in a law office, articulated to a lawyer and again there are students who are graduates of or have taken at least two years in a university."

To affiliate Osgoode Hall with the university would serve no good advantage in the opinion of this official.

"Once a man is through with university life he should be prepared to learn some of the practical things of life," he said, "and it is doubtful if the university could even confer the degree of Barrister at Law as this is conferred by Act of Parliament."

Great unwillingness on the part of high university officials and Osgoode Hall officials to take the first step is said to have hindered negotiations towards an affiliation of the two institutions.

GARLAND SPEAKS IN HART HOUSE

Alberta M.P. Will Take Part in Parliamentary Debate
February 26

J. S. GIBSON FIRST SPEAKER

The subject of the next Hart House debate, which will take place Wednesday, Feb. 26, is announced by the committee: "Resolved, that in the opinion of this house the political and economic experiments of the western provinces are not in the best interests of Canada." The Debates Committee has invited as one of its honorable guests, E. J. Garland, M.P. for Bow River, Alberta.

J. S. Gibson of Victoria College, will introduce the subject, while Vincent Webb of the Faculty of Dentistry, Lou Golden of University College, Editor of "The Varsity", and J. T. Wilson of Trinity College, will speak on the paper.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: W. S. Johnston      Assistant: J. F. Macmillan

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18th, 1930

THE LADIES!

The presence of both men and women in lectures at this university is such an every-day sight that it seldom occurs to anyone to remark it. For it has become the custom for the reputedly weaker sex to share with men almost every privilege of modern democracy, and indeed, it would seem rather remarkable to most of us now if they did not. Moreover, it has become difficult for us to realize that there was a time when Men Only was the accepted slogan. That this time is not altogether out of memory is occasionally brought to us, and particularly of late by certain writings in the biography of Sir Daniel Wilson, president of this university from 1887 to 1906, as composed by H. H. Langton, formerly university librarian.

The first ominous note of warning that University College—the University of Toronto as we know it did not come until 1887—was not always to be a masculine academy, is found in Sir Daniel's journal on February 3, 1882, when he records: "A deputation of ladies—strong-minded—bent on having the College thrown open to women, Parliament to be appealed to, etc., etc., I have had an inkling of this for some time . . . ." Later, the demands became more specific and more imperious. The following was written on September 26, 1883: "Posted to-day letters to five lady applicants demanding admission to the College. I say very decidedly No."

But the legislative assembly of the province was strongly in favour of co-education, and on March 3, 1884, decided in favour of the admission of lady students to University College. At once Sir Daniel Wilson wrote a letter to the Minister of Education protesting and outlining his attitude, and on March 12 we find in his journal this startling description of co-education: "If they now choose to force the miserable system on us, because it is cheap, I have at least freed myself from the responsibility." Later on he refers to a "clap-trap bit of popularity-hunting", with reference to the Minister of Education's endorsement of co-education. From the entries in Sir Daniel's journal it becomes evident that the admission of those whom an educational authority in 1860 called "females with a craze for higher education" was forced upon the university by political exigencies.

Sir Daniel was not alone in his objections to the admission of women to the university. The students—men—enjoyed many a feverish debate, and more than a trace of these is to be found in the files of "The Varsity". And a great controversy arose when the front cover of the then literary magazine pictured a man and a woman leaning against a column, while in the background University College was to be seen. The story is also told of a very respected and liberal-minded scholar, now recently retired, who said with great disgust in the eighties: "To think that the time has come when I should have to teach women!"

To be sure, it is by no means difficult to picture the changes which the arrival of the ladies must have necessitated in college atmosphere. Nor is it difficult to understand the opposition which arose. One can imagine the chilliness and the restraint which would settle down upon a stag smoker or a banquet in one of the 100 per cent men faculties to-day were several or more than several co-eds to be admitted. Apply this restraint and this uneasiness to a whole university, and imagine the consequences.

To-day co-education is part and parcel of the system now working at this university. It is not an old system; not more than forty years old in its strength. And yet, there are few who regret its presence, and still fewer who sigh for a return of the good old days. This is a gentler age, when an entire university team has not a good bushy dundreary to terrify and bewilder its opponents, and when a beery breath is a social stigma. What will happen next, we cannot prophesy. We seem to have achieved an equality of sexes that was visualized by Plato in his Republic centuries ago. And now that one ideal has been realized, there is another to which we may aspire? Our philosophers seem to be pampered by a singular lack of ingenuity.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

More About Beer

The Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

In your issue of Friday, Feb. 14th, there appears under the head, "Diogenes Daily Questionnaire Asks About Hart House Beer", the opinion of one, N. D. Adams, IV S.P.S. Mr. Adams, in reply to the reporter's question, "Do you think that the Ontario Liquor Board should start a beer store in Hart House?", is quoted as follows: "No, I don't think that the beer shop idea would work at all. The average man who goes to Hart House isn't the type who would patronize it." Now, Mr. Editor, I could scarcely believe my eyes when I saw such sentiments accredited to a School man. For a number of years I have heard large numbers of engineering students proclaiming that "We can, we can, demolish forty beers, drink rum, drink rum", and so on. It has always been my opinion that these were noble words and a credit to the university in general and Schoolmen in particular. But what is my surprise when I find a student of fourth year Engineering utterly repudiating the idea that any member of Hart House would inhale the foaming nut brown ale within its precincts should the facilities be provided. Mr. Adams seems to imply a reflection on the members of Hart House as he insinuates that the engulfing of the malt product would not be done by those who always do the correct thing. Now Sir, since when has the drinking of beer become a social faux pas? I am surprised that Mr. Adams should wish to set himself up as the Emily Post of Varsity.

Again has not Mr. Adams disregarded all the ancient and honorable traditions of the Engineers and is he not betraying the trust of those who elected him to the presidency of the Engineering Society? By their own admission S.P.S. students appreciate the "flowing mead" and yet their president dares to cast aspersions on one of their finest traditions. Does it not seem inevitable that they will be forced to take steps to prevent the repetition of such an action?

And last, but not least, is this not also a slight on our brothers at McGill whose magnificent feats at the "Pig and Whistle" and kindred spots have already found a place in the annals of our country?

Yours sincerely,
Laurence Dawson,
U.C. '30.

With the Theatres

UPTOWN

William Powell, the svelttest of the svelt, makes the current play on the Uptown not just another Broadway racketeer opus, but "The Street of Chance". Kay Francis is there, too, and helps. The technical work features some of the most high class faking I have seen. Really a triumph. I know those shots weren't made on Times Square, but it feels like Times Square . . . Yes, it's a good picture. There is a moral hiding somewhere, I think, but fortunately it doesn't get a sequence. Some intelligent person thought up the idea of letting William Powell die in the ambulance instead of adding an angle shot of hospital bed down left with wife emoting on counterpane and doctor and sympathetic nurse hogging the background. —A.E.F.A.

SHEA'S

The touching spectacle presented by the children of wealthy parents who insist on unrestricted circulation in the matrimonial market is held up for your edification in "The Marriage Playground". Edith Wharton gets the blame of the story. Mary Brian, Frederic March, Kay Francis, William Austin, Lilyan Tashman, and a bevy of others have been intelligently cast, but spend most of their time overacting. The children—there are a lot of them—show much better theatre sense than their elders. Either that, or they follow Lothar Mendes' direction better. Strange though it may seem, the general effect of the film is pleasing. Or perhaps one is merely put into a genial frame of mind by an unusually

CHAMPUS CAT

It is too bad that the exits are so inconvenient at the Varsity Arena. If the ice should ever catch fire we fear that a whole lot of people would come out with singed whiskers and plucked eyebrows.

C—C

When you have waded through the outgoing jam after a game you are liable to find yourself wearing odd goloshes and an overcoat belonging to a couple of other guys.

C—C

One suggestion that we would like to make is to have the management provide a little heavier padding for little Stanley's pants when he struts his stuff during the intermissions. That ice is hard.

C—C

Every time that we have felt ourselves going staler than usual in the past it has been our policy to fall back on the cheese and soup atmosphere of Hot House. Which reminds us of a remark that a professor once made from the great heights of the faculty dining room. He thought the inscription around the walls should be changed to a set of etiquette rules and table manners.

C—C

According to an unofficial count by a trusted member of our statistical department fewer people have fallen on the front campus ice this year than any other. Despite the long, hard winter the percentage is still falling, (in fact the same percentage — they make a habit of it.) The present reading is 3 per 1000 per week which amounts to 18 undergrads. 18 people averaging 125 pounds each comes to 2250 pounds per week. 2251* pounds moving through an average distance of 3 feet (counting underslung types) brings our figure to 6753 (perhaps we had better reduce) foot pounds per week—enough to break up all the ice on the campus.

After that we will go home and apply cracked ice.

C—C

*2250 + 1—(The exception that proves the rule.)

Gaspard McGuffey.

good vaudeville bill . . . But don't take your awfully clever friend.

—A.E.F.A.

PANTAGES

Hokum . . . hokum . . . hokum. Pantages reeks of it under the spell of a screen offering, brilliantly entitled "The Song of Love". But it is good hokum—effective hokum, spread on by a person of long and tried experience in the hokum industry. I like it when dear old Belle Baker brings tears to my eyes with sentimental ballads. She is one of those people who know what a sentimental ballad is for. And she gets a lot of help from a boy who is so good that he makes Davey Lee look like the season's prize blunder. Ralph Forbes loafs through the film, too—just barely managing to keep awake. There is a priceless modernized variation on the father-dear-father-come-home-with-me-now theme, right near the end. Wait up for it . . . As for the vaudeville, the Libby Dancers are extremely agreeable.

—A.E.F.A.

EMPIRE

The presentation at the Empire this week, a comedy in three acts, called "Broken Dishes" is well worth while. If you wish to know how to correct a nagging wife it will be to your advantage to see it, and in the interest of your future happiness. It is one of those domestic comedies with so many complications that one must see it to appreciate it. And all this is done without the aid of a bedroom scene! It is nicely handled by the east and the result is a complete quota of laughs. Deirdre Doyle, Marjorie Foster, and Edmund Abbey are the most outstanding of the players, although the rest of the cast are not lacking in any respect. There is a good deal of pantomime very well done.

—W.F.P.

The co-eds of the University of Virginia may be removed to another college for women alone in a nearby town.

"NICE MAN"

A lovely box for little Bright-eyes and fragrant Turrets for his own particular smoking.

20
for 25c

TURRET CIGARETTES

Mild and Fragrant

Save the valuable "POKER HANDS"

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

Summer work, backed by minimum guarantee offer, open to limited number of university men. Apply between 2 and 5, Thursday, Feb. 20, at Alumni Employment Office, 43 St. George Street.

Mc'S LUNCH

A very convenient place to eat. West side of Yonge St. Half-way between Wellesley and Maitland. Best value in city for the price, 35c. 550 YONGE STREET

Varsity Students!

Buy your Clothes Made-to-Measure Wholesale. Where? At ROYAL TAILORS Headquarters: 468 Wellington St. W. Toronto Suits $22.50 to $50.00

Tuxedo Special $24 Every Courtesy Shown

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

SOLID BLACK LEATHER

FIBRE BACK, STEEL HINGES

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

THE ART METROPOLE

Branch of THE HUGHES OWENS CO., LTD. 36 ADELAIDE STREET WEST Dealers in DRAFTING OFFICE SUPPLIES MATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENTS SURVEYING AND OTHER SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS ARTISTS' MATERIALS ZEISS MICROSCOPES LABORATORY SUPPLIES ESTABLISHED 45 YEARS

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE Teacher of Modern Dancing Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $8.00 Beginners a Specialty 12 Crescent Road at Yonge (Third Car Stop North of Bloor) Rand. 1866

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke. SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS F. E. LUKE Optometrist and Optician 167 Yonge St. (Upstairs) (Opposite Simpson's)

WESTERN TIE BLUE IN INTERMEDIATE INTERCOLLEGIATE HOCKEY

JUNIORS STRONG FOR NEXT ROUND

Enter Second Series of Play-downs Against Newmarket or Parry Sound

EXPECT TO TRIM SOUND

The Varsity junior hockey team, fresh from their two victories over Owen Sound, will tackle the winner of the Parry Sound-Newmarket play-offs in the third round of the O.H.A. race. The first game will be played on the latter's ice, with the return tilt taking place at the Arena Gardens on Saturday night, total goals on the round to decide the winner.

Barring a complete reversal of form Coach Frank Sullivan's smart Blue squad should take the Parry Sound team into camp without much trouble, although Parry Sound can be counted on to put up a real battle. Right now the Varsity youngsters are just about at the top of their form and are playing great hockey, as their victories over the strong Parkdale and Owen Sound outfits will testify. The forwards are combining well, with Sid Hetherington the main cog in the scoring machine. Don Smillie also seems due to go on a goal-getting rampage. The rearguard pair, Levinsky and Williamson, besides forming a veritable stone wall against the opposing attackers, have been doing some mighty effective rushing. Levinsky in particular seldom failing to get at least one goal per game. Captain Hunnisett, in the nets, has been taking care of any shots that come his way without much trouble, and it looks like another Blue victory unless the dope-bucket is upset.

JUNIOR U.C. EASY VICTORS OVER MEDICAL BATSMEN

Score is 14-0 in Interfaculty Baseball Game Played Yesterday

noon in an interfaculty baseball game Junior University College easily defeated Junior Meds yesterday after by the score of 14 to 0. The game was never in doubt, being nothing but a parade of U.C. batsmen.

U.C.—Tomlinson, Grant, Doherty, Gibson, Broughton, Little, Smith, Moran, Craig.

Meds—McCullough, Sheer, Charson, Stein, Conway, Stubensky, Wilcox, Bailes, Goldenberg.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF "VARSITY"

Applications for the above position will be received by the Assistant Secretary of the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils, up until 6.00 p.m., Friday, February 28th, 1930, in Room 82, University College.

MISS A. E. M. PARKES, B.A.

Assistant Secretary,

Students' Administrative Council.

The DOUBLE ADVANTAGE of a SAVINGS ACCOUNT

4%

1. Your Surplus Income earns 4% interest.

2. Your money is always easily accessible.

Chequing privileges and 4% interest on Savings Accounts

The TORONTO GENERAL TRUSTS CORPORATION

BAY AND MELINDA STREETS

WESTERN SNATCH LAST MINUTE TIE

London, Feb. 17.—Facing a 4 to 2 defeat with only two minutes of the third period left to play, the University of Western Ontario sextet rammed a pair of goals in during a 50-second drive that sent the 800 fans wild and emerged with a 4-all drawn verdict after ten minutes of scoreless overtime in an intermediate Intercollegiate group game with University of Toronto at the local arena to-night.

SR. MEDS OVERWHELM DENTAL CAGE ARTISTS

Take Crushing 30-8 Victory in Interfaculty Contest

Sr. Meds defeated Jr. Dents yesterday 30 to 8 in a basketball game which was much closer than the score indicates. With a few more breaks, the Dentists would have given Meds something to worry about. However, Meds went into the game with absolute confidence as to the outcome, and perhaps that explains why they were immune to worry.

The game opened as if both teams had insomnia. However, Sr. Meds provided the remedy, and the game soon livened up.

There is not much to choose between the Meds' seniors, all are good. Garbe and Good shared the scoring honours, each obtaining 10 points for his team. Goldenberg played brilliantly for Meds, his speedy and well-timed passes resulting in many baskets.

Dickson was perhaps the best on the Jr. Dent line-up. He scored 6 points for his team and his superb checking broke up many Med attacks. Walker and Stafford, the centre, both played well.

Sr. Meds—Garbe, Foey, Good, Scoh, McEachern; subs, Goldenberg, Lee.

Jr. Dents—Walden, Stafford, Stafford, Hopkins, Stewart; subs, Wright, Brest, Dickson.

Eight hundred co-eds at the University of Iowa smoke on an average of 40,000 cigarettes per week, a recent report indicates.

Co-eds on the campus of the University of Oregon are looking for men to build them an igloo so they may stage a dance in bathing suits, in front of the igloo.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity plays the second game of the Intercollegiate hockey series with McGill at Montreal Thursday. The Blue and the Red were tied 2-2 at the end of their game here last month so Thursday night's contest will decide the college championship. Varsity has won the Intercollegiate hockey title every year since the war. Queen's took the mug in 1914 and the University of Toronto in 1913. McGill's last championship was in 1912. Eighteen years is a long time to wait for the college title in the ice game, but if the Redshirts win on Thursday their triumph will be doubly sweet.

To pick the winner of the Varsity-McGill hook-up is a tough task. McGill looked to be about on a par with Varsity in the game they played here, but "Red" Porter's men have played much better hockey than they did on that occasion. McGill, however, have been eliminated in the Quebec Hockey Association series, which is not considered to be as strong as the O.H.A. Senior A series in which Varsity has been making a good showing. On this account alone we give Varsity an edge in mechanical ability. But Montreal ice, a home crowd and the greater incentive McGill has to win may balance matters.

The boxing, wrestling and fencing team for the Intercollegiate Assault at McGill on Friday and Saturday of this week is announced in the nearby columns. Varsity is sending a good squad to Montreal, the boxers in particular being highly favoured. Queen's is reported to have the strongest team that has worn the Tricolour in years, but they may run up against more than one snag. McGill has not been saying much, but should be able to provide some real competition.

D. Quay, Pharmacy I, captured the Interfaculty Gymnasium Meet with 1013 points. The second man, W. Heslop, S.P.S. IV, was only thirteen points behind. Varsity gym team for the meet at McGill Saturday will have a good chance of wresting the cup from McGill.

The junior O.H.A. playoffs are producing good hockey and as the finals approach they get better. Varsity, West Toronto, Niagara Falls and Kitchen appear to be the four strongest survivors, but some comparatively obscure team may come along to take the honours.

Varsity's senior women's hockey team meet Toronto Ladies Wednesday night at 7 p.m. in the Varsity Arena. This is the game which was called off Saturday night by the T.H.L. executive. The Blue team has not won a city league fixture yet, but this is the first time they have come up against the Orange and Black sextet so the result should be interesting.

The interfaculty hockey schedule is just about played out and by the end of this week the winners of both groups will be decided. In group A, Victoria firsts are tied with Saint Hilda's, due to their strong finish when Norma Bateman, of intercollegiate fame, was added to their line-up. This deadlock will be played off when the eligibility of certain players has been decided. The winners of group B have not been decided yet as many games have been postponed through lack of ice.

Dr. Edith Gordon, medical advisor for women, informed "The Varsity" last night that Norma Bateman of Victoria has not obtained permission to play interfaculty hockey and is therefore not yet eligible to play. The Scarlet and Gold used Miss Bateman in their last game with St. Hilda's and by winning it, tied with the Saints for first place.

Norma Bateman has played intercollegiate hockey for the last two years, but this season decided to make basketball her game, thus becoming ineligible for Varsity hockey. It is very seldom that a girl is allowed to play both intercollegiate and interfaculty sport at the same time, and the question of this player's eligibility brings up another matter.

Although Victoria will be very unfortunate if Norma Bateman cannot be used, Saint Hilda's have already lost their three best players to the intercollegiate. Margot Thompson and Betty Carter to the hockey team and Sally Ballard to the basketball team. They are greatly weakened by the loss of these three, and if Miss Bateman is declared eligible to play for Vic, there doesn't seem much ground for refusing the Saints the right to play their three stars. There appears very little difference in a girl playing both intercollegiate and interfaculty hockey, as would be the case for Betty Carter and Margot Thompson, than in playing intercollegiate basketball and interfaculty hockey as Miss Bateman wishes to do. At any rate, if Vic are allowed to play Norma Bateman, St. Hilda's can hardly be refused permission to use Sally Ballard. Both girls are on the senior cage team and both would be distinct assets to their interfaculty hockey teams.

The senior cage team takes on the Margaret Eaton sextet to-night at 7 p.m. on the Blues' floor at U.T.S. The Blue and White girls defeated M.E.S. on Friday night by a four point margin and they should do even better to-night in their own gym.

HOPE WOMEN SWIMMERS TO SET NEW RECORDS

Hart House Pool Is Scene of Women's Interfaculty Championships

At the Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet at Hart House pool to-morrow night, the judges will include the president, vice-president, and secretary of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association, so that if any records are made by Varsity women, they may be recognized. Judging from the line-up of entrants, including Miss Margot Macdonald, last year's winner, Miss B. Symons, who was one point behind Miss Macdonald, Miss Betty Edwards, a U.C. freshe, and Miss Rocks Vanstone, winner of the Vic meet this year, it looks as if the officials may have something to record.

retary of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association, so that if any records are made by Varsity women, they may be recognized. Judging from the line-up of entrants, including Miss Margot Macdonald, last year's winner, Miss B. Symons, who was one point behind Miss Macdonald, Miss Betty Edwards, a U.C. freshe, and Miss Rocks Vanstone, winner of the Vic meet this year, it looks as if the officials may have something to record.

THE OFFICIAL

VARSAITY BLAZERS

FOR MEN AND WOMEN

will be on sale shortly

STANDARD SIZES

PRICE $11.00

Sample is displayed in the office of the Students' Administrative Council, Hart House.

PLACE YOUR ORDER EARLY

THE HAROLD A. WILSON
COMPANY LIMITED
299 YONGE STREET AT DUNDAS STREET TORONTO

VARSAITY EXPECTS B. W. & F. SUCCESS

Fell, Wilton and McLennan Are Good for Points in Their Boxing Classes

SURPLUS OF WRESTLERS

The University of Toronto will be well represented at the annual Intercollegiate Assault-at-Arms to be held at McGill on Friday and Saturday. Under the efficient tutelage of Jimmy Jackson the boxers are putting the finishing touches on their work and acquiring the needed stamina. All the boys are good but Fell, Wilton and McLennan seem to be the fastest of the lot. These three lads are pure stylists and while this might count against them in the professional ring it is all in their favour in a collegiate assault.

Cliff Chilcott, of Olympic fame, and Instructor Martin, are pounding ring tactics into the wrestlers. Tyson will probably wrestle in the heavyweight class where he was so successful last year. Campbell of Dents is doing fine work in the 145 lb. division while Don Smith, a newcomer, is leading the 158 pounders. There are so many top-notchers in the wrestling section that a final decision regarding the team has not yet been made. In any case these grapplers should give a good account of themselves.

Lee, Dunlap and Clark will form the fencing team which is being relied upon for five points. They are all veterans and have proved their ability in former years, so that their part will be well played.

Prophesying is a poor business, but as no one on the team seems worried it is very likely to be another gala

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

259 College St. TRINITY 6987
Harry Winfield, Prop.
CIGARS - MAGAZINES
Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries
Name your city
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Lending Library.

"Constable always said 'Observe that thy best guide is nature,' and he followed it rigorously," said J. E. H. Macdonald, principal of the Grange, in his Friday afternoon lecture. "He takes us to the very background of rural nature," he continued. "He admired Rembrandt and like him, took nature for his inspiration."

Constable was born in 1776 and in 1799 became a student at the Royal Academy in London. In 1802 Constable's name appeared in the catalogue of the Royal Academy for the first time. Several years later he was elected an associate and in 1830 was made a full member of the Academy.

Some of Constable's best known pictures are "Boat-building", "The Mill Stream", and "The White Horse". The latter he sold for 500 pounds; a few years later it sold for 31,000 pounds.

Intramural debating teams at the University of Colorado this year will discuss the topic, "Resolved that the adoption of companionate marriage would be a benefit to society."

Kansas City is planning a municipal university to be known as the Kansas City University.

year for our B. W. and F. team, but in any event we will have reason to be proud of this extremely competent squad.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
671 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

Coming Events

TUESDAY, FEB. 18
O.C.P. Grads dance at Royal York.
1.30-2.00 p.m.—Rev. Stanley Russell will speak at Wymilwood. All students welcome.
4.00 p.m.—Tuesday tea for U.C. women, in the Dean's room, 79 St. George St.
5.00 p.m.—Meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. at Wymilwood.
8.15 p.m.—Joint Vic-Trinity debate in Wymilwood: "Resolved that in the opinion of this house the C.O.T.C. should still be tolerated".
8.15 p.m.—Lit. meeting for all men in University College, Junior Common Room.
WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19
1.30—Prayers in Hart House Chapel. Tag Day by International Student Service.
Annual Newman Club ball in Crystal Ball Room, King Edward Hotel. Tickets at Newman Club.
1.15 p.m.—U. of T. Liberal Club luncheon. Professor Fay will speak on "Immigration and Unemployment."
4.20—Meeting of the U.C. Players' Guild.
5.15—Professor John Baillie on "Is Not Humanism a Sufficient Religion?" In the Music Room, Hart House. All men students cordially invited.
8.00 p.m.—Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet at Hart House pool.
8.00 p.m.—Biological Club Conversation at the Biological Building. A popular exhibit and demonstration of Biological methods and activities. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

P. Leone

BARBER BEAUTY SHOPPE
BRANCHES

366 Bloor W. Kl. 6551
340 Bloor W. Kl. 6213
Medical Arts Bldg. Kl. 1211
340 BLOOR ST. WEST

Shoe Shine Parlor
Hats Cleaned and Blocked
The favourite Shoppe of the students, both men and women.

The Official Varsity Crest—

Is made in various ways

Pin (only): Pin with year guard; Bar Pin; Split Shank Ring; Signet Ring, sapphire set; Seal Ring, raised crest, no stones; Seal Ring, sunken crest for sealing, no stones; Waldemar Drop (a tiny gold medallion for Waldemar watch chain).

The rings may be made in 14 kt. or 18 kt. White and Green Gold at slight additional cost if desired.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
HART HOUSE, TORONTO

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest

Secretarial Training —in your spare time

During the winter months, why not make use of a little of your spare time between lectures?

Full or part time, mornings or afternoons, every day or on special days, we provide individual instruction on subjects necessary to secretarial training.

For further information telephone Kl. 5588, or write,

The Gregg College

"Toronto's model school for Gregg Shorthand and Secretarial subjects."

Bloor and Bay Sts.

Toronto

COLLEGIANA

By G. G. B.

"The Student's Inferiority Complex," by Assistant Attorney General Oscar A. Brown of Cleveland, will be given at the vesper service at 4.30 p.m. at the Student Centre.
Ohio State Lantern.

This is the very first time that we ever heard of such a thing.

DEBATERS COP FORENSIC CHAMPIONSHIP
Washington Daily.

We wonder the story does not read "Washington Gas Boys knock opponents for a raw of ash cans."

He probably will be sent to an insane hospital. It is believed the youth, high in all his cholaric standings, studied so hard he became demented.
Dalhousie Gazette.

And so he shot his father and mother in a fit of "choler."

ANNOUNCE RECENT FACULTY LECTURES
Daily Cardinal.

Are you going to Hamilton with me last week?

At the age of nineteen he married a wealthy widow of thirty-three, who had previously been married to a man of sixty. She mothered Rumford and ruled him completely.
McGill Daily.

And this was a great scientist. Ye Gods! Have brainy men no brains?

FOUND
A ring in the girls' washroom. Apply to Bill Gentleman.
McGill Daily.

Who was the last one to have a bath?

K.U. INSTRUCTOR TO DESIGN NURSERY FOR OHIO CHILD
Daily Kansan.

What things these university people do nowadays!

Several fraternities, through their representatives at the council meeting Wednesday, indicated their intentions to continue the "throat slashing" but denied yesterday that they would go through with the threat.
Minnesota Daily.

Oh! These fraternity initiations!

BULLETIN BOARD

JOINT MEETING
There will be a joint meeting of the India Groups, on Wednesday, 19th, at 4 p.m. in Miss Kilpatrick's room, 79 St. George St., 4-5, tea; 5-6 talk by Dr. J. M. Waters of central India. All group members and their friends welcome.

VIC-TRINITY DEBATE
The following will speak on the paper at the Victoria-Trinity debate: for the affirmative, E. J. Toill, '31 Victoria, and Miss Margaret Bonis, '31 Trinity; for the negative, R. H. Looseman, Trinity, and Miss Ruth Sparling, Victoria. Any person is welcome to speak to the question from the floor. Refreshments will be served.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB
Those members wishing to get the Press Club pin will grasp the grand opportunity by handing in some contribution for the next meeting. Short stories will be read and other mss. held over for careful perusal by the executive.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD
This afternoon at 4.20 Miss Helen Musson will present "Bimbo the Pirate" by Booth Tarkington at the U.C. Players' Guild. The cast will include Miss Ruth Haldenby, Stanley Ryerson, Victor Wynbourne and Sidney Hermant.

WOMEN SWIMMERS
Final practice and elimination for the Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet, to be held at Hart House pool to-night. All entrants please meet at the Hall Porter's desk at 7 sharp.

ADDRESS AT WYMLWOOD
From 1.30-2.00 to-day in Wymilwood, both men and women students of any faculty will have the opportunity of hearing one of Toronto's new and eminent preachers, Rev. Stanley Russell, now of Deer Park United Church, came here from London, England, this fall. He is a forceful and understanding speaker as all who come will discover. This talk will be followed by three more—on February 21, 25 and 28.

U.C. CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION
The place of the February meeting of the U.C. Classical Association has been changed and the association will meet to-morrow evening at the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street, as the guests of Professor and Mrs. Tait. The papers, given by the second year, will be "Characterization in Plantus and Terence," read by Miss Constance Hinds, and "The Sophists Idea of Education as Portrayed in 'The Clouds,'" read by Mr. Hill.

U. C. WOMEN
Hockey game for second team on Tuesday 5-6 at Vic. Everyone out on time.

HART HOUSE ELECTIONS
The library committee of Hart House yesterday afternoon elected John Brebner, Meds, and T. O. V. Wilson, Meds, to serve on next year's committee. These two men will not have to forego the anxiety and expense of an election campaign. There are four or five present members who will be seeking re-election on March 5th.

MUSICALE TICKETS
Representatives from the various colleges and faculties are requested to call at the Warden's office on Wednesday, 19th February between 12.30 and 1.30 p.m. for their allotment of tickets for the Sunday Evening Concert on 23rd February.

JUNIOR HOCKEY
Practice Tuesday night at 6.30.

TAG DAY TO-MORROW
Support the Tag Day to-morrow for International Student Service, organized by the Student Christian Association with the support of the Menorah Society and the S.A.C.

U. OF T. LIBERAL CLUB
Professor C. R. Fay will speak at a luncheon in the North Common Room at Hart House, Wednesday, at 1.15. His subject will be "Immigration and Unemployment." As the reservation is limited, tickets at 60c, should be obtained from a member of the executive to-day in the Music Room between 12 and 2 p.m. or else at the luncheon.

*Why Not Spend 43 Days
and $424.25
and See
These Places
Next Summer?*

A SPECIAL ALL STUDENT TOUR

Arranged and directed by

THE NATIONAL FEDERATION OF CANADIAN UNIVERSITY
STUDENTS

Sailing via Canadian Pacific

Phone TR. 5036, S.A.C. Office Hart House, and have folder mailed to you.

SCOTLAND

ENGLAND

BELGIUM

HOLLAND

FRANCE

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

Kl. 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

BRITAIN UNHURT BY DOLE SYSTEM STATES URWICK

(Continued from page 1)

second—this year—by Professor Urwick.

After the lecture a reception was held at the Social Science Building, 45 St. George Street, when Professor and Mrs. Urwick received.

REFUSES TO CONFIRM WYCLIFFE APPOINTMENT

(Continued from page 1)

Mr. Burch did admit that the appointment had been tendered but intimated that there could not possibly be a reply before Wednesday of this week.

Mr. Burch refused to disclose the name of the appointee because he and others present at the meeting of Friday last, at which the appointment had been made, were bound to secrecy until the acceptance of the appointment was certain.

Communications were not done by telegraph, but in writing, so that there would be no possible means for the information to become known prematurely.

"We are keeping quiet in this matter in fairness to the man we appointed," was Mr. Burch's concluding remark.

An interview was attempted with Dr. Taylor, acting principal of Wycliffe College, but the interview was refused.

TORONTO MEDICAL MEN APPROVE FREE PRACTISE

(Continued from page 1)

otherwise could not afford.

Those opposing the system claim that it would tend to destroy initiative on the part of the doctors as they would have no competition from others in the profession.

"I think that in the dim and distant future there will be partial state control in Canada, and I think it would be a good thing, but I certainly hope that no such state of affairs as that

TORONTONENSIS BOARD
The Torontonsensis board picture will be taken at Park Bros. studio, Wednesday, Feb. 19th at 2 p.m. All representatives are eligible.

WATER POLO TICKETS
Will all those having ticket returns for water polo make them to the athletic office to-day.

RENT A VARSITY TUXEDO

For a perfect fit and comfort

Over 200 New Suits To Choose From

Varsity Cleaners & Dyers

519 YONGE ST.

Kingsdale 6280

$2.00 Rate to Students

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

253 Bloor Street West
Near Argus Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology, etc.
Open daily, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

in Russia will ever come to pass here."

H. D. Branion, senior fellow in biochemistry, stated: "I do not think the Russian system would ever work out here. There would be objections from both doctors and people."

"It would not be fair for good doctors and poor doctors to get the same amount of work."

"The doctors here do a lot of free work as it is. They treat hundreds of patients from whom they receive nothing, and when they do get one who can pay, they charge him what they think he can afford. I think that is the case pretty nearly everywhere."

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19th, 1930

No. 86

Deciding Vote of Chairman Favours C.O.T.C. in University

Mover of Resolution Stresses Nations Necessity of Preparedness

INTOLERABLE SAYS ONE

Russia, Turkey and Mexico
Mentioned as Sources of International Strife

The motion that the C.O.T.C. should be tolerated was sustained by the deciding vote of the chairman, Harold Day of Victoria College, at a combined meeting of the Victoria and Trinity Literary Societies held at Wymilwood last night.

"It is contrary to the highest ideals of this university to tolerate such an organization as the C.O.T.C.," was the startling statement of Miss Ruth Sparling of Victoria College, in her impressive plea to abolish the latter from the university course of studies.

"A university, as an institution has been, and is, international in character. It stands as a promoter of international goodwill," she stated. "In view of the fact that knowledge such as the C.O.T.C. imparts to its students has done its best to weaken bonds between men from the very beginning, it is hard to understand that the university tolerates the C.O.T.C.," said the speaker. "For knowledge of science, philosophy and other studies, we are indebted to other countries, hence the universities of the world should be known as a brotherhood of letters, and should be a great force in bringing about the peace of the world."

"I believe students will never use the training received in the C.O.T.C." (Continued on page 4)

QUEEN'S HALL HOLDS ANNUAL CLASS DINNER

Lady Falconer and Miss Kilpatrick Were Guests of Honour

DANCING FOLLOWS

The annual Junior-Senior dinner, at which Lady Falconer and Miss Kilpatrick were guests of honour, was held last night at Queen's Hall. In addition to the ninety-eight girls who live in the residence the juniors of last year, who are now living elsewhere, were invited as guests.

The dining room was decorated by the junior year to represent a Japanese scene with picturesque rickshaws and pagodas silhouetted against a black background. The Oriental effect was also carried out in the table decorations and the toast lists. Miss Minerva Sinclair made a charming toastmistress and welcomed the guests of the evening.

Lady Falconer was kind enough to speak in reply to the toast to "Our Alma Mater," proposed by Miss Mildred Thompson, while Dr. J. G. Wright, Dean of Queen's Hall, replied to the toast to the alumnae, proposed by Miss Neva Webster.

After the toast to the seniors was proposed the fourth year gave their mournful, dismal wail. Miss Grace Macaulay, head girl of Queen's Hall, then spoke a few words in praise of the work done by the third year and said she was sure they would be able to fill the places the seniors would leave behind them.

After the dinner, the third and fourth years held a dance which proved to be a success. Miss Frances Dale won the lucky number prize by drawing the number thirteen.

Students' Talking Annoys Professor

"I'll not lecture any longer," said W. A. Parks, head of the geology department, leaving his 12 o'clock first year general science lecture yesterday at 12:45 in considerable annoyance.

"You come down and see me immediately, and I'll not hesitate to make it hard for you, to set an example, either," he added, to a student in the back row of the gallery, whose talking caused the interruption. Whether the culprit made an appearance afterwards is a matter of doubt.

This will be remembered as the second such interruption of a general science lecture this year.

AUTHORITIES CHECK DEBTS OF STUDENTS

Withholding of Pseudonyms Is Final Lever to Exact
Fees

MIGHT REFUSE DEGREE

Undergraduates at the University of Toronto must pay their debts at least once a year. All outstanding fees not paid by March first must be paid at the time of payment of the final examination fee, according to information given "The Varsity" by Miss A. T. MacGillivray of the University Registrar's office.

According to Miss MacGillivray a very close check is kept of the fees owing to the university by students. Any fines incurred through the breach of library rules on the loaning of books, are collected by the bursar at the time of the payment of the examination fee. Any damage done in laboratories or fines assessed by the caput on members of the various faculties or of residences, must be settled for at the final reckoning of March 1st.

"Sometimes there are people who forget or even choose to leave their fees hang over to a date later than March first. In this case they are charged an additional dollar 'late payment' fee. The check up here comes at the time of the giving out of the pseudonym."

"If there are any fees or fines due, a note is made opposite the person's pseudonym, and he or she must arrange payment with the bursar before we will give out the pseudonym," said (Continued on page 4)

STUDENTS ORGANIZE PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The undergraduates in Psychology have organized the "University of Toronto Psychology Club", and have extended the membership to the undergraduates in the honour course and to members of the staff.

K. H. Rogers, lecturer in the Department of Psychology spoke on "Opportunities for Graduates". In a humorous manner the speaker expressed some clear-cut ideas of interest and value to prospective psychologists. "There is no course of training that makes a better basis for any line of study," said Mr. Rogers. "It is a subject worthy of support and respect, and most essential to students engaged in social service work, theological studies, nurses' courses, and teachers' courses. The public school clinic also offers opportunities for personal work in the line of Psychology," he continued.

Miss D. Kilpatrick presided at the social hour spent in good fellowship round the open fire.

WEDNESDAY MAR. 5TH IS DATE ANNOUNCED FOR H. H. ELECTIONS

System of Election Allows Representation of All Faculties

NOMINATIONS FRIDAY

Election of Debates Committee to Take Place at Last Debate

The elections for the standing committees of Hart House, the House, Hall, Library, Music, Billiard and Sketch Committee, will take place by ballot in Hart House on Wednesday 5th March. Nominations will be accepted from 9 a.m. on Friday next, 21st February, until 6 p.m. on Wednesday, 26th February. Nomination forms, which must be completed with the name, address and signature of the nominee, as well as of his mover and seconder, can now be obtained at the Warden's office. Names will appear on the ballot paper in order of the receipt of nominations at the Warden's office. No member may hand in more than one nomination form at a time.

Nominations for the Camera and Squash Raquets Committee will be received within the same period as those for the other committees and the elections will be held at a meeting of all those interested in the activities of these two committees in Hart House at 5 p.m. on Thursday, 6th March.

The elections will be held on the same system as last year. With a view to giving the smaller faculties and colleges a chance of representation on the committees the candidate from each faculty or college receiving the highest number of votes (provided this number is two hundred or over) is declared elected before a second man from any one faculty or college is declared elected. However, this rule does not apply in the case of candidates from any faculty or college which is already represented on the committees by either or both of the two men re-elected each year from and by the old committee.

The election of the Debates Committee will take place at the last debate of the session on Wednesday, 26th February.

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire On Women Debaters in H.H.

"Do you think women should be allowed to take part in the Hart House debates?"

W. F. Arnold, III Arts, University College—
"Why not? Women who take part in debates are of such a type that they would not take your mind from the debate in the slightest degree."

Marjorie Adams, I Arts, University College—
"I don't think women should take part in boys' debates."

W. B. Mann, III English and History, Trinity College—
"If women think they have sufficient ability to take part in debates, they have my permission, if it means anything."

Ena Harrington, IV Arts, St. Michael's College—
"Women have their own debating society and should keep to it."

Isobel Klein, I Arts, University College—
"Debates should represent the university as a whole and should not be limited to men."

A. G. Heakes, II Commerce and Finance, University College—
"No, we don't want it to degenerate in an atmosphere of tea."

R. J. Greer, II Commerce and Finance, University College—
"Great if women could get in, it would sort of bring in good ideas."

R. E. Whiting, IV Chemistry and Mineralogy—
"Hart House is a purely male institution and women should keep out as long as it remains so."

BIOLOGISTS TO EXHIBIT WONDER OF NATURE

Students of All Faculties Are Invited to Attend Remarkable Displays

The Biological Conversation to be held in the Biology Building this evening will offer a unique opportunity for students of all faculties and courses to observe the more interesting phases of biological work. Exhibits will include the display of living animals of all sizes, from the amoeba up.

A slide containing a tiny living water flea will be projected on the screen, magnified over a hundred times; every movement of its internal organs will be plainly visible. The mechanism of heart action will be seen in an actual beating heart, and the coursing of the blood through the smallest capillary vessels can be observed in the web of a living frog's foot under a microscope.

Fisheries work will be explained, including a demonstration of the proper way to cook the latest thing in iced fillets. Microtome technique, the art of cutting slices of steak one thousandth of an inch thin will also be on display. The Biological Club has extended a cordial invitation to everyone interested.

WILL IMPROVE LIGHTING IN HART HOUSE LIBRARY

Brighter Lights May Interfere
With Slumbers of Sleepless Students

No more will sleepers find it so easy to slumber in the luxurious Hart House Library chesterfields for, alas, they will have to adjust themselves to new and brighter conditions. No longer will a soft dull glow of lights and shadows lull them into slumberland, for the lighting system in the library is to be radically changed.

Those of the students who make use of the library for its primary purpose of reading will appreciate the new changes outlined by W. R. Cowan, assistant controller of Hart House, which are soon to take place.

The lighting in the library is to be improved by installing a new type of bulb in all fixtures. Alterations are also to be made to all the reading lamps in the room so that these will be more readily adjustable to the readers' requirements and will not get out of order as frequently as at present.

U.C. LIT. VOTED UNIVERSITY "MILDEWED WITH DISCRETION"

A Correction

The statement, "Miss Hamilton thought it would be a splendid idea if a few representatives of the women undergraduates would attend the coming meeting and offer assistance," which appeared in the story on the Women's Building in yesterday's "Varsity" is a misrepresentation. When interviewed by "The Varsity" again yesterday Miss Hamilton of the Department of Social Service, said it should read, "I feel sure the committee would welcome any evidence of undergraduate interest in the project which affects all university women, and if you like, I will bring the matter up at the meeting next week."

In the conversation the possibility of having a beauty parlour in the building was mentioned. When Miss Kilpatrick was approached she agreed with Miss Hamilton.

FAITH ALL SAYS PASTOR IN TALK AT RESIDENCE

The Rev. Stanley Russell in First of Noon Hour Talks at Wymilwood

"Religion and life are identical, the former is just a point of view from which we handle all our dreams, ideals, and ambitions," stated Rev. Stanley Russell in the first of a series of noon hour talks held in Wymilwood yesterday. "Religion is the exploration of life with a particular aspect of mind directing all you do."

The opinion that what one believes is of little consequence, was refuted by Rev. Mr. Russell, who said: "What you believe determines what you live. Consciously or unconsciously everyone is living by faith, which is a deduction from facts, a simple argument from things you don't know to things you do. Evolution is a deduction from facts; it is a faith."

There has been a consistent universal belief in three factors, God, Prayer and Immortality, and although there is a slight difference in the nature of the belief, the fundamentals remain the same.

In closing Mr. Russell said: "Religious faith is so universal and persistent that we are bound to ask what it is, what it says, and what it means to us."

WHEN IS AN EDITOR NOT AN EDITOR?

Position of College Editor
Annulled by Senate Committee

Special to "The Varsity"
Minneapolis, Minn.—The action of the Senate Committee on Student Publications at the University of Minnesota is assuming control of all student publications has resulted in an extraordinary situation here. Balloting for the Managing Editorship of the Minnesota Daily had been completed and Harry Atwood elected, when E. E. Nicholson, Dean of Student Affairs, rose and stated that the Senate Committee would assume the charge of all publications.

It has developed that this is tantamount to the abolition of the Board in charge of Student Publications, and the abrogation of the editorial appointment. Thus Atwood, after having published a statement of his policy, finds that he is not editor after all.

Meantime, a recommendation has been made to the powers that be by a faculty committee, that financial support be withdrawn from the "Daily" on the ground that it does not properly represent student opinion.

Professor Decries Corrupting Influences of the Fatal Blight

"USELESS LATIN" SCORED

Leo Malania and M. B. Gelber
Awarded Shield for Public Speaking

That "mildewed with discretion" is a fitting description of the University of Toronto was the decision given by an overwhelming vote last night when a meeting of the University College Literary and Athletic Society debated on the resolution "that the University of Toronto is mildewed with discretion."

Brilliant assistance was given to the negative side in a speech by Professor J. S. Will of the French Department, who staged a strong offensive against the corrupting forces of mildew. "Every man in a university has not only the right to dissent; it is his business to dissent. The moment that assent takes the place of dissent that moment does the university become covered with mildew," he said. He told of the ways that each of the parts of a university might become infected with the fatal blight.

Opening the case for the affirmative Laurie Tarsish remarked, "The very fact that the university has waited for over a century to consider the abolition of the first year of the pass course shows that she is mildewed with discretion." The "useless" Latin on the entrance requirements he saw as further evidence of the same sad condition. Going on he said, "The Board of Governors have unconsciously or not decided upon a course that makes the university mildewed with discretion."

Speaking first for the negative Leo (Continued on page 1)

VIC. WOMEN'S ASSN. HOLD MASS MEETING

Movement Is Afoot to Reform
Student Organization
Says Miss Girvan

CHANGES PROPOSED

"This is a movement for the reform of student organization at Victoria College in which every woman undergraduate should be vitally interested," said Miss Lois Girvan, president of the Women's Undergraduate Association of that college in answer to "The Varsity's" inquiries regarding the mass meeting which the association is holding on Thursday to consider proposed changes in the present system of organization. Copies of the suggested constitution are now procurable at the library desk and it is hoped that the women will familiarize themselves with its contents before attending the meeting. "The new proposed Victoria College Union," Miss Girvan continued, "is the result of combined investigations by the Royal Commission of the Victoria College Students' Parliament and the Special Committee of the Women's Undergraduate Association. Its chief aim is to provide opportunity for closer co-operation between the men and women and is based on the principle of responsible government. It provides a sounder financial basis for college activities and a more efficient system of representation on the S.A.C. With such vitally important business in hand it is hoped that every woman student will feel "Daily" on the ground that it does not properly represent student opinion. Thursday mass meeting."

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Campus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor—G. J. Northrup

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19th, 1930

THIS BUSINESS OF BEER

With a view to tightening up the enforcement of the Liquor Control Act the Ontario Government proposes to restrict the issue of permits. No one living at home, between the ages of 21 and 25 will be allowed to have a permit without his or her parents' consent. At the same time, a violent controversy is raging through the correspondence columns of "The Varsity" as to the advisability of having beer on sale in Hart House.

Doubtless the amendment has been put forward with a view to carrying out the pledge of the Ferguson administration to enforce the L.C.A. more strictly. We are inclined to think, however, that the proposition will defeat the ends which it is supposed to serve. To deny the right to hold a liquor permit to men who have reached their majority seems unnecessarily stringent. Moreover, it is likely to lead to a recurrence of all the evils which prevailed under a system of complete prohibition. It has ever been true of men that to break a law was not as serious a misdemeanour as to break a code of honour. The law which says "thou shalt not" is far more likely to be infringed than one which says "thou mayest". In the enlightened state, law is not so much a matter of denial as it is of control. To regulate the community, not to tyrannize over it, is the business of the government.

It will be argued that most of those who live with their parents may avail themselves of the family liquor permit or permits. The amendment does not apply to those living alone. Nevertheless, the mere act of discrimination, the resulting feeling of inferiority, will inevitably arouse the spirit of rebellion. Denial of the full rights of citizenship to those who are 21 or over is a retrograde step. It can only encourage infractions of the law. Just as it is now in the States, it will become a social obligation to provide drinks on every occasion.

As for the cry for beer in Hart House, there is little likelihood of such a move being warranted by the authorities, which removes it from the sphere of practical politics to that of academic debate. We would certainly not advise candidates for the hall committee to make the securing of beer a plank in their election platform. Under the present system, those who are of age and desire to obtain beer or other drinks can do so at the nearest liquor store. But it is not necessary to serve it as an adjunct to Hart House meals, or to make it available within the walls of the building.

Objections may be raised on the ground that students in residence are denied the privilege of drinking, unless they are offered the hospitality of friends who live in the city. But do they really want to drink? As a matter of fact, the large majority of students who imbibe, imbibe because their friends do so.

Which brings us to a consideration of the effects, beneficial or otherwise, of drinking. Taken in moderation, beer is a nutritious and refreshing beverage. Beer and light wines have long been accepted as embellishments on the English and continental meal. With due attention to the old maxim, "Enough is as good as a feast", they will have no enervating effect.

At the present time the campus and indeed the whole country, following the tendency of the republic to the south of us, is producing more and more of the wind-bag type of orator. It is remarkable how long such people can stand on their feet and talk without saying anything. That they are so proficient without previous priming causes us to shudder at the thought of what they might accomplish in the way of longevity, if they were provided with liquid nourishment. This alone is sufficient reason for withholding the privilege of beer et al on the campus at present.

WORTH SUPPORT

The Tag Day in aid of the Bulgarian students that is being held to-day is truly worthy of student support. The Bulgarian university people are in need of the fundamentals of sustenance and the International Student Service is doing noble work towards alleviating their wants. The mites given to the taggers when piled up will go a little way towards the strengthening of the helping hand.

Art and Drama

Sketch Room

The annual exhibition of the members of Hart House now on view in the Sketch Room is attracting well-earned attention. It is outstanding in point of quality as well as quantity and easily surpasses similar exhibits of members' work in recent years.

The work consists on the one hand of numerous small landscapes ranging in technique from the conventional photographic representation of W. H. Wright to the vivid built up impressionistic compositions of Dr. F. G. Banting, who is obviously still at one with his friend A. Y. Jackson; and on the other hand, of studies mostly of the female figure, nude and draped, in colour and in pencil. Such, in general, with the exception of the admirable supplementary and contrasting display of Hart House posters collected by the Sketch Committee and hung in the annex to the Sketch Room, comprises the present exhibit.

In particular, the nude female figure done in oils by W. S. Funnell, is of genuine merit. The plastic quality brought out by truthful colouring and delicate play of light and shade is rendered convincing by a deft draftsmanship and knowledge of proportions lacking to some degree in most of the figure work of the less experienced craftsmen hung elsewhere on the walls. The unconventional and at first somewhat startling outdoor background of green, blue and grey in, perhaps, after all a peculiarly effective setting for this weeping-in-the-wilderness figure who unconsciously hides her face in a mass of brown hair and unknowingly creates a mood that will catch the more penetrating observer. The other nude of a more sensuous quality by the same artist, is an interesting study in roundness of form. The black and white design of the fantastic dancer of the caves by Bochner is interesting evidence of originality that is always welcome. The female figure by Sims and the male figure by Friedman on the west wall are of questionable excellence, the former is very pleasing in line, but the waist, perhaps, tapers in too much, the latter has fair proportions, but presents a laboured awkwardness. Friedman has an excellent head of H. G. Wells elsewhere on the walls, done in pencil from a copy, which shows him at his best. The figure work of H. Swayze is worthy of note as is also the erect nude by Helwig. The torso of this well-built figure displays a keen artistic appreciation of the anatomy of the human body which many of the other younger exhibitors of similar subjects do not possess. Aside from a certain stiff quality, Helwig, the writer believes, should be encouraged to continue his work. Likewise the figure in sitting posture near this is a difficult study beautifully delineated by another member.

The two upper landscapes on the north walls, of the north country done by Dr. G. H. Agnew, are outstanding in this class, being of good composition and displaying rich colour harmony. Erichsen Brown's depiction of the shore is convincing, as is also his smaller picture of the rocky shore in which a gentle wind is in evidence. His Muskoka-like scenery is flat, however, needing more contrast. The work of Dr. E. M. Walker shows promise, but two of his best, the point with evergreens, and the newly-cut and stacked field, both suffer from too dark skip; the former though interesting in itself does not serve to delineate the tops of the evergreens, which the writer feels is more important here than a gathering storm. Some water colours of local skylines and several old country water colours by Dr. Coleman complete the exhibit.

—A.L.W.

ALL MEN ARE

"Platzmeh," said Edgar, appraising his partner. After dancing a little, he said, "How about sitting this one out?"

"Oh, let's!" said Mabel, "I just adore sitting-out. You can have the jolliest conversations where shall we go?"

"This is jolly," said Mabel, later. "I adore sitting-out. Do you know Art Graham? Well he used to go to school with me he had the nicest way I mean he was a nice boy he had the jolliest sister you'd like her. You go around with Annabel don't you well I hate want to be caty or anything I hate caty people. But do you think she's just your type?"

"It's kind of romantic sitting out here, don't you think?"

"Yes, isn't it jolly. I went to a movie once with a boy named Bert—I used to go around with Bert—it was just the most romantic movie. I used to go around a lot with Bert. I still like him a lot. He was awfully stubborn. All men are, anyway. He was terribly hard to manage and he was temperamental too. I used to try to get dates arranged a couple of weeks ahead and he just wouldn't. He used to think because I went around with him I shouldn't go around with other boys. Selfish pig! I hate him. Don't you hate selfish people?"

"Yeh. Especially people who talk all the time."

"Oh, so do I. There was a boy just the jolliest I used to go around with a lot... What was that you said?"

"Nothing."

"That's funny. I thought you said something about a Chrysler. Well, I used to go around with this boy and he used to talk so much I could hardly get a word in at all. I used to say, 'Tom, I mean Charlie, you're a sweet child but you're selfish!' All men

(Continued on page 4)

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Diagnosis of "3TO Vic"

Editor,
"The Varsity".
Dear Sir:

I regret to say that a few days hence I noticed an article in your paper by an organism labelled Vic 3TO.

This letter was written for one of three reasons. Let us consider them methodically. 1. To create a local furor—written in fun. 2. To obtain practice as a future "Elmer Gantry". 3. In an earnest frame of mind. Let us disregard the first two reasons. If it was written in earnest the condition of this patient is grave and the prognosis doubtful. Certain cells in his cerebral cortex have become malignant and his silent areas have become noisy.

Vic 3TO is showing signs of his malady by an "Intolerance Syndrome". This has caused inquisitions, tortures and more horror than even dancing, in the past.

This case, gentlemen, does not know life—he has probably never been out! He doesn't know just what he is saying—a common feature of Intolerance. There is no Bible law prohibiting smoking—who says it is ungodly? 3TO probably expects to find a "No Smoking" sign on the Gates of Heaven. Smoking in moderation is not harmful, but in excess—Yes!—as is eating candy!

Dancing and, of course, women are extraordinarily desirable. God did not prohibit dancing and actually supplied Adam with a blind date. Women have not changed as to morals which are excellent in 99 per cent of cases—so I have heard. Women's attire has, alas! become much more extensive recently, of which 3TO is no doubt aware.

Ethyl alcohol is, if abused, harmful as is strychnine, but in proper amounts is extremely helpful. The Lord actually changed water into wine—a Biblical error, no doubt.

Vic 3TO—pull yourself together, old man, you will possibly pull

SCHOOL DAYS.

These are grown-up days for you now, but some day they will be school days to you. Make them the merriest, happiest days of all. Look back at the time when you were the best dressed girl at the party. Virginia Dare can help you there.

Dance Sets from $3.98

Party Hose (No. 5000) $1.50

and many other dainty accessories at prices to suit any purse.

Tune in Every Wednesday 7 p.m. CFCA, Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET At Richmond AD. 8095 788 YONGE STREET Next door to Uptown Theatre EL. 3000 2406 YONGE STREET Next door to Capitol Theatre EL. 4790 OPEN EVENINGS

HA! HA! DISCOVERED—SO THAT'S WHERE EVERYBODY'S GOING.

Naturally, the Victoria Theatre where Capt. Plunkett is staging a mammoth revue, 70 people, beauty ballet, all Dumbell's stars, Romanelli and 24-piece band, 5 Broadway headliners.

COMPLETELY NEW REVUE EVERY WEEK

"More of Broadway than Toronto"—Globe.

WHAT PRICES! Eves: 47c, 70c, 95c. Tax Extra.

Popular Matinees: Wed., Sat.

Avast There—Here Comes A Storm of Laughter—

WEAVER BROTHERS & ELVIRY

with their HOME FOLKS

Side-splitting yokel comedy that will leave you gasping for breath OTHER R.K.O. ARTISTS

THE MARRIAGE PLAYGROUND

Where parents play and children pay. Edith Wharton's splendid novel, "The Children" ALL-TALKING

ALL-TALKING NOW PLAYING

The story the newspapers would not print—of Broadway's greatest card game and its tragic sequel

UPTOWN

through! I have seen worse cases cured before this. Look on both sides of questions—do not try and see the bad in everything. I smoke, dance, admire women, play poker occasionally, like beer; but I am not hopelessly damned yet! Get to work, my boy, and forget this wicked, hopeless old world. Things appear to us as we wish to see them.

Doctor of Medicine.

And Still More

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir: It was indeed with surprise and extreme sorrow that I read a letter in last Thursday's issue of "The Varsity" containing the most shameful and libellous attack on a perfectly innocent beverage. That such ideas should be permitted to find their way into print—and so to distort the truth and pervert the minds of the young manhood of our country—certainly lowers your journal in the estimation of all decent people, and in my opinion calls for an immediate investigation by the S.P.C.A.

But to be serious. '30 Vic. refers to two letters printed in "The Varsity", suggesting the sale of "intoxicants" in Hart House. Now, after re-reading those letters very carefully, I fail to see anything but beer mentioned. The first letter, he says, is clearly too absurd to deserve any comment. Quite true, but the same applies to his reference to the Demon Rum. Now, rum is rum, pirates are (Continued on page 4)

DANCING LESSONS REDUCED RATES

By special request Mr. Walford will continue these low rates during Jan., Feb., and March. Private lessons the only way to learn successfully. Strictly Private - 8 for $5.00 Semi Private - 6 for $4.00 (Two pupils taking same lesson) Class Lessons - 8 for $5.00 HARRY WALFORD—KI. 4882 Address—65 WELLESLEY ST.

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

Summer work, backed by minimum guarantee offer, open to limited number of university men. Apply between 2 and 5, Thursday, Feb. 20, at Alumni Employment Office, 43 St. George Street.

Learn the Newest Dance Steps NEW CLASSES start next week Beginners, Tuesday Advanced, Thursday at 8:30 New classes in Tap and Theatrical, Wed. 6:15 Private lessons with Mr. Da Costa or Miss Chalmers by appointment

DACOSTA STUDIO OF DANCING Columbus Hall RA. 8650

For service and low rates see FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

BLUES IN SENIOR COLLEGE HOCKEY FINAL AT MCGILL TO-MORROW

BLUE HOCKEYISTS FACE TOUGH GAME

Montrealers, Titleless for Eighteen Years, Have Chance to Win

VARSITY IN SLUMP

Varsity senior hockey team goes to Montreal to-morrow to play the McGill sextet in the return game of the intercollegiate title. When these two aggregations met at the U. of T. arena, January 18th, the count at the end of the 60 minutes of play was 2-1 and both teams were ready to call it a day. It was a spectacular exhibition, every moment being crammed with excitement. The two teams maintained a withering pace.

The Red and White showed unexpected strength. Eighteen years have gone by since the Montrealers won an intercollegiate hockey championship. This year they have a fast skating squad with several stars of outstanding hockey ability. St. Germain at centre possesses a terrific shot. McGillivray is the husky defence man whose performance attracted the attention of the experts when he was seen here. He is a speedy rusher who is a clever stick-handler. Farquharson is no mean player at left wing. Playing before a home crowd and with the added incentive of taking the title away from the Blue and White, the McGill crew are likely to overcome the locals.

The Varsity team didn't look so good against the Sea Fleas last Saturday evening, but with that poor game out of their systems they are due for a win. "Red" Porter's men have the ability but just at present they are not flashing the brilliant combination play that was characteristic of them.

Brilliant Pitching

Features U.C. Win

U.C. seniors easily defeated Wycliffe College by the score of 13-3 in the intercollegiate baseball series. U.C.'s pitcher, Sobel, was the standout of the game. Up to the end of the third innings he struck out sixteen men, allowing the theologians to hit two.

Sr. U.C.—Caldicott, Sobel, Holten, Usprech, Beauregard, Davies, McAllum, Wilson.

Wycliffe—Draper, Langhorne, Morrissey, Kirk, Coleman, Hunt, Wickendon, Weir.

Women's Athletics Undergo Criticism

By Edith Blackwell, Women's Sports Editor

Complete reorganization of the Varsity intercollegiate women's athletics appears very necessary. As a result of slowness and inefficiency, a situation has arisen in the hockey series for which there is little excuse.

Although the Varsity women's athletic directorate prides itself on having a system whereby no girl may compete for any team without holding a certificate of eligibility signed by Dr. Edith Gordon, medical advisor of women, the so-called "system" operates in such a manner that it has become little more than a farce. The certificates are supposed to be obtained before a girl turns out to practice with a team, but seldom, if ever, is anything done about them until just before the schedule opens. The period of conditioning, which entails the most severe physical strain, is then over. It is fortunate—very fortunate indeed—that there have been no serious results of this ridiculous state of affairs.

This year the situation is even more serious than usual, for, with the intercollegiate hockey series almost over, some players have still to be examined by Dr. Gordon to secure their certificates. Miss A. E. M. Parkes, secretary of the women's athletic directorate, in whose hands these should be placed before the first game, by the team manager, states that, despite repeated requests, she has not received any certificates from Meds. And yet the Medettes have completed their schedule!

There is also a mix-up in Group A as a result of Norma Bateman, now playing intercollegiate basketball, being used by the Victoria College hockey team in a game against St. Hilda's without an eligibility certificate. (Continued on page 4)

U.C. CAPTURES TROPHY IN CLOSE COMPETITION

Henderson Brings Durnan Cup to U.C., Winning Diving and 4th Place in Swim

In the final events of the Durnan Trophy Competition held over from Saturday because of the water polo game, Mel Henderson, U.C. II, proved himself to be a consistently good man at all events and won the quarter mile swim to lead the field. Competition was close, however, and the first

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity's B. W. and F. line-up as announced yesterday has undergone some modification. Bert Tyson will replace Chris Robinson in the heavy-weight boxing class and Eddie Sinclair of football and water polo fame is taking Tyson's place in the heavyweight wrestling. Tyson took a decision about from Robinson in the Interfaculty Senior Assault after an extra round. Robinson appeared to lack condition in his bout with Tyson and has not been turning out regularly for training.

Eddie Sinclair's prowess in the mat game remains a somewhat unknown quantity. But some of his opponents in water polo could testify to his strength and ability in grappling.

One of the local B. W. and F. enthusiasts claims that Varsity will lose only four bouts in the entire assault. This is a rather high estimate, but it is certain that the team that will represent the university at Montreal will be one of the strongest that ever entered the intercollegiate competition.

Thursday night the Canadian Indoor Track and Field Meet will be held at the Coliseum. The classic collection of athletes to ever compete hereabouts will be on hand. The sprints alone will be hotly contested. Among the visitors are George Simpson of Ohio State, and Leschinsky of the Detroit P.A.A., both extremely fast men. The University of Toronto men who will compete in the sprints are Ralph Adams, Johnny Fitzpatrick and Bill Engel, a promising freshman who has recently been stepping the 50 yds. in fast time.

Harold Osborne, world's premier high jumper, should clear about six feet three or four, and Vic Pickard will try for a new Canadian pole vault record.

Varsity's senior feminine cage team took a strangle hold on the top position of the city basketball series, by defeating the Margaret Eaton sextet 35-18 last night at U.T.S. The Blue team was decidedly superior to their rivals and their defensive system was again largely responsible for their good showing.

The game was rather rough, and a great many fouls were called. The weakness of the Blue team in this department of the game was most apparent. The best they could do was to score four out of twelve tries. M.E.S. sunk two out of three.

Keen competition is assured at the Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet to be held at Hart House at 8.00 o'clock this evening. U.C. took the title last year, but now have lost several of their stars to Household Science including Margot McDonald, the 1929 individual champion.

Five men all finished within close to 300 points. This was the closest finish in some years. The results on the last two events and final point totals are as follows:

440 yds. free style—1, George Glass, Vic, 5:57 2-5; 2, T. Marsh, Dents, 6:04; 3, J. Tower, S.P.S., 6:10.
Diving—1, M. Henderson, U.C., 726 points; 2, Tedman, U.C., 658 points; 3, J. Tower, S.P.S., 636 points.
FINAL STANDING
M. Henderson, U.C. 3836
J. Towers, S.P.S. 3661
T. Marsh, Dents 3617
G. Glass, Vic 3596
E. Sinclair, Dents 3507

VARSITY JUNIORS MEET PARRY SOUND

Sounders Defeat Newmarket to Gain Entry to Third Round of O.H.A.

EXPECT FAST GAME

As a result of Parry Sound's victory over Newmarket last night the first named team wins the round 4 goals to 1, and will meet the Varsity juniors in the third round of the O.H.A. playoffs. The first game will be in Parry Sound to-morrow night and the return engagement will be played at the Mutual Street arena on Saturday evening.

Although Parry Sound are not credited with having exactly a world-beating junior outfit they showed some good hockey in the Newmarket games and expect to give the strong Blue and White squad a stiff battle. They will have to travel at a good clip, however, if they want to hold down Coach Sullivan's boys. The latter are living up to their rating as one of the best junior teams in the province. On the form they have shown in their last two series, they look good enough to take both games from the Sounders. However, Saturday night's contest at the arena will furnish some real hockey for the fans.

VARSITY DEFEATS MARGARET EATON

Varsity Women Pile Up Score Taking Second Game From Eatonites

CROUCH NETS 20 POINTS

After a hard-fought game, the Varsity women's intercollegiate basketball team registered its second straight win over the Margaret Eaton squad by a 35-18 score at the U.T.S. gym last night. The Blue and White girls had a clear cut margin.

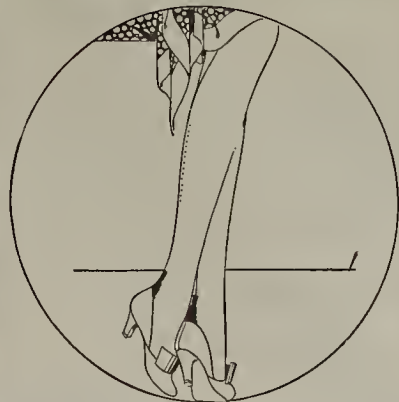

Louise Crouch was the outstanding player for Varsity, scoring 20 points and Wilma Hazlett did some fine work on the forward line. She made many openings which resulted in scores. Eleanor Sedgewick displayed great speed and notched 9 points for the winners. Norma Bateman and Honor Tett were effective on the defence, and Jean Allen did well at centre in the absence of "Fran" Dale.

The Margaret Eaton players found it difficult to get in close to the basket and most of their shots were from outside the defence. Gertrude Johnson was the most successful with 8 points to her credit, while Jane Bell dropped in a couple of long distance shots. Betty McCammon was strong on the defence.

The first half ended with the count 15 to 10 for Varsity. The play was faster in the second period, but Varsity easily piled up twenty more points, making a total of 35 to Margaret Eaton's 15.

Varsity—W. Hazlett, L. Crouch, J. Allen, E. Sedgewick, N. Bateman, H. Tett, S. Ballard, E. Peake. Margaret Eaton—G. Johnston, I. Pirie, M. Tuck, J. Bell, B. McCammon, R. Hamilton, M. Woolaver, D. O'Neill, H. Patterson. Referee—Phyllis Griffiths.

University of Omaha students under 18 years old are arrested if found on the street after 9 p.m. any evening in the week.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY
FULL-FASHIONED
PURE SILK HOSIERY
$1.19

Silk-to-the Top Chiffons Service Weight Pure Silk

Beautifully clear, all perfect chiffon stockings—silk to the top, and a large selection of light and heavy service weight pure silk hose—in a splendid selection of this season's smart shades for daytime and evening. This special purchase offers an unusual bargain.

Every Pair Perfect—Sizes 8½ to 10.

Be Early—We Open at 9 a.m.

The Evangeline Shop

Yonge at Bloor Yonge at St. Clair
Montreal, Ottawa, Windsor, London, St. Catharines, Kitchener, Guelph
Store Hours: 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

BASKETBALL GROUP TIED AS U.C. DEFEATS JR. VIC

Vic Leads During First Half but Falls Before U. C. Offensive

Junior U.C. defeated Junior Vic last night in the intercollegiate basketball series, thereby tying the group all round. Vic led from the start and at the end of the first half the score was eight to five in their favour. U.C.'s attack was not an efficient score-getter and in the second half they fell farther behind until the last minute of play. The score was 12-5 when U.C. at last arranged a real team of scorers and Vic was left far behind. Agnew for U.C. was the scoring ace, with Foote a close second; Barry for Vic was the outstanding man on the team, and Clarke a close second. Morrow and Henderson also did their share of the scoring.

U.C.—Agnew, Scott, defence; Schuck, centre; Fowell, Tendale, forwards. Subs, Anderson, Cochrane, Foote, Leighton, MacDonald. Vic—Burns, Morrow, defence; Henderson, centre; Barry, Clarke, forwards. Subs, Gregory, Bates, Misener, Davison.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

259 College St. Trinity 5987
Harry Winfield, Prop.
CIGARS - MAGAZINES
Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries
Name your city
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Lending Library.

COMMISSIONS OPEN FOR C.O.T.C. MEMBERS

A number of commissions in the under-named units of the Permanent Active Militia of Canada are being offered to approved candidates from contingents of the C.O.T.C.:
Royal Canadian Dragoons
Lord Strathcona's Horse (R.C.)
Royal Canadian Artillery
Royal Canadian Engineers
Royal Canadian Corps of Signals
Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry
Royal Canadian Army Service Corps
Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps
Members of the University of Toronto C.O.T.C. having O.T.C. Certificates, who would like to take advantage of this offer should make immediate enquiry at 184 College Street for particulars.
Applications must be submitted not later than the 5th March.

National Indoor Track Championships

See the World's Greatest Athletes

SPEED — ACTION — THRILLS

Coliseum—Thursday, FEBRUARY 20

Every Event a Feature

Box seats: $2.50. Reserved seats: $1.50, $1.00 and 50c. Tax included. Tickets now on sale—Moody's, T. Eaton Co. (Information Desk), King Edward Hotel, Scholes' Hotel and Toronto Radio Co., 241 Yonge St.

Heated Parking Accommodation

On to Murray's ye Men of Varsity!

Uptown, Downtown, Eastside, Westside—wherever sports, shows or just dates take Varsity men out of nights, there is a MURRAY SANDWICH SHOP where you'll find some of "the boys" gathered for a late snack, chatting over their coffee and cigs—remember, after the first cup, the coffee is "on the house".

MURRAY'S

770 Yonge St., next Uptown 62 Front St. W., next Royal York
Metropolitan Bldg. Basement 12 Queen St. East

FREEMAN'S—Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
671 YONGE STREET KI. 3270

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19
1.30—Prayers in Hart House Chapel.
Tag Day by International Student Service.

Annual Newman Club ball in Crystal Ball Room, King Edward Hotel. Tickets at Newman Club.

1.15 p.m.—U. of T. Liberal Club luncheon. Professor Fay will speak on "Immigration and Unemployment."

4.20—Meeting of the U.C. Players' Guild.

5.15—Professor John Baillie on "Is Not Humanism a Sufficient Religion?" In the Music Room, Hart House. All men students cordially invited.

8.00 p.m.—Women's Interfaculty Swimming Meet at Hart House pool.

8.00 p.m.—Biological Club Conversation at the Biological Building. A popular exhibit and demonstration of Biological methods and activities. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

8.15 p.m.—Meeting of the U.C. Classical Association at the Union, 79 St. George Street.

THURSDAY, FEB. 20
4 p.m.—Mass meeting of Victoria College women students in Wymilwood. Urgent.

4.15 p.m.—Department of Physics Seminar.

8 p.m.—A meeting of the Chess Club will be held in the South Common Room. Beginners are specially invited.

8.15—Victoria College Classical Association in Annesley Hall.

8.15—Combined meeting of the Victoria College and University College French Societies at the Women's Union.

FRIDAY, FEB. 21

9.30 a.m.—3.00 p.m.—Model Assembly of the League of Nations.

8 p.m.—Special session, Model Assembly.

9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College Arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22

9.30 a.m.—2.30 p.m.—Model Assembly of the League of Nations.

8.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

SUNDAY, FEB. 23

11 a.m.—Special service at St. Paul's conducted by Canon Cody and Sir Herbert Ames in connection with the Model Assembly.

MONDAY, FEB. 24

8.15 p.m.—St. Joseph's College Dramatic Club: "She Stoops to Conquer."

8.15—Meeting of the Italian-Spanish Club at the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street.

TUESDAY, FEB. 25

8.00 p.m.—Victoria College Dramatic Society at-home in Wymilwood.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26

8 p.m.—Final debate in Lecture Room of Hart House.

9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 27

4.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Women's Press Club. Short story contributions from the members will be read and criticized. Good chance to try for the pin.

FREEMAN'S—571 Yonge Street—is the largest concern for the rental of dress clothes.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 2)

pirates, slavery is slavery, and this is the twentieth century. It is true, we hear rum sometimes mentioned in connection with bad colds, but the odds are usually in favour of the bad cold.

'30 Vic takes a particular dislike to the writer of the letter in Tuesday's issue. But really that writer has very sound ideas on the subject; and again, he was talking about beer only. ('30 Vic has a tendency to mix his drinks.) I take exception also to the odium, ignominy and other big words that '30 Vic (likewise in raiment of anonymity) wishes on him.

Now everyone will agree that excessive drinking of intoxicating liquors is just as bad as '30 Vic says it is, and should be stamped out. But I insist that beer is not in that class. Wine, which seems to have an unquestioned position in society is far more potent—as our L.C.B. is beginning to realize.

Well, in parting, I want it understood that I don't give a hoot whether we have beer in Hart House or anywhere else. But the only way real "prohibition" can be achieved is by the individual exercise of that virtue, which prohibits all vice—self-control. Yours in earnest, COSPIRON.

Challenges S.P.S.

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

How many of us who are so unfortunate as not to be students at S.P.S. are inclined to smile incredulously at the perennial cries emanating from that faculty to the effect that their bibulous attainments amount to the prodigious total of two score? But surely we are justified in so smiling, for in view of the existing difficulties in the way of demonstrating such cubic capacities, these far-famed claims of Schoolmen must, arguing a posteriori, be regarded as untenable. Those of this faculty who possess consciences no doubt feel keenly the aspersions which may so justly be cast on their veracity.

It is therefore with great satisfaction that I note the suggestion recently made in your columns that beer be placed on sale in Hart House, thus providing the members of a sister faculty of mine with an opportunity to refute the grave charges of mendacity on which they stand indicted. Should this suggestion mature into a reality, so high is my estimation of the men of S.P.S. that I venture to state with perfect confidence that what is now a mere idle boast will be transformed into a simple statement of everyday fact. I heartily endorse the challenge recently thrown down to the Hall Committee that they provide 4.4 beer at the Tuck Shop without delay, and would point out that this could be provided on draught for 5c a glass. This is the logical first step in the direction of having real beer. I am confident that this will be forthcoming, Sir Henry Drayton and the L.C.A. notwithstanding. As I recently

8.30 p.m.—Trinity College annual conversation at the college.

FRIDAY, FEB. 28

8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.

9 p.m.—P.C.I. Ex-Students Association first annual At-Home.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6

German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig," "Ein Knopf," at Women's Union.

BULLETIN BOARD

FIRST AID STUDENTS

Students enrolled in the "First Aid to the Drowning" courses, are reminded of the talk on "Resuscitation" to be given by Dr. Porter at five o'clock this afternoon in the lecture room, Hart House. Physical Training attendance will be taken.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

Tickets for the Sunday Evening Concert will be given out to U.C. men on Thursday morning at 8.45. Have your registration card.

INTERCOLLEGIATE WATER POLO

Practice to-night changed to 5.30 p.m. All members of the squad are asked to take note and be there at this time. Also make returns for Saturday's game at Athletic Office as soon as possible.

NOTICE

Would the following men who are representing Varsity at the National Indoor Championships on Thursday, Feb. 20 at the Coliseum kindly call at the dark room, Hart House, for their equipment at 5 p.m. Thursday: R. Adams, J. Fitzpatrick, G. Jermyn, W. Graham, W. Engle and D. Smith.

VICTORIA

Tickets for Victoria College At-Home to be held in Hart House on Friday, Feb. 21, will be on sale in the college on Thursday between 1.30 and 3.30 p.m. to those whose names are on the public lists. Registration cards and $3.25 are essential. Tickets not called for will be sold.

AUTHORITIES CHECK DEBTS OF STUDENTS (Continued from page 1)

Miss MacGillivray.
Asked what was done if an error was made and the student did get his pseudonym or what was done if fines were incurred between the time of the giving out of the pseudonym and the writing of the final examination, Miss MacGillivray replied that she believed that such a case had never arisen. "However, should the need arise, the results of the examination can be withheld or in the case of the final year the degree can be withheld until the financial obligations are satisfied."

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS UNDERGO CRITICISM (Continued from page 3)

cate being sought from Dr. Gordon, although a special one is required when a girl wishes to participate in two sports. By winning the game mentioned, Vic tied up the group with St. Hilda's.

The Hockey Club, after considering the matter, has decided to take no action, but simply to have the teams break their deadlock by a playoff game. The wisdom of this decision is open to question, and it would appear that St. Hilda's have real grounds for an appeal to the directorate, since a replay—which would be the only fair thing—would give them a chance to win the group title without a further playoff. Even if the Saints lost the replay, which seems unlikely if only the players who had eligibility certificates at the time of the disputed fixture were allowed to compete, they would have another opportunity in a playoff.

In view of the feeling aroused in ly heard someone remark, Fergy has two hobbies—the university and beer—and he would be glad of an opportunity to combine these.

I feel assured that the mass of the students would be in favour of this innovation, in particular those of S.P.S., despite the statement of their president, Mr. Nate Adams, which appeared in Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire. From what I know of Mr. Adams, I feel that for fear of offending those of the powers that be who think along the lines of "'30 Vic", permitted himself to be "mildewed with discretion". Examination pseudonyms are not used at S.P.S.

Pardon me, Mr. Editor, if for similar reasons, I too am "mildewed with discretion", and "hide under the despicable cloak of anonymity" as

'32 U.C.

VICTORIA

The list for the Hart House musical which is to be held on Sunday evening, 23rd February, will be open on Wednesday from 1.30 to 2.00 in the college.

VIC CLASSICAL

The Victoria College Classical Association will meet in Annesley Hall at 8.15 on Thursday, February 20. A paper will be read by Miss R. Kendrick, M.A. A musical program will be played. Refreshments.

CHESS CLUB

A meeting of the Chess Club will be held Thursday, Feb. 20 in the South Common Room. The tournament will be continued. A special invitation is extended to beginners to whom instruction will be given.

VIC WOMEN

All women of Victoria College are urged to attend the mass meeting in Wymilwood at 4 o'clock to-day. The proposed changes in student organization will be under discussion. Your presence is needed and expected. Copies of the suggested constitution may be had at the library desk.

"R.U.R." (Rossum's Universal Robots) is to be presented by the Varsity Players of the University of Manitoba in the near future.

USHERS WANTED

Will all ushers who have not signed the list in the athletic office please do so at once; also all others who would be willing to usher at the Coliseum on Thursday, Feb. 20.

DECIDING VOTE FAVOURS C. O. T. C. (Continued from page 1)

she stated, "but the psychological effect is bad. The student gets a military outlook on things."

"Psychology proves that what anyone fears or thinks about is bound to happen, thus a program of peace education is the only solution to world peace, so let us unite in preventing a spread of the poison of militarism among the leading potentates of our nation," stated Miss Sparling in closing.

E. R. Toll of Victoria, in moving the motion, stressed the necessity of preparedness. "If Britain had had half a million trained men the great war would never have begun," he stated. "Virtue is an alluring thing, but virtue unprotected is more alluring," claimed the speaker in referring to an unprotected country. "A dirty handkerchief is better than no handkerchief at all," he stated in support of the inadequate preparedness obtained through the C.O.T.C.

"I agree with everything the leader of the affirmative has said," began R. H. Loosemore of Trinity, leader of the negative. "C.O.T.C. training could be obtained at the Royal Military College," he stated. (Loud no's from the floor of the house.) "Men should be prepared at the university to fight in politics and science and not in war," he claimed.

Margaret Bonis of Trinity, second speaker for the motion, asked the students to "face facts". "The time for mutual agreement has not yet come," she said. "Turkey, Russia and Mexico are ugly names and have not been placed on the list of the League of Nations," she stated.

The meeting was thrown open to the house for discussion and although several good opinions were voiced the debate ended in a "wise cracking oratorical contest" as one of the speakers termed it, and the speaker of the house had to rule on many delicate points of parliamentary procedure.

Plans for the formation of a publicity board, the functions of which will be to advertise the school, are being formulated at Los Angeles junior college.

feminine athletic circles over this question, it is altogether likely that it will be re-opened at another meeting of the Hockey Club, and the directorate will probably also take a hand in solving the problem. It appears to be one of the rare occasions on which the directorate may justifiably interfere with the judgment of a club.

THE man or woman who plunges into thoughtless spending, making no provision for the future, faces financial shipwreck on the relentless reefs of debt.

Men in debt no longer control their time or their careers. Others control them. Freedom from debt lies in a definite savings plan.

Ask for our folder "A New Horizon." It will show you an easy way of saving $1,000

The Royal Bank of Canada

S902

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from page 2)

are anyway. I said, "We'll always be friends, just friends."

"Didn't you offer to be a sister to him?"

"No Huh? I think you're teasing me! I'm sure you are! You men can't help being funny. All men are, anyway. I hate dumb people who never catch on to jokes. I used to go with a boy named Charlie and he never could take a joke!"

"And yet he did!"

"Never mind. But I was going to say that Charlie couldn't be your type."

"Did you know him?"

"I knew a fellow named Percival and Percival had a chum whose sister used to go with Charlie."

"What was the second name of the Percival you knew? I used to go with a Percival."

"Apfelmus."

"What?"

"Apfelmus."

"I once knew a boy named Klopferzenmeyer . . . What's the matter?"

"Somehow," said Edgar, "I feel like dancing again."

Aunt Fanny.

UNIVERSITY MILDEWED WITH DISCRETION (Continued from page 1)

Malania defied the affirmative in ringing tones to show that students had not freedom in their activities at the University of Toronto. Karl Marx, the father of socialism, was on the reading list of the department of economics, he said. There was also an absence of "silly hypocrisy" in the discussion of evolution.

Speaking second for the affirmative, W. P. Walker painted a sad picture of the university overcome by an "uncompromising dryrot". The remedy for the sad state of affairs was not to cut down the "sturdy oak", but to "purge it of its withered branches".

The second upholder of the negative, M. B. Gelber, gave further variations on the "Battle Cry of Freedom". Radicals had addressed various organizations around the university without being silenced. "An incident here and an incident there were no basis for proof that the university was overcome with mildew," he said.

Although the negative debaters, Malania and Gelber were defeated on the motion a vote awarded them the Robinette Shield in public speaking.

Before the debate a motion that the presidents of the years be the representatives of University College on the Students' Administrative Council was carried. A motion to seek to fix the year card fee at $1 and make its payment compulsory was also carried.

The Maurice Cody prize for public speaking and student activity was awarded by vote to Herbert Bell, president of 4th year. Alex Stringer, president of the society, was made honorary president.

RENT A TUXEDO $2.00 STUDENTS PRICE ONLY NEW SUITS LATEST STYLE TELEPHONE TRINITY 8218

Mallabar COSTUMER 450-452 SPADINA AVE. at College St.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM 253 Bloor Street West Near Avenue Road Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology. Open daily, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

COLLEGE GOWNS CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON 108 King St. W., Toronto

Your Eyes Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke. SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS F. E. LUKE Optometrist and Optician 167 Yonge St. (Upstairs) (Opposite Simpson's)

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

K1. 6738

528 BLOOR ST. W.

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

SOLID BLACK LEATHER

FIBRE BACK, STEEL HINGES

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20th, 1930

No. 87

MODEL ASSEMBLY PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR ALL SESSIONS

Toronto to Become Geneva for Intensive Week-end of Work and Play

EMINENT VISITORS

Discussion to be Based on Topics Vital to Big League

Friday, Feb. 21st

9.30 a.m.—East Hall, University College. Open to students and public.

Opening address.

Report of the Credentials Committee.

Election of President and the Presidential Address.

Discussion of the year's work (to be adjourned until the evening session).

Introduction of and the discussion of: Committee's report on the Amendment to the Covenant in view of the Kellogg Pact; Committee's reports on the Amendment to statute of the Permanent Court of International Justice and American adherence thereto.

12.30 p.m.—Adjournment for luncheon. Roof Garden, Royal York Hotel. Speaker, Rev. Salem G. Bland, guest-chairman, Principal Maurice Hutton.

2.30 p.m.—Reconvene. East Hall, University College. Open to students and public.

Report of committee on trouble in Palestine.

Report of committee on Minorities (final discussion to be adjourned to the evening, when Sir Herbert Ames will speak).

6.30 p.m.—Dinner at Women's Union (Continued on page 4)

SPIRIT IS DEITY SAY HUMANISTS

High Ideals Are Discouraged
Because of Limited Doctrine
Says Professor

A CASE OF SOUR GRAPES

"The humanists say that we ought to be good in a universe which does not give a rap whether we are good or not," remarked Professor John Baillie in his enlightening address yesterday afternoon at Hart House on the problem, "Is Not Humanism a sufficient religion?"

Professor Baillie first traced briefly the history of the humanistic belief from Comte's Positivism formulated 100 years ago to the Humanism of to-day. "It is their belief that the spirit of man is its only deity, and is made manifest in his ideals and his actions," he explained. The Humanists claim that the universe is ethically neutral and so we must get along without God or call the spirit of man God. Professor Baillie thought this a sour-grapes policy.

Visitors' Day

Sunday, 23rd February being the last Sunday of the month, will be Visitors' Day in Hart House, when members may introduce visitors including ladies, into the House between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. Members will be asked to show their membership cards at the door.

Tea will be served in the Graduate Dining Room between 3 and 4.30 p.m. at 25c per cover.

Hart House Debate

The next Hart House debate will be held on Wednesday, February 26. E. J. Garland, member of parliament for Bow River, Alberta, will be the honorary visitor, and the subject for debate is: "Resolved that in the opinion of this house the political and economic experiments of the western provinces are not in the best interests of Canada." The motion will be presented by J. G. Gibson, Victoria, and opposed by V. C. Webb, Medicine. The third and fourth speakers respectively are J. T. Wilson, Trinity, and Lou Golden, University College.

ANNUAL ELECTIONS AT HART HOUSE

Vote for Special Committees
March 6—Nominations
Open Friday

POSTER REGULATIONS

Nominations for the six standing committees of Hart House open at 9 a.m. on Friday, 21st February. Nomination forms may now be obtained at the Warden's office, but will not be accepted until Friday, 21st February. Only one nomination may be handed in at a time. Forms must be filled in with the names and addresses of the mover and seconder, together with the name and address of the nominee. The form must be signed by mover, seconder and nominee. Nominations close at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, 26th February.

Nominations for two of the special committees, the Camera Committee and the Squash Raquets Committee, also open and close on the same dates as do those for the standing committees. Nominees for the Camera Committee must be active members of the Camera Club and nominees for the Squash Raquets Committee must be regular undergraduate squash players. A regular squash player is one whose name has appeared on the reservation list at least five times during the academic year. The elections for these special committee will take place at 5 p.m. on Thursday, March 6th.

Nominations for the Debates Committee are now open and will close at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, 25th February and the elections will take place at the debate on Wednesday, 26th February.

Election posters may be placed on the walls of the main corridor of Hart House any time after 9 a.m. on Thursday, 27th February.

It should be noted by candidates that the House Committee has ruled that the space on the walls may only be occupied by a candidate's permanent poster.

(Continued on page 2)

LECTURER DESCRIBES OLD CITY OF PETRA

Ruins Show That Ancient City
Is Far Advanced in Art and Culture

Miss Conway, who is delivering a series of lectures in Canada and the United States gave an educational lecture in Castle Memorial Hall, McMaster University, Toronto, Monday evening on the rock-hewn city of Petra, Asia Minor. Miss Conway had the fascinating experience of belonging to the first expedition that went to Petra in 1927.

The first mention of this city was in 312 B.C., when an army of Alexander the Great was repulsed. The approach to Petra extends through the lofty rock walls for two miles. To-day there remains but one stone building of the many ornamental palaces and temples.

Opinions on Beer Will be Sought By "The Varsity" in Straw Vote

The controversy over the question of beer sale at the university has reached the stage where we feel it is necessary to take a straw vote to find what the students really think about the question. Our correspondence columns have been taxed with the letters from students and an opportunity of seeing what the students really think is at hand.

On Tuesday "The Varsity" will carry ballots that may be torn out and deposited in ballot boxes placed at various spots within the university grounds. The question will be, "Are you in favour of beer being sold within the university grounds?" The slip will carry a "yes" and a "no". The students, both men and women will place an "X" opposite their choice.

Of course, as in all straw votes, a good deal depends upon the honesty of the students in not voting more than once. We sincerely hope none of them will vote more than a single time.

The voting will take place between the hours of 11.30 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. No votes may be registered before the time, none will be allowed after the hour mentioned. Remember the day, Tuesday.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN ONTARIO MINING

A. A. Cole Talks on Coal and Possibility of Oil in North

Lignite coal fields in New Ontario formed the main subject of discussion at the final meeting of the Mining and Metallurgical Club held at Hart House yesterday evening. A. A. Cole, a mining engineer in the employ of the T. and N. O. Railway, was the speaker.

"The lignite deposits of the north," Mr. Cole explained, "have been known for a great many years, but only recently have been investigated. The drilling done this year has revealed a lignite area of three square miles with an average thickness of twenty feet. This is calculated as a deposit of sixty million tons. Besides lignite, kaolin, fire-clay, silica, sand and mica exist in commercial quantities in the locality and there is a possibility of oil and gas."

The railway contract to tap this area was let Tuesday Mr. Cole said, and steel would be in the field this summer.

Questioned regarding the qualities of lignite as a fuel, Mr. Cole replied that it has been used successfully in the west and could be in Ontario.

Mr. Cole also read a paper on "The Influence of Transportation in Mining", and gave an interesting account of a new pyrite burning process. It was emphasized that by this new process twenty tons of Canadian pyrite were daily substituted for ten tons of sulphur formerly imported from the United States.

REVEALING OF SECRETS AT BIOLOGICAL CONVERSATION

Wonders of Turtle's Heart and Cod's Liver Interest Crowd

Demonstration of a turtle's heart, at the Biology Building last night drew spectators six deep while the water flea proved almost as great an attraction. The Biological Association gives a Conversation about once every four years. These have always been popular, but last night's exhibition was the most successful yet. The art of extracting cod liver oil from its source in the humble cod was shown in competition with the intimate home life of the corn-borer. Moving pictures added interest to this part of the program.

The secrets of biological technique were revealed to the public eye by both students and members of the faculty. The Biological Club is a very small association; it was aided in this exhibition by the various connecting departments, physiology, biochemistry, paleontology and natural history. Its success was in a great measure due to their help.

DARED!

Last night at the women's interfaculty swimming meet, spectators were startled to see a mere male, fully dressed, dive neatly from the balcony, climb out ignominiously, and sink away murmuring, "Who wouldn't for ten dollars?"

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire On Tolerating of C.O.T.C.

"Do you agree that the C.O.T.C. should be tolerated at this university?"

Miss M. Weekes, IV Household Science—

"What is this C.O.T.C.?"

W. G. McKay, II Medicine—

"I certainly do—a great many students come down here with necessary knowledge, but lack discipline, and the C.O.T.C. gives the necessary discipline."

G. Westwood, III University College—

"The C.O.T.C. has some good points, hasn't it? It is quite harmless, and sometimes a little preparation saves trouble later on."

Miss P. J. Hall, III Household Science—

"No—it just makes a bunch of paper-collar officers."

W. H. Brookes, I Emmanuel College—

"We are living in a world where there is a tendency to better understanding—so why have the C.O.T.C., which encourages a military spirit?"

F. D. Scrimgeour, II School of Practical Science—

"Anyone who wants to get anything out of the C.O.T.C. can, so perhaps it should be tolerated for them."

Literary Issue Prizes

Prize winners in the recent literary contest sponsored by "The Varsity" are asked to call at the S.A.C. office in Hart House for their prize money. Contributions to the contest cannot be returned, except where this was specially requested. Sketches and literary material may be obtained if contributors will call at the News Office in Hart House, between 4.30 and 5.15 p.m., or at the Women's Office, between 5.15 and 6.00 p.m. to-day.

STUDENT RIGHTS ARE CONTESTED

Faculty Claims "Minnesota Daily" Not Representative of Opinion

ADVERSITY AROUSES IRE

Special to "The Varsity"

Minneapolis, Minn.—An independent student newspaper, known as "The Vigilante", has appeared on the campus of the University of Minnesota, giving the "inside story" of the events which led to the ousting of Harry Atwood as managing editor of the "Minnesota Daily", and the abolition of the board in control of student publications.

The ouster of Mr. Atwood came fifteen minutes after he had been elected by the board, which was then declared abolished, and the elections called null and void. Mr. Atwood's ejection was caused by alleged political affiliations.

A group of student leaders, whose names will appear on the sheet, are launching the protest against the administration.

They charge that "growing usurpation of student rights by the administration has made necessary the move to tell the true story of the affair," and that they are convinced "The Minnesota Daily", because of the recent actions by the administration, is about to be, and has already been, virtually seized and turned into a (Continued on page 4)

CANADA'S IMMIGRATION POLICY OUTLINED

Solve Problem of Unemployment by Checking Immigration
as in United States

"In my opinion Canada desires only a limited sort of immigration policy," stated Professor C. R. Fay in his address on "Immigration and Unemployment" before the University of Toronto Liberal Club yesterday. "We should definitely have a limited quota specializing in North European stock and especially the British."

"The first point that is most important in Canada's growth is the question of population, and there is no economic need for a speedy development. In considering new immigrants we should not consider what jobs are open for them, but what stock they came from. A pure racial element can act better against the new scourge of unemployment."

"The only serious way we can cope with unemployment is to check immigration. We are neck to neck with the United States in immigration and therefore we should follow their immigration policy."

"A commissioner should be appointed to check immigrants and only about thirty per cent. of the present quota should be permitted. We should put up with any temporary setback in order to procure a hardy stock. One of the best means is to reclaim the native Canadians who have emigrated to the south."

CAPUT COMMITTEE REPORT DISCUSSED BY WOMEN'S S.A.C.

Backs Basis of Faculty Membership on Joint Executive

NEW PLAN PROPOSED

More Complete Representation of Each Faculty Sought in a Joint Council

The Women's Students' Administrative Council met yesterday to consider the report of the Committee of Investigation on Student Government. The recommendation which advocated that the editors of the Torontensis and "Varsity" be ex-officio members of the Joint Executive was accepted. The abolition of the Advisory Board of Publications was agreed to, thus leaving the final responsibility of "The Varsity" contents to the Joint Executive body. The Women's Council agreed with the Joint Executive in not accepting the recommendation that the two staff members appointed by the president of the university should be members of the permanent teaching staff.

In place of the committee's recommendation which suggested that the Joint Executive be made responsible to the Students' Administrative Councils, the Women's Council put forward another scheme of its own. It advocates that there be a Joint Administrative Council composed of representatives from each faculty who will be directly responsible to the undergraduate association by which they have been elected. This would be a strictly administrative body, with an additional Men's Undergraduate Council and Women's Undergraduate Council acting in a governing capacity.

I. S. S. TAG DAY A GREAT SUCCESS

Four Hundred Dollars Collected
Proves Increase Over Last Year

DENT GIVES FIVE DOLLARS

Results of the tag day held yesterday by the International Student Service, with the co-operation of the Menorah Society, amounted to $383.48. In addition, $32.06 was realized from collections on Sunday, and $830.00 was contributed by the women of University College. An unidentified dental undergraduate modestly paid five dollars for his tag.

"The response was quite satisfactory," stated Rev. F. J. Moore. "The contributions were principally in dimes and quarters. We made seventy dollars (Continued on page 4)

No Official Word Yet

"There has been no official announcement," replied Mr. Burch, registrar and bursar of Wycliffe College when asked by "The Varsity" for confirmation or denial of the report in a downtown paper that Archdeacon R. B. McElheran of Winnipeg, was appointed principal of Wycliffe. "There have only been two principals of Wycliffe since its foundation and it may be some time before a suitable person is found for the position," continued Mr. Burch, "and until such time nothing definite will be given for publication. The Canadian Press has published the names of several persons for the position, but none of them have been authentic."

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.
NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. Gordon Burns, B.A.

Night Editor: M. Beer. Assistants: J. Gauthier, M. Kidd

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20th, 1930

FAIR AND WARMER

It is a well established fact that during a lull in any conversation, or to bridge over an awkward pause, the time-honoured convention has always been to talk about the weather. In our sceptical youth we were inclined to turn a scornful ear on all such conversations, suspecting that they were only superficial platitudes designed to fill in time, and feeling, bluntly, that if a person had nothing to talk about they were better not to talk at all. But as the increasing number of years began to add discretion to our judgment we changed our views and gradually came to feel that far from being a matter of insignificant twaddle, of interest only to old maids and grandfathers, the daily variations in that fickle substance called the weather were matters of the most fundamental and universal importance, were, in fact, among the few common interests that "make the whole world kin".

Thus it happened that when yesterday, during the lull that followed the first deluge of beer correspondence and preceded the august deliberations of the Model Assembly, we were favoured with a singularly fine day, the matter seemed to us quite worthy of editorial mention in "The Varsity". (Incidentally, when we happened to intimate this among friends, they observed that they had shared our feelings only until they were obliged to walk through the mud around Victoria College.)

The president of our university, when travelling in South Africa recently, learned that the average of intellectual achievement among students was much lower than here, due to the fact that they have fine weather during a longer period of the year. Fine weather, it seemed, was not conducive to a spirit of academic aloofness. What a golden opportunity then, is offered to students in Toronto, where recent statistics showed that there had been only eleven hours of sunshine during the whole month of January. This, however, we consider almost too much of a good thing, and would have taken the matter up with the weatherman at the time, if we had had any opinion of our editorial influence in that quarter.

If a sufficient quantity of bad weather were all that this university needed to ensure its success in the next examinations, we would say at once that no one could possibly complain, but the great defect in the system unfortunately is that the bad weather all comes at the wrong time. All winter long while the so-called social season was at its height, and the average student was putting off until to-morrow everything he could possibly get out of doing to-day, he went gaily on his round of festivities and activities blessed with a combination of all the worst sorts of weather that could be devised for his benefit. Having wasted all this effort on his unappreciative head, the weatherman, with characteristic perversity, now makes a direct change in his policy, just at the moment when the thoughtful student is desirous of withdrawing into his shell and spending a little time in contemplative solitude to prepare him for the coming fray. Such, however, is the inevitable blight that preys upon the heart of each successive spring for the student.

Do not think, however, that we are so rash as to prognosticate an unbroken spell of fine weather from now on. Oh, no. Even though we did watch for the bear on Candlemas day and convince ourselves that he could not possibly have seen his own shadow and retired for another six weeks, still we are not going to commit ourselves editorially to a policy of early and continuous spring. Take heart, fellow students, for although you will probably never know what it is to wholly enjoy a Spring until your student days are over, you may comfort yourselves with the hope of a fairly good proportion of dark and gloomy days that will not lure you away from the paths of duty and necessity to the enjoyment of beauty and indolence.

Art and Drama

A.C. Players' Guild

The Players' Guild suffered for half an hour yesterday afternoon under a Booth Tarkington affair entitled "Bimbo, the Pirate". It might have been a fairly successful farce—ironical farce, I presume—if the players had known something about it. But they didn't. I rather suspect some of them were doing another play. Or writing a new one. And the prompter, if there was one, was probably engrossed in an unexpurgated "Decameron".

The plot concerned itself with the capture from aboard his own vessel of a merchant, his daughter and her lover by a crew of Salem pirates with a shockingly puritanical code. The situation is not brilliantly original, but might have been amusing if completely done. As a matter of fact, it was amusing—but not as Tarkington intended.

Stanley Ryerson, as the pirate captain, and Victor Wynbourne in a real example of make-up, as the merchant, were best. Ruth Haldenby and Sidney Hermant played the lovers; Marvin Gelber, Helen Musson and Paul Gardner, the pirates. Helen Musson directed.

Come on! we can do better than this! —A.E.F.A.

CHAMPUS CAT

FANT ANNY

By R. E. Noless

The Royal Cork is fast becoming a mecca of literary and scientific celebrities. It was with a thrill of anticipation that I brushed past a couple of bell boys and approached the desk. "Can you tell me," I inquired, "where Aunt Fanny's room might be?"

C-C

"It might be on Church St., but it's not," replied the clerk with a polite, frozen smile.

"It is upstairs, but don't tell me you are going up there," he said, shaking his finger reprovingly. "You know it is not being done."

C-C

However I remained firm in my resolve and saved the conscience of the honest fellow by giving him a couple of my photographs.

Yes, dear public, there were tears in his eyes.

C-C

"Come in," called a sweet voice in response to my discreet knock. It had been many moons indeed since I had last beheld Aunt Fanny. But it was the same kindly smile smeared over the same genial face that greeted me as I stole into the room.

C-C

Aunt Fanny reclined, her well-groomed leonine head against some pillows, and daintily placed an ice pack upon her brow. "You must excuse me," she apologized. "I took some tonic last night."

C-C

"How is it that you wear such a chic moustache?" I asked after a few minutes chat. "An old Castilian custom that I picked up from a barber in Seville," she explained. "But please don't interview me here. Let's take an elevator."

Grasping my hand she gaily hurried me to the elevator landing. She immediately pressed all the buttons, waited, and then dashed for the nearest green light.

"I am at the joolry convention you see," she continued, "I am selling a patent sterling silver pea eating knife with a slotted blade capable of safely carrying nine standard grade peas."

C-C

She paused at the eighth floor to throw out the elevator man and take over the controls. "There is an automatic release on the knife," she went on, "that drives each pea down the slot with each application of bite pressure on the point. The entrance of each grain to the mouth is, of course, facilitated by the removal of a front tooth."

C-C

We were now whizzing madly up and down twelve floors at a time in response to Aunt Fanny's deft touch on the control buttons.

"Is it true you woo a Muse by making puns?" I asked.

"Well, figuratively speaking, that's what I metaphor," she replied.

"Ah I see that that deep pun's on you," I countered. And I fell hard for that one on Fanny.

Gaspard McGuffey.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Question of Eligibility

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

The Vic standpoint on the inter-faculty hockey dispute is this: Norma Bateman is playing intercollegiate basketball and there is no ruling at present to prevent her from playing interfaculty hockey at the same time. So, why should Vic not play her?

Last month Dr. Gordon signed her slip for intercollegiate basketball and the Victoria Women's Medical Advisor has also passed Norma as AI, and has given her permission to play interfaculty hockey as well. Why, then, if there is no danger to her health should she not take part in both sports?

Norma Bateman is the holder of the Vic Women's Athletic Stick and hockey is her one direct contact with athletics in her own college this winter. Surely there is no good reason why the Scarlet and Gold team should be deprived of her inspiration! E.M.A.

Beer as a Mouthwash

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

There appears to be considerable controversy in your illustrious journal concerning the sale of beer in Hart House. Personally we are not greatly concerned about the benefits received from beer as a beverage, but we feel at this time it would be well to quote a certain passage from the Dental Students' Magazine. "At a dentist's convention in London the announcement was made that beer is the best mouthwash."

If there is truth in this statement, and it seems well founded, by all means the members of Hart House should be provided with a means for obtaining a widely known mouthwash at first hand, and thereby conquer that monster Halitosis. In this event they would go forth breathing sweetness and happiness on the world and their best friends would not have to tell them. Yours till 4 out of 5 are cured, Dents, 370.

HART HOUSE ELECTIONS

(Continued from page 1)

The House and Sketch Committees both hope that as far as possible candidates will arrange to have their posters done by members of Hart House and with this purpose in view a list has been prepared of those undergraduates who are qualified and ready to design posters. This list is given below. Any other members of Hart House who are prepared to do posters should notify the Warden's office at once when their name will be added to the list below.

It should be understood, however, that members may have their posters done by anyone they wish.

Members of Hart House prepared to do Posters:

J. K. Bradford, II S.P.S., Tr. 1340.
W. G. Heslop, IV S.P.S., Tr. 3720.
C. E. Hedwig, IV S.P.S., Ll. 3921.
J. M. Friedman, IV U.C., Tr. 2384.
J. Campbell, IV U.C., Hu. 3786.
S. B. E. Ryerson, I U.C., Hy. 5753.
W. E. Nofke, (member of Hart House, student at O.C.A.), Mi. 3292.
G. H. Buckland, III Trinity, Ll. 5712

Blended Right!

20 for 25c.

Winchester

CIGARETTES

A "POKER HAND" IN EVERY PACKAGE

Delightful mildness and superb fragrance, blended into the cigarettes of supreme satisfaction—

Winchester

CIGARETTES

HA! HA! DISCOVERED—SO THAT'S WHERE EVERYBODY'S GOING.

Naturally, the Victoria Theatre where Capt. Plunkett is staging a mammoth revue, 70 people, beauty ballet, all Dumbell's stars, Romanelli and 24-piece band, 5 Broadway headliners.

COMPLETELY NEW REVUE EVERY WEEK

"More of Broadway than Toronto"—Globe.

WHAT PRICES! Eves: 47c, 70c, 95c. Tax Extra.

Popular Matinee: Wed., Sat.

THE ROYAL TAILORS

Invites all students to inspect their new Spring woollens now on display at their Headquarters,

468 Wellington St. W.

A discount is given to all Students.

Easter April 20th

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

Why invest in a new suit. Rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street.

ANOTHER SUMMER TOUR TO EUROPE with PROFESSOR ROBINS

Under the Auspices of the STUDENTS' TRAVEL CLUB and the OUNARD LINE

JUNE 20 to AUGUST 24 Optional Later Return Sailings

FRANCE—Paris, Versailles, Avignon (the French Riviera), Nice, Monte Carlo. ITALY—Genoa, Rome, Florence, Venice, Milan, the Italian lakes. SWITZERLAND—Lugano, motor trip through the Swiss Alps by Furka, the Rhone Glacier, Interlaken, Lucerne, the William Tell country. The Austrian TYROL—Innsbruck. GERMANY—Munich. The Passion Play at Oberammergau; Wiesbaden; the Rhine by boat; Cologne. BELGIUM—Brussels; the Canadian Battle Front by motor (Ypres, Hill 60, St. Julien), Ghent, Bruges. HOLLAND—Amsterdam; The Hague. ONE WEEK IN LONDON, ENGLAND, and SCOTLAND and NORTH WALES by motor. Oxford, Stratford-on-Avon, Kenilworth, Warwick, Chester, North Wales, the English Lakes, Windermere, Keswick (the Wordsworth country), Carlisle, Dryburgh, Abbotsford, Melrose (the Scott country), Edinburgh, the Trossachs (Loch Lomond, Loch Katrine, Ayr (the Burns country), Glasgow.

Excellent hotel accommodation and motor service everywhere. Inclusive price, $780.00. (One week longer than last year.)

Apply for further information and address applications to either Professor J. D. Robins, Victoria College. Tel. Kenwood 5884 or Miss Alta Lind Cook, 111 Pears Avenue. Tel. Randolph 7789

The Students' Travel Club also offers programmes to all parts of Europe with sailings from first of May. Unusual itineraries include Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Warsaw, Berlin, Madrid, Motor Trips through Austrian Tyrol and Dolomites, the Pyrenees, the French Alps.

For information apply to Miss Alta Lind Cook, (General Canadian Representative), 111 Pears Avenue. Tel. Randolph 7789.

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon

In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

U.C. MERMAIDS CAPTURE SWIMMING MEET 41 TO ST. HILDA'S 34

U. C. SWIMMERS ARE CHAMPIONS

But Highest Individual Score Won by Nan Orde, St. Hilda's

U.C. GIRL BREAKS RECORDS

Scoring 41 points to 34 of St. Hilda's, their nearest rivals, co-ed natators from University College won the interfaculty swimming championship at the meet held last night in the Hart House pool, although the individual championship went to Nan Orde of St. Hilda's, who collected 17 points. Household Science followed with 16, then Meds with 4, Vic with 3 and St. Mike's with 1.

Betty Edwards, U.C., came second for individual honours with 15 points, and Margot MacDonald, Household Science, was third with 12. Mary Wyndow of U.C. won both the style and ornamental swimming, while St. Hilda's took all three places in diving.

An exhibition of fancy swimming was given by five swimmers from the Parkdale Ladies Athletic Club. The results:

Long plunge—1, Nan Orde, St. Hilda's; 2, Rosamond McCulloch, Meds; 3, Beulah Hutner, H.S. Distance, 62' 9".

Free style, 50 yards—1, Betty Edwards, U.C.; 2, Margot MacDonald, H.S.; 3, Nan Orde, St. Hilda's.

Style swimming—1, Mary Wyndow, U.C.; 2, Carol Denison, St. Hilda's; 3, Beulah Hutner, H.S.

Breast stroke, 50 yards—1, Betty Edwards, U.C.; 2, Margot MacDonald, H.S.; 3, Florence Haslam, Meds. Time, 43' 3-5.

Back stroke, 25 yards—1, Betty Edwards, U.C.; 2, Margot MacDonald, H.S.; 3, Marybel Quinn, St. Mike's. Time, 18' 3-5.

Diving competition—1, Helen Oakley, St. Hilda's; 2, Nan Orde, St. Hilda's; 3, Naomi Slater, St. Hilda's.

Side stroke, 50 yards; 1, Nan Orde, St. Hilda's; 2, Margot MacDonald, H.S.; 3, Naomi Slater, St. Hilda's. Time, 40' 2-5.

Ornamental swimming—1, Mary Wyndow; 2, Gertrude Johnson; 3, Beulah Hutner.

Relay race, 100 yards—1, U.C.; 2, Vic, St. Hilda's (tie). Time 1:04' 4-5.

Canadian Bill At Hart House Theatre

Sentimental love scenes, rollicking fun and intrigue in a background of familiar and glamorous Canadian history are all combined in "His Majesty's Maidens", a romantic comedy by Raymond Card which is to be the Canadian offering at Hart House theatre next week. A French maiden whose beauty excites the admiration of the king is kidnapped by the agents of the jealous Mme. Pompadour and transported to Canada with "His Majesty's Maidens", a group of women who are going there to become the wives of settlers. Her lover, an English nobleman, ignorant of her fate, goes to Canada, after long searching, to fight under General Wolfe, when the threads of the drama are unravelled. The scenes of the play have a wide range, moving from Paris to London and finally to Quebec.

CO-ED PUCKCHASERS TIE T.H.L. FIXTURE

Sensational Goal Tending Keeps Blue Team Off Score Sheet

0—0

Varsity women's intercollegiate hockey team tied Toronto Ladies 0-0 in a City League fixture last night at the Blue Arena. Varsity had an edge on the play all through, especially in the second period, when the Toronto goalie made several excellent saves to keep Varsity out.

Play was quite fast, and at first was fairly even, but Varsity soon opened a withering attack, led by Betty Carter, who went right through the Toronto team several times. In the second period Varsity scored a goal, but it was called back for offside.

In the last frame Ruth Walker and Kay White attacked strongly and gave Varsity supporters several anxious moments.

Varsity—Goal, Helen McKinley; defence, Adele Statten, Rox Vanstone; centre, Margot Thompson; wings, Betty Carter, Helen Hilliard; subs, Dot James, Dot Starr, Joyce Muirhead, Naomi Slater.

Toronto Ladies—Goal, Helen Richards; defence, Connie Hennessy, Norma Gardner; centre, Kay White; wings, Hazel Rutter, Ruth Walker; subs, Honey MacBean, Sarah MacCausland, Edith Seaman.

SENIOR VIC BEATEN BY SENIOR DENTS 15-6

Senior Dents defeated Senior Victoria yesterday 15 to 6 in a rather listless basketball game. The first half was about as slow as it could be. Neither team doing anything spectacular.

The second half opened with Dents letting loose a bag of tricks that had the Vic team flabbergasted. Hurwitz and Jolofsky of the Dents would sweep down the floor with such speed and fine passing which would make up for the lack of team work in the first period. Hurwitz incidentally scored seven points for his team, a team in which every member scored.

Bowles and Devitt of the Victoria team played well, breaking up many of the Dents' attacks.

Sr. Dents—Merrel, Levenson, Golofsky, Beachy, Hurwitz; subs, Walden, Stewart.

Sr. Victoria—Tilton, Bowles, Devitt, Bowle, Searle; subs, Berry and Clarke.

Raymond Card, the author of the play, is well known to undergraduates as the author of the Players' Guild, where he has produced several of his group of Canadian historical plays, "General Wolfe", "When the Assault was intended to the City", and "Laura Secord".

The director, Mr. Stone, has assembled an excellent cast including Miss Elaine Wodson, Miss Eleanor Norton, Walter Bowles, the author himself, and Brownlow Card, as well as several undergraduates, Everard Nash, Andrew Allan, Edward Joliffe, Stanley Ryerson, Howe Martyn, and Hamilton Miller.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity junior hockeyists enter the second round of the O.H.A. playoffs when they play the Parry Sound sextet in Parry Sound to-night. The Blue and White will go into the game heavy favourites. They should gain a substantial lead to take into the return match which will be played Saturday afternoon at the Arena Gardens.

Parry Sound captured their group only after defeating Orillia 1 to 0 in an extra game which went 30 minutes overtime. St. Andrew's College juniors won an exhibition tilt in Orillia. The Aurora sextet made a very mediocre showing in the Prep. School group. From this dope, the Parry Sounders can scarcely be regarded as a serious threat to Varsity's championship aspirations.

Many local followers of athletics will take time off to go down to the Coliseum to-night to catch a glimpse of some famous international track stars in action. George Simpson is being heralded on the other side as "the fastest human". Johnny Fitzpatrick, the Canadian Olympic flash, and a promising freshman named Engel will contest this assertion and represent the Blue and White at the meet. Ralph Adams, Wally Graham and Gord Jermyn are the other Varsity athletes who will compete.

Jackie Phillips, Canadian welterweight boxing champion, and his brother Ted, sparred with the Varsity mitt men yesterday and imparted some of their professional knowledge. The U. of T. B. W. and F. squad is finishing its training prior to the intercollegiate assault in Montreal this Friday and Saturday.

Varsity's senior women's hockey team tied their T.H.L. fixture with Toronto Ladies last night by a 0-0 score. The Blues have not won a T.H.L. game yet, and are now definitely out of the running in the City League. They will indeed have a sorry record if they cannot win the game against Queen's on Monday.

University College took the swimming title again this season by annexing 41 points in the women's interfaculty meet last night at Hart House. St. Hilda's were second with 34. Victoria rosters were very disappointed when the Scarlet and Gold outfit could garner no more than 3 points.

Nan Orde of Saint Hilda's won the individual title, with 17 points, displacing Margot MacDonald of Household Science, last year's champion, who only placed third with 12.

Betty Edwards of U.C. was the star of the meet, winning three firsts, the free style, breast stroke, and back stroke, breaking the previous interfaculty records in all three. Miss Edwards is a member of the Granite Club and holds the Canadian record for the 220 yard free style. She placed second to Nan Orde last night with 15 points.

The Blue cage team leaves to-morrow for Western, where the tournament is to be held this year. Varsity won the "Bronze Baby", famous basketball trophy last season, and should be able to retain it again this year. The Blue and White is playing much better basketball up to date than they did last season.

The women's athletic directorate is meeting to-day to discuss the interfaculty hockey situation. The directorate has taken the matter out of the hands of the hockey club and will probably announce a decision to-night.

SECOND CANADIAN TRACK MEET

Eight Toronto Men to Compete Against World's Great Athletes

The second Canadian indoor track championship meet at the Coliseum to-night should be one of the most successful track competitions ever held in Canada. The University of Toronto track club has entered a team of eight men who are to compete against some of the world's greatest athletes. Owing to the fact that Varsity's athletes have been making excellent times on the Hart House track, their chances look good for a few points.

Entered in the 60 metres are Johnny Fitzpatrick, who took second at the famous Millrose games in New York last week, and Bill Engel, freshman sprinter of ability. With such opposition as George Simpson, who has broken the world's record using starting blocks, Leigh Miller, winner of the Millrose games, Leschinsky, the Detroit flying cop, and many other noted sprinters from U.C. and Canada, a great race is assured.

In the 1000 metres, Don Smith and F. W. Peart, who have been both making excellent marks indoors, should do well. With such stars as Phil Edwards and Dr. Paul Martin of Switzerland in this event, another great race is expected.

In the 60 metres hurdles, George Laughlin of Varsity will oppose Monte Wells, sensational hurdler of U. S., and Ravensdale, Canadian champion.

The 3000 metres medley relay race which is the feature event, should be taken by Varsity owing to the outstanding team of Fitzpatrick, Adams,

TEAMS IN MONTREAL READY FOR ASSAULT

Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Prospects Seem Fairly Hopeful for Varsity

Varsity's boxing, wrestling and fencing teams invade Montreal to-night, full of optimism over their chances of leaving the field with the championship score in the intercollegiate assault. All three teams finished off their preparations yesterday afternoon with workouts in Hart House. Jackie Phillips, Canadian welterweight champion, boxed a few rounds with several men of the team.

The Toronto boxers expect their strongest opposition from Queen's Coach Jarvis of the Limestone City has been concentrating for the past three years on his mittmen, and claims that he has developed a squad who will provide the wickedest punching an collegiate meet has brought forth in many moons. Varsity's chances for success seem to rest largely on their being able to subdue the Kingston glove artists.

The wrestlers look strong enough to take a majority of the points in their division, while the fencing trio of Dinleys, Lee and Clark are conceded to be just a little too stormy for any opposition they are likely to meet.

Jermyn and Graham. Fitzpatrick will run the 400 metres, Adams the 200 metres, Jermyn the 800 metres, and Graham the 1600 metres, in that order. As this team is composed of two of the fastest sprinters and two of the fleetest middle-distance men in Canada, the race should go to Varsity, providing the Hamilton Olympic club springs no surprises.

WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM

43 glorious days with your friends and fellow students, and all expenses for $424.25

SCOTLAND
HOLLAND

ENGLAND
BELGIUM

FRANCE

A Special All Student Tour

arranged and directed by
The National Federation of Canadian University Students

A chaperone will go with the Tour and an experienced leader will also accompany it throughout. For further information apply to A. GORDON BURNS, S.A.C. Office, Hart House, Tr. 5036.

Sailing via Canadian Pacific

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

269 College St. Trinity 5987

Harry Winfield, Prop

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Write your city

We Have Your Home Town Paper

Lending Library

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of Formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE

571 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

Toronto Hairdressers' Annual Exhibition

of Hairdressing and Beauty Culture will be held in the Crystal Ball Room of the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, on February 25th, 26th, and 27th.

Be sure and do not fail to see the Pender demonstrations of hairdressing, manufacturing of artistic hair goods, permanent waving and hair tinting. The demonstrations in hair tinting will be extended over forty different shades.

Come and see the demonstrations of permanent waving, hair tinting, and all the different styles of hairdressing on the forty pretty models, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 25th, 26th and 27th.

Tickets can be secured at the store. We will be fortunate in having with us three of the very best hair specialists in the United States, and hairdressers from all over Canada will take part in the Exhibition.

Do not forget the date.

Special lectures on hair tinting for hairdressers in Room G, at the King Edward Hotel, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon and evening by Emil Rohde of Chicago. Admittance free.

Max Factor's Society Make-up—"The Cosmetics of the Stars"

THE W. T. PEMBER STORES LTD.

129 YONGE STREET

Toronto, Ont.

Telephones EL. 2388 and 2236-7

Branch Store: 272 Yonge St. Open Evenings Phone Ad. 4197

95 YONGE ST.

The Men's Shoe Shop

To-day's young men demand comfort as well as style and long wear. Every pair of shoes in our extensive stock is superbly designed, quality built and keen to give loyal service. Reasonably priced, too.

J. G. KNOX & TALBOT CO.

Open Evenings

EL. 1709

Coming Events

THURSDAY, FEB. 20
4 p.m.—Mass meeting of Victoria College women students in Wymilwood. Urgent.

4.15 p.m.—Department of Physics Seminar.

8 p.m.—A meeting of the Chess Club will be held in the South Common Room. Beginners are specially invited.

8.15—Victoria College Classical Association in Annesley Hall.

8.15—Combined meeting of the Victoria College and University College French Societies at the Women's Union.

FRIDAY, FEB. 21
9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Committees open.

9.30 a.m.—3.00 p.m.—Model Assembly of the League of Nations.

8 p.m.—Special session, Model Assembly.

9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College Arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22
9.30 a.m.—2.30 p.m.—Model Assembly of the League of Nations.

8.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill Menorah Society.

SUNDAY, FEB. 23
11 a.m.—Special service at St. Paul's conducted by Canon Cody and Sir Herbert Ames in connection with the Model Assembly.

MONDAY, FEB. 24
8.15 p.m.—St. Joseph's College Dramatic Club: "She Stoops to Conquer."

8.15—Meeting of the Italian-Spanish Club at the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street.

TUESDAY, FEB. 25
8.00 p.m.—Victoria College Dramatic Society at-home in Wymilwood.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26
8 p.m.—Final debate in Lecture Room of Hart House.

9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 27
4.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Women's Press Club. Short story contributions from the members will be read and criticized. Good chance to try for the pin.

8.30 p.m.—Trinity College annual conversation at the college.

STUDENT RIGHTS

(Continued from page 1)

faculty organ. The story of the affair, it was said, will hark back to before the time the board of publications called for candidates to fill the position vacated by Harrison Salisbury, former managing editor, when he was suspended from the university for a period of one year because he violated the no-smoking rule in the library.

When Mr. Salisbury was suspended, K. Valdimar Bjornson, then editorial chairman, was appointed by the board temporarily to take over the direction of the publication.

The board then called for candidates for the post of managing editor, but the race piled up in a muddle when the choice was declared "no election" by E. E. Nicholson, dean of student affairs, who gave "political affiliations" of the appointee as his objections to the board's selection. The dean proposed that a "downtown" newspaperman be hired to run the paper. It was this proposal that caused the staff to refuse to continue.

The Victoria College Music Club celebrated the initial success of their production of the Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "The Pirates of Penzance", by a supper dance in the Royal York Hotel Tuesday night.

TAG DAY A SUCCESS

(Continued from page 1)

lars more this year than was collected last year. The money goes to assist students in foreign countries who are striving to obtain an education under the greatest difficulties. The situation in Bulgaria is extremely serious.

Asked if similar projects were being held in other Canadian universities, Mr. Moore stated that the McGill branch of the Student Federation had adopted the idea of holding a golly-wog sale.

About one hundred girls gave their services. No unusual incidents were reported, although several men who had not anticipated a tag day on the campus blushing expressed their regrets at being unable to contribute.

FRIDAY, FEB. 23

8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.

9 p.m.—P.C.I. Ex-Students Association first annual At-Home.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6

German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersuchtig", "Ein Knopf", at Women's Union.

The Table Round

WHAT JEFFERSON DID

Founded by Thomas Jefferson on a basis of "eternal hostility to every form of tyranny over the minds of men", the University of Virginia remains the only institution of its kind in the United States which has not become collegiate. Without producing any sensational successes or mental prodigies, it has carried on for over one hundred years in a manner different from all the other universities in the country.

There is no "vagabonding" at the University of Virginia. Students are free to take what lectures they wish. Sport, if we may believe what we read, is indulged in for its own sake, and the rah-rah type of student is discouraged. Few students there are fraternity men, in fact, the fraternity is regarded with a certain amount of suspicion.

This university, unique in so many features, is the subject of a half-panegyric article in the current issue of the American Mercury. I say half-panegyric advisedly, for, like all human creations, the institution is not without its blemishes. Not long ago, a rumour was stirred up by charges that male students and co-eds were drunk at a football game between Virginia and a neighbouring university. Stalwarts of the Anti-Saloon League of America demanded a probe and urged that action be taken by the state. University officials, however, were firm in their denials of the charges, and a number of graduates gallantly took upon themselves the responsibility for what drunkenness there was at the game.

There appears to be no justification for assuming that there is any more drinking at Virginia than at any other university across the line, however. It is considered a breach of the university code of conduct to be drunk at a dance.

That it has existed for one hundred years is a tribute to its founder and to those who have guided its destinies since his time. But it is only another illustration of the fact that weaknesses are inherent in every system of education devised by the mind of man. For all its originality of method, it has produced no outstanding genius or great leader as yet.

P.E.U.

MOTION PICTURES IN CANADA

(Continued)

Canada is a virgin field commercially and particularly for the motion picture industry, and the day is not far distant when the production of motion pictures will be a Canadian feature. The ordinary individual, if confronted with the subject, would say, "There is no market for Canadian films", or "It is impossible to market pictures made in Canada". There is no doubt that this is absolutely a false theory. There IS a market for Canadian films of merit.—The British Empire! The importation of films into Canada increased by 8,000,000 feet in the past year. Why should this be necessary in a country possessing such wonderful "locations" and material for producing its own pictures as Canada has? The question "Why are there no Canadian films?" has, I am sure, been asked many times in the British Isles, France, Germany and other countries where films have been successfully produced.

Many films depicting episodes of our famous Royal North West Mounted Police have been filmed in Hollywood and proven box office successes, yet most of these films have lacked the true Canadian atmosphere unsuccessfully "Americanized". I understand that Canadian motion picture companies have been organized in the Western Provinces, but unfortunately no film was completed. The few regrettable attempts to produce pictures in Ontario, with Canadian money, have certainly not helped to stimulate interest in the development of this industry, but these failures are not proof that motion pictures cannot be made in Canada even if only news reels were produced.

I have little doubt that motion pictures and "talkies" will develop into a new Canadian industry in the very near future. The progress of this already initiated Canadian film production largely depends upon Canadian financiers. Instead of saying, "Yes, yes, it is a wonderful idea", and stop at that, if they would loosen up and invest in something new, something really worth while, something All-Canadian, they would help greatly in bringing to the front, "ALL-CANADIAN MOTION PICTURES".

M.R.S.

Simpson's February Sale of Spring Suits

Buy in February and save 20%

$36
March Price, $45

$31.60
March Price, $39.50

$28
March Price, $35

$23.60
March Price, $29.50

$18
March Price, $22.50

A small Deposit of 25 per cent. will Reserve any Suit in the Sale until April 1st

Third Floor

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS!

KL. 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

C. O. T. C.

ORDERS

By
Lieut-Col. T. R. Loudon, Commanding
University of Toronto C.O.T.C.
184 College St.
19th February 1930

8.

O.T.C. EXAMINATIONS—Part I. (a) A Board of Officers, composed as under, will assemble at the University Avenue Armouries on Saturday, 22nd February, 1930, for the purpose of examining candidates for O.T.C. Certificates, ARTILLERY:—

PRESIDENT—Major D. H. McKay, 53rd. Fd. Bty. C.A.

MEMBERS—Captain de L. Panet, R.C.H.A.; Captain T. M. Medland, 15th Fd. Bty. C.A.

Candidates will report to the President of the Board at 9.15 a.m. Dress.—Drill order, greatcoats and belts.

The list of approved candidates is posted at Corps Headquarters.

(b) A Board of Officers, composed as under, will assemble at the University Avenue Armouries on Saturday, 22nd February, 1930, for the purpose of examining candidates for O.T.C. Certificates "A" and "B", INFANTRY.

PRESIDENT—Lt.-Col. A. K. Hemming, R.C.R.

MEMBERS—Lieut. C. Foulkes, R.C.R.; Lieut. G. K. McAggy, R.C.R.

Candidates will report to Sergeant Noble at the Armouries not later than 9.10 a.m.; rifles will be issued at the Armouries, candidates will bring their own belts.

Dress.—Drill order, greatcoats, belts.

The final, revised list of candidates approved for the examination will be posted at Corps Headquarters, on the morning of Thursday, 20th February.

(Signed) W. S. Wilson, Capt. & Adj.

Europe.

7.00 p.m.—Dinner at the Granite Club. Critique of sessions by Sir Herbert Ames.

11.00 a.m.—St. Paul's Church, Sunday, February 23rd.

Canon Cody will preach the League sermon he delivered in 1926 at Geneva.

4.30 p.m.—Afternoon tea given by Mrs. H. D. Warren at Red Gables.

BULLETIN BOARD

TRACK MEET USHERS

All ushers for the track meet and others who signed list in the Athletic Office, also those who have been notified by telephone please get your tickets at Athletic Office to-day and report at Coliseum by 6.45.

SUNDAY EVENING CONCERT

Eighty single tickets, which will admit men only for the Sunday Evening Concert to be held in the Great Hall on Sunday next, 23rd February, will be issued at the Hall Porter's desk at 1 p.m. to-day.

370 S.P.S.

The attention of the 1930 class in chemical and mechanical engineering is drawn to the following:

D. B. Gauss of the Proctor & Gamble Manufacturing Company, Hamilton, will be at 15 Queen's Park on Friday morning, 21st February, to interview any members of the above-mentioned classes interested in the manufacture and distribution of their products. The company are makers of soaps, glycerines, lards and allied products, with factory at Hamilton. Please telephone Kingsdale 5216 for a definite appointment.

MODEL ASSEMBLY

(Continued from page 1)

for Guest Speakers and out-of-town delegates.

8.00 p.m.—Reconvene, Convocation Hall. Open to the public.

Discussion of year's work continued from the morning session.

Discussion of the Minorities question continued from the morning session.

Speakers: Sir Herbert Ames, Sir Robert Falconer, and Dr. H. M. Tory.

JOINT FRENCH SOCIETIES

There will be a combined meeting of the Victoria and University College French Societies Thursday at 8.15 p.m. in the Women's Union. Special program of music and plays. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

The League of Nations Club needs a number of volunteers to drive the out-of-town delegates to the Model Assembly from University College to the Royal York Hotel at 12.30 on Friday. Please get in touch with Anne Harris, Gerrard 1225.

MODEL ASSEMBLY

All participants in the Model Assembly are asked to meet to-night (Thursday) from 8-10, at the Women's Union, 79 St. George St., to meet out-of-town delegates and learn all particulars regarding Model Assembly program.

VICTORIA

Victoria College At-Home tickets are on sale in the college to-day from 1.30 to 3.30 p.m.

Re Torontonensis

Space cannot be reserved for the following copy after

Monday, February 24th

Men's Athletics

S.P.S.—

Rowing Team
Water Polo Team
Hockey Team
Soccer Team
Basketball Team
Basketball Team
Indoor Track Team
Outdoor Track Team
Gymnasium Team
"S" Holders
"T" Holders
Athletic Assoc.

MEDS.—

Athletic Executive
"T" Holders
"M" Holders

U. C.—

Athletic Soc.
"T" Holders
Colour Holders
Water Polo Team

TRINITY—

Boxing and Wrestling Team
Hockey Team
Basketball Team
Rugby Team

DENTS—

Athletic Assoc.
Hockey Team
"T" Holders
"D" Holders

VICTORIA—

Athletic Union

KNOX—

Rugby Team
Soccer Team

ST. MICHAEL'S—

Athletic Soc.

Women's Athletics

MEDS.—

Athletic Assoc.

VICTORIA—

Athletic Exec.

Sr. Basketball Team

Jr. Basketball Team

Swimming Team

Baseball Team

Sr. Hockey Team

Jr. Hockey Team

Tennis Club

ST. HILDA'S—

Athletic Assoc.

Basketball Team

Swimming Team

Tennis Team

Hockey Team

U. C.—

Basketball Team

Swimming Team

Baseball Team

Tennis Club

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE—

Basketball Team

Swimming Team

Hockey Team

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21st, 1930

No. 88

WOMEN OF VICTORIA APPROVE CHANGES IN STUDENT COUNCIL

Union of All Students is Being Adopted in New Council

JOINT COUNCIL ELECTED

Friction Between Councils Will be Prevented by Scheme

The proposed constitution for a Victoria College Union was unanimously passed by the Women's Undergraduate Association at a mass meeting held yesterday in Wymilwood.

This union of all undergraduates of Victoria College, is being adopted for the purpose of mutual benefit and improvement. For many years there has been a need for a central power to represent to the outside world the student opinion as a whole. Also in the case of large college events such as the recent inauguration of the new Chancellor there was no body to act for the undergraduates. Moreover it should eliminate such frictions as there have been between the W.U.A. and the V.S.P. in recent years.

The constitution was first proposed by the men, but when discussed by the W.U.A., it was found quite inadequate, especially in financial matters, where there are various obligations. Separate executives were appointed, which advanced the accepted constitution. With regard to finances there is provision made for the various needs of each body.

The constitution is built upon the idea of parliamentary responsibility with an executive committee to act for the student body. It is to amalgamate all existing and future societies and to promote interfaculty relationship.

There is a council of three men for men's nominations, and three women for women's nominations, to be followed by the general election. In this way capable persons are certain to be elected. It also prevents "Liberal elections", a peculiar development at Victoria lately.

Every undergraduate is eligible to vote, the first year having only one-third representation.

This Union is a radical change at Victoria and the responsibility of its success depends largely upon the second and third years.

The guests of honour at Miss Kilpatrick's tea in her room at the Women's Union, Tuesday afternoon were Professor and Mrs. Norman Mackenzie.

MCGILL CONQUERS VARSITY SENIORS; 1st RED COLLEGE TITLE IN 18 YEARS

McTeer Scores Only Goal in College Hockey Final

RALPH ST. GERMAIN STARS

Redmen's Stubborn Defensive Game Keeps Blues From Tallying

Special to "The Varsity" by Staff Writer

By Larry Dawson

The Forum, Montreal, Feb. 20.—McGill won their first intercollegiate hockey championship since 1912 by defeating Varsity here to-night 1-0, getting a goal after 12 minutes of play in the first period and blocking every Blue attempt for the tying counter.

The game was fast, but was marred by a great deal of whistle blowing.

Varsity was minus the services of Freddy Murray, alternate left winger, and this necessitated a rearranged line up. Varsity gave all they had, but the stubborn defensive play of the redmen, featured by Powers' sensational goal tending, was too much for Red Porter's men. St. Germain played a great game at centre ice, as did McGillivray and Powers on the defence. For Varsity Bill Stewart, Jimmy McMullen and Bruce Paul were outstanding. Stewart was dangerous all evening and McMullen gave Powers plenty to do. Paul rushed time after time and was unfortunate not to get at least one counter. Ames, in goal, also turned in a fine performance, having no chance on the goal.

The first period opened slowly, both teams playing cautious hockey. Red Porter started McMullen, Billy Bell and Marshall on the forward line against Robertson, St. Germain and Farquharson. The Saint was the spearhead of the Redmen's attack and led every rush into Varsity territory. Paul opened up with a nice lone rush and Powers made a good save. St. Germain came right back and his pass to Farquharson nearly resulted in a goal. Bill Stewart and Harley replaced Bell and Marshall on the ice and on the first play Stewart's wicked drive made Powers do some fast work. St. Germain shot a hot one at Ames and the Varsity goalies, snarling the rebound, passed out to a McGill man, who missed a great chance to score. McTeer got through, but lost the puck. Play speeded up and after twelve minutes of play McTeer on a solo rush rounded the Blue defence and put McGill one up. Play was fast for the remainder of the session, with Varsity boring in.

Varsity set a terrific pace in the second session. "Skin" Dewar replaced Whitehead on the defence and "Red" went up to right wing. The

(Continued on page 3)

Ralph St. Germain

McGill's colourful all-round athlete, who led the Redshirts on to their first Intercollegiate title in 18 years.

STUDENTS EARN CASH AND SERVE SCIENCE

Volunteers for Dick Test Get Three Dollars for Reaction

SENIOR MEOS PREFERRED

The progress of medical science has opened a new and novel method by which undergraduates may earn a few extra dollars.

The Dick test for the purpose of studying scarlet fever is under process of experimentation by medical scientists at the Connaught Laboratories of the university. A bounty of three dollars is granted to those who undergo the test and react to it. Several students, notably medical students, have taken advantage of this offer.

A serum is injected into the arm, according to one student who underwent the test, but failed to react to it. If there is no reaction to the test the subject is not paid and he is considered immune from the disease.

The test has been administered for a number of years in the public and high schools of New York City with success.

Medical students in the fifth and sixth years are preferred as subjects for the test, as a rule, but several students from other faculties have taken advantage of the offer.

ANNUAL VICTORIA COLLEGE AT-HOME AT HART HOUSE

Three hundred and fifty couples will make merry in Hart House to-night. This is the long looked for occasion of the Victoria College at-home.

The ticket list has been over-subscribed and all signs point to one of the smartest social events of the season.

Entrance will be by the southwest door and everyone must have their tickets or they will not get in.

Hart House Elections

Nominations for the six standing committees of Hart House open to-day at 9 a.m. Forms may be obtained at the Warden's office, which must be filled in with the names and addresses of the mover and seconder as well as of the candidate. Nominations close at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, 26th of February, after which date no nominations will be accepted.

ASSEMBLY DELEGATES ATTEND RECEPTION AT WOMEN'S UNION

First U. of T. Assembly Opens This Morning in East Hall at Nine O'clock

MANY DELEGATES ATTEND

Queen's Intimates Opposition to Covenant Amendment on Behalf of Germany

The international Model Assembly of the League of Nations, the first Model Assembly to be held at the University of Toronto, opens in East Hall of University College, this morning. Delegates from Queen's, Western, McMaster, the Royal University of New Brunswick, Victoria College, the University of Ottawa and McGill University arrived yesterday, and met the Toronto delegates in the Women's Union last night at the League of Nations Club At-Home, the informal reception of the club for the visiting delegates to the Model Assembly. Delegates from Manitoba and from Vassar College, Harvard and Princeton will arrive by each train this morning.

The Queen's University delegation, representing Germany, hinted at violent opposition to the proposed amendment to the covenant with which report the discussion will be opened. The reorganization of the Permanent Court and American adherence to the Permanent Court are the other reports for the morning session which will adjourn for luncheon at the Roof Garden of the Royal York, where Dr. Saleh Bland will speak.

The Jewish-Arab claims in Palestine will start the afternoon debates which will then deal with the report of the committee on Minorities.

Sir Herbert Ames, Sir Robert Falconer and Dr. H. M. Tory will speak to the Minorities report at the Special Plenary Session in Convocation Hall at eight o'clock this evening. The report of Colonel C. P. Meredith, Secretary-General of the Assembly, will also be discussed by the speakers.

Miss D. Kilpatrick is entertaining the visitors at the supper hour this evening.

A complete programme of all sessions of the Model Assembly with the names of all delegates participating, will be on sale both at East Hall and at Convocation Hall this evening.

PLEBISCITE ON BEER QUESTION TO TEST STUDENT PREFERENCES

For the first time the students at the university, both men and women, will have an opportunity of stating their preferences on a question of contentious nature. The question of whether or not beer should be sold at the university has agitated the students for some weeks now and a definite preference on the part of the students one way or the other is timely.

The method of voting is simplicity itself. On Tuesday "The Varsity" will carry the query, "Are you in favour of beer being sold within the university grounds?" It will be in the form of a coupon on the front page that may be torn out. There will be a place for "yes" and "no". The men and women will place an "X" opposite the side preferred.

The boxes for voting will be placed at Hart House entrance, at University College, at the School of Practical Science, at the Dental Building, the Medical Building, and it is hoped at Victoria, Trinity and St. Michael's Colleges. The day is Tuesday. The hours are 11.30 to 2.30.

Archdeacon R. B. McElheran Succeeds the Late Dr. O'Meara

Archdeacon R. B. McElheran of Winnipeg, whose appointment as principal of Wycliffe College to succeed the late Dr. O'Meara, was announced.

APPOINTMENT OF NEW HEAD FOR QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY

Retirement of Dr. R. B. Taylor Makes Decision Necessary at End of the Term

Dr. H. F. Munro, superintendent of education for the province of Nova Scotia, and Hon. W. F. Nickle, former Ontario Attorney General, are prominently mentioned for the post of principal of Queen's University, which position will become vacant with the retirement of Dr. R. Bruce Taylor.

Dr. Munro, who was mentioned as probable candidate by "The Varsity" several months ago, is a prominent educationist.

Although Dr. Taylor resigned as principal of Queen's University almost a year ago, he has been acting as principal since that time and will remain in the position until the end of the term. It is understood that the appointment of the new principal will probably not take place until early in June.

CENSORSHIP SHOULD GO SAY S.P.S. OEBTERS

The first debate for the Sedgewick Shield, of the S.P.S. Debating Club, was held in Room 35 of the Mining Building last evening. First and second years competed and after much deliberation the judges awarded the decision to the freshman team which held the view that "Literary and dramatic censorship should be abolished in Canada".

Shirley Denison, K.C. Verifies Rumour

HEADS WYCLIFFE

Takes Official Duties Next Term

The appointment of Archdeacon R. B. McElheran of Winnipeg as principal of Wycliffe College, verified the rumour to that effect which has been current for some time.

Archdeacon McElheran will succeed the late Dr. O'Meara as the third principal of Wycliffe College. He will not take up his official duties until the beginning of next term, according to Shirley Denison, K.C., member of the Board of Wycliffe College. In the meantime, Dr. Taylor, who has been acting principal since the recent death of Dr. O'Meara, will be in charge.

Archdeacon McElheran played a very prominent part in the life and work of the Anglican church. Born near Woodstock, Archdeacon McElheran gained his early education in that town. He graduated from the University of Toronto in 1907 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and in the following year got his M.A. degree, at the same time as he graduated from Wycliffe College in theology.

St. Mathew's Church, Winnipeg, was his first charge and it has been there that his life work has centred since that time. The gradual building up of this church by Archdeacon McElheran has made it easily the largest Anglican church in western Canada. But it was his work with young people that made the Archdeacon particularly unique in the church. He has had in his church one of the largest Sunday schools in Canada.

"Archdeacon McElheran is particularly fitted for this position by virtue of his success in young people's work," Dr. Taylor, acting principal of Wycliffe College told "The Varsity" last evening. "He has played an important part in the life and work of the Anglican Church, as well as having been an outstanding member of the General Synod of the Church."

EXAM SYSTEM STOPS NEGLECT OF STUDIES

Concentrated Gramming Caused by Exams During Term Says Fennell

COUNCIL CONSIDERS PLAN

Why do final exams in Arts begin the very day after term exams end? "A week is set at the end of each term in which the professors in every department may set examinations," said A. B. Fennell, Acting Registrar of the university. "The Christmas exams cover the work done in the Michaelmas term, the Easter exams cover that done in the spring term, which ends on April 30. It might be considered an advantage that the final exams come so soon afterwards, because there is less opportunity of forgetting what has already been learned."

Mr. Fennell explained that exams are not held throughout the term, so that students will not neglect their work to cram for an exam in one subject.

"The Arts' Council has talked of revising the system," the Registrar said, "but nothing better has as yet been suggested."

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Tests Toronto's Tube Tendencies

"Should the construction of a tube system be started in Toronto?"

Catharine MacShea, III St. Michael's—

"No! I don't see any necessity for it."

Edith Webster, IV University College—

"No! a few more buses are needed first."

Happy Halton, II Victoria—

"Sure, if it were around the university we could dodge the professors who are looking for essays."

Bessie Smith, IV Victoria—

"Yes, I think we should have one from Wymilwood to Vic library."

Evelyn Scully, II Mathematics and Physics, St. Michael's—

"No! tube stations would only add to present traffic congestion."

Ruby Masterson, II Household Science, Victoria—

"I certainly do. In a city the size of Toronto we should be able to get downtown in less than half an hour. After all, time is money."

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... Lou GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.
ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Usher, B.A.
NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hasel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: Hasel Hammond Assistant: Willie Ann Luckett

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21st, 1930

DOOMED TO FUTILITY?

The four horsemen of the apocalypse rein their phantom steeds at the barrier. The gaunt ghosts of wasted millions stalk the famine-ridden areas of inner China. France and Italy show the daggers hidden within the folds of the cloak of peace, and the Romans wish once more to say "mare nostrum" with the pristine glory of emperors whose fleets once swept the inland sea. The Tardieu ministry has fallen, and Ramsay MacDonald seems to falter in his forward steps—again the dove of peace is denied admittance to the conclaves of the nations. The maelstrom of racial tides in central Europe is once more moaning and sending its surges against the quiet shores; a tablet is unveiled to immortalize the student assassin of Archduke Ferdinand.

A million and again a million men cry in India against the paternalism of the British connection; their leader, Mahatma Gandhi, throws down the gauntlet of passive resistance to the alien administrator; the national fires burn high against the darkened skies. The atheistic passions of the Soviet seek the abolition of a religion that is all in all to the peoples of the western civilizations, the challenge to Christendom has been accepted by the church. Europe is an armed camp. France and Poland, hand in hand, eye a reviving Germany askance. The Teuton is no more likely to forget the Councils of Versailles after 1919 than did the Gaul forget the foreign footsteps in those very halls of mirrors after 1871. The dismembered Austrian Empire is a jumble of tongues and peoples, with a common religion of hate. And over all hovers the ominous shadow of the Soviet, seeking to darken the days of the unfit and the weak.

Never, perhaps, in the history of modern nations, has the outlook been so fraught with war and cataclysm. Titanic issues have taken the place of petty issues; war stalks hand in hand with inevitable fate upon the tragic boards of time. The comedy of war, once apparent to the detached observer of the quarrels of principalities and archdukes, has given way to imminent tragedy. The last war to end war, once hoped to be a katharsis that would purge the bitter feelings of the world, seems only to have been an irritant.

Into this stormy scene comes the League of Nations. Conceived at that time when the war leaders of the Allies came to decisions that seem likely to stir up wars and more wars, the League is intended to promote the interests of peace and understanding between nations. The League offers to act as third party in international disagreements where the decision obviously calls for external arbitration. The League acts as the champion of humanity.

To-day at this university a model assembly of the League of Nations is to be opened. To its organizers every credit and pride is due for having established in a community already over-ridden with activity a society which seems likely to become of the foremost. To those who participate in the meetings must be extended felicitations upon the lessons which are to be learned by the keen observers; lessons which are undoubtedly going to be of profit in the not far distant future.

The existence of the League, and the establishment of model assemblies offers to us, the lay public, the very greatest consolation in the face of such perils as we have mentioned. If never before has war seemed to threaten in universality, just as truly there has never been such interest in peace. If millions are anxious for war, millions are equally eager for peace. Man, once having applied the ethics of civilization to his personal code, now sees the possibility of a civilized code for the relations of nations. And when we praise the League, we do so because it is the organized representative of all the countless peoples who know the terrors of internecine strife—people who see the ghastly frame of war behind the purple and tinselled cloak of militarism. The League is the advance guard of civilization; where the skirmishers have gone, the main body can advance.

CHAMPUS CAT

We conducted our own Diogenes yesterday with the following question: "Do you read the Champus Cat?"

Goshaw Hemlock, Forestry I—"No."

Joséphine Merrell, Household Science II—"No."

A. Bolish, Pass Arts II—"No."

R. Payne Feez, Simcoe Hall IV—"No."

Otto Bellow, S.P.S. 4B0—"Naw."

No luck, so we tried this one: "Do you think the women's building fund should have a mile of nickels or a half mile of dimes?" We are going to give until Easter for that one.

Among our fan mail we found the following epistle from an apostle of the Anti-Balloon League.

Dear Champus,—

It was with utter horror that I read about the wicked talk of beer for Hot House. Surely you, of all people, can do something to help put away this terrible curse (even if it is only to take care of half a dozen) from the minds of men.

This dreadful drink is not only destructive to the mind and soul, but also to the body. It makes men fat, bloated, and all out of shape.

Imagine the inconvenience around Hot House if all the students developed beer corporations! Have you ever passed Great Hall at one o'clock and seen the long line of students outside, standing closely packed together, fore to aft? Well just imagine the length of a lunch queue composed of beer-blown students alone! Instead of reaching the cloak racks it would extend clear back to the Hall Porter's desk, and this would cause increased congestion in the corridors.

Eating on a bench in Great Hall would be torture. The tables would have to be farther away from the seats, with crowding as a result. And the stained vests Garcia!

Imagine the gasps and grunts of about fifty short-winded barrel-type students simultaneously heaving themselves over the oak benches in the dining hall during a crowded hour! It would be unpleasant to say the least.

And so I entreat you to stand firmly on your feet my dear cat and shout "Down with Beer! to the last drop."

Gaspard McGuffey.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

The Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

I am regaled and refreshed, approximately to the extent of three quarts, by the information in Thursday's issue that "The Varsity" is conducting a straw vote on the beer question. I feel that the verdict will be so overwhelmingly in favour of this proposal as to vindicate completely the attitude I have so vigorously maintained throughout this controversy. The libellous vituperation of one '30 Vic, will be unanimously refuted.

It appears to me that the staging of a debate on the question would be of great value in enabling the voters to cast their ballots intelligently (i.e., in favour of the proposal). This could be arranged to take place on the day of voting, and perhaps we could get Chief Constable Draper's permission to use the front campus. The obvious champion of the "dry" cause is our old friend '30 Vic. I am prepared to maintain the opposite side. If '30 Vic is agreeable to this, let him intimate as much in your columns, and meet me in the middle of the front campus at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning.

Apart from being instructive, a debate of this kind should be highly amusing. I should imagine that '30 Vic possesses a wealth of platitudinous Evangelism.

Yours, etc., R. E. KNOWLES, Jr.

Friday Afternoon Recital

Mr. Frederic Winfield, violinist, and Miss Muriel Gidley, pianist, will be the artists at this week's recital at 5 p.m. in the Music Room. The following programme has been arranged:

I
Sonata, E Minor ..... Healey Willan
Lento Quasi Recitativo
Allegro Moderato e Marcato
Adagio
Allegro

II
Group—Selected.

III

Sonata, C Minor ..... Edward Grieg
Allegro Molto Apassionata
Allegretto Espressivo Alla
Romanza
Allegro Animato

Varsity women's intercollegiate cage team entrained this morning for London, where the annual basketball tournament is being held this year. The Blue team won the trophy last year and seem likely to repeat.

The forward line is the same as last year, and is going even better. All three girls are excellent shots and are very fast. At centre and defence the team is much improved, while the subs all work in well.

LOST

Wahl fountain pen, grey, streaked with black, probably in University College. Will finder please hand in to Registrar's Office at U.C., or phone LI 3896.

Learn the Newest Dance Steps
NEW CLASSES start next week
Beginners, Tuesday
Advanced, Thursday
at 8:30
New classes in Tap and Theatrical, Wed. 6:15
Private lessons with
Ms. Da Costa or Miss Chalmers by appointment

DACOSTA

STUDIO OF DANCING
Columbus Hall RA. 5850

HART HOUSE THEATRE

FEB. 24th - MAR. 1st

HIS MAJESTY'S MAIDENS

A Romantic Comedy

Three Acts
by
RAYMOND CARD

Box Office Open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

TRINITY 2723

Tickets $1.00 tax extra
University Students 60c.
tax extra

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571
Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

Headquarters
for ACADEMIC GOWNS
CAPS
HOODS

See our samples
and prices
before buying

Sainthill-Levine & Co.
LIMITED

216 Wellington Street West

PHONE EL 5301

HA! HA! DISCOVERED—SO THAT'S WHERE EVERYBODY'S GOING.

Naturally,—the Victoria Theatre where Capt. Plunkett is staging a mammoth revue, 70 people, beauty ballet, all Dumbell's stars, Romanelli and 24-piece band, 5 Broadway headliners.

COMPLETELY NEW REVUE EVERY WEEK

"More of Broadway than Toronto"—Globe.

WHAT PRICES! Eves: 47c, 70c, 95c. Tax Extra.

Popular Matinees: Wed., Sat.

JACK ARTHUR'S
Stage Show

UPTOWN

THE HIPPOTRAME
RKO WINDMILL

The most sensational stage attraction to ever play
Toronto

STARTING TO-MORROW

The Only Boy
SIAMESE TWINS
in the Entire World with THEIR BRIDES

OTHER R.K.O. ATTRACTIONS

On the Screen

MARIE SAXON
JACK EGAN
LOUISE FAZENDA in "The Broadway Hooper"
ALL-TALKING, SINGING

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon
In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

BLUE JRS. LOST TO PARRY SOUND IN O.H.A. PLAYDOWN LAST NIGHT

PARRY SOUND BEAT JUNIORS; CARRY ONE GOAL LEAD INTO FINAL

Soft Ice Keeps Score Down and Makes Combination Difficult

SOUNDERS SCORE IN 2nd

Blue Relief Forwards Play
Well, Having Hard Luck
in Shooting

Special to "The Varsity"

Parry Sound, Ont., Feb. 20 — The Parry Sound green shirts will take a lead into Saturday's return game by virtue of their 1-0 defeat of Varsity juniors. The game was played on a soft ice surface that made combination play practically impossible after the first period. Both goal keepers turned in good performances, avoiding almost sure scores when the puck-carriers had beaten the defence.

The first period produced the best hockey of the game with numerous three-man rushes. On a nice play Cunningham bored in for a shot which would have caught the corner had not Beatty made a fast save.

In the second session Morrison banged home a pass after fifteen minutes of play from a scramble in front of the Varsity nets. Hunnisett had no chance to clear, his vision being obstructed by Varsity players covering up in front of the goal. Varsity opened up the play in the last stanza with the regular forwards peppering Beatty. Several promising plays were

Jimmy McMullen

Blue captain, who turned in his usual fine game in Varsity's losing effort last night at Montreal.

DIRECTORATE MAKES DECISION ON HOCKEY

Re-organization of Athletics
by Committee Under
Dr. Benson

PLAYERS ARE INELIGIBLE

That the whole system, providing that all players must have eligibility certificates before participating in any sport has been handled very inefficiently was the decision reached at the women's athletic directorate meeting last night. To avoid further complications of the same sort, the directorate determined to have a committee, appointed by Dr. Benson, and with Dr. Edith Gordon, medical advisor for women as a member, to make a thorough examination of the whole system, with a view to building up one in which there will be no loop holes, and which will prevent any such mix-up as that which has occurred this season.

Up to this time there has been no broken up when Cook's bell arm continued to wag on dubious counts. Smillie nearly scored on a shot from his own blue line, Beatty losing the puck coming down from the rafters. With only a few minutes left the Sounders began to shoot the puck up the ice to hold their one-goal lead.
(Continued on page 4)

For the victors Beatty and Mahaffy stood out. Varsity's second forward line was always dangerous and only hard luck kept them off the score sheet. Both teams played unusually clean hockey, with only a couple of penalties being called by Referee Cook. Saturday's game should give the Blue and White a break and a few goals.

Varsity—Goal, Hunnisett; defence, Williamson, Levinsky; wings, Hetherington, Smillie; centre, Brant; subs, Bennett, Cunningham, Hendry.

Parry Sound—Goal, Beatty; defence, Morrison, Anderson; wings, Mahaffy, Bradley; centre, Arthurs; subs, Joy, White, Virgo.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

The worm has turned! After 18 long, weary years, McGill has at last captured the intercollegiate senior hockey title. On account of their convincing display here last month the experts granted the Red and White better than an even chance to take the Blue at Montreal. Led by the colourful Ralph St. Germain, the Redshirts displayed a lot of skilful attacking ability and were absolutely impregnable on the defence, as the Varsity goose-egg will attest. The Montreal puck-chasers have a real team this year and congratulations are extended to this year's gallant Red crew.

* * *

Last night was a tough one for Varsity's hockey hopes as the juniors also lost and by the same one-to-nothing count as the seniors were forced to undergo. According to reports the Blue and White were handicapped by the small ice surface and the soft condition of the ice prevailing at the Sound. To-morrow afternoon at the Arena there should be another story to tell. The Parry Sounders will pull one of the big surprises of the season if they can maintain their one-goal advantage on the round.

* * *

Western's intermediate and senior basketball quints stack up against the Blues' firsts and seconds to-morrow night at Hart House. Varsity needs two wins badly and ought to give the Purple and White a hot argument before the evening draws to a conclusion.

* * *

Members of Varsity's boxing, wrestling and fencing team are taking part in the annual Intercollegiate Assault to-night and to-morrow night at Montreal. The Blue and White expect to clean up enough points in the boxing and fencing to give them the title and the wrestlers ought to produce some point-gainers in addition. Harkness, who was to represent the U. of T. in the 123 lb. class, incurred a fractured rib during a workout last Wednesday and did not accompany the team to Montreal. Bannister, a freshman from S.P.S., replaced him.

* * *

Varsity's senior women's basketball sextet has gone to London, for the cage tournament. The Blue team has been very successful and should do well at Western. The Blue and White will probably find Queen's the team to beat, the Kingstonians having several of last year's players again this season and moreover, Miss Murphy, their new coach, has given Queen's a definite system of play. The Red, Yellow and Blue girls have been on strict conditioning since Christmas, having training tables and keeping early hours, so they evidently mean business.

SWIMMERS SELECTED FOR MONTREAL MEET

Annual Intercollegiate Title
Has Gone to Toronto Team
Five Years Straight

INTERCOLLEGIATE POLO

The swimming team which will represent the University of Toronto in the annual intercollegiate meet in Montreal has been selected. The aquatic events take place Friday, February 22nd and on the following night the first game of water polo of a home-and-home series for the title will be held. The return game will be played in the Hart House tank on March 8th.

With the exception of Pierdon, Sinclair and Marsh, the Blue and White will be represented by an entirely new team. The squad has been picked from the winners of the interfaculty meet and the material uncovered is highly encouraging. Mel Henderson was the individual point winner and the biggest surprise of the aquatic season. Eddie Sinclair and Tommy Marsh finished second and third to Henderson. Coach John Goss is well pleased with his aggregation of marine stars and is confident that the University of Toronto will again hold the Douglass Trophy in 1931. The U. of T. have won this cup for the past five years.

Last year the Blue and White only downed the Red in the final event, the relay race. But like Varsity, McGill has lost many of its marine stars through graduation and will also be represented by a team of newcomers
(Continued on page 4)

McTEER SCORES ONLY GOAL IN COLLEGE HOCKEY FINAL

(Continued from page 1)

Blue sent rush after rush but Powers took care of all their efforts. Paul got through. Powers saved and saved again on Harley's shot after picking up the rebound. St. Germain was on the end of a three-man combination, and Ames made a great save. Marshall stepped through the McGill defence, but Powers blocked the rubber. Varsity was skating like fiends and laying drive after drive on Powers. Ames made a wonderful stop on McTeer's terrific shot for the corner. The Blue shirts had a big edge of the attack in this period. McGill were playing stubborn defensive hockey to hold their one-goal advantage.

The final period produced red hot hockey. St. Germain missed a couple of good chances on the goal and Paul made three consecutive rushes, but held the puck a little too long, failing to get a shot on the cage. McGill came near getting a tally when the Redmen forced a scramble in front of the Varsity goal with Ames drawn out of the net. Then a McGill man took the puck up the ice, circled the Blue goal and the Redmen claimed that he had scored. There was a big argument, the goal judge was changed and the goal was not allowed. The crowd roared disapproval and during the dispute the McGill hand came to the rescue of college sport by playing "What the hell do we care". Play was resumed and Varsity hummed in McGill near their own nets. Powers had a lucky save on Stewart's shot. With only a few minutes to go, Varsity sent five men up and Paul circled the net only to have Powers save one close call. Paul repeated on the next play, but luck was against the Blue and McGill's first period goal was sufficient to give them the game and the intercollegiate title.

Varsity—Goal, Ames; defence, Paul, Whitehead; centre, Bell; wings, McMullen, Marshall; subs, Stewart, Dewar, Harley.

McGill—Goal, Powers; defence, McGillivray, McTeer; centre, St. Germain; wings, Robertson, Farquharson.

The "Bolero"

GOES WITH FASHION
FROM MORNING UNTIL NIGHT

For daytime wear a smart version is the "tie-bolero", as expressed in this

"Jacqueline" frock

from the Misses' Moderate - Price Dresses. Of flat crepe in navy, blues, beige and green, one of several styles equally suitable for campus wear, or the informal tea-hour gatherings.

$15.75

Fourth Floor
Queen Street

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

The Coffee House

Luncheons
Dinners
Teas

Open Evenings
till 8 p.m.

After the Game—After the Theatre

Ruth Macdonald

34 Avenue Road

Special attention given to students for luncheons and dinners.

Have Your Brakes Tested

AND SAVE 10

SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE

205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

VIC IN FORM TO WIN 6-4

In a spirited interfaculty baseball game, Victoria defeated St. Michael's 6-4 yesterday. Between numerous disputes some sparkling ball was displayed by both teams. Vic fielded a snappy outfit and deserved their win. Garton, Little, and Gregory were the pick of the winners, while Fullerton and Casentino were St. Mike's stalwarts.

St. Michael's — O'Connor, Ryan, Frado, Oakley, Fullerton, Collins, McDonald, Finnegan, Casentino.

Victoria—Little, King, Hart, Beavers, Cole, Gregory, Garton, Rowland, Brace.

Miss C. F. Valentine of the Household Science department and former dean of Queen's Hall, was a guest at dinner there last night.

them the game and the intercollegiate title.

Varsity—Goal, Ames; defence, Paul, Whitehead; centre, Bell; wings, McMullen, Marshall; subs, Stewart, Dewar, Harley.

McGill—Goal, Powers; defence, McGillivray, McTeer; centre, St. Germain; wings, Robertson, Farquharson.

FOR SMOOTH SPEED

IN SKETCHING --

FOR PRECISION IN DRAFTING -- USE

ELDORADO

"THE MASTER

DRAWING

PENCIL"

FOR SALE AT THE

COLLEGE BOOKROOM

©1929

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

259 College St. TRinity 5987

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your day

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

3-piece "CAMBRIDGE" TUXEDOS $35

Made from a fine English Vicuna fabric that will give excellent service. A smart Double Breasted Broadened Silk Vest is included in this price.

See them in our windows

FITZPATRICK & O'CONNELL, LTD.

254 Yonge Street—Just North of Shuter

VARSLITY ARENA

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 24th

Afternoon, 3.30—McMASTER vs. VARSITY II

Intermediate Intercollegiate

Admission 25c. Student Coupon No. 24.

EVENING DOUBLE HEADER

7.20—QUEEN'S WOMEN vs. VARSITY WOMEN

Intercollegiate

8.40—QUEEN'S vs. VARSITY

SENIOR O.H.A.

Reserved Seats 95c and tax. Admission 47c and tax.

Student Coupon No. 25

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE

571 YONGE STREET

KL 3270

Coming Events

FRIDAY, FEB. 21

9 a.m.—Nominations for Hart House Committees open.
9.30 a.m.—3.00 p.m.—Model Assembly of the League of Nations.
8 p.m.—Special session, Model Assembly.

9.00 p.m.—Annual Victoria College Arts at-home at Hart House.

SATURDAY, FEB. 22

9.30 a.m.—2.30 p.m.—Model Assembly of the League of Nations.

5 p.m.—Newman Club tea dance.
8.30 p.m.—Intercollegiate Menorah debate between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill University Menorah Society, in the University Ave. Synagogue Chambers.

8.00 p.m.—Debate for Bennett Trophy between University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill University Menorah Society.

SUNDAY, FEB. 23

11 a.m.—Special service at St. Paul's conducted by Canon Cody and Sir Herbert Ames in connection with the Model Assembly.

5 p.m.—Tea at Newman Club.
7 p.m.—Benediction at Newman Club.

MONDAY, FEB. 24

St. Joseph's Dramatic Club, "She Stoops to Conquer", in the college auditorium, Bredalbane St.
8.15—Meeting of the Italian-Spanish Club at the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street.

TUESDAY, FEB. 25

St. Joseph's Dramatic Club, "She Stoops to Conquer", in the college auditorium, Bredalbane St.
8.00 p.m.—Victoria College Dramatic Society at-home in Wymilwood.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26

4.15 p.m.—The third meeting of the year of the Orientals Association will be held at Trinity College. I. W. R. Hadley, B.A., will speak on "The Old and New Testament Conceptions of the Messiah." Refreshments. Everybody welcome.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and
HOODS

HARCOURT &amp; SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KL 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

When You Go Out

Of course in your study the style of your glasses is not so important . . . but when you go out you want to be in the vogue . . . and you want to look smart and be conscious of refinement of appearance.

That's why Williams invites you in to see the new rimless glasses. A wide selection of solid white gold and gold-filled mountings to choose from.

Williams
Prescription Optician

5 RICHMOND ST. EAST

268 BLOOR ST. WEST

HOCKEY QUESTION CLEARED

(Continued from page 3)

definite correlation between the different clubs, and Miss A. E. M. Parkes, financial secretary of the directorate, and probably the mix-up of this year was partly due to the ignorance of the managers as to just what was expected of them, but after this printed regulation will be issued by the clubs to the team managers. This is a very wise move and it is certainly about time some action like this was taken.

With regard to the hockey situation the disputed St. Hilda's-Victoria game will not be replayed, but when the tie is played off neither Norma Bateman of Vic, nor Sally Ballard of St. Hilda's, will be allowed to play. Dr. Gordon said that the issuing of a certificate to Sally Ballard was due to a clerical error in her office, but that Norma Bateman was not given a certificate for hockey at all.

Norma Bateman

The circumstances of Miss Bateman's playing in the game with St. Hilda's was explained by one of the directorate members, who announced that it was quite the accepted thing at Victoria that the certificate of eligibility signed by Dr. Guest, medical advisor of women at Vic was sufficient, and that all the other certificates from Vic were signed by Dr. Guest. This was news to the directorate as a whole, for it is a rule that Dr. Gordon must sign all eligibility certificates and that any girl wishing to take part in two sports must have special permission from her.

The following members of Hart House Committees have been re-elected to sit on the 1930-1931 Committees:

House Committee—F. R. Brebner, III U.C.; T. R. Sarjeant, V Meds.; Hall Committee—D. M. King, V Meds.; A. E. Tyson, III S.P.S.; Library Committee—T. V. O'Brien, IV Meds.; J. Brebner, V Meds.

Music Committee—A. S. Areher, III S.P.S.; A. H. Sellers, IV Meds.; Billiard Committee—J. M. N. Dunsmore, II Meds.; J. D. Gibson, III U.C.

Sketch Committee—F. S. Brien, IV U.C.; G. L. Cassidy, III St. Mike's. M. Pasternak has been re-elected to the Squash Racquets Committee.

8 p.m.—Final debate in Lecture Room of Hart House.

9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 27

4.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Women's Press Club. Short story contributions from the members will be read and criticized. Good chance to try for the pin.

8.30 p.m.—Trinity College annual conversation at the college.

FRIDAY, FEB. 28

8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.

9 p.m.—P.C.I. Ex-Students Association first annual At-Home.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6

Hart House elections.

German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig," "Ein Knopf", at Women's Union.

BULLETIN BOARD

VARSITY INTERMEDIATES

Hockey practice to-day at 1.15 in the Varsity Arena.

Mrs. R. B. Thompson, convenor of the Educational Committee of the League of Nations Society announces that Judge Alexis DeBoer of the Supreme Court of Hungary, will speak on Disarmament at Red Gables, the home of Mrs. H. D. Warren, on Monday, Feb. 24th, at 3.15. Admission seventy-five cents.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Miniature and gallery practice matches will be fired during the week of Feb. 24. Attention of members is directed to article appearing in another column of this issue.

TECHNICAL SERVICE COUNCIL

The attention of the 1930 and 1931 classes in chemical, mechanical and civil engineering is called to the following:

BLUE SWIMMING TEAM

CHOSEN FOR MEET

(Continued from page 3)

to intercollegiate ranks. The U. of T. team is as follows:

50 yards free style—Henderson, Tedman; spares, Pierdon, Sinclair and Smith.

100 yards free style—Marsh, Pierdon.

200 yards free style—Marsh, Glass; spares, Pierdon, Towers.

200 yards breast stroke—Sinclair, Withrow; spare, McFee.

100 back stroke—Towers, Smith; spare, Henderson.

440 yards free style—Glass, Towers.

Relay team—Henderson, Pierdon, Tedman, Marsh.

Dividing—Henderson, Nevitt.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION STEPS INTO DOMINION CONTEST

Recent Match Results Show That Varsity Men Have Good Eyes

"Better than ever" seems to be the motto of the Rifle Association this season. The entry of the Association into dominion-wide competition in the D.C.R.A. Gallery Practice and Miniature Rifle matches has given rise to some extraordinarily fine shooting on the part of members of the various teams. While the results of the first inter-university match, shot in January, have not been received yet, it is hoped, with justifiable confidence, that the Varsity R.A. will be right in at the top with their team average of 95.9.

The Gallery Practice Match, fired on targets identical with those used for the Miniature Matches, and with the heavier .303 calibre rifles, proved as great a success as did the inter-university miniature match.

The teams and scores: Macnab, 93; Solursh, 91; Hendrick, 91; Cooley, 90; McCollum, 89; Mitchell, 88; Murphy, 87; Dr. Lucas, 87; Ledger, 86; Carter, 86; team average, 88.8.

The first spoon shoot, held last week, resulted in a tie in group A, Dr. Lucas, A. C. Macnab, and G. L. English each making 68 out of a possible 75. In the shoot off Dr. Lucas put on one of the best scores ever fired on the association range, dropping only one point to make a 74, and won the spoon. In groups B, C, and D, spoons were won by Hendrick, 72; Laing, 67, and Carter, 65, respectively.

Starting on Monday, February 24, the miniature and gallery practice matches for the month will be fired, the former on Feb. 24 and 26, and the latter on the 26th and 28th. Arrangements for keeping the ranges open in the evenings will be made, and also such as may arise from the need for extra practice. In order to keep up the good team averages already made, it is extremely important that every member who can get the use of a 22 calibre rifle, should turn out next week, and that all members should compete in the match for the larger calibre rifles.

During the first week of March the annual interfaculty match will be held and later in the same week, the spoon shoot for February

Mr. V. DeE. Strickland, B.A.Sc., of the Spruce Falls Power and Paper Company Limited will be at 15 Queens Park on Monday morning, February 24th, to interview any members of the above-mentioned classes interested in the manufacture and distribution of their products. The company are large manufacturers of newsprint paper and special pulps for export. Their plant is located at Kapuskasing, Ontario. Comfortable quarters are obtainable at Kapuskasing Inn at moderate charges. Please telephone Kingsdale 5216 for a definite appointment.

MENORAH DEBATE

The annual intercollegiate debate between the University of Toronto Menorah Society and McGill University Menorah Society will take place to-morrow evening at 8.30 in the University Avenue Synagogue Chambers. The Bennett Trophy will be presented by the donor to the successful team.

VARSITY CAGE TEAMS ENTERTAIN RIVALS

Juniors Still in Contention With Game Carded for Monday Against Church Team

SENIORS' DEFENCE IMPROVE

Varsity basketball teams have a busy week-end before them. Saturday night Western University's intermediate and senior quintets will be the guests of the Blue and White at Hart House. On Monday evening the local juniors play their return game with Centennial Church team. The Varsity juniors are the only ray of hope in local basketball circles. They won the first game at West End "Y" by a handsome score and should encounter little difficulty in eliminating the Churchmen.

This year the Blue and White is represented by one of the strongest junior crews in some years. The intermediate and senior teams are out of the running for the intercollegiate honours and so are the Western teams. The seniors will do battle for the cellar position in the league. The Blue and White was lucky to secure an 18 to 16 victory over the Londoners in the last few seconds of play. The intermediates only managed to down Western by a few field baskets in London. The visitors will be anxious to retrieve the games they dropped on their home floor.

Since Hal Collins has been moved up to the senior squad from intermediate ranks the Varsity forward line has developed a real scoring punch. He is a clever basketballer who fits in well with the team play of the seniors, and in recent practices he has been showing up well. Don Wood is making a fine impression in the workouts of late. This year the Varsity defence has been woefully weak with their shooting and Wood should provide the remedy for this weakness. He has been potting his set-shots with amazing regularity.

NATURAL LIFE IN FOREST OF TEMAGAMI DISCUSSED

"This forest reserve has the greatest variety of animal life of any part of Ontario, due to the fact that this area represents a transition point for the smaller animal life from the southern to the northern fauna," said Professor A. F. Coventry of the Department of Biology in speaking to the Foresters' Club at Hart House last night on "The Natural Life of the Temagami Forest Reserve."

Professor Coventry, who has spent many summers camera-hunting from his cabin in this great provincial forest experimental area, illustrated his remarks with many interesting slides showing close-ups of the smaller creatures in which he is particularly interested.

The club elected the following men as the Forestry slate for the Hart House elections: A. F. Buell, house; H. E. Capp, hall; J. Walker, music; J. Hodgins, sketch; J. B. Millar, library.

INVITING YOU TO DANCE

DANCING FEET IN NUMBER FIVE THOUSAND

Number Five Thousand, the stocking that fulfils your ideals. Perfect in colour and weave, in a range of forty colours, with the smartest of French heels $1.50

Tune in Every Wednesday 7 p.m. C.F.C.A., Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET
At Richmond
AD. 6088

768 YONGE STREET
Next door to Uptown Theatre
RJ. 3600
OPEN EVENINGS

2408 YONGE STREET
Next door to Capitol Theatre
BU. 4780

Medical Arts Coffee Shop

Students will find this new shop exceptionally handy and attractive.

Come in after the game, or the theatre. Always open.

Our Twilight Musical Hour is particularly inviting.

NEW MEDICAL ARTS BUILDING

BLOOR WEST - at St. George

Christian Science

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, St. George St. at Lowther (Close to the University)

Services—Sunday, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.

Subject for Sunday, Feb. 23rd, will be

"MIND"

Wednesday Service 8 p.m.

In the Church Auditorium including

Testimonies of Healing Through Christian Science

You are cordially invited to attend the services and use the

Free Public Reading Rooms

1504 Metropolitan Bldg.

Adelaide and Victoria Sts.

Open 9.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.

Where the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased, and periodicals subscribed for.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

SHERBOURNE CHURCH Sherbourn and Carlton Streets

11 A.M.—DEDICATION OF NEW ORGAN

DR. ROBERTS will preach

"MUSIC IN THE SERVICE OF GOD"

7 P.M.—DR. ROBERTS will preach first of three sermons

"THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS"

1—Dives at Home. 2—Dives in Hell. 3—Poor Man's Heaven.

MONDAY, 8 P.M.—RECITAL on NEW ORGAN by

Dr. ERNEST MacMILLAN, Mus.Doc.

Silver collection, 25c, at Door

Old St. Andrew's Church

(Cor. Jarvis and Carlton Sts.)

7 p.m.

The Minister,

"I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me."

Students Cordially Welcome

Deer Park United Church

ST. CLAIR AVENUE

(One block east of Avenue Rd.)

Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A.

Minister

Rev. Douglas Kendall, M.A.

Assistant Minister

Rev. G. Stanley Russell

will preach at 11 a.m.—"Up to the Sunlight."

7 p.m.—Monthly Sermon Lecture.

"Books to Read"—4.

Assessments and Anticipations (Dean Ingle).

Students cordially invited.

Bernard Longbottom—Organist and Choirmaster.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

381 Huron Street

(Five minutes walk from Hart House)

SEXAGESIMA SUNDAY.

7.00, 8.00, 9.30 a.m.—Holy Eucharist.

11.00 a.m.—Sung Eucharist and Sermon.

Parker in E major.

Motets: "Very Bread, Good Shepherd, tend us," Willan. Preacher:

Rev. Canon Riley, M.A., Rector of St. George's Church, St. Catharines, Ont.

7.00 p.m.—Evangelism and Sermon.

Antem: "Hail, gladdening Light," G Shaw. Preacher: Rev.

C. J. S. Stuart, M.A., B.D., Rector.

DANCING LESSONS

REDUCED RATES

By special request Mr. Walford will continue these low rates

during Jan., Feb., and March.

Private lessons the only way to learn successfully.

Strictly Private - 6 for $5.00

Semi Private - 8 for $4.00

(Two pupils taking same lesson)

Class Lessons - 8 for $5.00

HARRY WALFORD—KL. 4882

Address—65 WELLESLEY ST.

RENT A TUXEDO $2.00

STUDENTS PRICE ONLY

NEW SUITS LATEST STYLE

TELEPHONE TRINITY 8218

Mallabar COSTUMER

450-452 SPADINA AVE.

at College St.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 24th, 1930

No. 89

CIRCUS BALLYHOONG FEATURES ELECTIONS OF MEDICAL SOCIETY

Monkey with Hurdy Gurdy and Electric Chair Used to Get Votes

SIX HUNDRED VOTE

Delicacies are Donated and Science Man Removed to Add to Fun

The rasping strains of a hurdy-gurdy with a monkey on top of it were used as a means of luring votes by one of the candidates for president of the Medical Society last Friday afternoon.

The annual elections took place with all the ballyhoong of a circus, over six hundred voting. The candidate who used the hand-organ had an experiment tried before the voters which also was for the purpose of catching votes.

An electrical chair was placed in the hall of the Anatomy Building and anybody who sat on it felt nothing when the current was turned on. A torch was lit from one's hand a glass of water held by the hand also ignited the torch.

Cigarettes, chewing-gum, chocolate-bars, shaving cream and creamy toilet were also employed for catching votes. (Continued on page 2)

CHANGES IN ELECTIONS OF DEBATES COMMITTEE

All Members Wishing to Vote Must Remain for
One Hour

Attention of all members of Hart House is drawn to certain changes in the election of the Debates Committee. These changes were agreed upon at a recent meeting of this year's committee, and will apply to the election of the committee of 1930-31, which takes place at the last debate of the year on Wednesday night, February 26.

On that occasion members who wish to vote in the election of the committee, must be in the debates room not later than the commencement of the third speech, approximately 8.30, and may not vote before 9.30. After that time those leaving the debate will be supplied with ballot papers and may vote.

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Probes Masculine Dress Reform

"Do you think there is need for reform in men's clothes?"

Miss Margaret Irvine, IV Household Science—

"No. At present they cover the subject, and that is all that matters, as far as I'm concerned."

Paul Gardner, IV Arts, University College—

"Less everyday clothing, and much more comfortable. Shirts should be open at the neck."

R. N. Sexsmith, III School of Practical Science—

"Holy cats! Men are quite happy as they are."

R. A. (Bobby) Jenkins, II Arts, University College—

"I am not interested in clothes."

Miss Mousen Macoun, I Arts, University College—

"Personally I prefer men in bathrobes. Don't make their street clothes any more ornamental than they are—they might detract from the ladies!"

M. D. Pomeroy, III Arts, University College—

"There should be some better forms in men's clothes than there are now, and also in women's."

Miss Mildred Thomson, IV Household Science—

"Certainly! Men's clothes are monotonous."

Miss Madeline Lane, I Arts, University College—

"Not in the clothes, but in the men."

JUNIORS WIN PARRY SOUND GAME LAST MINUTE GOAL TAKES ROUND

Consistent Checking of Parry Sound Sextet Prevents Easy Victory

BLUE COMBINATION POOR

Beatty, Parry Sound Goalie, and Levinsky for Blues
Stars of Game

By W. Bruce Wood
Varsity juniors defeated Parry Sound Saturday afternoon at the Arena Gardens by a 3 to 1 score, and taking the round 3 to 2. Although the Blue and White had a wide margin of the play, they were unable to capitalize their numerous scoring opportunities. Partly due to the close checking of the pestiferous little Parry Sounders, backed up by brilliant net-minding by Beatty, and partly due to their own ineffectual efforts at combination, the Blues were unable to subdue their opponents until less than three minutes of the final period remained.

The Blue and White stepped on the ice confidently, perhaps a little overconfidently, but the boys from the Lumber Town stepped right into the thick of the fray, giving as good as they received. A feature of the visitors' play was the clean, hard body-checking tactics of their defence pair, Morrison and Anderson.

Varsity drew first blood well on in the first stanza when Bennett's shot from back of the net was deflected into the net off the Parry Sound goal-keeper's stick. The latter was out of position when the shot was made; nevertheless the goal was of the surprise variety. The northerners came right back, and on a nice combination play, White to Virgo, the latter tallied to tie the score for the game and putting the Sounders one up again on the round. Encouraged by this success and by the vociferous shouting of their supporters, who seemed to compose about 80 per cent of the crowd, the northerners pressed, but Hunnisset took care of everything that came his way.

There was no further scoring that period, but the Blue and White came back in the second stanza and led by the brilliant Alex Levinsky, carried the play to their opponents. Varsity was finally rewarded when Williamson knotted up the round again on a pass out from Cunningham. After this tally the Blues were all over their opponents, who, with a man short, were (Continued on page 1)

Hart House Concert

The songs of the Choir Boys of St. Peter's Church and their Choir Master Dalton Baker were much appreciated by the audience at the 62nd Hart House concert last night. By special request the folk song, "Twanky-dillo" was repeated as a final encore.

POLITICAL AMBITIONS FOR JEWS PROPOSED

McGill Menorah Wins Proposal for Supremacy of Jews in Palestine

AWARDED BENNETT TROPHY

Represented by Abraham Klein, popular young poet, and David Lewis, McGill Menorah Society on Saturday night defeated the Toronto branch of the society in a stormy debate on the subject, "Resolved that the Jews should forego political aspirations in Palestine". The winners, who upheld the negative side of the resolution, were awarded the Bennett Debating Trophy. Samuel Goldhar and Joseph Gold spoke for Toronto Menorah.

"We Jews always have to take the bitter pill," said Mr. Goldhar. "We (Continued from page 2)

TORONTO CIVILIZED DECLARE DELEGATES

Vassar University Women Find
City Beautiful and Not Wild

VISIT MEMORIAL TOWER

Miss Katherine Knox and Miss Jane Prouty from Vassar University, delegates of the U.S.A. in the Model Assembly, considered Toronto "really quite civilized—not at all wild," and also very beautiful. They had been told beforehand to be sure to appreciate it.

When taken through the university library stacks, Miss Prouty was quite struck with the gap between the stairs and the wall, and wondered whether she could possibly slip down the crack. However, no actual experiment took place.

They also seemed anxious about "a certain place with the names of those who fell in the war, and an inscription from Bunyan". The Memorial Tower was suggested and they copied the verse at the north end as the likely one, to take back to their mathematics professor who had entrusted them with that mission.

DISCOVERER OF NEW CURES TO LECTURE AT TORONTO

Dr. J. B. Collip, head of the Department of Biochemistry of McGill University, will speak to the Canadian Chemical Association in the Mining Building on Friday, February 28th.

Dr. Collip, who is a graduate of the University of Toronto, recently made the remarkable medical discovery which, according to medical officials, will be of tremendous aid in the prevention and cure of female disorders. Dr. Collip will take as his subject, "A resume of the glands of internal secretion". He was also one of Dr. Banting's associates in the discovery of insulin.

'30 VIC COMES BACK IN FORCEFUL LETTER UPON BEER PROBLEM

Consigns Editor to Damnation for Conducting Alleged "Absurd Vote"

NOT CONTENTIOUS SUBJECT

Suggests Mental Examination at Psychiatric Hospital for Knowles

The Editor has received the following communication from '30 Vic: The Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir,
I see by a letter from Mr. Knowles in your issue of last Friday that this man has the audacity and impertinence to suggest that I should debate with him on the front campus on the subject of booze. If he imagines that I am likely to debate and defile myself by a burlesque of this kind, he is labouring under a very great misapprehension. I am always glad of an opportunity to meet any serious-minded person to discuss anything of a contentious nature. Is Knowles a serious person? Is booze a contentious subject? The answer is NO, and again NO. I can regard no person as serious-minded who fails to appreciate how diabolical and abominable is the Demon Rum. The one thing which is serious about such people is their mental balance and their spiritual salvation. These are tragic matters indeed.

Though I disdain to oblige this man by meeting him on the campus on Tuesday morning, I realize that it is not unlikely that he will attempt to speak in any event, for no other reason than to gratify his insufferable ego. In that case I sincerely hope that Chief Constable Draper forbids it, and will look forward with satisfaction to seeing this would-be orator arrested, and remanded to the psychiatric hospital for mental examination.

I have noticed that my previous letter to you was followed by a storm of abuse and criticism in your correspondence columns. But did not our Saviour suffer similar treatment? Like Him I can only turn the other cheek. But this abuse only confirms the opinion I have already expressed that the vengeance of the Lord is imminent. In permitting these scurrilous letters to be published and in conducting this absurd "straw vote", you, Mr. Editor, are conniving at the nefarious schemes of these unregenerate people. You are inviting damnation. (Continued on page 2)

Sir Robert Falconer's Address Features Model League Session

Victoria At-Home Dance
Provides Entertainment

Victoria College students took possession of Hart House gymnasium and transformed it into a veritable paradise of riotous rhythm and colour on Friday evening. It was the scene of their annual At-Home. The lavish decorations evoked appreciative comment from all sides while the music provided innocent intoxication for the large crowd which the affair attracts each year.

Much of the success of the evening may be attributed to the energetic committee of which N. D. Hagerman was chairman. The patronesses were Lady Falconer, Mrs. E. W. Wallace, Mrs. N. W. Rowell, Mrs. W. C. James, Mrs. K. V. Stratton, Mrs. R. P. Bowles, Mrs. C. S. Auger, Miss M. E. T. Addison and Mrs. J. D. Robins.

SAY DAFFYDIL NITE BETTER THIS YEAR

Skits and Music by Men Vie with Songs and Dances
by Medettes

EVERYTHING PREPARED

Daffydil Nite, annual medical stunt night, promises to be a bigger success than ever this year. The committee have engaged Hart House for the evenings of March 6 and 7 and have secured the able services of Mr. Edgar Stone and Mr. Hitchman to give them professional aid in the production. Every year has their skit well in hand by now which is a decided advantage from the usual last scramble to learn lines, and think up jokes.

The first year will depict the tragedy of a wealthy family, smashed in the stock market. Second year present the inevitable "Stiff Lab" scene, featuring the song, "It ain't no sin to take off your skin and dance around in your bones". The third year are showing the trials endured by the medical office, and fourth year are dealing with "Cracks and Quacks". The medettes give colour to the performance with a series of songs and dances. Fifth year also have a musical skit, while sixth year are planning a scene in a coroner's court.

All the skits are original and are designed to amuse the audience as much as the actors. The music is being supplied by an orchestra of musical mods.

President Maintains Power of Ideas in Forceful
Oration

SIR HERBERT AMES TALKS

Gives Details of Wars Killed at Birth by Work of League

The great power of ideas was maintained by Sir Robert Falconer in speaking Friday night at the Plenary Session of the Model Assembly in Convocation Hall. The president delivered the oration of the Assembly. He pleaded earnestly with the students to throw in their lot with idealists and to confound the cynics whose clever criticism was not constructive. The League had succeeded he said, in spite of the cynics who had sneered at its ideals and had maintained that war was inevitable since human nature could not be changed.

Many remarked on the force with which Sir Robert delivered his address. A grad of '09 said: "I have not seen Sir Robert so sway an audience in all these years." A freshman in first year honours told "The Varsity", "I would just like to write Sir Robert and tell him how much I liked his speech."

Sir Herbert Ames followed Sir Robert with detailed accounts of wars that had been prevented by the League. Using the very Canadian illustration of the fire ranger protecting the forests, he said: "Geneva has become a watch-tower from which the first puff of smoke is seen and great conflagrations are prevented." Day and night, Sundays and holidays there is always sufficient staff on duty at the League office to handle emergency. (Continued on page 2)

NO MANAGING EDITOR ON MINNESOTA DAILY

Senate Committee on Student Publications Reaches
no Decision

NEW APPOINTMENTS MADE

Special to "The Varsity"
The Minnesota Daily is still without a managing editor.

After its third meeting yesterday afternoon, the senate committee on student publications failed to come to any definite decision as to settling the problem of who should direct the Daily for the remainder of the year.

Appointment of Eugene Rogers, junior in the College of Science, Literature and the Arts, to the position of assistant business manager of 1930 Gopher was made by the committee. Julian Aurelius, present managing editor, was placed in supervision both of the editorial and business branches of the annual. No business manager will be named for the remainder of the year to fill the vacancy created by the suspension of John Moorhead.

The resignation of Nordan Schoenberg from the post of managing editor of Ski-U-U-Mah was formally accepted by the committee. No steps toward the filling of the two vacancies now existing on the humor magazine staff were taken.

Until final action is taken by the committee, Harry Atwood, city editor, will be in charge of the publication of the Daily.

A number of students interested in and connected with campus publications were called in to speak to the committee and were questioned about the various matters now pending in the publications field.

STUDENTS DECIDE PREFERENCES ON BEER QUESTION TO-MORROW

Are you in favour of beer being sold within the university grounds?

Whether you are or not your opinion is of certain value. To-morrow "The Varsity" will run a straw vote to determine the students' desires on the question. There will be a coupon on the front page with the query given above. Below the query will be a "Yes" and a "No". An "X" opposite the choice is all that is required while there will be ballot boxes in a number of different places throughout the university.

Since both men and women will vote, women of "The Varsity" staff will "man" some of the ballot boxes, including those at the School of Practical Science and the one at the Medical building.

In addition to the above boxes there will be polling booths at University College, Victoria, Trinity, St. Michael's and Hart House. There will also be a box at the Faculty of Dentistry building.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32
ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Usher, B.A.
NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager
A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 24th, 1930

EMPIRE FREE TRADE

Lord Beaverbrook is pulling another of his "stunts". The United Empire Party is the latest and the one that will last for the shortest time. His "vision" as he calls it of an Empire with complete free trade is one that will end as a vision for it is not only impractical, but unfair to the Dominions. The lack of enthusiasm with which it is hailed by the three parties in Great Britain is a definite mark that it can get no support from the voters and less support from the colonies.

The problem of pulling the centre of the empire out of the rut of its present industrial morass is not one that can be solved by new parties backed by the William Randolph Hearsts of Great Britain. It cannot be solved by empty mouthings, but the solution lies within the hands of the industrialists themselves. It is not by smashing the manufacturers in Australia and Canada that the English industrialists can hope to reach a stage where they can make profits without the fear of foreign competitors.

The question of empire free trade is no new one. Max Aitkin is not the originator of a policy as old as the strength of competing nations. Better men than the big newspaper boss have been wrecked on the rocks of the same question. Even Joseph Chamberlain, that first Colonial Secretary who realized that the poor benighted colonialists had feelings, saw before he had progressed very far that a policy of empire free trade was an impossibility. Instead he turned to Imperial Preference and even upon that question he fought a losing battle. Stanley Baldwin has had the bottom ripped out of his party on the policy of safeguarding and not empire free trade. Where then does this self-styled empire leader expect to land?

How can Lord Birkenhead expect Canada to admit all English manufactures free of duty when so many of its people depend upon the factories that continue to belch forth smoke? How can he imagine that the Canadian people will accept his solution of the problem of unemployment in England by having their own people unemployed in Canada? To ask the Canadians to do something that will cripple their own interests beyond repair is enough to send the party and its policy where it belongs, on the scrap heap.

The question of Imperial Preferences is another one altogether. It can be handled quite adequately by the Conservative party in Great Britain. Giving the products of the heart of the empire preference over products of foreign nations is being done now and has been since Sir Wilfrid Laurier took his first step in that direction. Preferences, where they involve mutual help and not disability of one, are acceptable although even that has not full favour in all parties on the other side of the water.

Then even at home, or one would say at his adopted home, Birkenhead can expect no success. The question of sending out the home manufactures to markets where the competitors have no chance may look quite good, but accepting only one type of wheat from a country that demands a fair price to maintain a Canadian standard of living is a horse of another colour entirely. When can Great Britain reach the stage of permitting its bread to be taxed, for that is what it means? To take the grain of one country and not that of another would mean a higher price since the product of that country does not have to compete on the world markets. It is a hopeless task from all angles except from the angle of sending the Conservative party to its doom. If the Mail-Express combination does put men in the field it will be to defeat the Conservatives as well as themselves. A good, certainly, from the point of view of the opportunist Lloyd George, and the "half a loaf" Ramsay Macdonald, but one that will not solve the problem of unemployment.

The solution of the troubles of economic depression does not lie in the hands of catch phrases of new parties, but lies in the palms of the industrialists themselves. When they realize that the new markets will not wait for them, that the old are within the reach of powerful competitors, when they realize that cutting wages is not the solution they will be on the road to prosperity, but not before.

CHAMPUS CAT

After many years of waiting we obtained another double ticket to the Sunday evening concert. Now despite the fact that music criticism is forbidden in our columns, we are taking the unheard of liberty of doing a little panning on our own, hoping that those in charge won't read the same.

C-C

When we saw all the jolly little choir boys file up to the platform we expected them to break the ice (in the Kelvinators outside) by bellowing out a rousing college yell.

C-C

Well, how were we to know what was going to happen? The program gave the following words as the opening numbers:

*Asperges Kyrie etc cum jubilo
Subveto Introit etc Requim Hosanna etc Palm Sunday.*

Doesn't that sound a lot like the Queen's yell?

C-C

But the music was just grand Mabel. Those choir boys have a lovely set of broadcasting pipes.

C-C

And at intermission they all filed out of the room, presumably to be presented with gum drops or maybe Hot House apples.

C-C

Those benches certainly make one's back uncomfortable. The next time we have to sit on one we are going to take along a stout pair of steel-ribbed corsets to keep ourself straightened out.

C-C

"I wonder if they will play 'Sweet Mystery of Life'?" asked the girl friend. Ugh!

Gaspard McGuffey.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS FEATURES ASSEMBLY

(Continued from page 1)

cies, he told the Model Assembly. Speaking in the role of critic at the dinner dance of the delegates on Saturday evening, Sir Herbert told the League of Nations Club that it had accomplished a great work in arranging the Toronto Model Assembly. He praised the president, Miss Elizabeth Lang, of second year University College, for the excellent programme that had been planned.

The well prepared reports prepared by the committees were highly praised by Sir Herbert. He suggested that fewer topics be selected for the next Model Assembly of the club, so that more time for discussion might be permitted.

The League of Nations Club concluded the Model Assembly with the Sir Herbert Ames critique at the Granite Club dinner dance, but Sunday morning Saint Paul's Cathedral was packed to hear Canon Cody preach on the League and many delegates were conducted through Hart House by the Warden before having tea at Red Gables, as the guests of Mrs. H. D. Warren.

LAST MINUTE TALLY WINS JUNIORS ROUND

(Continued from page 1)

lucky to keep the juniors from scoring. Hetherington was right through several times but Beatty was invincible.

Varsity continued the pressure in the final frame, and with just a few minutes to go Bennett, on a pass from Cunningham, notched his second counter to give the Blues the round.

The Blue and White players looked a lot smoother than their adversaries from the north, but missed opportunities galore around the nets and should have scored double the goals they got, at least. For Parry Sound, Beatty, in goal, played a brilliant game. The whole Blue team showed up well, with Bennett, Cunningham and Williamson playing effective hockey, while big Alex Levinsky was the best man on the ice.

Parry Sound—Goal, Beatty; defence, Morrison, Anderson; centre, Arthurs; wings, Mahaffy, Bradley; alternates, White, Virgo, Joy.

Varsity—Goal, Hunnisett; defence, Williamson, Levinsky; centre, Brant; wings, Smillie, Hetherington; alternates, Hendry, Cunningham, Bennett.

CIRCUS BALLYHOONG FEATURES ELECTIONS

(Continued from page 1)

An S.P.S. man ventured in and was immediately thrown out of the election room.

Originated by W. S. Kergin, this year's president of the society, a new venture in medical circles was tried. Two petitions were placed at the exit door of the poll and could be signed if the voter wished to do so. One was for the Medical Council of Canada requesting that the fee for examination be changed from one hundred dollars to seventy-five, and that one examination be held for a license and the right to practice.

The other one is to be forwarded to the Ontario Council. It asks for a reduction of the university examination fee from one hundred dollars to fifty; for a change in the fee of "enabling certificate" from twenty-five to five dollars; for the establishment of one examination for a university degree and the right to practice in Ontario.

The presidential race was very keenly contested, Art Doyle being successful. The following are the results of the elections:

MEDICAL SOCIETY

President—A. M. Doyle
Vice-Pres.—F. G. S. Christie
Sec.-Treas.—E. G. Harkness
Ass't Sec.-Treas.—R. C. Dickson

MEDICAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

President—J. E. Long
Vice-Pres.—H. Y. Whitehead
Sec.-Treas.—W. H. Murby
PERMANENT EXECUTIVE, 3T0
President—W. G. Young
Vice-Pres.—Miss M. A. Brick
Sec.-Treas.—W. A. Hawk

'30 VIC COMES BACK IN FORCEFUL LETTER

(Continued from page 1)

tion, . . . an eternity of fire and brimstone. Whatever may be the immediate outcome, rest assured that in the final analysis you and the other protagonists of this wickedness are only acting as the agents of your own destruction, and I commend to your consideration those words of Holy Scripture which state this plainly: "The wicked have drawn out the sword and have bent their bows . . . their sword shall enter into their own heart and their bows shall be broken." (Proverbs 37: 14.)

Yours truly,
'30 VIC.

POLITICAL AMBITIONS FOR JEWS PROPOSED

(Continued on page 4)

are disliked; let us realize our limitations. Political Zionism is actually hampering our main effort. If Arab tribulations affect us we must take cognizance. We are living in Palestine by the right of a third power. The country is the focal point of three great religions and one will certainly not be allowed to dominate. The obstacles in our way are many and great.

"My opponent's arguments are based on the fundamental fallacy that political Zionism seeks complete domination of Palestine," said Mr. Lewis. "Then there is this bogey of Arab ire. 'Tread softly or you will step on their corns.' The recent outbreak was instigated by the mutifs and effendis because Jewish immigration was raising the standard of living for the fellahs, the Arab worker. The Powers recognize our historical rights. Palestine is not an Arab state at all. It never figured in Arab affairs, and it is not as dear to them as it is to us."

Joseph Gold, second speaker on the affirmative, claimed that it was a question which concerned not only the Jews alone, but affected international relations in general. "Should the Indians regain America, and the negroes Africa? The Balfour declaration has turned out to be another scrap of paper. It was merely a war-promise. A similar promise was made to the Arabs. We are outnumbered seven to one," he continued, "and surrounded by hostile nations. Why should we want to be in politics like other peoples? What is there that is so good about them and their politics? We shall always be different."

Abraham Klein replied that "my opponent has been asking rhetorical questions, and rhetorical questions do not require an answer."

The judges were A. B. Bennett, B.A., donor of the trophy, and E. F. Singer, K.C., M.P.P. S. J. Bochner was in the chair. Dancing rounded out the evening.

IT'S HARMONY NOT CONTRAST

This season your gloves are the connecting link in your ensemble.

For your Easter outfit and for the days of warmer weather there are smart novelty kid gloves, in colour combinations to match any suit. The skins are fine pliable kid and the designs are clever. . . . $1.98

Tune in Every Wednesday, 7 p.m., C.F.C.A. Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

OPEN EVENINGS

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET
At Richmond
AD. 8993

768 YONGE STREET
Next door to Uptown Theatre
EL. 3600

2496 YONGE STREET
Next door to Capital Theatre
HU. 4780

HA! HA! DISCOVERED—SO THAT'S WHERE EVERYBODY'S GOING.

Naturally—the Victoria Theatre where Capt. Plunkett is staging a mammoth revue, 70 people, beauty ballet, all Dumbell's stars, Romanelli and 24-piece band, 5 Broadway headliners.

COMPLETELY NEW REVUE EVERY WEEK

"More of Broadway than Toronto"—Globe.

WHAT PRICES! Eves: 47c, 70c, 95c. Tax Extra.

Popular Matinees: Wed., Sat.

HART HOUSE THEATRE

FEB. 24th - MAR. 1st

HIS MAJESTY'S MAIDENS

A Romantic Comedy

Three Acts
by
RAYMOND CARD

Box Office Open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
TRINITY 2723

Tickets $1.00 tax extra
University Students 50c.
tax extra

COLLEGE GOWNS CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

FREEMAN'S—571 Yonge Street—is the largest concern for the rental of dress clothes.

NOW PLAYING

A daring, dashing story as modern as to-mor-row's headlines.

JACK ARTHUR'S
Stage Show

UPTOWN

The most sensational stage
attraction to ever play
Toronto

NOW PLAYING

The Only Boy SIAMESE TWINS in the Entire World with THEIR BRIDES

OTHER R.K.O. ATTRACTIONS

On the Screen

MARIE SAXON
JACK EGAN
LOUISE FAZENDA in "The Broadway Hooper"
ALL-TALKING, SINGING

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

JUNIORS BEAT PARRY SOUND; WOMEN TAKE CAGE CHAMPIONSHIP

SPEAKING OF SPORT

In looking over the Intercollegiate Assault the 135 lb. boxing semi-final between Peever of Queen's and Walsh of Varsity is the standout bout. Peever gave Walsh a bad beating in the first round, but Walsh, who is a slow starter, weathered the round. In the second session Walsh got going and held his own with Peever. But the lacing he got in the first round so weakened him that he was unable to stave off the Queen's whirlwind in the last round and Peever scored a technical K.O. The capacity crowd which had been somewhat lethargic up till this point, came to life with a vengeance and gave these two men thunderous applause. Peever is a marvellous fighter and can take plenty of punishment. The Queen's wonder has dynamite in each hand, with his right in particular being most effective. Walsh put up a most game display and gave Peever the toughest fight he ever had.

In "Firpo" Eaton Varsity has one of the most colourful boxers that ever wore the Blue. Eaton lacks boxing skill and experience, but he can take it and when he hits 'em, down they go.

Eddie Sinclair, who isn't in the dwarf class by any means, looked rather small alongside of Longley, McGill's heavy wrestler. Eddie gave the crowd a good show, but Longley was too big for him.

Bert Tyson had tough luck in the heavy boxing semi-final. Bert ran into one of Wilson's "straight from the shoulder" smashes in the first round and took a count of nine to get a breather. A few seconds later Wilson put over another and the referee stopped the bout just as Tyson was really getting warmed up.

McGill won the Gymnasium Meet on Saturday night. Varsity made a good showing, but McGill were a little too smooth.

If Varsity loses to Queen's to-night in their senior O.H.A. fixture, the two teams will be tied and anything can happen to the group standing. If Varsity wins they meet Nationals in the group playoff.

Varsity won the intercollegiate women's basketball championship this year because of the superiority of their forward line. Both Western and McGill had players who were individually as good as any of the Blue forwards, but collectively the Varsity front line was far ahead of any other team's. They had what some people would call "class".

Eleanor Sedgewick at side centre, turned in the best game of her basketball career, and in the final match with McGill, was especially outstanding. She played fine basketball all the way, but it was only sheer courage that kept her in there. Miss Sedgewick got a terrific ride. Her cheek crashed her repeatedly, and was called for it only once, but the game little Varsity side centre never once gave up.

Varsity was very disappointing defensively. The guards played a loose game and were off colour in both fixtures. Besides this the floor was so wide that it was impossible for the forwards to check effectively across centre. Yet the Blue front line continued to use this system.

Everyone got a big shock when the Western team appeared in perhaps the wildest basketball uniforms ever seen. These consisted of white cloth tunics and long white stockings. The surprise was all the greater because the Londoners were the first team to play in short bloomers and sweaters. Whatever they looked like this year, they certainly bore no resemblance to basketball players.

Varsity's co-ed puck-chasers take on Queen's to-night at the Blue Arena in the final game of the intercollegiate hockey series. The Blue and White played to a 0-0 tie in Kingston two weeks ago, but with Helen Hilliard and Fran Crooks back in their line-up, should be able to pull out a win to-night.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

268 College St. Trinity 6987

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

Miss Joyce Plumptre was hostess to the Vassar delegates of the Model Assembly and to the executive of the League of Nations Club, at supper Sunday evening.

Mrs. H. D. Warren entertained for the Model Assembly delegates at her home, Red Gables, yesterday afternoon.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
871 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

BRONZE BABY COMES TO VARSITY WOMEN BASKETBALL CHAMPS

Double Victory of Basketeers Secures Second Straight Championship

DEFEAT WESTERN, MCGILL

Blue Team Extended to Limit in Order to Capture First Tilt

By Edith Blackwell

Once more the "Bronze Baby" emblematic of the women's intercollegiate basketball championship, finds a resting place at Varsity.

By defeating Western 34-27 on Friday night and McGill 53-41 on Saturday, the Blue and White cage team emerged victorious in the annual tournament, held at London. This gives U. of T. two titles in a row, both being won under the coaching of Marion Forward, Victoria '28.

The Toronto team's exhibition against McGill Saturday afternoon was rather disappointing. Varsity was favoured to win by a wide margin, but again sloppy defence work let the Red and White forwards through for many easy shots. The Blue and White team got off on the wrong foot and the McGill team soon had an eight-point lead. The playing of the Varsity forward line was once more the decisive factor, and when the rest period came, U. of T. was leading 34-18.

McGill outscored them in the second period, notching 23 points to their 19. Eleanor Sedgewick stood out for Varsity with 23 points and Louise Crouch teamed up well and notched 24 points. Wilma Hazlit, captain of the winners, handled her team exceptionally well.

Janet Ballie at forward for McGill, was responsible for 19 points, and played well throughout.

Friday night's game against Western was the best of the series and Varsity were extended to the limit to pull out a win. The Blue team started slowly and the Londoners were well (Continued on page 4)

MCGILL FENCERS WIN IN ASSAULT AT ARMS

Take 16 Points to Varsity's Seven, and Four for Queen's Team

WIN COUNTS THREE POINTS

The fencing section of the Intercollegiate Assault-at-Arms took place in the McGill Union Saturday afternoon. A large crowd saw McGill score a win over Varsity and Queen's.

The McGill squad led by Wiggers, won by 16 points to Varsity's 7 and Queen's 4. Wiggers was individual champion winning all his bouts. McKergow, and Harvey-Jellie of McGill, were also in the best of form, each losing one bout.

Lee and Clark were Varsity's outstanding contestants, while Queen's had two left handed men who caused some trouble.

This win on the part of McGill gave her three points towards the Assault-at-Arms championship.

Results:—
Wutlice, Queen's, beat Lee, Varsity, 5-2.
Wiggers, McGill, beat Dunlop, Varsity, 5-2.
Clarke, Varsity, beat Lotta, Queen's, 5-1.
Harvey-Jellie, McGill, beat Lee, Varsity, 5-3.

(Continued on page 4)

MCGILL TEAM WINS IN INTERCOLLEGIATE B. W. & F. ASSAULT

Clear Win on Fencing Secures Victory for Whole Assault

MEET EVENLY CONTESTED

Fell for Varsity, Goffman for McGill and Peever for Queen's Star

Special to "The Varsity"

By Larry Dawson, Sports Editor
McGill Union, Montreal, Feb. 22.—Entering to-night's Intercollegiate Assault finals with an advantage of three points from a clear win in the fencing this afternoon McGill won the five of the sixteen boxing and wrestling classes, giving them the championship with a total of eight points to Queen's six and Varsity's five.

The meet was one of the most evenly contested in years and both Friday night's and to-night's bouts provided sparkling exhibitions. Every available place in the hall was occupied and soon after the evening's events got going they were turning them away at the door. The win was the first for McGill since 1923, Varsity having held it for the last six years.

There were three main features in the assault. The first was the boxing of Ted Fell of Varsity, who won the 126 lb. division. Fell knocked out Wilson, Queen's, and Bernstein, McGill, showing himself to be the cleverest boxer in the meet and possessing a wicked punch. The second stand-out was Goffman, McGill, in the 134 lb. wrestling. Goffman broke his nose a few days before the assault and wore a nose guard. Goffman defeated Glen, Queen's, and Jenner, Varsity, taking two falls from each. Peever, Queen's, who won the 135 lb. boxing, was the other shining light. Peever packed a terrific punch and was the most aggressive fighter in the meet. Last night Peever scored a third round technical K.O. over Walsh, of Varsity, in the best bout of the assault, and to-night he knocked out McGregor, McGill, in the first round. McGill got away to a nice start and increased their lead to four points when Wolfe, M, took two falls from Brownlee, V, in the 112 wrestling.

D'Arcy Hilliard, V, repeated in the 118 wrestling, taking the decision from GERALD, Q. Hilliard was too clever for his opponent and was more aggressive.

McQuaide, Q, knocked out Tannenbaum, M, in the first round of the 112 boxing.

Serlight, Q, defeated Rapsey, V, in the 118 lb. class. Serlight piled up enough points in the first two rounds to pull through in spite of Rapsey's strong finish in the third.

Bannister, V, won the 123 lb. wrestling by taking the only fall in his bout with James, Q.

In the 134 lb. division, Goffman, M, using a great double arm lock, took two falls from Jenner, V. Goffman in wrestling handicapped by a broken nose, displayed a high degree of courage.

Fell, V, easily won the 126 lb. boxing. He carried Bannister, M, for two rounds, and in the third stepped in and knocked him out.

Peever, Q, the 135 lb. boxing sensation, administered a sleeping potion to McGregor, M, putting him away in the first round, on a right to the jaw.

Norwood, M, took a very close decision from Campbell, V, in the 145 lb. wrestling. Neither man could throw his opponent, and it looked like an extra round would be necessary, but Norwood was declared winner. Smith, V, gained the verdict over (Continued on page 4)

CLOTHES tailored for the young man require an atmosphere of their own—for while roughly conforming to the style standards of an older generation yet must they convey an air of youth . . . a hint of gay days ahead. It has been our aim to make the Varsity Shop just such a place as this.

Second Floor, James Street

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

TWO VARSITY TEAMS TAKE BASKET BOUTS

Defeat Western 35-28, 24-22 in Two Snappy Games

GEORGE O'LEARY STARS

Varsity's cage teams scored two victories over Western 'U' when they captured the senior tilt 35 to 28 and the intermediate 34 to 22 at Hart House Saturday night.

Captain George O'Leary was easily the best man on the floor, contributing 11 of his team's points. Davey and Riggs were prominent on the offensive, while Currie, Varsity's veteran guard, again outscored his opposing forward. Sakler played aggressively. Cook was in there working hard all the time he was on. The rest of the spares were also good and there wasn't a weak member on the Blue line-up. Hayter and Munro were the best for Western.

The local intermediates found little difficulty in disposing of Western to the tune of 34 to 22. Mike Carr with 11 points was the star of the game, but every member on the winning crew tallied. Sobel and Douglas each notched 7 points. Lepine was quite the best for the losers, securing 10 of their points.

SENIOR—

U. of T. (35)—Forwards, Riggs (7), Davey (8); centre O'Leary (11); guards, Currie (4), Sakler (3); spares, Cook (2), Sniderman, Wood, Collins.

Western (28)—Forwards, Farquharson (5), Hayter (8); centre, Munro (10); guards, Gunn (2), Hauch

VARSAITY, QUEEN'S TO PLAY BIG GAME

Blue Seniors Meet Tricolour Set in Crucial Fixture Here To-night

TO DECIDE PLAY-OFFS

To-night at the Varsity Arena Varsity and Queen's renew their feud in the most important group fixture of the season. For Queen's a loss spells elimination, while a win will give them a fighting chance for the group title. If the Blue and White win they will play off for the title with the Nationals and the tie games will not have to be replayed. The Blues have had plenty of competition this season and the idea of replaying these tied games is not relished by the team so the fans are assured of seeing the Blues in action under full pressure to-night. Queen's, up against the wall, can be relied upon to furnish the stiffest kind of opposition.

The Blue and White haven't been any too successful in their games of late. The loss of the intercollegiate title last Thursday to McGill ought to be an added incentive for the Porter-led clan to redeem themselves.

(1); spares, Rivers, Lee (2), Vatz. INTERMEDIATE—
U. of T. (34)—Forwards, Carr (11), Buchanan (1); centre, Douglas, (7); guards, Calderone, Riley (4); spares, Sobel (7), Hallinan, (2), Humphrey.

Western (22)—Forwards, Barbour (6), Rider (4); centre, Manners (2); guards, McArthur, Lepine (10); spares, Brush, Hanley, Clarke.

TO-NIGHT—VARSAITY ARENA

7.00---Queen's Women vs. Varsity Women---Intercollegiate

8.20---QUEEN'S vs. VARSITY I---Senior O.H.A.

This Afternoon---McMaster vs. Varsity II---Intermediate Intercollegiate

Admission 47c. and tax
Coupon 25

Student Coupon 24

Reserved Seats
95c. and tax

Admission 25c.

Coming Events

MONDAY, FEB. 24

St. Joseph's Dramatic Club, "She Stoops to Conquer", in the college auditorium, Bredalbane St.
8.15—Meeting of the Italian-Spanish Club at the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street.

TUESDAY, FEB. 25

1.30-2.00—Talk by Rev. Stanley Russell in Wymilwood. All welcome.
5.00 p.m.—Meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. at Wymilwood.
8.00 p.m.—U.C. Women's Lit. St. Joseph's Dramatic Club, "She Stoops to Conquer", in the college auditorium, Bredalbane St.
8.00 p.m.—Victoria College Dramatic Society at-home in Wymilwood.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26

1.30—Prayers in Hart House Chapel.
5.15—Mr. Denton Massey on "Can We Be Religious in Modern Business?" In the Music Room, Hart House.
4.15 p.m.—The third meeting of the year of the Orientals Association will be held at Trinity College. I. W. R. Hadley, B.A., will speak on "The Old and New Testament Conceptions of the Messiah." Refreshments. Everybody welcome.

8 p.m.—Final debate in Lecture Room of Hart House.

9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

THURSDAY, FEB. 27

4.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Women's Press Club. Short story contributions from the members will be read and criticized. Good chance to try for the pin.

8.30 p.m.—Trinity College annual conversation at the college.

FRIDAY, FEB. 28

1.30-2.00—Talk by Rev. Stanley Russell in Wymilwood. All welcome.
8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.
9 p.m.—P.C.I. Ex-Students Association first annual At-Home.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6

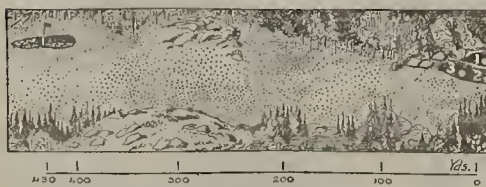

Hart House elections.
German Study Club presents two plays, "Er ist Nicht Eifersüchtig", "Ein Knopf", at the Women's Union Friday night.

The out-of-town delegates and the guest speakers at the Model Assembly were entertained at dinner by Miss D. Kilpatrick at the Women's Union Friday night.

A HARD PAR 4

No. 8, Tekarra's Cut—430 yards, Par 4.

Many hopes for a fine score have been wrecked by hole No. 8 of the Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course, Jasper National Park, Alberta, over which the Canadian amateur championship of the R.C.G.A. will be played from August 19th to 24th this summer. It is a dog-leg with a high knoll to be negotiated before the second shot can be placed on a sloping green that is lightning fast and guarded by a deep grass covered ditch. The contour of this green is such that an error of a fraction of an inch in putting means disaster.

Co-incident with the Canadian Amateur the Western Canada Amateur will be played over the Jasper Park Lodge Course, and this will provide plenty of competition for those whose high handicaps automatically keeps them out of the Dominion event.

The upper photograph shows the fairway just below the elevated tee. Below is a sketch to scale showing the hole in detail. Play in the tournament will take place from No. 1 tee.

McGILL TEAM WINS IN INTERCOLLEGIATE

(Continued from page 3)

Randazzo, M., in the 158 lb. wrestling. Smith was more aggressive and got the time advantage.

Porteous, M., and McLennan, V., put on a great battle in the 147 lb. boxing. Porteous had the edge in the first and second rounds and McLennan took the last, but not by enough to wipe out Porteous' early advantage.

Bayne, Q., got the decision over Wilton, V., in the 160 lb. section. Wilton scored consistently with his left and it appeared as if he had won the bout, but the judges gave it to Bayne. The verdict was not a popular one.

Hoskins, Q., took a fall from Rolli, M., in the 174 lb. wrestling.

Miller, Q., won the heavy mat title by taking one fall from Longley, M. Longley displayed great strength, but lacked the knowledge that Miller had. "Fibro" Eaton, V., knocked out Boyce, M., in the first round of the 175 lb. boxing. Eaton connected with a right hand swing about ten seconds after the bout started and Boyce took a count of nine. A few seconds later Eaton landed another right and the scrap was over.

Wilson, M., won the heavy title, knocking out Nichol, Q., in the second round. Wilson, a powerful, puncher, put Nichol down for a count of nine in the first round and put him away in the next. Wilson is one of the best men in his class that the intercollegiate has seen in years.

FRIDAY'S RESULTS

WRESTLING

112—Brownlee, T., vs. Southwood, Q.—Brownlee by two falls.
118—Hilliard, T., vs. Coplan, M.—Hilliard, decision.
123—Bannister, V., vs. Giulianelli, M.—Bannister, decision.
134—Glen, Q., vs. Golfman, M.—Golfman, by two falls.
145—Barrie, Q., vs. Norwood, M.—Norwood, by two falls.
158—Smith, V., vs. Hastings, Q.—Smith, by decision.
174—Shute, V., vs. Hoskings, Q.—Hoskings by one fall.
Heavyweight—Longley, M., vs. Sinclair, V.—Longley by two falls.

BOXING

112—Field, V., vs. McQuaide, Q.—McQuaide, decision.
118—Rapey, vs. Sampson, M.—Rapey, decision.
126—Fell, V., vs. Wilson, Q.—Fell, technical K.O., third round.
135—Walsh, V., vs. Peever, Q.—Peever, technical K.O., third round.
147—Porteous, M., vs. Remus, Q.—

Nockines' Nauseous New Novelty Attracts Approving Approbation

By P. A. Gardner

Nockines, always in the forefront, determined this week to plebiscite an idea which occurred to him several years ago, and later to a number of other sartorial reformers, namely, the total abolition of clothes except on the occasions of Promenades, Sleigh-rides, and Faculty Teas. He regrets to report, however, that most of the replies he received diverged too far from the strict limits of the subject to be printed in his column of uplift. At great personal inconvenience therefore, he canvassed his delighted victims a second time, posing the question:

Do you agree with the proposal that members of Hart House Committees should wear uniforms betokening their exalted positions?

I. Hama Korda, Music.—I heartily concur, and suggest that the Hall Committee uniform should consist of knee-breeches of a delicate wiener-brown, common or garden hose, Jello jerkin embroidered with string-beans in seven shades of nausea-green, pleated squelch-rabbit shirt airy choker, and soup-bowl chapeau trimmed with split peas. The Dining-Hall crest, Raisin Pie Rampant and Custard Couchant on Ketchup Background Gules, might appear on some prominent part of the breeches.

Conrad Fetti, House — I scarcely feel that this proposal takes into account the informality, the careless ease, which is the keynote of the services performed by us Committee members. However, should such a rule be made, may I offer as an idea for the Library Committee uniform the Louis Quinze nightgown, hand-embroidered with logs and saws of the Mouton-Jeffe period, the Victorian nightcap, and the canal-boat slippers, which compose the traditional Sandman costume. A tiny vial of morphia should be swung daintily from the right wrist for use in extreme cases.

Hugh Conthys Fellaby, Hall—As far as we spoilers of the tea are concerned, it seems to me that a hampering uniform would be a distinct handicap to our duties of spaghetti-stretching and pickle-counting. For more leasured fellows, however, we agree, and suggest for members of the Sketch Committee an impressionistic costume of loose tights and steamer trunks below a polyhedral bolero and flowing black tie (covering a multitude of stains), the whole topped by a mask (if necessary) representing a Grinning Fool.

Reid M. N. Slepe, Library—Splendid! Splendid! Then we can feel that we are really of some value, aesthetic, if not practical. What about, for the Debates members, a large hoop-skirt effect edged with a broad band of scarlet, from which would dangle at slight intervals polished triangles of ivory. This symbolic costume would taper gradually to a pin-point at the head. An opening might be cut for the face, if so desired.

Revellyn News, Sketch—No costume at all for me, thanks. However, if the worst should come to the worst, I think the Musical uniform should consist of harem trousers (fairly opaque) of a bold rose-pink, bearing the recently conceived crest of the Music Committee, the open arms, the tight-shut mouth, and the set smile.

Mr. Spie-Cursor, Debates — Well, yes and no. The question is debatable . . . what, you're in a hurry? Well, what would you think of a House Committee ensemble of crepe-paper streamers, in combinations of scarlet and rose, azure and vermillion, heliotrope and emerald green? A fetching touch might be added by the revealing of the right hip and the fourth rib of the left group. A noise-maker dangling here and there, from the tip of an ear or the protuberance of a wishbone, would be captivating.

BULLETIN BOARD

S.C.A. SERIES

The last of the S.C.A. Wednesday series will be given at 5.15 in the Music Room. The speaker will be Mr. Denton Massey and his subject will be "Can We Be Religious in Modern Business?" All men students cordially invited.

ITALIAN-SPANISH CLUB

There will be a meeting of the Italian-Spanish Club at 8.15 to-night Feb. 24, in the Women's Union, 79 St. George Street.

U.C. BASEBALL

Important change in dates: Seniors to play Tuesday, Feb. 25; juniors to play Wednesday, Feb. 26.

JUNIOR BASKETEERS HAVE A LEAD FOR RETURN GAME

Varsity to Start Game With Centennial With Lead of 13 Points

Varsity junior basketball team has a 13-point lead to take into its return game with Centennial Church in the first round of the O.A.B.A. playdowns to be played at Hart House to-night. Although 13 points looks to be a comfortable lead for the Blue and White, this Church aggregation is dangerous. At half time in the first game Varsity had a 10 point lead which Centennial wiped out and took a small lead before the locals even saw the ball. Any team which can do that is a real threat and not to be regarded lightly.

The Blue and White junior basketballers are Coach McCutcheon's only hope for a championship this year. Neither the intermediates nor the seniors are in the running for the intercollegiate honours.

Porteous, K.O., third round.
160—Bayne, Q., vs. Trudel, M.—Bayne by decision.

175—Thoman, Q., vs. Boyce, M.—Boyce, decision.

Heavyweight—Wilson, M., vs. Tyson, V.—Wilson, technical K.O., first round.

JOINT EXECUTIVE PICTURE

The Joint Executive S.A.C. picture will be taken at Freeland's on Tuesday, February 25, at 1.15 p.m. Please bring gowns.

U.C. WOMEN'S LIT.

The U.C. Women's Literary society will meet on Tuesday, Feb. 25 at 8 p.m. Miss Mary Campbell will give a paper on "Some Modern American Essayists". Refreshments will be served.

W.S.A.C. PICTURE

The Women Students' Administrative Council picture will be taken at Freeland's on Tuesday, February 25, at 1 p.m. Please bring gowns.

McGILL FENCERS WIN IN ASSAULT AT ARMS

(Continued from page 3)

Baker, Queen's, beat Dunlop, Varsity, 5-4.

McKergow, McGill, beat Clarke, Varsity, 5-4.

Wiggers, McGill, beat Lee, Varsity, 5-4.

Wuttie, Queen's, beat Dunlop, Varsity, 5-1.

Wiggers, McGill, beat Clarke, Varsity, 5-3.

Lee, Varsity, beat McKergow, McGill, 5-3.

Dunlop, Varsity, beat Lotta, Queens 5-3.

Clark, Varsity, beat Baker, Queen's, 5-4.

McKergow, McGill, beat Dunlop, Varsity, 5-3.

Lee, Varsity, beat Baker, Queen's, 5-3.

Wuttie, Queen's, beat Clark, Varsity, 5-4.

Harvey-Jellie, McGill, beat Dunlop, Varsity, 5-3.

Lee, Varsity, beat Lotta, Queen's, 5-1.

Clark, Varsity, beat Harvey-Jellie, McGill, 5-1.

FINAL RESULTS

McGill, 16, Varsity 7, Queen's 4.

Herbert Wiggers, individual champion.

McGill, team champion.

Lunch or Tea in Simpson's Arcadian Court

You eat delicious foods, appetisingly served, amid beautiful surroundings and to the strains of well-chosen music rendered by R. N. Cornfield's orchestra. When "lunching" or "tea-ing" down town, remember Arcadian Court.

Eighth Floor

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

Have Your Brakes Tested AND SAVE 10 SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE 205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KL 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $5.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1866

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

253 Bloor Street West

Near Avenue Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.

Open daily, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

STUDENT RATE 8 Lessons $5.00

This rate is offered to students only. Applicants must present registration card.

Jack Slater's orchestra at Thursday advanced classes. Dancing till midnight.

Beginners' class Tuesday 8.30. Private lessons by appointment.

DA COSTA

Studio of Dancing

Columbus Hall RA. 8650

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

DANCING LESSONS

REDUCED RATES

By special request Mr. Walford will continue these low rates during Jan., Feb., and March.

Private lessons the only way to learn successfully.

Strictly Private - 8 for $5.00

Semi Private - 6 for $4.00

(Two pupils taking same lesson)

Class Lessons - 8 for $5.00

HARRY WALFORD-KL 4882

Address—56 WELLESLEY ST.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25th, 1930

No. 90

BLUE SENIORS CRUSH QUEEN'S 7-3 TO ENTER PLAY-OFFS WITH SEA FLEAS

Harley, Murray, Marshall,
Whitehead, Stewart, Share
Scoring Bee

REVAMPED LINE-UP CLICKS

Dewar on Defence, Whitehead
Moved Up to Right Wing Position

Varsity seniors turned back Queen's by a 7 to 3 score in the final game of the O.H.A. Senior "A" group at the "T" Arena last night. The win gives the Blue and White the right to meet Nationals in the playoffs for the title.

Coach "Red" Porter presented a re-arranged line-up and the shift seemed to add considerably to the all round strength of the team. Dewar was used on the defence with Paul, while Whitehead was moved up to right wing, with Harley at centre and McMullen on the left boards.

Play was fairly even in the first period. Varsity opened the scoring twelve minutes after the face-off when Paul carried the puck up and fired one at Quinn. "Baldy" blocked the shot, but Whitehead followed in fast and slammed in the rebound. The advantage was short-lived, however, Bellringer evening the count on a long shot which Ames tried to stop with his skate, the puck glancing into the net for a soft goal.

The second period produced some fast and strenuous hockey with both teams travelling at top speed. The rival defences stepped into all and sundry, but only one penalty resulted. Harley put the Blue in the lead after six minutes of play when he camped in front of the Queen's net and took a pass-out from Whitehead, making no mistakes with his shot. Two minutes later Whitehead scored again.

HEADGEAR DEEMED PROPER FOR CO-ED

Convention Thought Necessary in City University
Like Toronto

SHOULD BE INCONSPICUOUS

"It has always been considered proper for women to wear their hats on the campus, or in University College," stated Mrs. L. Howard, resident head of Argyle House, when interviewed by "The Varsity". "The fact that the University of Toronto is a city university makes the situation slightly different from that existing in a college town, and a certain amount of convention is necessary in any city."

"The law at Victoria College is not set by tradition, but by necessity and convenience," replied Miss M. E. T. Addison, Dean of Women at Victoria College. "When the girls have to rush from Victoria to Baldwin House or the Chemistry Building, they are more or less forced to wear hats, especially if the weather is inclement. It is, of course, most desirable that our students be inconspicuous when going through the public park, and convention and custom has tended toward their wearing hats."

"St. Hilda's has no hard and fast rule concerning the wearing of hats around the campus," said Miss M. Cartwright, Dean of St. Hilda's College. "The custom has always been, however, that if one wears an academic gown, a hat is not necessary, but if a gown is not worn, a hat must be worn."

Miss M. Patterson, VI Medicine said, "We find it necessary to wear hats."

FREDDY MURRAY

One of Varsity's "gold-dust twins", who burned up the ice against Queen's last night.

WOMEN CONSIDER SUNDAY SONGSTER

Hart House Songsters Began Spontaneously Seven Years Ago

GREAT VALUE SAYS WARREN

The women have started thinking seriously of using the Sunday Evening Songsters at Hart House as a precedent to initiating the same into their program.

"The Songsters at Hart House began in the winter of 1923-24, but not under that name," J. B. Bickerteth, Warden of Hart House, told "The Varsity". "They came into being through the fact that a number of men used to gather quite informally in the Music Room on those Sunday evenings when there were no concerts, and sing folk-songs."

"In December, 1924, the Board of Stewards appointed J. W. Melson, Ross Workman and P. C. Davidson, together with two other undergraduate members of the House Committee to be responsible for this musical activity which was growing in popularity."

"In November, 1925, the appointment of Campbell McInnes as director, put these musical functions on an entirely different footing. By the end of the winter the title 'Songster' was adopted at Mr. McInnes' suggestion. 'Songster' is an old English word still used in Sussex."

"By October, 1927, the Songsters were placed under the direct supervision of the Music Committee, where they remain to-day, a sub-committee under the chairmanship of Professor H. R. Kemp being responsible for them."

(Continued on page 3)

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Gathers Opinions on Free Trade

"What is your opinion of Lord Beaverbrook's new Empire Free Trade Party?"

R. Howard, IV Political Economy, University College—

"There has been a lot made over empire trade in economic interests and there has been a lot of futile writing done by various parties on the subject but I think the editor is right in his views, expressed in Monday's editorial."

Marjorie Cameron, II English and History, Victoria—

"I am one of those individuals who like to be personally approached, but not on such deep and complicated problems as free trade."

A. J. Elder, III Commerce and Finance, University College—

"The editorial shows an intimate knowledge of facts, but no mention was made of the possibility of Canada flooding England's market."

Anne DeLury, I Moderns, University College—

"Too presumptuous."

FACULTY MEMBER APPROVES VARSITY FREE TRADE STAND

Professor Gilbert Jackson
Thinks Beaverbrook Movement of Little Effect

SPLIT CONSERVATIVE PARTY

Glad to See "The Varsity"
Does not Restrict Self to College Topics

The editorial in yesterday's issue of "The Varsity" found approval with Professor Gilbert E. Jackson, Department of Economics, "The Varsity" learned in an interview regarding the present discussions on Empire Free Trade.

"Regarding this Beaverbrook propaganda, I do not know enough to discuss it in great detail, but I do agree with the view taken in the editorial of 'The Varsity'," Mr. Jackson stated. "My judgment is that the scheme is hopelessly wrecked from the start."

(Continued on page 4)

OFFICE SEEKERS RISE WITH LARK

Enterprising Candidates for Hart House Committee Appear at Door at 4.00 a.m.

50 NOMINATIONS TO OATE

Undertaken by the fact that the nomination lists for the Hart House elections opened at 9.00 a.m., two enterprising office seekers put in their appearance at the doors of Hart House at 4.00 a.m. Friday that their names might appear first on the ballot paper.

As usual the House committee again claims the most in numbers of the undergraduate members seeking election on any of the eight standing committees of Hart House. Of the fifty or more names placed in nomination thus far, the House Committee claims fifteen while the Billiard Committee must content itself with only one. The nomination lists close on Monday, March 6, at 6 p.m.

Posters proclaiming to the Hart House electorate, the sterling qualities of candidates may be placed in the main corridor beginning Thursday, February 27th at 9 a.m. Contrary to the practice of former years space cannot be reserved by the various candidates for their posters to be put up at a later date. The space must be taken up by the candidate's permanent poster only, no temporary ones will be allowed.

STRAW VOTE TO-DAY DETERMINES ATTITUDE OF UNDERGRADUATES ON BEER SALE IN UNIVERSITY

This is the day. Both men and women of the university are given the opportunity of voting on the question of the sale of beer within the university grounds. It is the first time that the students have had the opportunity of expressing their preference. "The Varsity" hopes that the opportunity will be taken. The student will vote on the ballot provided below and he or she, as the case may be, is asked to vote only once.

WHERE TO VOTE
HART HOUSE, AT THE ENTRANCE.
2 Ballot Boxes.

SCHOOL OF PRACTICAL SCIENCE.
MEDICAL BUILDING.
DENTAL BUILDING.
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE.

2 Boxes, South and East Entrances.

VICTORIA COLLEGE.
TRINITY COLLEGE.
ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE.

THE HOURS OF VOTING ARE FROM 11.30 A.M.
TO 2.30 P.M.

THIRTEEN CO-ED ATHLETES AWARDED VARSITY COLORS

At the last meeting of the Women's Athletic Directorate, Senior Colours for Tennis were awarded to Beatrice Symons, Norma Bateman, Jessie Gray and Lois Reynolds, and Junior Colours to Marion Boulton. Junior Colours for Indoor Baseball were awarded to Frances Dale, Phyllis Ferguson and Christine Elmslie, and to Marion Shadle and Anne Hodge upon registration in the Second Year. Junior Colours for Basketball were awarded to Patricia Hedley and Ruth Harrison, and to Isobel Wright upon her registration in the Second Year.

CO-ED PUCKSTERS WIN FROM QUEEN'S

5-1 Score on Game and Round
Brings Intercollegiate
Title to Toronto

FRAN CROOKS A STANDOUT

Displaying unexpected goal-getting ability, the Blue and White feminine hockeyists defeated Queen's 5-1 at the Varsity Arena last night and thereby retained the intercollegiate championship, the first game at Kingston having resulted in a scoreless draw.

It was a well-played contest, and many spectators who had come early for the men's game found that they were cheering on the snappy co-ed puck-chasers instead of jeering in superior fashion.

Varsity presented a hard-checking forward line, a strong defence in Fran Crooks and Adele Statten, and a capable goalie in Thelma Humphreys, who did not have a great deal to do but nevertheless showed her ability in pulling off several clever saves. The Toronto sextet had a big edge in the second and third periods, completely outplaying the visitors and keeping them bottled up in their end of the rink for minutes on end.

The first period was fairly even. Helen Hilliard, Varsity's right winger, opened the scoring on a nice shot from the boards after five minutes of play. Gladys Simmons, Queen's speedy centre, who was the star for her team, tied it up when she pushed the puck between the defence and followed through herself to score from close range. The Blue sweaters girls kept pressing and Betty Carter made it 2-1 on a pass out from Miss Hilliard just as the period ended.

(Continued on page 3)

OPPOSE STUDENT USE AS SUBJECT FOR EXPERIMENT

Anti-Vivisectionists Fear Harm to Those Who Submit to Inoculation

INSULIN, VACCINE USELESS?

Circulate Petition to Abolish Experimental Carving of Canines

Another outside organization is about to come to the aid of our misled university students, for at their next meeting the Canadian Anti-Vivisection Society intends to forward a complaint to the Board of Governors with regard to preventing students being used as subjects in medical experiments. The society already has a petition with over nine thousand names on it to make dog vivisection illegal and its membership of one hundred and fifty is now going to crusade for the sake of the student who would sell his healthy body to science for a few dollars.

Mrs. G. A. Stanley, the vice-president and organizer of the society was well aware of the scorn with which the medical trust and the general public regards this work, but she felt that they are slowly gaining ground. Its aims are to oppose vivisection absolutely and entirely, and to demand its total prohibition by law without attempts at compromise of any kind. The organization is sincere in this aim and has no paid officials.

"I would advise the poor boys against trying the test even though there is no law against it, for they are only liable to disease from it," said Mrs. Stanley when shown the article in Friday's "Varsity" about students being tested for scarlet fever. Dr. John B. Fraser, a supporter of the society said, "The test is only a theoretical one, and there is danger of becoming ill, and in fact of still coming out of it ill."

(Continued on page 4)

SPRING FEVER ATTACKS COUPLE IN RUMBLE SEAT

Petting Party in Front of Library One Sign of Vernal Season

The campus has lately been showing indisputable signs of spring. Not only have the males emerged from the Library to roost on the railings and smoke their pipes, but the co-eds, not to be outdone, have taken to studying in their cars to the accompaniment of a cigarette. The strangest symptom, however, that might be blamed on spring, appeared yesterday when an oblivious young couple were seen holding a petting party in the rumble seat of a roadster parked in front of the University Library.

BALLOT

ARE YOU IN FAVOUR OF THE SALE OF BEER
WITHIN THE UNIVERSITY GROUNDS?

YES

NO

(PLACE AN "X" TO INDICATE CHOICE.)

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: W. S. Johnston

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25th, 1930

HIRE HIGHER EDUCATORS

Once the flutter of Convocation subsides in early June, an uncomfortable stillness comes upon the campus, broken only by the activity of the matriculation examiners and the putt-putting of the lawn mower which sweeps around in terrifying curves at the speed of three miles an hour. To be sure, there are also teachers' courses—but there is no terrifying congestion in the paths and corridors from this influx of humanity. To all intents and purposes this vast institution which we know as the University of Toronto lies idle from the first of June to the middle of September.

There will be no difficulty in suggesting a means of utilizing the university facilities during the summer. A school of graduate studies during the balmy months is an obvious solution. Of course, there is a graduate school for teachers which obviously attracts all the possible summer students in the province. But this is not a considered objection, for to the south of us is an unlimited reservoir of prospective students who would certainly flock to Toronto in the summer . . . if they knew there was such a place. At the same time there is to be considered the current objections to the fetish of getting and granting graduate degrees.

This last objection is put forward in the sniffling Chesterton grand manner. No one can seriously deny that the practice of writing a dissertation on the weakening of the iota subscript in Indo-European duals for a Ph.D. is rather a dubious contribution to the welfare of humanity, yet at the same time, it is no less difficult to deny that the interests of science and progress have been tremendously furthered by the graduate work done by universities upon this continent. And in liberal subjects Toronto does practically no graduate work, beyond a little with M.A.'s.

A reasoned consideration of the topic, we feel, will convince the critic that graduate work as done on this continent—barring the haughty reductio ad absurdum of the unreasonable traditionalist—is worthy and worth-while. But even conceding that it is a crass and commercial capitalization of the liberal muses, graduate work has a very valuable contribution to offer to the university that supports it. Like every organization, a university needs publicity. The University of Toronto seems to have adequate publicity in this province through the Department of Extension. But it is not deservedly known abroad. Graduate work—the publication of sound, brilliant theses—the presence of students here from other great universities—would put Toronto on the map, and give it the solid reputation for scholarship which it deserves in many departments.

This is not designed to be a lyrical tubthumping to promote degree-mongering. It is simply our contention that the University of Toronto is afflicted with a certain modesty which does not react to its credit nor to its advantage. It does not seem to have occurred to the university that we have here many things which few other institutions can offer. In many departments we rank with the very best; in few are we not satisfactorily adequate. Yet it seems to be felt upon the campus that no better fate can fall to a graduate than to go away to some far-away college. Work elsewhere is the graduate's Elysium—his Valhalla.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Carillonour

The Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

I would like to express the hope that someone be appointed soon to play the very fine carillon in the Memorial Tower. I haven't heard it more than once or twice since last September, and I think that many students and others would appreciate a recital given once a week or so.

Yours, etc.,

370 U.C.

More Froth

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

I was amused to see that our Moralist, '30 Vic, is in our midst again. Humour him, my dear sir, he's useful. A hearty laugh now and then will lighten our days to the end of term.

At first glance his letter looks to be one of the cleverest pieces of satire that has ever dripped from an undergraduate's pen. But when copious religious references were larded on, and the writer retreated to an almost im-

Art and Drama

St. Joseph's Dramatic Society

"She Stoops to Conquer", that delicious old farce which has weathered the years so well, (and which contains more than one line generally supposed to be a modern witticism), is not infrequently the choice of amateurs, but it is rarely that it receives such justice as last night at the hands of the members of the St. Joseph's Dramatic Society.

The outstanding feature of the production was the perfection with which the mannered movements and gestures so essential to the proper presentation of such a play were achieved. Added to this the remarkable freedom from dependence upon the prompter gave the presentation an excellent finish.

The characterizations were almost uniformly good, but especial praise must be given Gertrude O'Malley, Helen Dolan, Marybel Quinn, and especially to Jessie Grant, who gave to Tony a richness of humour rarely caught by those essaying that difficult role. Mary Gardner as Mr. Hardcastle, was the equal of anyone in gesture, but failed to achieve the semblance of age in either posture or voice. Bernita Miller, while incredibly funny, likewise lacked the illusion of age; Lorraine Paterson must be much more manly.

Those who scoff at all-female casts should go sometime and see the excellent work done with them by Sister St. John at St. Joseph's Convent, by Mother Estelle at Loretto Abbey, and by Mrs. Brown at Bishop Strachan's School.

As a parting thrust I must deplore certain faults of diction generally in evidence in this production which are bad enough off-stage, but excruciating on—the rendering of "aunt" as "eant", and "calm" as "cawm", which is almost as hideous as "camm".

P. A. G.

CHAMPUS CAT

THE BALLAD OF THE UNDERGRAD

Down in the tinselled ballroom
Where the kazoo softly sigh
There sways my darling dancing
With some other lucky guy.

I sit up in my attic
While the rats about me play
A thinking of my lost one
And the price I've had to pay.

I loved her in the springtime
When the fees were nearly due
I lost her in the autumn
When the falling leaves were few.

I loved her and I lost her
Through no conscious fault of mine
She played me for a nunny
And she strung the smoothest line.

She wanted shows and parties
And slaves and caravans
She got them and she has them
Fast in her pretty hands.

And now I know my lesson;
No matter who you love
Your heart will break your heart will ache
By all the gods above.

For womenfolk are canny folk
Far cannier than I
For all my life I'll never wile
I'll smile and pass them by.

Down in the tinselled ballroom
Where trombones slowly sob
I see my darling dancing
With a great big horsefaced slob.

I sit up in my attic
And thumb my students' bible (While writing ballads may be fun
It sounds a bit like libel.)

I'll call up Doris now and see
If she'll step out to a show—
To hell with women, yet even so
With women I must go.

Charles Richards.

pregnable position behind a Scriptural reference, it became clear, regretfully enough, that he was in earnest.

I wonder if he could give us a text to support his uncharitable castigation of Mr. Knowles, Jr. An expression of unholiness is decidedly not Christian. In fact the general incoherency of the remarks would make you suspect that the letters were from a woman's pen.

Vic '30 has burlesqued himself into an awkward and decidedly childish position by railing at the apparent(?) moral deterioration rife on the campus. But where, in the name of The Thunderer, should experiments be tried? Cannot he (or she) thrill at the prospect of 2500 undergraduates lining up and nobly quaffing nut-brown, while the expectant world looks on and gasps in hope and fear (Continued on page 4)

With the Theatres

UPTOWN

The Long Island movie impresarios evidently haven't decided whether Ruth Chatterton's meter is high comedy or broad melodrama. In "The Laughing Lady" they have given her a chance to do both. Take your choice. Victor Schertzinger does an intelligent job of the direction, and the supporting cast is capable. The film is infinitely superior to the run of society spurgles to which we have been subjected of late. Cut a couple of lectures to hear Ruth's infectious laugh in the face of fate and the tabloids.

—A.E.F.A.

SHEA'S

The entire bill at Shea's this week has not one putrid attraction nor has it one particularly outstanding one. The vaudeville is evenly fair, with the fat boy of the first act a standout. Oh, by the way, the best thing about these male Siamese twins are their wives. From where we were sitting they looked attractive indeed. As far as the "Broadway Hooper" is concerned the story is trite enough, but some intelligent handling does a good deal towards alleviating the pain. The Christie talkie play or whatever they call that thing, gives three people an opportunity to do some clever acting.

L.G.

EMPIRE

"Seven Keys to Baldpate", this week's attraction at the Empire, is a disappointment. To my mind, its reputation as a comedy-thriller is quite unjustified, and while the play holds the interest and has its share of excitement, the story is very unconvincing.

The young novelist who came to Baldpate on a bet to write a novel in 24 hours, was well handled by Robert Leslie, but Magee was altogether too practical for an author. The other parts were uniformly well handled by the cast.

Of course, Colan's adaptation of the novel by Earl Du Biggers is a travesty of melodrama, complete with small-town chief of police, beautiful woman reporter and assorted crooked politicians and thugs. But somehow it is not a satisfactory portrayal.

Don't go if you should be finishing an essay.

PANTAGES

"Kibitzer", at the Pantages theatre, proves a delightful bit of character comedy. The story in its filmed arrangement falls naturally into three definite scenes—a race track scene, the bargaining of the tobacco merchant Lazarus with "another" financial magnate Livingston, and a scene centering around a stock quotation ticker. In its figures Lazarus watches his fortunes rising into the millions until the playful instrument records a slump and financial ruin. But the Kibitzer's Yiddish brother saves the day with his only English phrase, "Yes Sure Certainly", and the play ends in a riot of happiness all round.

Harry Green is the "Kibitzer", the man of never-failing advice, and he is the show. Mary Brian makes a feeble attempt to appear charming as the heroine, but suffers under a severe handicap in her inability to act

CONSOLATION!
What if you do get "bumped" occasionally!

You will find soothing comfort and consolation in the wonderful flavour of Turrets.

20 for 25c

TURRET CIGARETTES

Mild and Fragrant

Save the valuable "POKER HANDS"

THE ART METROPOLE

Branch of
THE HUGHES OWENS CO., LTD.
36 ADELAIDE STREET WEST

Dealers in
DRAFTING OFFICE SUPPLIES
MATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENTS
SURVEYING AND OTHER SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS
ARTISTS' MATERIALS ZEISS MICROSCOPES
LABORATORY SUPPLIES

ESTABLISHED 45 YEARS

HA! HA! DISCOVERED—SO THAT'S WHERE EVERYBODY'S GOING.

Naturally,—the Victoria Theatre where Capt. Plunkett is staging a mammoth revue, 70 people, beauty ballet, all Dumbell's stars, Romanelli and 24-piece band, 5 Broadway headliners.

COMPLETELY NEW REVUE EVERY WEEK

"More of Broadway than Toronto"—Globe.

WHAT PRICES! Eves: 47c, 70c, 95c. Tax Extra.
Popular Matinees: Wed., Sat.

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

HART HOUSE A DREARY PLACE DURING SUMMER

Building Open to Visitors for Several Days in Week of Commencement

"Members are allowed to take visitors through Hart House on the last Sunday of each month and during commencement week two or three days are always given to the students so that they can show their building to any of their friends or relatives who have come to the city for the graduation exercises," said Mr. J. B. Bickerteth, the warden, when he was interviewed by "The Varsity".

After graduation the students still have all the privileges of Hart House except for the use of the athletic wing. The summer membership fee for the use of the gymnasium and pool is two dollars.

"However, few students avail themselves of this opportunity and I believe that it is because Hart House is a rather dreary place in the summer without the conversation, songs and good fellowship that so characterize it in the winter," continued Mr. Bickerteth, "after the examinations few students are seen within our walls and Hart House lapses into a kind of melancholy that is only shaken off when the fall term re-opens."

and the lover (Neil Hamilton) makes it a pair. But the "Kibitzer" is delicious; he brings to the screen a wonderful bit of characterization and his dialogue is unfailingly funny.

J.J.K.

THE ROYAL TAILORS

Invites all students to inspect their new Spring woollens now on display at their Headquarters,
468 Wellington St. W.
A discount is given to all Students.
Easter April 20th

HART HOUSE THEATRE

FEB. 24th - MAR. 1st

HIS MAJESTY'S MAIDENS

A Romantic Comedy in Three Acts by RAYMOND CARD

Box Office Open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
TRINITY 2723

Tickets $1.00 tax extra
University Students 50c. tax extra

VARSITY ELIMINATES QUEEN'S FROM O.H.A. LAST NIGHT 7 TO 3

SPEAKING OF SPORT

"To beer or not to beer, that is the question!"

Vote as you like, but vote!

Having given your memory a little aid it behooves us to remark that last night's Queen's-Varsity game was good. The best thing about it is that Varsity scored seven (7) goals! No scoring slump there!

The Blue played real hockey last night. Queen's tried hard, but "Red" Porter's men were far too good.

Varsity's team play was a treat to watch and they certainly bored in on the goal.

Mel Harley's performance at right wing cheered up a lot of the Blue's faithful followers. Harley, who has been going poorly of late, came to life scoring two goals and playing a great all-round game.

Murray and Marshall, the "gold-dust twins", turned in a great game. Marshall got two goals on smart individual plays; Murray got one and checked the opposition to a standstill.

Paul and McMullen didn't score, but the former made the pass for one of Harley's goals and the Varsity captain slipped the puck to Stewart for his counter.

Varsity's re-arranged line-up worked wonders. Dewar and Paul formed a fine defence, with Harry Whitehead going nicely when sharing right wing duties with Harley.

Nationals are next in line and the two games with the Sea Fleas ought to be packed with action.

Varsity women's hockey team took the intercollegiate championship, and incidentally won their first game this season, when they downed Queen's last night by a 5-1 score. The two teams had played to a 0-0 tie in Kingston two weeks ago. The Blue team turned in their best exhibition to date, and with Fran Crooks and Helen Hilliard back in their line-up, they proved vastly superior to the Kingstonians, especially in the second and third periods.

Betty Carter, red-haired St. Hilda's freshe, whose pestiferous checking featured both games, had never played hockey until she came to college this year. She hails from Ottawa and had done a lot of fancy skating there.

Varsity women's intermediate basketball team takes on the Blue and White seniors, intercollegiate champions, in a city league game to-night at 7 p.m. in the U.T.S. gym.

DOUG MARSHALL

Husky right-winger on the senior hockey team, who scored two goals unassisted against Queen's last night.

VARSITY SECONDS DEFEAT M'MASTER

Score Six Goals to Whitewash Baptists in Decisive Fashion

PEREYMA SCORES THREE

The Blue and White intermediates handed McMaster a 6-0 beating at the arena yesterday afternoon. The entire Varsity squad turned in excellent performances and deserved every bit of their margin. McMaster did not combine well and except for a few flashes were completely out of the picture.

Varsity netted their first marker toward the middle of the first period when Conn scored on a beautifully placed corner shot. The rest of the session was scoreless though Ferguson and his two wing men were attacking constantly.

Three more goals came in the second stanza when Clute, Ferguson and Pereyma all scored on sterling efforts. McMaster threatened seriously for a few minutes of the period but McCartney in goal was invincible and handled everything that came his way easily.

The last twenty minutes produced two more goals, both from Pereyma's stick. Clute hit the post a few minutes before time on another nice effort and many thought he had scored Varsity's seventh counter. Pereyma was outstanding during the game and his three goals were the result of constant effort.

The Blue and White all turned in good games. For the losers Hale and Dick were outstanding.

U. of T.—Goal: McCartney; defence, Smith and Malcolm; wings, Conn and Pereyma; centre, Ferguson; subs, Johnson, Clute and Dewar.

McMaster—Goal, Westbrook; defence, Smith and Waltho; wings, Hale and Pike; centre, Dick; subs, Lillie, Duncan, Granger and Stibbards.

INTERFACULTY HOCKEY PLAYOFFS FOR ARENA

Owing to the weather conditions it is necessary to play games at the Varsity Arena in order to declare the winners in some of the groups of Interfaculty Hockey. The following are the dates for which games have been arranged:

GROUP II
To-day, Tuesday, Feb. 25th, 4.00 p.m.—Dents vs. Sr. S.P.S. Referee—J.C. Bennett.

GROUP IV
To-morrow, Wednesday, Feb. 26th, 3.30 p.m.—Wylliffe vs. Knox. Referee—E. G. Arnold.

GROUP III
Thursday, Feb. 27th, 4.00 p.m.—Jr. S.P.S. vs. Jr. U.C. Referee—C. E. Armstrong.

FIRST SEMI-FINAL
Tuesday, March 4th, 3.30 p.m.—St. Mike's (Group V) vs. Victoria (Group I). Referee—J. C. Bennett.
There will be a meeting of the Committee of Management on Friday, Feb. 28th at 1.30 p.m. to make further arrangements for the remaining games.

man, Burns.
Forestry—Townson, Bier, Sewell, Atcheson, Hodgins, Young, Choate, Howard, Hunt.

Secretarial Training —in your spare time

During the winter months, why not make use of a little of your spare time between lectures?

Full or part time, mornings or afternoons, every day or on special days, we provide individual instruction on subjects necessary to secretarial training.

For further information telephone KI. 5588, or write,

The Gregg College

"Toronto's model school for Gregg Shorthand and Secretarial subjects."

Bloor and Bay Sts.

Toronto

McGILL GYMNASTS TAKE INTERCOLLEGIATE TITLE

Heslop is High Toronto Scorer; McGill Men Share First Three Positions

The Intercollegiate Gymnastic Meet at McGill University held on Saturday was featured by the remarkable performances of the McGill gymnasts on the high bar, their work in this event undoubtedly being the finest exhibition of amateur gymnastics seen in Canada in many years. The Varsity team, with but two members of last year's squad remaining, made a very creditable showing, and apart from the high bar, gave their opponents keen competition. McGill, however, succeeded in winning all four apparatus events, and retained the Intercollegiate championship for another year.

Two McGill men, DeWolf Mackay and Raymond Caron, staged a brilliant battle for the individual championship and the Werry cup, held by Jack Williamson of Varsity last year. Mackay, in winning the tumbling, nosed out Caron to win the coveted honour for the second time. Holland of McGill was third. Wilfred Heslop, Don Ivey and Bob Wilkinson of Varsity were the next three high scorers.

The score—Varsity 317.6; McGill, 336.9.

Individual scores:
R. DeWolf Mackay, McGill. 710.3
R. Caron, McGill. 702.
A. Holland, McGill. 683.6
W. G. Heslop (Capt.), Varsity. 668.6
D. Ivey, Varsity. 661.
R. M. Wilkinson, Varsity. 641.6
W. Davis (Capt.) McGill. 638.6
G. Dumbell, McGill. 634.2
W. M. Jacoby, Varsity. 632.1
E. G. Heslop, Varsity. 569.

WOMEN CONSIDER HAVING SUNDAY SONGSTERS

(Continued from page 1)

Mr. Bickersteth admitted the undoubted value of such songsters to the women. The Warden considers the series of eight songsters during the term of the greatest value for the men.

Miss D. Kilpatrick, dean of University College women, said that the W.U.A. Songster in the fall was fairly well attended. If another one that is a success is held this year the practice will probably be carried on next year.

Miss Jean Evans, vice-president of the Victoria Music Club thought the idea of a songster a splendid one, but suggested it would be better supported if held at five o'clock instead of Sunday evenings.

MAY HOUSE SHRINERS IN UNIVERSITY ROOMS

"Up to the present time no definite arrangements have been made," replied J. R. Gilley, Comptroller of Hart House, when asked by "The Varsity" whether the Shriners, who will be in Toronto in June, will be given accommodation in university residences and Hart House. Mr. Gilley continued, "We have written to the officials in charge of the Shriners' convention offering them certain accommodation if this was guaranteed by them, but as yet we have received no reply."

VARSITY SENIORS TRIM QUEEN'S DECISIVELY 7-3

(Continued from page 1)

utes later the stocky wingman duplicated, making it 3-1 for Varsity. Bruce Paul made a great rush through the whole Tricolour team and passed to Harley right at the goal mouth. It was a real exhibition of the old-time Blue combination. Bellinger cut the Varsity lead to one goal two minutes later on a nice play.

With six minutes left to play Varsity ran in two quick goals to make the score 5-2. Marshall was the marksman on both occasions. He carried the puck up alone, splitting the defence, drove a hard shot past Quinn from close in, repeating the performance half a minute later. Both plays were great efforts on the part of the big right-winger. With two minutes of the period remaining "Chummy" Lawlor notched his team's third and last goal of the evening. Most of the excitement was packed into this frame and the crowd was in an uproar at times.

Just forty-five seconds after the face-off in the last period Marshall dashed through alone and bounced one off Quinn's pads. Freddy Murray was right behind him and got his stick on the puck for a nice shot that beat the Queen's netminder. The Blues had a margin on the play for the rest of the game. At one time, however, Paul and Murray were in the penalty box together and Queen's looked to be certain of a score, but Mel Harley put up a great exhibition singlehanded to stave them off, almost scoring a goal himself. Varsity got their last tally after twelve minutes of play when McMullen broke fast, and carrying the puck up the left boards, made a perfect centre to Stewart who beat Quinn with a nice drive. This made the final score 7 to 3 for the Blue and White.

Varsity—Goal, Ames; defence, Paul and Dewar; centre, Harley; wings, McMullen and Whitehead; alternates, Stewart, Murray and Marshall.

Queen's—Goal, Quinn; defence, McKelvey and Boland; centre, Lawlor; wings, Reist and Bellinger; alternates, Sheppard, Lee and Paterson.

FEMINE PUCKSTERS WIN TITLE FROM QUEEN'S

(Continued from page 1)

Fran Crooks, whose fast rushes had the Queen's team worried, did the only scoring of the second period, netting the rubber on a lovely shot as she hit the defence on one of her individual sorties. The Varsity goal had a narrow escape when a rebound came right out to a Queen's forward, but Thelma Humphreys saved in fine style.

The third period was all Varsity. Adele Statten took a hand in the offensive work and, after ten minutes of play, beat the smart Queen's net custodian on a close-in shot. A few seconds later Margot Thompson made it 5-1 when she batted in the puck after a scramble.

The U. of T. outfit still sought more goals and were baffled only by hard luck and the good goal-keeping of Beth Patterson, the bespectacled Queen's goal keeper. Betty Carter missed the net twice by inches only.

Varsity—Goal, Thelma Humphreys; defence, Frances Crooks and Adele Statten; centre, Betty Carter; right wing, Helen Hilliard; left wing, Dot

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

263 Bloor Street West
Near Avenue Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.
Open daily, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

P. Leone

BARBER
BEAUTY SHOPPE
BRANCHES

366 Bloor W. Kl. 6551
340 Bloor W. Kl. 6213
Medical Arts Bldg. Kl. 1211
340 BLOOR ST. WEST

Shoe Shine Parlor
Hats Cleaned and Blocked
The favourite Shoppe of the students, both men and women.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

259 College St. TRINITY 6887
Harry Windfeld, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES
Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Lending Library.

Mc's LUNCH

A very convenient place to eat.
West side of Yonge St.
Half-way between Wellesley and Maitland.
Best value in city for the price, 35c.
550 YONGE STREET

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

Why invest in a new suit, rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

James; alternates, Margot Thompson, Joyce Muirhead and Dorothy Starr.

Queen's—Goal, Beth Patterson; defence, Helen McGregor and Ida Muirhead; centre, Gladys Simmons; right wing, Irene Gordon; left wing, Doris Snell; alternates, Mary Ewart, Beatrice Clendennan, Lorna Henderson and Peggy Laidlaw.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
571 YONGE STREET
KI. 3270

Coming Events

TUESDAY, FEB. 25
 1.30-2.00—Talk by Rev. Stanley Russell in Wymilwood. All welcome.
 4-6 p.m.—Weekly tea for U.C. women students in the Dean's room.
 5 p.m.—Mr. Lismer's S.C.M. Group at the Art Gallery.
 5.00 p.m.—Meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. at Wymilwood.
 6 p.m.—Hart House Debates Committee nominations close.
 8.00 p.m.—U.C. Women's Lit. St. Joseph's Dramatic Club, "She Stoops to Conquer", in the college auditorium, Breadalbane St.
 8.00 p.m.—Victoria College Dramatic Society at-home in Wymilwood.
WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26
 1.30—Prayers in Hart House Chapel.
 4.15 p.m.—The third meeting of the year of the Orientals Association will be held at Trinity College. I. W. R. Hadley, B.A., will speak on "The Old and New Testament Conceptions of the Messiah." Refreshments. Everybody welcome.
 4.20—U.C. Players' Guild presents "The Play's the Thing", by Gilbert Norwood.
 5.15—Mr. Denton Massey on "Can We Be Religious in Modern Business?" In the Music Room, Hart House.
 6 p.m.—Nominations for Hart House Committees close.
 8 p.m.—Hart House debate and election of 1930-1931 Debates Committee.
 8 p.m.—Final debate in Lecture Room of Hart House.
 9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.
THURSDAY, FEB. 27
 4.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Women's Press Club. Short story contributions from the members will be read and criticized. Good chance to try for the pin.
 8.30 p.m.—Trinity College annual conversation at the college.
FRIDAY, FEB. 28
 1.30-2.00—Talk by Rev. Stanley Russell in Wymilwood. All welcome.
 8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.
 9 p.m.—P.C.I. Ex-Students Association first annual At-Home.
SUNDAY, MARCH 2
 4-5 p.m.—W.U.A. musicale at Women's Union. Mr. Fred Winfield, violinist, will be the artist.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5
 Hart House Elections.
THURSDAY, MARCH 6
 Hart House elections.
 German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig", "Ein Knopf", at Women's Union.

COLLEGIANA

By G. G. B.

We don't need to say much about this one except to ask if Mr. Norris left the Savoyards because he had been found ogling the pretty actresses.

"The Orchestra", will be the subject of an address by H. Norris at the meeting of the R.V.C. Music Club on Thursday. Mr. Norris was for many years Musical Director of the D'Ogle Carte Opera Company and is now teacher of violin at the Conservatorium of Music.

McGill Daily.

CHILDREN'S PLAY
 DRAWS STUDENTS
 McGill Daily.

Bedtime stories as well, doubtless.

Here is a suggestion for a new course here.

Mr. Stefansson has taught people to build snow houses by correspondence and Thursday night with slides showed the different steps in the process.

Ohio State Lantern.

We might engage the explorer as a professor.

MDDERN WDMEN TIE
 GRANDMOTHERS
 SAY JUDGES

Ubysey.

That isn't a nice way to treat one's grandmother.

We give this effort our support for first prize for prose.

Finally, placing his arm around her, Steven exclaimed, "Patricia, I'm sorry for it all! I swear it!" Silently the early settling Utah dusk folded about the cottage. The harsh winds that grew intensely cold with the coming of night, swooped mercilessly down upon the barren slopes. But the sky was clear. The moon, a dull, chilly mass, shone faintly.

Kassan Magazine.

Isn't it beautiful?

MANY BADGERS
 TEACH AT DAKDTA
 Daily Cardinal.

That must be rather interesting.

None seemed to be in a very great hurry to get home, and here and there in the auditorium clumps of students and professors further discussed topics arising from the lecture.

Manitoba.

They evidently class students as "shrubbery".

ARE YOU MARRIED?
 READ THE OKLAHOMA
 DAILY AND FIND OUT
 Oklahoma Daily.

That's one exchange we aren't going to read any more!

BULLETIN BOARD

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

At 4.20 on Wednesday afternoon the U.C. Players' Guild will present an original farce by Gilbert Norwood of the Classics Department of University College. "The Play's the Thing" is being directed by Howard Lindsay, and the cast includes Patricia Godfrey, Isobel Dickson, Nancy Blanchard and Paul Gardner. All especially interested are invited to attend.

WDMEN "T" HLDERS

Photographs for Torontensis of the Junior and Senior Women "T" Holders of the university, will be taken at Freeland's on Wednesday, February 26, at 1.30 p.m.

JUNIOR PRACTICE

Varsity juniors will practice at the downtown arena Thursday 12-1 p.m. and Friday, 1-2 p.m.

DRIENTALS ASSOCIATION

The third regular meeting of the year will be held in Trinity College on Wednesday afternoon at 4.15. I. W. R. Hadley, B.A., will open the discussion with a paper on "The Old and New Testament Conceptions of the Messiah". All students and faculty members who may be interested are urged to attend. The discussion promises to be lively.

EUGENICS GROUP

Will those students who have been attending the Eugenics Groups, held Tuesdays at 5 o'clock, please meet on Tuesday of this week at the same hour. Important! Please come!

3T3 U.C.

Will those U.C. men who ordered 3T3 pins kindly call for them at the Literary and Athletic office to-day at 1.00 p.m.

BASEBALL

The baseball game between Junior U.C. and Junior S.P.S. will be played to-day, Tuesday, instead of Wednesday, as previously announced. Please note this change carefully.

PROFESSOR APPROVES
 FREE TRADE STAND
 (Continued from page 1)

"The first proposal for just empire free trade was impossible," he continued, "because the Dominions would not stand for it. The revised version of Lord Beaverbrook consists in the idea that a tariff wall should be put around Great Britain and non-self governing colonies with complete internal free trade, and the dominions be urged to come in, in their own time. This looks a little more practical until it is realized that it involves taxing American and Egyptian cotton for the benefit of the Sudan, and a number of other projects of the same kind."

Mr. Jackson is of the opinion that up to date, the great newspaper publicity commanded by Lord Beaverbrook is able to give the impression of a big political movement, but doubts if at the next election it will be found to have any following outside of a few die-hard rural constituencies. "The most that might be achieved by Lord Beaverbrook," said Mr. Jackson, "would be the splitting of the Conservative party by him, as Lloyd George split the Liberal party some years ago. That would leave the Labour party almost unchallenged in the English political field."

In conclusion, Mr. Jackson said that he was very glad to see "The Varsity" discussing the Free Trade question, and other questions of that nature.

"I want 'The Varsity' to become more and more like the Cornell University Daily. A real newspaper should not be confined to strict university problems."

HEADGEAR IS THOUGHT ADVISABLE FOR CO-EDS
 (Continued from page 1)

our hats because we have so far to go to the hospitals, but I don't see why it should be necessary around University College, for instance."

Miss D. Brislin, II Arts, University College, believes that "A certain formality is more suitable in any city college such as the University of Toronto, and certainly it's much more comfortable to wear a hat in cold weather."

THE INCOMPARABLE RING BOOK

SOLID
 BLACK LEATHER

FIBRE
 BACK, STEEL
 HINGES

Dominion Blank Book Co., Limited

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KL 6738

325 BLOOR ST. W.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 2)

for the cause of Morals?

I cannot see how Rum and Salvation are affinities. It is unfortunate that Religion should be dragged into a peaceful little tea-party. It inevitably comes off bedraggled and bespattered, just a little less powerful and less respected for its misapplication. Sincerely,

U.C. '31.

Opposes '30 Vic

The Editor,
 "The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

The noble letter in the issue of the 24th, by '30 Vic, calls for high commendation. Mr. Knowles should feel properly crushed; he should have no doubts whatsoever concerning the "Demon Rum"; he should, by all means, look to his soul and its salvation through the total abstinence from even a thought of alcoholic beverages.

And you, Mr. Editor, you are "conniving at nefarious schemes". Look to your sins, sir, and mend your evil ways. Make the saintly '30 Vic your prototype. Does not your heart bleed for the way in which he has suffered? His suffering is like that of our Saviour, he says so himself, and like Him, he has turned the other cheek.

I wonder if the gentleman is trying to be funny; or whether he is absolutely serious in what he writes. If he is the latter, he never could have achieved the former with greater success. If he calls Mr. Knowles an "insufferable egoist", and likens himself to the Saviour in the same paragraph; if he says that booze is not a contentious subject and forgets that in the United States, for example, after ten years' trial of prohibition, there is greater contention upon the subject than before, surely he is jesting. If not it is he who, I prefer the common idiom, should have his head read.

For all '30 Vic's knowledge of the Scriptures, I am afraid he has forgotten the first miracle that the Lord Jesus Christ performed. Was He, when He turned water into wine, "conniving at the nefarious schemes of unregenerate persons"? Was He, when He drank wine and pledged it to His disciples at the Last Supper, "inviting damnation and an eternity of fire and brimstone"? Was He, a "protagonist of wickedness, acting as the agent of His own destruction"?

On second thought I can hardly look upon '30 Vic's letter as humorous. It is too "insufferably egotistical" itself. It is too religiously hypocritical and disgustingly irreverent to be the least bit funny.

I suggest that the gentleman join Senator Borah in his attempt at dry enforcement in the United States. He might find the subject a little contentious at first, but if he were to pass laws prohibiting natural fermentation I feel sure he would overcome the contention.

As fellow agent for our own destruction, I am yours,
 Frank R. Longstaff, Jr.

3T0 MEDICINE HOLDS
 GRADUATION DINNER

On Saturday evening last, the class of 3T0 Medicine held their Graduation Dinner at the Royal York Hotel. Conviviality and dignity combined to make this function one of the best of its kind in the history of the Faculty of Medicine. Features on the evening's program were the address to the

RENT A
 VARSITY TUXEDO

For a perfect fit and comfort

Over 200
 New Suits
 To Choose
 From

Varsity
 Cleaners &
 Dyers

519
 YONGE ST.
 Kingsdale
 6280

$2.00 Rate to Students

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and
 HOODS

HARCOURT &amp; SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
 Teacher of Modern Dancing
 Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $5.00
 Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge
 (Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
 Rand. 1866

OBJECT TO STUDENTS
 AS EXPERIMENT SUBJECTS
 (Continued from page 1)

tracting the disease after becoming inoculated. The fact that they are still experimenting shows that the serum has not yet been perfected."

A Dr. Cross, who was present at the interview gave some lucid examples of the danger of vaccination and showed proofs of the uselessness of insulin, vaccines and the Wasserman test. He claimed the more inoculations there were the more patients there would be to treat and regarded the medical societies as one of the greatest menaces existing.

The society does not expect to progress very far at present in its efforts as there is too powerful a force against them, but they still defy science to refute their claims.

Graduating Class by Dr. H. B. Van Wyck, and the presentation of the Athletic Stick to Maurice J. Kelly for outstanding participation in interfaculty baseball, junior D.R.F.U., and intercollegiate rugby and for his executive work on the Medical Athletic Society.

Those receiving at tea at Newman Club yesterday afternoon were Miss Mallon and Miss Callanor.

Their Excellencies in the West Indies

Little girls, they say, are made of sugar and spice and all that's nice. It can truly be said of the little picaninny in this photograph, because she belongs to the West Indies, where spices and sugar grow. Her Excellency, Lady Willingdon, with whom she was photographed on the deck of the Canadian National Steamship Lady Somers at Jamaica, took quite a fancy to the little girl.

The group shows the Governor-General and Lady Willingdon on board the Lady Somers, with Baron Olivier, P.C., K.C.M.G., and Capt. W. T. Forrester, D.B.E.

Baron Olivier, Chairman of the West Indian Sugar Commission, which was holding sittings when Their Excellencies made their cruise of the Islands, was formerly Governor of Jamaica. On meeting Canada's Governor-General, Baron Olivier expressed the opinion that the Canada-West Indies trade agreement was likely to be of great value to the islands and added, "The ships that the Canadian National have put on are very fine indeed and their service is much appreciated all along their route."

Lord Willingdon, on his return to Canada, described the West Indies as "The sun room of the British Empire" and said "If Canadians knew more about them they would give up going to Florida and California in the winter." In the opinion of the Governor-General, whose visit brought the Dominion and the islands even closer together, Canada is making an exceedingly valuable contribution to the Empire by developing contact with the West Indies.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26th, 1930

No. 91

60% OF STUDENTS FAVOUR BEER SALE AT UNIVERSITY

VOTING FORBIDDEN AT DENTISTRY

'THE VARSITY' URGED BY DEAN SECCOMBE TO MOVE BALLOT BOX

Dean Claims That Opinion of His Students is Against the Balloting

COUNCIL HEAD AGREES

No Vote Taken on Matter Nor Meeting of Students' Parliament

By J. C. Bowes

The action of authorities in the Dental college on Huron Street prevented "The Varsity" from placing one of its ballot boxes in that building in connection with the special student vote taken yesterday.

The representative of "The Varsity" was ordered out of the building almost before half a dozen votes had been cast. After having taken his post on the stairs, he was asked to leave this place also. From the office of Dr. W. Seccombe, the Dean, a request that he confer with him was given to "The Varsity" representative. "The student body are not in favor of having a vote on this subject," Dr. Seccombe explained, urging that the box be removed.

(Continued on page 2)

HOLD SCHOOL AT-HOME TO-NIGHT AT ROYAL YORK

Schoolmen and their friends will revel this evening in their annual at-home to be held in the Concert Hall of the Royal York Hotel. Three hundred and fifty guests are expected to be present at this event, the largest formal function of the School of Practical Science.

There will be fifteen dances with three extras. Supper will be served at midnight at one sitting for all the guests in the Convention Hall of the Royal York Hotel. Dancing will begin at nine o'clock.

The Engineering Society at-home will be under the patronage of Mrs. C. H. Mitchell, Mrs. C. R. Young, Mrs. H. E. T. Haultain, Mrs. C. H. C. Wright, Mrs. R. W. Angus, Mrs. L. J. Rogers, Mrs. G. A. Guess and Mrs. H. W. Price.

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire On Wearing of Women's Hats

"Should women wear hats on the campus?"

J. Y. Fraser, Knox, II University College—

"Personally I think it depends on the girl—and her hair."

T. Scott, I Victoria College—

"For heaven's sake yes, it hides a multitude of sins."

Jean Mills, I University College—

"I absolutely approve of it. It is proper."

J. Dove, V Dentistry—

"If they can't keep their hair down better than they do, I think they should."

A. N. McMillan, Knox, II University College—

"Rather dangerous for girls who wear wigs, if they don't."

G. Millar, I Victoria College—

"I believe in tradition—especially in keeping with the weather."

G. Irving, IV Medicine—

"Sure, except in a sport coupe in front of the library."

Helene Clemens, II University College—

"Yes, I think it looks nice."

Dr. W. Seccombe

Dean of the Faculty of Dentistry, who yesterday suggested to his students that they do not vote on the beer question.

BOOKS AT LIBRARY ARE RE-SHELFMARKED

Being Done to Simplify Matters for Assistants, Says W. S. Wallace

ALSO ARE RE-CLASSIFIED

The library books are undergoing a process of being re-shelfmarked in order to simplify matters for the assistant librarians, W. S. Wallace, chief librarian, told "The Varsity" yesterday. It is not a new system, but simply the adding of numbers to indicate the exact place on the shelf which the book belongs. Up to this time a book of biography written by a man whose name begins with the letter "U", might be marked "Bb". It is possible that several men with the same name might write a biography the shelf marking become confusing.

There is also a certain amount of re-classification being done as "no system of classification is rigid or permanent", Mr. Wallace explained, since new discoveries are constantly being made. For example, psychology was formerly a branch of philosophy and now it is considered a major subject.

(Continued on page 4)

WESTERN PROVINCES SUBJECT OF DEBATE HELD AT HART HOUSE

Elections for 1930-31 Debates Committee Take Place To-night

WILL USE REVISED SYSTEM

Honourable Visitor of Evening Will be E. J. Garland, M.P. for Bow River

To-night in Hart House will be held the fourth and final Hart House debate of the year on the subject, "Resolved that in the opinion of this house the political and economic experiments of the western provinces are not in the best interests of Canada."

At the debate will be held the elections for the debates committee of 1930-31, using the revised system of voting. This year members will be required not merely to present their membership cards, but must also be on hand before the beginning of the third speech on the paper and must remain until 9.30 after which they may vote.

The honourable visitor of the evening, E. J. Garland, M.P. for Bow River, Alberta, is expected to deal

(Continued on page 4)

Trinity Candidates For Moss Scholarship

Two women and four men are in the running at Trinity for that college's Moss Scholarship nomination. The candidates are: Miss Mary Dickinson, Miss Mary Winespear, H. D. Baker, J. C. Clough, H. R. S. Ryan and J. Allan Walters. The voting will take place to-day from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., and from 1.30 to 2.30 in the Porter's Lodge.

CARILLONEUR SCARCE SAYS DR. F. A. MOURE

Thinks Recitals During Winter Months Are Rather Superfluous

NO AUDIENCE FOR THEM

"Even if Mr. Skillicom were here, he wouldn't play the carillon, for the terms of his appointment were from April to November—during the fine weather," stated Dr. F. A. Moure, Bursar of the university, when interviewed by "The Varsity" regarding the letter from 370 U.C. in yesterday's issue, asking why recitals on the carillon were not being given now.

Dr. Moure thought that recitals during the winter months were superfluous, because there would be no audience.

"Since Mr. Skillicom resigned, the position has remained vacant," he continued, "for it is a difficult one to fill. It's easy enough to get anyone to play the piano, violin, or even the organ, but carilloneurs don't grow on every bush."

POWER IS SUPPLIED BY SEPARATE PLANT FOR THE UNIVERSITY

Steam From University Heating Plant Generates Power for 28 Buildings

900 KILOWATTS NECESSARY

Weather Reports Are Brought Daily to Engineer for Temperatures

Anyone who is interested in efficiency and economy, will find the university power plant an interesting study. Back of the anatomy building, housed in a structure three quarters under ground, is an electrical generating plant capable of supplying the power needs of a good sized town, and even now the plant is taxed to capacity to supply the electricity to some 28 buildings in the university.

Some 900 kilowatts of electricity are generated by steam turbines operated in conjunction with the university.

(Continued on page 4)

BROACH BROADCAST FOR SUNDAY CONCERT

No Likelihood of the Program Being Thrown Over the Microphone

SAYS THE WARDEN

"I think it is a fine idea to have a university broadcasting station," said R. L. Algie, III, Victoria, of the Music Committee of Hart House when interviewed by "The Varsity" regarding the likelihood of broadcasting the Sunday evening concerts in Hart House. He thought there was no immediate necessity. "Perhaps the broadcasting of a Sunday evening concert would help to keep up our reputation as a cultured university. People might lose to a certain degree the impression that we are wasting our time here."

(Continued on page 4)

RESULTS OF VOTING GIVEN BY POLLS

Total is 2539 With 1365 Yes, 882 No, and 292 Spoiled

Results of the voting are as follows:
TOTAL 2539
YES 1365
NO 882
SPOILED 292
MAJORITY 483

POLL I, Victoria—Yes, 107; No, 208; Spoiled, 5; Majority No, 101.

POLL II, Trinity—Yes, 82; No, 34; Spoiled, 41; Majority yes, 48.

POLL III, St. Mike's—Yes, 51; No, 9; Spoiled, 0; Majority yes, 42.

POLL IV, Hart House—Yes, 113; No, 68; Spoiled, 17; Majority yes, 45.

POLL V, Hart House—Yes, 194; No, 110; Spoiled, 43; Majority yes, 84.

POLL VI, Medical Building—Yes, 131; No, 73; Spoiled, 3; Majority yes, 58.

(Continued on page 4)

Three Out of Five Students Register "Yes" in Straw Vote

Large Poll of 2539 Gives Beer a Majority of 483 With Voting Brisk Despite the Dull Weather and Rain

VICTORIA AND UNIVERSITY COLLEGES GO DRY

Other Balloting Stations Show Desire for Student Beer With S.P.S. Emphatically in Favour of the Voting Issue

By a majority of 483, students at the University of Toronto yesterday registered their preference for sale of beer within the university grounds. The vote in favour of beer was 1365, and against beer 882. 292 ballots were spoiled. 2539 votes were cast out of a registration of 5486. The large number of spoiled ballots was accounted for by indistinct marking, votes on unauthorized paper, and ballots rolled together, according to the returning officers.

Out of ten ballot boxes, three voted "dry", and seven "wet". Those showing dry majorities were at Victoria College and University College. The former college polled heavily against beer, with a dry majority of 101. The results were closer at University College, where there were two polls. One showed a majority of 17, the other of 14, against beer.

St. Michael's College voted affirmatively decisively, only nine dissenting votes being polled. S.P.S. also registered an emphatic opinion, with 437 for, and 104 against. 165 ballots were spoiled.

Voting was brisk at every poll, and in almost every faculty, a considerable number of students voted. 922 votes were recorded at the four arts colleges out of a total registration of 3535. Medicine, with a registration of 762, cast 207 votes. At S.P.S. 531 valid votes were polled out of 697 students. In addition to these polls, there were the three boxes at Hart House, where 714 votes were cast, distributed amongst the various faculties.

The ballot boxes were distributed at 11.30, with members of "The Varsity" staff supervising the voting. Despite the dull weather and rain, many votes were polled. One box was placed in the Dentistry Building, but was removed to Hart House after objections had been raised. Sixteen men were required to count the ballots, and the figures were carefully checked.

A Brass Bound Bar For Trinity But Victoria Swills No Beer

By C.L.C.

Are we in favour of the sale of beer within the university grounds? We are, we are . . . . . Even though I did vote NO.

Somebody had to.

Apparently about two-thirds of the people at Victoria felt the same way about it.

First prize, though, goes to the person at Vic who marked a ballot—YES If they sell it at Vic. NO If they sell it at Trinity.

The Engineers seem confident of their ability to deal with forty beers if they can get them.

It is rumoured that one of the most prominent of them, who incautiously allowed his disapproval of the sale of beer to become public knowledge was very efficiently tapped. Wonder if he was the one that didn't vote?

One optimistic yes-man at Trinity was seen in the hall with a tape-line measuring out space for a brass rail.

A w.k. member of the U.C. Classics department was invited to vote and replied, "Why sell it in the university grounds? They ought to have it in the colleges."

The women who "manned" the ballot boxes at the Engineering and Medical buildings were very cordially received. In fact the men at S.P.S. sent a deputation consisting of the feminine members of the faculty to ascertain names and addresses.

I observed a large number of Dents near the ballot-boxes in Hart House.

Probably watching each other to see that none of them voted.

*The answer is in the University Directory.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... Lou GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkowsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager
A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: O. Abramowitz

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26th, 1930

THE STRAW VOTE

Yesterday was the first time that the students at the university were given the privilege of voting on a question of a contentious nature. The voting, of course, as in all straw votes, is not absolutely accurate, but gives, without a doubt, an indication of the way the wind is blowing. That we can say this in seriousness is due to the fact that the students did not consider the whole affair as a joke. The balloting was serious and there was almost no horseplay in any form in connection with the voting. To make the results as accurate as possible any ballots that the returning officers suspected were spoiled were thrown out. Some students did imagine that by rolling up two or three votes in one bundle and pushing them into the box they were fooling the ballot counters, but they were much mistaken. As a result over two hundred ballots were thrown out as spoiled.

The vote of each faculty can be considered pretty much as an indication of the feeling of the college although the two to one "no sale" vote at Victoria was rather a surprise to many. The vote at University College was mostly a women's vote as the men for the most part voted at Hart House. The votes of the other colleges were very much as expected.

That the "No" vote was so strong is a certain indication that there was a decided feeling at the university that a true opinion should be registered.

"The Varsity" is taking this opportunity of thanking those who assisted in the voting as well as those who registered their desires on the question. From the staff of women who handled the boxes at University College, the Medical Building and at the School of Practical Science, comes sincere thanks to the students for their courtesy to them during the three hours of voting.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Explanation re Dental Voting

The Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Mr. Editor:

At a meeting of the students this morning it was decided that no part would be taken by the undergraduates in this Faculty in the "straw vote" proposed by "Varsity", as it was considered undesirable.

Yours very truly,

R. J. Fleming,

President.

Concerning "30 Vic"

Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

This "Vic '30" matter has, from being a negligible and rather inappropriate farce, become absolutely disagreeable. May I suggest, Sir, for the sake of fair play, that a vigorous style, feminine incoherence, registration in '30 Vic, and a non-violent, though genuine, disapproval of contemporary social customs do not constitute conclusive evidence for settling the identity of the writer of the notorious letters. Since I have been drawn into this matter in a rather personal way, against my will and without any valid reason whatsoever, I may be excused for stating that it is my invariable practice to sign all my letters with my own name.

To relieve my class-mates (for whose rights "Vic '30" seems to have had no "inconvenient scruples") of any possible concern for my individual loyalty, I may express my opinion that no one with a decent regard for the feelings and rights of other people would have involved the class and college in such an unpleasant affair.

This is a convenient occasion also to point out to certain broad-minded broadcasting ignoramus that, generally speaking, it is the part of discretion not to tamper with the reputations of other people without exact and immediate knowledge.

That serious social and political questions should have been mixed up with such uncouth horseplay is a matter of profound disgust to a good many of us; that religion and morality should have been subjected, in the columns of "The Varsity", to a ridicule amounting, on some occasions, to blasphemy (a mark of poor taste and scant courtesy, to say the very least) is a matter, Mr. Editor, for your own careful consideration.

It is impossible to refrain from remarking, finally, in the words of the famous Victorian(?), that I earnestly hope you will cease "conniving at nefarious schemes", even for the all-conquering purpose of filling space.

Yours, etc.,

Muriel David.

Editorial Note — Not even Miss Muriel David can accuse us of "conniving at nefarious schemes" to fill up space. Filling up space has never been a problem with us. In fact conducting straw votes is many times more difficult than sending people to meetings and getting them to enlarge on what speakers say. To accuse us of working only for the sake of filling space is unfair. An apology is due from Miss David. Incidentally we

Art and Drama

His Majesty's Maidens

A "romantic comedy" which hints of high intrigue and young loves, entitled "His Majesty's Maidens", was the play chosen by Hart House Theatre as its annual Canadian production. A young English officer, circa 1755, falls in love with a beautiful young French girl named Marguerite, poor but honest, ostensibly niece of the proprietress of a wine shop. But Marguerite has the misfortune to be ogled by the King as he fraternizes with his people on the green. Madame de Pompadour sees to it in the interests of state that Marguerite is spirited away to Quebec with a boat load of damsels destined to be officers' wives by a paternal and benevolent monarch.

The officer has an unpleasantly melancholy time without his Marguerite for six years, at the end of which time he falls for Lady Diana, who forsakes Sir Harry Beagle, her fiancé, for him. The officer then goes over to Quebec with Wolfe, meets Marguerite in the Hotel Dieu, is satisfactorily reunited, after finding that Diana, after all, prefers Harry Beagle.

This, then, is the plot, which, for its development, has been favoured with an unusually large number of characters whose importance in the early play is not realized at a later stage. An impressive chief of police, played by Edward Jolliffe, is created, only to disappear at the end of the first scene.

A suave dandy and informer bids fair at the outset to lead the action (Andrew Allan), yet this character, too, proves futile. And so on. In fact, it seems to be a play of fatalities. The entire second act could well be dropped without appreciably harming the unity of the plot; so could the first scene, provided some careful additions were made to the second.

Yet Mr. Raymond Card's play has its moments. The hero, Ronald Surrey, is provided a convincing portrayal by W. G. Bowles. One of the most touching scenes comes in the second act where he tells his Marguerite the story of Cinderella. The last scene, too, in the hospital, when Surrey all but succumbs once more to the attraction of Marguerite, but is held back in tantalizing suspense by a letter, which, unbeknownst, tells that Diana is no longer true to him, provides a few moments of drama in real truth.

The cast was good; Marguerite (Elaine Watson) and Wickett, the landlord (Ward Price) were outstanding. But the play itself needs looping. The second act is all but an imposition upon the cash customers. Even at the best half of the talk of this act needs eliminating. The plot in the first act points in a certain direction with every indication action can give; nevertheless, the audience is stung. The play fools around in England for an interminable theatrical period when the mind of the audience is in Quebec.

Yet it is an original play; Canadian; and few will regret having seen it.

N.J.D.

"THE VARSITY" URGED TO MOVE BALLOT BOX

(Continued from page 1)

A lecture of fourth and fifth year Dental students was addressed by the Dean yesterday morning, according to information from those present.

"It appears," Dean Secombe is quoted as saying, "that the foolish vote concerning liquid refreshments being taken by 'The Varsity' is not a nice thing for Dental students to be concerned in nor to be reported abroad as having taken part in."

No other question was put to the students, according to the information. No vote was taken. Several non-committal "Sures" being the only response to the Dean, and the lecture was begun.

"All I have to say is that the meeting was representative of student opinion," was the only statement R. J. Fleming, president of the Dental Students' Parliament would make.

"Was there any vote taken on the question," he was asked.

"I would not care to discuss that matter," Mr. Fleming replied.

"Who, in particular, opposed so strongly the voting that such a step should be taken?" "The Varsity" persisted.

"I have no statement to make on any of these matters," was Mr. Fleming's reply. There was no meeting of the Dental Students' Parliament.

Many Dental students voted elsewhere. Prior to the removal of the box, of the nine students passing, six voted.

"The Varsity" secured an interview with Dean Secombe, head of the Faculty of Dentistry, yesterday morning, in which he explained the action of the faculty in refusing to allow a ballot box to be placed in the building. He informed "The Varsity" that there had been a meeting of the students during the morning, and that it was decided not to permit voting in the Dental Building.

"Do you disapprove of having the Dental students vote?" he was asked.

"The students do not wish to vote," replied Dr. Secombe.

"What is your opinion?" pressed "The Varsity".

"I concur with the students," said the Dean.

Long skirts are compulsory this year on the University of Idaho campus. On leaving school for the Christmas holidays the co-eds were given orders by the dean of women to cover their knees before returning to school.

have asked for a larger paper for the University of Toronto, not a smaller one.

But the vote has no bearing on the issue.

C-C

Oh bring the beer to Varsity
To give us life anew
Then Temperance, Vile Atrocity
We'll bid you sweet adieu.

C-C

How can the balmy breath of Spring
Compare with that of Beer?
Wild birdsies rising on the wing
Shall tell us both are here.

C-C

Beneath the elm where private ear
Once heard that Might was Write
A plate of pretzels, stein of beer
Shall keep our Omar tight.

C-C

Did every Schoolman vote forty times?

C-C

I'll deck my waist with corsets staunch
For corpulence I fear
For every student's plastic paunch
Will bloat with beastly beer.

C-C

So raise thy mug with manly mien
Let arid tonsils cheer
Forsake thy mundane soup tureen
Fill up on Hot House beer!

Gaspard & Co.

LET'S GET MARRIED

all you need is the bridegroom... here's the chief part of the trousseau. The bridal set must be such an exquisite thing, designed with a daintiness and charm above all other garments. The new Bridal set of four pieces, designed and sold by Virginia Dare, consists of step-ins, brassiere, frock-slip and gown. Each garment is of heavy crepe, trimmed with an exquisite lace of net appliqued with roses. The "something blue" of bridal tradition is there in the tiny blue bow that holds the orange blossom motif. Little groups of three pleats add to the grace of line... Imagine the low price... $13.98. (You may have these sets made up in any colour you wish.)

True in Every Wednesday, 7 p.m., CFCA
Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET At Richmond AD. 8898 768 YONGE STREET Next door to Uptown Theatre K.T. 3660 2408 YONGE STREET Next door to Capital Theatre K.U. 4780 OPEN EVENINGS

HART HOUSE THEATRE

By permission of the Syndics

Week commencing

TUESDAY, MARCH 11th

Maureen O'Mara presents

The Way of the World

An original review in 3 acts

and 18 scenes with the

Varsity Entertainers,

Dancing Co-eds and a

Distinguished Cast

Tickets—$1.50 and $1.00

Popular priced matinee

Saturday

Mail orders now to Hart House

Theatre Box Office

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and

HOODS

STARRING

RUTH

CHATTERTON

WITH CLIVE BROOK

JACK ARTHUR'S

Stage Show

UPTOWN

BLUES VS. FLEAS IN FIRST GROUP PLAY-OFF TOMORROW NIGHT

SPEAKING OF SPORT

The playoff games between Varsity and Nationals for the O.H.A. senior A series championship scheduled for Thursday and Saturday of this week should be two of the best contests of the season. Total goals in the two games will decide the title and on past performances the odd goal may turn the trick. In the first meeting of these two teams Varsity won 2-1; the second went thirty minutes overtime, 2-2; the third went to Nationals 2-1, and the Sea Fleas also took the fourth, 3-2. Thus Nationals have scored 8 goals to Varsity's seven.

Montreal sport writers, basing their conclusions on McGill's victory in intercollegiate hockey, do not think very highly of the O.H.A. winner's chances against the Quebec and Maritime champions, provided of course, that the O.H.A. winner knocks off the Ottawa and District winner. McGill finished fifth in the six-team Quebec Hockey Association series, winning but three games and losing seven. The Montreal Amateur Athletic Association sextet finished the regular schedule with nine wins and one tie, and are favoured to win the group playoff. As Varsity has done well in the O.H.A., the easterners don't think much of this year's entries, including Nationals. But Varsity played by far and away their worst game of the year against McGill in Montreal and their display against the Redmen here was also much below their true form. Any eastern team which defeats the Ontario winners will have to be a real high-class aggregation.

The question of the place of fencing in the Intercollegiate Assault is causing considerable discussion. For the second successive year the fencing has decided the winner.

A matter that the Athletic Directorate might well consider is the granting of physical training credits for beginners' boxing, wrestling and fencing classes. There is no reason why these classes should not be given the same rating for "p.t." as the others are. Fencing in particular would be given great help by this procedure and boxing and wrestling as well.

After the Party it's MURRAY'S

for... that's where you'll find the rest of the Varsity crowd, wading into Murray's delicious food, smoking the odd fag and sipping a cup of steaming hot Java --and Boy! what coffee --you only pay for the first cup--after that it's "on the House."

MURRAY'S

770 Yonge St.
Next Uptown
62 Front St. W.
Next Royal York
Metropolitan Bldg.
Basement
12 Queen St. East

LOST

Green Parker fountain pen in University Library or campus. Reward. Apply N. Penington, Tr. 6642.

LOST

A green Parker pen between Vic Library and the Biological Building on Tuesday, February 25, between 12 and 12.20 a.m. Finder please phone G. Maxwell, Kingsdale 1753. Reward.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
671 YONGE STREET K1. 5270

CO-ED SENIOR TEAM BEAT INTERMEDIATES VARSITY NATATORS LEAVE FOR MONTREAL

Winners Display More Polish on Forward Line in Cage Struggle

SPECTACULAR SHOOTING

Keeping their string of victories for the year intact, Varsity women's senior cage team defeated the intermediates 29-23. The winners displayed a little more polish on the forward line, and with their more accurate shooting accounted chiefly for the difference in score.

The two teams started off scoring basket for basket, in the first half, until just at the end the seniors went ahead and at the interval were on the long end of an 18-9 score.

During the second half, the intermediates pulled up and forced the seniors to the limit to keep their lead. Some of the shooting was spectacular, with shots dropping in from all over the floor.

For the winners Honor Tett, defence, Wilma Hazlitt, forward, were outstanding while the intermediates all played well, with no particular stars.

Seniors—Wilma Hazlitt 8, Sally Ballard 8, forwards; Eleanor Sedgewick 13, side centre; Fran Dale, centre; Norma Bateman, Honor Tett, guards, Edythe Peake, sub.

Intermediates—Vic Quinlan 6, Muriel Atkin 4, forwards; Willie Ann Luckett 13, side centre; Loretto McGarry, centre; Isabel Wright, Gwen Murrell-Wright, guards; Jean Hall, Bessie Lowry, subs.

SENIOR S.P.S. BEATEN IN HOCKEY SERIES

Dents Make Sure of Position in Interfaculty Play-offs

SCORE OF GAME IS 4-0

Senior Dents settled all arguments in their group, and made sure of their place in the interfaculty hockey play-offs by defeating Senior S.P.S. four to nothing at the Varsity Arena yesterday. The Dentists held the whip-hand throughout, and flashed speed and combination which the Engineers could not match.

The first period produced the best hockey of the game, and was featured by the stellar goal-keeping of Moeser. Dents notched their first counter on a combination effort, Mahaffey to Waldon, and added two more in the second canto, on a long shot by Heron and a three man rush, with Mahaffey again on the scoring end.

"Rusty" Moore had several nice chances in this stanza, only to be out-guessed at the goal-mouth by Moeser. Heron scored the final goal in the last period on a pass from "Tiny" Waldon. The latter was the most dangerous man on the ice, his speedy rushes and well-timed passes resulting in two nice tallies.

Senior Dents—Goal, Johnston; defence, Waldon, Henry; centre, Mahaffey; wings, Moore, Heron; subs, Fleming, Smythe.

Senior S.P.S.—Goal, Moeser; defence, Hancock, Algic; centre, Davidson; wings, Grosvenor, Crerar; subs, Reid, Watson.

U.C. JUNIORS WIN GROUP IN BASEBALL SERIES

In a very close game, U.C. juniors won their group by defeating S.P.S. juniors yesterday in the interfaculty baseball series. After the fifth inning the score was a tie, 6-6, making another inning necessary. In the sixth U.C. piled up four runs to Schoof's two, thus winning the game and the group.

U.C. Jrs—Tomlinson, Grant, Doherty, Gibson, Broughton, Smith, Craig, Montgomery, Settle.
S.P.S. Jrs—Chalmers, Carbone, Carmichael, Shapiro, A. Howe, Newman, J. Howe, R. Adams, Geo. Wilson.

Will Compete in Intercollegiate Swimming Meet on Friday

THREE FROM LAST YEAR

On Thursday evening the swimming team will leave for Montreal, where the Intercollegiate Swimming Meet takes place on Friday.

This year's team should go far in search of the title. Only three of last year's team are back. They are Pierdon, Sinclair and Marsh. But the vacant places have been filled by very capable men who will give a good account of themselves. The team has not been weakened by their presence. The choice of the team was made after hectic interfaculty contests. The star of these meets was Henderson. This man came from nowhere to snatch first place.

Glass, Tedman, Towers, Withrow and Pierdon give Varsity a strong and fast swimming outfit to fit in with last year's team.

In the 50 yards Henderson should take care of this event, while in the 200 yards and 200 yard breast, Sinclair, Marsh and Glass should swim home in front.

The diving will be in the capable hands of Nevitt and Henderson.

The team is as follows—Henderson, Tedman, Sinclair, Marsh, Glass, Nevitt, Pierdon, Withrow, Towers, Smith, McFie.

FORESTRY DEFEATS EMMANUEL COLLEGE

Fast Game Featured in Basketball Series With Outcome Always in Doubt

FINAL COUNT IS 18-16

Forestry defeated Emmanuel yesterday in the interfaculty basketball series 18 to 16. The game was fast from the start, and both teams worked hard to come out on top. Emmanuel especially was consistent, with a good working attack while Forestry's combination worked like a well-oiled machine. The victory for Forestry was well earned.

The outcome was always in doubt, and the final score is indicative of the play throughout. Start for Forestry was the best player on the floor, with Snell for Emmanuel a close second. Forestry—Defence, Raeburn, Leslie; forwards, Start, Simpson; centre, Granger; subs, Wylie, Townson.

Emmanuel—Defence, Shepley, Ash-ton; forwards, King, Beacom; centre, Snell; subs, Harris, Knowles.

Varsity-Nationals Tickets

Tickets for the Varsity-Nationals game at the Arena Gardens on Thursday, February 27th are now on sale at the Athletic Office, Hart House.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

269 College St. TRINITY 5987
Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries
Name your day
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Lending Library.

STUDENT RATE 8 Lessons $5.00

This rate is offered to students only. Applicants must present registration card.

Jack Slater's orchestra at Thursday advanced classes. Dancing till midnight. Beginners' class Tuesday 8.30. Private lessons by appointment.

DACOSTA

Studio of Dancing
Columbus Hall RA. 8650

LOTS OF TROUBLE

No. 10, The Maze—485 yards, Par 5.

They've got to be straight to negotiate the tenth hole of the Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course, Jasper National Park, Alberta, over which the Canadian and Western Canada Amateur Championships will be played Aug. 19-24, this summer. Immediately in front of the tee is a water-hole and then it's a case of from bunker to bunker. The hole from No. 1 (championship) tee is seen at the top and below is the hole in detail with yardages to scale underneath the panel.

MINNESOTA HAS COURSE IN SEXUAL EDUCATION

Special to "The Varsity" Minneapolis, Minn.—Sex education for groups of parents has been made possible for the first time at Minnesota through a special course now being offered by the extension division, Dr. Chole Owings, director of the social hygiene bureau, has announced.

"Interest in methods of presenting sex knowledge to children has been shown by an occasional lecture, or brief period of publicity, but this is the first time at Minnesota, and probably at any university, that a comprehensive course has been presented through regular university channels," the bureau director declared.

PROFESSOR'S FARCE IS GUILD PRESENTATION

This afternoon the Players' Guild will offer a play of unusual interest; its author, Gilbert Norwood, is director of Classical Studies in University College. The play however, is not a Grecian tragedy, but a very modern farce. Its title, "The Play's the Thing", has also been used by Terence Molnar, but Mr. Norwood's play was written some years before that of Herr Molnar; it was produced in England in two different seasons by the Dramatic Society of Cardiff College. The Guild production will be open to visitors.

SPECIAL

ALL STUDENT TOUR

to

EUROPE

arranged and directed by

The National Federation of Canadian University Students

Summer 1930

APPLICATION FORM

Please enrol me as a member of the above Tour.

Name (State whether Mr., Mrs. or Miss)

Address (a) University

(b) Home

Name of University

Year and Faculty

Point from which I shall start

I am enclosing (cheque money order for Ten Dollars ($10.00) as a deposit on account of passage. This is returnable in event of necessary cancellation prior to 1 May, 1930. Balance of $414.25 due 15 May, 1930.

Signature

Date

Application must be forwarded not later than 30 April, to A. Gordon Burns, B.A., Travel Secretary, Hart House, University of Toronto.

Coming Events

Nominations Made For Debates Committee

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26
1.30—Prayers in Hart House Chapel.
4.15 p.m.—The third meeting of the year of the Orientals Association will be held at Trinity College. I. W. R. Hadley, B.A., will speak on "The Old and New Testament Conceptions of the Messiah." Refreshments. Everybody welcome.
4.20—U.C. Players' Guild presents "The Play's the Thing", by Gilbert Norwood.
5.15—Mr. Denton Massey on "Can We Be Religious in Modern Business?" In the Music Room, Hart House.
6 p.m.—Nominations for Hart House Committees close.
8 p.m.—Hart House debate and election of 1930-1931 Debates Committee.
8 p.m.—Final debate in Lecture Room of Hart House.
9 p.m.—Annual School At-Home, at the Royal York Hotel. Romanelli's orchestra. Subscription limited.

IMMORTALITY DEEMED A MORAL NECESSITY

Universal Intuition of Human Mind is Survival After Death

"Immortality is not a fortuitous speculation, it is a moral necessity," stated Rev. Stanley Russell in his third noon hour talk at Wymilwood.

"The first reason for the belief in the survival after death is the universal intuition of the human mind and heart. Then there is the scientific fact that it is impossible to destroy anything in the world, one only changes the form. If the physical survives it is impossible to believe that the spiritual can be snuffed out. The world is orderly and to believe in justice and a rational world we must believe in an after life.

"Ideas of Heaven and Hell have changed greatly in the last few years. The conception of a physical torture and a physical reward has given way to that of a gulf of moral condition separating the two states. Those in Hell are in an element with which they have no familiarity and are spiritually unhappy. Those in Heaven merely experience a release from the body and are in a state in which they are perfectly and happily at home."

Dr. Pearl Summerseldt of the Sick Children's Hospital, was a dinner guest at the Women's Union last night. After dinner Dr. Summerseldt gave an interesting talk on the popular Sun Wheat Biscuits.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7
General elections for all societies at Victoria College.
Victoria College senior reception.

BULLETIN BOARD

VICTORIA COLLEGE
Nominations for president and associate president of the new Victoria College Union are posted in College Hall. Voting on Friday.

3T1 VICTORIA
All members of the year are requested to attend a class meeting tomorrow, Thursday, at 1.30 o'clock in Room 18. Very important business is on the agenda. Everybody make an effort to be out.

THURSDAY TEA
The Thursday Tea Club of U. C. will hold its next tea on March 6th, from 4 to 6 o'clock in the Croft Chapter House. It is to be in charge of the departments of mathematics, physics, philosophy and psychology. Mrs. J. C. McLennan and Mrs. Brett will receive, and Mrs. M. A. MacKenzie and Mrs. Bott will pour tea. All university students are invited to attend, and graduate students in these departments in charge of the tea.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB
Members of the Women's Press Club are again reminded that the next meeting will be a good one for handing in story contributions for a pin.

B.W.F. BEGINNERS' CLASSES
Beginners' classes in boxing, fencing and wrestling Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 5 o'clock. Enrol in Mr. Barton's office.

BOOKS AT LIBRARY ARE RE-CLASSIFIED

(Continued from page 1)
ject. It also costs more to catalogue a book and keep it in circulation than to buy it.

At present there is a staff of five working on this shelf marking and classification, but it is expected that the work will not be completed in less than three years time. There are nearly a third of a million books to do.

RESULTS OF VOTING

(Continued from page 1)
POLL VII, S.P.S.—Yes, 427; No, 104; Spoiled, 165; Majority yes, 323.
POLL VIII, Hart House—Yes, 84; No, 69; Spoiled, 16; Majority yes, 15.
POLL IX, U.C.—Yes, 85; No, 102; Spoiled, 2; Majority no, 17.
POLL X, U.C.—Yes, 91; No, 105; Spoiled, 0; Majority no, 14.
Certified by—Lou Golden, P. E. Usher, J. C. Bowes, A. E. F. Allan, G. K. Masters.

WESTERN PROVINCES SUBJECT OF DEBATE

(Continued from page 1)
with this question of western problems in a capable manner. Mr. Garland is an old country man by birth, a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, and an experienced westerner of late years. He has spent an apprenticeship of eighteen years on the farm in the west; he was a prime mover in the United Farmer and the Wheat Pool movements and has been a prominent figure in the Dominion parliament since 1922.

Jr. S. Gibson of Victoria College and J. T. Wilson of Trinity will support the motion and Vincent Webb and Lou Golden will oppose. It is presumed that Mr. Garland will also support the west by opposing the motion.

The guests of honour at Miss Kilpatrick's reception at the Women's Union yesterday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cassidy.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS
Meeting for all Toronto Student Volunteers at McMaster University, Saturday, March 1st at 5 o'clock. Social hour, supper, short addresses by Bruce Collier, L. Taylor, May Walker and Dr. Elliot.

VIC NOMINATIONS
Nominations for presidents of women's societies of Victoria College must be in at 6 o'clock to-day.

VIC WOMEN'S ELECTIONS
3T1 Victoria women on Thursday in College Hall. Every woman is expected to submit five names for the senior stick and five names for the athletic stick in order of preference. The stick holders will be determined by elimination at a mass meeting of 3T1 women on Friday at 4 p.m.

INDIA GROUPS
Miss Kilpatrick's India Groups are cancelled this week. The last meeting will take the form of a dinner and lantern lecture on Wednesday, March 5, at the Women's Union.

INTERCOLLEGIATE HOCKEY
Intercollegiate hockey practice to-day at 1 p.m.

ATTENTION U.C. MEN!
Musical tickets for Sunday Evening Concert will be given out Thursday morning at 8.45 a.m. in Junior Common Room.

POWER IS SUPPLIED BY SEPARATE PLANT

(Continued from page 1)
sity central heating plant, hence all of this power is practically a by-product of the heating plant. At certain times, however, in mild weather, the steam necessary for developing the power needed is greater than that required for heating, with the result that energy is wasted and the electricity no longer remains a by-product of the heating plant. To take care of this, two motor generator sets are being installed, which will transform alternating current purchased from the Hydro at a price cheaper than it can be generated here except during the winter, into direct current which is required for all university needs.

Except on a much larger scale, this great heating plant is operated just as one would handle his own furnace, only far more scientifically. A complete log sheet is kept, giving every detail of the daily operation of the plant such as coal and water used and other records of importance, and statistics are kept showing the operation of the plant in comparison with other years.

Weather reports are brought daily to the engineer to aid in regulating the heat supply for all variations of temperature. C. S. Mosely, who has been chief engineer in the plant since it opened in about 1912, explained that his responsibility went no further than supplying the heat to the various buildings and that any overheating was the fault of the various caretakers in not properly regulating the heat supplied to them.

Of the coal used—about 2,000 tons a month—68 per cent of the energy is converted into usable energy—either heat or electricity. During the warm weather the plant shuts down which necessitates the stopping of the dynamo.

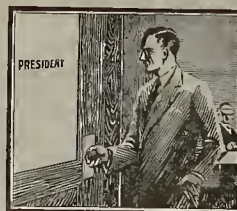

Whether or not students of Northwestern University are to enjoy Sunday movies at Evanston will be decided in a referendum in April.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF "VARSITY"

Applications for the above position will be received by the Assistant Secretary of the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils, up until 6.00 p.m., Friday, February 28th, 1930, in Room 82, University College.

MISS A. E. M. PARKES, B.A.

Assistant Secretary,
Students' Administrative Council.

In the Days to Come

WHAT part will you take in business life five, ten, fifteen years from now? Will you be the head of a business, or will you be content to drift along with the tide?

The man with vision—the man who realizes the possibilities of the future and determines to profit by them—will lay the foundation of his future capital out of his present earnings.

MAKE YOUR BANK BOOK
MARK YOUR PROGRESS

The Royal Bank of Canada

5903

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

K1. 6735

328 BLOOR ST. W.

C. O. T. C.

ORDERS

by
Lieut.-Col. T. R. Loudon, Commanding
University of Toronto C.O.T.C.
184 College Street
20th February, 1930

BATTALION PARADE.

The contingent will parade to the University Avenue Armouries on Wednesday, 5th March, 1930.

The battalion will draw arms at 7.00 p.m. and fall in on the ground north of the Mining Building ready to move off at 7.15 p.m. The battalion will fall in in the formation best suited to the condition of the ground.

The band will attend.
Dress—Greatcoats will be worn. Officers will not wear swords.

The time at the Armouries will be devoted to company and platoon drill.
(Signed) W. S. Wilson,
Capt. & Adjt.

THE ARTILLERY SQUAD

will meet at Corps Headquarters, 184 College Street for lectures on Wednesday, 26th February at 5 p.m. (by Gen. Cartwright) and on Friday, 28th February at 5 p.m. (by S. M. Clark).

U.C. WOMEN DISCUSS AMERICAN ESSAYISTS

(Continued from page 1)
ences his reader most by his own personality."

Discussion followed the reading of the paper, during which refreshments were served. Miss Agatha Chapman, the president, announced that at the next meeting of the club, nomination of officers for the coming year would take place. Miss Aileen Turner will present a paper on Eugene O'Neill.

BROADCAST BROACHED FOR SUNDAY CONCERT

(Continued from page 1)
The Warden said: "There is no likelihood whatever of the Sunday Evening Concerts being broadcasted. Not because the programs are unsuitable, but the artists would never consent to have their talent broadcasted."

Dr. MacMillan of the Toronto Conservatory thought the matter of broadcasting was highly improbable. The music committee has never dealt with this matter. It is up to them, of course.

"It is time we should stop being led by the nose by American universities," said Dr. MacMillan, when approached regarding the success of American universities broadcasting. "Let them do it if they want to, we don't have to follow them."

RENT A
TUXEDO
$2.00
STUDENTS
PRICE ONLY
NEW SUITS
LATEST STYLE
TELEPHONE
TRINITY 8218

Mallabar
COSTUMER
450-452 SPADINA AVE
at College St.

DANCING LESSONS
REDUCED RATES
Strictly Private - 6 for $5.00
Semi Private - 6 for $4.00
(Two pupils to bring same lesson)
HARRY WALFORD-K1. 4882
Address—65 WELLESLEY ST.

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM
253 Bloor Street West
Near Avenue Road
Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.
Open daily, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

Your Eyes
Will be scientifically examined if you consult LUKE.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

Why invest in a new suit, rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

IF SPRING COMES SUMMER IS NOT FAR BEHIND and then A TRIP TO EUROPE

SCOTLAND
ENGLAND
HOLLAND
BELGIUM
FRANCE

43 DAYS
FOR $424.25

WHY NOT MAKE APPLICATION NOW?

By so doing you will have preferred choice of cabin accommodation; and you will be under no obligation because the $10.00 deposit will be returned in event of necessary cancellation prior to 1 May, 1930. (Use application form on back.)

For Further Information Apply to

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A., Travel Sec., Hart House,
University of Toronto

National Federation of Canadian University
Students' Tour 1930

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27th, 1930

No. 92

SCHOOL CELEBRATES ITS ANNUAL FROLIC WITH TYPICAL GLEE

Three Hundred and Fifty Schoolmen Foregather at Royal York

SHOUTS OF TOIKE OIKE

Yells of Other Colleges Are Muffled Abruptly With Boos

An atmosphere of conviviality and frolicsome mirth carried the annual At-Home of the Engineering Society to a successful conclusion last evening. The Royal York Hotel was host to three hundred and fifty Schoolmen and their guests who danced to the lively strains of Romanelli's orchestra. The Concert Hall was crowded to the limit by the swaying pleasure seekers. A dainty sit-down supper was served in the Convention Hall at midnight, consisting of fruit cocktails, creamed chicken and ice cream.

Unique decorations and novelties were a feature of the evening. Enthusiastic yells of Toike Oike were raised from time to time, portraying the true spirit of the Engineers. A few dauntless supporters of other colleges were hastily muffled by loud booing.

The School At-Home was under the patronage of Mrs. C. H. Mitchell, Mrs. C. R. Young, Mrs. H. E. T. Haultain, Mrs. C. H. C. Wright, Mrs. R. W. Angus, Mrs. L. J. Rogers, Mrs. G. A. Guess and Mrs. H. W. Price.

The committee in charge of the success of the evening included G. M. Mason, N. D. Adams, R. B. Rochester, G. R. Armstrong, E. R. Sharp, R. C. Williamson, F. S. Lee and W. Y. Marsh.

RELIGION PRACTICAL SAYS DENTON MASSEY

Utilization of Religion in Modern Business Improves Conditions

NOT A CANNED PRODUCT

"Religion must be a personal thing. It is not a canned subject to be dished out as Steno, or any other canned article," Denton Massey declared in his address Wednesday afternoon in Hart House on the question, "Can we be religious in modern business?" "It is not a collection of creeds, a lot of negatives and positives," Mr. Massey went on to say.

"There is disregard for man in modern business," the speaker stated. He told several interesting stories to prove this fact and also concerning the old time rivalry among men of industry. Mr. Massey believed that business is getting better. There is less competition and more co-operation. "The secretness of industry is fast passing."

"There is a new realization of the practicability of religion by modern employers." It was Mr. Massey's conviction that the principles of Jesus Christ are more and more being regarded and utilized in business to-day. "There's an emancipation at hand in which these principles of Christ will find expression, maybe not radical, maybe not rapid, but it's coming," Mr. Massey predicted in conclusion.

The enrolment for the second semester at the University of Michigan is 8,889 students.

Garage Visits Dentist

"Reports Gas Station Robbed While on Hurried Visit to Dentist," was the peculiar headline which appeared on the front page of last evening's "Star". A reader who noticed it, phoned the office to inquire if "The Varsity" could throw any light on the subject of the itinerant garage that visited the dentist. Unfortunately "The Varsity" was also puzzled over the meaning of the heading.

CHILDREN RESPOND TO LITTLE THEATRE

Interest Suggests Production of Their Own Plays in Near Future

HOPE TO HOLD FESTIVAL

"I wanna be in it next time," announced one small boy to the audience viewing the first performance of the Children's Little Theatre at the University Settlement. He seems to have expressed the feeling of the Settlement children in general, who are responding enthusiastically to the attempt to present something fresh to the child mind, at the same time allowing for individual expression and creation.

The Little Theatre for Children was started with studies from Child Psychology as a basis. At present various groups of people are interested, art students doing the scenery, Hart House loaning facilities for lighting effects, Conservatory members helping with music and dancing, while students and others assist in directing. But the ultimate aim of the Children's Theatre promoters is to have the kiddies produce their own plays. The interest being aroused already suggests that some of the children may soon attempt to write their little skits, design their own costumes, and work out their own ideas in their own way.

Saturday afternoon and evening will see the third production of the Little Theatre at the Settlement. The (Continued on page 4)

Resourceful!

An enterprising student climbed in a window of the Psychology Building, 69 St. George Street on Monday afternoon. When "The Varsity" made inquiries concerning the reason it was discovered that third year psychology note books were due and the building was locked up for the night. Even housebreaking seemed to be part of the game when the question of term marks was involved.

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Seeks Ancient Courtesy and Care

"Do you think old-fashioned courtesy is returning with old-fashioned styles?"

C. J. A. Halliwell, IV School of Practical Science—
"No, I think we are just the same as when skirts were above the knees."
Miss Roma Wessells, I University College—
"No. Boys will never be able to forget that girls will be boys."
W. S. R. Edmunds, II School of Practical Science—
"I haven't noticed any old-fashioned courtesy around S.P.S." R. S. Mann, III Medicine—
"I haven't seen the styles returning yet."
A. E. Tyson, III School of Practical Science—
"It should return, but I don't think it will."
Molly Grant, VI Medicine—
"Meds have always been courteous."
D. H. Straunways, IV Victoria—
"Seeing that I didn't live fifty years ago, I don't know whether that kind of courtesy is returning."
Isabelle Kelly, III University College—
"My frank opinion is that it isn't."
I. Halperin, II Victoria—
"It would be hard on the residences."

SUCCESSFUL MODEL ASSEMBLY OF LEAGUE DUE TO CO-OPERATION

Copies of Reports Prepared by Committees for Delegates

STUDENTS HOSPITABLE

Model Assembly May Convene at Ottawa Next Year

"The great success of the Model Assembly of the League of Nations held in University College last week was due in very large measure to the splendid co-operation of members of the student body and faculty of the university," declared Miss Elizabeth Lang last night. "The reports, prepared by various groups such as the Foreign Affairs Club and Economics groups of Baldwin House, were very highly praised by Sir Herbert Ames. Already several requests for copies have been received from other colleges who are planning similar assemblies."

After the reports had been completed a copy of each was sent to every delegate. The multiplication of copies was made possible by the gen- (Continued on page 4)

WOMEN HAVE NO TIME FOR SUNDAY SONGSTERS

One Songster Held, but Other Activities Encroach on Time

Would the women show an interest in Sunday Songsters? Miss Kilpatrick, dean of women of University College, when interviewed by "The Varsity," said that the W.U.A. held a songster in the fall and though it was fairly well attended they have not had another. It seems that there are so many other activities that the students' time is very much taken up—even on Sunday. It has been suggested that the songsters be held on a week-day and Miss Kilpatrick thought that this plan might work. It depends on the W.U.A. whether another songster is held this year. If they do hold one and it is a success, the practice will probably be carried on next year.

Miss Jean Evans, vice-president of the Victoria Music Club, thought that the idea of a Sunday songster was a splendid one and would yet get a lot of support if they were held at five o'clock and not Sunday evening.

Debates Committee

At the Hart House debate last night the following men were elected to the Debates Committee for 1930-31:

C. L. M. Douglas, E. S. Lautenslager, E. B. Joffe, V. C. Webb, G. Gallagher, J. L. Stewart, L. Tarshis, and R. L. Seaborn.

INFLUENCE OF DRAMA SUPPLANTS CHURCH

Professor Norwood Considers Theatre-Going Greatest of Civilized Joys

DISAGREES WITH CENSORS

The theatre as the "home of ideas," seems to be supplanting the power of the church and even the press is in relative subordination to the power of its appeal, was the opinion of Professor Gilbert Norwood, when speaking to the Board of Trades Club on theatre-going. The speaker considered theatre-going unsurpassed among civilized pleasures and one of the best means of educating the Anglo-Saxon peoples.

"Drama is advancing and developing because of its acceptance of ideas and the stage has now a more predominant influence than the pulpit. The overwhelming power of the church is not now so overwhelming."

"I do not at all agree with the present system of censorship," continued Professor Norwood. "If we do not object to a suggestive musical comedy, there is no reason why a real problem in human life should not be discussed in a straight realistic manner. Certain plays soften our judgment regarding better plays dealing with important themes. So we are left in a woody frame of mind with regard to the stage."

"The most repellent play will fill the theatres in this city and although we condemn the French stage, a French audience would be shocked at some of our ideas. For the majority the theatre is an illusion and indecency or decency is a matter of locality. If this were not so many church-goers would be saints and most playwrights lunatics."

NOMINATIONS CLOSED FOR H. H. ELECTIONS

College Plan of Nominating One Man for Each Committee Is Abandoned

TRINITY USES OLD SYSTEM

The following are the nominations for the various Hart House Committees for 1930-31:

House Committee—B. A. R. Dignan, III Victoria; D. B. Murphy, III U.C.; R. V. Chapple, III Trinity; A. F. Buell, III Forestry; J. H. E. Doyle, III S.P.S.; B. B. Puddy, III S.P.S.; J. N. Franklin, III S.P.S.; H. M. Coleman, II Medicine; R. L. Algie, III Victoria; R. A. Irwin, III S.P.S.; W. I. B. Stringer, III Medicine; T. S. Brownlee, II U.C.; J. C. Johnston, III Victoria; J. D. Haggart, III S.P.S.; T. L. Marsh, III Dentistry; W. J. Dunbar, III St. Michael's; M. A. Wilton, II Trinity; J. R. Cameron, I Pharmacy; W. H. Bilbrough, III Trinity.

Library Committee—R. O. Standish, III U.C.; A. E. S. Davidson, II Victoria; W. K. W. Baldwin, III Trinity; E. L. Baker, II Victoria; W. E. Algie, III S.P.S.; J. B. Millar, III Forestry; J. B. Dowler, III S.P.S.; E. A. Bohnen, III U.C.; I. Edell, III U.C.; H. G. Walton-Ball, IV Dentistry; F. N. Yeigh, III U.C.; A. B. Ward, I Pharmacy. (Continued on page 3)

Motion Condemning Wheat Pool Defeated in Hart House Debate

WRECKERS OF TRINITY SEEK CORNERSTONES

May Unearth Buried Treasure Such as Historic Objects Found Before

Wreckers of the old Trinity College on Queen Street, now demolishing that building, are on the look-out for the cornerstones of the chapel and the two wings in the hope that they may contain articles deposited in them in the eighties. The city, which owns the old college buildings, is having them torn down, but has agreed to save for Trinity any such historic objects to be found therein.

The cornerstone of the main building, laid in 1851, was explored five years ago, on the departure of the college to its present location. It contained several papers and pamphlets of the period as well as a number of English coins and a list of people instrumental in the founding of the college.

Recently, an English half-sovereign was found on one of the chapel stones above the organ, but it is not known whether it is of any importance. The coin is now in the possession of Sydney H. Jones, bursar of the college, as are the articles found in the 1851 cornerstone. "Some of the stones from the old chapel are being saved to be incorporated in the new chapel, including the stone cross at the top," announced Mr. Jones.

GRADUATION MOVIES TO BE TAKEN AT VIC

Picture Will be Shown at Class Reunions Many Years Hence

The fourth year, at Victoria College is making a new departure in graduation ceremonies by having a movie taken of every member of the year. This picture will be shown at the reception which is to be given to the graduating year, and after that will be used as a permanent record of the class which will be shown at class reunions five, ten, twenty and perhaps fifty years from now.

According to the members of the committee, the films will be taken this afternoon in front of Victoria College. But if it rains, or snows, or the elements prove unkind, the time will be postponed until Friday.

Arid Scribe Uncorks Forensic Kick; M.P. Stars in Hat-and-Rabbit Trick

By C.L.C.

We concluded from Mr. Gibson's opening remarks that he did not entirely agree.

Also that he does not like those "pestiferous Progressives".

Who was the optimist who said the third speech would be concluded by 8.30?

The gentleman from the "No-beer" college seems to disapprove of class executives and more than two parties.

Mr. Wilson would blame all Canada's ills on the nefarious Wheat Pool, even to the stock market crash. This must be a great consolation to Messrs. Forlong et al.

Getting back to earth, we also learned that the Wheat Pool had held up the St. Lawrence Waterways Plan.

Mr. Wilson: "There's plenty of natural gas being blown off, sir." Out of the mouths . . .

E. J. Garland, Alberta Member, Upholds Western Politics With Vigour

POOLS SURE TO CONTINUE

Wheat Caused Financial Crisis and Pool Must Retreat Declare Affirmative

Last night's debate at Hart House was featured by one of the longest and most interesting speeches ever given in the house. E. J. Garland, who represents Bow River in the House of Commons, as a member of the United Farmers of Alberta group, spent three quarters of an hour in defending, not only the Wheat Pool, but the very existence of a farmers' group in the western provinces.

On the division, the motion "That in the opinion of this house the political experiments of the western provinces are not in the best interests of Canada" was defeated by a vote of 147-23.

Mr. Garland spent a few moments very effectively demolishing all the arguments that were advanced by the government in support of the motion. But he did not stay long on the defensive. His arguments, though ostensibly based on the arguments of his opponents, were in reality constructive. In a resume of the history of co-operative effort in the west, Mr. Garland waxed eloquent and emotional. He described the tremendous risks involved in the growing of wheat, and painted a graphic picture of the destruction wrought by hailstorms, cutworms, and saw-flies.

"At the commencement of co-operative effort in 1895," said the speaker, "the farmer could not load a ear of grain unless he sold it to the dealers' combination. All sidings, all elevator space was under contract to the ring, and as a consequence, in that year farmers received only 55 cents a bushel for wheat of the very highest quality. The idea of a marketing pool developed out of early co-operative ventures, and became an actuality in 1923. It took 25 years of co-operative experience to 'blindly rush in to the pool scheme. As an evidence of its success: in 1923 western farmers received 316 million dollars for 474 million bushels of wheat, in 1924 they received 320 million dollars for 262 million bushels."

"The present drive," he continued, (Continued on page 3)

The leader of the affirmative seemed somewhat disconcerted by his sudden elevation to the first seat in the Cabinet.

From the expression on his face, the Clerk of the House seemed to be expecting that the Bow River visitor might at any moment attempt to cram his statements down his throat by main force.

A reporter at the press table said he almost expected Mr. Garland to start pulling rabbits out of a hat.

As for myself, we refuse to apologize. We were thirsty, there was the water, and we acted as our conscience told us.

Even at that, there were those who told us it was "the best speech of the night."

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: Grace Macaulay

Assistant: Isabel Warne

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27th, 1930

"WHO I AM, AND WHY I CAME—"

Although the question of why they came to college is usually one of the first essay subjects given out to freshmen upon their arrival, the regrettable fact is that not only do most of them have no idea at the time, but many are still hazy or in utter darkness about it when they come to graduate. A large number probably come for the simple reason that they want to come, but feel called upon to justify their presence by worthy motives of various sorts.

Of these perhaps the most convenient motive is that of acquiring a liberal education, its essential characteristic being that it should be purely useless. Its devotees can, therefore, put in four agreeable years of exposure to education without the stern necessity of acquiring any practical information such as concerns bridge-building or biscuit-baking. Further, they can do so with the comfortable feeling that they are disinterested in material matters of pecuniary gain, and perhaps, that they are contributing by their unselfishness to the intellectual improvement of the race.

The opposite sort of motive is held by those who have a definite professional object in view, and realize that in preparation for it the time spent in a university course represents an investment which in actual value, will be returned to them with interest. To such people "Who I Am and Why I Came to College" presents no problems. They know exactly why they are here, and what they expect to get out of it, and, in so far as their efforts measure up to their ambitions, they will probably not be disappointed. But why, in such cases, try to preserve the anomaly of a connection with liberal education by some shallow device as, for example, the hour or two a week wrested from the business-like curriculum of the student in medicine, to be devoted to a ridiculously incongruous subject known as a "cultural option"?

The same desire to compromise is shown by the student who goes in for "higher education, rah, rah, rah!" as dispensed in an arts course, but tries to demonstrate its commercial value by following one of the few careers particularly reserved for him, for example, school-teaching. The result is, first, that he is liable to be engaged in a type of work distasteful to him, and second, that the profession becomes overcrowded and he has to accept a salary less than he feels he is entitled to.

On the other hand it is a well-known fact that many who take an Arts course for its alleged intrinsic value, or while stalling for time until they can make up their minds what to do, take positions after graduation for which their course has done nothing whatever to fit them—witness the students who spend their summers as waitresses and bellhops, and graduate to become stenographers, "shopers", and bond salesmen.

The question is, therefore, which sort of education is preferable, and which the university should cater to—a liberal education without a commercial value, a liberal education with a commercial value, or a commercial education with or without "cultural" value. The popular desire for a university education of some sort is, at any rate, not decreasing at present, and it becomes increasingly difficult for graduates to find the sort of positions to which they feel they are entitled. In Japan, which is certainly not behind the western countries in this respect, the situation is said to be so bad that university graduates are obliged to accept any sort of common job they can get, or go jobless. Is this, after all, an undesirable state of civilization, or could we reasonably aim at an era when all our ditch-diggers, our plumbers and our policemen, had had the advantage of a complete liberal education before taking up their life work? But, it is objected, would they be willing to take up such work, and if not, who would do it? The answer is that they would have to, or else by scientific invention eliminate the necessity for manual labour altogether.

At least let us face frankly the issue of liberal versus commercial education, ascertain whither we are tending, and decide what we intend to do about it. Since all attempts at compromise are bound in the end to be only partially successful, let us eliminate all tendencies to quibble and compromise, and decide the issue so conclusively that future generations of students need never stop to wonder what they are going to be, nor why they came to college.

Art and Drama

M.C. Players' Guild

There was a record attendance at the Players' Guild yesterday afternoon—probably piqued to see what a classics professor could do in the way of froth. Considerably better with a modern one-act farce than a good many professional farce-instructors is what Gilbert Norwood can do, if "The Play's the Thing" is any criterion.

A staid middle-aged business man is jarred out of a quiet evening with his cigar by the unexpected appearance of his cousin, an attractive young actress. In his salad days he has carried on an affair with the lady, but his retiring maturity does not relish possible flash-backs. The visit is a strictly business one, however. Leaving the theatre in her costume, the actress has not come with any purpose but to influence him in her favour in a piece of back-stage friction. It develops that he has bought the theatre in which she is playing. Innocent of all guile—and also any working knowledge of the thing he has purchased—he is willing to promise anything if she will only leave before his wife returns. She is about to go when the wife does return, so the actress is popped into a convenient closet.

Back from the very play in which the cousin is playing, the wife proceeds to go into the tedious details of the plot. The final situation of the play proves almost identical to the one just developed; and by the time the actress makes her dramatic reappearance from the closet, the audience is close to hysterics.

The burlesquing of a stock situation has been excellently done by Mr. Norwood, and yesterday it lost nothing in its handling by the players. Miss Isabel Dickson as the wife gave an admirable performance. Her treatment of the long monologue anent her evening at the theatre showed rare stage sense. Miss Jean Dow had stepped into the part of the actress on short notice, but turned in a deft piece of work. Paul Gardner was thoroughly competent in the role of the bewildered male.

Mr. Norwood, the players, and Miss Patricia Godfrey—who directed—ought to be thanked for one of the Guild's best afternoons this year. They get my thanks, anyway.

—A.E.F.A.

CHAMPUS CAT

Notice—No more puns on the word "beer" will be allowed in this column.

C-C

Now that we have had our fun and voted, we think it is time to lay all levity aside and get down to brass tacks, (or rails).

C-C

According to the calendar we are scheduled to graduate this spring. You ought to look at the calendar once in a while, you know. It reads like a booklet from a summer hotel.

C-C

We are going to cut out the dances and study.

C-C

So we won't need to press the old tux up again. Dear old raiment! How many glorious campaigns we have been through! How memories come thronging as we fondle its duofinish lapels once more!

C-C

Ah,—here is a catsup stain we received at Childs after a certain At-Home. And here,—some chicken alla-King from Hart House. (Some day we hope to find some chicken alla-King with chicken in it,—instead of woof).

C-C

And here is the spot she wept on our shoulder. (We found out afterwards that we were standing on her foot.)

C-C

And this is where we laughingly thrust the buttered toast into our pocket. And see—this is where we sat on the fried egg at Bowles.

C-C

And how well we don't remember the night at the hotel when our new-found long-lost friend poured the contents of the goldfish bowl inside our shirt front!

C-C

Well, we won't want to use it for about ten years, so we may as well sell it to that little skinny freshman, who is about our size. Or if anyone else wants a bargain they can have it cheap,—one tuxedo complete with pedigree and one set of moth balls. It fits perfectly everywhere, but the hip pockets.

Gaspard McGuffey.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Supports '30 Vic

The Editor, "The Varsity",

Dear Sir:

I have nothing but words of congratulation and encouragement for '30 Vic. I would gladly join hands with him in his attempt to show where this scape-goat university of ours is leading itself. Not content to vie with the butterfly type across the line, it must place itself at the head of the vanguard, leading the way, not on to the city of God, but on to the city of Destruction. Within the walls of the university, ethics is taught, but as yet the students show no evidence of being able to differentiate between right and wrong. "They have eyes, but they do not see; they have ears, but they do not hear; they have consciences, but they do not obey."

The crusade which '30 Vic launched against intoxicating liquors was well placed. A similar crusade ought to be launched against the evil practice of cigarette smoking, especially among young women. It is a filthy habit and it is certainly incompatible with the best interests of their own social life. Who, Mr. Editor, would enjoy holding the hand of a young lady, which is literally blackened with the poisonous stains of nicotine? Who, Mr. Editor, would derive any enjoyment from kissing the lips of a young lady whose breath is foul with the repulsive odours of cigarette smoke? God forbid. No, Mr. Editor, the girl who would smoke would do worse, (Continued on page 3)

HART HOUSE THEATRE

By permission of the Syndics

Week commencing

TUESDAY, MARCH 11th

Maureen O'Mara presents

The Way of the World

An original review in 3 acts

and 18 scenes with the

Varsity Entertainers,

Dancing Co-Eds and a

Distinguished Cast

Tickets—$1.50 and $1.00

Popular priced matinee

Saturday

Mail orders now to Hart House

Theatre Box Office

HA! HA! DISCOVERED—SO THAT'S WHERE EVERYBODY'S GOING.

Naturally,—the Victoria Theatre where Capt. Plunkett is staging a mammoth revue, 70 people, beauty ballet, all Dumbell's stars, Romanelli and 24-piece band, 5 Broadway headliners.

COMPLETELY NEW REVUE EVERY WEEK

"More of Broadway than Toronto"—Globe.

WHAT PRICES! Eves: 47c, 70c, 95c. Tax Extra.

Popular Matinees: Wed, Sat.

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon

In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

HART HOUSE THEATRE

FEB. 24th - MAR. 1st

HIS MAJESTY'S MAIDENS

A Romantic Comedy

in Three Acts

by RAYMOND CARD

Box Office Open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

TRINITY 2723

Tickets $1.00 tax extra

University Students 50c.

tax extra

RENT A TUXEDO

$2.00

STUDENTS PRICE ONLY

NEW SUITS

LATEST STYLE

TELEPHONE

TRINITY 8218

Mallabar COSTUMER

450-452 SPADINA AVE.

at College St.

THE ROYAL TAILORS

Invites all students to inspect their new Spring woolsens now on display at their Headquarters,

489 Wellington St. W.

A discount is given to all Students.

Easter April 20th

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $6.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)

Rand. 1885

Mc'S LUNCH

A very convenient place to eat.

West side of Yonge St.

Half-way between Wellesley

and Maitland.

Best value in city for the price, 35c.

550 YONGE STREET

AURA LEE TAKE CLOSE HOCKEY GAME FROM VARSITY CO-EDS 3-2

SPEAKING OF SPORT

The fact that Varsity seniors ran up seven counters against Queen's and that the seven markers were scored by five players with a sprinkling of assists from those who didn't tally has given the university sextet's stock a decided boost. In the last McGill game the Blue looked anything but a good senior team and their efforts to combine were most ineffective. But playing the Tricolour here Monday night the boys got down to business.

McMullen, Harley and Whitehead, and Murray, Stuart and Marshall, formed two effective forward lines, something that has been lacking all season. Dewar and Paul form a defence which is fair defensively, while Paul's offensive work has featured Varsity's play for two seasons. Dewar will improve with work, having spent most of the season on the bench.

To-night's Varsity-Nationals game ought to be a "woser". With goals on the round to count the boys will have to take it seriously. The last game between these two teams didn't mean a great deal, but with the O.H.A. Series A title at stake there will be no slacking in the playoff fixtures.

Trying to dope the winner of these games is sure a tough proposition. Nationals have beaten Varsity twice in a row and have looked better in every game, but if the Blue and White can play back to Monday night's form they will give the Fleas an awful battle before calling it a season.

Those who have the student coupon books should not forget that if they wish to get a ticket for the Nationals-Varsity game at the Varsity Arena Saturday night the aforementioned ticket can be procured for a coupon and "two bits" only up to 5 p.m. Friday.

Varsity juniors are practically sure of facing West Torontos here Monday. The latter team decisively defeated Kingston in the first of their junior O.H.A. fourth round games here last night. West Toronto should easily take the round. The games between Varsity and the Junction squad will produce real hockey.

Basketball fans again get a double bill here Saturday night. In the opener the intermediates will strut their stuff and then Western and Varsity seniors will hook up. The admission has been reduced to 35c, a point well worth noting.

Louise Grouch, Varsity's smart left forward, carried off the scoring honours at the basketball tournament in London last week end, in two games she notched 45 points. Eleanor Sedgewick, Toronto's snappy side-centre, was third with 32.

The Blue and White seniors have an enviable record this year. They carried off both the intercollegiate and city titles without having a single defeat chalked up against them. Varsity completed the schedule on Tuesday night, downing the Blue intermediates 29-23, only a six point margin. Incidentally the intermediates made a better showing against them than did any team in the intercollegiate tournament, Varsity's score against Western being 34-27 and against McGill 53-41.

AURA LEE TRIUMPHS IN SENIOR HOCKEY

Varsity Women Defeated in Well-Played and Closely-Matched Game

FINAL SCORE WAS 3-2

Aura Lee defeated the Varsity women's intercollegiate hockey players in a close game that ended 3-2. The game was pretty well divided all the way, with Varsity playing in faster than their usual style.

For service and low rates see FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

The score was 2-1 for Aura Lee at the end of the second period, but was evened up in the third when Helen Hilliard put in what everyone agreed was a perfectly lovely shot.

Jean Allan for Aura Lee, scored the winning goal, being her second goal of the evening. Gladys Minnett, who also scored for Aura Lee, sprained her ankle in a collision with the goal post.

The whole game was close and well played, Adele Statten and Helen Hilliard particularly having turned in the best games they have played for Varsity.

The W.U.A. of Victoria College held their last tea dance of the season at Wymilwood Saturday afternoon.

TO-NIGHT WITNESSES OPENING OF SERIES

Varsity Seniors and Sea Fleas Battle for Hockey Championship

TEAMS EVENLY MATCHED

Fresh from their goal scoring rampage against Queen's, Varsity seniors will sail into the National Yacht Club Sea Fleas to-night in the first of a two-game series to decide the O.H.A. Senior "A" championship. Judging from the four games in which the two outfits have come together to date, a more evenly matched pair of teams could hardly be found. Nationals have a margin of one game, and one goal, on the season. On the other hand, Varsity supporters can point to that 7-3 decision over Queen's immediately after Queen's had trimmed the Nationals.

The students will present the revamped line-up which functioned with such marked success on Monday night. "Skin" Dewar will pair off with Bruce Paul on defence, and Whitehead will alternate with Harley at right wing.

On paper to-night's game resolves itself into a battle between a team with a good goalie, two good defence men, and six good forwards, and another team with an equally good goalie, two equally good defence men, and nine good forwards. Nationals have so many first string men for the front line duty that their only problem is eliminating three to get within the nine-man limit.

Varsity, on the other hand, possess six forwards, of almost parallel ability, who have all seen frequent service throughout the season. Management and team are confident that despite the wealth of star material which the opposition possess, the college men's well drilled combination will carry them through to victory in the series.

To-night's match is at the downtown arena, with the return engagement Saturday at Varsity arena.

KNOX DEFEATS WYCLIFFE IN INTERFACULTY HOCKEY

Victory Places Knox College in Semi-Final Struggle for Championship

Knox defeated Wycliffe in inter-faculty hockey last night by a score of 3-1. This game places Knox in the semi-finals.

Wycliffe opened the scoring in the first period, but Knox soon tied the score. Then McDonald, a sub on the Knox line-up, scored one from centre ice, thus putting his team ahead. The third goal was scored in the last period by Green, who made a solo rush down the ice.

INTERFACULTY TRACK MEET WILL BE RUN OFF TO-DAY

The final events of the inter-faculty track meet will be run off at Hart House track to-day at 3:15 p.m. Up to date U.C. have 39 points, leading S.P.S. by three points. In all likelihood School will take the 100 yard dash and U.C. should take the two miles, and with the standing broad jump anyone's event, the meet to-day should be most interesting, as these events will tell who wins the inter-faculty championship.

In the events last week, the 900 yard 6-man relay record was broken twice. S.P.S. played in the best time, doing the distance in 1 minute, 42 2-5 seconds, a record which should stand for many years. The School team was composed of J. Fitzpatrick, R. Adams, J. Howe, W. Thomas, M. Smith and E. Hymmen. U.C. in this event also presented a very strong team of J. Jermy, J. Watson, Wm. Engel, F. Peart, D. Smith and G. Laughlin. Their time also broke the old record. The second event of last week's meet was the standing high jump. This was taken by Bill Finlayson after reaching the height of 4 ft. 6 in. Jim Watson, speedy sprinter also of U.C. took second place while Peart took third, accounting for Vic's single point.

WHEAT POOL DEFENDED

(Continued from page 1)

"is not against the Canadian pool alone, but against all the similar organizations in all countries now in process of formation. The struggle you are watching is a struggle between producers and organized trade. I cannot tell you if it will be successful, but there is no question that the Canadian pools will weather the storm."

J. C. Gibson, of Victoria College, who introduced the motion, attacked the Hudson Bay Railway, saying that the money spent on it would be better spent developing the St. Lawrence Waterways. He emphasized the decline of the progressive party in the last election. "If the pool does weather the storm by government aid, it will come back to a more modest and efficient program of co-operative marketing," he declared.

V. C. Webb, leader of the opposition, thought that the formation of pools in Australia and other wheat growing countries was an indication of the soundness of the pool policy. J. T. Wilson asserted that the tie-up in Canadian wheat was responsible for the financial crisis existing. He mentioned the unfavourable trade balance for 1929, and said that the new Argentine crop would soon be on the market.

The fact that the U.F.A. was the only political group that does not depend for party funds on lobbying interests was emphasized by Lou Golden, fourth speaker on the paper.

HART HOUSE ELECTIONS

(Continued from page 1)

may; C. M. Plunkett, I St. Michael's; C. L. Coburn, II Victoria; H. S. Day, III Victoria.

Camera Committee—W. T. Grant, V Medicine; W. L. Brown, III U.C.; D. A. MacLulich, III Forestry; J. L. Lehman, III U.C.; A. B. Macpherson, III S.P.S.

Music Committee—A. C. R. McGonigle, III Trinity; A. R. Little, II Trinity; G. V. Jansen, III S.P.S.; L. E. Wismer, III Victoria; A. E. F. Allan, III U.C.; R. G. C. Kelly, IV Medicine; J. D. M. Griffin, IV Medicine; A. M. Ross, III U.C.; J. S. Walker, III Forestry; E. O. Withrow, II S.P.S.; J. Gammell, III Victoria; J. A. Warren, II St. Michael's; D. A. Campbell, IV Dentistry; J. Girdwood, I Pharmacy.

Hall Committee—J. M. Boyd, III S.P.S.; W. L. Dutton, III S.P.S.; G. H. C. Smith, II S.P.S.; G. M. Graham, IV Medicine; R. F. Yates, III Trinity; H. E. Carr, III Forestry; R. E. Knowles, Jr., II U.C.; E. G. Sinclair, IV Dentistry; S. M. Huestis, I Victoria; W. Bowes, III S.P.S.; M. McKillop, II S.P.S.; N. R. McKibbin, III Victoria; J. F. Oakley, II St. W. Buchanan, III U.C.; J. H. Mil-Michael's; R. L. Dennis, III U.C.; I. Pharmacy; G. D. McKimney, II Victoria.

Billiard Committee—J. R. Berwick, II Trinity; F. J. Ryan, II St. Michael's; M. P. McKay, III S.P.S.; B. C. Blizard, III S.P.S.; H. R. Cummings, II U.C.; A. D. Pollock, V Medicine; D. B. Bowerman, III Victoria; D. Braze, I Victoria; F. Shipp, I Medicine; J. Allan, I Pharmacy; N. R. Capitolsky, II U.C.

Squash Racquets Committee—A. J. Elder, III U.C.; J. A. D. Craig, III U.C.; W. S. Noyes, III U.C.; J. C. Wilson, II Victoria; F. W. Morrow, II U.C.; J. L. Moyer, III St. Michael's; A. J. Hazeldan, III S.P.S.; A. G. Reynolds, III Victoria; C. G. Gibson, II S.P.S.; L. W. Plewes, IV Medicine.

The slate system has evidently almost passed out of existence as far as Hart House elections are concerned. In former years each college and faculty was accustomed to nominate one man for every committee and give him undivided support. This year Trinity is apparently the only college to have done so.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
571 YONGE STREET
KI. 3270

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

EL. 6738

528 GLOOR ST. W.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 2)

and if she would do worse, she is morally rotten. But the evil of it goes deeper than appears on the surface. Ashamed to practice this habit in an at least frank and open manner, they seek the privacy of their own bedrooms. And there, behind drawn blinds and locked doors, they are wooed by this nefarious wooer, nicotine.

In conclusion I should like to suggest that young ladies guilty of this practice should be ostracized from the society of those of us who have the purer minds.

"A Puritan",
'32 U.C.

What is a Straw Vote?

The Editor, "The Varsity".

Dear Mr. Editor:

Since it is probable that the result of the recent straw vote will be taken up by the daily newspapers and broadcast throughout the country as the true opinion of this university, I wish to point out to you and these newspapers at large, that the vote does in no way indicate the opinion which it is supposed to express. It has been taken by all those who pretend to be serious minded in the least (this excludes the five hundred odd votes from S.P.S.) as a genuine farce, and means only something for "The Varsity" to gossip about.

In the first place, the fact that out of a registration of 5486 only 2247 legitimate votes were cast (according to "Varsity"), indicates that at least more than half of the university did not even consider the vote to be serious enough to receive their consideration.

Secondly, that of the 2247, 531 were cast by S.P.S., whom everybody knows are just mischievous boys out for some fun, especially as evidenced by the fact that so many of them belong to the "Just Kids Safety Club". Mr. Knowles is one of these boys too.

Most important of all my reasons for believing that this vote is certainly not indicative of the opinion of this university is the fact that contrary to the belief of yourself, Mr. Editor, there was a great deal of horseplay in connection with the voting, which those in charge of the ballot boxes could in no way check, nor could those who counted the ballots. One gentleman boasted that he had voted 47 times. Another I saw with six votes which he distributed among different ballot boxes. In one of the residence common rooms I saw another take 14 ballots from the bundle of "Varsities", which were used to corrupt the vote. I do not believe, I need to give further evidence that the vote was simply a matter of horseplay.

If you Mr. Editor still believe that it is of value to get a true opinion of at least the men students of the university, why not include with the Hart House elections a ballot on this question. We might then have a fair indication which could be properly supervised. Personally I do not think any expression is necessary, because no matter how such a vote turns out, it could mean no action either for or

COLLEGE GOWNS CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON

108 King St. W., Toronto

Why invest in a new suit, rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

289 College St. TRINITY 8897

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Leading Library.

LOST

Small cardboard cover notebook containing Third Year British History notes. Urgent. Lloydbrook 8710.

against the sale of beer on the university campus. Ask Mr. Ferguson. Yours, etc., R. B. Davey, '30 Vic.

Editorial Note—If the vote went against the wishes of the writer of the letter even at the Hart House polls the same argument would be used. As for as the number voting is concerned almost half the registration voting is far better than can be expected in any straw vote while if any political campaign gets out 40 per cent of the voters it is a tremendous issue. As far as the fellow voting 47 times is concerned all the Victoria student above will have to do is to wait another few days and it will be 200 votes cast by the same man. Straw votes were never meant to be anything else except opinion gatherers and it was never suggested that a vote either way would influence the premier of the province. We still believe however, that the vote was a true indication of the students' feeling. It was expected that Victoria would go "No", that the others would vote "Yes".

Varsity Arena NEXT SATURDAY

NATIONALS vs. VARSITY

SENIOR O.H.A. GROUP FINAL

Reserved Seats $1.25, $1.00 and 75c including tax.

Admission 50c

This is an O.H.A. Semi-Final, but students may secure a reserved seat in the Students' Section for 25c. on presentation of Coupon 28 at the Athletic Office, Hart House before 5 p.m. on Friday. Women Students at Room 82, U.C. between 10.30 and 1.30 Thursday.

The Men's Shoe Shop

There can be no doubt in the mind of any man who wears our Shoes . . . We believe that the quality, style and value are perfectly obvious.

J. G. KNOX & TALBOT CO.
95 YONGE STREET

Open Evenings

EL. 1709

ORGANIZED 1910

Overseas Education League

ORGANIZED 1910

MAJOR F. J. NEY, Hon. Organizer

Summer 1930 Programme

Seventh Annual Visit of University Undergraduates

Including Graduates of 1929 and 1930; Normal School
Students and Senior Students of Certain Schools and Colleges

To Great Britain and France

(Together with GENEVA and OBERAMMERGAU)

71 Days $535.00 (Approximately)

June 21st . . . . .	Sail by S.S. "MINNEDOSA" from Montreal.
June 29th . . . . .	Arrive at GLASGOW.
June 30th . . . . .	From Glasgow to St. Andrews via The Trossachs.
June 30th—July 4th	ST. ANDREWS.
July 4th—July 10th	EDINBURGH.
July 10th—July 14th	GRASMERE (English Lake District).
July 14th—July 17th	HARROGATE.
July 17th—July 21st	YORK.
July 21st—July 24th	STRATFORD-UPON-AVON.
July 24th—July 27th	OXFORD.
July 27th—Aug. 11th	LONDON.
Aug. 11th—Aug. 16th	GENEVA.
Aug. 16th—Aug. 18th	OBERAMMERGAU (for the PASSION PLAY).
Aug. 18th—Aug. 23rd	PARIS.
August 23rd . . . . .	Sail from Cherbourg by S.S. "EMPRESS OF AUSTRALIA".
August 30th . . . . .	Arrive at Quebec.

Special provision is being made for men students to sail by the "Empress of Scotland" on May 28th, from Quebec direct to Southampton, to enable them to attend the Royal Tournament at Olympia and the Aldershot Military Tattoo. On the conclusion of this special London programme, this group will join the Undergraduates' party at St. Andrews on June 30th.

ALSO THE FOLLOWING TOURS

Fourth Annual Summer School in French - - $375

(For Teachers and Students)

Lycee Victor Duruy, Boulevard des Invalides, Paris

Second Annual Summer School in English - - $395

(For Teachers and Students)

Oxford, Stratford-upon-Avon, London

First Annual Summer School in Spanish - - $420

(In co-operation with the University of Liverpool)

Santander, Spain

First Annual Summer School of Music - - $520

(For Teachers and Students)

Paris, Oberammergau, Munich, Bayreuth, Dresden, Berlin, London

First Annual Summer School of Folk Dancing - $395

(In co-operation with the English Folk Dance Society)

Oxford, Malvern and London

Application forms containing the usual detailed information regarding the various items of the League's programme for 1930 are available at the Offices of the OVERSEAS EDUCATION LEAGUE, Boyd Building, WINNIPEG.

FRED. J. NEY, Honorary Organizer.

or

HENRY BUTTON, Hon. Sec. Eastern Division, 224 Bloor St. West, Toronto.

The Table Round

Not since Dickens penned his immortal characters has such a fascinating and lovable being as Jess Oakroyd found his way into the realm of fiction. This stalwart north of England carpenter is but one of a host of figures that make "The Good Companions" by J. B. Priestly one of the most delightful books that has appeared in a long time.

"The Good Companions" is written with obvious gusto and verve, and reflects the joy of imaginative creation. If this is a slice of life, then let us make every novel a slice of life. The author resorts to an unusual device in introducing his characters in separate chapters, but succeeds in grasping and holding the reader's interest from the very start. P.E.U.

THEATRE FOR CHILDREN

(Continued from page 1)

King's Breakfast and Red Riding Hood's Wood will be repeated, while new scenes will show Totems, The Dream, and Mushrooms. These performances are purposely for members of the university and others interested friends to view the work in progress. It is hoped that late in May a Spring Festival may be staged in which all clubs will take an active part.

Last Musicales

The fourth and last W.U.A. musicale will take place on Sunday next, from 4-5 p.m. at the Women's Union. The guest artist will be Mr. Frederick Winfield of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. Mr. Winfield is making a name for himself as a violinist of first class order, and promises a program full of interest to the women of University College, and their friends.

BULLETIN BOARD

VICTORIA SENIORS

The fourth year Victoria Executive is trying to arrange a moving picture of all members of the class to be shown at the coming Senior Reception on March 7, and to be used as a permanent record of the year. This picture will be taken to-day, Thursday, February 27, in front of Victoria College, beginning at 2.00 p.m. Every member of the year is urged to be present. By this time members will have been told of the arrangements personally by the committee in charge. If the weather is very cloudy, or otherwise inclement, the photographing will be postponed until Friday.

EX-GUELPH STUDENTS

Will all those ex-Guelph students who are intending to attend the dinner in Burwash Hall on March 6th please notify Harry Berry before tomorrow night if you have not already done so.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

The Women's Press Club will meet to-day at 4.30 p.m. in the U.C. Women's Union. Short stories will be read and criticized. Those members who have not yet handed in their stories will give them to the executive before the meeting.

VICTORIA COLLEGE

Burwash Hall Musicales Sunday, March 2 at 9 p.m. Artists, Lawrence Dafoe, tenor; Mary Smith, soprano; David Raitblat, violin; Stanley St. John, pianist. Out of residence men secure tickets at college office Friday. In residence men sign lists in all Burwash residences. All lists close Friday evening.

INTERMEDIATE HOCKEY

Intermediate hockey practice to-day at 1 p.m. at the Varsity Arena.

LEAGUE MODEL ASSEMBLY

(Continued from page 1)

erosity of members of the faculty and of college secretaries, who very kindly loaned their mimeographing machines for the purpose.

Then followed a couple of nights when willing helpers paraded the streets at midnight with laden arms and tired tongues seeking mail boxes and stuffing them with newly stamped and stuck envelopes.

Besides those mentioned, there were people who wrote letters, distributed tickets and in many other ways helped to complete the arrangements for the assembly. To all these and to those Tomorrow, Last Day!

Simpson's February Sale of Spring Suits

Buy in February and save 20%

$36

March Price, $45

$31.60

March Price, $39.50

$28

March Price, $35

$23.60

March Price, $29.50

$18

March Price, $22.50

A small Deposit of 25 per cent. will Reserve any Suit in the Sale until April 1st

Third Floor

THE SIMPSON COMPANY
ROBERT SIMPSON LIMITED

throat
easy
Woolingham
CIGARETTES
20
for 25¢
NO COUPONS
ALL QUALITY

Coming Events

THURSDAY, FEB. 27

1.30—3.15 Victoria class meeting. Important.

4.30 p.m.—Meeting of the Women's Press Club. Short story contributions from the members will be read and criticized. Good chance to try for the pin.

7.45 p.m.—Philosophical Society meets in Wycliffe College. Subject, Modern Dualism in Philosophy.

8.30 p.m.—Trinity College annual conversation at the college.

9 p.m.—Burwash Hall musicale. Artists, Lawrence Dafoe, tenor; Mary Smith, soprano; David Raitblat, violin; and Stanley St. John, pianist.

FRIDAY, FEB. 28

Elections in Victoria College Hall for president and associate president of U.C. Union.

1.30-2.00—Talk by Rev. Stanley Russell in Wymilwood. All welcome. Mass meeting of Vic 371 women to vote on sticks.

8.15—Vic 370 formal class party at Wymilwood.

8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.

9 p.m.—P.C.I. Ex-Students Association first annual At-Home.

SATURDAY, MARCH 1

5 p.m.—Student Volunteer meeting at McMaster University.

3.15 Victoria class party.

SUNDAY, MARCH 2

4-5 p.m.—W.U.A. musicale at Women's Union. Mr. Fred Winfield, violinist, will be the artist.

MONDAY, MARCH 3

Inter-St. Michael's debate at Loretto College. The motion is "This house deprecates the decline of monarchies."

TUESDAY, MARCH 4

8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of the M. and P. Society at the Women's Union. Dancing.

3.15 Victoria nominations close.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5
Hart House Elections.

who so generously lent their cars and provided hospitality for the out-of-town delegates, Miss Lang desired to express her gratitude.

When questioned about the plans of the League of Nations Club for the future, Miss Lang said that it had been whispered that next year's Model Assembly might possibly convene in the Senate Chamber at Ottawa. In the meantime the club will act as a focus of interest in international affairs for the men and women of the university. Speakers will be secured from time to time to address the meetings.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28th, 1930

No. 93

MOSS SCHOLARSHIP CANDIDATE CHOSEN BY TRINITY VOTERS

J. A. Walters Elected Winner,
Interests in College Activities Varied

MEMBER OF TRACK TEAM

Plans to Enter Medicine
After Completing Present Course

J. A. Walters, fourth year student in Biological and Medical Sciences at Trinity College, has been elected candidate for the Moss Scholarship. There were five undergraduates competing for the honour.

Mr. Walters received his secondary education at Napanee Collegiate Institute. Before coming to Varsity he spent one year in Mathematics at Queen's University. Upon completion of his present course he intends to enter the Faculty of Medicine at Toronto.

"I am afraid I have no claim to fame," smilingly remarked Mr. Walters when interviewed by "The Varsity". "This is the first great honour that has overtaken me." He is keenly interested in the Trinity College Literary Institute, and is at present its secretary. He is also a member of the Dramatic Society, the Science Club, and the Theological Society at Trinity.

Last year he won his first "T" on the Intercollegiate track team. He (Continued on page 4)

COMING NOVELISTS EFFORTS JUDGED

Women's Press Club Hears Stories and Articles
by Members

GREAT VARIETY OF THEMES

The coming novelists, in the persons of enterprising undergraduates, presented short stories and articles to the meeting of the Women's Press Club yesterday afternoon. The stories ranged from light humorous complications, as in "The Deaf Date", to the solemn, knell-like tone of "This, then, is Life". Variety seemed to be the password; the first story treated of two chickens, the last, of the world known personality of Cleopatra.

The club pins, which were to be given for work of merit, have been reserved until the next meeting, as there are still stories to be read and criticized. The open house criticism was very favourable, even to calling forth suggestions as to which magazines would welcome the different articles. Enthusiasm and optimism were the order of the day.

CHANGE IN S. P. S. UNFOUNDED RUMOUR

Little Red School House Will Remain Under
Chestnut Trees

There is nothing in a rumour that was afloat yesterday around the campus that the university is about to recognize a long felt want and erect a new building for the Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering, under the supervision of Colonel A. D. LePan, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds of the University of Toronto.

"If there is such a rumour I have heard nothing of it, and in any case there is nothing in it," he told "The Varsity" yesterday afternoon.

BRUCE PAUL

Stalwart Blue defenceman, who figured in all three of Varsity's counters against Nationals last night.

SENATE REINSTATES PUBLICATION BOARD

Managing Editor's Election
Responsible for Fracas on
Minnesota Daily

SENATE DISSOLVED BOARD

Special to "The Varsity"
Minneapolis, Minn.—Reinstating the student board in control of publications, naming a committee of four to direct The Minnesota Daily for the remainder of the school year, and aiming to divorce campus politics from student publications, the senate committee on university publications yesterday brought to a close the controversy which has been hanging fire since February 7 over who should control the Daily.

The board of publications was reinstated with the understanding that in the future no attempts would be made by any political organizations to exert any control over the board. This agreement was reached after a joint meeting of leaders of senior honour societies and the board.

With the reinstatement of the board, the matter of selecting a managing editor for Ski-U-Mah to replace Nordan Schoenberg who resigned last week will be taken up at its first meeting.

By action of the committee, Mr. Kane, who has been acting editorial chairman for the past month, was named editorial chairman for the remainder of the year.

The appointment of the managing committee brings to an end the controversy which resulted following the election by the board of Mr. Atwood to succeed Harrison Salisbury as managing editor.

U.C. THEATREGOERS RETURN TO CLASS WAR

Hutton House Transformed Into Scene of Domestic Battlefield

Hutton House, U.C. women's residence, was the scene of amazing activities last evening. Being the occasion of the annual junior-senior theatre party, it thus provided unlimited scope for the devastating ambitions of the freshmen and sophomores.

Mattresses stacked neatly inside the front door, furniture in all kinds of unconventional attitudes, clothes impartially strewn throughout the rooms, and bathrobes demonstrating the art of knotting, as well as dainty peace-offerings of daffodils and candy, greeted the returning party.

The dauntless marauders clambered through windows, under tables and up and down fire escapes in their efforts to create a work of art. This accomplished, they retired to their barricaded rooms, which were stormed by the vengeful victims of their ransacking.

Examinations!

Students in the Faculty of Arts are reminded that applications for the annual examinations must be filed on or before March 1st. Forms may be obtained at the office of the Registrar, Simcoe Hall or at the offices of the College Registrars.

VIC LIFE FILMED IN ALL ITS PHASES

Hollywood Invades Victoria
as Senior Class Recorded for Posterity

INCORPORATED IN ANNALS

"The movie man is here!" shouted an excited co-ed.

"Archie, get the people in line." Down the front steps of Victoria College, the honorary president of 370 Vic led the long line of the graduating year, who yesterday afternoon perpetuated themselves in a movie made to be kept in the annals of the class and presented at future reunions.

In quick succession the groups were filmed, the be-gowned heads of societies, the four stick holders scrambling up on a coupe, a dozen men in costumes which ranged from a hobo to a beau geste, girls in athletic togs of all descriptions, a quartette of serenaders (on Wymilwood steps with their lady loves peering out of the window), a heavily book-laden procession issuing out of the library door, a collection of Burwash braves giving the Varsity yell.

Next came a taxi man driving up to the Annesley door, and ten girls in evening wraps seemingly departing for a "real affair". Then the Dean, in cap and gown, smiling a gracious good-bye. Last, but not least, a rousing "Wind her up!

Let her go!
370! 370! 370!"

TEA AT CROFT HOUSE

The tea in Croft Chapter House yesterday afternoon was in charge of the departments of mathematics, physics, philosophy and psychology. Those receiving were Mrs. J. C. McLennan and Mrs. Brett, and Mrs. Bott poured tea.

ELECTION POSTERS ADORN HART HOUSE IN VARIED DISPLAY

Colourful Artistic Creations
Add Sparkling Touch to Sombre Walls

AUDIENCES ATTRACTED

Latest Advertising Methods Used to Give Placards that Alluring "It"

Once again the stately corridors of Hart House are adorned with those creations of highest art, Hart House election posters. Once again the artistic members of the university have bent themselves to the task of creating a colourful appeal for votes in the interests of would-be members of Hart House committees.

The exhibit started when the first poster was put up early yesterday morning. Gradually the art gallery grew as one aspirant after another made his contribution to the rows of pictures. At seven o'clock last night over forty posters of various types were in evidence.

There are posters of all possible sizes, shapes and descriptions. The most original form to date was a poster for a candidate to the sketch committee. It took the form of a real pallet appropriately lettered.

Many different conceptions of art are in evidence. Some ultra-futuristic ones seem to the uninitiated a mere jumble of colours. Other milder futuristic ones could be feebly understood by the present day mind. A few are of the plain undecorated "vote for me" type, but the majority of the candidates have evidently gone to pains to put their name artistically before the voters. A good many are caricatures, while one or two bear superimposed pictures of their candidates in a romantic setting. One of these latter depicts a candidate doing a broncho-busting act on the back of a polar bear. Is it a characteristic setting?

Widely varying methods are employed to catch the voters' eye and get a finger twined around his ballot. Some evidently depend on faculty loyalty for their support, others depend on their reputation.

The art treatment is varied too. Some posters are staid pen sketches in black and white, but the most are highly coloured splashes.

One aspirant to the sketch committee believes in killing two birds with one stone, illustrating a poster for (Continued on page 4)

BLUE SENIORS EARN GOAL LEAD IN FAST GAME FOR O.H.A. TITLE

MEL HARLEY

Flashy Varsity forward, whose return to form has featured his team's last two victories.

Paul Skates Through Nationals to Score Winning Goal for 3-2 Victory

GOALIES SPECTACULAR

Fine Combination Displayed by Varsity Forwards as Harley Scores

Defeating Nationals 3-2 at the Arena last night Varsity earned a one goal lead to carry into their return game with Nationals at the Varsity Arena Saturday. Once again the Blue and the Sea Fleas dished up a sparkling exhibition of hockey, fast from start to finish. Neither team was able to get a margin of more than one goal at any time, and it was not until eighteen minutes of the last period had been played that Paul broke a 2-2 deadlock by skating through the whole National team for the odd goal of the game.

With the O.H.A. title at stake both teams cut out a withering pace, but the close checking and hard bodying at times disorganized play. Nationals defence stepped into them on every occasion, "Jumping Jack" McKay getting away with a lot of illegal checking. Nationals went into the corners after the puck on every opportunity, and gave Ames some anxious moments on scrambles around the nets. Both Ames and Mueller turned in good display of net minding and whatever edge there was goes to Ames. The Blue goaler stopped plenty of hard shots, rivaling his rotund opponent in nonchalantly kicking out corner-bound discs.

The Sea Fleas' short passing game was effective and the Redshirts broke faster than the opposition. But Varsity had the edge around the nets with more clean shots on Mueller. Varsity's two forward lines played real hockey, but the punch was supplied by Bruce Paul. The tall defenceman scored two of the goals and gave Harley the pass for the other. McMullen, Harley and Murray did some great back checking and Harley's goal on Paul's pass was a neat piece of work.

Collins scored the first goal of the game after ten minutes of play in the second period, booking the puck from a scramble to shoot it past Ames. Two minutes later Marshall made a neat rush up the right boards with Paul trailing him. Marshall rounded the defence, slipped the rubber to Paul and the latter made no mistake.

Six minutes later Paul broke fast from his own blue line and biting the Fleas' defence, snapped the puck over to Harley, who drove a hard one by Mueller. Lough got this goal right back forty-five seconds later when he made a beautiful play. The Nationals centre man stickhandled through a maze of players, went around left defence and taking his time, worked into (Continued on page 3)

DENIES REPORT OF ACCEPTANCE

Dr. MacNeill Invited for Theological Post at McMaster

CHURCH TO BE CONSULTED

Reports that he had accepted the post of principal of the Faculty of Theology at McMaster University were denied yesterday by Rev. Dr. Jolen MacNeill, pastor of Walmer Road Baptist church and president of the Baptist World Alliance.

"The senate and the board have extended an invitation to me," said Dr. MacNeill, "but I am as yet uncertain of my reply. I have not yet had time to consider the matter, and I shall have to consult my church before making any decision."

Dr. MacNeill has been minister of Walmer Road congregation for 22 years. McMaster authorities consider him a suitable candidate for the post because of his excellent preaching (Continued on page 4)

SULPHURIC ACID CALLED MOST IMPORTANT CHEMICAL

Trinity Science Club Hears
Address on Chemical Aspects

"Sulphuric Acid" was the subject of Mr. S. H. Jackson's paper on Tuesday night at the regular meeting of the Trinity College Science Club. "The use of sulphuric acid is so widespread," said Mr. Jackson, "that its varying yearly consumption serves as an excellent business barometer." It has been manufactured chiefly by two methods—the chamber method and the more recent catalytic method. From its discovery in the 13th century until the beginning of the 19th century it was only made in limited amounts in the laboratory.

Sulphuric acid is acknowledged as the most important chemical to-day. Great improvements seem imminent after the recent discoveries of new and better catalysts. Projected plans embody all the best modifications in use at the present time.

After lengthy and varied discussion the meeting adjourned. A vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Jackson, and the hosts, who supplied the refreshments of the evening.

ERRATUM

Owing to an unfortunate error, the name of D. B. Murray as a candidate for the House Committee was printed as D. B. Murphy.

STUDENTS AWARDED PRIZES IN ORATORY

Women's Liberal Association
Holds Annual Contest
Leaders Gratified

The first award in the oratorical contest conducted by the Women's Liberal Association in the Foresters' Hall yesterday afternoon, went to E. R. Toll, III Victoria, who spoke on "My Pride in Liberalism". Louis Hagye of Osprey Hall, speaking on "Liberalism", came second and Sydney Hernant of I.U.C., third. The latter presented "The Liberal attitude towards the St. Lawrence Waterways."

"We felt that the speeches this year were of a very high order, and we were very much pleased with them all," Mrs. Reading, president of the association told "The Varsity."

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire On Liberal or Commercial Aims

"Should a university aim at liberal or commercial ends?"

P. B. Ayres, IV Medicine—

"What is a university?"

Thelma Samis, II Household Economics, Victoria—

"I am speechless before that dignitary Diogenes."

Ola Elliott, II Pass Arts, Trinity—

"Neither—the ideas of the student body are diverse. It depends upon the individual."

Marie Bicknell, IV Mathematics and Physics, Victoria—

"Take a course like M. and P. and get both."

R. Russell, II Pass Arts, University College—

"Commercial, or where would your liberal end?"

Isabel O'Rourke, II English and History, St. Michael's—

"I think it should strike a happy medium. One end cannot be attained without the other."

C. S. Boland, II School of Practical Science—

"Take the golden mean like S.P.S. We are not as commercial as a lot of people think."

Anonymous, Victoria—

"Liberal by all means. There are too many commercial bearings now, upon the subject."

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Usher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hasel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: M. B. Gelber Assistant: H. A. Wallace

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28th, 1930

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Who shall presume to define a university education or who is capable of stating exactly what the term comprehends? The college student has of late been subject to analyses, questionnaires, articles of all kinds, some exhaustive, some shallow, in magazines and reviews. But they usually confine themselves to topics like the future of the university, or mass education. We are still in the dark as to what, in its essence, a university education means.

To make the inquiry as simple as possible, two broad theories may be outlined. There is the opinion that the course taken by the student is paramount in importance and should have precedence over everything. On the other hand, some maintain that the fullest benefit is only to be derived from the four academic years by complete participation in extra-curricular activities. Naturally, the former school tends to material success, while those whose opinions incline in the opposite direction lay stress upon the broadening influences and the need of a liberal outlook.

The student who gives all his time to his studies will doubtless graduate fitted for a position in the business world and achieve fairly high academic honours. On the other hand, he will have few or no outside interests, and perhaps few friends. He may have become pedantic and unnecessarily dogmatic. He will know the subjects of the course in which he graduated thoroughly, and very little of anything else.

The specialist in extra-curricular activities may not graduate with honours or know all there is to know about the subjects which he has studied—it is very probable that he will be comparatively ignorant of them—but he should have no great difficulty in getting his degree. It is generally understood that a certain amount of judicious swotting will suffice to circumvent the examiner, even though the Toronto degree ranks high—and rightly so—on this continent. The student who has indulged in these various activities will have what the other type failed to secure—a number of contacts and interests, and probably a number of friends.

The primary purpose of the university education is to broaden the student's outlook, and to increase his knowledge to the point where he realizes how little he actually knows. The growing standardization of life demands experts and specially trained men, but the production of these is not the primary function of the university. Nor should it aim to turn out men and women who are dilettantes pure and simple. They should be impregnated with culture but culture cannot be forced upon anyone; it can only be developed through the medium of atmosphere.

It is a mistake to place undue emphasis either upon the course itself, or upon extra-curricular pursuits. The nearest approach to the ideal university education can only be obtained if both these aspects are cultivated, neither one to the exclusion of the other. The purpose of taking a certain course is to fit oneself for a place in life, a very laudable and worthy ambition. The pursuit of outside interests will make for greater understanding and more comprehensive sympathy and toleration, which are perhaps needed more than anything else in the world to-day. In this way, a well-balanced student will usually be developed.

The manifold activities which go on in Hart House form a clearing house for students of all faculties, and there are many undergraduate societies which cater to men within the various faculties. Such organizations as the Players' Guild of University College deserve credit for the sort of work they are doing, though by its very nature, the appeal of the organization is limited. The Guild is achieving for the few what the Literary and Athletic Society meetings have failed to achieve for the many—the problem of interesting the undergraduates.

Of course, to presuppose that every student who mingles academic pursuits with outside activities will turn out the ideal type, is altogether too optimistic, but certainly chances will be increased under those conditions rather than when either one or the other interest is being followed exclusively.

CHAMPUS CAT

Our freshman doesn't want to buy our tux after all. He says that the catsup stains make it look too sophisticated. When we heard that we immediately raised the price.

C-C

But so far the market has been slow. If this keeps up we shall put it up for sale as a relic instead. Didn't Robert Burns' walking stick, Caesar's safety razor and Hannibal's watch fob sell for a whole lot to the antique dealers?

C-C

On second thought we have decided to swap it to the Puritan for a package of cigarettes, preferably cubes.

C-C

The suit ought to be all right for him though. We don't smoke and the only nicotine stains near it are on the starched collar where our girl friend gave us a tender throttle one night. It was dark and she thought it was some other chap.

C-C

And speaking of that historic collar! Our Chink laundryman could sharpen it and temper it to an edge that would make a band saw weep with envy.

C-C

The Puritan is right. We know a woman that smokes and she certainly does worse than that. She confessed it to us in a moment of weakness. She dunks! Yes, she does.

Gaspard McGuffey.

Sunday Evening Concert

Miss Nellye Gill, soprano, accompanied by Mrs. J. G. Althouse, and Miss Jean Wood, pianist, will be the artists at this week's recital at 5 p.m. in the Music Room. The following program has been arranged:

- I
Deh vieni, non tardar ..... Mozart
(from "Le Nozze de Figaro")
Romance ..... Cilea
Miss Gill
- II
Nocturne, Op. 62, No. 2 ..... Chopin
Variations brillantes
Miss Wood
- III
Zuerknung (Devotion) ..... Strauss
Auf Flugeln des Gessanges
Mendelssohn
Who is Sylvia ..... Schubert
Miss Gill
- IV
Etude ..... Scriabin
Album Leaf ..... Scriabin
Brises ..... Florent Schmidt
Chant d'Amour ..... Stojowski
Miss Wood
- V
The Crying of Water Campbell-Tipton
Spirit of Life ..... Dichtmont
Le Miroir ..... Ferrarri
Spring ..... Curran
Miss Gill

WOMEN'S DIRECTORATE CLARIFIES RULES

Discusses Team's Overlapping on Faculty and University Teams

A special meeting of the Women's Athletic Directorate was held Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of clarifying the general rulings of the Directorate and the various clubs as to the eligibility of players on university and interfaculty teams. It was felt that the complications of the hockey series this year had been due largely to a lack of definite by-laws rather than to any serious fault on the part of the individual players, and that future difficulties might be avoided if rulings were more rigid and fewer individual cases had to be considered.

The following regulations were accordingly laid down, to go into immediate effect:

1. (a) No player shall take part in the corresponding interfaculty series who has played or spared in more than one game in the same season for a university team.
- (b) A player who has played in

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Pumice and Listerine

Editor,

"The Varsity".
Dear Mr. Editor:

This is not a letter, merely a suggestion to those friends of "A Puritan" whom it may concern, "Hands blackened with the poisonous stains of nicotine" and "breath that is foul with the repulsive odour of cigarette smoke" may be cheaply and effectively remedied by the discriminating use of pumice stone and listerine.

Faithfully yours,

M.R. (morally rotten),
'30 U.C.

Girls and Closed Doors

Editor,

"The Varsity".
Dear Sir:

If you will permit it, I would very much like to use your columns in order to reply to the "Puritan" in '32 U.C. As a girl I would like to state that girls smoke behind closed doors not because they are ashamed of the habit, but so that they will not corrupt such moral weaklings as the "Puritan".

Also is there really a chance that by smoking enough cigarettes so that our "fingers are blackened with the poisonous stains" it is possible to avoid the choice between offending an otherwise decent young man or submitting to a disgusting amount of sentimental mush expressed in the grasp of a moist, clammy hand? And can we escape the contamination of lips foul with worse things than cigarette smoke by the simple means of lighting an occasional fag? I scarcely dare hope it can be true, but if it is, why, come on, girls, let's smoke our heads off!

Daisy.

Noise and Study

Editor,

"The Varsity".
Dear Sir:

All types go to make up a university, but the most undesirable is the pest who walks into a Hart House study room while others are at work, and begins a discussion with someone on what interests him. It never seems to penetrate his thick skull that his disturbance is annoying. Or two of these primeval creatures may rush in, pull out their books, and in their loud voices, (these individuals always have loud voices) begin to study verbally. The study rooms are provided for everyone equally, except when privately reserved for a meeting.

If a university education has not been able to teach these bores the rudiments of consideration for others and gentleness, then let them work as noisily as they wish in the boiler room, where they properly belong.

Yours for silence in study rooms.
"Hart House".

one game for a university team and who may subsequently be found to be no longer required, may be reinstated in the interfaculty series upon making application to the Executive of the club concerned, the decision of said Executive to be subject to ratification by the Directorate.

(c) Exceptions to these rulings may be made only by the Directorate.
2. No player shall take part in the interfaculty hockey series who has played or spared in any game in the same season for a university basketball team, or who is claimed by the coach as a member of that team.

3. No player who has been reported by the Manager of a university team as having refused to turn out with the team shall be eligible in the same season for an interfaculty team in the same series.

HA! HA! DISCOVERED—SO THAT'S WHERE EVERYBODY'S GOING.

Naturally—the Victoria Theatre where Capt. Plunkett is staging a mammoth revue, 70 people, beauty ballet, all Dumbell's stars, Romanelli and 24-piece band, 5 Broadway headliners.

COMPLETELY NEW REVUE EVERY WEEK

"More of Broadway than Toronto"—Globe.

WHAT PRICES! Eves: 47c, 70c, 95c. Tax Extra.

Popular Matinees: Wed., Sat.

Saturday Tea Dansants
Every Saturday afternoon
In the Alexandra Room
King Edward Hotel
No cover charge.
Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00
Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.
In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

LOST
Green Parker Fountain Pen in University Library on Monday, Feb. 24. Please apply to N. Penlington, Tr. 6642.

For service and low rates see FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

HART HOUSE THEATRE
FEB. 24th - MAR. 1st
HIS MAJESTY'S MAIDENS
A Romantic Comedy in Three Acts by RAYMOND CARD
Box Office Open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
TRINITY 2723
Tickets $1.00 tax extra
University Students 50c. tax extra

HART HOUSE THEATRE
By permission of the Syndics
Week commencing
TUESDAY, MARCH 11th
Maureen O'Mara presents
The Way of the World
An original revue in 3 acts and 18 scenes with the VARSITY ENTERTAINERS, DANCING CO-EDS and a DISTINGUISHED CAST
Tickets—$1.50 and $1.00
Popular priced matinee Saturday
Mail orders now to Hart House Theatre Box Office

QUEEN'S vs. VARSITY IN FINAL COLLEGE CAGE TILT SATURDAY NIGHT

SENIOR BASKETEERS MEET TRICOLOR SAT.

Although Out of Running Varsity Quintet Determined to Win

REAL BATTLE WILL ENSUE

When Queen's play Varsity seniors in the final game of the local inter-collegiate season, the followers of the cage game will likely see the fastest exhibition of the season. The locals are out of the running, but beating the Tricolour is almost as sweet as winning the silverware. There has always existed a keen rivalry between these two teams and Saturday night's tilt bears all the earmarks of a real battle.

Right now Queen's are at the head of the league, but a loss in London Friday and another here the following evening would give McGill a fine chance at the title.

Queen's are led by the colourful "Ike" Sutton, who is playing his last year with the Tricolour. His sensational marksmanship has featured all of Queen's victories and he is sure to be in the lime-light Saturday. At present the Varsity squad is playing clever basketball and are confident of reversing the defeat they suffered in the Limestone City.

OARSMEN BEGIN EARLY TRAINING

Season Two Weeks Earlier Than Last Year Says Coach

Not in several years has interest in rowing at the university been so keen. Not in years have so many ardent future oarsmen turned out on the machines in Hart House. And not in years have they progressed so rapidly under the excellent coaching of Professor T. R. Loudon.

The "heavies" are particularly fine this year, and if size, strength and appearance mean anything (even so early in the season), it bodes ill for McGill next fall. Competition for the "tack" boat is keener than ever, their being nearly twice as many aspirants for places in the crew than there were last year. Taking all in all the prospects for the coming summer appear exceedingly bright. Rowing started two weeks earlier this season than last, and if the recent warm spell is any indication that spring is here, then the crews will be on the water earlier than ever before.

The first five girls to arrive before 9.30 p.m. to a dance to be sponsored by the Law School of the University of North Carolina will be given attractive boxes of candy. This unique offer is done with the hope that couples may destroy former precedent and arrive on time.

Harry Skitch Says:

START RIGHT—BUY MADE TO MEASURE CLOTHES—BECAUSE—Quality Materials ADD to your appearance.

Properly fitted clothes MULTIPLY your chances of success. Spring styles direct from Designers' Convention at Cleveland, Ohio.

PRICES $35.00 TO $50.00

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

The Harry Skitch Company Limited

9 ADELAIDE STREET EAST Above Ellen Bradley's Grill

SATURDAY GAME PROMISES ACTION

Varsity Seniors Encounter Nationals for Title at Arena

FAST HOCKEY FORECAST

Anyone who passes up Saturday night's return game at the "T" Arena between Varsity seniors and the National Sea Fleas is sure to miss a bang-up hockey treat. Judging by the display of speed plus more speed coupled with sixty-minutes of exciting play put on by these rivals last night, the return encounter just is bound to be a hectic battle. "Red" Porter's squad will defend a one-goal lead in this game, and if they play like they did on Thursday it looks as though the Fleas will be able to hang up their skates for the season on Sunday.

However, the teams are so evenly matched that the result will be in doubt till the last bell rings. The Fleas, with Kane, Lough, Kane and Co., may fool the dope and get away to a flying start. Still, with a one-goal margin the Blues look to be about good enough to get the final verdict.

In any case, it should be a real tussle from gong to gong.

RECORD BROKEN IN TRACK MEET

Fitzpatrick Fast in Dash—Schoolmen Lead in Points

ADAMS WINS BROAD JUMP

In the two events of the interfaculty track meet run off yesterday, the 100 yard dash record was broken by Johnny Fitzpatrick, setting up a mark of 10 2-5 seconds. Ralph Adams, of S.P.S., and Bill Engel of U.C., were tied for second, both doing 11 flat, but after the run off, Adams covered the distance in 10 4-5, thus winning second place, giving Engel third.

The second event, the standing broad jump, was taken by Ralph Adams, S.P.S., after jumping 8' 9-2" followed very closely by Jimmy Watson of U.C., who jumped 8' 9". Watson also took second in the standing high jump last week. Fitzpatrick of S.P.S., in this event placed third. S.P.S. are leading with 50 points and U.C. are second with 43.

Next Tuesday the 2 miles and pole vault will be run off and on Thursday the mile relay event, which was postponed from yesterday, will take place. In the relay U.C. and School should both present strong teams and with the 2 miles likely to go to U.C. or Meds, the final results should be very close.

100 yard dash—1, Johnny Fitzpatrick, S.P.S.; 2, Ralph Adams, S.P.S.; 3, Bill Engel, U.C. Time 10 2-5 sec. Standing broad jump—1, Ralph Adams, S.P.S.; 2, Jim Watson, U.C.; 3, J. Fitzpatrick, S.P.S. Distance—8 feet 9 1-2 inches.

U. C. VICTORIOUS IN BASKETBALL

O. A. C. Defeated in Game by Fast U. C. Squad Score 24-13

In a smoothly played game in the upper gym last night, Senior U.C. basketballers outplayed O.A.C. to the tune of 25-13. The winners were on top all the way as they scored the opening basket and were leading at half time 11-5. O.A.C. tried hard, but could not make much headway against a superior team.

Hodgson, Mowey and Mayor were the high scorers for U.C., while Malcolm and Hales were outstanding for the agriculturists. U.C.—Hodgson (8), Foyer (4), Mowey (5), Stringer (1), Mayor (6), Keith, Garden (1), Davies.

O.A.C.—Jenson (2), Malcolm (6), Hales (4), Tooten (1), Reid, Nottingham, McPhee, Slater.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

What a game the Nationals-Varsity hook-up Saturday night is going to be! The Blue and White have a one-goal lead, but they'll have to step some to hold it.

Last night's game was a dandy. Speed and more speed! Plenty of stick-handling and body checking. Everything. And Saturday night the Varsity Arena is going to have an overflow crowd. Get your tickets early.

If you're a basketball fan the Queen's-Varsity game at Hart House with an intermediate game as an opener offers an attractive bill. Queen's have a smart team and are headed for the intercollegiate championship. If the Tricolour lose to-morrow night and at Western Saturday McGill have a chance for the title. McGill have protested their loss at Western and this game may be replayed.

Niagara Falls juniors are in the O.H.A. finals, but they had a close shave at Windsor last night. The Falls won the first game of the round 4-0 at home, but lost 5-2 to Windsor-Walkerville on the latter's ice, taking the round 6-5. As West Torontos have a nine-goal lead for their game in Kingston to-night the Falls, S.P.A. champions, will play either Varsity or West Toronto for the O.H.A. title.

INTERMEDIATE GAME AT ARENA TO-DAY

Varsity Seconds Head League for Hockey Title—Leak Injured

Varsity Seconds play their next game this afternoon at 4 p.m. at the Varsity Arena with McMaster as opponents. The Blue hockeyists are at present riding on top of the Intercollegiate Intermediate Group and they should have no trouble in taking this contest. The intermediates defeated the Macs last Monday by 6 to 0 without being greatly extended and should do even better to-day.

Pereyma, alternate forward, has been leading the goal-getters lately, notching three in the last contest alone. Bill Leak, star forward, is still out of the game with an injured shoulder. The team will likely be composed of McCartney in goal, Malcolm and Smith on the defence and Pereyma, Clute, Conn and Ferguson on the forward line.

BASEBALL GROUPS DRAW TO CLOSE

Victoria and Senior Dentals Lead in Groups with no Losses

The interfaculty baseball group schedule is drawing to a close with four of the six groups decided and the other two to be finished immediately.

In Group I, Victoria College has taken 3 games and lost none, with one to play with Trinity. The result of the game will not affect the standing.

Senior Dentals have won 4 games and lost none in Group II, with Senior S.P.S. runners up, winning 2 and losing 2.

Group III has been captured by Jr. U.C., who have won 4 games, with Jr. S.P.S., who have won 2 and lost 2, as runners-up.

In Group IV, Senior U.C. have won 3 and lost none, but Wycliffe has two games to play. If they win both they will tie Senior U.C. for group standing.

A similar condition exists in Group V with Knox having won 2 games and O.C.E. having two games to play which they must win to tie Knox in their standing. O.A.C. has taken group VI by defeating Pharmacy in two games.

There will be a meeting on Monday of the different teams to decide the dates of the playoff games.

VARSLITY ARENA TO-MORROW (Saturday)

NATIONALS vs. VARSITY

SENIOR O.H.A. GROUP FINAL Reserved Seats $1.25, $1.00 and 75c including tax. Admission 50c

This is an O.H.A. Semi-Final, but Students may secure a reserved seat in the Students' Section for 25c, on presentation of Coupon 26 at the Athletic Office, Hart House before 5 p.m. To-day. Women Students at Room 82, U.C. between 10.30 and 1.30 To-day

JUNIOR DRIBBLERS TO TRY COMEBACK

Must Overcome 18-Point Lead to Tie Elizabeths at Central "Y"

VARSLITY TEAM SNAPPY

Varsity junior basketball team goes into to-night's game with the Lizies carrying an 18-point deficit as a result of their 36 to 18 defeat at Central "Y" Wednesday night. Unless the local students can overcome this long lead, the playground quintet will take the city championship for the third successive year. The score of Wednesday's tilt was no indication of the closeness of the battle and the Blue and White men extended the champions to the limit. Inability to hold the fast Lizie forwards in check and poor foul shooting put them out of the picture.

This year the Blue and White is represented by a scrappy crew of basketballers. Their passing and fast breaking is a treat to watch after seeing the slow-motion tactics of the seniors. To-night's fixture should attract a large crowd.

SENIORS EARN GOAL LEAD IN FAST GAME

(Continued from page 1)

a position to flip the puck by Ames. With the teams anxious to get a lead for Saturday's game the last period saw plenty of fast hockey. It looked as if the game would end in a tie, but Paul once again rose to the occasion to get the winning goal on a lovely individual play with only two minutes to go.

SUMMARY First Period No scoring. Penalties—Collins, K. Kane (2), Paul (2).

Second Period 1—Nationals.....Collins ..... 10. 2—Varsity.....Paul (Marshall) 2. 3—Varsity.....Harley (Paul) 6. 4—Nationals.....Lough ..... 45. Penalty—McMullen.

Third Period 5—Varsity.....Paul ..... 18. Penalties—McKay, Dewar, Paul. Varsity—Goal, Ames; defence, Paul and Dewar; centre, Harley; wings, McMullen and Whitehead; alternates, Murray, Stewart, Marshall.

Nationals—Goal, Mueller; defence, Nugent and McKay; centre, Lough; wings, K. Kane, J. Kane; alternates, Collins, Convey, Underwood.

If . . . It's a Question of Chic

ASK FOR A

"Jacqueline"

Then you will be sure of that little subtle something that means the difference between the ordinary and the distinctive.

For instance—a group of tweed and dress coats of broadcloth with collars of Muskrat, Mole, Squirrel paws or Lapin, with the fitted lines that are so youthfully smart—recent arrivals in this fashionable family.

Misses Sizes $19.50

Fourth Floor, James St.

T. EATON CO.

The Coffee House

Luncheons Dinners Teas

Open Evenings till 8 p.m.

After the Game—After the Theatre

Ruth Macdonald

Special attention given to students for luncheons and dinners.

34 Avenue Road

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of Formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE 671 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

STUDENT RATE 8 Lessons $5.00

This rate is offered to students only. Applicants must present registration card. Jack Slater's orchestra at Thursday advanced classes. Dancing till midnight. Beginners' class Tuesday 8.30. Private lessons by appointment.

DACOSTA

Studio of Dancing Columbus Hall RA. 8650

Headquarters for

ACADEMIC

GOWNS

CAPS

HOODS

See our samples and prices before buying

Sainthill-Lewine & Co. LIMITED

218 Wellington Street West

PHONE EL. 5501

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

289 College St. TRINITY 5097

Harry Windfall, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your day

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Landing Library.

3H IS ALWAYS 3H 4B IS ALWAYS 4B

WITH ELDORADO

"THE MASTER DRAWING PENCIL"

FOR SALE AT THE COLLEGE BOOKROOM

Coming Events

FRIDAY, FEB. 28
9.30 a.m.-3 p.m.—Vic elections.
Elections in Victoria College Hall for president and associate president of U.C. Union.

1.30-2.00—Talk by Rev. Stanley Russell in Wymilwood. All welcome.
4 p.m.—3T1 Victoria Women's Stick elections, Room 18.

Mass meeting of Vic 3T1 women to vote on sticks.
8.15—Vic 3T0 formal class party at Wymilwood.

8.30 p.m.—Annual Household Science At-Home, at the Household Science Building.

9 p.m.—P.C.I. Ex-Students Association first annual At-Home.

SATURDAY, MARCH 1
2.30 and 8.15 p.m.—Children's Little Theatre production at University Settlement House, 23 Grange Rd.

4.30 p.m.—Last tea dance of season at Newman Club.

5 p.m.—Student Volunteer meeting at McMaster University.

3T1 Victoria class party.

SUNDAY, MARCH 2
3.30-4.00 p.m.—Noel Palmer's class in Wymilwood.

4-5 p.m.—W.U.A. musicale at Women's Union. Mr. Fred Winfield, violinist, will be the artist.

5.00 p.m.—Sunday tea at Newman Club.

7.00 p.m.—Benediction in Newman Club Chapel.

MONDAY, MARCH 3
Inter-St. Michael's debate at Loretto College. The motion is "This house deprecates the decline of monarchies."

TUESDAY, MARCH 4
Nominations for officers for 3T2 Victoria class. Get your nominations in early.

8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of the M. and P. Society at the Women's Union. Dancing.

8.00 p.m.—Last meeting of the U.C. Lit. Nominations for society executive and year executives.

3T1 Victoria nominations close.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5
Hart House Elections.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6
Hart House elections.

German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig".

JR. U.C. DEFEATS, 3-1, JR. S.P.S. HOCKEYISTS

Jr. U.C. defeated Jr. S.P.S. 3-1 in a cleanly played hockey fixture at the Varsity Arena yesterday. U.C. played consistent hockey and deserved their win. Pugsley scored two goals while Everett scored one, and also made an assist for U.C. After the first period when Elsworth scored S.P.S. were forced to shoot from the blue line. Greer, Pugsley and Evans were the U.C. stars. Crocker, Little and Elsworth were effective for S.P.S.

S.P.S.—Goal, Jory; defence, Walcom, Bartley; forwards, Anderson, Crocker, Martin; alternates, Little, McArthur, Elsworth.

U.C.—Goal, Shaw; defence, Greer, Thompson; forwards, Pugsley, Evans, Everett; alternates, Saunders, Twaites, Griffin.

COMMUNISM DISCUSSED

The second debate of the series for the Sedgewick Trophy at School of Practical Science took place last night when the third year gallantly upheld the motion, "Resolved that communism should be suppressed in Canada", and received the judges' decision by a very narrow margin from the fourth year. The final will take place next Thursday when first year will meet third year.

C. O. T. C.

All ranks are hereby notified that more attendance at drills does not entitle a man to be shown "efficient".

At the next Battalion Parade on Wednesday, 5th March, an inspection of the contingent will take place in order to determine whether, or not, all ranks are "efficient".

The Annual Headquarters Inspection of the contingent will take place on Friday, 21st March.

"Ein Knopf" at Women's Union.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7
9.30 a.m.-3 p.m.—General election for all societies at Victoria College.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13
11.00 a.m.—U.C. Elections.

Lovely Laura's Romance Flops When Manuel Sees The Cops

By L.L.L.

Dear Betty:

"To think that such a morn should end so ill", that's poetry. You know that all great minds always turn to poetry when the adversities of the world are overwhelming. Honestly, my dear, I'm at the bottom of the overwhelm. But I shall always treasure the remembrance of this week even when I am an old, old lady surrounded by my great grandchildren. The laddie that wrote to me that I wrote to you about arrived. It has been like the passing of a meteor through the dark existence of my little life. He was simply wonderful. We were mutually attracted and I hadn't seen him for two days before I was wondering how L.L.O.'s would look on the wedding presents. He looked like a Ruben's picture. You know the kind—cherub-like, with a stern masculinity that commands respect. We went everywhere and saw everything for three gorgeous days. I took him to see the National-Varsity hockey game and he was so interested and so delighted when Varsity won out. A terribly funny thing happened after the game. We went to a dance and Manuel found he had left all his money at home in the hotel, so I paid for us and of course I paid for the taxi too. It so thrilled me to be able to do something for my man. I felt like Flora MacDougal or Joan of Arc.

Feb 21st.

But last night ended it all. We were sitting at my aunts and Manuel was telling me all about his cotton plantation on the Rio Grande and how the old Colonial home needed a woman's touch in the moonlight and how my jewels reminded him of the family jewels that his grandfather had brought back with him from India, when the door opened.

You remember that police sergeant who was so nice to me when I was arrested. Well I had made a date with him for last night, but I had forgotten all about it. Anyhow in he walks and Manuel takes one look at him and says "Alright officer, you've got me". And do you know his name wasn't O'Shane and he hadn't a cotton farm, but he was an adventurer and had a wife already at Baltimore as well as a couple of unpaid hotel bills.

So brokenheartedly,
Laura Louise.

P.S.—Just the same I'll never, never forget him. L.L.

BULLETIN BOARD

WYMLWOOD MUSICALS

The Victoria Women's Undergraduate Association will have as its artist for the Sunday Evening Musicals this week, Mr. Gordon Girvan, pupil of Campbell McInnes. Refreshments will be served.

3T0 VICTORIA

Nominations for our Moss Scholar candidates are to be handed in Friday, Feb. 28 from 10 a.m. to 2.30 p.m. in the college hall. A class meeting will be held Monday, March 3 at 1.15 p.m. in Room 18 for the election of our representative to be chosen from those nominated on Friday.

BOXERS AND WRESTLERS

The classes in boxing and wrestling given on Tuesday and Thursday respectively by Mr. Barton will continue till the end of the school year. Keep up your training and at the same time get your P.T. Beginners also welcome.

VICTORIA ELECTIONS

All Victoria students will vote today on the election of president and associate president of the new Victoria College Union. Voting hours 9.30 a.m. to 3 p.m. General elections for all Vic societies will take place next Friday, March 7. Presidents of all societies please note—nominations must be in by Tuesday, March 4, as ballots must be printed this year. Send them in to F. B. Gamble, returning officer, Middle House, Burwash.

VICTORIA MUSIC CLUB

Election to-day in the college hall for the position of vice-president. Elections for the other officers next Friday. Nominations may be handed in until next Tuesday to any member of the present executive.

U.C. ATHLETIC BOARD

Meeting of U.C. Athletic Board today at 3.00 p.m. Important that every member be out as several matters of special concern are to be discussed.

BIBLE STUDY GROUP

Mr. Noel Palmer will meet his class Sunday afternoon at 3.30 in Wymilwood (Sun Room). Open to all.

3T1 VICTORIA WOMEN

3T1 Victoria Women's Stick elections to-day at four o'clock. Room 18.

W.U.A. MUSICALS

The last W.U.A. musicale will be held at the Women's Union from 4-5 p.m. The artists will be Harriet Hill, soprano; and Frederic Winfield, violinist, with Muriel Gidley at the piano.

TRINITY SCHOLARSHIP CANDIDATE ANNOUNCED (Continued from page 1)

is a member of the rugby team and harriers at Trinity College.

Provost Cosgrave bore testimony of his scholastic attainments, but had no comments to make on the Moss Scholarship.

SENATE REINSTATES PUBLICATIONS BOARD (Continued from page 1)

aging editor of the Daily. Following the announcement of Mr. Atwood's election the senate committee dissolved the board and declared the election null and void.

ONIES REPORT OF ACCEPTANCE (Continued from page 1)

ability and his qualities of leadership. He is planning a series of trips to Europe and the Orient where he will confer with Baptist leaders, and both the senate and the board are of the opinion that these peregrinations will increase his usefulness to the university.

Should Dr. MacNeill accept the offer he will commence his duties next January.

WHAT PRICE CARNERA?

Jack Sharkey, the "Boston Gob" scored a 3rd round technical knockout over "Phalling Phil" Scott, England's horizontal heavy at Miami last night.

STOCKING UP ON STOCKINGS

NUMBER FIVE THOUSAND

is the stocking ideal for every occasion. In Chiffon or Service Weight, in a range of forty colours; silk from toe to top; French heels, full fashioned $1.50

A bargain, indeed! For one dollar Virginia Dare offers you a smart silk stocking, useful for Springtime wear . . . $1.00 reduced to . . .

Sports woolen stockings Sheerest Chiffon, service weight or chiffon . . . Virginia Dare hosiery is unsurpassed for appearance and wearing qualities.

Tune in Every Wednesday, 7 p.m., C.F.C.A. Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET
At Richmond
Ad. 5898

789 YONGE STREET
Next door to Uptown Theatre
Kl. 3500

2496 YONGE STREET
Next door to Capitol Theatre
HU. 4780

OPEN EVENINGS

Medical Arts Coffee Shop

Students will find this new shop exceptionally handy and attractive.

Come in after the game, or the theatre. Always open.

Our Twilight Musical Hour is particularly inviting.

NEW MEDICAL ARTS BUILDING

BLOOR WEST - at St. George

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

Kl. 0738

528 BLOOR ST. W.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

SHERBOURNE CHURCH

REV. RICHARD ROBERTS, D.D.

Sherbourne and Carlton Streets

Morning—

"Salvation as a Personal Achievement"

Evening—

The second Sermon on "Dives and Lazarus" The Rich Man in Hell

Christian Science

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, St. George St. at Lowther

(Close to the University)

Services—Sunday, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.

Subject for Sunday, Mar. 2nd, will be

"CHRIST JESUS"

Wednesday Service 8 p.m.

In the Church Auditorium including

Testimonies of Healing Through

Christian Science

You are cordially invited to attend the services and use the

Free Public Reading Rooms

1504 Metropolitan Bldg.

Adelaide and Victoria Sts.

Open 9.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.

Where the Bible and all authorized

Christian Science literature may be

read, borrowed or purchased, and periodicals subscribed for.

Old St. Andrew's Church

(Cor. Jarvis and Carlton Sts.)

7 p.m.

The Minister,

"I seek my place in the sun."

Students Cordially Welcome

Deer Park United Church

ST. CLAIR AVENUE

(One block east of Avenue Rd.)

Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A.

Minister

Rev. Douglas Kendall, M.A.

Assistant Minister

Rev. G. Stanley Russell M.A.,

will preach at

11 a.m.—"The Purpose of it All"

7 p.m.—Ancient Wisdom for a Modern World. "Sunlight and Shadows."

Students cordially invited.

Bernard Longbottom—Organist and Choirmaster.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

381 Huron Street

(Five minutes walk from Hart House)

QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY.

7.00, 8.00, 9.30 a.m.—Holy Eucharist.

11.00 a.m.—Sung Eucharist and Sermon. Preacher: Rev. C. J. S. Stuart, M.A., B.D., Rector.

7.00 p.m.—Evensong and Sermon. Preacher: Rev. R. S. Rayson, M.A., B.D., Assistant Priest.

HARCOURT & SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

DANCING LESSONS

REDUCED RATES

Strictly Private - 6 for $5.00

Small Private - 6 for $4.00

(Two pupils taking same lesson)

HARRY WALFORD—Kl. 4062

Address—55 WELLESLEY ST.

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Balmington's)

Smart New "Cambridge" Topcoats

In the Most Approved Styles and Fabrics for Spring

It's not too soon to be thinking of your new Spring Topcoat. And the earlier you make your selection the better your choice of fabrics. Why not drop into the "Cambridge Clothes" Shop and see this advanced collection of new models? There's a wonderful showing of advanced styles for young men at

$25, $30 and $35

FITZPATRICK & O'CONNELL, LTD.
254 Yonge Street—Just North of Shuter

Have Your Brakes Tested AND SAVE 10

SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE
205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

Over 6000 Hours

Under normal conditions the eyes work over 6,000 hours a year. But with the student the majority of these hours are devoted to a concentration and a fixed focus on the study page that calls for a tremendous exertion of the delicate eye muscles.

Consult your family physician or an eye physician. If you need glasses he will correctly prescribe. Then let Williams fill your prescription.

J. Williams
Prescription Optician

5 RICHMOND ST. EAST

268 BLOOR ST. WEST

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, MONDAY, MARCH 3rd, 1930

No. 94

TRINITY DEBATERS TRADITIONAL WETS DOWN BEER MOTION

Leader of Government States it is Desirable in Moderation

SHOULD BE SOLO BY GLASS

Opposition Declares Voting
Was Done in Frivolous Manner

The men of Trinity College, whose tea and beer drinking proclivities are traditional in this university, carried by a vote of 11-8 on Friday night the motion, "Resolved that this house would welcome the sale of beer in Hart House". Little interest was shown in the question, however, and a bare quorum was present when the acting speaker, E. H. Sinfield, took the chair.

"Beer in moderation is desirable," claimed H. A. R. Martin, the leader of the government. "It should be sold by the glass in Hart House. We want to see it sold where we can get it when we want it and in small quantities," Mr. Martin expatiated on the desirable qualities of beer, reminding the house that it differed greatly from hard liquor.

The opposition was quite willing to admit that beneficial results attended the drinking of beer, but based their argument on the belief that the members of Hart House would be inclined to indulge to excess if enabled to purchase it without restraint.

"We must consider the obnoxious element in undergraduate society," (Continued on page 4)

OVERWHELMING VOTE IN FAVOUR OF WOMEN

Newman Debater Decried
State of Highly Paid
Women

OO NO GOOOD TO WORLD

The modern woman scored another victory when the voting went 37 to 12 in favour of the affirmative of the resolution "That this house approves of the modern woman" at a debate at Newman Club yesterday afternoon.

The first speaker for the affirmative made use of the fact that a large number of the women members of the club were present in stating that since these were examples of the modern women, his opponents could scarcely disapprove of their character. He felt sure the opposition would paint the modern woman as "a composition of Miss Pankhurst, Aimee Semple MacPherson, and Peaches Brownings, and proceed to attack her as such."

Speaking first for the negative, John McCullough, of the Faculty of Medicine, accused woman of "stepping down from a pedestal" in claiming equality with men, "only to use talents fitted for something far greater." "What's the use," he said, "of a woman earning $5,000 a year if she has no prospects of marrying? When a man gets a good job he uses the money to found a home and be some use in the world." He also deplored (Continued on page 4)

ERRATUM

The Croft Chapter House tea, which was mentioned in "The Varsity" on Friday will not take place until next Thursday, March 6th, from 4 to 6 o'clock. It will be in charge of the departments of mathematics, physics, philosophy and psychology. All university students as well as graduate students in these departments are invited.

Hart House Elections

Undergraduates are reminded that they will be required to show their Hart House membership cards with Hart House stamp attached at the door of the room allotted to their faculty or college for voting purposes next Wednesday.

Membership stamps for those who have not already obtained them may be had on application at the Hall Porter's desk not later than 2 p.m. on Tuesday 4th March. No membership stamps will be issued after that hour until the elections are over.

M'GILL SAVANT FINDS NEW VALUED EXTRACT

Will Be Dispensed to Doctors
Under Certain Specified
Conditions

STILL EXPERIMENTING

Friday evening in the Mining Building, Dr. J. B. Collip of McGill, told the Canadian Chemical Association of his discovery of a new extract for the treatment of women's functional disorders. Warm and unrestrained tribute was paid to him by Dr. F. G. Banting and Dr. C. H. Best, with whom he had formerly collaborated in their discovery of insulin.

Dr. Collip outlined the experiments he had made, the nature of his discovery, what has been achieved so far and the theories arising therefrom. Dr. Collip's brief address was illustrated by slides, and he concluded by announcing that he was prepared to supply physicians with limited amounts of his precious extract, under specified conditions.

Because so little of the extract has been produced to date, and its use is still in the experimental stage, Dr. Collip felt that the greatest care and restriction must be exercised in its use and experimentation by himself as well as others. He had no objection, however, to allowing reputable physicians to use his extract both to hasten the determination of its exact field of usefulness and to widen the scope of experimentation. Dr. Collip (Continued on page 4)

BUSINESS MEN RELAX IN FICTION

Professors, Too, Recreate in Popular Detective
Tales

RELIEVE STRAIN OF EXAMS

Students who have been apt to go to the Reference Library for instructive purposes, have, no doubt, noticed tired business men and professional men who have slipped in to get a bit of recreation in the form of Detective Stories.

It was learned lately that some of the professors of the University of Toronto have found that "The Gold Bug", and other such stories afforded much relaxation from the tedious strain of reading exam papers, "the hardest part of our work," as one member of the faculty remarked.

"A Crime Club, similar to our Book of the Month Club, has been formed in the United States," one professor remarked in speaking of the vogue of the detective story, "and has been found very helpful by a large majority of thrill seekers." Librarians of the Toronto Public Library have noticed that detective stories are those most in demand, and not least Leacock's "Defective Detective".

A member of the English Department thought perhaps he might be the cause of corrupting one person's morals by suggesting reading of this popular kind of fiction.

WOMEN'S BUILDING COMMITTEE THINK STUDENTS MAY AID

Conclave Held Showed How Others Dealt With Housing

SUGGESTION FROM CHICAGO

Other Varsities Have Health Service and Physical Education

The question of a student committee to assist the Women's Building Committee, composed of alumnae and wives of members of the faculty, was brought up at the meeting of the committee held last week, "The Varsity" was informed by Miss Berta Hamilton, convener for publicity. It was decided that it would be most unfair to expect the students to give the time which would be necessary to take an active part, but Miss Hamilton stressed the point that any expressions of interest or enquiries from the students would be welcome.

Inquiries have been sent to various universities in the United States to ascertain the methods by which they have dealt with this problem which is proving so pressing at the University of Toronto. Miss Hamilton has already received interested replies and information from the University of Chicago, Vassar College, and Barnard College, Columbia University. (Continued on page 4)

E. W. BEATTY SPEAKER AT MCGILL GRAD DINNER

Lauds System of Education
Which Alma Mater
Represents

E. W. Beatty, president of the C.P.R., believes in private ownership of universities as well as of railroads. This fact was brought out at the annual dinner of McGill alumni held in the Royal York Friday evening, and at which he was guest of honour. "I graduated from the University of Toronto, was later Chancellor of Queen's and later still Chancellor of McGill, and surely I may hope that now I have found a final academic resting place," said Mr. Beatty.

"McGill occupies an unique position in this country," Mr. Beatty went on, "in that it is the only one that does not get its help almost entirely or exclusively from the state. I believe in the private ownership of railways and the system of education that McGill presents. McGill has always been faithful to its standards in a way not always possible to other universities."

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Should Rugby Receive Most T's

"Should more University first colours (T's) be awarded in rugby than in any other sport?"

J. C. Sinclair, III Medicine—

"No, I think other sports are just as important."

Eleanor Sedgewick, III Victoria—

"No, I think they should be awarded proportionately."

E. S. Connor, III Medicine—

"The only reason there are more T's awarded in rugby is because it brings in the greatest revenue."

E. B. Paul, II University College—

"No, I don't think so."

H. A. C. Rose, I University College—

"Yes, they're harder to get in rugby than in other sports."

B. C. Hardy, I Medicine—

"I'm not interested."

Madelon Woodland, I Household Science—

"As I'm not interested in rugby, I'm impartial on the subject."

SENIORS TAKE O.H.A. GROUP TITLE AFTER THRILLING SCORELESS TILT

"Doc" Ames

Stellar Varsity goal-tender, whose playing featured Varsity's win over Nationals in the senior group final.

LIST OF VACANCIES IN COLONIAL SERVICE

Any Interested Students May Apply for Available
Positions

The Acting Registrar has received from the Colonial Office the following list of likely vacancies in the various Colonial Services:

Police and Customs Services of Malaya.

Police Service of Hong Kong.

Constabulary Forces of British Guiana, Trinidad and Jamaica.

Public Service of Ceylon.

Agricultural appointments in Tropical Africa and elsewhere.

There will probably be about 24 scholarships in Agricultural and Agricultural Science available.

Administrative Services of East and West Africa and Educational Services.

Survey Services.

Medical Services.

During July and August

Malayan Police Services 7

Federated Malay States Customs Services 2

Hong Kong Police Service 1

Trinidad Constabulary Force 1

Jamaica Constabulary Force 1

British Guiana Nil

Ceylon Police Service Nil

Any students who may be interested in these openings may obtain further information on application to the Acting Registrar, Simcoe Hall.

Senior Practice

Varsity Seniors will practice at the Varsity Arena at 5:45 p.m. today.

Blues Take Title by Virtue of 3-2 Victory in First Game

BOTH GOALIES STAR

Fans Crammed in Arena Watch
Most Exciting Game of Season

The five thousand fans who jammed their way into the U. of T. Arena on Saturday night saw Varsity seniors win their senior O.H.A. group by battling to a scoreless draw with Nationals in sixty minutes of thrill-packed hockey. The 0 to 0 count gave the Blues the verdict on the round by virtue of their 3 to 2 win in the first game of the series. It was one of the most hard-fought and exciting games of this or any other season. Time after time it seemed as though nothing but a miracle would avert a score on the part of either team and only superhuman work by the rival goalkeepers kept the tally sheet clean. To "Doc" Ames in the Varsity nets must go a large share of the credit for the victory. His phenomenal work in stopping shots from close in at all angles brought the crowd to its feet again and again. Bruce Paul also stood out for the Blues. He played a star game from gong to gong and deserved at least one goal.

The teams set a fast pace from the start. Lough broke through to test Ames with a hard one and then Marshall retaliated. The checking began to get close then and the pace slowed down a bit. Underwood was right in with only Ames to beat, but the "Doc" made a great save. Varsity had a golden opportunity a moment later when Dewar passed to Stewart at the goal mouth, but Mueller stopped both the shot and the rebounds. With a minute and a half to go the Sea Fleas staged a three-man rush that broke through the Blue defence. Beal shot from two feet out and Ames blocked nicely. He had a busy time in the scramble that followed.

The second twenty minutes was packed with excitement. Time after time the forwards would break through only to have Ames and Mueller stand them off. Some of the stops were of the impossible variety. Nationals' defence was proving a hard barrier to overcome, laying on the beef to good effect. Paul circled the Sea Flea net after a great solo rush but the puck hit the post. The checking was strenuous and rough work crept in at times. Only two penalties resulted however. Convey made a wonderful attempt, stickhandling through the entire Blue team, but Ames made another of his phenomenal saves. It looked like a certain goal.

The crowd was in an uproar throughout most of the final session as the teams continued to sail right in at top speed. Stewart and Marshall both had a whack at the puck from a scramble in front of the Red nets, but again Mueller was too good for them. Ames was called on re- (Continued on page 3)

VICTORIA STICK WINNERS ARE PROMINENT ATHLETES

Miss Marjorie Beer has been chosen by her classmates to hold the women's Senior Stick and Miss Eleanor Sedgewick to hold the women's Athletic Stick in the class of Victoria 3T1.

These honours are a Victoria tradition. The former is presented to the best all around girl in the year, and the latter to the most outstanding athlete.

The sticks will be presented at the Victoria College Senior reception in March.

Miss Evelyn Craw and Miss Norma Bateman have the honour of holding the sticks in the class of 3T0.

VICTORIA COLLEGE ELECTS PRESIDENT NEW STUDENT BODY

E. B. Jolliffe, Third Year, Voted Head of Entire Union

MOSS NOMINATIONS MADE

Aspirants Are All Prominent in the Life of the Undergrad

In the Victoria College Union elections held last Friday E. B. Jolliffe and Olive Ives were elected President and Vice-president respectively. Mr. Jolliffe was president of his sophomore year, is the Junior Representative for Victoria College on the S.A.C., and is also on the staff of Acta Victoriana. Miss Ives is the Secretary of the Vic Women's Undergraduate Association besides being a popular member of her year.

The class of 3T0 held nominations for the Moss Scholarship on Friday. The four nominees are: C. W. Leslie, J. R. A. Bright, Jean Pinchin, and Evelyn Craw. They are all prominent members of their class.

Mr. Leslie has won several scholarships previously. He has held numerous class executive positions and is the president of the Victoria College Students' Government. He was in the interfaculty soccer team this year also.

Mr. Bright entered college with a scholarship and has been a consistent winner along that line ever since. Rugby and boxing comprise his athletic activities. He was on the recent League of Nations Assembly also.

Vice-president of the Victoria Literary Society and a member of the Dramatic Society are two of the positions Miss Jean Pinchin holds. In her sophomore year Miss Pinchin was vice-president of the class. She is in the Honour course, English and His- (Continued on page 3)

MEN STUDY AT THEIR OWN RISK IN HOUSE

No Rooms Are Set Aside for Study in Sanctum of Males

CAN STUDY TO MUSIC

In Friday's issue of "The Varsity" a letter, signed "Hart House", appeared, complaining of the noise in "the study rooms" of that building interfering with those in the pursuit of knowledge. "There are no rooms set aside for study in Hart House," J. B. Bickersteth, warden of Hart House informed "The Varsity" on Saturday.

"Then the writer of that letter really has no cause for complaint?" "The Varsity" asked the warden.

"I wouldn't make a statement like that, but our idea is that the place is absolutely free and open to all members," Mr. Bickersteth replied.

Next "The Varsity" went snooping about the buildings in an attempt to detect some person in the act of studying. In the debates room was found one, H. J. Howard, II Victoria. "I'm not in a position to say anything about the noise," he said, "as I seldom use Hart House for studying. I prefer the library."

A second student, E. J. McIvor, I University College, was found in the east common room. "You are the first disturbance in the past hour," he remarked. "Of course the boys have been playing the piano, but I study better to music. At any rate no noise could be more disturbing than the clanking pipes in the university library."

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... Lou GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32
ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: K. J. Erwin

MONDAY, MARCH 3rd, 1930

LACK OF SPACE

Owing to lack of sufficient space for the news, correspondence and sports of the week-end, the editorial is being held over for a later issue.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Still a Chance!

Editor,
"The Varsity".
Dear Sir:
"The Puritan of '32 U.C." certainly has my most heartfelt sympathy and many good men of us feel that there is a bond of common grievance uniting him to us in a strong brotherhood of silent understanding.

How many a fine fellow has struggled hard to conceal his disappointment, perhaps even his disgust, when the object of his affections appears before him in all her artificiality; lips of a colour seen in nature only in side-show ladies; her hair a more or less perfect example of the hair-dresser's art, which makes one desire to gloriously ruffle it all up just for the sake of seeing destroyed that too perfect picture of lines and waves, and not with any of the same feelings with which our grandfathers may have fondled the long and beautiful tresses of our grandmothers; and, worst of all, holding in her hands, blackened with nicotine, the diabolical stick of sin, which some male social lion has given to her and helped her to light. I am sure that he, like the rest of the brotherhood of the disappointed, have felt at such moments his heart rise up within him and a lump in his throat, and the bitter tears well up and overflow.

But courage, "Puritan of '32", better times are coming. Already skirts are tending to a decent length, and no longer does the uncovered patella appear with any universality. A start has been made in the right direction, and slowly but surely the tide is turning the other way. Women are, after all, the slaves of men's desires, and when they come to realize our preferences, the painted face and the blackened hand will go the way of the short skirt; the ethical teachings of the professors will take effect, and the ladies, bless them, will become the gentle and beautiful maidens of Romance, the manners of men will change to the old-fashioned chivalrous brand, and life will again be the beautiful story in which Galahads such as we can woo by valiant deeds the quiet comely maid. Yours, with hope and patience,
Aspasia's 56th Boy Friend.

Cigars and Women

The Editor,
"The Varsity".
Dear Sir:
Appearing in your columns of a recent date is a letter from a Puritan friend of U.C. who decries women smoking. Upon his stand we would like to congratulate him.

If the women of Varsity follow the example of their Vienna sisters of about fifty years ago we might find the following state of affairs occurring. The young man proposing to the one lady on the earth whom (in mental aberration) he invests with angelic qualities, might have to pause a moment to allow his angel to remove her cigar—accurately drawn a fly on the side of a convenient cuspidor (probably having to pass a handkerchief across her chin in consequence)—and then ask him if his intentions are honourable. As he kisses his virgin tenderly on her fair brow it would rather disconcert him to be burned on the neck by her inconvenient weed.

Probably the couple in front of the library the other day would not have enjoyed themselves so much if they had had to observe the "six inch limit" which will soon be necessary.
Truly yours,
'34 Meds.

The Last of Beer

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:
It is with the greatest surprise and amusement that I have followed during the last week the "Beer Question". I could not imagine that "The Varsity" would take the trouble of taking a unique but useless vote on the matter because of the playfulness and idiosyncy of a certain gentleman who, as it were, delights to hark in the light of notoriety as appears to be carrying on, unassisted, a publicity campaign for himself and also because a certain 370 man from Victoria (surely not representative of that class) writes a lot of Tommy-rot in high-sounding, but nevertheless asinine language against the horrors and dealiness of Beer.

Let me suggest sir, for the benefit of these two gentlemen a Children's Section in which their childish playfulness may have full sway; and that somebody in the office be appointed, let us say Peter Rabbit, to whom they may address their letters that anyone would take as coming from a person that is still travelling on three-cent car tickets.

A Sympathizer.

Editorial Note—This is the last letter that will be run on the beer question.

Brotherly Advice

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:
A Puritan of '32 U.C. certainly should have the sympathy of all thinking undergraduates. A person who is so obviously behind the times in social technique must lead a terrible life. Perhaps he would not resent a few helpful suggestions for combating the modern maiden. Firstly, if the girl friend evinces a desire to
(Continued on page 4)

CHAMPUS CAT

"Mr. Noless," we said, "the old colm is running low. What we need in it is to pop it up. How about an interview with someone?"

Mr. Noless nodded agreement, at the same time making a mental note of our handsome anthropoid features for a future write-up. "Who would you suggest Mr. McGuffey?" he asked. "Well, how about the Puritan?" we suggested. "Get a line on tastes, habits, and so forth. Do you know, we are frankly very curious about that young man. When we first read his letter we suspected that it was a subtle mouthwash advertisement, but after studying it again we believed that it was a tract, but could find no reference to "Our Nell" or the reconditioned bandit who became missionary and went to darkest Africa. So we are puzzled about the whole affair."

"It is much too cold to go out tonight," replied Mr. Noless, ignoring our curiosity. "I think it would be much easier to interview you, Mr. Guffey."

"Tut tut now! Forget it! Go ahead!" we answered, blushing prettily.

"Then would you mind sitting there where the light plays upon your face so that we can study it for description?" Mr. Noless requested.

"Certainly," we replied. "How is that?"

Mr. Noless eyed us keenly for a moment, but did not seem altogether satisfied.

"Perhaps you would look better in the half light," he suggested. "Hang that paper over the shade."

"Well, is that all right now?" we asked, somewhat disappointed.

"That is better, but not quite right yet. Let me see—"

"Oh bother!" we said testily, turning out the light, and leaving the room in darkness.

"There, that is what I want! You look much better. Now tell me Mr. McGuffey, is it true that you come from a distinguished Macedonian family?"

"On the contrary," we answered proudly. "We are the last of a fine old Irish family of bog-trotters, whose motto and battle cry was 'For the love of Peat!' But see here Mr. Noless, never mind us. Go ahead and write up the interview in your own inimitable way. Mention the lovely spring weather beaming through the transom and say how much you were impressed by our hospitality. And don't forget to make the interview in the Royal Cork Hotel!"

"Splendid," cried Mr. Noless. "But we beat him to it and made a scoop."

Gaspard McGuffey.

About $50,000 was saved by 57 wives of Yale graduate and professional students while their husbands were going to school, according to a recent report of the university bureau of appointments.

Twenty-five men turned out for Iowa's spring football squad. Only passing was practiced the first day.

If T here is one S how that you R ally should see, it is
"The W ay of the World" which is A smart and pepp Y revue in
3 acts and 18 scenes.
Of C ourse,
the F act that Maureen O'Mara

wrote T means that you will H ear some real N ew music and there is a cast that W ould do justice T o the best B roadway
musical R evue,
so D on't miss it.

HART HOUSE THEATRE
By permission of the Syndics
WEEK'COM
TUESDAY MAR. 11
SEATS NOW

DANCING LESSONS
REDUCED RATES
Strictly Private - 6 for $5.00
Semi Private - 6 for $4.00
(Two pupils to take same lesson)
HARRY WALFORD-KI. 4682
Address—55 WELLESLEY ST.

The Canadian Literature Club
OF TORONTO
will meet in Castle Memorial Hall,
McMaster University
This evening at 8.15
Prof. Pelham Edgar,
B.A., Ph.D., J.H.U.
will speak on
"Marjorie L. C. Piekthall:
In Lyric verse Drama and Fiction."

SHEA'S
HIPPODROME
The Smartest Show in Town!
On the stage

Anatole Friedland's
TWELVE O'CLOCK REVUE
With a Dozen Broadway Favorites
Including
MARTY MAY
LUCILLE HAYES
And a Bunch of the Most Talented and Beautiful Girls in the World
Additional R. K. O. Acts

On the Screen

Wedding Rings
with
LOIS WILSON
H. B. WARNER

Sister against sister for the same man's love... fighting recklessly for possession - which one wins, enchantress or wallflower?

WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM

43 glorious days with your friends and fellow students, and all expenses for $424.25

SCOTLAND HOLLAND ENGLAND BELGIUM
FRANCE

A Special All Student Tour

arranged and directed by
The National Federation of Canadian University Students

A chaperone will go with the Tour and an experienced leader will also accompany it throughout.
For further information apply to A. GORDON BURNS, S.A.C. Office, Hart House, TR. 5036.
Sailing via Canadian Pacific

The Man O'War of All Musical Shows

All the gobs and all their sweethearts off on the year's grand joy-bender... miz up in this big festival of laughter, song and sailor love.

Songs! Laughs! Girls in Grand Abundance

HIT THE DECK

starring

JACK OAKIE
POLLY WALKER
And a Thousand Others

"MONTMARTRE"
A Jock Arthur Presentation
Featuring
Cortez and Helene—and Others

KID GLOVES ANTICIPATE SPRINGTIME

These sunshine hours make "something new" imperative. Kid gloves made from soft pliant skins that fit as smartly as your own skin; clever little tricks of embroidery or applied ornament; every imaginable combination of colour. Some of these gloves were to have been sold at $3.00. A late shipment reduces them to $1.98.

Tune in Every Wednesday, 7 p.m., CFCA
Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET At Richmond AD. 8896 768 YONGE STREET Next door to Uptown Theatre KI. 3600 2496 YONGE STREET Next door to Capitol Theatre HU. 4790 OPEN EVENINGS

VARSITY HOLDS NATIONALS TO 0-0 TIE WINNING O.H.A. GROUP

QUEEN'S BASKETBALL FIVE BEATS VARSITY

Eke Out Victory by One Point in Closing Moments of Play

PLAY CLOSE THROUGHOUT

A basket scored within thirty seconds of the final bell gave Queen's University senior basketball team a one-point victory over University of Toronto Saturday night, after as thrilling a court battle as the intercollegiate series has witnessed in many a moon.

Right at the start of the second half, Varsity snatched the lead from the undefeated group leaders, and held it intact through a hectic nineteen minutes and a half. With three minutes to go the score was 30-25. With one minute to play, the Tricolour had tied it at 30-all. Then Currie scored for Toronto, and the game appeared to be over. Queen's called time out, and came back after their rest to win the game on a free throw and a beautiful long-distance shot by Elliott.

Penalty shots lost the game for Varsity. The seventeen fouls registered against the boys in blue gave Queen's twenty-two free shots, and the Presbyterian sharpshooters made them count for fifteen points, nearly half their total score. Varsity made but four points out of the six fouls called on Queen's players.

The game itself was as thrilling a struggle as the most rabid fan could desire. Varsity surprised even their own supporters by the way they forced the pace throughout the game. O'Leary at centre was outstanding in a team that played like a whole galaxy of stars. He excelled as a court general and playmaker, feeding his team mates constantly, and finding time to score an occasional basket himself.

Sutton and Elliott were the most important cogs in the smooth-working Tricolour machine. The rangy Elliott was high scorer for the evening with 12 points. Bews turned in a useful game on the defence, and potted six points in eight penalty throws.

Varsity—Riggs 4, Davey 6, O'Leary 7, Currie 6, Sakler 4, Collins, Wood, Cock 4.

Queen's University—Elliott 12, Sutton 10, Dickey, McLaughlin 4, Bows 6, Fenwick 1, Carter, Myer.

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

Harry Skitch
Sayer

START RIGHT—BUY MADE TO MEASURE CLOTHES—BECAUSE—Quality Materials ADD to your appearance.

Properly fitted clothes MULTIPLY your chances of success. Spring styles direct from Designers' Convention at Cleveland, Ohio.

PRICES $35.00 TO $50.00
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

The Harry Skitch Company Limited

9 ADELAIDE STREET EAST
Above Ellen Bradley's Grill

WATER-POLOISTS WIN FROM M'GILL SEPTET

Better Combination Takes Red and White Team into Camp

GRAHAM PLAYS WELL

Montreal, March 1st—The Varsity water polo team will carry a two-goal lead into the return game which takes place in the Hart House natatorium next Saturday for the intercollegiate title as a result of their 5 to 3 victory over McGill to-night. The winners displayed the better combination play, but the fast Munroe Bourne, the Red and White centre forward, gave his team the edge in speed.

The locals got away to a flying start in the first half, scoring three goals. To commence the second frame McGill tied it up on three beautiful long shots which found the twine. Then the Varsity septet came to life and notched two goals to give them the verdict.

Varsity got its initial counter when Armstrong tipped in the rebound on Alexander's free shot after being fouled by Matham. The Blue and White poloists missed countless chances to score until Armstrong made it two. Shortly afterwards Eddie Sinclair tallied his first goal of the season on a shot from in close.

Gilman, Gibbons and Bourne put the Red and White on even terms with the U. of T. squad when they scored on long shots in rapid succession. Then Harvey Graham came through in heroic style to score both of his team's last two counters. The first one was on a long shot from the side, which found the corner of the net. Eddie Sinclair made a long pass for Varsity's final goal.

Varsity—Goal, Ayres; defence, Sinclair, Spence; rover, Glass; centre, Armstrong; forwards, Alexander and Graham; subs, Shortt, Blackwell, Ward.

McGill—Goal, Gardner; defence, Mathams, Gilman; rover, Gibbons; centre, Bourne; forwards, Shackell, Mercereau; subs, Buckley, Astwood, Doig.

McGILL SWIMMERS SWAMP BLUE; COLLEGIATE TITLE

Montreal, Feb. 28—McGill swamped Varsity to-night at the K. of C. tank to take the intercollegiate Swimming Title by a 44 to 24 score. The Red and White took first place in every event but one, Eddie Sinclair capturing the 200 yards breast stroke for the sole Blue first place. Munroe Bourne, stellar McGill natator, was the outstanding performer of the evening, capturing three first places and one second. In the 200 yards free style he clipped 1-5 second off the intercollegiate mark.

For Varsity Eddie Sinclair's performance was the most auspicious, while Tedman and Henderson in the 50 yard free style and the former in the relay turned in nice efforts.

50 yards free style—1, Springer, (M); 2, Tedman (V); 3, Henderson (V). Time, 26 2-5 secs.

200 yds free style—1, Bourne (M); 2, Marsh (V); 3, Glass (V). Time, 2 min., 10 2-5 secs.

Diving—1, Gibbons (M), 74.43 pts; 2, Henderson, (V), 55.6 pts; 2, Nevitt (V), 52.2 pts.

100 yds back stroke—1, Bourne (M); 2, Wilson (M); 3, Towers (V). Time, 1 min., 10 3-5 secs.

100 yds free style—1, Buckley (M); 2, Bourne (M); 3, Marsh (V). Time, 1 min., 2 secs.

200 yds breast stroke—1, Sinclair (V); 2, Austin (M); 3, Withrow (V). Time, 2 min., 55 secs.

440 yds free style—1, Bourne (M); 2, Glass (V); 3, Towers (V). Time, 5 min., 56 2-5 secs.

200 yds relay—1, McGill (Buckley, Bourne, Shaw, Springer). Time, 1 min., 47 4-5 secs.

SPEAKING OF SPORT

The old Allan Cup wouldn't look so bad reposing in the trophy case in Hart House once again. Varsity Grads brought it here in '27, but it is nine years since a University of Toronto undergraduate team won the Canadian Senior Amateur Hockey Championship.

Varsity's victory over Nationals in the Senior A series final disposed of one of the strongest teams in senior hockey. Nationals were being hailed as the team to beat for the Ontario honours and the Blue and White have beaten them.

If Thursday's game was a great one, Saturday night's was better. The Varsity Arena was jammed to the roof with a crowd that kept up an incessant roar as both teams burned up the ice. Ames and Mueller, rival goalies, turned in magnificent exhibitions of goal tending. It is difficult to single out any individual player on the Varsity team as outstanding, but Paul and Whitehead had an edge on their team mates. Paul's rushing was a constant menace to Mueller, while Whitehead in his fourth game as a right winger, played his position perfectly and back checked consistently.

Varsity juniors meet West Toronto to-night at the downtown Arena in the first game of the O.H.A. semi-finals. West Toronto has been running up big scores in their recent games and the Varsity defence will be in for a busy evening.

The Varsity water polo team has a two-goal lead for its return game here with McGill Saturday. The Blue defeated McGill 5-3 Saturday at Montreal in the first game for the intercollegiate title.

Varsity lost another intercollegiate championship over the week-end. McGill took the swimming away from us.

Varsity women's intermediate basketball team lost their third straight game when the Margaret Eaton outfit defeated them by a 35-20 score at the M.E.S. gym on Friday night. Varsity's showing was very disappointing in view of the fine game they put up against the Blue seniors last Tuesday. The whole Varsity outfit seemed confused and their tactics at times were open to question. The defence repeatedly passed the ball in under their opponents' basket, and besides this, they repeatedly switched checks in the middle of a play.

INTERMEDIATES TAKE GAME FROM M'MASTER

Combination Easily Thwarts Mac-Men's Efforts to Tally

The Intermediates defeated McMaster Friday at the Varsity Arena 8 to 2. The game was not an exhibition of good hockey, but at times the Varsity crew uncorked a flashy combination. The sub line on the Varsity outfit has a real smooth way of working through their opponents. Conn, Percyman and Ferguson were the best players on the ice. Graham on defence made several nice attempts at rushing, but was rewarded with only one tally. He was usually stopped at the blue line when he slowed up.

Dick, for McMaster, turned in a fast game and worked hard from start to finish. The McMaster six were handicapped by lack of combination and were quite helpless when Varsity displayed the puck-passing game. In the first period their goalie let in two shots when Ferguson filtered through the whole team with some tricky stick-handling. In the second period the Mac goalie could not save when Varsity used their game and Leak scored. Leak aided in the next tally when Malcolm scored. In the third frame Varsity took three more chalk marks to their credit from the sticks of Ferguson, Percyman and Graham.

Ferguson was the most outstanding man on the ice and was responsible for four of Varsity's eight goals. Lawson for McMaster tried hard from going to goal and got one of their two goals.

Varsity—Goal, McCartney; defence, Graham, Malcolm; wings, Percyman, Conn; centre, Ferguson; sub, Clute. McMaster—Goal, Westbrook; defence, Smith, Pike; wings, Lawson, Hall; centre, Dick; subs, Walther, Granger, Duncan, Stibbards.

SENIORS TAKE TITLE

(Continued from page 1)

peatedly to make hard stops. Paul's rushes featured the Blue attacks and only Mueller's great work kept him off the score sheet. Nationals were in a bad hole near the end of the period with McKay and Convey in the penalty box at the same time, but Varsity failed to take advantage of the opportunity. The Blues had more in reserve at the end and grimly hung on to the tiring Sea Fleas till the bell rang.

Although Ames and Paul were the standouts, the whole Varsity team played great hockey and the good work of Whitehead and the leech-like tactics of Freddy Murray being especially prominent.

The Sea Fleas were great in defeat. Mueller was the shining light in their efforts, but every man on the team, more especially Lough and McKay, battled desperately for the whole sixty minutes.

The crowd was almost a record for the "T" Arena, and at least three thousand more were turned away.

Varsity—Goal, Ames; defence, Paul and Dowar; centre, Stewart; wings, Murray and Marshall; alternates, McMullen, Harley and Whitehead.

Nationals—Goal, Mueller; defence, Nugent and McKay; centre, Lough; wings, Beal and J. Kane; alternates, Collins, Convey and Underwood.

Referee—Jack Hemphill.

Varsity Juniors to Meet W. Toronto in Semi-Final

Varsity juniors are all primed to meet West Toronto to-night at the Arena Gardens in the first of a two-game series to determine who will oppose Niagara Falls in the O.H.A. finals. Both teams have had a pretty strenuous schedule this season. West Toronto this past week disposed of Kingston quite handily by 15-0, while the Blue and White made the most of a week's rest.

The Junction lads are the favourites because of their smart forward line. The defence work displayed is not quite as strong. Varsity, on the other hand, are strong defensively, with a forward line that has been beaten (Continued on page 4)

A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY

Though Winter may still make a brave fight, yet Spring's advance scouts are already in sight, holding out a promise of gay days ahead. At such times the spirit of unrest is abroad . . . an urge for newer brighter things. It is in response to this feeling that men's garb changes, and in our Men's Clothing Department you will find just the change you need . . . fine fabrics . . . original patterns . . . a magnificent array of suits tailored in the modern manner—all that youth might ask of clothes is here to choose from.

Second Floor,
James Street.

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

FREEMAN'S—Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
571 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

ST. GEORGE GARAGE

Rear 64 St. George St., Entrance off Russell St.

The nearest Garage to the University for

STORAGE, REPAIRS,

CARS WASHED, AND GREASED, QUICK SERVICE

Phone K1. 0643

MEET AT

"The Sign of the Lantern" Tea Rooms
5 WILLCOCKS STREET

Breakfast 25c.

Luncheon 35c.

Dinner 40c.

Open until 11.30 p.m.

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $4.00
Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1865

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

250 College St. TRINITY 5007

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Lending Library.

Tuesday
March 4th

NOMINATION MEETING OF U.C. "LIT" 8.00 p.m.

(Junior Common Room)

Coming Events

MONDAY, MARCH 3
Inter-St. Michael's debate at Loretto College. The motion is "This house deprecates the decline of monarchies."

TUESDAY, MARCH 4
1 p.m.—Open meeting of Victoria College Music Club in Alumni Hall.
5.00 p.m.—Meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. at Wymilwood.
8.00—Trinity soph-frosh smoker in Trinity House.
Nominations for officers for 3T2 Victoria close. Get your nominations in early.
8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of the M. and P. Society at the Women's Union. Dancing.
8.00 p.m.—Last meeting of the U.C. Lit. Nominations for society executive and year executives.
8.30—Soph-senior party at Wymilwood.
3T1 Victoria nominations close.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5
Hart House Elections.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6
Hart House elections.
German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig", "Ein Knopf", at Women's Union.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7
9.30 a.m.—3 p.m.—General election for all societies at Victoria College. Victoria College senior reception.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13
11.00 a.m.—U.C. Elections.

OVERWHELMING VOTE
IN FAVOUR OF WOMEN
(Continued from page 1)

the decline in the art of cooking. The second speaker for the affirmative, Con Daly, St. Michael's College, stated the old fashioned woman whose only ambition was marriage represented a total economic loss.

Alan Conway, Faculty of Medicine, did not consider that the women present were modern. He deplored the rise of the "hard boiled" type of woman. He said that in view of the fact that it referred to cooking, "it ought to be incomprehensible to every girl here". He harked back with feeling to the "good old days when the sight of an ankle was a thrill." The modern version of the "helpmate" was a "playmate", he said.

STUDENT RATE
8 Lessons $5.00

This rate is offered to students only. Applicants must present registration card.

Jack Slatter's orchestra at Thursday advanced classes. Dancing till midnight.
Beginners' class Tuesday 8.30.
Private lessons by appointment.

DACOSTA
Studio of Dancing
Columbus Hall RA. 8650

BULLETIN BOARD

TRINITY MEN!

To-morrow, Tuesday night, the annual soph-frosh smoker will be held. All men of '32 and '33 are urged to attend. Food. Entertainment.

MEN OF 3T1 VICTORIA

The executive has decided to change the method of receiving nominations for the Senior and Athletic Sticks. A ballot box will be placed in the college hall to-morrow, Tuesday, between 12 noon and 2 p.m. All men are requested to cast five names for each Stick. The five highest will be voted upon Friday, March 7.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The shoot for March will be fired this week. The interfaculty meet has been postponed till the week of March 9th.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 2)
hold your hand, firmly demand that she don her gloves lest she stain your lily white palm with nicotine. Secondly, if you are sensitive about the odour of the wicked weed, always drink deeply of wood alcohol before indulging in the joys of osculation. Some prefer rubbing alcohol for this purpose since its odour is more penetrating. Thirdly, it has been found that certain forms of grease, notably Alemitte, have the property of preventing the adhesion of various pigments. Hence, if you are shy about appearing in nine o'clock lectures with your manly map smeared with unremovably ducced cupid's bows, just grease your physiognomy before stepping out in the evening. I trust that these few suggestions will enable "A Puritan" to defend himself against the wiles of the wild wimmin.

However, I fear if he does score, it will only be a temporary victory because woman is rapidly invading the realm of science and ere long some female savant will invent a lipstick that will firmly adhere to the most slippery of male countenances. Also the more hardy females will doubtless take to smoking pipes and not even the most powerful of beverages can combat the omnipresent odour of a venerable incinerator.

When this terrible prediction comes to pass mere man will either have to retire from social life or affect a diver's suit for all formal functions.

Yours for the advancement of protective science.

Aspasia's 57th Boy Friend.

Twenty University of Missouri cods in pajamas fled to the snow covered streets and chilly outdoors recently to escape flames which swept through their rooming house.

SIZZLING STORIES

The wine-emboldened beast lurched to the sofa, and putting Virginia down beside him encircled her suggestively with a loutish arm. "Sofa, so good!" he joked coarsely. Another moment and, the flickering lamp extinguished, a scream rang out upon the frosty air. The lamp relit, a demented woman, maddened with shame, knelt screaming: "He kissed me! I am undone!" He had. She was.

This actually happened in a well-known Toronto residence. TUSH has the twisted hairpins to prove it.

"Ah! what a magnificent legacy," remarked a well-known Hamilton street cleaner as he, entered by mistake (?) the ladies' bath.

A well-known King's Counsel of Minico paddled a girl across the Toronto Bay, so TUSH is informed—and then he playfully paddled her back!

MAY WE PRESUME TO INQUIRE

Whether the well-known professor of Hypothetical Bacteriology who habitually dons his trousers before the unprotected window of his home in Rosedale is aware that he is no infrequently the focus of the attention of quite a little crowd?

Whether the well-known Oakville life-saver who has recently adopted a luckless bathing suit thinks he could get away with such behaviour within the limits of civilization?

Why Mayor Wemp took a noted American steel man to lunch at Stoddard's the other day, and if the Evening Telegram knows about it?

Whether Mr. Alex Stringer has yet adopted the new crimson underwear, and who cares if he hasn't?

Whether Mr. Nate Adams promised his granduncle on his deathbed never to clutch another crock?

How many of the brazen nudes ap-

VICTORIA COLLEGE
ELECTS PRESIDENT
(Continued from page 1)

Miss Craw's interests are varied too. She is Senior Stick Holder this year. She was on "The Varsity" staff for two years and a vice-president of her class one term. She has her junior "T" for hockey and baseball. In her second year she won the Regent's English Prize. Miss Craw is honouring in Modern History.

A new $380,000 infirmary is rapidly nearing completion at the University of California.

"Tush"

The Column With a Kick

By P. A. Gardner

pearing on Hart House posters were posed for by girls who had sold their souls for kisses and toasted sandwiches?

Whether the Government is going to investigate the hideous practice in the Botany department of deliberately encouraging the seduction of innocent daffodils by sensual sunflowers in order to produce a cross-bred monstrosity to bedeck millady's bonnet?

A LITTLE BIRD TELLS US

That a certain sassy grass-widow is greatly attracted by a well-known India-rubber magnate, and that he is not inflexible to her wiles.

That Vic 3T0 is really a non-deplume of Trample-Tarzon Shields, the Scourge of the Unbelievers.

That R. E. Knowles, Jr., refused a glass of champagne in Wycliffe the other evening.

That a certain well-known lecturer in Forestry has never even handled a bucksaw.

That seventeen corsets were ruined at the School At-Home.

That the Hart House elections are fixed. TUSH can prove this is those interested will help raise bail for the witness, who is at present in the penitentiary for perjury. No contribution too small. $1.00 minimum.

That the degree M.R. has been officially adopted by Victoria as the goal of a special two-year course of instruction by Medical undergraduates. For those with only three weeks to spare special night classes may be arranged with U.C. men. (Adv.)

That a certain eminent divine is in the habit of holding "choir practices" on Sunday nights after church for the fairest members of his choir. We advise any girls who are in this fellow's clutches to get in touch immediately with TUSH. If you send your photograph you'll probably hear from us.

MCGILL SAVANT FINDS
NEW VALUED EXTRACT
(Continued from page 1)

stated that very encouraging results had been already achieved in treating feminine disorders arising from sub-normal ovarian function by injections of his extract.

He indicated that steps had been taken to prevent the commercial exploitation of his discovery and that supervised production of the extract by a responsible institution would be begun as soon as the field of its application was definitely known.

A vote of thanks to Dr. Collip was moved by Dr. C. H. Best and Dr. F. G. Banting, co-discoverers of insulin, and Dr. Best declared that the profession was proud that a Canadian had made "this great discovery of a new active principle so valuable to medical science." Dr. V. E. Henderson, professor of pharmacology, acted as chairman. The audience was composed chiefly of medical men, biochemists, chemists and research workers. Immediately afterwards the modest discoverer of the new extract entrained for Montreal. He had earlier in the evening been the guest of honour of the Canadian Chemical Association at a banquet in Hart House.

VARSITY JUNIORS TO MEET

(Continued from page 3)
coming better all along. Frank Sullivan's men on their year's performance have played a good back checking game, and should break up West Toronto's rushes at mid-ice. Anything that gets through will be well taken care of by husky Alex Levinsky, Williamson and Hunnisett.

The second game is scheduled for Wednesday night at the downtown ice palace. With goals to count on the round, both teams will be fighting hard to-night to carry a lead into the second game.

A state university of Brazil is to be established at Minas Geraes, in accordance with a plan chosen by public vote.

Sports Suit and Afternoon Frock
Two of a New Spring Collection

BELTS—you'll notice—have taken to the normal waistline, sleeves of frocks are short, skirts flared.

Smart Sports Suit. Sleeveless dress and jacket. Bright blue and white tweed. Sizes 13 to 19. $25.
Short sleeves and clever seamings add interest to this Frock of Havana crepe. Sizes 13 to 19. $17.50.

Junior Misses' Department
Third Floor

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

Have Your Brakes Tested
AND SAVE 10
SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE
205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KL. 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

COLLEGE GOWNS
CAPS and
HOODS

HARCOURT &amp; SON

108 King St. W., Toronto

FREEMAN'S—571 Yonge Street—is the largest concern for the rental of dress clothes.

ROYAL ONTARIO
MUSEUM

253 Bloor Street West
Near Avenue Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.

Open daily, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

THE OFFICIAL
Varsity Blazers

WILL BE AVAILABLE
EARLY NEXT WEEK

Watch For Announcement

This is the only official blazer for University of Toronto students, approved by the Students' Administrative Council. Orders, authorizing the purchase of a blazer, may be secured at the office of the S.A.C.

THE HAROLD A. WILSON
COMPANY LIMITED
299 YONGE STREET At Dundas St. TORONTO

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, TUESDAY, MARCH 4th, 1930

No. 95

SOCIALIST FORMS OF LEGISLATION URGED FOR CANADA

Professor J. H. Illiffe Advises Public Control of Enterprises

DENOUNCES BROKERS

Political Equality Merely An Empty Phrase in Present Day

That Canada should be most keen on trying out Socialist and Communist forms of legislation for public control of industrial enterprise is urged by Professor J. H. Illiffe, assistant professor of the history of industrial art in the University of Toronto, writing in an article in the current issue of "The Canadian Forum," entitled "Salaries of Stockbrokers."

A severe arraignment of stock broking under present conditions, and stock brokers' methods in general is made by Professor Illiffe.

"The stock brokers stand outside the processes of production . . . . What they do is to arrange for those who have capital to use it to productive ends. This could as easily be done by a salaried official or manager," declares the writer in urging the state control of finance, with salaried managers instead of the brokerage system as it at present exists.

"The broker's part in industry is largely parasitic and a reasonably organized society would at once recognize the fact and institute an effective control of his operations," the article goes on to declare.

The professor explains the reason why the government, in his opinion, does not apply the principle of state control to brokerage as to liquor or hydro electric power. Nine-tenths of the population would view such a step favourably he says, yet the fact remains that our government finds its support chiefly among the economic classes.

CORAL FORMATION SHOWN IN LECTURE

Cambridge Professor Reveals Secrets of Coral Reefs—Changeable Habits

ILLUSTRATES BY SLIDES

Biological problems of coral reefs was the subject of the lecture given in the Physics Building yesterday afternoon by J. Stanley Gardiner, professor of zoology at the University of Cambridge, England.

For more than thirty years Professor Gardiner has made a minute study of coral reefs throughout the world, but particularly in the Indian Ocean, in temperate as well as tropical regions.

"A coral formation is peculiar in that it is a plant by day and an animal by night," declared Professor Gardiner.

The speaker went on to say that the corals in the Atlantic and Indo-Pacific oceans are utterly different. He also spoke of the corals of the tropical and temperate regions. "Corals will thrive in temperate as well as tropical regions," he said, "but in temperate regions they do not form into reefs." The lecture was illustrated by slides of pictures practically all taken under the surface of the water.

The speaker was introduced by Professor B. A. Bensley, head of the department of zoology at the University of Toronto. Professor Gardiner will deliver another lecture along the same line on Wednesday afternoon.

SHRINER COMMITTEE SEEKS RESIDENCES FOR CONVENTION

Must Obey University Rules in Case Application Is Accepted

WHOOPEE TO BE BANNED?

Arrangements Indefinite Yet—Matter Referred to Chief Potentate

Although application was made to the Superintendent's Office by the Shriners' Masonic Lodge for rooming accommodation during the coming convention in June and a reply was received by the latter, the offer of the university has as yet not been accepted according to Assistant Superintendent G. D. Maxwell, who is in charge of the arrangements.

The Shriners asked for the use of the university residences from the 10th to the 13th of June. The matter was taken up at the Superintendent's office and certain terms, limited by some rules and restrictions were sent to the Shriners. These rules are not to be made public, but it appears as though the rules are affording some difficulty to the Shriners. At a meeting of the Shriners' billeting committee on February 26, the offer of the university was discussed. No definite conclusion was reached, but the matter was referred to Mr. Henry, the Chief Potentate, for further consideration.

According to the university calendar there are three general rules designed to prevent hazing, the use of intoxicants and gambling in the university buildings. Maybe the Shriners don't want to leave the goat at home.

STUDENT COLLAPSES IN SCIENCE CLASSROOM

Unconscious Twenty Minutes, Is Taken Home Ill by Friends

Another student fainted on Monday in the general science class, but this time it was not done on a wager. He was carried to the cloakroom by his friends where he remained in a state of coma for about twenty minutes. Although it was suggested that a doctor be summoned, they explained that it was not necessary as he is an habitual sufferer.

Upon recovery he was still unable to support himself and it was necessary to carry him to the car that one of the undergraduates was kind enough to offer. Several students left the lecture after the incident.

3TD VICTORIA CLASS PARTY HELD AT WYMLWOOD

Friday evening at Wymilwood, 3TD Victoria held their last class party. In spite of the fact of it being the last, there were no signs of grief on anyone's face, but banter and laughter combined to make it a gay evening. The committee had decreed formal attire and expressions of satisfaction at this decree were heard on all sides. Miss M. E. T. Addison, Dean of Women, and Professor J. D. Robins each filled perfect roles as chaperons.

GRADUATING CLASS TEA

At the graduate students' tea, held yesterday afternoon at 81 St. George Street, Miss N. McKenzie, secretary of the School of Graduate Studies, received, and Miss Edith Martin and Miss Jean Hamilton, both of Moosejaw, poured tea.

J. B. BICKERSTETH, The Warden of Hart House who, it is rumoured, will succeed Sir Robert Falconer as President of the University of Toronto. Sir Robert will probably retire in two years time when he attains the age of 65. Mr. Bickersteth has been the Warden of Hart House since 1922. He is an Oxford Master of Arts.

STUDENT MISSES LUNCH WHILE PERUSING BIBLE

Queen's Hall Co-Ed Reads Old Testament Tales for First Time

A second year University College student, resident of Queen's Hall, while studying at the Library yesterday, became so engrossed that she stayed till an hour past her lunch time and missed her two o'clock lecture. Upon arriving home at two-thirty for lunch, her friends had some difficulty in convincing her of her mistake.

When interviewed by "The Varsity" she refused to give her name for publication, on the ground that insanity might be suspected. She stated that she had never been known to miss a meal before in order to study, and that she was not interested in reducing, not at any rate, to that extent. When questioned as to what she was studying, she replied that she had been reading the Bible (for Religious Knowledge purposes) for the first time, and the books of Jonah and Ruth were apparently responsible for the unusual lapse of memory. Upon leaving, she observed that she was going to try to prevent any ill effects by going out for lunch immediately, and by doing no more work for the rest of the day.

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Seeks Relief For Exams Wear

"How do you think the drear prospect of examinations could be brightened?"

Beth Conboy, IV Moderns, University College—

"Give us a break during the exam by serving a stimulant."

Miss V. A. Denary, IV Moderns, Victoria—

"Forget them; think of student tours."

Lloyd Boddy, II Commerce and Finance, University College—

"Don't harp on it so damn much."

Jocelyn Moore, II English and History, University College—

"More and better gum."

Beth Bertram, I Moderns, University College—

"Too personal a question to be asked with impunity."

J.D.G., III Political Science, Victoria—

"By imbibing small and discreet portions of alcohol."

Margaret Huston, III Philosophy, University College—

"Turn on the light."

D. A. Davidson, I English and History, University College—

"Try the Come method, every day in every way—"

Maudie Smith, III Moderns, University College—

"I had a pet idea that worked last year, you might try imagining your name in the paper with a string of first-class honours; it makes you work."

ALL UNIVERSITY RESIDENCES FILLED IN SUMMER MONTHS

Rules Are Much Relaxed Due to Mature Age of Residents

NO DRINKING REPORTED

Examiners and Students in Summer Courses Prove Model Tenants

The university residences do not lie idle during the summer months according to Colonel A. D. LePan, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds.

Colonel LePan said: "The university residences are used during the summer vacation by examiners and by students in the summer courses. The regulations against gambling, the use of liquor, and so on, are not relaxed at all, since they apply to the residences, not to individuals."

"The rules are much relaxed in the university residences during the summer months," A. T. Laidlaw, acting registrar and head of the residence committee, told "The Varsity".

"The reason is that there are more mature men in the residences, so there is not the need for so much supervision."

"Are the rules with regard to the use of intoxicants and gambling relaxed?" asked "The Varsity".

"There has never been any cause for considering this matter, although if it were disclosed that breaches of these rules were frequent, there would certainly be measures taken," replied Mr. Laidlaw.

The women's residences are also well filled during the summer with teachers taking extension courses within the university.

VICTORIA MDSS NDMINEES ELIMINATED TO TWO

C. W. Leslie and J. R. A. Bright Still in Running for Friday's Election

A preliminary election was held by the class of 3TD Victoria for the purpose of electing their candidate for the Moss Scholarship. The meeting was rather small and due to this fact, it seems it was decided the voting be one for eliminating the numbers of candidates.

C. W. Leslie and J. R. A. Bright are still in the field and the deciding ballot will be cast on Friday, the 7th.

FLUKE GOAL IN LAST THIRTY SECONDS DECIDES ISSUE AGAINST BLUE JUNIORS

Hart House Elections

The annual elections for Hart House committees take place to-morrow. Eight representatives from the various colleges and faculties will be elected to each of the six undergraduate committees, including House, Hall, Library, Sketch, Billiards and Music.

Undergraduates will be required to present their membership cards, with stamp attached, in order to vote.

MODERN WORSHIP SUBJECT OF NODN-HOUR ADDRESS

Stanley Russell Stresses Best Idea of Religion for Mankind

"Modern Worship" was the subject of Stanley Russell's talk on Friday at Wymilwood, which concluded a series of four noon hour talks on religion delivered by him in the past two weeks.

"Religion is generally an idea of something a man is going to manage rather than submit himself to be managed by it," he said. Worship, he believed ought to bring with it a passionate mood of adoration, of expectation, of concentration, and of belief in the prayers which have given help to the great people of old.

Incarnation he expressed as being "merely a presence in human life of the spirit of God", and atonement as "the bringing to oneness of the mind and will and purpose of man with the mind and will and purpose of God—which is the rhythm found in the life of Christ."

DEBATERS DISCUSS MONARCHIAL DECLINE

Loretto-St. Michael's Students Uphold Motion by Small Majority

MONARCHY AIDS MDROLS

In the first annual inter-St. Michael's debate which was held at Loretto College on Monday, March 3rd at 8:15 p.m. the motion that "This house deplors the decline of monarchies," was upheld by a vote of 38 to 33.

Miss Mary DeRocher of St. Joseph's, leader of the affirmative, stressed the important effect monarchial government had in aiding the growth of literature. "Democracy," said Miss DeRocher, "degenerates into socialism, while monarchy is instinctive and strengthens the morale of a country."

Mr. Percy Bergeron of St. Michael's College, first speaker on the negative side, in speaking of hereditary monarchy said, "Greatness is not handed down from generation to generation, and it is a bit hard on the poor princes."

The second speaker for the affirmative, Miss Bernice Venini, Loretto College, quoted some of the foremost

(Continued on page 3)

PHILDSOPHY DON ILL

Dr. T. R. Robinson, associate professor of philosophy in the university, has been very seriously ill in the last two weeks, and as a result will be unable to deliver any lectures for the remainder of the term. Professor Tracy of the department of ethics is arranging, as far as he is able, to take over a number of Dr. Robinson's lectures.

West Toronto Wins First Game of Junior Semi-Finals by 2 to 1 Score

LEVINSKY OUTSTANDING

Playing Strong Defensive Game, Varsity Puts Up Good Opposition

By J. J. Strenkousky
A fluke goal in the last 30 seconds of play gave West Toronto a 2 to 1 victory over Varsity juniors last night in the first game of the O.H.A. semi-finals. The Blue and White will start the game Wednesday night under a one-goal handicap, which should not prove too much on the strength of their initial hook-up.

Varsity played a strong defensive game. The fast-breaking West Toronto forward line met their toughest opposition of the season, and in the final period were backedchecked to a standstill. Both goalies had plenty to do, Hunsnett turning in a fine game to stop many sure shots. The winners' first goal was scored by Gracie, who banged in a rebound, and their second went by Hunsnett off McLellan's chest. Smillie opened the scoring in the first minute of the second stanza on a wicked shot from the blue line.

Alex Levinsky proved himself the outstanding man on the ice. His heavy body checking told on the speedy Junction forwards and his rushes were always dangerous. Cunningham broke up numerous rushes at mid ice with his effective back checking and Smillie turned in a nice effort, accounting for Varsity's lone goal. Gracie and Thom combined well for West Toronto, their speed carrying them right through to the Blue nets several times, but the defence robbed them of sure goals. Lampont on the defence also showed up well.

The first period went scoreless. Thom broke through and tested Hunsnett, who was provided with plenty of work to keep the nets clear. Both teams were playing cautiously and the close checking kept play featureless. With only the defence to beat Brant passed to Hetherington in front of the goal, but the shot went wild. Levinsky took a short trip to the penalty box and West Toronto pressed to take advantage of his departure. The scrambles before the Blue goal gave the fans palpitation of the heart as the Junction lads' shots missed by inches.

Smillie earned the first goal on a shot from the left boards that gave Evendes no chance to save. Gracie evaded the count when he skated in front to shove the rebound past Hunsnett. Levinsky broke through and

(Continued on page 3)

WOMEN'S RESIDENCE TO BE READY IN 1931

Will Disclose Plans Shortly States Superintendent of Buildings

"The new women's residence will be ready for occupation a year from next fall," said Colonel A. D. LePan, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, when interviewed on the subject by "The Varsity". "There is a possibility that they may be ready by about February of next year, but it would be rather hard for the students to move then, in the middle of the term. The girls in 3TD are unfortunate as they won't be able to live in the new buildings even if they are completed before their graduation."

Colonel LePan also stated that definite plans for the building operations would be disclosed in a few days. Until then, he could make no statement about the arrangements.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... Lou GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Usher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkowsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editors: T. A. Fleming; H. A. Wallace

TUESDAY, MARCH 4th, 1930

SEWER INSPECTORS

A few weeks before the academic term opened last fall our attention was attracted by certain goings-on in the august civic council. An alderman who, presumably, had the interests of the young at heart, proposed to the Commissioner of Parks and to the authorities in general, that all parking of automobiles in Toronto parks after 10 p.m. be forbidden, and that police be sent around after curfew had struck to shoo all vehicles away that were not moving at an appreciable rate of speed. Nothing, as far as we know, was ever done about it; at least, a tour through High Park any night—though a balmy evening produces more evidence—would tend to show that this was the case.

It would be possible for us to moralize at considerable length concerning the wisdom of the alderman's proposal, pointing out that it is a matter of common knowledge, whether we like it or not, that an automobile is at times used for other purposes than that of conveying persons from hither to yon, and that, once we close the parks to the usual clandestine foolishness, the parties involved will simply shift gears and alter a fifteen minute drive, be comfortably parked in the townships surrounding where policemen are fewer. However, we would prefer to consider the peculiar methods sometimes adopted by people possessed with a zeal for reform, and the peculiar and often illogical means which they adopt to achieve their ends.

That reformers mean well cannot be gainsaid, although at times their goings-on seem to be nothing more than less than an objectionable noisiness. The methods, however, which are often used by the more zealous, though less perspicacious, often show a lack of even that sense which is commonly attributed to horses. What could be more absurd than the proposal of the alderman referred to? Anyone with the ratiocinatory powers of the average man could realize that if you close the Toronto parks to parked cars, the occupants thereof will simply move on to the open spaces and relieve the city of their presence, though by no means relieving the city fathers of the responsibility for their actions.

Another interesting investigation may be afforded in the theory of punishment. Younger criminals are juggled and grilled and paddled and switched for their misdemeanours—and, to be matter of fact, there is little else that can be done at the moment. But, on the other hand, whose fault is it that they have done wrong? Is it the fault of the state at some period in the past? Of some distinct government or social system? Or the fault of the parents of the criminals? If this is the case, the parents should be switched, too, as the representatives of a faulty system.

It is reasoning somewhat like this that actuates those who are to-day most interested in the proper education and upbringing of children. It is commonly recognized that the ultimate responsibility for the welfare of children rests with the state, for it is the state that will be most affected by their turning out ill or good. And the future education, in view of the trend towards increasing socialism and interest in psychology of children, will "get them young".

The second rater, however, is interested only in the present. He would take ten aspirin tablets for a toothache, thus quieting the pain without removing the cause as he should. Unintelligent reform is a highly dangerous weapon, and as for the "reformers" themselves, one is tempted to quote George Jean Nathan's sapient observation: "You never find a sewer inspector who can't stand the smell of sewage."

Correspondence

Page the "Puritan"

The Editor,
"The Varsity".
Dear Sir:

Rarely does the correspondence in "The Varsity" bother me, but when '32 U.C. pointed the straight and narrow path for women in yesterday's issue, I was amazed at his lack of tolerance and equality which are two important characteristics of our day. I refer to what he said about cigarette smoking and the inevitable end of a girl who would smoke. Horrors!

First, let me emphasize that I dislike smoking in a woman and in a man as well. It has many faults which I will not enumerate here, but as for it being an evil practice among young women, that depends wholly on the girl. A man smokes—we think nothing of it; in fact we are surprised if he does not. A girl smokes—alas, she has gone to the dogs; at least, so '32 U.C. infers. Ignorant females, I suppose they are! In this age when men and women are equal, in what they think and in what they do, why should a woman not smoke, if she cares for it? She has every right.

CHAMPUS CAT

SO BOHEMIAN

Have you ever lunched at one of those cosy little eating places snugly away in a side street off Fraternity Row? Of course you have. It is where "us co-eds" get sophisticated.

C—C

You have to take courses to get really sophisticated now, you know. After the soup course you generally begin to really breathe—and smell—the atmosphere of the joint.

But we will come to that later on in the meat course.

C—C

You know what these places are like. You are ushered in by a plump matron whose duty is to keep an eye on the spoons when fraternity brothers come in, and to play the "Bells of St. Marys" on the phonograph whenever anyone wants to talk. Ugh!

C—C

Interesting, these intimate little dumps. So Bohemian, and all that—"Will you have soup?"

"No, you don't get enough to matter anyway."

"What wouldja like?"

"Have you any menus?"

"M, sorry sir, we're right outa menus. Ja like Rose beefgravy—Rose porknapples—Steaknkidney?"

C—C

Yes, steak and kidney pie would be so daring! We must go slumming some time. I know a chop suey place—

"Sorry sir, we're right outa steak and we ain't got any kidneys."

C—C

"Good Heavens girl!" we cry incredulously, "no kidneys? How distressing! No liver or bacon either? Say is this a hash house or a side show?"

C—C

"Well then cold veal will do." Exclusive, don't you think? So many young intellectuals dine here. One hears snatches of such pithy talk.

Listen to that girl at the next table, but don't look over until she looks away. Yes, the one with the nicotine stained nose and fingers reddened with lipstick. "That letter in 'The Varsity' to-day tells about Grandfather fondling Grandmother's tresses, Mildred. Well, I wouldn't say such a thing about my grandparents, even in fun. What did you say a tress was?"

C—C

That portion of meat did look like culture smear, didn't it? "Sorry sir but we're right outa chawkit pie. Ja like somethin' elts?"

"Yes, a cople of caraway seeds, coffee and an eye dropper of cream. What, can't you wait? It is only a little after three."

Well then, where will we eat?
Gaspard McGuffey.

Nor will the gloomy future predicted by '32 U.C. do much if anything to stop her.

Besides, how about looking at the question from the other side? Some girls like the smell of smoke, others loathe it. Does '32 U.C. suppose that any girl likes her hand held by a man who has smoked ever since he thought he was grown up? By the way, did you ever notice a man's hands? And again, does a girl enjoy a kiss any more if the man has been smoking or maybe chewing tobacco?

"Cigarette Smoking as Related to Women's Morals", would be a fine title for a thesis. Does a cigarette corrupt a girl's morals any more than a stick of gum? Just consider at what a low ebb the morals of men must be—I mean those who smoke. The poor men in the next world! I may be mistaken in thinking that men have morals that could be corrupted.

I wonder if our stern condemner has visited Murray's or the Diet Kitchen. Both are good places to eat. I advise him to go there or to any tea room sometime, and count the girls he sees smoking who try to hide the fact. Even on our own campus he might see the odd one here and there in a car enjoying a smoke. Judge
(Continued on page 4)

Why invest in a new suit, rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

With the Theatres

SHEA'S

"Wedding Rings" is an uninspired screen offering which proves that period furniture has a distinct affinity for the virtue which triumphs in the last thousand feet and that interior decoration is blood brother to beauty of soul. Lois Wilson, Olive Borden, and H. B. Warner are finished enough performers to make a lot of stupid lines and idiotic situations seem important. On the stage, "The Twelve O'Clock Review" is not a particularly good argument for the unit show idea . . . . . Try a good book.
—A. E. F. A.

UPTOWN

"Hit the Deck" is a long way from Broadway in R.K.O.'s film version. Vincent Youman's music struggles manfully to be heard through the drain-pipe, but suffers. Jack Oakie and Polly Walker try awfully hard, but don't get much help from a woefully weak supporting cast. The photography is uneven and breaks out in a horrible epidemic of Technicolor toward the end. The treatment of "Hallelujah" is radically different from the stage treatment, but effective in a Porgy-esque way . . . . We give three grateful cheers for Helene of Cortez and Helene in Jack Arthur's stage show.
—A. E. F. A.

EMPIRE

"A Dawn of a To-morrow" might easily be the result of an unholy alliance between Marie Corelli and Pollyanna. But it happens to have been written by Frances Hodgson "Little Lord Fauntleroy" Burnett. Shades of the Hall Cane era! Still, you may be repaid by watching Deirdre Doyle make impossible dialogue probable and by a third act scene between Robert Leslie and Marjorie Foster. The whole idea seems to be a preachment based on the contrast between life in the West End and life in the East End, with cockney purity triumphant and cockney dialect in various stages of dissolution. The poor old Deus ex machina gets sadly overworked, and there are enough asides to equip two full-length nineteenth century melodramas . . . . Back to the moth balls for this one! Unless you are interested in the two erstwhile luminaries of the Players' Guild who are among the socially prominent.
—A.E.F.A.

"No privacy" is the principal objection to colleges, says a girl in Stephens College.

A campaign is being held at Ohio college to find the healthiest man and the healthiest co-ed.

WHO?

The Varsity Entertainers—Randolph Crowe—George Patton—Elizabeth Forgie—Margaret Barton—Charles Fitzgerald—Fred Mallett—Margaret Wilson—Cyrille Laurin—Al Mueller—Bob Beatty—Hugh McDiarmid—Harold Jackson—Roly Young's Dancing Co-eds and then some.

WHAT?

Maureen O'Mara's big, now, original revue, "THE WAY OF THE WORLD" in 3 acts and 18 scenes with a flock of new tunes, lots of snappy dancing and clever skits.

WHERE?

Hart House Theatre (by permission of the Syndics).

WHEN?

Starting Tuesday evening, March 11th at 8.30 sharp and for the balance of the week with a matinee on Saturday.

HOW MUCH?

The first seven rows are $1.50 and the balance of the house $1.00 for the evening performance. The Saturday matinee at 2.30 will be 75 cents for any seat in the house. All rush. All prices are plus government tax. BOX OFFICE NOW OPEN.

—and lastly, get the real college spirit, smoke Turrets, and show you belong to the best by smoking the best.

TURRET
CIGARETTES

Mild and Fragrant

Save the valuable "POKER HANDS"

THE ART METROPOLE

Branch of

THE HUGHES OWENS CO., LTD.

36 ADELAIDE STREET WEST

Dealers in

DRAFTING OFFICE SUPPLIES
MATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENTS
SURVEYING AND OTHER SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS
ARTISTS' MATERIALS ZEISS MICROSCOPES
LABORATORY SUPPLIES

ESTABLISHED 45 YEARS

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KL 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

RENT A VARSITY TUXEDO

For a perfect fit and comfort

$2.00 Rate to Students

THE ROYAL TAILORS

Invites all students to inspect their new Spring woollens now on display at their Headquarters.

468 Wellington St. W.

A discount is given to all Students.

Easter April 20th

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1865

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

253 Bloor Street West
Near Avenue Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.

Open daily, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON

108 King St. W., Toronto

P. Leone

BARBER
BEAUTY SHOPPE
BRANCHES

366 Bloor W. Kl. 6551
340 Bloor W. Kl. 6213
Medical Arts Bldg. Kl. 1211
340 BLOOR ST. WEST

Shoe Shine Parlor
Hair Cleaned and Bleached
The favourite Shoppe of the students, both men and women.

WEST TORONTO DEFEAT JUNIORS 2-1 IN FIRST GAME OF ROUND

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Varsity juniors certainly had a tough break in their game with West Torontos last night. With the score tied 1-1 and about thirty seconds to go in the last period the Junction team were credited with a doubtful goal which Varsity claimed went into the net after striking a West Toronto man in the face. As a result the Blue juniors are down a goal for the return game Wednesday night. But on last night's performance both teams are of equal strength and Varsity, with a few of the breaks ought to be able to soon overcome this handicap when they hook up with the Redshirts on Wednesday.

In their last four games prior to meeting Varsity West Torontos scored twenty-two goals against one by their opponents. Last night's 2-1 score speaks well of the juniors' ability as a defensive team.

Alex Levinsky again was Varsity's outstanding player. Levinsky is a wonder when his team mates are a bit disorganized and the opposing team has them hemmed in their own end of the rink. Cunningham, the alternate centre, turned in a great checking game, breaking up many of West Toronto's rushes at mid ice and coming back fast with the opposition's attacks.

Hamilton defeated Queen's "B" 1-0 in Toronto's suburb last night and tied up the round 2-2. A sudden death game will be played at Oshawa on Wednesday and the winner will meet Varsity seniors on the latter's ice Friday night in the first of a two-game series for the O.H.A. senior championship.

BLUE JUNIORS LOSE FIRST TO WEST TORONTO, 2-1

(Continued from page 1)

looked to score, but was outflanked. The shot hitting the goal post. Gracie and Hetherington were handed major penalties.

West Toronto started the last period determined to mount up the score. Lamport forced Hunnisett to the ice to save. Varsity were one man shy, but Levinsky played a stellar defensive game to pull Varsity out of some tight situations. The Junction forwards waited for the breaks, but Cunningham and Brant broke up their fast rushes by repeated body checking and the game looked to end in a tie. The puck bounded off the back netting on to McClelland's chest and rebounded into the goal for the winning counter. Levinsky went down the ice and almost succeeded in tying up the game in the last fifteen seconds.

Varsity—Goal, Hunnisett; defence,

Levinsky and Williamson; centre, Brant; wings, Stullie and Hetherington; alternates, Bennett, Cunningham and Hendry.

West Toronto—Goal, Geddes; defence, Hearne and Lamport; centre, Thoms; wings, Gracie and Collings; alternates, Kressler, Ewens and McClelland.

SUMMARY

First Period

No score.

Second Period

1—Varsity.....Smillie ..... 1.00

2—West Toronto.....Gracie ..... 5.00

Third Period

3—West Toronto.....McClelland .... 19.30

Penalties—Levinsky, Gracie, Hetherington, Williamson.

For the second time since figures have been compiled, reports from the office of President Daniel L. Marsh of Boston University reveal that co-eds of the institution lead men students in scholastic ranking.

SENIOR HOCKEYISTS TO PLAY FRIDAY

Winner of Hamilton-Queen's Game Faces Blue Here in O.H.A. Final

FIVE DAY REST BENEFICIAL

As a result of the 2-2 tie on the round in the Hamilton-Queen's play-off series for the Senior "B" title, a sudden death game between the two teams will be played at Oshawa Wednesday night. The winner of this encounter will then face the Varsity seniors in Toronto on Friday night. The second game will be played on either Hamilton or Kingston ice the following Monday. The winner of this series will enter the first round of the Allan Cup playdowns.

Varsity, if they play up to form, should have little trouble in taking the winners of the so-called senior B loop. The Blues proved their calibre in downing the strong National outfit, and should go a long way in the quest for the Cup. The five day rest will also give the team a chance to recuperate from their two strenuous battles with the Sea Fleas and put them right on edge for Friday night.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE TEAM WINS INTERFACULTY GROUP

Junior Meds Basketeers Put Up Great Battle, Losing 14 to 11

Junior U.C. won their group title yesterday afternoon in an interfaculty basketball game with Junior Meds.

The game was in doubt till the last moment when Thindale and Cochrane combined for some nice plays to clinch the game.

Meds were right in there till the last second. Heller and Jessel were trying hard all the time to pull the game out of the fire.

U.C.—Kassler, Cohen, Henry, Sinclair, Heller, Jessel, Connor, Richardson, Alpert.

Meds—Agnew, Towell, Foot, Laughlin, Tindale, Scott, Cochrane, Bowman, Schuck.

KNOX WINS ABBREVIATED CONTEST FROM TEACHERS

Lowry's Fancy Baserunning Enlivens Lackadaisical Ball Game

Knox College defeated O.C.E. by a score of 14 to 11 in a three and one-half inning game yesterday. The chief feature was the peculiar antics of Lowry of Knox, running bases. Aside from that it was one of the most listless games of the season.

O.C.E. had to borrow a man from Knox after which the pitcher tossed them across and the batters slugged at their leisure.

The game had no bearing on the standing and everybody considered it just a mild form of amusement.

Lowry was the best for Knox and Breese and Dignan for O.C.E.

O.C.E.—Breese, Grudeault, Dignan, Spears, Burns, McBrick, Busk.

Knox — Perrie, Anderson, Milroy, Hobdon, McGinn, Ritchie, Lowry, McDiarmid.

Secretarial Training —in your spare time

During the winter months, why not make use of a little of your spare time between lectures?

Full or part time, mornings or afternoons, every day or on special days, we provide individual instruction on subjects necessary to secretarial training.

For further information telephone KI. 5588, or write,

The Gregg College

"Toronto's model school for Gregg Shorthand and Secretarial subjects."

Bloor and Bay Sts.

Toronto

AGGIES DEFEATED BY BLUE SECONDS

Varsity Intermediates Win Hockey Fixture Easily by 5 to 2 Score

GAME LISTLESS IN SPOTS

Varsity took O.A.C. into camp yesterday 5 to 2, up at the Varsity Arena. For the first two periods it was a rather drab affair, with Varsity carrying the game to the Agriculturists. Varsity's beautiful passing and back-checking had their opponents almost at a standstill. O.A.C. tried hard, but could not get anywhere.

Conn of Varsity scored in twelve minutes of play on a spectacular solo rush. He split the defence easily and then let go a wicked shot that the O.A.C. goalie didn't even see. The second goal of this period was netted by Graham when he received a well-timed pass from Pereyma. Immediately after the face-off after this last score, Clute grabbed the puck, and after evading four O.A.C. players shot and beat the O.A.C. goalie handily.

The second period opened with the Blues continually pressing the Agriculturists, but unable to score after having about four royal chances. Finally, after 14 minutes of play, Conn chalked up his second counter, and Varsity's fourth goal, on a nice pass from Clute.

This whole period was rather listless with Varsity easily keeping the O.A.C. aggregation away from any dangerous area.

The third period opened with O.A.C. determined to prevent a white-wash and if possible to cut down Varsity's considerable lead. Up till this period the game was fairly clean but things began to liven up. Ferguson scored Varsity's fifth goal. O. A. C. scored two goals in rapid succession in the last few minutes of the game to make the score 5 to 2.

Varsity—Goal, McCartney; defence, Graham, Smith; centre, Clute; wings, Statham, Ferguson; subs, Conn, De-war, Leake, Pereyma.

O.A.C.—Goal, Deacon; defence, Barrie, Henry; centre, Stoneman; wings, Scollie, Robinson; subs, Chapman, Hudson, Hodgson.

Interfaculty Run

The two-mile interfaculty indoor run will be held to-day (Tuesday) at 5.15 sharp in Hart House. On Thursday the schedule will be completed when the relay and pole vault will be run off.

DEBATERS DISCUSS MONARCHIAL DECLINE

(Continued from page 1)

political thinkers of to-day and of the past and as she continued, "Lest some might consider Aristotle a bit, shall we say extinct, let us apply our own minds to the problem." She then pointed out that most of the audience, probably all of about the ripe age of twenty-one, were not fully informed on any modern political question, citing the St. Lawrence waterways as an example and hence not prepared to vote.

Fred Dell of St. Michael's, second speaker for the negative, condescended to praise his worthy opponents as to their style, but not to their matter. Speaking as a returned man, Mr. Dell said, "The world war on the part of the Allies, was a splendid fight for the ideals of democracy." Among the speakers from the floor was Miss Madeline LeRoi, who told of the glories of the reign of Louis XIV in her native tongue.

RUGBY MANAGERS

Applications for Managers for the four Rugby Teams will be received up to Friday next, March 7th. Address, The Secretary, University of Toronto Rugby Club, Athletic House.

J. D. KEITH, Secretary.

Harry Skitch Says:

START RIGHT—BUY MADE TO MEASURE CLOTHES—BECAUSE—Quality Materials ADD to your appearance.

Properly fitted clothes MULTIPLY your chances of success. Spring styles direct from Designers' Convention at Cleveland, Ohio.

PRICES $35.00 TO $50.00

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

The Harry Skitch Company Limited by INC.

9 ADELAIDE STREET EAST Above Ellen Bradley's Grill

Mc'S LUNCH

A very convenient place to eat. West side of Yonge St. Half-way between Wellesley and Maitland. Best value in city for the price, 35c.

550 YONGE STREET

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

259 College St. TRINITY 5987

HARRY Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

FREEMAN'S—Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE

571 YONGE STREET

KI. 3270

Hart House Elections To-morrow

REMEMBER:—

D. B. MURRAY

FOR HOUSE COMMITTEE

The DOUBLE ADVANTAGE of a SAVINGS ACCOUNT

4%

1. Your Surplus Income earns 4% interest.

2. Your money is always easily accessible.

Chequing privileges and 4% interest on Savings Accounts

The TORONTO GENERAL TRUSTS CORPORATION

BAY AND MELINDA STREETS

ENGINEERING SOCIETY NOMINATIONS TUESDAY, MARCH 4th

Coming Events

TUESDAY, MARCH 4

1 p.m.—Open meeting of Victoria College Music Club in Alumni Hall.
 5.00 p.m.—Meeting of the T.I.C.C.U. at Wymilwood.
 8.00—Trinity soph-frosh smoker in Trinity House.
 Nominations for officers for 3T2 Victoria close. Get your nominations in early.
 8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of the M. and P. Society at the Women's Union. Dancing.
 8.00 p.m.—Last meeting of the U.C. Lit. Nominations for society executive and year executives.
 8.30—Soph-senior party at Wymilwood.

3T1 Victoria nominations close.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5

4.20 p.m.—The Players' Guild elections, also two short plays.
 4.20—Meeting of the U.C. Players' Guild.

Hart House Elections.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6

Hart House elections.
 German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig", "Ein Knopf", at Women's Union.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7

9.30 a.m.—3 p.m.—General election for all societies at Victoria College.
 Victoria College senior reception.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13

11.00 a.m.—U.C. Elections.

FRIDAY, MARCH 14

7.00 p.m.—Victoria College faculty-senior dinner in Burwash Hall.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 2)
 then whether it is done openly and frankly or not. In girls' residences no smoking is allowed, nor do the girls try it behind locked doors and closed blinds. This rule is laid down by the university, and will possibly be changed some day when the co-eds demand it.

I do hope medical assistance will be at hand when 3T2 U.C. meets a woman on the street smoking. And as soon as he realizes that women do as they please and not what men please, he will appreciate the girls' viewpoint now and then.

Indignant Co-ed,
 3T0 U.C.

"Hobbies prevent one from becoming stale," said a professor of medicine at McGill in a speech to undergraduate medical students.

He stated that hobbies avoid the pitfall of mental laziness and prevent depression.

COLLEGIANA

By G. G. Brooks

The Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society Museum recently acquired a section of a rail split by Abraham Lincoln.
Ohio State Lantern.

Included in the bequest was also a match with which Jefferson picked his teeth while drafting the Declaration of Independence.

NEW CHAMPIONS CROWNED
McGill Daily.

Isn't that rather poor sportsmanship?

Esther, eight years old during the first Red revolution, depicted its horrors and the condition of the country following the war. "Scenes I'll never forget," she said, "were men lying in the streets terribly injured, some with a hand or a head cut off. We were never left to play alone for a minute."
Oklahoma Daily.

Rather an awkward predicament, say we.

MAN MUST REMAIN
 HUMAN BEING, SAYS
 BISHOP McCONNELL
Daily Kansan.

This definitely spikes all rumours that we are to become feathery harpists.

"Women," he said, "have a clearer and finer viewpoint in moral matters. Politics would become a new tie in the home."
McGill Daily.

And every little boy and girl that's born alive,
 Is either a little Liberal or else a little Conservative!

STUDENT GROUPS
 PLOT LECTURES
Daily Cardinal.

Aha, Watson!

The day will come when the world will be grateful for such frankness as this. Either we shall all see the truth. Either we shall pessimism, or we shall be grateful for a clear statement of an attitude of mind which is the greatest danger to the topian of world peace.
Denver Clarion.

This is just another sample of "The President's English."

MARRIAGE IS MERE
 SIDELINE FOR CO-EDS
Bryn Mawr College News.

Personally, we don't know a co-ed for whom we would care to be a sideline.

Work while you work in the second rule Husband suggests. Don't sit with a phonograph playing in one ear while you are reclining in an easy chair and think you are studying. Rather put in some steady hard work for a time and then enjoy yourself a little.
Oklahoma Daily.

We wondered about this one until we discovered that Husband is a professor's name.

BULLETIN BOARD

VICTORIA MUSIC CLUB

Open meeting to-day at 1 p.m. in Alumni Hall. All members requested to attend.

3T0 VICTORIA

Nominations for 3T0 Victoria permanent executive are to be handed to any member of the executive by 5.00 p.m. Tuesday, March 4. The elections will be held on Friday, March 7 in Alumni Hall.

TRINITY 3T3

All men out for the smoker to-night in Trinity House at 8 o'clock.

TRINITY 3T2

All resident and non-resident men are invited to attend the soph-frosh smoker in Trinity House to-night at 8 o'clock.

WATER POLO

Coach Lorenzen will meet the members of the water polo squad at a practice in the pool at 5.30 Tuesday afternoon.

WEEKLY TEA

At the Women's Union, Tuesday, 4-6 p.m. Weekly tea for women undergraduates. Guests this week: Miss McGeachy of Geneva; Miss Panton, Professor and Mrs. McIlwraith, Dr. J. L. Murray, Professor Glazebrook.

VICTORIA COLLEGE MEN

The report of the nominating committee for the Victoria College Union is posted in the college hall to-day, Tuesday. All nominations close at 6 p.m.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

At the Women's Union, 7.30 p.m., Wednesday, March 5th, coloured slides of India. Talk by Miss Kilpatrick. All interested in India very welcome.

SOCIALIST LEGISLATION URGED FOR CANADA

(Continued from page 1)
 cally powerful class, so it is naturally determined to protect their interests. "Political representation and political equality are to-day mere empty phrases," he says in part. "Politicians but use them as a cloak . . . . The thing that counts is economic power, wealth, capital, and to those few who possess this the politician bows down. Such men call the tune, the usual type of minister or politician is glad to dance."

The solution lies, Professor Iliffe says, in entrusting the reins of government to men uncompromised by wealth, then the actual step towards the real welfare of our community may be taken.

In Wisconsin, making a girl walk home from an automobile ride is a felony according to a recent decision of the state supreme court. The judgment was handed down in the case of a 19 year old girl, who complained because she had to escort herself home from a ride with one of her boy friends.

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

ORGANIZED 1910

Overseas Education League

ORGANIZED 1910

MAJOR F. J. NEY, Hon. Organizer

Summer 1930 Programme

Seventh Annual Visit of University Undergraduates

Including Graduates of 1929 and 1930; Normal School Students and Senior Students of Certain Schools and Colleges

To Great Britain and France

(Together with GENEVA and OBERAMMERGAU)

71 Days $535.00 (Approximately)

June 21st	Sail by S.S. "MINNEDOSA" from Montreal.
June 29th	Arrive at GLASGOW.
June 30th	From Glasgow to St. Andrews via The Trossachs.
July 4th—July 10th	ST. ANDREWS.
July 10th—July 14th	EDINBURGH.
July 14th—July 17th	GRASMERE (English Lake District).
July 17th—July 21st	HARROGATE.
July 21st—July 24th	YORK.
July 24th—July 27th	STRATFORD-UPON-AVON.
July 27th—Aug. 11th	OXFORD.
Aug. 11th—Aug. 16th	LONDON.
Aug. 16th—Aug. 18th	GENEVA.
Aug. 18th—Aug. 23rd	OBERAMMERGAU (for the PASSION PLAY).
August 23rd	PARIS.
August 30th	Sail from Cherbourg by S.S. "EMPERESS OF AUSTRALIA".
	Arrive at Quebec

Special provision is being made for men students to sail by the "Empress of Scotland" on May 28th, from Quebec direct to Southampton, to enable them to attend the Royal Tournament at Olympia and the Aldershot Military Tattoo. On the conclusion of this special London programme, this group will join the Undergraduates' party at St. Andrews on June 30th.

ALSO THE FOLLOWING TOURS

Fourth Annual Summer School in French - - $375

(For Teachers and Students)

Lycee Victor Duruy, Boulevard des Invalides, Paris

Second Annual Summer School in English - - $395

(For Teachers and Students)

Oxford, Stratford-upon-Avon, London

First Annual Summer School in Spanish - - $420

(In co-operation with the University of Liverpool)

Santander, Spain

First Annual Summer School of Music - - $520

(For Teachers and Students)

Paris, Oberammergau, Munich, Bayreuth, Dresden, Berlin, London

First Annual Summer School of Folk Dancing - $395

(In co-operation with the English Folk Dance Society)

Oxford, Malvern and London

Application forms containing the usual detailed information regarding the various items of the League's programme for 1930 are available at the Offices of the OVERSEAS EDUCATION LEAGUE, Boyd Building, WINNIPEG.

FRED. J. NEY, Honorary Organizer.

or

HENRY BUTTON, Hon. Sec. Eastern Division, 224 Bloor St. West, Toronto.

SAFETY

VERSUS

HIGH RETURNS

Many a man has lost his hard-earned savings because of the fatal lure of high returns. A safe general rule to remember is—the greater the prospective return, the greater the risk.

PUT YOUR SAVINGS INTO A SAVINGS ACCOUNT

in the

BANK OF MONTREAL

Established 1817

There they will earn a reasonable interest and be safe.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5th, 1930

No. 96

MENS COUNCIL SENDS REPORT TO CAPUT FOR CONSIDERATION

Action of Men's Council United With Women's and Joint Executive Bodies

SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Band Said Never to be Ready for First Rugby Game

The report of the special committee on the Caput report concerning student government was accepted at a meeting of the Men's Administrative Council last night. The report was drawn up by a group of five students headed by Alex Stringer and Ed Jolliffe. It was further decided that the action of the Men's Council be sent on to the Caput for consideration along with the action of the Women's and Joint Executive bodies. This special committee report worked on the basis of democratic government of making the executive body responsible to the whole elected body.

As to the question of bands at rugby games, H. R. Perkins, Wycliffe College, chairman of the band committee, said:

"Co-operation with the C.O.T.C. has not been good. They are never ready to play at the first rugby game and we must have a university band. There are a number of musicians who never play in it because it is composed of first and second year men. The Athletic Directorate would be willing to give a university band the ninety dollars now given to the Highlanders at each game."

SKITS ARE ENJOYED AT OPEN MEETING

Mathematical and Physical Society Revel at Women's Union

HOLD NOMINATIONS

The open meeting of the Mathematics and Physics Society took place in the Women's Union last night. William Tovell, the president, conducted a short business meeting, when nominations for officers for the coming year were received. Dr. I. R. Pounder of the mathematics department, was chosen as honorary president.

Skits prepared by each year were presented between dances. Second year depicted the murder of a wife by her husband and its sequel. Sherlock Holmes, Junior, and his friend Watson, in the third year skit, pon-

(Continued on page 4)

Presidential Courtesy

That the president of this university is always ready and willing to be of assistance to any student in need was amply illustrated yesterday. A student dropped his notebook while walking from Simcoe Hall to University College and the strong wind blew a varied sheaf of papers hither and thither about the campus.

In the midst of the frantic scrambling for the papers by the student, Sir Robert Falconer appeared on the scene and lent his timely aid. Working side by side, the president and the undergraduate retrieved the valued papers and were last seen walking away together towards University College.

FOREST RESOURCES SUBJECT OF DEBATE

Forestry Club Holds First Talk-Fest in History of the Organization

AFFIRMATIVE WINS

In the first talk-fest in the history of the Forestry Club at Hart House last night, the house decided in favour of the resolution: "It is resolved that the transfer of the administration of forest resources to the western provinces at the present time is in the best public interests."

W. H. Saunders for the affirmative, derided the hopeless inefficiency of the Federal government. A. W. Brown, for the negative, stated that the unity between eastern and western provinces was endangered by the transference of administration of forest lands to the provincial governments.

C. P. Howard, for the ayes, pointed

(Continued on page 4)

DR. F. A. MOURE GIVES LAST ORGAN RECITAL

Recent Additions to Organ Allow Greater Colour and Symphony

Dr. F. A. Moure, organist for the University of Toronto, gave his last recital for this term in Convocation Hall at five o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The series of recitals this year was much appreciated as was evinced by the large attendance. The programs of varied nature covered the best known works of the musical field. Recent additions to the organ allowed Dr. Moure to display greater colour and symphony.

When questioned as to the possibilities of continuing his recitals next year, Dr. Moure said that he hoped to be able to do so. He wished to thank his audience for their attendance. "For," he said, "the audience means as much to the musician as the musician to the audience."

HART HOUSE HOLDS ELECTIONS TO-DAY FOR ENSUING YEAR

Voting Takes Place from 11.45 a.m. to 2.15 p.m. and 4.30 p.m. to 6.00 p.m.

SIX BALLOT PAPERS

Registration Card Must Be Produced in Order to Vote

Members are reminded that in order to vote at the Hart House Elections to-day it will be necessary to show their registration cards, with Hart House membership stamp attached, at the door of the room allotted to their faculty or college for election purposes. Membership stamps may be obtained at the Hall Porter's desk until 2 p.m. to-day. No stamps will be issued after that hour until the elections are over.

Those members who have already had their registration cards stamped with the Hart House stamp but have lost them may procure a special voting permit from the Warden's office.

The polling hours are from 11.45 a.m. to 2.15 p.m., and from 4.30 p.m. to 6.00 p.m.

The rooms in Hart House will be allotted for voting purposes to the faculties and colleges as follows:

Reading Room—University College.
Boxing Room—Medicine.
Debates Room—Applied Science and Engineering and Forestry.
Room "A"—Dentistry.
Music Room—Victoria, Trinity and St. Michael's.

(Continued on page 4)

WYMLWOOD AUCTION DISPLAYS PRETTIES

Many and Varied Are the Objects on Sale at Approaching "White Elephant"

LAOIES' SAFETY RAZOR

The approach of the annual "white elephant" auctions at Wymilwood, the Women's Union, to relieve those residences of accumulations of "lost and found" articles, bring interesting revelations.

A book with the fetching title of "Wounded Souls"; a couple of masquerade costumes; a pair of white hose; a tooth brush; plenty of fountain pens and pencils, nail files, tennis shoes and rubbers; and purses of all kinds, are in the collection at Wymilwood. Ambitious, but absent-minded people, have left "Daily Steps to Power"; "Talks on Efficiency"; and various Greek, Latin, Spanish and French

(Continued on page 4)

HAS-BEEN AND WILL-BE PARTY HELD BY VICTORIA

Absence of Male Sex Not Noted in Half Hour of Dancing

Last night Wymilwood was a collection of many weird futuristic costumes and dainty Victorian ones when the sophomore women of Victoria entertained the graduating year at a Has-Been and Will-Be party. Skits and minuets and jazz choruses were arranged in a charming program and sunbheat biscuits, plus vitamins, constituted nourishing refreshments.

The party was a remarkable success and everyone enjoyed the half hour of dancing concluding the program, even though our gentlemen were present.

CAPITAL CONTROLLED BY THE GOVERNMENT IS QUITE A PROBLEM

Especially in Reference to the More Speculative Enterprises

SAYS PROFESSOR INNES

Stock Brokers Have Filled An Important Part in Developing Canada

Asked to comment on government control of capital, Professor H. A. Innes of the department of economics expressed the opinion that it would not prove effective in solving the problems of the financial world of which the public has so often, recently, been made aware.

This was the suggestion of Professor J. H. Innes, assistant professor of history and industrial art in an article appearing in the March issue of "Canadian Forum" which was summarized in yesterday's "Varsity". Professor Innes pointed out that in a new and rapidly developing country such as Canada, effective control of capital was difficult, if not impossible. "It is quite unfair to compare a new country like Canada to one like Great Britain. In a new country intelligent direction of capital is difficult, especially."

(Continued on page 3)

NOMINATIONS HELD AT NEWMAN CLUB

Following Members Were Selected to Run for Office at Elections

A nomination meeting for the election of officers of Newman Club for the coming term was held the other morning at Newman Hall. The following members were selected to run for office at the elections which will take place at Newman Hall on Sunday, March 16:

President—V. C. Webb, M. J. King, F. Y. Mallon.

First Vice-President—Greg Mallon, Orm Butler.

Second Vice-President—Isobel Maloney (acclamation).

Reporting Secretary—W. S. McDonnell, John Wasylenko.

Corresponding Secretary—Helen Dolan (acclamation).

Treasurer—C. A. MacDonald, J. J. Finnigan.

Tea at Women's Union

The guests at Miss Kilpatrick's weekly tea for women undergraduates, held at the Women's Union yesterday afternoon, were Miss McGrady of Geneva; Miss Pantou, Dr. Helen McMurphy, Professor and Mrs. McIlwraith, Dr. J. L. Murray and Professor Glazebrook. Those who poured tea were Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Howard and Mrs. McIlwraith.

Varsity Staff Meeting

The final meeting of the year of all members of "The Varsity" staff will be held on Thursday at the Women's Union. The meeting will be at 4.30 p.m. with the attendance of all members of the staff compulsory. The elections for "The Varsity" for next year will be held. Those having the right to vote will have their names appear in the mast-head of the paper Thursday morning.

'WAY OF THE WORLD' ALL-ORIGINAL REVUE

So Says Maureen O'Mara of Show Opening Here Next Week

FIRST YEAR PASS CO-ED

"I believe that 'The Way of the World' is the first all-original revue to be produced by a Toronto writer," Miss Maureen O'Mara told "The Varsity". "I am definitely intending to take up this work as a career, because I'm interested in artistic jazz—jazz that's well interpreted. It's one of the highest forms of entertainment."

Quite in keeping with her future work, her greatest interest is in the shows and musical comedies that are presented in the city. She does not feel that the revue will interfere too badly with her school work. "I go to lectures regularly—and I'll do some serious studying before exams," she laughed.

Miss O'Mara is in first year pass in U.C., and judging from what she sees going on around her, thinks the course should be abolished. Last year Miss O'Mara was at Trinity, but due to illness in the spring was unable to

(Continued on page 3)

TERRIBLE SUFFERINGS BORNE BY EVANGELISTS

Foreign Countries As Well As Our Own Make Trouble for Workers

"The Need of the World" was the subject of the address given by Miss Brandon, guest speaker at the regular Tuesday T.I.C.C.U. meeting held in Wymilwood yesterday afternoon.

"Only half of the world is Christianized," stated Miss Brandon, who is working in conjunction with the World Dominion Movement for World Evangelization. Miss Brandon spoke of the terrible difficulties to be overcome by Christian workers, in foreign countries as well as in our own.

Mr. Rousel, the president of the club, then called on Mr. Hooker, who gave a brief account of his visits to several universities including Queen's, McGill and Dalhousie, in regard to the work being done by the T.I.C.C.U. Mr. Hooker closed the meeting with a few words of prayer.

MAJORITY OF CO-EDS ARE NON-SMOKERS IS DOCTOR'S OPINION

Only Twenty-Five Per Cent Smoke When They Come to College

THREE CIGARETTES DAILY

Mostly Done by Girls From Larger Cities, Says Dr. Edith Gordon

"Only twenty-five per cent of the girls of the first year of University College smoke when they come to college," stated Dr. Edith Gordon, medical advisor for women students yesterday when interviewed on the subject of women smokers at the University of Toronto. "Of these, nineteen per cent smoke only occasionally, or less than three cigarettes daily, the other six per cent more than three cigarettes daily."

"It is practically impossible to estimate what percentage of the non-smoking twenty-five per cent begin to smoke after they come to college, since no opportunity is afforded for such an investigation. A certain number of girls come back in their second year for a voluntary examination, but the question, 'Do you smoke?' is not asked, since the record is already in our hands. This does not, of course, determine in any way how many girls have begun to smoke since their first record was taken."

"The first year girls come from all over Ontario and Canada, and we find that except for certain sets, those who

(Continued on page 4)

FABIUS CLUB PLANS TWO MORE MEETINGS

Is Endeavouring to Obtain Services of Prominent Fabian Member

NEXT MEETING OPEN

The Fabius Club is planning to hold two more meetings before the end of the term. The first one will take place about March 13, at Wymilwood. The executive has secured C. R. Fay, professor in the department of economics, to speak on Immigration Problems.

The arrangements for the second meeting are still somewhat indefinite. However, it is believed that it will be held during the last week of March and will probably be open to the public.

The executive has been endeavouring to obtain the services of S. K. Ratcliffe, a prominent member of the Fabian Society in London, England, who is, at present, making a lecture tour through the United States

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire On Taking Bribes For Votes

"How many free cigarettes and chocolate bars equal one vote?"

Orpha Hugli, IV Arts, University College—

"All you can get, and then some"

H. J. Spooner, IV Medicine—

"They don't count for a thing."

Daisy Quance, III Arts, Victoria—

"Well, the brand makes a difference."

L. V. Clegg, IV S.P.S.—

"It depends on whom the vote is for."

M. E. Hobbs, IV Medicine—

"I would rather buy my own chocolate bars and vote for the man I wanted."

Pearl Saxe, II Occupational Therapy—

"It all depends upon the capacity of the person who is smoking and eating."

SUNDAY EVENING CONCERT
By L. Silver, Third Year S.P.S.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.
NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

Business and Advertising Manager
A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor: O. Abramowitz

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5th, 1930

BUSINESS AND THE B.A.

Modern methods in university education are under fire from the industrialists in the States. They complain that the university graduate comes into business with no conception of what it means and quite unprepared to cope with business conditions. One executive goes so far as to claim that the four years at college are a handicap when it comes to getting ahead in industry. Closer co-operation between the university and the world of commerce is suggested as a remedy for the situation. The chief defect, it seems, with the academic atmosphere from the industrial viewpoint is that theory and practice are too divergent. Knowledge, they say, is acquired in the abstract; students are not taught how to apply that knowledge to actual conditions.

University students do not get the habit of work. They are not able to think quickly, or adjust their minds to meet an emergency. They lack initiative, accuracy and incentive. Their intellects are keyed to a leisurely pace which is of no use whatsoever in the bustle of the modern industrial world. This is a severe indictment on the university, and it would be interesting to hear what college deans have to say on the matter.

What do the industrialists want to do about it? They are not satisfied with the offer of university heads to allow them to map out a programme of studies. Constant interchange of ideas and methods, bringing educational institutions into line with the rapid strides of modern business, are advocated to meet the difficulty. As it is now, declare the commerce magnates, university men have to be trained all over again before they are fitted to enter the world of industry. Graduates of technical schools are more sought after than men with degrees, they aver.

All of which is very interesting, but not very accurate. The universities of to-day are doing more than ever before in the field of technical and industrial research. Science students are engaging in work which will benefit industry, and evolving new processes and new methods of tackling problems. That the discovery of insulin should have been made under the aegis of the university is proof of the service that institution is rendering to the community. Furthermore, the training the university student receives gives him special qualifications for a place in the sphere of commerce. A solid grounding of knowledge and the contacts obtained in university life, the larger outlook and toleration of divergent opinions are valuable assets. The student may have got out of the habit of working hard, but he has learnt to think for himself, if he has got anything at all out of his four academic years.

The practice of working through college is commended by executives as developing self-reliance and initiative. In this connection, it is interesting to note a new experiment undertaken by students in the States. A number of them in different centres formed seminars for the study of working conditions. They joined unemployment queues and applied for jobs without mention of their regular pursuits. Reports were made on working hours, standards of employment and of living, wages, and associate labour problems. The definite contact obtained in this way with industrial conditions should be an invaluable experience. There are certain academic objections to the habit of working through college, such as the argument that it interrupts the continuity of academic work, but from the standpoint of practical experience, it is an undertaking that eminently justifies itself.

Another pertinent question, discussed in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post, is the value of the university degree in seeking a business position. College graduates, it is pointed out in the article, are becoming a glut on the market. The man with the degree is no longer the exception, but the regular thing. As the supply grows, it is natural that the demand should decline. Industry is coming to ask for more than a degree of university students; it expects them to be of exceptional ability and to show talents that will enable them to rank with, or to outstrip, graduates of technical schools, or those who are going directly into business from high school.

Reference has already been made to the research work being done by universities—work in which the University of Toronto is among the most prominent. Another proof that the university is taking steps to meet the demand of industrial experts is the increasing popularity of the course in Commerce and Finance here, in which business men are co-operating with the university.

CHAMPUS CAT

For us this is a sad occasion. We submit for the last time certain persiflage and piffle under the rampant Cat. Appropriately enough, we quote the first contribution ever to appear from our typewriter:

Perhaps it's only perversity
On the part of "The Varsity's" boss;
But the humorous chap on "The Varsity"
Is just the one ant in the sauce.

By arson, by murder or mayhem
With poker, gun, pistol, or gat;
Let's rise up united to slay him—
A las with Champus the Cat!

This, if we are to believe low persons of the baser sort, rather accurately echoes the sentiment of a considerable section of opinion.

In earlier times we used to have gride in old Sadie:

Sadie the Sophomore was quite dumb
As all of her friends can tell;
We don't mean inarticulate
But dumb in the sense of bell.

C—C

Just about the worst which has lately come to our ears was the comment of a certain wisecracker about the campus. He said to a certain ambitious fellow with aspirations at the time of the Moss Scholarship: "You're a rolling stone. You won't get the Moss."

C—C

So let's Philistine with some beer and go out and have a round with Goliath. (Courtesy of Pat.)

C—C

Puns, however, have always been our favourite, and we still maintain that no peanut-wit can make puns. Frezzample, can any such give us a sentence with the word "elucidate"?

C—C

We thought not. Yet, we have heard wise young men say: "If I don't show up on time, elucidate with the girl friend."

C—C

Can you beat it? Yes, of course, as long as one has the use of one's legs.

C—C

It would be more customary to sign this as Aunt Fanny, but more truthful to sign as DEE.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Women's Duty to Men

The Editor,
"The Varsity".
Dear Sir:

I should like to have the opportunity, sir, of voicing through the correspondence column my vehement opposition to the grounds of the argument taken in the letter headed "Page the Puritan", re women smoking and signed "Indignant Co-ed, 3TO U.C." in Tuesday's issue.

First of all the question of rights seems to be the sole consideration. "She has a perfect right" is the one and unceasing reiteration of all the would-be liberators. "To do as they please and not what men please" is in fact the stand taken by this co-ed as an enviable exercise of right. This, sir, is a selfish and self-centred age. If it once is proved I have a right to pursue a course nothing shall stop me. But is there not some higher criterion of action? I do not deny that woman has a right to smoke if she so desires. But I do question whether the whole discussion should not entirely be removed from the ground of rights and the question asked, "Is it not rather my duty to abstain?"

It is a question of duty because of the moral tone that women smokers produce—quite apart from the effect upon themselves. Woman has the power to pull the male element in whatever direction she pleases. He will follow her in moral matters, to any level at which she chooses to stop, as she will follow him to any spot on

With the Theatres

PANTAGES

If it weren't for Marie Dressler, "The Vagabond Lover" could be vastly improved by the simple method of removing the plot and condensing the orchestra numbers into a short feature. Rudy Vallee could sing in it, and tuck his saxophone under his arm, and exert his personality, and do all the other things he does in what the radio and a fat contract have made his starring vehicle. Sally Blane could even be introduced to display her quite devastating smile. But for the sake of the incomparable Ugly Duckling, I move we leave the film as it is, admit it's agreeable entertainment, and stop being fastidious. Pantages provides a pleasant enough stage bill too, with Harry Hines engaged in a solo act as well as in holding the bill together a la Publix.

—A.E.F.A.

earth where he chooses to take up his abode. Can you honestly think that smoking women have an upward pull? Woman has always been the channel to guide men to the finer things of life. Perhaps she no longer wishes this position. She would rather barter respect for the thrill of being masculine.

This involves the question of equal-
(Continued on page 4)

YOU NEVER FELT SO GOOD

A University Travel Club

tug of war—how you pull—how you grip your teeth and Jean on that rope! It's the Club spirit.

Owing to the great number of requests for reservations, the Club staff take pleasure in announcing two additional tours sailing on S.S. Letitia from Montreal July 11th. Also another extension to the Passion Play at Oberammergau to be conducted by Prof. A. H. Young of Trinity College.

Forties sail on:
S.S. ANDANIA - JUNE 20th
S.S. ATHENIA - JUNE 27th
S.S. ANDANIA - JULY 4th
S.S. LETITIA - JULY 11th

The complete cost of the tour to England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium and France is

$415

Write or call now for further information from

WALTER H. BILBROUGH

Assistant Secretary
508 McKINNON Bldg. Adelaide 9548

20 INGLEWOOD DRIVE. Hyland 5364

APRIL'S BRIDE

is thinking of that April Wedding day . . . and considering her trousseau, such a very important part of the wedding. Virginia Dare has a new style of bride set, inspired by the beauty of April. The set consists of four pieces, dainty panties, costume slip, gown and brassiere. Of heavy crepe de chine, in white or any tint you may desire, trimmed with the most exquisite of lace and tiny orange blossom motif, with the touch of blue that brings luck. Four pieces of exquisite beauty at the exceedingly low price of $13.98

Tune in Every Wednesday, 7 p.m., C.F.C.A.
Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET At Richmond AD. 5898
768 YONGE STREET Next door to Uptown Theatre EL. 3600
2496 YONGE STREET Next door to Capitol Theatre HU. 4760
OPEN EVENINGS

S.P.S. INITIATIONS

are revealed in a 350 line poem in the Feb. issue of "Acta Victoriana" on sale at Hart House tuck shop at 25 cents a copy.

ELECT

F. N. YEIGH

TO

Library Committee

Why invest in a new suit. Rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street.

The Man O'War of All Musical Shows

All the gobs and all their sweethearts off on the year's grand joy-bender . . . mix up in this big festival of laughter, song and sailor love.

Songs! Laughs! Girls in Grand Abundance

HIT THE DECK

starring

JACK OAKIE POLLY WALKER

And a Thousand Others

"MONTMARTRE"

A Jack Arthur Presentation
Featuring
Cortez and Helene—Others

THEATRE HIPPODROME

The Smartest Show in Town!

On the stage

Anatole Friedland's
TWELVE O'CLOCK REVUE

With a Dozen Broadway Favorites

Including

MARTY MAY

LUCILLE HAYES

And a Brevy of the Most Talented and Beautiful Girls in the World

Additional R. K. O. Acts

Ideas

You simply must visit Shea's to understand why such popularity is enjoyed.

On the Screen

Wedding Rings

with
LOIS WILSON H.B. WARNER

GRAHAM McNAMEE
As the Talking Reporter

Sister against sister for the same man's love . . . fighting viciously for possession— which one wins, enchants or outwits her?

ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM

253 Bloor Street West
Near Avenue Road

Largest permanent exhibition in Canada. Archaeology, Geology, Mineralogy, Palaeontology, Zoology.

Open daily, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Students of all faculties and colleges are admitted free on pay-days (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) on presentation of their cards of registration. These days are also preferable for observation and study since the general attendance is greatly reduced.

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)

(Opposite Simpson's)

For service and low rates see FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge St.

BLUE JUNIORS IN RETURN GAME WITH WEST TORONTO TO-NIGHT

SPEAKING OF SPORT

McGILL WINS THE RAZZBERRY!

Well, well, well! So dear old McGill wanted to go into the Allan Cup playoffs! After being eliminated in no uncertain fashion in the Quebec Hockey Association senior group the Red and White won the Intercollegiate hockey title and applied as a representative of the Intercollegiate series. And a two-team league at that! Not only should the application to play as an Intercollegiate member have been made before the start of the O.H.A. series and the first Intercollegiate game, but how could McGill have overlooked the fact that a two-team league like the Intercollegiate Hockey Association cannot send its winner into the Canadian playdowns. According to the C.A.H.A. regulations a league must have a minimum of three teams to qualify the winner.

Didn't McGill win the Intercollegiate football championship once upon a time? Ah, yes, it was in 1928. And don't you remember the great showing the team made in the playoffs? Maybe! Perhaps you can't remember it at all! Now you've got it! McGill refused to represent the Intercollegiate against Hamilton Tigers in the eastern semi-finals. The faculty were said to be opposed to their continuing and the team voted against it prior to their final game. What reasons were given? Men behind in their work, need for more study! And this in November! All right! We won't say anything about Intercollegiate football being deprived of a representative in the playoffs. The second team, Queen's? By no means, the Intercollegiate wanted its best team, not the second placers, and McGill's attitude didn't add any prestige to college football.

But this is March! The hockey team must be well up in their work to continue. Perhaps the faculty wishes to give them a little relaxation before the examinations. Why the change? We can see no explanation. It appears that McGill left itself open to the well-known razzberry.

INTERFACULTY RUN WON BY WALLY GRAHAM

In the interfaculty track meet held yesterday at Hart House, Wally Graham, Meds, romped home first in the two-mile run with a time of ten minutes, 21 4-5 seconds.

Graham came within two seconds of the record in running. He ran an excellent race, leading all the way, with Don Smith, U.C., close on his heels. Judd Merritt, U.C., was third and K. L. Reed, U.C., fourth.

S.P.S. now has a lead of three points in the race for the championship. The winners of the final events will be the deciding factors on Thursday, March 6, at 5:15 p.m., when the mile relay and the pole vault will be run off.

BASEBALL CLUB DRAWS ANNOUNCED

The University of Toronto Indoor Baseball Club semi-final and final draws for 1929-1930 are as follows:
Mar. 5-5 p.m., Victoria at Jr. U.C.
Mar. 5-5 p.m., Sr. Dents at Sr. U.C.
Mar. 7-4 p.m., Jr. U.C. at Knox
Mar. 7-5 p.m., Sr. U.C. at Sr. Dents
Mar. 10-4 p.m., Knox at Victoria
Mar. 10-5 p.m., Sr. Dents at Sr. U.C.
(Third game if necessary)
Mar. 12-5 p.m., Jr. U.C. at Victoria
Mar. 14-5 p.m., Knox at Jr. U.C.
Mar. 17-5 p.m., Victoria at Knox
Mar. 10 or 12—Winner of Sr. Dents and Sr. U.C. at O.A.C.
Mar. 17-4 p.m., O.A.C. at winner of Sr. Dents and Sr. U.C.
NOTE—Third game if necessary—Tues., Mar. 18 at 4 p.m.

JUNIORS WILL CARRY ONE-GOAL DEFICIT SENIOR HOCKEYISTS PLAY NEXT FRIDAY

Winner of To-Night's Game Enters Finals With Niagara Falls

W. TORONTO MEETS EQUAL

Varsity juniors play West Toronto again to-night at the Arena Gardens in the semi-finals for the Junior O. H.A. title. The Blue and White will carry a one-goal deficit into to-night's encounter due to that last second fluke goal that the West Enders scored in the first game. The winner enters the finals with Niagara Falls here Saturday afternoon.

West Toronto have met a team at last that can hold their vaunted scoring machine in check. If the Blues can only develop a scoring punch they stand an excellent chance of taking the boys from the Junction into camp. The Blues and the West Toronto aggregation appeared to be very evenly matched in their last encounter and although the Grace-Thoms-Collings forward line appeared to have an edge on finish on the Blue forwards the latter were just as effective and dangerous at all times.

The Blue defence of Levinsky, Williamson and Hunnisset had an edge both offensively and defensively on the West Toronto trio and should be a potent factor in determining the result of to-night's contest. Alex Levinsky, sturdy Blue defenceman, has been a big cog in the Varsity machine and is at present going better than ever. He has had hard luck in his shooting lately and should break into the score column in to-night's fray. Williamson, his elongated partner, has been playing in great form lately and his playing reminds one somewhat of Bruce Paul's long-geared action, and that is saying plenty. Frank Hunnisset has been playing the original stonewall in goal and no easy shots have been getting by him and his opponents certainly have earned all their counters this season.

ST. MIKE'S PUCKSTERS DEFEAT VICTORIA 5-1

Aggressive Play Gives Victory to Better Team on Ice

St. Mike's fast travelling sextette entered the second round of the interfaculty hockey playoffs when they outscored Victoria by 5-1 at Varsity Arena yesterday. The losers' play was largely individual and St. Mike's superior combination and aggressive play gave them the victory. Harrison played a brilliant game in goal for the winners, and his defence gave him splendid protection.

Kehoe opened the scoring for St. Mike's half way through the first period when he sifted through the defence and picked the corner of the net. Five minutes later he repeated his performance for their second tally. In the second stanza Vic forced this play and Stanley put his team within striking distance when he scored on a hard, back-hand drive. Harrison robbed Inch of at least two more tallies by sensational work.

St. Mike's ended all arguments in the final period when they registered three tallies. Cerre and Young were the marksmen, with Regan getting an assist on the former's goal. The winners' entire forward line played fast hockey, with Kehoe and Martin outstanding.

St. Mike's—Goal Harrison; defence, Haffey, Young; centre, Martin; wing, Cerre, Regan; subs, Kehoe, Clancy, Dillon.

Victoria—Goal, Young; defence, MacMillan, MacDonald; centre, Hagger; wings, Stanley, Inch; subs, Seal, Hodggets, Grandon.

Locals Will Get a Six-Day Rest From the Last Gruelling Series

ARE IN FINE SHAPE

Varsity senior hockey team will not as previously announced in the O.H.A. bulletin, play the winner of the senior B group to-night on account of the fact that Queen's B team tied Hamilton on the round Monday night. The Blue and White will hook up with the winner on Friday night at the Arena Gardens.

The second game will be played on either Kingston or Hamilton ice Monday night. This will give the locals a six day rest from the gruelling series they recently concluded with the National Sea Fleas, and they should be in fine shape to take on the winner of the Hamilton-Kingston fracas.

According to the dope, Queen Bees are not as highly rated as Queen's senior A squad which was no match for the Blue and White hockeyists or the defeated Nationals. And Hamilton and the Queen's seconds seem to be a pair with little difference between them. Thus, it is a fairly sure bet that the local collegians will eliminate the winners in their march towards the Allan Cup.

The U. of T. has the same team which gave them the O.H.A. title, but strengthened defensively with the addition of "Skin" Dewar. The trouble heretofore with the Varsity team was their inability to put two strong wing lines on the ice and since "Red" Whitehead has been moved up to the forward line a great improvement is noticeable. The Blue and White are playing championship hockey at present and either Hamilton or Queen's will pull the unexpected should they triumph.

Bruce Paul right now is the outstanding performer among a line-up of stars, and his playing will undoubtedly feature the coming series. Whitehead, Stewart, McMullen, Murray and Marshall are players of no mean ability and Coach John "Red" Porter may be counted upon to get the most out of them.

BASKETBALL GROUP WON BY SR. U.C. FROM TRINITY

Trinity Battles Hart but Attack From U. C. Defeats Them 20-9

Sr. U.C. won their basketball group by defeating Trinity 20-9 yesterday. The game opened slowly with neither team displaying an organized attack. U.C. finally hit their stride and scored consistently to give them a substantial lead at half time.

In the second period Trinity battled hard and the play became fast. The Trinity forwards led by Scott, did everything but score regularly. The strong U.C. defence forced Trinity to shoot from long range, and U. C. were enabled to maintain their early lead.

Stringer and Mayor are formidable guards, the latter being the steady influence for the group champions. Foyer was the high scorer with 9 points, while Mainey also played a great game for Senior U.C. Scott, Moore and Rapsey were outstanding on the Trinity team.

Sr. U.C.—Forwards, Hodgson, Foyer (99), Mainey (6); defence, Mayor (4), Stringer; alternates, Noyes (1), Keith, Gardner, Davies.

Trinity—Forwards, Rapsey (2), Moore (2), Chapple; defence, Berwick, Ingram; alternates, Barker, Scott (3), Subosits (2), Clark.

HOLA! VOYAGEURS

The Universities and Government of Belgium offer a 60-day tour of Europe:—

60 DAYS $415

University Representative,

C. W. WOODSIDE,

Staff, S.P.S.

Ki. 8820

502 Huron St.

'WAY OF THE WORLD' ALL-ORIGINAL REVUE (Continued from page 1)

make her year.

Miss O'Mara wrote the book, lyrics and music of "The Way of the World". As suggested by the title, the revue is really supposed to express all emotions and feelings of life. It is being directed by Edgar Stone with Rowland Young in charge of the chorus, and Jack Griffin, the orchestration.

"The Varsity Entertainers" whom Miss O'Mara considers a "sextet of soloists" are to be featured in one entire band act. There is to be a new collegiate dance, "The Campus Crawl", with special music, and also an original negro spiritual, "When Gabriel Blows that Horn". Everything from coon comedy to an Apache murder is in the show. Every faculty is represented, and Miss O'Mara thinks that "a great deal of interest—a remarkable lot of it" has been shown in the student co-operation in this new revue.

GOVERNMENT CONTROLLED CAPITAL IS PROBLEM (Continued from page 1)

cally in reference to the more speculative enterprises such as mines."

The professor explained that in many of the enterprises that constitute the development of a new country there is no way of knowing what the outcome will be, and all this necessarily places the investor in a position of insecurity and for losses contingent upon this state of affairs the stock broker is not always to blame. "The fact that there are unscrupulous brokers is no reason for condemning the institution as a whole. Stock brokers in Canada have filled an important role in the development of the country," said Professor Innes.

He agreed that government regulation and checks may be placed upon the activities of stock brokers in the future which is the goal toward which the present commission of inquiry is working, but as for putting the control of capital in the hands of salaried officials under the supervision of the government—"You cannot do it." Professor Innes drew an analogy between the control of liquor by the government and the control of capital asserting that the principle involved in the former could as well be applied to the latter. In regard to this Professor Innes remarked: "In liquor you are trying to control a commodity—you can't compare liquor and capital."

Throat easy
Duckinham
CIGARETTES
20 for 25¢
NO COUPONS
ALL QUALITY

Harry Skitch Says:

START RIGHT—BUY MADE TO MEASURE CLOTHES—BECAUSE—Quality Materials ADD to your appearance.

Properly fitted clothes MULTIPLY your chances of success. Spring styles direct from Designers' Convention at Cleveland, Ohio.

PRICES $36.00 TO $50.00

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

The Harry Skitch Company Limited

9 ADELAIDE STREET EAST Above Elken Bradley's Grill

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

259 College St. Trinity 5907

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

FREEMAN'S—571 Yonge Street—is the largest concern for the rental of dress clothes.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets
for the last ten years
Largest concern for the rental of Formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.
RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY
FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
571 YONGE STREET KI. 3270

On to Murray's ye Men of Varsity!

Uptown, Downtown, Eastside, Westside—wherever sports, shows or just dates take Varsity men out o' nights, there is a MURRAY SANDWICH SHOP where you'll find some of "the boys" gathered for a late snack, chatting over their coffee and cigs—remember, after the first cup, the coffee is "on the house".

MURRAY'S

770 Yonge St., next Uptown

62 Front St. W., next Royal York

Metropolitan Bldg. Basement

12 Queen St. East

HART HOUSE THEATRE (By permission of the Syndics)

THE WAY OF THE WORLD

WEEK COMM. TUES. MAR.

11

Maureen O'Mara Presents

3 ACTS 18 SCENES

SEATS NOW

WITH THE VARSITY ENTERTAINERS - RANDOLPH CROWE - GEORGE PATTON - ELIZABETH FORGIE - MARGARET BARTON - FRED MALLETT - CHARLES FITZGERALD - MARGARET WILSON - CYRILLE LAURIN - ALBERT MUELLER - ROBERT BEATTY - HUGH McDIARMID - HAROLD JACKSON - ROLY YOUNG'S DANCING CO-EDS AND THEIR BOY FRIENDS

Coming Events

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5
1.30—Ash Wednesday prayers in Hart House Chapel.
4.20 p.m.—The Players' Guild elections, also two short plays.
4.20—Meeting of the U.C. Players' Guild.
Hart House Elections.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6
7.15 p.m.—Ex-Guelph students reunion dinner in Burwash Hall.
Hart House elections.

German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig", "Ein Knopf", at Women's Union.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7
4.30 p.m.—St. Michael's 370 permanent executive and Moss Scholarship candidate elections.

9.30 a.m.—3 p.m.—General election for all societies at Victoria College.
Victoria College senior reception.

MONDAY, MARCH 10
8.15—U. of T. Menorah open meeting.
Speaker: Jacob de Hass at the Talmud Torah, Brunswick Ave.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13
11.00 a.m.—U.C. Elections.

FRIDAY, MARCH 14
7.00 p.m.—Victoria College faculty-senior dinner in Burwash Hall.

CLANG! CLANG! CLANG!

A remarkable occurrence happened yesterday. The fire reels passed Victoria College Library and not a single person left their place.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 2)

ity of the sexes. There never was a more fallacious conception than that men desired to keep women down. But it is true that no man wants a wife of absolute equality. If he truly loves, she embodies for him his highest ideals. She is his complement, not his parallel. The smoking habit in women is one of the sure ways to secure marriage—for some fellows are attracted by the type—at the risk of real happiness. After the kick has gone out of the ginger ale it is just plain water—and ginger.

I am not one who holds that a woman is going to the dogs because she smokes. For it has little to do with spiritual experiences. There are, it must be recognized, different motives for smoking among women than among men. A great deal is occasioned by the brave spirit, the feeling of being modern, of having a broad mind. Nevertheless I am convinced that the girls with the really broad minds are the abstainers, and from my experience are decidedly the most virtuous.

C.P.P., 370 Vic.

FOREST RESOURCES

SUBJECT OF DEBATE

(Continued from page 1)

out that the centralized administration of forest lands from a remote head office has given unlimited opportunities for political graft. J. R. Burn for the noes, devoted much time to the correction of statistics issued by Saunders.

Things To Do in Merry May As You Face the Judgment Day

By A. E. F. Allan

THINGS TO DO ON THE EVE OF EXAMS . . . . .

Gaze out wistfully on the spring twilight. Is that supposed to be wistful? Don't you think it looks a bit idiotic? Do you ever admit to looking idiotic? Does anybody? Name ten people that look idiotic . . . Name ten idiots that look like people . . . What about to-morrow? Is there any hope? Do you suppose condemned criminals feel like this on the eve of execution? Is execution really as bad as it's cracked up to be? Do you think there's any chance you might die before morning? Do you really? How much chance? How about committing a murder or something? Or something? What "something"? How about arson? No—better stay away from Yonge Street . . . . . Anyway, there are no fairies on Yonge Street. "The Varsity" says so. Well, who said anything about fairies? Do you believe in fairies? . . . . . What do you think you are? Peter Pan? Why don't you grow up? You've got an exam to-morrow, haven't you? Well, you'll need all your faculties . . . . . And their deans, too, unless you settle down and do some work . . . . . Sit down. Pick up your notes. What language are they supposed to be written in? Sanskrit? Why don't you stick to English? Can you read that gibberish you have there? Well? . . . . . Throw the junk into the waste basket. Take down a book. Where did you get it? Is that honest? Why didn't you return it? Oh! well, why didn't you read it? It's too late now, isn't it? Five hundred pages . . . . . How about suicide? What do you suppose is the most satisfactory way of committing suicide? Name ten possible ways of committing suicide.

Have you ever tried any of them? Did you ever know anybody who committed suicide? Do you know anybody you wish would commit suicide? . . . . . Name ten people—including the members of the examining board—who wish would commit suicide . . . . . Go back and look at the spring twilight again. Is there any of it left? Do you hear the clock ticking? Do you realize that every tick brings you nearer that—that THING? Well? . . . . . Well? What of it? You won't be there, will you? You'll be stiff and stark . . . . . Yes, you'll be stiff and stark, won't you? How do you suppose it'll feel to be stiff and stark? . . . . . Well, what method are you going to use? Poison? What? Poison?—with the marks you used to get in chemistry? Laugh feebly . . . . . Hehl hehl! . . . . . The laugh of a condemned criminal . . . . . Well, it serves you right. Where have you been all year? You were around, weren't you? Why didn't you do something? Did you think they were going to set an exam in cocktail mixing? . . . . . Who cares? How many hundreds others do you suppose are in the same boat? How many suicides do you suppose there will be before morning? . . . . . Do you think a revolver would be artistic? No—melodramatic, maybe, but not artistic. Messy. Anyway, you haven't got a revolver . . . . . How about lying on the railway track? How about the lake? the river? the Rosedale Ravine? How about a cup of campus coffee? How about hanging? How about a knife? gas? How about telling the plain, unvarnished truth about university officials and student government and dying a hero's death? How about . . . . . Well? . . . . . Oh! hehl! let's go to a show!

BULLETIN BOARD

VARSITY STAFF

Meeting of all members at the Women's Union to-day at 4.30 p.m. Elections for coming year.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

At the meeting of the Players' Guild this afternoon at 4.20 two short plays will be presented, "Fame and the Poet", by Lord Dunsany, directed by Miss Jocelyn Moore, and "A Pair of Lunatics" directed by Miss Dorothy Starr. The elections for next year's executive will be held.

NEWMAN CLUB RETREAT

The Annual Retreat for members of Newman Club begins to-night at seven-thirty with services in the Chapel. The retreat continues Thursday and Friday. Members are requested to attend.

INDOOR TRACK MEET

The final events of the indoor track meet—the pole vault and the mile relay—will be run off on Thursday, 6th March, at 5.15 p.m. sharp.

SCHOOL TRACK CLUB

The indoor track team picture will be taken in the School building at 12 o'clock on Friday, March 7. All men who have won points in the indoor meet are eligible for this picture.

TORONTO INTERCOLLEGIATE CHRISTIAN UNION

Miss Constance J. Brandon, secretary of the World Dominion Movement, will address the regular meeting this afternoon. Those interested in the newest forms of Christian progress throughout the world will find Miss Brandon's grip of the subject very helpful. Mr. Kenneth Hooker, who has just returned from a tour of the Maritime universities, will also speak briefly. All welcome.

INTERMEDIATE HOCKEY

Intermediate hockey practice to-day at 1 o'clock. Everybody out.

PHYSICS SEMINAR

Department of Physics Seminar will be held on Thursday, March 6th at 4.15 p.m. in Room 4. Speakers: Professor J. C. McLennan, A. O. Burton, W. D. A. Douglas and Professor E. F. Burton.

370 ST. MICHAEL'S

The elections for the Moss Scholarship candidate and permanent executive of 370 St. Michael's, will be held in the college reception room, Friday, March 7, at 4.30 p.m.

In the Days to Come

WHAT part will you take in business life five, ten, fifteen years from now? Will you be the head of a business, or will you be content to drift along with the tide?

The man with vision—the man who realizes the possibilities of the future and determines to profit by them—will lay the foundation of his future capital out of his present earnings.

MAKE YOUR BANK BOOK
MARK YOUR PROGRESS

The Royal Bank of Canada

S903

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KL 6758

328 BLOOR ST. W.

WYMLWOOD AUCTION DISPLAYS PRETTIES

(Continued from page 1)

books. At the Union there is an artistically mounted safety razor blade among the general collection, — mostly gloves, scarves, compacts and jewellery. Some of the Union people also have remembrances of one young lady dashing back in great consternation for her engagement ring, which had been left in the rush.

HART HOUSE HOLDS ELECTIONS TO-DAY

(Continued from page 1)

Room "C"—Ontario College of Education, Emmanuel College, Wycliffe College, Ontario College of Art, Faculty of Music, and School of Graduate Studies.

S.C.A. Library—Pharmacy.

The voter having presented his Hart House membership card at the door of the polling booth and having it stamped, will proceed to the table allotted to his year and will give his name. Having had his name checked on the Voters' List, the voter will be given six ballot papers, one for each committee. After he has marked the ballots in pencil he will place these in the ballot boxes and leave the room. Members are reminded that no electioneering is permitted in the polling room.

The elections to the Camera Committee will take place in the Music Room between 5 and 6 p.m. on Thursday, March 6th. Four members are to be elected to this committee.

The Squash Racquets Committee will be elected by the regular squash players of Hart House (i.e. players who have had their names on the reservation list at least five times during the academic year 1929-1930) on Thursday, March 6th, 12 noon to 1 p.m. and from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the Sketch Room. Four members are to be elected to this committee.

MAJORITY OF CO-EDS ARE NON-SMOKERS

(Continued from page 1)

smoke come from the larger cities." When asked whether there was any estimate available of the number of women smokers in the fourth year, Dr. Gordon replied: "No, there has never been any record of that kind taken. If it could be done, the results would certainly be interesting." "It would not be possible for us to secure any statistics of that sort," said Miss M. E. Addison, dean of women of Victoria College. "We have no idea how many of our girls smoke. We don't ask them, and of course they don't volunteer the information. Our only regulation on the subject is that they are asked not to smoke in the residences, which are inflammable."

RENT A TUXEDO
$2.00
STUDENTS PRICE ONLY
NEW SUITS LATEST STYLE
TELEPHONE TRINITY 8218

Mallabar COSTUMER
450-452 SPADINA AVE
at College St.

COLLEGE GOWNS CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON
103 King St. W., Toronto

DANCING LESSONS REDUCED RATES
Solely Private - 6 for $5.00
Semi Private - 6 for $4.00
(Two pupils taking same lesson)
HARRY WALFORD-KI. 4882
Address—55 WELLESLEY ST.

SKITS ARE ENJOYED AT OPEN MEETING

(Continued from page 1)

dered over the circumstances surrounding the death of a motionless figure between them which turned out to be not a corpse after all. "How Plays Are Made" was feelingly portrayed by three members of the fourth year, while first year completed the program with a complete murder trial. Miss F. M. Quinlan, Miss Annettes, past president of the society, Miss K. M. Crossley, and Dr. D. J. Satterly lent their patronage to the affair. Mrs. Satterly and Mrs. C. F. Burton were unable to be present.

Your Savings

Will Earn

4%

Interest

— AT —

CENTRAL CANADA 19AN AND SAVINGS COMPANY

Head Office:
TORONTO

Corner KING & VICTORIA STS., TORONTO

Branch Office:
OSHAWA

ASSETS OVER ELEVEN MILLIONS

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, THURSDAY, MARCH 6th, 1930

No. 97

MISOGYNIST ACCUSES WOMEN OF IMBIBING WITH UNUSUAL NOISE

Women of Glasgow College Amused at Attack Made by University Paper

"BROKEN MAN" COMMENTS

Co-Ed Thinks Writer Mistaken Advises More Thorough Investigation

Special to "The Varsity"
Glasgow.—The women students of Queen Margaret College, the Girton of Glasgow University, are merely amused by the attack which has been made upon them in the current issue of the university magazine under the pseudonym of "A Broken Man."

The writer, deprecating the admission of women students to the new union of the university, refers to them as "Q Emmas" and says:

"Q Emmas are ugly in face, form, and mind. They have no humor, no initiative, no originality, no love for beauty, no taste in dress, no ability in the writing of verse, no idea of food, no religious beliefs, no discernment where men are concerned. No aptitude for any serious study, no judgment in wine and tobacco, no delight in music, no taste for art, no appearance in public, no contempt for politicians, no spleen for financiers, and no wish to escape from their destined and damnable profession—school teaching."

"Have you ever heard any considerable body of women partaking of food? There is no more terrible noise. And to think of a mixed union."

A woman in the University made this comment on the article:

"The writer must have a very curious conception of the Q Emmas. As for the bit about dress, he should take a look in at the girls' union some day. He would probably be surprised. He says there is no more terrible noise than a body of women partaking of food. There is—a body of men partaking of food."

HART HOUSE HALLS ECHO CAMPAIGNING

Much Vim and Vigor Displayed by Frantic Candidates for Committees

YELLS ATTRACT ATTENTION

Hart House walls echoed and re-echoed as perhaps never before to the shouts and cries of candidates, supporters and hecklers as one of the noisiest and most interesting elections of the college year took place yesterday.

Poster-clad men rushing hither and thither in frantic haste, eager to be the first to pounce upon an undetermined voter, blotters pushed indiscriminately upon anyone and everyone, cigarettes and candy pressed upon harried and sometimes bewildered voters, strange and bizarre methods of gaining attention; all these were characteristic of the election for Hart House committees which took place yesterday.

The fervor and zeal with which many candidates threw themselves into the campaign were strikingly evident. No small pains were taken by some to make the election a success, one candidate, W. I. B. Stringer, evidently from the North Country, having a polar bear walk about the campus, in the person of an undergraduate, garbed in bearskin robe, using this

(Continued on Page 6)

"Varsity" Staff Tea

The final meeting of the year of all members of "The Varsity" staff will be held today at the Women's Union. The meeting will be held at 4.30 p.m. with the attendance of all members of the staff compulsory. The elections for "The Varsity" for next year will be held. The names of those having the right to vote appear in the mast-head.

VICTORIA ELECTIONS FREE OF CAMPAIGNS

Third and Fourth Years Form Experienced Nomination Committees

EVERY STUDENT VOTES

"Our object is not to change the past radically, but to make sure of candidates for all offices," said Mr. Martyn, leader of the Victoria College Students' Parliament when questioned why the constitution of the new Victoria College Union had provided for a nominating committee of women for women's offices and men for men's offices, and for the electorate to consist of the whole student body.

"There is a greater likelihood of good students being elected," continued Mr. Martyn, "as there is no campaigning in Vic elections."

The nominating committee is composed of fourth and third year men and women who have the interests of the college at heart and most of whom are impartial judges. Also having had considerable executive experience, they are able to suggest capable people as candidates.

The Joint Committee of the Victoria College Students' Parliament and the Women's Undergraduate Association is of the opinion that when men and women are both voting on candidates of either sex the results are seldom the same as when men vote for men and women for women.

There were two possible alternatives to overcome this difficulty, namely to have separate electing bodies, or separate nominating bodies with open elections. The latter suggestion was felt to be closer to the ideal of the proposed union, in the furtherance of co-educational representation of the college.

INDIA GROUP ENJOYS UNUSUAL ENTERTAINMENT

Miss Kilpatrick Recounts Thrilling Experiences in Far East

In the Indian tongue, Miss Dorothy Kilpatrick, dressed in a sari, welcomed her India group at the Women's Union yesterday. Her life and mission experiences in India formed the topics of her address.

"Whether you come to India to teach high school or kindergarten you may expect to turn your hand to any conceivable thing," Miss Kilpatrick declared, telling how she cared for thirty babies all under seven years for three months, although she had had no former experience in such work.

A picture which had nearly cost Miss Kilpatrick her life was among the coloured slides illustrating the lecture. Anecdotes of the people or events depicted accompanied these slides.

The girls of the India group, whom Miss Kilpatrick entertained at dinner before the lecture, found Indian place cards with English translations at the table.

ELECTORAL MEETING CHOOSE DIRECTORATE FOR REPRESENTATION

Athletic Association to Vote for Body of Student Representatives

OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR

Voting to Take Place at Hart House on March 14

The Electoral Meeting of the University of Toronto Athletic Association to elect Student representatives to the Directorate for 1930-31 will be held on Friday, March 14th, 1930, at 4.15 p.m. in the Lecture Room, Hart House (south side, upstairs).

Under the Constitution of the Athletic Association (Article IX, Sec. 4) all athletic clubs and associations are entitled to send representatives to that meeting. These representatives must be made undergraduates of the University of Toronto or one of the affiliated colleges, who are proceeding to a degree, are in actual attendance upon lectures and who have paid the annual fee required (By-Law I).

A Student to be elected to the Directorate must at the time of his nomination be in the second, or a higher year of his course at the University, but not in the final year. The nomination must be made in writing on the form provided for the purpose, signed by two male undergraduate members of the Athletic Association in good standing and filed with the Secretary of the Association at least five days prior to the election (i.e., not later than Monday, March 10th). Forms can be obtained at the office of the Association.

SPORTSMANSHIP

The West Toronto junior hockey club displayed a sporting spirit that might be envied by any organization, university or otherwise, in declining to accept a "doubtful" goal awarded them by the referee in their Monday night's game with Varsity Juniors. Much has been said about college sporting ethics but it is extremely doubtful if this example of true sportsmanship has been equaled for a long time.

Diogenes' Daily Questionnaire Questions Student Matrimony

"What are the chances of success in student marriages?"

Lois Girvan, II Arts, Victoria—

"As good as any other marriages."

J. L. Blaisdell, I Medicine—

"Personally, I have never found them very successful."

Mrs. Baumerman, I Arts, University College—

"I think they are very foolish—what are the poor dears going to live on? My husband is a graduate. I wouldn't think of marrying a boy still going to school."

G. Wycoffe, IV School of Practical Science—

"I think everybody should be married before they are through university."

Eva Boon and Ivan Fawlds, II Household Economics—

"We think they are the bunk."

O. L. Bailey, III Medicine—

"It has its advantages and disadvantages. If a person chooses wisely it is an advantage—at least I have found it so."

J. C. Stevenson, IV Dentistry—

"I've never had enough money to give it serious thought."

Jessie Forbes, II Occupational Therapy—

"Looking at it from the sane and sensible point of view of one who has never had the opportunity, I would say 'None whatever.'"

A. Wilson, IV Arts, University College—

"Owing to lack of experimental data, I hesitate to venture an opinion."

POLICE SIGNALLING OF TORONTO PRAISED AT JOINT BANQUET

Four St. Michael's Clubs Hear C. E. Take at Carls-Rite

GEN. DRAPER CANNOT COME

Chicago Police Rated High Amongst Those Described by Graduate

The four clubs of St. Michael's College, the Quindecim, Oratorical, Areopagus and Iconoclast held a joint banquet last Monday evening in the Carls-Rite Hotel. General D. C. Draper, Chief Constable, who was scheduled to speak, was unfortunately not able to be present and his place was taken by C. E. Take, a graduate of the School of Science, who spoke on the "Use of Signalling in Police Work."

"The advent of the automobile," said Mr. Take, "has furnished the criminal with such a speedy means of getaway that we had to devise some means to offset his advantage."

Mr. Take went on to say that they had established a system of police signalling in Toronto which he considered to be second to none in the world. Within ten seconds after a man has reported his automobile stolen and has described it at a police station, the description is typed out in black and white at every other station in the city by means of a special machine.

(Continued on Page 6)

PLAYERS' GUILD CHOOSE OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR

As a result of the election held at the meeting of the University College Players' Guild yesterday afternoon in the Women's Union, the following will comprise the Guild executive for the year 1930-31: President, A. E. F. Allan (by acclamation); Vice-President, Miss Patricia Godfrey; secretary, Miss Ruth Haldenby; treasurer, Victor Wynbourne; publicity manager, Miss Marjorie James.

Largest Vote in History Cast at Hart House Polls

MAUREEN O'MARA

Who is producing an original review, "The Way of the World", in Hart House next week.

Matriculation To Go Term Work Standard

An authoritative rumour reaching "The Varsity" last evening concerns important changes that will be made in Matriculation standards in high schools very shortly.

Under the new system proposed, whereas the work of the lower forms will remain unchanged, pass and honour matriculation standing and examinations will be based entirely on term work. For this term work an average of sixty-six per cent. based on three term examinations, will entitle the candidate to standing, according to the rumour. Confirmation of the rumour that the Pass Arts course will be abolished was also given.

H. B. Tapscott, head of the Department of French of Jarvis Collegiate Institute interviewed by "The Varsity" last evening, admitted that the Department of Education is considering important changes in this regard. Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, Minister of Education, could not be reached by "The Varsity" last evening.

WOMEN MORE PRACTICAL THAN MALE STUDENTS

Few University Students Seek Summer Jobs, Says Miss McMann

"Girl students are more practical and waste less energy than male students," said Miss McMann of the Underwood Typewriter Company when interviewed regarding employment in the summer for students. "Students are either dreading forthcoming examinations or too busy having a good time, for so far no students from the University of Toronto have registered here, though several from outside universities have two weeks ago," she went on.

Miss McMann has been supplying part time work for a number of Social Service students throughout the term. She finds that these students are very patient and careful,

Pharmacy and Forestry Make Clean Sweep in Returns

W. E. ALGIE, S.P.S., FIRST

St. Michael's and Dentistry Register High Rating—Large Faculties Low

The polls of the Hart House elections yesterday closed with the largest vote in history. From the time they were opened at 11.45 a.m. until the closing hour at 6 p.m. voting was constant.

All faculties were well represented both on the nomination list and in the number of supporters. Pharmacy, who made their debut in the election this year as contestants, had the distinction of having their six representatives elected. Forestry also made a clean sweep, electing five out of five. Both St. Michael's College and Dentistry dropped one man out of six.

In the larger faculties, however, more disasters occurred. S.P.S. nominated twenty men and only seven were elected. University College had eighteen candidates and six were elected. Other colleges varied according to their size.

W. E. Algie, III S.P.S., running for the Library Committee, won first place among the elected with a poll of 769 votes. This is the highest single vote in two years. W. I. B. Stringer, III Medicine, candidate for House Committee, was second with 734 votes and B. A. R. Dignan, III Victoria, also for House, took third place with 725 votes.

Those elected on the various committees are as follows:

House Committee—B. A. R. Dignan, III Victoria; A. F. Buell, III Forestry; J. H. E. Doyle, III S.P.S.; R. L. Algie, III Victoria; W. I. B. Stringer, III Medicine; T. L. Marsh, (Continued on Page 6)

CAMBRIDGE SPEAKER DESCRIBES REEFS

V. Stanley Gardiner Discusses Coral Polyps Formation Closing Channel

RIOGES OCCUR NEAR LANO

"The Formation of Coral Reefs" was the subject discussed by V. Stanley Gardiner, professor of zoology and comparative anatomy, at Cambridge University, Wednesday at 5 p.m. in the Physics Building.

The coral polyps have built up reefs. "These occur," stated Mr. Gardiner, "where conditions are favourable, principally in the tropical seas, the best known being among the Maldivian Islands of the Indian Ocean, and the Fiji Islands of the South Pacific Ocean."

He went on to show that the ridges of coral were built up from the sea bottom so near the land that no navigable channel existed between it and the shore. Often reefs entirely have surrounded the islands and yet quite frequently breaks have occurred in reefs. The lecture was illustrated by slides.

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hasel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champos Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

REPORTERS

O. Abramowitz, G. H. Alles, J. Armp, E. L. Baker, J. R. Caldwell, A. C. Cochrane, E. J. Delorme, B. A. R. Dignan, G. L. English, K. J. Erwin, W. Engel, E. F. Finningley, T. A. Fleming, M. B. Gelber, V. Geller, G. Gillespie, W. L. Hogg, H. L. Johnston, S. Johnston, T. J. Keenan, J. Leibel, L. H. Leslie, J. F. MacMillan, G. A. Marron, M. Marks, M. McKay, J. B. Metzler, G. W. Morrison, D. F. Nasmith, E. D. Northrup, G. J. Northrup, H. A. Rapsey, L. Starkman, J. L. Stewart, H. A. Wallace, M. Walker, J. H. Yocom, Anne Adler, Winnifred Barlow, Margaret Colbin, Margaret Douglas, Julianne Gauthier, Kathleen Gough, Margaret Gaughan, Shelda Henderson, Ethel Hogg, Marjorie Kidd, Amy Lovegrove, W. A. Luckett, Nellie MacBeth, Eileen McGregor, Rosamund McCulloch, Margaret Millar, Gwen Murrell-Wright, Gwen Rupert, Elinor Smith, Kathleen Stewart, Kathleen Sutton, Dorothy Starr, Margaret Warren.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. Gordon Burns, B.A.

Night Editor: Hasel Hammond Assistant: Willie Ann Luckett

THURSDAY, MARCH 6th, 1930

OUR FAVOURITE INDOOR SPORT

The season for elections has definitely arrived. The sale of India Ink and other such invaluable properties for poster purposes, has gone up by leaps and bounds, and the amount of gum chewing done on the campus has increased to a shocking extent. Men dressed up as grizzly bears, risked their necks to put signs in strange places and in divers ways go to outrageous lengths for publicity. In most cases the ones who go to the most trouble are elected, probably because the electors feel that the more enterprise a candidate shows before election, the more efficient he will be in office—a popular fallacy that pervades nearly all electoral systems, although "many a rose is born to blush unseen, and waste its sweetness on the desert air". However, as the busy public has no time for unearthing the talents of modest candidates, probably the best it can do is to take people at their face, or their voice value.

The great wonder to us is, not only that people should go to so much trouble to secure votes, but that they should allow themselves to be exposed to election at all! Think of the trouble they are letting themselves in for! Think of the executives you know that spend their whole time in planning parties or musicales of doubtful interest, and then trying to persuade a sufficient number of indifferent people to turn out and support the event. Think of the other executives who admit that the chief business of their term of office is the painful necessity of hanging a portrait taken to perpetuate its memory.

There are cases of course, where election to office means an opportunity for people to take part in work they really enjoy. There are cases where much valuable experience is gained. But in the case where an executive is elected only to find upon taking office that it has absolutely no function to perform, the only sensible thing to do is to abolish the office. As for the executives which consist in a dreary round of meetings, committees, and half-hearted traditional functions, they will probably continue as long as so many willing lambs can be led to the slaughter of elections, or rather, can be held back with difficulty from violently contending for the privilege.

What is the reason for this blind enthusiasm? Is it an earnest conviction of the candidate that he can serve the public a little better than anyone else can, or is it a casual desire to take part in the general melee of nominations and elections as one might take a part in a popularity contest? If the latter, why not recognize the fact and hold an annual popularity contest, with publicity, electioneering, eliminations, and all the usual clap-trap of an election. At least it would be fulfilling its function without foisting off upon the already over-organized university public one more superfluous executive duly nominated and elected and ready to execute. As far as the actual business is concerned, at least half of our undergraduate associations, administrative councils, and year executives could be scrapped, and all the essential part of their functions rolled into one and performed by one paid official, who might be designated "social secretary", shall we say, to the college. Under this system the students would be relieved of a great deal of unnecessary bother and wasted time, worth-while activities would soon reach a state of hitherto undreamed-of efficiency, and useless or obsolete ones would quickly be discovered and dropped.

It is not likely, however, that such a system will ever be contemplated in a politically-minded institution such as ours. Respons-

Art and Drama

U.C. Players' Guild

A double bill was the rather unusual feature of the Guild's meeting yesterday. "Fame and the Poet", Donsany's splendid little satire, received a treatment, which if by no means flawless in execution, was quite adequate in conception. Andrew Allan as the poet, though regrettably uncertain of his lines, acted capably and for the most part ad-libbed with equal ease. Victor Wynbourne as the Philistine intruder was excellent, and Betty Lang, whose features were exquisitely apt to the goddess, was quite a good Cockney Fame. Jocelyn Moore's direction showed care.

The play itself is highly fantastic, which pleasing feature, strangely, seemed to perturb certain members of the audience, who couldn't quite stomach a Grecian goddess who talked like a char to a modern poet who, quaintly, had erected a tangible altar to Fame. To me, however, it seemed quite delightful, and I urge those who missed seeing its presentation to read it.

Following this came "A Pair of Lunatics", author unknown, asseverated by a member of the audience to be an adaptation from the French. It is a merry little skit, scarcely a play, quite buoyant and unpretentious, but unfortunately burdened with dozens of asides; and not, as certain of those discussing the play suggested, asides of the type O'Neill has used, which add something that could not be gained by gesture, inflection or facial expression, but of the old-fashioned type which hampered the actor and obviated his expressing unspoken shades of reaction and intention.

These are the asides of the "Dare I ask here?" and "I am defeated! I shall throw myself on his mercy!" school. O'Neill's asides, as employed (though one must admit not invariably) of essential value to the full psychological delineation of the character speaking them. The famous group-soliloquy scene in "Strange Interlude" furnishes the most perfect argument extant against those who hold that all asides are equally worthless. The abolition of the old-fashioned aside, however, is undoubtedly one of the greatest advances the drama has made.

The simple little plot of "A Pair of Lunatics" concerns a youth who has been inveigled into attending a Ball at an H. for the F.M. The strain has proved too much for him, and he totters into a sitting-room and proceeds to bemoan his fate. A moment after he has conveniently slipped from soliloquy into slumber a charming damsel enters and in like key bewails her inability to eavort with the unhinged abandon of the gay inmates. A curiously elderly snore from the sleeping youth causes her to look all round the room, behind curtains, beneath tables, everywhere but in the chair whence the slumberer is rather obviously making the night resound with hideous ecophony. At length her perspicacity leads her to the spot; at which very moment, oddly enough, the welkin-walloper wakes, and after a few frenzied asides a sentence or two are exchanged.

Each is naturally enough under the delusion that the other is a woozy, and each endeavours to wooze as wiffishly as possible, in order to put the other completely at ease. Such fairy flights of fancy follow as the news that the youth is accustomed, instead of taxing to the familiar portals, to blow himself home through a pea-shooter; while the maiden insists that the ideal conveyance is a swan-drawn balloon. It is then but a mere step to a most unusual performance of Ophelia, countered by a composite of Hamlet, a few Richards, a Henry or two, with Macbeth thrown in for good measure.

One's brain is beginning to be infected, and mad whimsies are filling one's head, when suddenly our hero discovers from a dropped letter that the supposed woozy is in reality a close friend or something like that. She makes the same discovery, and they both go rejoicing to supper, wits among the woozies—an ending which one who spoke later found a trifle tame, but which really leaves plenty to the romantic imagination—for what cannot happen over the ice-cream and salted nuts?

In this writer's opinion the skit was most amusing, and needs but the pruning of practically all the asides to make it excellent light fare. Its foolishness is of the beautifully unbalanced sort with which the Marx Brothers bubble so delightfully. More of it, say I!

The playing was quite passable, though much of the speaking was indistinct and lacked volume. Dorothy Starr as the youth had many really excellent moments; Helen McKee lacked experience, but was quite effective.

A surprising number of the audience defended the skit against even this writer's mild aspersions—surprising when one considers that his own guffaws were so rarely and daintily supported as almost to appear vulgar. P.A.G.

CHAMPUS CAT

And now having snaffled sundry cigarettes and divers chocolate bars, (not to speak of a couple of bags of peanuts), we sit back and wait for the Lit. elections next week at U.C.

C—C

Elections are very profitable for those who do not choose to run. But then you can't sit at the top table with lordly condescension if you never run!

C—C

As a problem for the new committees we might suggest that they find out what happened to the chief who disappeared this year. Did he get mixed up in a vat of soup in an attempt to solve the insoluble?

C—C

And the Billiard Committee might (Continued on page 5)

ible government is our watchword, voting is our hobby, and if as examinations and graduations approach a few backsliders from the faith begin to doubt the wisdom of the course they have followed, recruits will not be wanting to fill in the gaps and take up the cry for more and better elections.

Winchester

CIGARETTES

Blended Right!

The finest smoking pleasure that was ever rolled into a cigarette—because Winchester are blended right.

20 for 25c.

A "POKER HAND" IN EVERY PACKAGE

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon
In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

The Men's Shoe Shop

There can be no doubt in the mind of any man who wears our Shoes . . . . We believe that the quality, style and value are perfectly obvious.

J. G. KNOX & TALBOT CO.
95 YONGE STREET

Open Evenings

EL. 1709

Student Verse

By Marguerite Shantz

Softly white in the pale moonlight
Sleep shadowy hills of snow;
On the silent trail the only sound
As my horse and I strike lower ground
Is the crunch of the crusted deeps of snow
As we plunge too low.
Sudden, sweet, like fine cool sleet
Spindrift of snow-dust is blown
For a blinding moment into my eyes
By a deep-toned wind that quickly dies
On through the night, through the frosted stillness
We fare alone.

Twinkles a light on a distant height
Comes a small warm thought of home,
The keen air rushes roaring past
As we thud along the hills at last,
And my horse and I, in the frozen peace,
Turn toward home.

THE ROYAL TAILORS

Invites all students to inspect their new Spring woollens now on display at their Headquarters,

498 Wellington
St. W.

A discount is given to all Students.

Easter
April 20th

Mc's LUNCH

A very convenient place to eat
West side of Yonge St.
Half-way between Wellesley
and Maitland.
Best value in city for the price.
35c.

550 YONGE STREET

WEST TORONTO ELIMINATE VARSITY JUNIORS 7-5 IN O.H.A. RACE

WEST TORONTO CONTINUE IN RACE BY DEFEATING BLUE JUNIORS 6-4

Varsity Are Glorious in Defeat and Are a Serious Threat
All Through

DEFENCE SENSATIONAL

Second Period Rally Decides
Issue When Junctionites
Score Four Times

By Bruce Wood

In one of the most thrill-packed games seen here this season West Toronto eliminated Varsity juniors in the Junior O.H.A. semi-finals last night at the Arena Gardens. The West Enders took the game by a 6 to 4 score, capturing the round 7 to 5. Previous to this contest West Toronto had shown a fine spirit of sportsmanship by refusing to count their disputed goal of last game so the two teams entered last night's contest with a goal apiece.

The crowd, which crammed every inch of the Arena, was treated to a great battle between two evenly matched teams. In the first and last stanzas the Blue and White were just as good if not a little better than their opponents, outscoring them 4 to 2 in these two sessions. But in the second period the vaunted West Toronto scoring machine struck its stride and drilled four markers past Hunnissett to sew up the game. Hunnissett let several easy ones slip by him in this frame and appeared to be off his game. Roy Funston replaced him in the final session and turned in a great performance by keeping the Junction sharpshooters off the score sheet.

ALEX LEVINSKY

Who starred last night in Varsity's defeat by West Toronto. Levinsky was a mainstay of the juniors all season and will likely play for Varsity seniors in the Allan Cup competition.

Al Williamson, stellar Blue defence player, started the game, although he was quite ill and gamely continued for two periods, but was forced to retire in the final stanza.

For practically the entire third period Varsity played a one-man defence with big Alex Levinsky back there alone. The West Toronto attackers breezed in on him on numerous occasions, but were stood off in marvelous style by the "Big Train" and Funston. Levinsky was the most effective player on the Blue line-up and the best player on the ice. His rushes were always dangerous and although he was unlucky not to break into the score column he skated through the entire West Toronto attack and provided the pass that resulted in Varsity's second goal.

West Toronto opened the scoring after eight minutes of the first period had elapsed. Lamport and Collings combined with the latter scoring. Collings put the West Enders two up when he scored again on a pass from Thoms. The Blue and White were a man short at the time owing to a penalty. Hetherington

(Continued on page 4)

SPEAKING OF SPORT

West Toronto eliminated Varsity juniors from the O.H.A. race by defeating the Blue 6-4 last night to take the round 7-5. The juniors showed a great fighting spirit in the last period when Williamson, who partnered Levinsky on the defence, was forced to retire. Down four goals, Frank Sullivan's men, fighting against big odds, held West Toronto scoreless and tallied twice. Alex Levinsky again was the backbone of the team and without his efforts the Blue might have suffered a bad defeat.

Levinsky and Sid Hetherington, the regular right winger, are ripe for senior company and would strengthen Varsity seniors considerably. Levinsky would add scoring strength and his great defensive work might come in handy. Hetherington is a much smarter defensive player than several of the senior forwards who have not been consistent goal getters.

Varsity seniors meet Hamilton Senior "B" winners, at the downtown Arena to-morrow night. The return game for the senior title will be played at Hamilton Monday. As far as the dope goes Varsity should not have much trouble defeating the "B" champions, but the dope is not always reliable. Hamilton were forced to go into an extra game to defeat Queen's seconds and Varsity easily defeated Queen's firsts in their last game. Therefore everything points to a Varsity win. But if Hamilton can hold Varsity about even here they may be a tough team to take on their own ice.

McGill plays Varsity here Saturday night in the return game for the Intercollegiate Water Polo Championship. Varsity won in Montreal 5-3, and were extended to win. The admission will be at the "popular" price of 35c.

ELECTORAL MEETING FOR CO-ED ATHLETES

Nominations Will Be Received Until March 10th
at 5 p.m.

FIVE REPRESENTATIVES

The electoral meeting of the University of Toronto Women's Athletic Association to elect the five student representatives on the Women's Athletic Directorate for 1930-31 will be held in the Lecture Room, Household Science Building, on Thursday, March 13, at 4.30 p.m.

Nominations will be received by the secretary of the association until Monday, March 10, at 5 p.m. Nominations must be signed by two members of the U. of T. W.A.A. and must be made on forms to be obtained from the secretary, Room 82, U.C.

A student eligible for nomination must at the time of nomination be in her second or higher year, but not in her final year, at the university.

Representatives to the electoral body must be elected and sent to the meeting as follows: University College, Victoria, St. Michael's, St. Hilda's, Medical and Household Science W.A.A.'s, four representatives each; basketball and hockey clubs, six representatives each; Swimming Club, four representatives; tennis and baseball clubs and O.C.E. W.A.A., two representatives each. Names of representatives must be given to the secretary not later than Wednesday, March 12, and no substitutions or proxies will be allowed.

Upperclassmen at the University of Colorado are willing to sacrifice tradition for the opportunity to ice skate. If freshman clean the snow from the campus lake, they will be permitted to go without freshman "dinky" caps.

Windows of a subway train were smashed, signs and light bulbs broken, and a student was taken into custody by the police as a result of a brawl which followed a hockey game at Harvard university recently. When the officials learned that the mob-filled train was coming into Boston the train was diverted to a trainyard. Here a group of police patrols met the students and hauled them to the station.

BLUE SENIORS FACE HAMILTON IN FIRST GAME OF PLAYDOWNS

Hamilton Emerge Victorious from Series with Queen's Second Team

RETURN GAME MONDAY

Blue Defence and Forward Line Strengthened by Shake-up in Ranks

Varsity will enter the first round of the Allan Cup playdowns to-morrow night at the Arena Gardens against Hamilton. The Tigers won the O.H.A. Senior "B" championship last night at Oshawa, defeating the Queen's "Bees" by 5 to 3, after both teams were deadlocked 2 all on the two-game series. Hamilton is all enthused over the new champions, who won the title after a pretty tough schedule. The return game will be played Monday night in the Ambitious City.

The O.H.A. titleholders have been enjoying a well-earned rest during the past week. "Red" Porter's men went through a hard season, playing three different schedules and emerging from the grind without a serious injury. The forward line, which began to weaken, was bolstered up by moving up "Red" Whitehead from the defence. This bit of strategy proved successful at the expense of Queen's and the Sea Fleas. Varsity should present an exceptionally strong attack.

(Continued on page 4)

YOU NEVER FELT SO GOOD

A University Travel Club
tug of war—how you pull—how you grit your teeth and lean on that rope! It's the Club spirit. Owing to the great number of requests for reservations, the Club staff take pleasure in announcing two additional tours sailing on S.S. Letitia from Montreal July 11th. Also another extension to the Passion Play at Oberammergau to be conducted by Prof. A. H. Young of Trinity College.

Parties sail on
S.S. ANDANIA - JUNE 20th
S.S. ATHENIA - JUNE 27th
S.S. ANTONIA - JULY 4th
S.S. LETITIA - JULY 11th
The complete cost of the tour to England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium and France is

$415

Write or call now for further information

WALTER H. BILBROUGH
Assistant Secretary
508 McKINNON BLDG. Adelaide 9548
or
20 INGLEWOOD DRIVE. Hyland 5364

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

250 College St. Trinity 5007
Harry Winfield, Prop.
CIGARS - MAGAZINES
Cigarettes - Tobacco - Sundries
Name your day
We Have Your Home News Paper.
Leading Library.

SPECIAL

ALL STUDENT TOUR

to

EUROPE

arranged and directed by

The National Federation of Canadian University Students

Summer 1930

APPLICATION FORM

Please enrol me as a member of the above Tour.

Name.....
(State whether Mr., Mrs. or Miss)

Address (a) University.....

(b) Home.....

Name of University.....

Year and Faculty.....

Point from which I shall start.....

I am enclosing (cheque for Ten Dollars ($10.00) as a deposit on account of passage. This is returnable in event of necessary cancellation prior to 1 May, 1930. Balance of $414.25 due 15 May, 1930.

Signature.....

Date.....

Application must be forwarded not later than 30 April, to A. Gordon Burns, B.A., Travel Secretary, Hart House, University of Toronto.

Harry Skitch
Says:

START RIGHT—BUY MADE TO MEASURE CLOTHES—BECAUSE—Quality Materials ADD to your appearance.

Properly fitted clothes MULTIPLY your chances of success. Spring styles direct from Designers' Convention at Cleveland, Ohio.

PRICES $35.00 TO $50.00

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

The Harry Skitch Company Limited

9 ADELAIDE STREET EAST
Above Ellen Bradley's Grill

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
871 YONGE STREET K1. 9270

HART HOUSE THEATRE (By permission of the Syndics)

WEEK COMM. TUES., MAR. 11

Maureen O'Mara
Presents

THE WAY OF THE WORLD

3 ACTS
18 SCENES

SEATS
NOW

WITH THE VARSITY ENTERTAINERS - RANDOLPH CROWE - GEORGE PATTON - ELIZABETH FORGIE - MARGARET BARTON - FRED MALLETT - CHARLES FITZGERALD - MARGARET WILSON - CYRILLE LAURIN - ALBERT MUELLER - ROBERT BEATTY - HUGH McDIARMID - HAROLD JACKSON - ROLY YOUNG'S DANCING CO-EDS AND THEIR BOY FRIENDS

SUNWHEAT

Irradiated-Vitamin BISCUITS

"Ask your Doctor"

The only biscuit of its kind in the world

Contains five of the six known vitamins and the essential minerals—calcium, phosphorus, and iron. A food for body and brain.

Devised and Tested by the Nutrition Research Laboratories, Department of Pediatrics, University of Toronto, Developed and Prescribed in the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto. Licensed for Vitamin "O" by the University of Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation.

HARVEY GRAHAM

Star forward on Varsity's water polo team which plays McGill here Saturday night.

JENNINGS CUP GAME DELAYED BY WOMEN

Ice in Very Poor Condition for Semi-final Playdown at Varsity Arena

MIX-UP ABOUT GAME TIME

There was a good deal of criticism and complaint regarding the state of affairs at the Varsity Arena on Tuesday afternoon. It appears that the Victoria-St. Michael's semi-final in the Jennings Cup series was delayed and that the ice was very poor when it was secured. The rumour was that the game, scheduled to take place at 3.30 p.m., was held up by the practice of a girls' hockey team from Branksome Hall until 4.15 p.m. This team had started their practice late. Not only that, but the ice, flooded for an outside team early in the day, was in an extremely poor condition. The general opinion seemed to be that this was a deplorable state of affairs to face university teams in a university rink.

Upon investigation by "The Varsity" at the manager's office in the Arena, L. M. Latchford stated that the ice had been booked for 4.00 p.m. not 3.30 and denied that preference in flooding had been shown to any outside team.

"The rink was not flooded at all during the day, except of course, before being used in the morning," stated Mr. Latchford. "Those teams only pay eight dollars an hour for the ice and we don't charge any admission for those games, so it would hardly be worth while to flood the rink just for their benefit."

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ATHLETIC CONSTITUTION

In accordance with Article XI, Section I, the following Amendments to the Constitution of the University of Toronto Athletic Association are proposed:

Article II—Membership
Section 4 (See page 26 of the 1929 Hand Book).

After the words "Ontario Agricultural College" add the words "Ontario College of Pharmacy."

Article IX—Electoral Body
Section 4, Paragraph 2 (Page 39, 1929 Hand Book).

Add the words "Ontario College of Pharmacy" after Ontario Agricultural College.

Article III—Colours
Colours, Division II (Page 32, Hand Book).

Add new Section "D"—Golf.

Members of the University of Toronto Golf Team who compete in the Intercollegiate Golf Championships shall receive Third Colours, and if a member of the team wins first place in the Annual Intercollegiate Tournament he shall be granted a Second Colour.

Article VII—The Directorate
Section 8. Add Clause (b) (Page 37, Hand Book).

The Directorate shall have power to place on the Pension Fund of the University, such of the regular employees of the Association as, in the opinion of the Directorate, are eligible for the benefits thereof; and shall have authority to pay the required annual contribution to the said fund.

A special meeting will be held of the Athletic Directorate to consider any arguments or suggestions in regard to these changes on Tuesday, March 18th, at 5 p.m. in the Board Room of the Athletic Directorate, Hart House.

VARSITY POLO TEAM HAVE LEAD IN FINAL GAME WITH MCGILL

Blue Team Have Experience and Expect to Increase Their Lead

MCGILL'S PHENOMENAL ACE

Varsity Have Strong Defence and Exceptional Speed on Offense

The fast Varsity water polo sextet will play McGill here on Saturday night for the intercollegiate water polo championship. The Varsity outfit needs only to maintain the present excellent record to pull out a win against the Redmen. They go into the game with a two-goal lead, as a result of the tilt at McGill last Saturday. The type of polo that the Varsity boys play is to be deduced from the fact that the Penn A.C. of the International League, is made up of such men as Walter Spence, world's champion swimmer. The experience which the team gained from their series with New York A.C., All-American champs, put them in good shape to lead the Intercollegiate group.

It is rumoured that the University of Toronto team will take part in the British Empire Games to be held at Hamilton this summer. As no players are being lost through graduation it is quite probable that the same team will represent the university next year.

It will be a matter of interest to water polo fans to know that at a meeting of the C.I.S.U. it was decided to cater to spectators by changing the periods from two seven minute to four five minute periods. The proposal is now under consideration by the C.I.S.U. and if supported, it will go into force next year. In the past, the skits entertaining the fans at half time have proven very popular, and it was decided to make them an integral part of the evening's program for all future Intercollegiate water polo games.

The versatile athlete, Eddie Sinclair, will display his wares for the last time this season in the game with McGill, together with George Spence, on defence. It will be their business to stop Munroe Bourne, the phenomenal McGill centre and scoring ace. "Paddy" Glass, at rover, will ably back up the speedy forward line, Armstrong, Alexander and Graham. Bill Ayres can be counted upon to stop plenty of shots and afford the fans a few thrills with his sensational saves. Owing to a ruling of the Athletic Directorate music cannot be provided after the game, and as a result the club has tickets on sale at a very reasonable price.

More than 100 students were placed under quarantine recently at the University of Illinois when a freshman from the dormitory was found suffering from scarlet fever.

Costumes to represent the fashions of 1850 and 1950 were the fascinating features of the masquerade party given by the women of the sophomore class to their seniors at Wymilwood last night.

Undergraduates at Yale are not allowed to have their wives help them through college.

thority to pay the required annual contribution to the said fund.

A special meeting will be held of the Athletic Directorate to consider any arguments or suggestions in regard to these changes on Tuesday, March 18th, at 5 p.m. in the Board Room of the Athletic Directorate, Hart House.

Bring Your Home to the Campus!

DON'T let the home fires be broken. Keep in close personal touch with your parents and friends by telephone.

Many families set aside a certain evening each week for the young folks to call home, the call to be charged to the home telephone. Such an arrangement will prove a source of true satisfaction to all concerned.

The cost is surprisingly low. The telephone directory will tell you all about the service and the periods of reduced rates.

W. J. CAIRNS,
Manager

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada

IF SPRING COMES

SUMMER IS NOT FAR BEHIND

and then

A TRIP TO EUROPE

SCOTLAND
ENGLAND
HOLLAND
BELGIUM
FRANCE

43 DAYS
FOR $424.25

WHY NOT MAKE APPLICATION NOW?

By so doing you will have preferred choice of cabin accommodation; and you will be under no obligation because the $10.00 deposit will be returned in event of necessary cancellation prior to 1 May, 1930. (Use application form on back.)

For Further Information Apply to

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A., Travel Sec., Hart House, University of Toronto

National Federation of Canadian University Students' Tour 1930

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON REECE

Teacher of Modern Dancing

Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $8.00

Beginners a Specialty

12 Crescent Road at Yonge

(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1885

Why invest in a new suit. Rent one for $2.00 at FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street.

W. TORONTO DEFEAT JUNIORS

(Continued from page 3)

took the puck from the face-off and waltzed through the West Toronto team and took a shot at Geddes, the opposing goalie, from close in. The latter stopped the puck, but Collings, in attempting to clear, batted the puck into his own net. A few minutes later, however, the Blue and White got a real goal when Levinsky glided through the entire West Toronto team and passed to Brant, who was uncovered in front of the net. The latter missed the net completely, but Cunningham passed the puck out from behind the net to Williamson, who was camped in front of the cage and the rangy defence man, sick and all, tied up the score with a nice drive which Geddes didn't have a chance to save.

The second session was all West Toronto, but they were not four goals better on the play. Gracie was the dead eye in this period, notching three counters, while Ewens got the other. Gracie's second goal was stopped by Hunnisett, but just trickled in over the line. But Gracie made good for this soft goal by scoring the prettiest goal of the night near the end of the period when he stick-handled his way through the entire Blue team and flipped the puck past Hunnisett.

Just 45 seconds of the final period had elapsed when Cunningham was credited with a soft counter. The latter stickhandled his way in close to the West Toronto net and was checked, but the puck, shooting up into the air and found a resting place in the net behind Geddes. Hendry picked the rubber out of a scramble in front of the West Toronto net to score the final goal of the game.

To pick out stars would be difficult as every player gave his best all the time he was on the ice. For the

SENIORS FACE HAMILTON IN FIRST GAME OF SERIES

(Continued from page 3)

tack, with two forward lines of equal strength, and the team will play sixty minutes of effective hockey.

Dewar, who subbed on the defence during the season was moved up as a regular, and teamed up well with Bruce Paul. With one alternate on the rearguard, Coach Porter would have found himself at some time in a bad fix, but with the elimination of the juniors last night, Alex Levinsky will likely be playing on the big Blue defence. Paul and Levinsky form a pair as strong as any in amateur hockey. The husky junior star turned in a body checking game that was a treat to watch.

FORESTERS DEFEAT SENIOR ENGINEERS

(Continued from page 3)

Sr. S.P.S.—Mercer, Hutcheon, Pasternak, White, Helper, Ireland, Wilson, Lake, Sherman.
Forestry—Start, Simpson, Granger, Leslie, Raeburn, Wiley, Gray.

Blue and White, Levinsky and Sid Hetherington, who worked like a Trojan and skated miles all evening, must be mentioned. Also Funston's work between the posts in the final session deserves special mention. Hendry, who started on the regular front line, turned in a fine effort as did Brant and Cunningham. For the winners Lampert, Gracie and Thoms played stellar games.

West Toronto—Goal, Geddes; defence, Lampert, Hearn; centre, Thoms; wings, Gracie, Collings; alternates, McClelland, Ewens, Kressler.
Varsity—Goal, Hunnisett and Funston; defence, Williamson, Levinsky; centre, Brant; wings, Hendry, Smilie; alternates, Hetherington, Bennett, Cunningham.

Memorial Is Proposed For James W. Douglas

It has been suggested that as a memorial to the late James W. Douglas, a sterling silver trophy should be instituted for competition in Junior Intercollegiate Rugby. At the present time this is practically the only division of Intercollegiate sport that is not represented. As Mr. Douglas started his coaching at the University in charge of the Junior Team and for two years coached them to the Intercollegiate championship, it is felt that this would be a most fitting way in which to commemorate the memory of one of our greatest sportsmen.

It has also been suggested that as there are a large number of undergraduates and graduates who would like to contribute to this trophy, subscriptions not to exceed $1.00 will be received at the Athletic Office, T. A. Reed having been asked to act as Treasurer of this fund.

FATE OF UNIVERSITY CHORUS UNDECIDED

Lack of Interest in January Accounts for Uncertainty as to Outcome

REPORT FROM DIRECTOR

The University Chorus, which was organized last fall by Gilbert Murrell-Wright, held its last rehearsal on January 21. The regular practice which should have occurred the following week did not take place because E. Mazzolini, musical director of Upper Canada College and leader of the chorus, did not appear. Since then there has been no meeting of any sort and even the committee in charge of the organization has made no plans for its future.

Mr. Murrell-Wright, when interviewed by "The Varsity" said, "I can't tell you anything because I don't know anything. The chorus will probably be organized again next year, but I'm not even sure about that."

Mr. Mazzolini did not wish to trust the reporter with a statement, but promised to write a letter to "The Varsity" explaining what had become of the organization and what was likely to happen to it next year.

U.C. LITERARY SOCIETY NOMINATE EXECUTIVE

The following are the nominations for the executive of the University College Literary and Athletic Society:

President — D. B. Murray, W. F. Arnold.

1st Vice (Lit. Director) — W. F. Adams, D. A. Keith.

2nd Vice (Athletic Director) — P. H. Sullivan, Brock MacMurray.

3rd Vice — T. S. Brownlee (accl.).

Secretary — M. S. Angus, J. Vila.

Treasurer — C. B. Macpherson (accl.).

The nominations for president of the various years are as follows:

3T1—J. G. Garden, R. A. Armstrong, H. W. Thorburn.

3T2—H. Appleton, H. Tindale.

3T3—N. H. Shaw, S. W. Fear, J. Whyte, L. Zwig.

Ninety-one degrees were awarded by the University of Iowa at the end of the mid-year.

EDITOR OF "TORONTONENSIS"

Applications will be received by the Assistant Secretary, Joint Executive, Students' Administrative Councils, up until 12 o'clock noon, Saturday, March 15th, 1930, in Room 82, University College, for the position of Editor of 1931 Torontonensis.

Apply to,—

MISS A. E. M. PARKES, B.A.,

Assistant Secretary,

Students' Administrative Council.

CORRESPONDENCE

(Continued from page 1)

trifling matter, but in this case a University official did not act as a gentleman should, but rather he gave one the impression of doing an immense favor by accepting the money at all.

Or again, if one is two seconds after one o'clock in reaching the Bursar's office as I was recently, it is impossible to have fees accepted. All I received was a curt reminder that I had four hours each morning in which to pay fees. It is sometimes very difficult to be present at the Bursar's office before one o'clock.

It seems to me that our University officials being paid for the purpose of serving the interests of the great body of undergraduates might at least make an effort to use ordinary politeness. The age of chivalry may be dead but gentlemanly bearing is recognized as a virtue.

Yours, etc.,
3T1, U. C.

CO-ED'S RETORT

Editor,
"The Varsity".
Dear Sir:

It was with considerable interest that I read in to-day's "Varsity" of the escapades of the members of my sex which seem to be so greatly disturbing the masculine element here.

The charges, culled from various items in "The Varsity" are: 1. The women of to-day are 'hard-boiled', cut and curl their hair, smoke (cigars, I think one correspondent said) and may also drink. Who knows?

2. "What is the use of a woman earning 5,000 dollars a year if she has no prospect of marrying. When a man gets a good job he uses the money to found a home and be of some use in the world!"

3. The women who attend the Newman Club are not modern.

4. Modern women do not know how to cook.

The retort—courteous or otherwise: 1. My, would I ever get to any 9 o'clocks at all if I had long beautiful tresses to play with? I think my classmates will agree that if I came any later than I do now, it would be just too bad.

As far as making our heads a beach for waves, permanent or otherwise is concerned, I might turn the tables by naming a few of the men whom I strongly suspect of doing the same thing.

Smoke? Why not, especially if one enjoys it? However, I think I will steer clear of cigars, and when I do start, it's going to be a pipe. Most of the men I know who smoke pipes, seem to do so on the assumption that it helps self-expression. It is worth trying at any rate. The only valid objection as far as I can see, comes from the doctors, who claim that in general, women react faster to any drugs than do men. A recipe for cleaning nicotine stained fingers was given by somebody else a few days ago.

I'd like to see some of these "hard-boiled" women we hear so much about. I'm sure Mr. Conway didn't meet them around college. Also, he evidently doesn't know his Kipling; "For the colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady are sisters under their skins." But after all, what can you expect from anyone in Meds?

Drink?—Oh, I believe the editor called truce on that question.

2. Our friends in Medicine evidently believe that "The home is the place for women". In one of the comic cuts the other day, "Maw says that the more she sees of husbands, the more she wonders why old maids think it a disgrace not to have one." Moreover, surely Mr. McCullough doesn't think for a minute that Florence Nightingale was not of use, and yet, I do believe, she never married.

Think of it!

I suppose Mr. McCullough also be-

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from page 2)

try to discover why the Q is silent in billiards!

The Music Committee might offer a course of instruction in the pronunciation of the names of musicians, an ambition which we all cherish in the inner recesses of our souls!

C—C

But now the tumult and shouting having died, the captains and kings having departed (but not till next year we hope!) we urge our readers to watch eagerly for the Jazz Issue tomorrow.

C—C

This being the last kick of this respective Cat for this year, we are tempted to indulge in maudlin sentimentality, but out of respect to our large circle of readers, we desist!

C—C

What we would like to know is who the party of students were who sat in a stranger's car on Yonge St. at one a.m. this morning? And what had they had at a well-known coffee(?) shop to produce this result? (Tush!)

C—C

There was a young fellow named Neville,
Who hailed 'from a point east of Seville,
Of a temper so sweet
When strung up by the feet,
He wildly remarked, "Oh! the devil!"

C—C

Limericks having been our favourite form of sport this year we had to have a parting shot.

C—C

And now, bowing gracefully to all, we retire with best wishes for a quiet and pious Lent and lots of sacrifices, and many lucky breaks in May.

Pey.

lives that Mr. King, our premier, hasn't a good job, at least, that is his inference, because he says that "When a man gets a good job, he uses the money to found a home!" I hadn't heard of Mr. King's marriage, as yet.

3. That slam at the ladies attending the Newman Club, I think I will have to leave for them. Doubtless the speaker was sufficiently punished for his temerity.

4. So modern women cannot cook. I'd advise the gentleman who made the remark to change his girl friends. They are not as modern as he thinks they are. The really modern girl, may not be a French chef, but she certainly can cook as good a meal as one could wish to eat.

For the information of the correspondents who seem to prefer the "Sit on a cushion and sew a fine seam girl", I might say that men tend to get the type of behaviour they expect. Hence, gentlemen, it's up to you. However, I greatly doubt the sincerity of their protestations because, while Gentlemen may possibly marry Brunettes, they certainly PREFER Blondes. Think it over.

Sincerely,
An Amused Co-ed.

THANKS

The Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

I have been instructed by the Executive of the Swimming and Water Polo Club to express to you and your staff their keen appreciation of the loyal and generous support that your paper has given to the club in general and to the International League in particular throughout the past season.

Thanking you for your many courtesies, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Tom L. Marsh,

Sec. of Swimming and Water Polo.

Athletes can't smoke, can't drink, and now at the University of Washington they can't swear. In the words of the University of Washington Daily, "They may be big and tough, but they don't swear."

Co-operative buying of supplies for sororities and fraternities is the system employed at Oregon State college. The association, now 10 years old, claims an annual saving of $25,000.

FREEMAN'S—571 Yonge Street—is the largest concern for the rental of dress clothes.

ORGANIZED 1910

Overseas Education League

ORGANIZED 1910

MAJOR F. J. NEY, Hon. Organizer

Summer 1930 Programme

Seventh Annual Visit of University Undergraduates

Including Graduates of 1929 and 1930; Normal School
Students and Senior Students of Certain Schools and Colleges

To Great Britain and France

(Together with GENEVA and OBERAMMERGAU)

71 Days $535.00 (Approximately)

June 21st
June 29th
June 30th
June 30th—July 4th
July 4th—July 10th
July 10th—July 14th
July 14th—July 17th
July 17th—July 21st
July 21st—July 24th
July 24th—July 27th
July 27th—Aug. 11th
Aug. 11th—Aug. 16th
Aug. 16th—Aug. 18th
Aug. 18th—Aug. 23rd
August 23rd
August 30th

Sail by S.S. "MINNEDOSA" from Montreal.
Arrive at GLASGOW.
From Glasgow to St. Andrews via The Trossachs.
ST. ANDREWS.
EDINBURGH.
CRASMER (English Lake District).
HARROGATE.
YORK.
STRATFORD-UPON-AVON.
OXFORD.
LONDON.
GENEVA.
OBERAMMERGAU (for the PASSION PLAY).
PARIS.
Sail from Cherbourg by S.S. "EMPERESS OF AUSTRALIA".
Arrive at Quebec

Special provision is being made for men students to sail by the "Empress of Scotland" on May 28th, from Quebec direct to Southampton, to enable them to attend the Royal Tournament at Olympia and the Aldershot Military Tattoo. On the conclusion of this special London programme, this group will join the Undergraduates' party at St. Andrews on June 30th.

ALSO THE FOLLOWING TOURS

Fourth Annual Summer School in French - - $375

(For Teachers and Students)

Lycee Victor Duruy, Boulevard des Invalides, Paris

Second Annual Summer School in English - - $395

(For Teachers and Students)

Oxford, Stratford-upon-Avon, London

First Annual Summer School in Spanish - - $420

(In co-operation with the University of Liverpool)

Santander, Spain

First Annual Summer School of Music - - $520

(For Teachers and Students)

Paris, Oberammergau, Munich, Bayreuth, Dresden, Berlin, London

First Annual Summer School of Folk Dancing - - $395

(In co-operation with the English Folk Dance Society)

Oxford, Malvern and London

Application forms containing the usual detailed information regarding the various items of the League's programme for 1930 are available at the Offices of the OVERSEAS EDUCATION LEAGUE, Boyd Building, WINNIPEG.

FRED. J. NEY, Honorary Organizer.

or

HENRY BUTTON, Hon. Sec. Eastern Division, 224 Bloor St. West, Toronto.

Coming Events

THURSDAY, MARCH 6
8.15 p.m.—Inter-college open house debate in Trinity College Library.
7.15 p.m.—Ex-Guelph students reunion dinner in Burwash Hall.
Hart House elections.
German Study Club presents two plays, "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig," "Ein Knopf", at Women's Union.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7
4.30 p.m.—St. Michael's 3TO permanent executive and Moss Scholarship candidate elections.
9.30 a.m.—3 p.m.—General election for all societies at Victoria College.
Victoria College senior reception.

MONDAY, MARCH 10
8.15—U. of T. Menorah open meeting
Speaker: Jacob de Hass at the Talmud Torah, Brunswick Ave.

TUESDAY, MARCH 11
5.30—S.C.M. supper party in the Women's Union. Admission 25c.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13
11.00 a.m.—U.C. Elections.

FRIDAY, MARCH 14
7.00 p.m.—Victoria College faculty-senior dinner in Burwash Hall.

THURSDAY, MARCH 20
4 p.m.—League of Nations Club annual meeting for election of officers. Women's Union.

March 20th, 7.00 p.m.—U. C. Men's Graduation Banquet. King Edward Hotel. Tickets from Executive $2.50.

GEOLOGY DEPARTMENT TO HAVE NEW STATUE

Famous Replica of Bison Group one of Two Destined for Canada

Special to "The Varsity"
London—Canada is to have two replicas of one of the most famous, as well as one of the oldest, statuary groups in the world. According to a note in "Nature", a replica of the famous sculptured bison group on the wall of the Tuc d'Audoubert cave in the Ariège district has been ordered by Dr. Henry Ami, director of the Canadian School in Prehistory in France, for Ottawa. Another copy is to be made for Prof. W. A. Parks, of the geological department of the University of Toronto.

It is considered highly appropriate that Canada should have specimens of the bison as represented in this striking and spirited 20,000-year-old masterpiece of plastic art. Canada is now the home of by far the majority of living bison.

RENT A TUXEDO
$2.00
STUDENTS PRICE ONLY
NEW SUITS LATEST STYLE
TELEPHONE TRINITY 8218

Mallabar COSTUMER
450-452 SPADINA AVE.
at College St.

COLLEGE GOWNS CAPS and HOODS

HARCOURT & SON
103 King St. W., Toronto

LARGEST VOTE IN HISTORY POLLED AT HART HOUSE

(Continued from page 1)

III Dentistry; J. R. Cameron, I Pharmacy; W. H. Bilbrough, III Trinity.
Hall Committee—G. M. Graham, IV Medicine; R. F. Yates, III Trinity; H. E. Capp, III Forestry; E. G. Sinclair, IV Dentistry; J. F. Oakley, II St. Michael's; R. L. Dennis, III U.C.; M. R. Osborne, I Pharmacy; G. D. McKinney, II Victoria.

Music Committee—A. C. R. McGonigle, III Trinity; G. V. Jansen, III S.P.S.; A. E. F. Allan, III U.C.; J. S. Walker, III Forestry; J. Gammell, III Victoria; J. A. Warren, II St. Michael's; D. A. Campbell, IV Dentistry; J. Girdwood, I Pharmacy.

Library Committee—R. O. Standish, III U.C.; A. E. S. Davison, II Victoria; W. K. W. Baldwin, III Trinity; W. E. Algic, III S.P.S.; J. B. Millar, III Forestry; H. G. Walton-Ball, IV Dentistry; A. B. Ward, I Pharmacy; P. M. Plunkett, I St. Michael's.

Billiard Committee—J. R. Berwick, II Trinity; F. J. Ryan, II St. Michael's; M. P. McKay, III S.P.S.; B. C. Blizzard, III S.P.S.; H. R. Cunningham, II U.C.; A. D. Pollock, V Medicine; J. D. Bowerman, III Victoria; J. Allin, I Pharmacy.

Sketch Committee—M. M. Chudleigh, III Trinity; A. L. Watson, III S.P.S.; G. K. Masters, III U.C.; D. M. Tanner, IV Dentistry; J. H. Hodgins, I Forestry; J. S. Bonham, III Victoria; C. H. Rappaport, I Pharmacy; W. E. Shute, IV Medicine.

POLICE SIGNALLING PRAISED

(Continued from page 1)

cial telegraph machine with a keyboard like an ordinary typewriter. Then red lights begin flashing about the city. A patrolman is never out of sight of one of these lights. When he sees one flash, he goes to the private telephone connecting him by a special line to his station and gets a description of the stolen car. These telephones are not connected with the Bell system. He leaves the written description in the box where it is picked up by a motorcycle patrolman who then checks up on every car he sees.

A recent case had demonstrated the efficiency of this new system, said Mr. Take. A car stolen in Oshawa had been recovered in Toronto 35 minutes after the alarm had been given. When the police hear of a fast, powerful car having been stolen they are immediately on the watch for a big "job" to be pulled, as big cars are always used in these. Mr. Take had also a good word to say for the Chicago police and described some of the signalling methods in vogue in other cities.

In view of the lateness of the hour it was decided to dispense with the discussion which it was customary to have after the main speech.

SEX QUESTIONNAIRE CAUSES RESIGNATION

Special to "The Varsity"
St. Louis, Mo.—Because of the recent sex questionnaire investigation at Missouri University, Professor James Harvey Rogers has announced his resignation, to become effective September 1, 1930. As a result of this recent investigation one professor was suspended and another was dismissed by the board of curators.

Professor Rogers criticized the "interference" by the administration of the University of Missouri in freedom of teaching research.

In his letter to the board he stated: "In spite of its long record of complete freedom from interference, scrupulously guarded by former administrations, the University of Missouri is now declared to the scientific world to be no longer an institution where scholars may go and work with the assurance of the freedom in teaching and research granted in the ranking universities of the country, so great is the cost of uniformed and prejudiced interference."

The Table Round

WE MODERNS

In view of the fact that so much stress is laid to-day on the dernier cri, not only in fashions in clothing, but also as far as they concern everyday conversation and current speech, it is interesting to note that some of our expressions are not quite as up-to-date as most of those who employ them so glibly suppose. Slang artists would do well to remember, next time they feel inclined to retort "So's Christmas" when someone mentions the expected approach of a third party that the phrase was used two centuries ago by Jonathan Swift.

Looking at the thing from another angle, those who pride themselves on their acquaintance with the fashion in this respect might be repaid by a study of the "Polite Conversation" which the Dean of St. Patrick's penned two hundred years ago. They would come across a number of phrases and sayings which are in common use to-day, and usually regarded as the very latest thing. By making a judicious selection therefrom, they will be able to amaze and delight their audiences, and gain a reputation for witty conversation.

With this parting shot, which we hope will be taken in the spirit with which it is offered, we depart from this column. P.E.U.

A FRENCH JOURNAL AT VARSITY

"L'Echo du Cercle" is very familiar to the students of St. Joseph's College, but one wonders if it as familiar to the other students. This paper is an innovation of last year and a very original one for it seems that it is the only all French paper on the campus. It is published every two months by the executive of the "Cercle Français," most of them taking a course in Modern Languages with French as their speciality.

The purpose of the paper is to revive interest in the "Cercle Français," and to promote college spirit. It contains an editorial, always interesting and appropriate, a sports section, college activities and notes, and last but not least, a page of "Reclames," furnished by the college wits.

The next issue will be published the first week in March and will be available to all students. Much interest has been shown by the students in this college paper and it has helped many of them to gain a better knowledge and appreciation of the French language.

J. G.

BULLETIN BOARD

WATER POLO

University of Toronto Swimming Club presents the last water polo game of the season on the evening of Saturday, March the eighth, in the Hart House pool. McGill vs. Varsity.

WOMEN'S INTERFACULTY DEBATE

A women's interfaculties debate will take place on Thursday, March 6th, at 8.15 p.m., in the Trinity College Library, Hoskin Ave. The motion is resolved that this house would rather be a fatalist than an optimist. Representatives from St. Hilda's, St. Michael's, U. C. and Victoria will debate. A large attendance is requested.

EX-GUELPH STUDENT DINNER

The dinner for ex-Guelph students that is being held to-night in Burwash Hall, will start at 7.15 p.m. sharp. Everyone is asked to enter the hall through the Senior Common room, which is at the west end of Burwash Hall. You may still have a place reserved by phoning Harry Berry, KI. 0318, before 6.00 p.m.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS CLUB

The annual meeting of the League of Nations Club will be held at the Women's Union at 4 p.m. on Thursday, March 20th, for the election of officers for next year.

Inter-college open debate in Trinity College Library at 8.15 p.m. Subject: "It is better to be a fatalist than to be an optimist."

GERMAN STUDY CLUB

The annual costume production of the German Study Club will take place at 8 p.m. to-night, Thursday, March 6th, in the auditorium of the Women's Union, 79 St. George St., in the form of two comedies: "Er Ist Nicht Eifersüchtig" and "Ein Knopf". Admission 35 cents from executive or at door.

U. of T. MENORAH SOCIETY

On Monday, March 10th at 8.15 p.m. the University of Toronto Menorah Society will hold an open meeting at the Talmud Torah Hall, on Brunswick Ave. The speaker for the evening is Mr. Jacob De Hass of New York. The meeting is open to the public.

A survey taken at Cornell University indicates that the freshman class prefers chemistry to any other subject taught.

3TO U. C.

The annual Junior-Senior Dance will be held on Thursday, March 13. Members of 3TO will be admitted free on presentation of a Year Card. These may be procured from the Executive for 50c, while admission at the door will be 75c. Please get your card as soon as possible.

S.C.M. SUPPER PARTY

The final supper party of the year will be held in the Women's Union at 5.30 on Tuesday, March 11. Program: Elgin House Conference plans. All U.C. women welcome.

SCHOOL TRACK TEAM

The School Indoor Track Team picture will be taken at 12.00 o'clock on Friday, March 7, in the School Building.

All men who have won points in the Indoor Meet are eligible for this picture.

The election of the officers of the Track Club for next year will take place at the same time.

C. O. T. C.

ORDERS

By
Lient-Col. T. R. Loudon, Cmdg.
University of Toronto C.O.T.C.
184 College Street
Toronto, 2.
5th March, 1930.

11.

O.T.C. EXAMINATIONS, Part II
Part II of the examination for O.T.C. Certificates, Artillery and Infantry, will be held as under:—

All candidates for "A" and "B" certificates who have passed Part I, Practical, will report to the President of the Board at Room 26, Engineering Building, on Tuesday, 11th March, 1930.—

for the First Paper at 9.30 a.m.
for the Second Paper at 2.15 p.m.

The official list of eligible candidates is posted at Corps Headquarters, 184 College Street.

Candidates for "B" Certificate will report at 184 College Street on Wednesday, 12th March, at 9.45 a.m. for the Third Paper.

Dress—Plain clothes.

Candidates should bring with them, pens, pencils, coloured chalks, india-rubber, ruler and coloured pins. Protractors and co-ordinate cards will be provided.

No books may be brought to the examination room by any candidate, except the Field Service Pocket Book by candidates for "B" Certificate for First and Second papers only.

(Signed) W. S. Wilson,
Capt. and Adj.

The Jersey Suit

is Smart for Spring
Chanel and Patou favor it

None smarter than the little Suit sketched. The sleeveless pullover may be tucked in or worn out over the circular skirt, the jacket is cardigan style. Combinations of color are truly Parisian—black with m'ze, black with Patou pink, gypsy green with white, dahlia with orchid, baby blue with white. Misses' sizes 14 to 20.

Knitted Apparel
Third Floor

THE SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KI. 0738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

The DOUBLE ADVANTAGE of a SAVINGS ACCOUNT

4%

1. Your Surplus Income earns 4% interest.

2. Your money is always easily accessible.

Chequing privileges and 4% interest on Savings Accounts

THE TORONTO GENERAL TRUSTS CORPORATION

BAY AND MELINDA STREETS

The Official Varsity Crest—

Is made in various ways

Pin (only); Pin with year guard; Bar Pin; Split Shank Ring; Signet Ring, sapphire set; Seal Ring, raised crest, no stones; Seal Ring, sunken crest for sealing, no stones; Waldemar Drop (a tiny gold medallion for Waldemar watch chain).

The rings may be made in 14 kt. or 18 kt. White and Green Gold at slight additional cost if desired.

STUDENTS' ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL
HART HOUSE, TORONTO

First year students are not entitled to wear the Crest

HART HOUSE HALLS ECHO CAMPAIGNING

(Continued from page 1)

as a means to attract attention. Automobiles bore placards bearing the names of candidates. Another aspirant to house committee gave a long speech from the elevation of a radiator.

Long queues of candidates faced the voters going to the polls, continually attempting to impress their names by shouting or handing blotters out. Posters were frequent and were used extensively by candidates as a means of identification. Several candidates, assisted by a few supporters, set up a terrific yelling, designed to draw attention upon them.

Harvard has been left $669,882 in the will of Gregory S. Bryan, '87, retired manufacturer and resident of Bridgeport, Connecticut, who died last October.

WASSYH = HIC = ALL ABOUT The Varsity The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, MARCH 7th, 1930

No. 98

HART HOUSE COMPLETELY RAZED TO EARTH

PARADE AU NATUREL BY VIC THIRTY ENDS VICTORIA REVELRY

Vic '30 Takes Up Bet; Faculty
Deplore Sensational
Stunt

CIRCLE QUEEN'S PARK

Collegians Carouse in Rooms of Evangelist on Milk and Crackers

Special to "The Varsity"

By Staff Pervert

Lowest House, Burwash, Mar. 7, 2 a.m.—Openly defying the established Victorian tradition against going bare-headed on the campus, Thirty Vic, a denizen of this house, slowly sauntered around Queen's Park in a state of complete nudity at an early hour this morning. The promenade was the climax of a three-hour orgy on milk and crackers in the room of Who Martin, well known orator and evangelist. The stakes were two tickets to the S.C.M. bread-line.

It is rumoured in the lowest circles that Vic was completely saturated at the time, having indulged expensively in cubes and Pluto water, with an egg phosphate as a chaser. Entering a game of Old Maid in this condition, he rapidly lost his shirt, pants, shoes, socks and . . . It was not till he was completely stripped that the bet was agreed upon. In the meantime all the participants in the carousal had rapidly perverted to type. Some were completely italicized.

Accompanied by a large number of fellow-revellers, including Edouardo Jollyfish, "Merran" Bright and C. W. (Les) Lee, Thirty Vic set out to display his manly beauty. After serenading women of a nearby residence, the group moved down Queen's Park, stopping at the home of Lord Robert Falconbeak to sing, "What's the matter with us?"

(Continued on page 4)

Deans Fillpatrick and Maddison are said to have captivated Harold, society pet of the campus. "Tush" photographer obtained this close-up recently.

R. E. Knowles

Having his head read at the Psychiatric Hospital. Exclusive to "The Varsity".

BREEZY JOTTINGS FROM NEAR AND FAR

Condensed News from Every Land for Busy Readers of "The Varsity"

Moscow.—As a protest against Stalin's program of land-collectivization three thousand kulaks are planning to take a bath.

Oakville.—"No," declared a prominent Ku Klux official, "we do not sing 'Hatikvah' at our meetings. The rumour that we are erecting a statue to Uncle Tom is just a lot of Catholic propaganda."

Rome.—Mussolini believes that members of Hart House are ripe for incitation into Fascism. "They have had so much spaghetti in the Great Hall that they should be ready by now to become first-class Italians," he stated. Chicago.—Johnny Delouse, 3, is Chicago's latest prodigy. Johnny shot his mother when she refused him another glass of beer. Then he popped the old man for tuning in on a radio sermon. He will devote the next few weeks to writing testimonials for funeral ads.

London.—The naval arms conference has been declared a failure. It has been revealed that eight of the delegates can't play bridge.

Baltimore.—Several people were asphyxiated in the heat wave which struck this city yesterday. While puzzled weather authorities tried to discover the cause of the trouble, buildings melted into oblivion and hens laid fried eggs. Finally it was ascertained that H. L. Mencken was in town.

EXECUTIVE REJECTS IDEA OF NEW MASCOT IN COLLEGE JOINT

Speaking to Motion Silly Rule
Contents Miss A. E. M.
Parkes

'YES AND NO' SAYS BURNS

Miss Gray All in Favour of Retaining Present Mascot
as Nicest

By N. J. DeWitt

The proposal that a new mascot be adopted was more or less thrown out at the special meeting of the Joint Executive last night, which was held in the usual joint in the cellar of University College. "It is suggested," said the Chairman, in his preliminary workout, "that this body should have a new mascot. What do you think, Mr. Burns?"

"Yes and no," said the General Secretary in his usual decisive fashion, "don't forget that I have a wife and family."

At this juncture Miss A. E. Marie

CHAMPUS CAT

THAT KRUSCHEN FEELING

Parkes pointed out that she had been chaperoning around here since 1897, and she had not seen the slightest evidence of any such tale even if she did spend her time on special trains looking for it. The Chairman, Mr. Perry, here explained that what she was saying had nothing to do with the mascot. Miss Parkes came right back with the statement that she had been on the Executive since 1916, and had never been troubled before with such silly rules as speaking to the motion.

It was noticed that Miss Clara Gray of the W.U.A. looked as if she had something to say, and before the other members of the meeting were able to cope with the emergency she expressed the opinion that the mascot they now had was the nicest mascot, and anybody who wanted to get rid of him would have to reckon with her.

It was several moments before order was restored, as the Chairman, having been to the war, was the only member of the male representation who had not taken refuge under a chair or table, and hence, had to go about pulling his colleagues' legs to get them to come out from under the chairs.

(See if you can find this)

It is not Gambling if it

Clicking of Dice Interrupts

Poker Not a Gamble

Pan-Pan

Interview with Col.

Claims Old Soldier

University Houses

No Gambling in the

Still Exploding Said To Have Caused $10,000,000 Blaze, Which Completely Destroyed Hart House Late Last Night

Wortle McDunce, Toronto Detective, Conducts Thorough Investigation

EXPLODING STILL CLUE

Sleuth Tracks Down Evidence of Responsibility for Holocaust

Wortle McDunce, well-known Toronto detective, is in full charge of the investigation into the causes of the fire which late last night destroyed Hart House. Approached by "The Varsity", Mr. McDunce made a rapid retreat, but was finally cornered and consented to an interview. "To what do you attribute the outbreak?" he was asked. "There is no definite clue to indicate what started the fire, but I shall find one or my name's not McDunce," declared the detective firmly.

"I suspect a still, the charred remains of which were found in the ruins of the building. I am still searching." We fell back, amazed at the incentive and initiative of the investigator. But what less could be expected of the man who solved the world-famous student government mystery, and discovered that the thing did not exist? "Will any charges be laid?" he was asked. "No charges will be laid, but it appears that a numbers of charges were laid previously."

THIS HEAD DOESN'T MEAN A DAMN THING BUT IT'S FUN WRITING THEM

STUDENT GOVERNMENT IS TORN TO PIECES

The question of student government has at last been not settled, according to A. Borden Gurns, secretary-treasurer of the C.A.S., who had an interview with "The Varsity".

"We are at present working on a meaningless report to send to the Kaput," he said to "The Varsity". "Of course," he added in a confidential tone, "it doesn't mean a thing."

"As long as we keep this matter in the air, so long we . . . you know," cried A. Borden Gurns and Miss A. E. M. P. Larkes in chorus to "The Varsity".

Just then "The Varsity" saw a piece of student government sticking out of A. Borden Gurns' collar. "The Varsity" made a grab for it but Gurns was ahead of it.

"This is the way I treat student government," he sneered as with a supercilious air he twisted the piece into pieces. Miss Larkes then in a rage stamped the remaining pieces into other pieces.

WORTLE MCDUNCIE

Who attributes the Hart House blaze to a still exploding.

PANCE LEAVES SHIN 'TUSH' SAYS NOCKINES

Western Cheek Lit Up of Polly
Anna Pluckett; Question of Tagore

PUNS THAT HORIZON ME

A vivid blaze of crimson lit up the western cheek of little Polly Anna Pluckett as Nockines clicked to a pause beside her. "Do you agree with Rabindranath Tagore that the seat of Zimbabistic meticulousness should be abolished?" he queried with quaint quixotry.

"I shall always have a seat of course," replied Pance ("30 Leg, 54 Waist") "but I feel that the boop-skirt is here to stay. And the stay is here to . . ."

As Nockines was already speeding through a peanut-tube to far Japan, he failed to catch the remainder of the annual banquet of the Date-Pitters' Association. The rest of the Pitter patter will be relayed later to our readers through your Mother and my Mother tool chanted the ladies-in-waiting as the Prince and Sarab entered with their train.

Yung Fat Shin wobbled forward, quivers of delight oscillating her tiny frame, so that the picture inside it rattled with unfeigned glee. Fecondity, thy name is Peter! exclaimed Abraham Lincoln as he cut down his father's cedar-rail with the wicked pen-knife that was to go down into posterity with or without cream? No, no cream; abashment chuckled Haroun-al-Raschid as he thought of Halma, his hottest houri and how he would Mecca behave.

Nevertheless, I feel, Mr. Spicursor, (Please turn to page 25)

House Committee Have Narrow Escape by Leaping from Window after Session

WARDEN IS UPSET

Firemen Unable to Halt Early Morning Blaze Despite Valiant Efforts

Fire late last night broke out and completely destroyed Hart House. The cause was said to be a still exploding. Damage is estimated at $10,000,000. This conflagration had gained such headway by the time that the fire equipment arrived that the building could not be saved. All that remained of the noble pile this morning was a mass of charred and smoking ruins.

The alarm was turned in by the night watchman on his rounds. Interviewed by "The Varsity" late last night he stated that he heard a dull roar, followed by an outbreak of flames. The fire commenced in the east wing, possibly in the serving quarters. It spread rapidly throughout the building. No lives were lost in the holocaust.

WELL! WELL! SAYS WARDEN

Warden J. B. Bickersteth, when interviewed by "The Varsity" at 3 a.m. in his purple silk pyjamas, could ascribe no reason for the fire. "I really couldn't say," he declared, "but I'm dreadfully upset." Asked whether he had made any plans for the future, he said that he hadn't decided on anything definite.

Members of the staff were rescued from the burning building without difficulty. The House Committee had a narrow escape as they were in prolonged session discussing the possibility of cuspidors in the barber shop. They leaped to safety out of the second floor window into the quadrangle. Despite the fact that most of them landed on the pavement, they were unhurt. One member attributed their escape to the hard business heads of which they are all possessed.

BASTARD HEADS ARE ONES THAT END WITH WORDS LIKE THESE

The blazing building made a spectacular scene, and lit up the sky for miles around. Confidential rumours reached "The Varsity" to the effect that more than the sky was lit up. But "The Varsity" saw no proof of this. The head of the fire department

Improvement

as Aid to Talent

Musicians Demand Criticism

S.P.S. DEMAND MILK

Hymns

Drinking Songs to

MacWilliam Prefers the Irish

SUNDAY CONCERTS

REY FEATURES THE

WITH

A scene taken on the University of Toronto front campus in 1930, showing practical demonstration by O.A.C. students. Note the beer-pump in the foreground.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.
ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.
NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkowsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager
A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editors: Olsen and Johnson Censor: P. E. Ussher

FRIDAY, MARCH 7th, 1930

THE BEST YET

Following out the policy laid down last year to the staff of "The Varsity" to be "clean, bright and optimistic" the editorial columns are ending up in one grand flare. This editorial is certain of developing no enemies, of causing no trouble and of maintaining a high standard that students will appreciate.

Three little kittens lost their mittens,
And they began to cry,

"O mother dear,
We very much fear,
That we have lost our mittens."

"Lost your mittens!
You naughty kittens!
Then you shall have no pie."

"Mee-ow, mee-ow, mee-ow."
"No, you shall have no pie."
"Mee-ow, mee-ow, mee-ow."

The three little kittens found their mittens,
And they began to cry,

"O mother dear,
See here, see here!
See we have found our mittens."

"Put on your mittens,
You silly kittens,
And you may have some pie."

"Purr-r, purr-r, purr-r,
O let us have the pie.
Purr-r, purr-r, purr-r."

The three little kittens put on their mittens,
And soon ate up the pie;

"O mother dear,
We greatly fear,
That we have soiled our mittens."

"Soiled your mittens!
You naughty kittens!"

Then they began to sigh,
"Mee-ow, mee-ow, mee-ow."

The three little kittens washed their mittens,
And hung them out to dry,

"O mother dear,
Do you not bear,
That we have washed our mittens?"

"Washed your mittens!
O, you're good kittens.
But I smell a rat close by;

Hush! Hush!"

"Mee-ow, mee-ow.
We smell a rat close by,
Mee-ow, mee-ow, mee-ow."

SPECIALIST WRITES

Livy Under Desk Declared Not

Hick Sales
BLUE AND TIGHT

FROM BOOR WASH HULL

Restful in Exam by

EXECUTIVE REJECT

CHAMPUS CAT

For the last time (but three) we take our pen in hand, no, wait a minute, that isn't right, we mean typewriter to our bosom to compose the last cat (but three) for our great public

C—C

Of what shall we sing? How about this?—
Ob for the balmy breath of Spring!
Oh for the Blooming blossoms!
Oh for the Naughty wasps that sting
The stomachs of oppostums!

What was he doing, the great god Pan,
Down in the reeds by the river?
Such an embarrassing question can invariably make me shiver.

C—C

But, no joking aside, we find a soft spot in our stomach for the fine old Scandinavian drinking song which goes like this—

You may sing your beer and skittles
But when it comes to vittles
I'm gratefullest for soup from soup
tureens;
There are salads and tomatoes
And mashed and fried potatoes
But the spot I love the best is Hart House beans.

For it's your mother and mine, dear boys!
Yo! ho! and a rum below!
For the Cat is half shot in the brine,
dear boys!
But whatever she is she ain't slow.

And these are the tales that I heard that day,
That day when the night was dark,
And I spent my noon
Neath a rock-ribbed moon.
And I polished my teeth for a lark.
And I sang of the fool that there was,
you know,
Who foolishly made his prayer
To the silliest thing that there was,
you know,—
A rag and a kitchen chair.

So sing a song of rags and bones
And cynical hanks of hair!
For nothing could be finer
On a sinking ocean liner
Than to beard the hairy lion in his lair.

C—C

From the depths, R. E. Noless II speaketh: "I hope you may be able to grant me space in your columns to advertise my new book, 'Persecuted for Righteousness' Sake, or the Complete
Straw Voter in Forty-Seven Parts, Showing Which Way the Wind is Blowing Even If Your Best Friends Won't Tell You!"

C—C

To which we reply, "No Diogenes Didn't Write 'A Tale of a Tub'!" even if First Year Pass Was Abolished
According to an Authentic Rumour
Which Was Issued from Superficial Circles a Year from Next Tuesday at One g.m."

C—C

A literal translation from the Spinach:
There was a young maid from Port
Credit
Who would never admit when she'd said it;
She dangled her toes
From the end of her nose,
And always retired when she'd fed it.
—Gastré.

With the Theatres

GLOBE

Miss Minnie Schmaltzenpfeifer was good in the title role of the Clean Shavian drama, "Carrie Coles of Newcastle", but that did not make the production better than mediocre. In fact, it was lousy. If it was not so obscene as "Daffydil", neither was it so clever as the Players' Guild production of Professor Cordwood's charming little farce, "The Hell You Say", which swept the audience off its back last Wednesday. Miss Victoria Sunburne, ingenue of the Globe company, usually has a deftness of touch and a depth of feeling which formance last night. Mr. Gordon Parks, in the role of the Fairy King, showed a great deal, but failed to hold up his end. The plot of this play, it is true, does not lend itself to strong character delineation, but a certain standard is expected of the Globe players, a standard which was not in evidence in "Carrie". The delicate technique required for a bedroom scene was distinctly lacking in the feeble efforts of Miss Schmaltzenpfeifer and Mr. Parks. One cannot say that they lack experience; but it is undeniably true that with the passing of the years they are gradually losing interest in their subject. . . . Pshaw! pshaw! this will never do. It is not sufficient to say that one could not hear the lines. Even those who admit that Globe productions should be obscene and not heard claim that the current offering is not only sub rosa, but quite decidedly persona non grato, not to mention its sopis spalon-do bigone and whothe helica res.

—A.E.F.X.Y.Z.B.V.D.P.D.Q.A.

My Pet Peeve

COLLEGE GOWNS

CAPS and
HOODS

HARCOURT & SON

103 King St. W., Toronto

BETTER WORK WITH BETTER
TOOLS! TRY
ELDORADO
"THE MASTER
DRAWING
PENCIL"

FOR SALE AT THE
COLLEGE BOOKROOM

Costume Jewellery

Newest shades:
Canary, Beachtan, Jungle
Green, Dahlia, Pastel tones.
FRIDAY and SATURDAY

$1.00

Mme Y. L. de RICHELIEU
67 BLOOR ST. WEST

Headquarters
for ACADEMIC GOWNS
CAPS
HOODS

See our samples
and prices
before buying

Sainthill-Levine & Co.
LIMITED

126 Wellington Street West

PHONE BL. 5301

THE Best
MILK CHOCOLATE
MADE!

The
uptown
in the Heart
of Toronto

NOW PLAYING

You'll See A Greater GARY COOPER
IN

"Seven Days Leave"

A Paramount Picture
from
SIR JAMES M. BARRIE'S
"The Old Lady Shows Her Medals"

Why did the gallant
Canadian soldier give up
seven days of wine,
gaily and women to spend a week with an amazing old lady he never saw.

THE HELL
HIPPODROME
BRO WAREVILLE

COMING TO-MORROW

THE ONE AND ONLY

TOMMY "BOZO" SNIDER

in the side-splitting comedy
"THE DECORATORS"

5
ACTS

On the Screen

Except Sat.
MATS. 30c

EDMUND LOWE and CONSTANCE BENNETT in "THIS THING CALLED LOVE"

All-Talking

All-Music

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KL. 6758

528 BLOOR ST. W.

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon
In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

3TO VIC. DEFEATS PURITANS BY LOVE 40 IN THE FINAL CLINCHES

REEKING OF PORT

Owing to the fact that this is a tight issue, we have decided to drop our usual material found in this column.

Plumbing Faculty Students Celebrate Annual At-Home

Students of the faculty of Plumbing held their annual At-Home in the Apache room of the Royal Cork Hotel last evening. At nine fifteen the throng of happy guests were drawn up in column of platoon at the ballroom entrance, waiting to be ushered into the presence of the patronesses, where Mrs. Crookful and Mrs. Thickerbreath received. On account of a slight spell of dizziness Mrs. Crookful had to be supported on the arm of one of the members of the faculty, who gallantly attempted to hold her in an upright position.

Mrs. Thickerbreath wore a charming black beaded gown of velvet during the earlier part of the evening.

Dean Leake, in response to a toast to the faculty, stated that he felt like the negro preacher who was asked to reprimand the younger women on the indecency of their attire. At this point Mrs. Leake became hysterical and had to leave the room, much to the disappointment of the guests.

The ballroom was tastefully decorated in the colours of the college, although just what they were "The Varsity" has forgotten on account of a similar spell of dizziness that had afflicted Mrs. Crookful earlier in the evening.

A popular city orchestra furnished a very versatile program as the guests swayed gracefully and suspiciously around the floor.

After an enjoyable evening the party came to a close with the kindly intervention of the house detective and the carefree guests departed to the station in the patrol wagon.

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

269 College St. Trinity 5997

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your club

We Have Your Home Town Paper.

Lending Library.

Snowball Team

The following have been awarded their senior T's for making the Varsity snowball team: Stiff, Cooley, O. N. Darling and Shugum. Also Elsie Boston, Boston Elsie, Willie Click et al.

EXPECT STUDENTS' FAILURE IN ORDEAL OF MAY TESTS "The Varsity" Predicts Celebrities Due to be Plucked in Examinations

In line with the advanced policy of "The Varsity" in presenting the news before it happens, we pick the following to fail to make the grade in the May examinations:

F. W. BURTON, because he has so many scholarships and is in classics.

R. B. ROCHESTER, because he usually does.

B. A. R. DIGNAN, because he got so many votes in the Hart House elections.

P. A. GARDNER, because of his indiscreet "Tushy" remarks in print.

LOU GOLDEN, because he stands foursquare for a greater Toronto.

R. E. KNOWLES, Jr., because he writes such a lot of letters.

J. T. WILSON, because he has that Oxford accent.

T. V. KENNEDY, because he thinks Toronto is intolerant.

FORFUM ACCEPTS BAPTIST POST, RUMOUR SAYS

It is rumoured from an authoritative rumour that there is a rumour rumoured about that there is a rumour that Professor A. W. Furfun has accepted the post of Professor of Dogmatics at the Toronto Baptist Seminary, according to an authoritative rumour from a reliable source of rumours that reached the ears of "The Varsity" last night. This rumour is rumoured to be a rumour based on the best rumoured authority. It is also rumoured that Dr. P. P. Fields could not be reached to verify this rumour.

Cleopatra Never Married, Says She Resolved to be a Myth

BLUE AND TIGHT SHOW GREAT FORM

Versatility Displayed in Sporting Melee Which Ended in Victory

By Leary Dosome, Alias Lou Swamp Sporty Editor of the UNI-UNI University

Aha, the whistle blows. Let's go. They're off (cried the monkey as he drew his . . . fingers across the razor blade). Bickered has passed the ball to T. A. Falconsteth. Oh Boy It looks like a sure touchdown, or at least a home run. Stewart is tearing up the right boards (Workman will probably sue him for damages). Oh tough! Western has grabbed the first basket with two minutes to go (or what have you) in the first overtime period. Let im come boys, the old Blue and Tight shall never foder. Now we're asway! Stinkler has dropped back for one of his last second "punts". Will the defence hold? No. Paul has the puck now. Ah, he handed out one of his stiff bodychecks. He and Burns have sandwiched "Wiener" Luck Hot dog!

The second period opened fast with Patrick O'Levinisky scoring a rouge on a shot that found the upper inside corner of the turnstiles. The crowd yelled "Get that guy! Too late! Too late! Saved at the eleventh hour—by A. Gordon Gin—trust him to save the soles of those who cannot save themselves. He can always make the good old buffalo on the nickel look like a giraffe. We're away again now—Wally Heinz is carrying the ball through the opposition. Ah! That Kruschen feeling—Oh dear! Black-Ball Spence has just done a very childish thing. Snow balls! Snow Balls! . . . The score is tied with but one second to go. Who will win the game for dear old Calford? Again we are rescued—Red Green-side has let go a perfect half-volley and it's now 15-love.

The last period showed some frantic badminton—it was a close shave for the old Barber College—but for the price (40c—32 1-2 on Sundays and holidays) it was worth it. The final score showed Bill Hairs far in the lead for the "diving" championship of Montreal, which typifies the old say-never-die spirit (Bourbon 60 per cent overproof) of the graduates of Occupational Therapy.

Hip Pip!

My Experiences At Montreal

By L. C. Dawson

CENSORED

Stewed Dent Verse

—O.A.
Except some dirt in toe.
Oh, nothing is so black as coal
So tripbly
sole,
Oh, moonlight's dawn enchants my
The gals so cutely reap.
But best of all the lovely feet,
Oh, cheap-cheep-cheep-cheep,
The rotten robin's chirp me cheers.
Oh, hot-cross, hot-cross bun.
The moon, the moon, the moon,
That wiggle in the sun,
I love the curves and billows, too,
Who dwells beneath a tree.
Whence those soft smiles
I love it specially,
The lifeless face had beguiles me so.

INDISCRETION WINS HURT HUSSY DEBATE

The most successful Hurt Hussy debate in the history of Hurt Hussy debates, was held last evening in the squash courts. Many hundreds were turned away, as the rather meager audience listened to the fiery denunciations of the debaters on the subject: "Resolved, that the university is mildewed with indiscretion."

"Look at the mildew of indiscretion at the Women's Union. Any night you can peck through the windows and see the co-eds sprawled all over in mildewed attitudes. They are the girls you left behind you," said Dan Gerous, first speaker for the affirmative.

"The college is not mildewed but honeydewed. Look at any night into one of those orange dens of iniquity on Yonge Street, and see the students sprawled all over sipping at a wicked orange drink," suggested Tommy Rot, who led the negative side.

"Hey! Just see this here piece of mildew I found on my opponent's coat. Is that not proof enough that the hull dern place reeks of indiscretion, huh?" stated Bo Loney, second for the affirmative. He was the second speaker for the affirmative.

"Hah! That's just a piece of fried egg from last night which my opponent displayed a moment ago. Nothing is stickier like a good fried egg, hah," expostulated Jack Ass, last speaker of the evening.

When the vote was taken the house decided in favour of the "sighs" because the "nose" had consistently stuck their tongues at them throughout the evening. This was considered a very indiscretioned act.

A NEW HAT

The First Breath of Spring . .

authentically correct if selected from the versatile collection in our $5.00 Hat Shop. Straws in infinite variety . . . felts in the latest shades . . . tweed effects . . . and the Beret in fascinating new versions, are but few of the many smart features. In approved shades for your selection

$5.00

ON MILLINERY ROW

Third Floor, Yonge Street

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
671 YONGE STREET
KI. 5270

Outcast Lucinda Takes The Plunge

The sun, a golden ball of fire, was sinking to rest in the west. The moon, a silver orb of light, was rising in the east. The stars were beginning to twinkle in the firmament. Night, in fact, was falling. But what was the night to poor lonely little Lucinda? Or, for that matter, what was the day? Lucinda cared for neither. She was an outcast. She had been cast out for as long as she could remember. She had no parents; they had died long before she was born.

As she stood there, in the falling dusk, the growing darkness, the increasing gloom, the gathering twilight, we would do well to delve into her past. Would we? Well, we will, anyway. She had had no friends, no education, no home, no nothing. How had she lived? She had managed to—er—well—she had always—what I mean to say is—she usually—well, perhaps we had better not go into that. After all it doesn't matter very much. For, as we write, she stood on the brink the marge, the edge, overlooking, as it were, the pool. She was about to take the plunge.

THREE LIVE GHOSTS IN MIDNIGHT PRANK INVADE HART HOUSE

Harry Skitch Says:

START RIGHT—BUY MADE TO MEASURE CLOTHES—BECAUSE—Quality Materials ADD to your appearance.

Properly fitted clothes MULTIPLY your chances of success. Spring styles direct from Designers' Convention at Cleveland, Ohio.

PRICES $35.00 TO $60.00
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

The Harry Skitch Company Limited

9 ADELAIDE STREET EAST
Above Elton Bradley's Grill

DANCING LESSONS REDUCED RATES

Strictly Private - 6 for $6.00
Semi Private - 6 for $4.00
(Two pupils to the same lesson)
HARRY WALFORD—KI. 4882
Address—55 WILLESLEY ST.

THE OFFICIAL Varsity Blazers

WILL BE AVAILABLE NEXT WEEK

Watch For Announcement

This is the only official blazer for University of Toronto students, approved by the Students' Administrative Council. Orders, authorizing the purchase of a blazer, may be secured at the office of the S.A.C.

THE HAROLD A. WILSON
COMPANY LIMITED

299 YONGE STREET At Dundas St. TORONTO

HART HOUSE THEATRE

(By permission of the Syndics)

THE WAY OF THE WORLD

WEEK COMM. TUES., MAR.

11

Maureen O'Mara Presents

3 ACTS
18 SCENES

SEATS NOW

WITH THE VARSITY ENTERTAINERS - RANDOLPH CROWE - GEORGE PATTON - ELIZABETH FORGIE - MARGARET BAR TON - FRED MALLETT - CHARLES FITZGERALD - MARGARET WILSON - CYRILLE LAURIN - ALBERT MUELLER - ROBERT BEATTY - HUGH MCDIARMID - HAROLD JACKSON - ROLY YOUNG'S DANCING CO-EDS AND THEIR BOY FRIENDS

Coming Events

FRIDAY, MARCH 7

4.30 p.m.—St. Michael's 370 permanent executive and Moss Scholarship candidate elections.

9.30 a.m.—3 p.m.—General election for all societies at Victoria College. Victoria College senior reception.

MONDAY, MARCH 10

8.15—U. of T. Menorah open meeting. Speaker: Jacob de Hass at the Talmud Torah, Brunswick Ave.

TUESDAY, MARCH 11

5.30—S.C.M. supper party in the Women's Union. Admission 25c.

8.15—The Players' Guild presents Galsworthy's "The Roof" in the auditorium of the Women's Union.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12

4.30 p.m.—The Honour Science Club is having its final meeting at Wymilwood.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13

11.00 a.m.—U.C. Elections.

FRIDAY, MARCH 14

7.00 p.m.—Victoria College faculty-senior dinner in Burwash Hall.

THURSDAY, MARCH 20

4 p.m.—League of Nations Club annual meeting for election of officers. Women's Union.

March 20th, 7.00 p.m.—U. C. Men's Graduation Banquet. King Edward Hotel. Tickets from Executive $2.50.

Chaffey Junior college women have been conducting a shoe shining contest. This contest is held to raise funds for the association.

Organization of an honorary freshman scholastic society for women is the object of freshmen women at the University of Texas.

PARADE AU NATUREL

(Continued from page 1)

"I have nothing to say," replied the eminent explorer.

The party turned into the crescent, proceeded slowly at a gallop, occasionally breaking into a rapid crawl, though Thirty Vic himself seemed to prefer the side-stroke. Overtaking the university police force, they surrounded him and gaily broke several bottles over his head, while their victim laughed merrily at their jesting remarks.

Members of the Faculty, interviewed by "The Varsity," were inclined to minimize the importance of the event. "I do not believe that anyone would do such a thing," stated Miss Cleaver, Dean of a very local women's residence. "I really could not conceive such a person." Miss Cleaver's well-known prolixity has often been considered amazing in its non-sensit.

"I should just forget about the matter," advised Dean Suckem of the Faculty of Density. "I am sure the students are not interested in it, and I concur with the students. I have seen worse things done up in Muskoka, where men are males, but I don't think such matters should be noised about."

"I see nothing humorous in the situation," said Will E. Spittle, Chaplain Extraordinary to the Registrar. "I think it very probable that someone put something in the unfortunate youth's tea. We have had several such incidents in the past. I hope you will print a full account of the affair and hold Vic up to the ridicule he deserves. I feel there should be the fullest co-operation between 'The Varsity' and the Faculty."

HART HOUSE DESTROYED

(Continued from page 1)

When accosted, declined to speak. After returning no answer to several of the reporter's questions, he said: "I'm afraid you'll really have to excuse me now. I have to look after that fire." He then summoned the men, who were drinking cocoa from flasks on the front campus, and they set up the ladders and turned on the taps. The fire hissed, but continued to burn nicely. "Come on, boys; you'll have to do better than this," he declared. But "The Varsity" had to go to press then, so the reporter hurried back to write up the biggest scoop in years.

Lovely Laura Bids Farewell Sails for China With Husband

By L. L. L.

March 8th.
En route.

Dear Betty:

This is absolutely the last letter I will write you for years and years—that is with a Canadian stamp on the upper right hand corner. I'm really and truly married and I'm on my way to China. Isn't that simply wonderful? So unique! It was all so sudden that I can't realize that it is what it is now. And I've married the only man I ever truly and really cared for in all my career. You remember Gid, who was the theologian that took me places and was six feet tall last year. Well I'm Mrs. Gid.

I was standing at the corner of Yonge and Adelaide, when my husband that was before he was my husband came up and said "Laura Louise," and I said "Oh Gid!" so expressively and he said lets have a cup of tea somewhere and I said yes and we did and then before he had finished the soup course and had just started to eat an olive he said "Laura Louise, my Laura Louise," I'm going to China will you go with me and I said that what I've been waiting for all my life and then he kissed me as the waiter was bringing us the fish and I kissed him. It was wonderful. Then we got a beautiful engagement ring, a simply adorable one and he went to the Parliament Bldgs and got a special license and I phoned home and Pappa and Mamma came down with their blessing and with a wonderful big cheque and we were so happy together and we all got married and caught the night train for the Orient and I am going to spend my honeymoon with Gid after all. Isn't that simply the most romantic thing that you ever heard of anywhere. I'm thrilled to bits.

So Betty this is the last letter I can write to you from Canada, but I'll write all about the rickshaws and collicies and the laundries as soon as we get to China and of course we'll be home on furlough as soon as seven years are up and that isn't long when you're in love.

So for the last time

Your dearest friend

Laura Louise.

P.S. I suppose I should have signed myself with my new name, but I forgot and will you send out to me that pink chiffon dress with the spangles. I may need it at some of the Mandarin parties. L.L.

BULLETIN BOARD

HONOUR SCIENCE CLUB

On Wednesday, March 12th, the Honour Science Club is having tea, program and election at Wymilwood at 4.30. All members and friends are invited to be there. Professor Coventry will give us a short talk. This is the last meeting this year.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

The evening production for this term will be Galsworthy's "The Roof" which will be presented on the evening of Tuesday the 11th of March at 8.15. The cast includes Patricia Godfrey, Andrew Allan, Del Beamish, Helen Anderson, Victor Wynbourne, Christine Huggill, James Knights, Ruth Haldenby and Paul Gardiner. The production is by Raymond Card. Visitors are welcome.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The interfaculty match will be fired next week. The last Miniature and Gallery Practice matches will take place the week of March 17, while the spoon shoot for the month will be shot the week following. The annual banquet will be held on Friday, March 28th.

VICTORIA SENIOR RECEPTION

The annual reception to the Victoria College graduating class will be held to-night in the college. The reception will commence at 7.30 sharp—kindly note the hour. All Victoria College undergraduates are invited to attend. An interesting program has been arranged.

LIFESAVERS' DRILL

On Wednesday the 43rd prox. at 1.30 a.m. the Trinity Bowling and Dramatic Club will present as their annual afternoon production "Two Whining Whales", a slight but pretentious tragi-farce by Santor Sombrero, the noted Cockney wheelwright and curate, who will not be remembered as the author of "De Boogey" and "Berymore the Bumble-buck," previously produced by this small yet eager band of torchflares.

SABBATH SONGBIRDS

The Canary Club will hold its weekly sing-song in the Moujik Room on Sunday evening. It will be led by Murad McSpinach, and the popular fiddler, "Jolly" Daze, will do a song-and-dance. The programme will commence with "Nearer My God to Thee", followed by an old Manchurian drinking song known in translation as "Drunk Again, My Dear One". Another hymn and "Frankie and Johnnie", and the programme will be in full swing. Come, chappies, it's jolly!

CARRY A SPARE

With Spring come muddy roads. A passing motor—A splash—A spare pair of stockings in your handbag saves the day. The smartest stocking in town is Number Five Thousand, silk from toe to top, full-fashioned and clear, in a range of forty colours. Excellent value at the low price ..... $1.50

Tune in Every Wednesday 7 p.m., C.F.C.A. Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

164 YONGE STREET
At Richmond
AD. 8896

788 YONGE STREET
Next door to Uptown Theatre
K.T. 3600

2496 YONGE STREET
Next door to Capital Theatre
BU. 4780

OPEN EVENINGS

Have Your Brakes Tested AND SAVE 10

SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE
205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

Medical Arts Coffee Shop

Students will find this new shop exceptionally handy and attractive.

Come in after the game, or the theatre. Always open.

Our Twilight Musical Hour is particularly inviting.

NEW MEDICAL ARTS BUILDING
BLOOR WEST - at St. George

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA SHERBOURNE CHURCH

Sherbourne and Carlton Streets

REV. RICHARD ROBERTS, D.D.
Morning and Evening

11 A.M.—
"HEALTH and HOLINESS"
7 P.M.—The last Sermon in the Series on
"DIVES and LAZARUS", POOR MAN'S HEAVEN

Christian Science

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, St. George St. at Lowther (Close to the University)

Services—Sunday, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.
Subject for Sunday, Mar. 9th, will be

"MAN"

Wednesday Service 8 p.m.
In the Church Auditorium including
Testimonies of Healing Through
Christian Science

You are cordially invited to attend the services and use the Free Public Reading Rooms
1504 Metropolitan Bldg.
Adelaide and Victoria Sts.
Open 9.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.
Where the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased, and periodicals subscribed for.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

381 Huron Street
(Five minutes walk from Hart House)
FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT.

7.00, 8.00, 9.30 a.m.—Holy Eucharist.
11.00 a.m.—Liturgy sung in procession and Sung Eucharist. Parker in E. Preacher: Rev. C. J. S. Stuart, M.A., B.D., Rector.

7.00 p.m.—Evangelism and Sermon. Preacher: Rev. Canon Savers, M.A., Rector of St. Matthew's Church.

The Church is open daily for Prayer and Meditation. Take advantage of it this Lent.

Wed., March 12th, 9.30 a.m.—Holy Eucharist.

10.00 a.m.—Conducted Meditation.
8.15 p.m.—Evangelism and Instruction. Preacher: Rev. R. S. Rayson, M.A., B.D., Assistant Priest.

Deer Park United Church

ST. CLAIR AVENUE
(One block east of Avenue Rd.)

Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A.
Minister

Rev. Douglas Kandell, M.A.
Assistant Minister

11 a.m.—Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A. "The Shields of Rehoboth."

7 p.m.—Rev. W. H. Sedgewick, D.D., of the Metropolitan Church. "The Will to be Whole."

A cordial invitation is extended to all students.

TORONTO THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY 82 ISABELLA STREET

Lectures on Comparative Religion, Philosophy and Science every Sunday evening at 7.15.

Sunday, March 9th

"Some Biblical Names"
By W. DUDLEY BARR

Questions answered and free lending library.

Old St. Andrew's Church

(Cor. Jarvis and Carlton Sts.)

7 p.m.

The Minister,

"Here we have no city, but we seek one to come."

Students Cordially Welcome

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

RENT A
TUXEDO
$2.00
STUDENTS
PRICE ONLY
NEW SUITS
LATEST STYLE
TELEPHONE
TRIMITY 8218

Mallabar COSTUMER

450-452 SPADINA AVE

at College St.

IT'S FULL OF MENACE

No. 12, Tete Jaune—165 yards, Par. 3.

Many an otherwise fine score has been wrecked by this hole on the Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course, Jasper National Park, Alberta, over which the Canadian and Western Canada Amateur Championships will be played, Aug. 19-24, this summer. The reason is obvious by a study of the green in the upper photo and of the lay-out as shown in detail by the lower panel.

Fine fields of golfers are assured for the two big events over this fine course this summer and the dove-tailing of the Western Canada Championship with the Dominion title event, insures plenty of competitive golf for experts and dubs alike.

University College Elections in Junior Common Room, Thursday, March 13

NATHANIAL H. SHAW Asks Your Support for

PRESIDENT 3T3

SEND NAT TO BAT

Girls use your influence and Boys your VOTE to elect

SYDNEY HERMANT, Secretary 3T3

THE GREATEST GOOD FOR THE GREATEST NO. 3T3

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, MARCH 14th, 1930

No. 99

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ELECTION FEATURES CLOSE COMPETITION

Sixty Per Cent of U. C. Men
Turn Out to Cast
Ballots

MURRAY IS PRESIDENT

Elect Keith, Sullivan, Angus,
Other Officers Receive
Acclamations

Almost sixty per cent. of the men at U.C. registered their votes for candidates running in the University College Literary and Athletic Society elections yesterday afternoon. Out of a total membership of seven hundred and eighty six men, D. B. Murray was elected president of the society with a vote of two hundred and seventy, as against the one hundred and ninety-nine ballots cast for his opponent, W. F. Arnold.

Close races featured the elections throughout. The office of First Vice-President (Literary Director), fell to D. A. Keith, who defeated W. F. G. Adams on a vote of 255 against 200. W. B. MacMurray was defeated by P. H. Sullivan for the Second Vice-Presidency (Athletic Director), the

(Continued on Page 6)

ALUMNI FEDERATION GIVES SCHOLARSHIPS

Fifteen Scholarships will be Awarded on Academic Standing

REGULATIONS ANNOUNCED

The Scholarship Committee of the Alumni Federation announces fifteen University Scholarships to be awarded according to the academic results of the year ending June 30, 1930.

In the Faculty of Arts
Two Scholarships of Two Hundred Dollars each.

In the Faculty of Medicine
Four Scholarships of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars each, three to be called "The No. 4 Canadian General Hospital Scholarships", in recognition of the services rendered by the University Hospital during the War, and one "The John McCrae Memorial Scholarship" in memory of Lt.-Col. John McCrae, C.A.M.C., B.A., '94, M.B. '98.

In the Faculties of Applied Science and Engineering, and Forestry
Four Scholarships of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars each.

In the Faculty of Dentistry
Two Scholarships of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars each, one to be called "The No. 4 Canadian General Hospital Scholarship".

In University College only
Three Gordon Southam Scholarships annually of Two Hundred Dollars each, one to be awarded at the end of each of the first three years, the gift of the Southam family in memory of Gordon Hamilton Southam, B.A. '07, University College, Major Commanding 40th Battery, C.F.A., killed in action October 15, 1916.

REGULATIONS

1. The following regulations govern the award of scholarships for the academic year 1929-30 only, and may be revised for succeeding years.
2. The War Memorial Scholarships are open to students (men and women) in any Faculty, who in June, 1930, shall have completed their first, but not their final year.
3. All applications for War Memorial Scholarships must be made to the

(Continued on page 4)

University Press Club

The annual elections for the executive of the University Press Club will take place next Thursday. There will be a luncheon meeting at 1 p.m. in the North Common Room of Hart House. This will be the final meeting of the year and all members should be present.

SOLUTION SUGGESTED FOR TRAFFIC TANGLE

Professor Hedman Proposes a Motor Speedway on Old Belt Line

HAS MANY ADVANTAGES

A motor speedway following the route of the old Belt Line is the solution of Toronto's traffic problem advanced by Professor Thure Hedman of the German department, University College. This route forms a semi-circle bounded by the lake-front, the Don river, Jane Street, and Eglinton Avenue. The boulevard would have accommodation for six or eight lanes of traffic travelling at from 35 to 45 miles an hour and perhaps for street car service.

"Make the Belt Line what it was originally planned to be—not a railroad carrying freight only, but a rapid transit artery for human beings mainly," suggested Professor Hedman. "Buy the C.N.R. right of way; expropriate not only the industrial sites, of which a great many are still unoccupied, but additional lands wherever needed."

In fifteen points Professor Hedman details the advantages of his project. "No doubt the cost would be considerable," he adds, "but it would be small compared with the benefits received. I can conceive of no single improvement which would yield a greater harvest of beauty, comfort and convenience, nor of one which would affect a greater number of people."

SUMMER JOBS OPEN FOR MANY STUDENTS

Alumni Federation Announces
Applications Must Be Entered Soon

VARIOUS TYPES OFFERED

All students wishing summer employment are once again reminded that applications at the Alumni Office must be placed at an early date to ensure any success. This year many positions are open for both men and women, but already those desiring positions are keeping the Federation staff very busy. As usual selling jobs are most abundant, providing excellent salaries, and bonuses. This year the International Magazine Company is starting a new selling campaign, distributing Good Housekeeping and Cosmopolitan magazines, guaranteeing salesmen a salary of $24 per week, bonuses and travelling expenses. Miss Lavell of the Federation staff requests that all interested in this special proposition see her at 43 St. George St. next Wednesday after 2 p.m. In addition to this, work in offices, fruit-ditching, lake boats, ice stations, service stations and various summer resorts stands the ambitious male. For the women of the university, waiting on table and acting as big sister to children at summer resorts seem to be the main attraction. The MacLean Publishing Company is this year offering women a chance to do house work, selling the Chatelaine at an excellent salary.

ELECTION CAMPAIGNS INTERRUPT LECTURE PROFESSOR ANNOYED

Engineering and University College Candidates
Cause Rows

"TOO MUCH"—McLENNAN

Engineers Provoke Students in General Science to Battle

Electioneering efforts of candidates, both in the University College elections last Monday and in the Engineering Society elections a week ago, have seriously hampered the teaching efforts of lecturers to the General Science class.

"We have had altogether too much," said J. C. McLennan to the class on Monday, coming in to quiet a disturbance caused by noisy U. C. candidates. The affair was the culmination of a number of incidents during the past few weeks, and Professor McLennan vigorously expressed himself concerning the unacademic attitude of the class this year.

During the Engineering Society elections last Friday, thirty S.P.S. students broke up a lecture in Botany and caused a near riot outside when outraged students attempted to avenge themselves. Seating themselves in the

(Continued on page 4)

TWO CLASSES UNITE TO HOLD LAST PARTY

University College Seniors and Juniors Put on Final Affair

IMPROMPTU AMUSEMENTS

370 University College wound up its college career with a bang at a class party held in combination with 371 at the Women's Union last night. Miss Kilpatrick, Dean of University College women received, ably assisted by little '77', for two years mascot of the rugby team, who appeared in uniform, and led the cheering from a table-top at supper.

A popular member of the graduating class provided impromptu entertainment during supper by balancing a lighted candle on his head, and smoking a pipe upside down. The party was featured by quantities of novelties, pep, and stags.

Lack of Broken Necks Proves Disappointment to Stalwarts

To the tune of "The St. James Infirmary Blues", the University College Literary and Athletic Society selections were held yesterday in the Junior Common Room. The room looked common enough before the election was completed. To the keen disappointment of several stalwarts no broken necks were sustained.

Inducements varying from shoe-polish to cough-drops were thrown about by the scrutineers. The shoe-polish tasted terrible. There were cough blotters to dry up the Don River. Sandwiches were not distributed by the sandwich-men, but there was an abundance of food in the form of chocolate and candies. Gum was chewed after every meal.

Among those present were Jenny, the best-dressed monkey in Canada, and her master, Pete Suragio, the most talented organ-grinder who ever curled a moustache. Jenny's regular

ANNOUNCE NOMINEES FOR MOSS MEMORIAL FROM TWO COLLEGES

J. R. A. Bright of Victoria and Miss M. J. Fitzpatrick of St. Michael's

BOTH TO DO M.A. WORK

Bright Has Taken First Class
Honours in B. and M.
and in Law

J. R. A. Bright, a student in IV Law, has received the Victoria nomination for the Moss Memorial Scholarship, which is valued at $300. The nomination from St. Michael's College was awarded to Miss M. J. Fitzpatrick.

Mr. Bright, who matriculated from Harbord Collegiate, enrolled in the Biology and Medicine course at University, registering in Victoria College. He is the recipient of three scholarships, the Edward Blake, granted by the university, and the Atkins Scholarship, granted by Victoria College.

After obtaining first class honours in B. and M. he transferred to the new course established in Law, and has maintained the same standard throughout his academic career.

Mr. Bright has been active in athletics about the university, having taken boxing from his second year on.

(Continued on page 4)

UNIVERSITY WALKING CLUB IS CONSIDERED

Permission Has Been Granted to Form Society for Enthusiasts

PROVISIONAL ELECTIONS

At the last meeting of the Athletic Directorate, two representatives of a group of men interested in walking applied for permission to form a Walking Club within the university. Permission has just been granted and the general idea of fostering interest in the ancient art of heel and toe has been officially approved. A provisional executive for the club will be elected shortly.

It is a generally known fact that there has been a revival of interest in walking, both in Canada and the United States during the past few

(Continued on page 4)

Hart House Committees

The following were elected to the Squash Racquets Committee on Thursday, March 6th: A. J. Elder, III U. C.; W. S. Noyes, III U. C.; L. W. Plewes, IV Meds; J. A. D. Craig, III U. C.

Camera Committee—W. T. Grant, V Meds; W. L. Brown, III U. C.; D. A. MacLulich, III Forestry; J. L. Lehman, III U. C.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY CHOOSSES EXECUTIVE

A. E. Tyson, Vice-President
This Year, Is New President

IS STUDENT AND ATHLETE

Albert E. Tyson, of third year, was elected president of the Engineering Society in the recent School elections. Versatile student and excellent athlete, Mr. Tyson is in the third year. He has held several class positions and has proved his executive ability. He is peculiarly fitted to fill his new position and will have an opportunity to use his inclination for work.

"Bert" Tyson is a "T" man, by virtue of the intercollegiate wrestling in the light-heavyweight championship. He also held the interfaculty championship in boxing in the same weight. Mr. Tyson is familiar with his duties from his experience as the vice-president last fall. He is supported by an able executive. The results of the elections are as follows:

Engineering Society—President, A. E. Tyson; First Vice-President, W. L. Dutton; Second Vice-President, E. S. Jewett; Secretary, M. A. Elson; Treasurer, J. L. Donaldson.

Athletic Association—President, T. A. Hanecek; Vice-President, J. R. Fitzpatrick; Sec. Treasurer, R. H. Adams; S.C.A., G. M. Ward. Chairmen of Clubs—Architectural, G. L. M. Fowler; Chemical, R. O. Willis; Civil, W. S. R. Edmonds; Debating, G. E. Beament; Electrical, M. H. Beouvers; Mechanical, J. M. Boyd; Mining and Metallurgical, J. H. R. Doyle.

(Continued on Page 8)

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB EXECUTIVE ELECTED

Meeting Also Decides to End
Year with Theatre Party

PRESS CLUB PINS AWARDED

Election of the 1930-31 executive for the Women's Press Club took place at their last meeting yesterday afternoon in the Women's Union. Results: President, Miss Anne Adler, University College; Vice-President, Miss Jennie Farley, St. Michael's; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Marjorie Price, Victoria; Social Convener, Miss Dorothy Crawford, U.C.; Publicity, Miss Jean Morton, Victoria; Graduate Councillor, Miss Ev. Craw, Victoria.

Miss G. I. Wooley, assistant professor of English at U.C., who has been honorary president for the last two years, has again been unanimously chosen for that office.

It was decided to close the year with a theatre party to be held at the Royal Alexandra Theatre on Saturday, March 29, at the matinee performance of "Hansel and Gretel". Following that the members will have afternoon tea.

Those members who had handed in work that was accepted at previous meetings, or by the executive, were announced eligible for the Press Club pin.

STAFF OF VARSITY HOLD DINNER DANCE TO WIND UP SEASON

Past Year's Achievements Are Reviewed in Speeches
After Dinner

J. B. BICKERSTETH SPEAKS

Novelties, Favours, Feature
Dancing in Hart
House

The achievements of the past year were recalled by members of the staff of "The Varsity" at the annual spring dinner dance of the paper. Following the dinner in Hart House, editors and reporters adjourned to the Music Room, and dancing held sway for three hours. Relaxing after a year of hard work, the staff enjoyed themselves and forgot the cares and worries of former days in mirth and jollity.

Lou Golden, editor of "The Varsity", acted as toastmaster, and thanked the staff for their co-operation, and individual members for especially able work. He paid tribute to J. B. Bickersteth, Warden of Hart House,

(Continued on Page 6)

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION WILL HOLD ELECTION

Announce Nominations and Set
Date for Elections as March 18

ELECTIONEERING BEGINS

The final meeting of the University College Women's Undergraduate Association was held on Monday afternoon in the Women's Union. Miss Clara Gray, the president, called for nominations for officers for the coming year, which resulted as follows: Mrs. E. A. Dale, honorary president (acclamation); Jean Robertson, president (acclamation); Winnifred Hughes, Adele Statten, vice-president; Dorothy Porter, Christine Auld, secretary; Grace Beatty, Margaret Dixon, treasurer.

Nominations for the various year executives were also received. Electioneering by the candidates and their friends began immediately and will continue until Tuesday, March 18, when the voting takes place. The polls will be open in the women's common room, University College, from 10 o'clock until 2.30.

Nominations for positions for the Student Christian Movement were received at a supper party at the Women's Union on Tuesday evening. This election likewise will take place on Tuesday, March 18th, in the women's common room, University College.

The following were nominated for officers on the various year executives. The election will be held on Tuesday, March 18:

371—Peg Willoughby, president (acclamation); Betty Potter, Winnifred Hughes, Min Sinclair, vice-president; Kay Crowe, Wink Barlow, Bea Crocker, secretary; Babs Hood, Bert Reade, treasurer.

372—Mary Phillips, president (acclamation); Ema Boon, Jean Fraser, Wilma Hazlitt, vice-president; Jean MacKechnie, Dorothy Fleming, secretary; Isabel Johnson, Dorothy Beattie, treasurer; Marg Mingay, Marg Huston, S.A.C. representative.

373—Marg Dunham, Isabel Dickson, Marg Conboy, Lois Tedman, president; Connie McNeill, Beth Bertram, Helen Treadgold, vice-president; Norah Tedhope, Merle Storey, secretary; Helen McKee, Nora Bowers, Jean Trimble, treasurer.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Boves, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hasel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkovsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Business and Advertising Manager

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor—C. L. Coburn

FRIDAY, MARCH 14th, 1930

THE PROVINCIAL UNIVERSITY

The state university is the butt of a good deal of adverse criticism amongst certain types of radical university students, but they are hitting at the wrong point when they blame the state college. It must be granted that state institutions are of necessity provincial in their outlook to a certain degree that is not always present in the private university, but the benefits and comparative safety of professors of original thought outweigh the disadvantages. The trouble does not lie with the state university itself, but the degree to which the state politicians meddle with its affairs. If a college supported by the state is put into the hands of a commission of capable scholars with another group of financial men to look after the building operations as their assistants, most of the abuses of state-owned institutions disappear. But take the case of an ideal private university. Instead of millions of people contributing a little each year there are a few bloated money-grabbers who pay the piper. Which then is preferable? Are the prejudices of a few brewers, meat-packers and tobaccoists, against whom there is no appeal, to be reckoned as better for the welfare of an institute for the dissemination of light than the prejudices of a fairly intelligent province that to a very large extent minds its own business?

It is quite fine to say that the people may be damned, and thought and its expression is free in a privately endowed university, but are they? No member of the faculty of a private university assisted financially by brewers may advocate openly against the sale of beer, nor may he criticize methods of wealth distribution if the college is supported by powerful magnates whose very wealth depends upon the existing order of things.

The solution lies as usual between the two extremes and the opportunity of placing one state college in the happy medium lies in the hands of one man.

The opportunity of placing the University of Toronto where it will be almost ideal lies in the hands of the Minister of Education for Ontario. Premier Ferguson without a doubt has the courage of his convictions and at present with the huge majority that he has at Queen's Park he can create something that will live after him far longer and will be remembered after amendments to the L.C.A. will be forgotten. The premier of the province has always claimed that state owned enterprises must be kept out of politics to be successful. The Hydro-Electric commission is above politics, the government liquor control board is claimed to be handled by an independent board out of politics, why then not the state enterprise of higher education, or to be exact, the University of Toronto?

The move would be without a doubt a sane one; for the benefit of the university and an excellent tactical move for the Conservative party. The little band of opposition would be unable to throw even rubber bricks at the premier, for have they not themselves criticized the government for meddling in the affairs of the university? If that were done would there not be an end to interfering by petty politicians in affairs of which they know almost nothing? There would be no need for a "boss" of the university, but instead there would be a commission of scholars who themselves would decide on what should and what should not be taught. The practical business men would have their place in handling the financial ends of the university while its academic standing would be not only maintained, but would reach heights not yet attained by the hundred year old source of truth.

Then and only then could the people of the province cry as they do when politicians try to dabble in the Hydro affairs. The shout of "Hands off the Hydro" is old. Here is a chance to make the cry of "Hands off the university", a catch-call for the folks who pay its cost and make this university a place of refuge for broad-minded and unafraid professors.

With the Theatres

UPTOWN

Beryl Mercer and good photoplay make the film version of Barrie's "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" a really good piece of work. "Seven Days Leave" is the title. It's supposed to be Gary Cooper's picture, but even though he works hard and has his nationality changed from Scots to Canadian, he scarcely scores a personal triumph. The new bill which opens to-day has "Honey" with Nancy Carroll—which ought to be a recommendation. —A.E.F.A. (Continued on page 5)

Art and Drama

The Way of the World

Miss Maureen O'Mara's revue, entitled "The Way of the World", is appearing this week at Hart House Theatre (by permission, as you may already have guessed, of the Syndics) but Congress won't mind.

Although the production lacks class and personality, Miss O'Mara's music—if a bit reminiscent—is pleasantly tuneful; and her skits—if a bit dull—are not objectionable. But the routine is definitely faulty and the staging is totally meaningless. If there has been any very serious direction, it isn't apparent. What few good people are in the production would have to work a lot harder to make up for the residue who ought to content themselves with more mundane pursuits. After all, a certain amount of technique is essential in these matters.

"Melancholy Moon" is the best song in the show, although the waltz song, "I'm Alone",—aided and abetted by a "Rose-Marie" setting and Wagnerian choral effects—runs it a close second.

The much-touted Dancing Co-eds wrestle grimly with a series of rather awful dance routines. But even if they had had good routines, there wouldn't have been any rush on the bald-headed rows. The Varsity Entertainers register in their own act, but need strings to effect sympathetic accompaniments.

The technical work, however, is excellent. The Gordon Best lighting and the stage management of Jack Barber lend the show what smooth-running qualities it does have.

—A.E.F.A.

The Roof

"The Roof", by John Galsworthy, chosen by the Players' Guild of University College as their evening production for this term was quite up to the usual high form of the Guild's productions.

We liked the acting especially for its delightful naturalness. Messrs. Andrew Allan and Sydney Herman, as two gentlemen who had imbibed wisely but too well, were very well versed in the requirements of their roles. Mr. James Knights, popping up at the most unexpected times as the versatile Gustave the waiter, adapted himself remarkably well to his many moods, and deserves our unstinted praise.

The high spot of the evening for pure enjoyment was the delightful bedroom scene in which Miss Patricia Godfrey and Mr. Raymond Card as a middle-aged English couple, find out the delights of a small French hotel in Paris.

Miss Ruth Haldenby and Miss Betty Burton as the two young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lennox worried the occupants of the hotel through two or three scenes most childishly. Mr. Paul Gardner as an English novelist with heart trouble, portrayed extreme pathos as only he can do.

The performances were all of an extremely high standard, and the Guild is to be congratulated on another better and brilliant success.

—W.E.B.

A Harvard astronomer has measured an electron less than a millionth of an inch in size.

CHAMPUS CAT

ALL QUIET ON THE BLISTERN RUMT

Postscript

Special to "The Varsity" by a staff reporter on asbestos paper

It is dark and I am cold. The waters of the river are lapping weirdly at my feet and the cold gray earth is damp and clammy to the touch of my stiffening fingers. I sit by the bank and shiver. Now I can hear the ghostly creaking of car locks through the night. Peering through the mist I presently behold the dark shape of a small boat loom out of the blackness. And I know that it is Charon coming to ferry me across the Styx.

C—C

Patiently and hopelessly I wait as he swings his craft into the bank. I wonder dully what the other side will be like. Will I have to line up for sinners soup? Will my death wound be respected by the spirit and earn me a place of distinction?

"Come along there!" cries Charon gruffly, as I pause to scratch some of the lice that have persisted in pestering me even after death.

C—C

I come out of my reverie and step down the bank. An empty tomato can is dislodged by my toe and goes rattling noisily down into the water. It makes an uncanny sound.

C—C

Silently the boatman propels the skiff out into midstream. He pays no attention to me; I sit and watch him. Apparently a Greek. I wonder if he ever ran a quick lunch joint or made pin money giving shoe shines.

Not a very courteous chap. I wonder what home training he had. Or did he have a home? He does look as though he has had to wear his big brother's clothes. I scratch myself again as I muse.

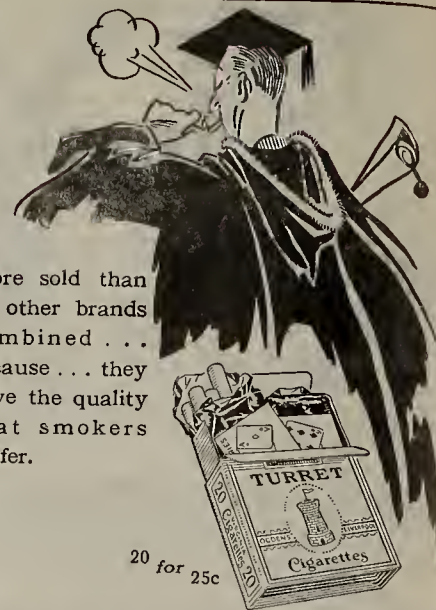

C—C

The boat gives a sudden lurch. I look up in surprise. Charon is squirming irritably and his oar has missed a stroke. He is glaring at me in a threatening manner.

"Say, young man, where in Hades did you come from?" he demanded angrily, scratching himself vigorously as the boat began to drift downstream. "Where in Hades are we going?" I asked, trying to change the subject.

C—C

(Continued on Page 8)

More sold than all other brands combined... because... they have the quality that smokers prefer.

20 for 25c

TURRET

CIGARETTES

Mild and Fragrant

Save the valuable "POKER HANDS"

The shining comedy light of Vaudeville and Musical Comedy
BILLY HOUSE & CO.
"RESOLUTIONS"

The National Broadcasting Company Presents
MILDRED HUNT
"Radio's Sweetheart"
with Hum and Strum and Dorothy Samson

Shea's will continue to present R.K.O. "Big Time" Vaudeville Exclusively.

—On the Screen—
RICHARD ARLEN MARY BRIAN
in "Burning Up"
An all-talking auto-racing thriller

STARTS TO-MORROW OTHER ATTRACTIONS
SHEA'S HIPPODROME

Everybody Loves

"Honey"
Starring
NANCY CARROLL
NOW PLAYING
OTHER ATTRACTIONS

A Hit From
The Beehive of Happiness

UPTOWN

EPISTAXIS

The 1930 volume is just off the Press
Don't fail to get your copy at Tuck Shop, Hart House
Medical Office
Students' Cloak Room
Tor. Gen. Hospital

EPISTAXIS

Your Eyes
Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.
SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS
F. E. LUKE
Optometrist and Optician
167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

Headquarters for
ACADEMIC GOWNS
CAPS
HOODS

See our samples and prices before buying

Sainthill-Levine & Co. LIMITED

126 Wellington Street West

PHONE EL. 3391

Patronize FREEMAN'S, 571 Yonge Street, your steady advertiser.

DANCING LESSONS

GORDON BEECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1885

PROFITABLE OCCUPATION

Old Colony Greeting Card Company will be interested to hear from Students who wish to carry a line of Personal Christmas Greeting Cards. A dignified and profitable occupation for the vacation and Fall months. High grade Canadian etchings. Experienced Agents preferred. Studios, 126 Wellington St. W. Toronto.

VILMORE TEA ROOMS
53 Harbord Street
New and up-to-date tea room will be open and ready for student patronage about
THURSDAY, MARCH 20th
We will appreciate a trial.

U.C. QUINT DEFEATS SCHOOL TO ENTER SIFTON CUP FINALS

SPEAKING OF SPORT

Now that the university hockey season has almost drawn to a close, we find the annual question of a football coach again raising its head. But this time the question has been somewhat complicated by the so-called problem of an athletic director. It does not seem likely that the commencement of the 1930-31 academic year will find an athletic director on the job, but we do know that a football coach will be on hand, and that his appointment should not be much longer delayed.

Rumour has it that certain parties would welcome a new man to handle the Big Blue team. But who this man will be is a question which has a genuine interest for the undergraduate and graduate bodies alike. Certain names have been put forward by those who claim to have a little "inside dope" on the matter, but as yet nothing official has come to light.

Just cast your eyes over the following list and pick the man you would like to see football coach: M. J. Rodden, Alex Sinclair, Gordon Duncan, Les Blackwell, Ronny McPherson and Harry Hobbs.

Varsity Intermediates play Bishop's College at Ottawa to-morrow in a sudden death game for the Intermediate Intercollegiate Hockey Championship. The Blue and White seconds have been playing smart hockey of late but will have to be in good form to take the easterners, who have a real team.

The following letter written by Ralph St. Germain, McGill football and hockey star, appeared recently in the "McGill Daily". It speaks for itself!

Sports Editor, McGill Daily.

Dear Sir:

The discussion of the introduction of the forward pass into Canadian football has again come to the fore and with a startling suddenness has again been cast aside when it appeared that the Canadian public were at last to be treated to the sight of a spectacular and clever play, that has been lacking in the Canadian code for a long time.

It is hard for one to understand the attitude of a few men, who through the force of their positions are able to dictate to the players and the fans alike, who have expressed their views favourably for some considerable time, that any one, two or three men should be able to make this decision, is to say the least, a very unfortunate situation for the C.R.U.

For the past two or three years, if not longer, Canadian football games, with exceptions now and then, have been very drab affairs, and there is no reason to believe that they have any chance of being otherwise, yet any attempt to change this state of affairs is barred by our so-called rules commission.

The forward pass was given a trial in all junior leagues as well as in Western Canada and the Senior Dominion finals last year. It was enthusiastically accepted, by all those who participated in its use, as well as by those who had the opportunity of seeing it being used. It was found that, as a play to open up the present day tight-knit defences and as a last minute play it had no equal—it was all its sponsors had said it was—and more.

Therefore is it any wonder that people do not understand its abolishment from the code? Yours truly,

RALPH ST. GERMAIN, '30.

Congratulations to the water polo team! They retained the intercollegiate championship. And in addition the team made a fine showing in the International Waterpolo League.

Elections to the Varsity Women's Athletic Directorate took place yesterday. Three members of this year's Directorate, Eleanor Sedgewick, III Victoria, Naomi Slater, III St. Hilda's, and Adele Statten, III University College, were re-elected. The two new members are Margot MacDonald, III Household Science, and Dorothy James, III Meds.

Of the forty-four people privileged to vote for the Directorate, forty-two appeared to exercise their franchise. Two of the representatives from Meds failed to arrive. Greater care should be taken in selecting these representatives; these elections are very important, and any girl who accepts the appointment to vote should certainly make a point of being present at the elections, or let someone be appointed in her place.

St. Hilda's won their group of the interfaculty hockey series, breaking the tie, and defeating Victoria by a 2-0 score last Friday. Neither Norma Bateman nor Sally Ballard, the girls over whom the dispute arose, were allowed to play in this game.

By virtue of this win St. Hilda's entered the finals with Meds, the winners of the other section, but the Saints dropped the first game of the playoffs yesterday with the Medettes by 1-0 and as the score on the round counts, they are now facing a one-goal deficit when they play the return fixture on Monday.

Varsity's intermediate women's basketball team failed to break into the win column on Monday night. They dropped the last game of the city series to the Margaret Eaton sextette by a 30-24 score. Varsity tried hard but they were just not good enough. In the first period the Blue team had their share of the play, but M.E.S. had a decided edge on the shooting.

In order to avoid any further complications in the hockey series, such as arose this season, the Athletic Directorate decided that next year the intercollegiate team must start to practice before Christmas, so that players who fail to make the squad will have a chance to go back and play with their interfaculty team.

BLUE WATER HOUNDS WIN INTERCOLLEGIATE

Varsity Water Polo Team Ties McGill 6-6 in Game, Take Round 11-9

LAST GAME OF SEASON

On the evening of Saturday, March the eighth, Captain George (Sliver) Spence and his band of trained water hounds made their last appearance of the season, holding McGill to a 6-6 score, which maintained their two-goal lead obtained the previous weekend in Montreal, and retained the Intercollegiate title for another year.

The Varsity team had much the better of the play during the first half, scoring 3 goals to McGill's 2. In the last period the Red and White ran wild, scoring three goals in rapid succession and tying the total score on the round. The Blues pulled together and with a beautiful exhibition of combination play, tallied 2 counters, McGill, after a whirlwind attack, managed to put one more shot past goal-keeper Ayers. For the dying moments of the game Varsity held the offensive, Graham sinking the last point of the game and the season. Final score on the game 6-6. On the round, Varsity 11, McGill 9.

WILL END BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP RACE

Winners of the Six Original Groups Divided into Two Groups

The inter-faculty baseball championship is fast drawing to a close. The winners of the six groups of the original schedule have been divided into two groups.

In group One, Senior U. C. has defeated Senior Dents in two games by scores of 4-0 and 5-1. As a result Senior U. C. plays O. A. C. for the group championship. The first game was played at Guelph on the 12th and the return game is to be played here on the 17th.

In group II, Victoria defeated Jr. U. C. 4-3 and Jr. U. C. have returned the compliment by defeating Victoria 6-2.

Both teams have a game to play with Knox. If both teams defeat Knox, a group tie will result and these two teams will have to decide the winner. On March 19th, the winner of the second group plays the winner of the first and at Guelph if O. A. C. succeeds in defeating Senior U.C.

The return game is to be played on March 21st and if a third game is necessary it will be played March 24.

Fire caused by a defective flue cost the Sigma Nus of the Oklahoma Agricultural College $300.

Over 300 Members in Our Pyjama Family

So very important a part do they play in Spring Fashions that their numbers are myriads—

You'll find pyjamas that will stay up late studying for exams with perfect comfort and ease; pyjamas that are decidedly stay-a-bed companions; exquisite affairs that simply demand the admiration of tea hour guests; travel-wise pyjamas in very subdued tones; pyjamas that wear their coats to match with true nonchalance. When examinations loom large and imposing, a visit to our pyjama department will prove a real stimulation.

Third Floor, Queen St.

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

FREEMAN'S—571 Yonge Street—is the largest concern for the rental of dress clothes.

"Students interested in Babson Institute, the school that gives an intensive training in the fundamental laws of business, may meet Mr. W. R. Mattson, Assistant to the President, on Friday, March 14, at the King Edward Hotel by appointment. He will be in Toronto all day and until early evening."

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

259 College St. TRINITY 5967

Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries

Name your city
We have Your Home Town Paper.
Lending Library.

That Custom-made look

Impossible to define—yet easy to see—is conveyed exclusively in Dack's shoes.

Over 100 years' experience of most expert craftsmen working on the choicest materials produce both shape and comfort.

Dack's
Shoes for Men
(From maker to wearer)

TORONTO 16 BLOOR ST. EAST
SHOPS 73 KING ST. WEST

Also Montreal-Hamilton-Windsor-Winnipeg-Calgary

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of Formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
671 YONGE STREET K1. 3270

Distinctive

Felts of superb quality—and whether you choose a rakish brim or a more conservative model, there is a distinctive air only to be had in a Calhoun Hat.

Priced from $3.85

Calhoun, the Hatter

2 Toronto Stores

97 YONGE ST.
(Adelaide & Yonge)

806 YONGE ST.
(Bloor & Yonge)

Open Every Evening

LACROSSE CLUB TO MEET AMERICAN TEAMS IN TOUR

Five Games in New York or Vicinity During the Summer Trip

The University of Toronto Lacrosse Club has completed arrangements for its annual spring trip across the line.
On May 24th the Blue and White will play at Montclair, New York;

May 28th, New York City College;
May 30th and 31st, Crescent Athletic Club, Brooklyn, and will wind up the trip with a fifth and final game with Penn State, June 3rd.

With five of last year's regulars absent, there is plenty of opportunity to make a place on the team. Dr. Da-foe, who is again in charge, wishes all interested to be on hand at the next meeting, which will be held Friday, 21st.

BLUE AND WHITE WIN INTERMEDIATE GROUP

Victory Over Western Gives Varsity Championship of Section

WIN GAME AND ROUND

Varsity intermediates are champions of the western section of the intercollegiate hockey race as a result of their 3 to 2 win over Western University last Tuesday. The final score on the round was 9 goals to 8 in favour of the Blue squad.

There was not much doubt as to which was the better team in the final series, although the score was close.
In Tuesday's fracas the Johnsonites were three goals up till the end of the second period, when they eased up and Western ran in two counters.

Varsity sailed in from the start and gave Jewell in the Western nets several close calls. Ferguson tallied the first goal for the Blue from a scramble in front of the nets near the end of the period.

The same player made it 2-0 with 2:45 to go in the second frame. The Blue continued to have a margin on the play in this period.

Western showed to better advantage in the final session. Pereyma put Varsity 3 goals up after 8 and a half minutes of play. Then the Londoners woke up, Schnarr counting twice on nice plays.

Varsity—Goal, McCartney defence,
Graham and Smillie; centre, Clute;
wings, Statham and Leake; alternates, Pereyma, Ferguson, Conn.

Western—Goal, Jewell; defence,
Wallem and Savard; centre, Schnarr;
wings, Brown and Armstrong; alternates; Tremain, Sinclair, Patterson.

BLUE INTERMEDIATES TO PLAY FOR TITLE

Hockey Seconds Meet Bishop's
College in Sudden Death Game

SATURDAY AT OTTAWA

Jimmy Johnson will take his Blue intermediate hockey team up to Ottawa on Saturday where they will meet Bishop's College, winners of the Eastern section, in a sudden death game for the intermediate intercollegiate title.

Varsity will probably run into some tough opposition in this game as the Bishops have eliminated some good teams in winning the eastern honors.
However, the Blues should be capable of coming through with a win. They have a strong line-up and have uncorked some good hockey both in the O.H.A. and Intercollegiate group. Don Smillie, the boy with the Babe Dye shot, has been added to the defence, coming up from the junior squad.

ELECTION CAMPAIGNS INTERRUPT LECTURES

(Continued from page 1)
gallery of the lecture room the School men had raised a commotion for fifteen minutes. When Professor Thomson requested them to be gentlemen and retire they left with a rousing toke-oike, followed by the jeers of the class.

Ten minutes later they entered a cloak room through a window and mixed several coats and hats into a pile. Assembling outside the door of the lecture room, they proceeded to give another yell. At this some sixty men seated near the door rose from their places and went out en masse to quell the disturbance.

Considering discretion the better part of valour, the S.P.S. students retreated, but when a large number of men had returned to the lecture room they charged back across the road.
One U.C. man, an amateur boxer, was attacked by two Engineers and knocked them both down. At this scraping became general, and a good battle was in the making when one of the university police force entered the struggle. With some difficulty he succeeded in parting the various groups of combatants, but it was found necessary to call off the lecture.

ST. MICHAEL'S BEATS DENTS TO TAKE CUP

Hard-Hitting Hockey Hounds Win Jennings Cup from Champions

MIX MATTERS MERRILY

On Wednesday afternoon at the Varsity Arena St. Michael's College defeated Dents 3 to 1, capturing the interfaculty hockey championship. The new Jennings Cup holders displayed a hard-hitting type of hockey to eliminate last year's champions.

The boys mixed matters right merrily under the lenient view Referee Bennett was taking of things, and they let the body and wood work be unconfined at times. The paths to the respective goals were rocky ones, and in many cases it was a survival of the fittest.

There was little doubt of the St.
Michael's superiority. The front line trio of Cerre, Martin and Kehoe was an able one, individually and collectively, showing speed on the break and in back-checking. Cerre was through frequently on lone sorties and on passes from Martin, and though he counted twice, he was beaten a number of times on sparkling saves by Connors and on his own wild shooting. Young and Haffey backed up the forward division with some rugged rearguard work, and the former rushed well.
Harrison lapsed but once in goal, Ma-haffey's long shot in the closing minutes catching the top of the net for Dental's score.

Dents pressed gamely for the route and were in the hunt until Cerre scored St. Michael's second, after seven minutes of the third period, on a nice pass from Martin. Kehoe had taken a pass from the latter sixteen minutes along in the second frame to open the scoring. Cerre picked up the puck to notch the third from a scramble following Regan's rush and shot. It came five minutes from the bell. Ma-haffey's marker for Dents was tallied about two minutes from the close.

Walden's tireless rushing from the defence, and the forward line work of Mahaffey and Mutchmore, were high lights of Dents' play, in addition to Connors' performance in goal.

Dents—Goal, Connors; defence,
Walden and Henry; centre, Mahaffey;
wings, Herron and Moore; subs,
Mutchmore, Fleming and Gibson.

St. Michael's—Goal, Harrison; defence, Haffey and Young; centre,
Martin; wings, Cerre and Regan;
subs, Kehoe, Clancy and Bergeron.
Referee—J. C. Bennett.

NOMINEES ANNOUNCED FOR MOSS MEMORIAL

(Continued from page 1)
wards, and having played interfaculty rugby for Victoria.

For the past several years he has been identified with the Signal Corps of the university contingent of the C.O.T.C., and is the recipient this year of the second award for marksmanship in the contingent.

After graduation, it is Mr. Bright's intention to pursue his studies further at Osgoode Hall and to do M.A. work in the Law Department at this university.

Miss Fitzpatrick, the St. Michael's College nominee, is from Hamilton, and matriculated with honours from Loretto Academy of that place. She is enrolled in the honour course in modern languages, and has received second class honours each year. In the event of being awarded the scholarship, Miss Fitzpatrick states it as her intention to take M.A. work in English.

SMOOTH AND STRONG AND UNIFORM AL-WAYS IS...
ELDORADO
"THE MASTER
DRAWING
PENCIL"
FOR SALE AT THE
COLLEGE BOOKROOM

ROADSTER

Just the car for a lot of fun.
Owner leaving town. $75.00 for quick sale. Hudson 2658.

"CAMBRIDGE" SUITS and TOPCOATS for Spring

A Great Showing of New Styles and Fabrics

$25 to $45

All genuine "Cambridge" styled and tailored throughout, which means clothing at its very best from every angle. In this beautiful display you will find all the styles and fabrics that will be favored by the younger generation this Spring.

Make it a point to see them this week-end

Fitzpatrick & O'Connell
LIMITED

254 Yonge Street

THE OFFICIAL (Undergraduate) Varsity Blazers

ARE NOW IN STOCK

PRICE $11.00

This is the only official blazer for University of Toronto students, approved by the Students' Administrative Council.
Orders, authorizing the purchase of a blazer, may be secured at the office of the S.A.C., Hart House, or Room 82, U.C.

THE HAROLD A. WILSON
COMPANY LIMITED
299 YONGE STREET At Dundas St. TORONTO

DANCING LESSONS
REDUCED RATES

Strictly Private - 8 for $5.00
Semi Private - 6 for $4.00
(Two pupils taking same lesson)
HARRY WALFORD-KI. 4882
Address—55 WELLESLEY ST.

When You Ask for Your First Job—

WILL you be able to say that you have had the necessary business training? Or will you have to admit a lack of practical knowledge and enter the "school of hard knocks"?

Every college man has two roads open to him: the trial and error method of attaining business leadership involving years perhaps of delay, or the business education method which provides in much less time that training the business world demands.

Which road do you choose?
Babson Institute offers you the direct route. In a thorough and intensive nine months' course, you can learn the principles of Finance, Management, Production, and Distribution. More than that, you can learn how to use this knowledge; so that when you apply for your first position you can say:

"Yes, I have had the necessary business training!"

Send for Booklet

We invite you to send for our booklet "Training for Business Leadership". It tells how many other young men, like yourself, have been prepared for business at Babson Institute and how you, too, may be equipped to fill eventually an executive position. The booklet is free. When you have read the booklet, pass it on to your father and ask him what he thinks of this practical instruction in business fundamentals. New terms open March 29, June 28 and September 24.

Mail Coupon NOW!*BABSON Institute

1361 Babson Park, Mass.
Send me, without obligation, "Training for Business Leadership" and complete particulars about Babson Institute.

Name _____
College _____
Address _____
Home Address _____
City _____
State _____

In the Days to Come

WHAT part will you take in business life five, ten, fifteen years from now? Will you be the head of a business, or will you be content to drift along with the tide?

The man with vision—the man who realizes the possibilities of the future and determines to profit by them—will lay the foundation of his future capital out of his present earnings.

MAKE YOUR BANK BOOK
MARK YOUR PROGRESS

The Royal Bank of Canada*C. O. T. C.*ORDERS

Lieut.-Col. T. R. Loudon, Cmdg.
University of Toronto C.O.T.C.
11th March 1930.

13

Pre-Inspection Parade.

The contingent will parade to University Avenue Armouries on Monday, 17th March. Members will draw arms at 7.00 p.m. and fall in on the ground north of the Mining Building, and move off at 7.15 p.m. All members must attend this parade.

The band will attend. Great coats will be worn. Officers will wear swords.

The time at the Armouries will be devoted to Inspection manoeuvres.

14

Annual Inspection.

The contingent will be inspected by the D.C.C., M.D. 2, at the University Avenue Armouries on Friday, 21st March.

The battalion will draw arms and fall in in close column on the ground to the north of the Mining Building at 7 p.m. Companies will be sized before moving off to the Armouries at 7.15 p.m.

Dress—Drill order, with greatcoats. Officers will wear swords. Medals will be worn. The band will attend.

15

Muster Parade.

After Inspection, the D.P.M. will hold a Muster Parade. Failure to attend will entail forfeiture of allowance as NO GRANT CAN BE MADE FOR ANY MEMBER NOT ON PARADE. Officers commanding companies will see that pay-lists are signed by members of their companies not later than the 17th March.

16

Clothing and Books.

Members will return clothing and books as under:—"A" Co., Monday, 24th March; "B" Co., Tuesday, 25th March; "C" Co., Wednesday, 26th March; "D" Co., Thursday, 27th March.

Pay Parade.

Notice of Pay Parades will be posted at Corps H.Q.; each member (except those taking Military Studies) will be required to present his voucher for returned clothing and text-books.

(Signed) W. S. Wilson,
Capt. & Adj.

WITH THE THEATRES

(Continued from page 2)
PANTAGES

"Pointed Heels" is a film so utterly stupid that even a cast composed of William Powell, Fay Wray, Helen Kane and Skeets Gallagher couldn't save it. It's all about backstage life—if you want something strikingly original. And the vaudeville is about as bad. The theatre changes its name to Imperial to-morrow and takes on R.K.O. billings, so things may look up.

—A.E.F.A.

EMPIRE

"Your Uncle Dudley" at the Empire is an exceedingly enjoyable bit of comedy, and should play to well-filled houses every night. Miss Deirdre Doyle performs a superb piece of characterization, and holds the attention and enthusiasm of her audience from her first line to her last.

Miss Anne Carew does the part of a female villain of the feline persuasion with almost too convincing realism. If she had been murdered at the end of the second act, the applause would have brought down the roof.

With but one exception, the other players all do first-class work. Miss Marjorie Foster stresses the insignificance of a very minor role. In spite of this slight flaw, the production is easily one of the best comedy efforts the company has presented this season.

C. L. C.

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

Puritan Stages Come Back

The Editor,

"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

Letters of recent date appearing in "The Varsity" prove to me conclusively that this university is not "Mildewed with discretion", but on the contrary, that it is dangerously fertile, fertile for seeds that are liable to bear a harvest of immorality and wickedness.

They have charged me with being behind the times, but in this they err. By the very courageousness which they assume when they dare to speak of sin so lightly and so wantonly convinces me that it is they who are behind the times. Courage, let it be known, was regarded by ancients as the all seeming virtue, by us, though I hope we are no less brave, PURITY is so regarded. Courage, however kindled, is fanned by the praises of man, purity lives and derives its life solely from the spirit of God.

Another evidence of their lateness of thought is when some young lady calling herself an "Indignant Co-ed" (which, by the way, I think was a misnomer, it should have read an "Ignorant Co-ed") harks back to that old and illogical theory about the equality of the sexes. Now, Mr. Editor, that is silly. You know, as well as I do, that it has long since become a well established fact that society, interpreting the voice of God, has accorded to men some destructive rights and habits; to women, others, and when they start inter-changing them they inevitably bring down the wrath of the Almighty upon their heads.

The same young lady lays the charge of intolerance, and further suggests that I should visit Murray's or the Diet Kitchen. I don't know if she has part ownership in these places of business or not, but let it be known for her special edification that I'm not in the habit of frequenting public feeding houses. As regards intolerance, Mr. Editor, if you will permit me to become personal just for a moment I think I can disprove this. It was my experience once, to take a young lady out for an evening. And during the evening she smoked two cigarettes and even went so far as to utter an oath. How did I act? Not as the fair co-ed might expect. I demanded no apology, I did not even immediately insist on taking her home. I conducted myself as any tolerant gentleman would have done, and passed over her disgraceful and immodest conduct as if it hadn't been noticed. Is this intolerance?

Alas Mr. Editor, the most pitiable and perhaps the most dangerous of your correspondents is the young lady who signs herself "M.R.". She, most probably out of sheer ignorance, even dares to suggest that the signs of this wicked practice can be effaced by the mere application of modern drugs. Not a thousand times No! The stains to which she refers are merely the out and visible form of the inward spiritual stigma that sullies the soul. It can only be wiped out by earnest repentance and constant prayer.

No, Mr. Editor, let this practice be indulged in, with fear and trembling. Let them beware lest society should

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE QUINTET WINS GAME

Basketeers Defeat Jr. School on Game and Round in Hard Fracas

PLAY DOUBLE OVERTIME

After a strenuously contested game which went 10 minutes overtime, the University College senior basketball team defeated Junior School 37 to 30 yesterday, taking the round by a single point on a 59 to 58 count. The University College quintet has now earned the right to meet the winner of the Senior Meds-Forresty semi-final series in the finals for the Sifton cup. Forresty gained an 18 to 16 decision over the medicos Wednesday and will carry a two point lead into the return match this afternoon. The finals will take place in the big gymnasium next week.

The Artsmen entered yesterday's struggle down 6 points but they went right to work and at the end of the first half they had wiped out School's lead and were up a basket themselves. The score was 20 to 12. In the second frame S.P.S. settled down and for a while had the U.C. players completely at sea. S.P.S. were ahead by five points on the round with but seven and a half minutes to go. U.C. called a two minute rest. Following this halt, "Wib" Mayor, stalwart U.C. guard, came through with some phenomenal long shots from several feet back of centre. Play became hectic with each team netting basket for basket in the dying moments of the game. After the termination of the regulation 40 minutes of play the score was tied on the round with U.C. on the long end of a 30 to 24 count on the game.

In the first 5-minute overtime period each team garnered a foul shot and a field basket. Stringer made a free throw good, while Mayor dropped another of his sensational long shots for U.C. Newman accounted for a pretty basket, while Traynor sank a penalty shot. By this time the terrific pace and the hard playing was beginning to tell on the players and both teams were willing to call it a day. But the rule called for another overtime period and Referee Cochran sent them back on the floor to battle it out.

Foyer and Mayor were responsible for U.C.'s winning goals, while Britnell and Lickty scored a field basket and a foul shot respectively for the losers. The engineers strongly disputed the action of the time keeper for blowing his whistle to end the game just as Britnell was in the act of shooting a free shot, when, had he scored, it would have forced another deadlock. The action of the time-keeper was upheld by the referee and the game was over.

"Wib" Mayor was the star of the winning squad, playing a strong game defensively and being high scorer for his team with 11 points to his credit. His shooting from far out kept the Artsmen on even terms with the S.P.S. squad. Mainey, at centre, more often than not, outjumped Newman and secured 10 markers. Foyer accounted for four field baskets. Hodgson played well but wrenched his knee late in the game and was forced to retire.

"Wib" Newman of School, was the best man on the floor. He was the pivot for most of his team's plays and notched 13 points. Traynor, Britnell and Kirk were also effective for the losers. The game was rough, U.C. incurring 13 personal fouls and S.P.S. 8.

University College (37)—Forwards, Foyer (8), Sullivan; centre, Mainey (10); guards, Mayor (11), Hodgson (7); spares, Stringer (1), Garden, Keith, Davies.

S.P.S. (30)—Forwards, Britnell (5), Kirk (2); centre, Newman (13); guards, Smith (1), Traynor (5); spares, Lickty (4), Wong, Tennbaum, Weiner, Lyons.

Referee—A. C. Cochran.

see fit to brand them, not with the scarlet letter "A", but with the no less incriminating letter "S".

A PURITAN,
'32, U.C.WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM

43 glorious days with your $424.<sup>25</sup>
friends and fellow students,
and all expenses for

SCOTLAND
HOLLAND
FRANCE ENGLAND
BELGIUM

A Special All Student Tour

arranged and directed by

The National Federation of Canadian University
Students

A chaperone will go with the Tour and an experienced leader will also accompany it throughout.

For further information apply to A. GORDON BURNS,
S.A.C. Office, Hart House, TR. 5036.

Sailing via Canadian Pacific

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon

In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KI. 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

THE ART METROPOLE

Branch of

THE HUGHES OWENS CO., LTD.

36 ADELAIDE STREET WEST

Dealers in

DRAUGHTING OFFICE SUPPLIES

MATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENTS

SURVEYING AND OTHER SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS

ARTISTS' MATERIALS ZEISS MICROSCOPES

LABORATORY SUPPLIES

ESTABLISHED 45 YEARS

Medical Arts Coffee Shop

Students will find this new shop exceptionally handy and attractive.

Come in after the
game, or the theatre. Always open.

Our Twilight Musical Hour is particularly inviting.

NEW MEDICAL ARTS BUILDING

BLOOR WEST - at St. George

Have Your Brakes Tested
AND SAVE 10

SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE

205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

MARGARET EATON TEAM BEATS INTERMEDIATES

Margaret Eaton basketball team clinched second place in the City League by defeating the Blue intermediates 30-24 in the last game of the season.

The Varsity team had an edge on the play all through the first period, but some bad passing and inaccurate shooting enabled M.E.S. to lead at the interval 18-14.

In the second half the Blue team did not play nearly so well, and M.E.S. were a great deal better, being unlucky not to run up a big score.

RENT A
TUXEDO
$2.00
STUDENTS PRICE ONLY
NEW SUITS
LATEST STYLE
TELEPHONE
TRIMITY 8218

Mallabar
COSTUMER
450-452 SPADINA AVE
at College St.

throat
easy
Buckingham
CIGARETTES
20 for 25¢
NO COUPONS
ALL QUALITY

Headquarters
for ACADEMIC GOWNS
CAPS
HOODS

See our samples
and prices
before buying

Sainthill-Levine & Co.
Limited
126 Wellington Street West
PHONE EL. 5391

Tush The Column With a Kick

By P. A. Gardner

SIZZLING STORIES

"This is horrible!" whispered Carmen. Antonio shuddered at the fear in her voice, but tried to reassure her. "Excelsior!" he quoted, plucking at the stuffing of the sofa. "Horsefeathers!" she replied, absently pulling to pieces a pillow in her excitement.

The outside door opened; a gust of wind blew in. "Hide!" screamed Carmen hoarsely. He hid.

The husband entered, staggering. Carmen, always mistress of the situation, placed him on a chair. He was drunk, most regretfully drunk. She sat on his knee. "Have a cup of coffee, dear!" she urged. "Then come to bed."

"Sure!" he acquiesced. "My wife is certain to reprimand me in any case, so why should I not be hanged for a sheep rather than for a lamb?" This actually happened to a Toronto man and his Montreal wife in their home in Nicaragua. How does Tush know? Antonio was Tush's representative, seeking information in the interests of purity, poor noble selfless fellow!

"Any nice to-day lady?" cooed the nice-man kittenishly. "No," she snapped. "Well, don't get ratty!" he pleaded. "How about a little squeeze?" "Here's a nickel," she retorted, "go and get yourself a crush and have a real time!" Encouraged, the nice-man entered. He looked round. "Are you a little wary in your home?" he queried.

The rest we leave to your imagination which is pretty lurid, God knows, to judge from the comments which pour in daily from our thousands of correspondents all over the university.

A certain dizzy blonde of our acquaintance (purely Tushitudinous, of course) is supplied with pearls by no less than fifteen loving husbands—of other women. Is this fair? We ask you. No, we reply. It throws fourteen other dizzy blondes of our acquaintance practically out of work, and we have to suffer. My God, Mayor Wemp! Is this state of affairs to continue? What is the Minister of Affairs doing? Sleeping? Well, of course, that's his own affair. Nevertheless, we are quite up in arms about it. Quite.

WE SHOULD LIKE TO ENQUIRE IF The couple who sat entwined on a chandelier during four dances at the "Varsity" staff party are contemplating marriage or grape-growing or were merely connoting curves for a chart?

Mr. Jim Meredith of Victoria has ever attended a U.C. class party? He should try it before he graduates. Al-so if he knows that he was seen under a table in Barbecue Bill's early next morning? Ah yes, we even have to look under tables, God help us, in our campaign to exterminate vice. Many are the mouse-traps that we have set under tables. (vouse-traps).

There is any truth in the report that on the forthcoming retirement of Mr. J. B. Bickersteth, the next Warden of Hart House will be Sir Robert Falconer, a popular young entrepreneur of our campus?

IT HAS REACHED OUR EARS THAT

Bribery and corruption went on in broad daylight at the U.C. elections. Tush's shocked representative saw with his own eyes a cigarette given away in return for a promise to vote for the donor. But no! it cannot be true! It must have been a day-dream. In this fair Canada of ours? Nonsense! Except for Eaton's, Simpson's, Loblaw's, Mayor Wemp, the stock brokers, Gooderham and Worts, the clergymen, the Sick Children's Hospital, the lawyers, the university, the doctors and the other newspapers, this land of ours is fair, free and frantically flourishing, owing chiefly to the untiring efforts of Tush, the Scourge of the Lord.

Daffydil this year contained a skit that was decidedly indelicate. Gentlemen! remember the Medical tradition—nothing that would shock grandmother, if she were blind, deaf and unable to be present.

A '29-'30 class party was held at the Union last night under the auspices of Victoria. It does seem a shame that seventeen U.C. men and four and a half Schoolmen (nine in number), not to mention a pair of deuces from Trinity, managed to crash! Can't we stop this, Lord Willington, you with your appeal and us with our authority?

Have you seen the latest in musical inconveniences—the Jacobshaw? It is an importation from the glamorous Orient, guaranteed to make a continuous bloody row (an old Persian phrase) for six days without winding and goodness only knows how long if wound. Personally, we suggest winding with a sheet.

Well, so long, boys and girls. See you all in Kingston some day, I hope. The pen is mightier than the Ford, and it's bound to nab us some day. Meanwhile, Honi soit qui mal y pense, as they say in Baluchistan—or, as friend Nathan puts it, To the pure all things are evil.

MEET AT

"The Sign of the Lantern" Tea Rooms
5 WILLCOCKS STREET

Breakfast 25c. Luncheon 35c. Dinner 40c.
Open until 11.30 p.m.

Secretarial Training —in your spare time

During the winter months, why not make use of a little of your spare time between lectures?

Full or part time, mornings or afternoons, every day or on special days, we provide individual instruction on subjects necessary to secretarial training.

For further information telephone KI. 5588, or write,

The Gregg College

"Toronto's model school for Gregg Shorthand and Secretarial subjects."

Bloor and Bay Sts.

Toronto

STAFF OF 'VARSITY' HOLO DINNER DANCE

(Continued from page 1)

for his assistance. Miss Grace Macaulay, women's editor, also spoke briefly.

The toast to the university was proposed by Larry C. Dawson in humorous vein. He mentioned its diversity, along with which was found unity of feeling. J. B. Bickersteth replied. He recalled the circumstances of the Prince of Wales' visit in 1924, when "The Varsity" secured the biggest scoop of the year by announcing his whereabouts one morning while papers were reduced to printing unauthenticated rumours. He lauded Sir Robert Falconer and denied that there was any likelihood that he would succeed the president.

The brief toast list was concluded with the toast to "The Varsity". This was proposed by P. E. Ussher. He spoke at some length on the part played by the paper in the life of the university. It was playing its part in presenting the events that were occurring from day to day. He stressed the fact that the editorial column represented the viewpoint of a few outstanding students in the university, not the mass opinion of some 6,000 undergraduates. Side by side with an apparent distrust of accepted things, and an anti-traditional outlook, "The Varsity" had, since its inception, been building up a tradition. This tradition embodied the right to expose abuses and to correct misdoings and corruption, in that way, working for the best interests of the university. F. J. MacNamara replied to the toast in a few apt words.

At the conclusion of the speeches, the orchestra struck up some lively tunes, and dancing was the order of the evening. The patrons were Rev. and Mrs. G. Douglas Kendall. Various novelties were introduced during the party. Titles of popular song hits, placed on the programmes, were used as a method of elimination for the lucky number dances. Favourites were distributed lavishly, and for a time the dance floor appeared like a barnyard, as whistles and screeches resounded.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ELECTION RESULTS

(Continued from page 1)

latter receiving 267 votes and MacMurray 184. T. S. Brownlee had previously been appointed Third Vice-President (Social Director), by acclamation. M. G. Angus with 233 votes, beat J. A. Vila with 213, for Secretary, making it the closest race of the whole election. C. P. Macpherson became Treasurer by acclamation, and J. McCulley, Honorary President in the same way.

The voting for year executives was light throughout the afternoon, more interest being shown in the major positions. This year no S.A.C. representatives were appointed, as the president of each year takes over that responsibility. The following are the results of the year election:

3T1—President, W. H. A. Thorburn; Secretary, T. W. Mayor; Treasurer, R. M. Johnson.

3T2—President, H. W. K. Appleton (acclamation); Secretary, W. M. Secombe; Treasurer, M. L. Buchanan; Torontonensis Representative, L. Tarshis (acclamation).

3T3—President, W. H. Shaw; Secretary, S. Hermant; Treasurer, W. M. Jacobi.

ALUMNI FEDERATION GIVES SCHOLARSHIPS

(Continued from page 1)

Secretary-Treasurer of the Alumni Federation, 43 St. George Street, before April 15, 1930. Forms of application may be obtained at the Alumni Office.

4. The award of any or all scholarships may be deferred if suitable candidates do not present themselves.

5. The general basis on which scholarships may be awarded shall be as follows: (a) standing in courses of studies; (b) merit as shown in extra-curricular activities—executive, literary, dramatic, athletic, etc.; (c) such other general qualifications of merit as may commend themselves to the Committee, including relationship (if any) to active service during the War.

6. Candidates may be interviewed personally by members of the Scholarship Committee.

7. Awards in all Faculties will be made as soon as possible after the results of the final examinations in 1930 are published.

C.N.R. First Aid Instruction and Emergency Hospital Car

This car is attached to the Central Region of the Canadian National Railways, and is completely equipped to bring first aid to those injured in out-of-the-way places. The car contains, among other things, cupboards for linen and a complete range of medical and surgical equipment. In the hospital compartment itself there is a permanent bed which can be displaced by an operating table, a chair for dressing and treating minor mishaps, a table and cabinets for instruments and bandages, while there are also all toilet facilities. In an adjoining compartment there is a moveable shower. The whole car is equipped with a dual lighting system—electric light and oil lighting. In the event of the car being in a district where there is no electric light, there are storage batteries which can provide light for 80 hours. One of the most interesting parts of the equipment is an inhalator which is used in cases of drowning, suffocation and shock, and automatically provides the right amount of oxygen for the patient. The above photographs show: top, lecture rooms of car with a seating capacity of 50; (centre left) Nurse C. Smith, attending a minor case; (centre right) Instructor J. Weis, of Stratford, giving a lecture on anatomy; (bottom) Dr. J. P. Mitchell, Assistant Chief Medical Officer, Canadian National Railways, (left) inspecting the car with Instructor J. Weis, of Stratford.

COLLEGE GOWNS
CAPS and
HOODS

HARCOURT & SON
103 King St. W., Toronto

A pamphlet has been published containing the addresses of the President, General Smuts, and the Prime Minister of Ontario, as delivered at the Special Convocation in January.

Copies of this publication may be obtained, free of cost, by calling at the Extension Office, Room 222, Simcoe Hall.

March Winds and April Showers

Tune in Every Wednesday 7 p.m., C.F.C.A. Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

play havoc with Spring stockings. Splashes from the passing car, dark drops that cleverly park themselves on your spotless hose, make it necessary to carry "spares" these days. Darker shades for street wear . . . pale tints for parties . . . and a spare pair in your handbag for emergencies. Ask to see Number Five Thousand . . . the stocking that is making the whole town talk . . . silk from toe to top, full-fashioned, in a range of forty colours $1.50

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

154 YONGE STREET At Richmond Hill AD. 8998 788 YONGE STREET Next door to Uptown Theatre R.L. 3900 2490 YONGE STREET Next door to Capital Theatre R.L. 4750 OPEN EVENINGS

ORGANIZED 1910

Overseas Education League

ORGANIZED 1910

MAJOR F. J. NEY, Hon. Organizer

Summer 1930 Programme

SEVENTH ANNUAL VISIT OF UNIVERSITY UNDERGRADUATES

Including Graduates of 1929 and 1930; Normal School Students and Senior Students of Certain Schools and Colleges

TO GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE

(Together with GENEVA and OBERAMMERGAU)

71 Days - $535.00 (Approximately)

June 21st . . . . . Sail by S.S. "MINNEBOSA" from Montreal.
 June 29th . . . . . Arrive at GLASGOW.
 June 30th . . . . . From Glasgow to St. Andrews via The Trossachs.
 June 30th—July 4th . . . . . ST. ANDREWS.
 July 4th—July 10th . . . . . EDINBURGH.
 July 10th—July 14th . . . . . CRASMER (English Lake District).
 July 14th—July 17th . . . . . HARROGATE.
 July 17th—July 21st . . . . . YORK.
 July 21st—July 24th . . . . . STRATFORD-UPON-AVON.

July 24th—July 27th . . . . . OXFORD.
 July 27th—Aug. 11th . . . . . LONDON.
 Aug. 11th—Aug. 15th . . . . . GENEVA.
 Aug. 15th—Aug. 16th . . . . . INNSBRUCK in the Austrian Tyrol, thence by Motor Coach through the most beautiful mountain scenery in the world.
 Aug. 16th—Aug. 18th . . . . . OBERAMMERGAU (for the PASSION PLAY).
 Aug. 18th—Aug. 23rd . . . . . PARIS.
 August 23rd . . . . . Sail from Cherbourg by S.S. "EMPERESS OF AUSTRALIA".
 August 30th . . . . . Arrive at Quebec

Special provision is being made for men students to sail by the "Empress of Scotland" on May 28th, from Quebec direct to Southampton, to enable them to attend the Royal Tournament at Olympia and the Aldershot Military Tattoo. On the conclusion of this special London programme, this group will join the Undergraduates' party at St. Andrews on June 30th.

Extension Programme for Men Students Only

June 4th . . . . . Leave Quebec by the R.M.S. "Empress of France".

June 11th . . . . . Arrive Southampton and proceed direct to London.

In London the Students will be accommodated in Hotels at Lancaster Gate, opposite Kensington Gardens and Hyde Park.

For this period the programme will be optional and selected from the following items of historical and general interest. For events marked with an asterisk reservations for all members of this group will be made.

*May 29th—June 14th . . . . . Naval, Military, and Air Force Tournament. (London, Olympia)
 June 10th—June 12th . . . . . Agricultural Show. Hereford, Worcestershire and Gloucestershire, (near Droitwich)
 June 11th—June 12th . . . . . Flower Show. Iris, (Royal Horticultural Hall, London)
 June 12th—June 14th . . . . . Horse Show. (Richmond, London)
 June 13th—June 17th . . . . . Cricket, First Test Match. England v. Australia (Nottingham)
 June 14th . . . . . Polo. Lawson Cup. (Rochampton, London)
 June 14th . . . . . Coster Donkeys' Show. (Richmond, London)
 June 16th—June 21st . . . . . Golf. Open Championship. (Hoylake)
 June 16th—June 21st . . . . . Tennis. (Queen's Club, London)
 *June 17th—June 21st . . . . . Military Torchlight Tattoo. (Aldershot)
 June 18th—June 21st . . . . . Convention. British Architects'. (Norwich)
 June 18th . . . . . Racing. Royal Hunt Cup. (Ascot, near London)
 June 19th . . . . . Racing. Gold Cup. (Ascot, near London)

June 19th—June 28th . . . . . International Horse Show. (Olympia, London)
 June 20th—July 3rd . . . . . Trade Exhibition. Ideal Holidays. (Royal Agricultural Hall)
 June 21st—June 25th . . . . . Convention. Annual Advertising. (Hastings)
 June 23rd . . . . . (Prince of Wales's Birthday.)
 June 23rd—July 5th . . . . . Croquet. North of England Championship. (Buxton)
 June 23rd—July 5th . . . . . Tennis. Lawn Tennis Championships. (Wimbledon, London)
 June 23rd—July 5th . . . . . Chess. British Congress. (Scarborough)
 June 24th . . . . . Rafting. Irish Derby. (Curragh)
 June 24th . . . . . Royal Horticultural Show. (Royal Horticultural Hall)
 June 25th . . . . . Racing. Summer Meeting. (Newbury)
 June 27, 28, 30 and July 1st . . . . . Cricket. Second Test Match. England v. Australia. (Lord's Cricket Ground, London)
 *June 28th . . . . . Royal Air Force Display. (Hendon)

The present estimated cost of this additional programme, including Tourist Third Cabin accommodation on the "Empress of France", rail fares Southampton to London, and London to St. Andrews is—$85.00.

ALSO THE FOLLOWING TOURS

Fourth Annual Summer School in French - - $375

(For Teachers and Students)

Lycee Victor Duruy, Boulevard des Invalides, Paris

Second Annual Summer School in English - - $395

(For Teachers and Students)

Oxford, Stratford-upon-Avon, London

First Annual Summer School in Spanish - - $420

(In co-operation with the University of Liverpool)

Santander, Spain

First Annual Summer School of Music - - $520

(For Teachers and Students)

Paris, Oberammergau, Munich, Bayreuth, Dresden, Berlin, London

First Annual Summer School of Folk Dancing - $395

(In co-operation with the English Folk Dance Society)
 Oxford, Malvern and London

Application forms containing the usual detailed information regarding the various items of the League's programme for 1930 are available at the Offices of the OVERSEAS EDUCATION LEAGUE, Boyd Building, WINNIPEG.

FRED. J. NEY, Honorary Organizer.

or

HENRY BUTTON, Hon. Sec. Eastern Division, 224 Bloor St. West, Toronto.

Coming Events

FRIDAY, MARCH 14
7.00 p.m.—Victoria College faculty-senior dinner in Burwash Hall.

SUNDAY, MARCH 16
9 a.m.—Holy Communion in Hart House Chapel.

MONDAY, MARCH 17
1.00 p.m.—Mass meeting of Household Science students in the Household Science Building to elect new executive.

Annual general meeting of the Engineering Society. Presentation of "S".

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19
Elections of year executives at St. Michael's College.

4.20—The U.C. Players' Guild presents its annual afternoon of skits.

1.30 p.m.—Brief service in Hart House Chapel. Address by the Rev. Stanley Russell.

8.15 p.m.—Meeting of U.C. Classical Association at home of president, 99 Ridge Drive. Election of officers.

8.15—Meeting of the U.C. French Society in Women's Union. Presentation of an original play by W. P. Apps, and recitation competition with prizes.

THURSDAY, MARCH 20
4 p.m.—League of Nations Club annual meeting for election of officers.

March 20th, 7.00 p.m.—U. C. Men's Graduation Banquet. King Edward Hotel. Tickets from Executive $2.50.

8.15 p.m.—The Italian-Spanish Club presents two plays in the auditorium of the Women's Union, 79 St. George St.

SATURDAY, MARCH 29
2.15—Women's Press Club theatre party at Royal Alexandra. Tea afterwards. Be sure to come. "Hansel and Gretel" playing.

The sum of $250 was spent recently by the University of Nebraska for the removal of snow.

BULLETIN BOARD

HART HOUSE CHAPEL

A series of short services is being held in Hart House Chapel on Wednesdays at 1.30 by the S.C.A. The speaker on Wednesday the 19th will be the Rev. Stanley Russell of Deer Park United Church, and on the following two Wednesdays the Rev. Dr. J. R. P. Selator. All men students cordially invited.

SWIMMING AND WATER POLO

On Tuesday the twenty-fifth of March the annual election of officers for the coming year will be held in Room A, Hart House, at 5 p.m. Nominations must be handed in at the athletic office before Tuesday the 18th. All interested in swimming and water polo are urged to be present, but voting is permitted only by those qualified according to the Athletic Handbook.

ST. MATTHEW'S PASSION

For several years past a performance of St. Matthew's Passion has taken place in Convocation Hall in the week before Easter. This year the performance will take place at 8.10 p.m. on Tuesday, 15th April, under the direction of Dr. Ernest MacMillan and Mr. Richard Tattersall. It is now generally admitted that this is the finest performance of this work given on this continent. Student tickets will be on sale at the Hall Porter's desk in Hart House and in the women's residences at a special price of 50c each.

SWIMMING CLUB

Election of officers of the Swimming Club will take place a week to-day. Nominations have to be in inside of 3 days.

WOMEN'S BOOK EXCHANGE

Will all women students who have accounts with the W.S.A.C. Book Exchange in Room 82, U.C., please claim books and money before April 1. The Secretary will not be responsible for any books left after that date. Book Exchange hours, 10.30 to 1 p.m. daily except Saturday.

U.C. PLAYERS' GUILD

On the afternoon of Wednesday the 19th at 4.20 the Players' Guild will present "Billowy Hoopskirt," a Masefield masterpiece by Raymond Card, followed by the Oil Barrel Inanities of 1940, with Oil (Hoop-la) Barrel in person, and the Two Black Hoses.

ITALIAN-SPANISH CLUB

Thursday, March 20th, 8.15 p.m. Italian-Spanish Club plays. Auditorium, Women's Union, 79 St. George St. Everyone interested in either language should be on hand.

INTERMEDIATE HOCKEY

Practice to-day at the Varsity Arena at 1.30.

CHAMPUS CAT

(Continued from page 2)

The boat began to rock crazily as the old fellow tore at his ghostly hide with frantic fingernails. He suddenly jumped to his feet, uttered a horrid curse and threw himself over the side into the water. Silly, and useless, I thought. Liee can swim.

C—C

The first thing I see as I set foot on the gloomy shore is a large black omnibus with the following written upon it in grey letters:

"Dante, Virgil Motor Bus Co.
Sightseeing Tours
See Hades First
Special Rates for Sunday School Picnics."

C—C

"Here is the man that we are looking for," shouted the driver. "Aren't you the soldier that was gassed before you were killed?"

I admit that I am.

"Come on then boys, push him into the tank. We are right out of gas!"

C—C

It kills the lice, anyway.

C—C

And so I came to the Elysian fields. And here I am doomed to stay for ever and ever. I have taken my place among my contemporary writers (if any) and my taskmasters have given me a spade and bade me shovel and shovel (like them) the results of my life-long literary labours.

Gaspard McGuffey.

GERMAN CLUB

Election of officers of the German Club will take place at the meeting at Wymilwood next Tuesday evening March 18th, at 7.45. Mr. Meier of the Wingate Company, will give an address.

U.C. FRENCH SOCIETY

The U.C. French Society will meet in the Women's Union, March 19, at 8.30 p.m. Mr. W. P. Apps of the fourth year, will present an original French play, and there will be a recitation competition for which prizes are offered. Also music and refreshments.

3T3 THEATRE PARTY

Saturday, March 15 Matinee to "The Way of the World", Maureen O'Mara's review at Hart House. Tickets can be had from members of executive. Show a year card and you can get your ticket free.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

This year's theatre party will be on Saturday, March 29th, Matinee, at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, "Hansel and Gretel". Get in touch with Miss Betty Gunnison, or watch the list in the women's "Varsity" Office if you can come. It'll be fun!

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL AND HOCKEY CLUBS

The annual meetings of the women's basketball and hockey clubs for the purpose of electing next year's executives will be held in the Lecture Room, Household Science building, on Tuesday, March 18, at 4.30 and 5.00 p.m. respectively.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC CLUB ELECTIONS

The annual meeting of the women's swimming, tennis, and baseball clubs will be held in the Lecture Room of the Household Science building on Thursday, March 20, at 4.15 p.m.

S.C.M. ART GROUP

The last S.C.M. Art Group of this term will be held at 5 p.m. Tuesday, March 18, in the Art Gallery.

WOMEN'S UNION

Weekly tea at the Women's Union. The guests of honour will be Professor Alexander and Principal Hutton.

U.C. CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The last meeting of the Classical Association of University College for this year will be held on Wed., Mar. 19th at 8.15 p.m. at the home of the president, 99 Ridge Drive. Elections will be held for next year's executive. Papers will be read by members of the first year: "Cicero and the Art of Invective", by Miss Mary Purkis, and "Virgil in Relation to his Times", by Henry White.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY CHOOSES EXECUTIVES

(Continued from page 1)

Presidents of Years—Fourth, J. N. Franklin; Third, E. H. Black; Second, J. S. Ball.

Permanent Executive—President, G. M. Mason; Vice-Presidents, G. R. Armstrong, W. E. Carruthers; Sec-Treasurer, R. C. McMorris; Councilors, G. T. Burns, J. R. Crerar, G. G. Wyckoff.

UNIVERSITY WALKING CLUB IS CONSIDERED

(Continued from page 1)

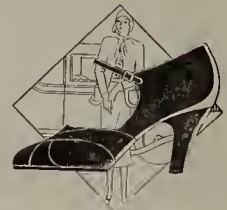

years. Partly in response to that growth of interest, there have been considerable numbers taking up the game in the university. Some excellent products have been turned out; the Canadian walking champion at present, Joe Mahon, is an ex-Varsity man. During the past year, several very promising subjects have been unearthed. However, owing to the fact that walking is not an intercollegiate event, and that it is therefore impossible to earn colours in it, the game has been handicapped by a lack of incentive. There has been a fairly wide-spread feeling of late that something should be done about it; now it has been done. It is hoped that the formation of this club will be the first step towards the entrance of the heel and toes into intercollegiate circles.

STEPPING OUT WITH SPRING FASHION

Smart pump in patent leather trimmed in modernist fashion with black suede, $8. Also in brown kid and brown suede, $8.50

Ladies' Shoes

A strap model of importance. In patent leather trimmed with black suede or brown kid with brown suede, $12. Also in beige kid and genuine water-snake, $14.

The step-in pump comes in black patent or black satin, $11. Brown kid and brown suede are smart in this shoe, $12.

Ladies' Shoes
Third Floor

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

Christian Science

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, St. George St. at Lowther (Close to the University)

Services—Sunday, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.
Subject for Sunday, Mar. 16th, will be

"SUBSTANCE"

Wednesday Service 8 p.m.
In the Church Auditorium including
Testimonies of Healing Through
Christian Science

You are cordially invited to attend the services and use the
Free Public
Reading Rooms
1504 Metropolitan Bldg.
Adelaide and Victoria Sts.
Open 9.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.
Where the Bible and all authorized
Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased, and periodicals subscribed for.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA SHERBOURNE CHURCH

Sherbourne and Carlton Streets

REV. RICHARD ROBERTS, D.D.

Morning and Evening

11 A.M.—"The Heresy of the Orthodox."

7 P.M.—Next Sunday evening Dr. Roberts will begin a series of Sermons on "The Discipline of Life", based on "The Sermon on the Mount."

March 16th—"The Wrong use of Street Corners."

March 23rd—"The Right use of Salt."

March 30th—"The Right Place for Candles."

April 6th—"The Wrong Place for Pearls."

April 13th—"The Right Kind of Fundamentalism."

April 20th—"The Wrong Kind of Investment."

Old St. Andrew's Church

(Cor. Jarvis and Carlton Sts.)

MISSIONARY SERMON

Students Cordially Welcome

Deer Park United Church

ST. CLAIR AVENUE (One block east of Avenue Rd.)

Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A. Minister

Rev. Douglas Kendall, M.A. Assistant Minister

Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A. will preach at 11 a.m.—At Bethesda.

7 p.m.—Ancient Wisdom for a Modern World. The Fortunate Unborn.

Students cordially invited to all services.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH

381 Huron Street (Five minutes walk from Hart House)

SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT.

7.00, 8.00, 9.30 a.m.—Holy Eucharist.

11.00 a.m.—Liturgy sung in Procession and Sung Eucharist, with sermon. Nicholson's Setting will be sung. Preacher: Rev. C. J. S. Stuart, M.A., B.D., Rector.

7.00 p.m.—Evensong and Sermon. Preacher: the Rev. the Provost of Trinity College.

Wednesdays through Lent, Evensong and Instruction at 8.15 p.m.

Fridays through Lent, Evensong and Address at 9.30 a.m.

The Beautiful Realistic by PEMBER

Heralded by experts as the last word in beauty science, the new 1930 Realistic Permanent Waving Machine requires only four to five minutes' heat to give the same results formerly obtained in fifteen to twenty minutes. This machine will also wave white, grey or dyed hair without changing the colour.

THE W. T. PEMBER STORES LTD.

Sole Canadian Distributors for INECTO-Rapid

1129 YONGE STREET

Toronto, Ont.

Telephones EL. 2388 and 2236-7

Branch Store: 272 Yonge St. Open Evenings Phone Ad. 4197

The Varsity

The Undergraduate Newspaper

VOL. XLVIII.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO, FRIDAY, MARCH 21st, 1930

No. 100

EDITORIAL IN M'GILL DAILY IS REPUDIATED BY MANAGING BOARD

McGill Student Paper Prints Charges of Lack of College Spirit

ALLEGED VOTING EN BLOC

Managing Board Refuse to Uphold Opinions Expressed by Student Editor

The Managing Board of the McGill Daily, official undergraduate publication of McGill University, have disagreed over an editorial comment that appeared in that paper on Thursday, March 13th.

In an editorial comment headed "Our Position", the Managing Board repudiated the editorial in question which reads as follows: "The managing Board wishes to state in respect to the editorial 'Over Half Way', the sentiments were not those of Messrs. Patterson and Dunn, who with Mrs. Mattams, comprise the above-mentioned board."

The editorial in question concerns the election of officers to the Students' Society of McGill University. At this election the largest number of votes were polled that have been polled since 1924. The vote is attributed to the large number of freshmen who made use of their franchise by the "McGill Daily". Voting was by classes, not individual, was the claim made.

"It is the individual interest which creates college spirit for voting in blocks is dictated by one principle which is blind except to the readers," the article runs.

There can be no college spirit when mob spirit rules. There may be some college spirit of a kind, but it is of the rah-rah type and as such should be despised, the editorial runs.

Until such time as interest is really pregnant at McGill, she must search for her administrators in secluded places and sheltered rock-bound nooks.

ANNUAL DENTANTICS TAKE PLACE TO-NIGHT

Skits by Classes and Stunts by Students to Feature Performance

HOUSE ALL SOLD OUT

Dentantics, the annual theatre night of the Faculty of Dentistry, will be held in Hart House theatre this evening, commencing at 8.15.

Following the opening number the dental nurses class and each of the five years will present their respective skits. The short intervals between acts will be taken up by a variety of novelty stunts by students of the faculty and selections by a popular collegiate orchestra.

Mr. V. B. O'Reilly will be the announcer for the evening's entertainment.

This year the managing committee, under the direction of Mr. F. E. Harris, president, has engaged the coaching services of Mr. Edgar Stone.

There is still a large demand for tickets, but the house was completely sold out several days ago.

LACK OF SPACE

Owing to the exceptional heavy amount of advertising in this issue "The Varsity" regrets that several news items of interest to the students cannot be published.

"Privateer" Sails Again

The following statement has been issued by the Editorial Board of The Privateer:

"As publication has been delayed thus far, it has been decided to make the farewell issue of The Privateer an Easter number, to appear on April 15th.

A good deal of material has been received, and the issue will comprise forty pages or more. Besides undergraduates, its contributors will include Rabbi Eisendrath and Gilbert Norwood.

"Contributions of especial interest will still be considered, though the space quota is nearly filled."

HARVARD GLEE CLUB TO SING HERE SOON

Famous Student Singers Have Toured Europe and America

PAISED BY CRITICS

An opportunity will soon be afforded the students of the University of Toronto to hear the famous Harvard Glee Club which is scheduled to appear in Convocation Hall on Thursday evening, April 10th. The Glee Club is under the direction of Dr. Archibald T. Davidson, who is an outstanding figure in musical circles.

The first visit which the Harvard Glee Club paid to Toronto was in the Christmas vacation of 1928, consequently there were many who could not attend the concert.

The Harvard Glee Club is strictly an undergraduate association consisting of forty students. It has been asked by the French and Italian governments to give a series of concerts in France and Italy. Besides these overseas tours, the club makes regular tours in the United States and it is considered very fortunate that Toronto will be included in its latest tour which starts in New York.

"Musical critics have been strong in their praise of the Harvard Glee Club," stated Mr. Bickersteth, "and its concert here should be especially interesting to the students of this university."

Student tickets, at 47 cents, plus tax, will be put on sale shortly.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE OFFICIALS ELECTED

Grace Martin is President of Undergraduate Club

OTHER OFFICIALS CHOSEN

At the elections for the Household Science Undergraduate Association, held yesterday, the following were elected to office:

Grace Martin, president (acclamation); Betty Doyle, vice-president (acclamation); Kay Bredin, secretary; Phyllis Easson, S.A.C. representative; Margot McDonald, 4th year representative; Eileen Armstrong 3rd year representative; Ruth Sinclair, 2nd year representative; Mary Trainor, Torontonensis.

The permanent executive for the graduating year was chosen last week and consists of Mary Clarke as president; Alice Barber, vice-president; and Dorothy Moir, secretary-treasurer.

Silas Simpson, star centre of the Southern Kansas Seminary basketball team, weighs 138 pounds and stands six feet five inches in his bed socks.

LIVELY COMPETITION ENSUES IN ELECTIONS FOR CO-ED OFFICES

University College Women Elect Officers for Year

CLOSE RACES FOR OFFICE

Aspirants for Office Vied with One Another in Close Fight

About sixty five per cent. of the women of University College voted on Tuesday in the elections for the Women's Undergraduate Association, the year executives and the Student Christian Association. Close races for office featured the whole campaign and an unusual amount of interest was roused by the posters, blotters and personal letters which solicited the votes of the women students.

On the morning of the election the candidates took up their positions outside the women's cloak room, distributing chewing gum, toffee, milk chocolate and fruit drops. Two enterprising aspirants to year offices even gave away lipstick and kiewpie dolls. A confused medley of voices shouting out candidates' names greeted the crowd which swarmed up to vote between lectures.

The following are the results of the elections:

Women's Undergraduate Association—Jean Robertson, president (acclamation); Adele Statten, vice-president. (Continued on Page 5)

EMMANUEL FINISHED FOR DECEMBER 1930

Large Portion of First Floor Is Now Finished, Gymnasium Floor Laid

STONE TO MATCH LIBRARY

"The construction of Emmanuel College has been going on apace and the building is expected to be ready for occupancy by December of this year," said the Superintendent of Works to "The Varsity" yesterday afternoon.

"We have a large portion of the first floor finished and the basement floor of the gymnasium is completed. We expect to have the first floor portion over the gymnasium finished by the end of the week."

"The building will be of Gothic architecture with stone like the Victoria College Library. This is coming from Georgetown, Ontario. Part of the floor will be made with marble," also stated the Superintendent.

Medical Frosh Merrily Drenched Leave the Camera and Go to War

Ye olde tyme water fight featured the attempts of first year Meds to get a year photograph taken last Tuesday. Buckets of water from the windows of the lab above greeted the first sitting just as the photographer had the group all set at the back of the Anatomy Building.

Not wishing to get all muddled up in a fight until after the picture was taken, the freshmen good-naturedly ignored this first breach on the part of the sophomores, and withdrawing beyond the range of the water throwers, they again faced the camera, only to be once again disturbed. This time with the drenching stream of the fire hose which had been brought into play from the second story.

ENGLISH JOURNALIST TO ADDRESS MEETING OF TORONTO FABIAN SOCIETY

Brilliant Member of English Fabians Will End Tour Here

OPEN MEETING TO BE HELD

Election of Officers Held for Next Year at Meeting

S. K. Ratcliffe of London, England, is to be the speaker at the final meeting this year of the Fabian Club, which will be held at Wymilwood at 6.00 p.m. on Tuesday, March 25th. Mr. Ratcliffe is the well known English journalist, formerly of the Manchester Guardian, and is a prominent member of the English Fabian Society, being a director of the Fabian Summer School at Bexhill-on-Sea. He is now completing a lecture tour of the United States, where he is well known as a brilliant platform speaker. His intimate knowledge of current political developments and industrial conditions in Britain and on the continent stamp him as a speaker whom no student should miss the opportunity of hearing. This will be the first open meeting of the Fabian Club, and the executive extend a hearty welcome to all interested students and members of the faculty.

At a meeting of the club at Wymilwood on Thursday, March 13th, Dr. H. M. Cassidy of the Department of Social Science gave an interesting address on "Co-operation between Trade Unions and Management," pointing to the successful application of this scheme to the Canadian National Railways.

Mr. Walter H. Bilbrough, the president of the club, called for nominations to next year's executive. Professor E. J. Urwick, head of the Department of Political Science, was the unanimous choice for honorary president. The following were elected: President—A. J. Elder, III U.C. Vice-Pres.—J. Harris, III U.C. Treasurer—M. M. Chudleigh, III Trinity.

Secretary—J. M. Meredith, U.C. Committee—Miss I. M. Biss, Miss A. Graham, R. Standish.

HUSH! HUSH!

Last night "The Varsity" perceived a handsome motor car pull up beside the Engineering Building, slow down and put out its lights. In the front of this auto was a man and woman. Also in the back seat another couple were seated. But a bunch of Varsity students came up and started to jeer at the occupants of the blissful car. It moved on.

"Varsity" Elections

A. E. F. Allan of third year University College, was elected Editor of "The Varsity" for the year 1930-31 at the last joint meeting of the staff of "The Varsity" which was held recently. Mr. Allan has held the position of Dramatic Editor during the past year.

Miss Marjorie Beer of third year Victoria College, was elected unanimously to the position of Women's Editor at the same meeting.

J. C. Bowes of third year University College, formerly Assistant News Editor, was elected to the position of Managing Editor for the fall term.

GERMAN CLUB ELECT INCOMING EXECUTIVE

D. Steinhauer President for 1930-31; Capacity House Sees Playlets

MR. V. MEIR GUEST SPEAKER

The election of officers for the coming year was held at the final meeting of the German Club at Wymilwood Tuesday, March 18th. The results were as follows: President, D. Steinhauer; Vice-President, Miss C. Walker; Secretary, A. McAndrew; Treasurer, B. Davidowitz; Reporter, N. H. Shaw; Social Convenor, Miss Jeffs.

Union conditions formed the subject of an address by Mr. V. Meir of the Wingate Chemical Company. Musical selections were sung by Miss Ferguson.

The annual costume production of the club was given on March 6th at the Women's Union. A double bill, consisting of "Er ist nicht Eifersüchtig," by Elg, and Rosen's "Knopf", was played to a capacity audience, amongst which were several well-known members of Toronto's German colony.

STUDENT GATHERING TO BE HELD IN FALL

Outstanding Leaders Expected to Attend Elgin House Conference

DISCUSSION AND FUN

Orange folders are now abroad on the campus proclaiming advance information about Elgin House Conference. Forty students from this university can certify that last year's conference was a great success from not only the standpoint of discussion, but also of fun.

The leadership, which is always good, promises this year to be outstanding. Such people as C. F. Angus, Cambridge, England, Mrs. Induk Kim of Korea, Dr. Bruce Curry, New York, Dr. E. W. Wallace, Victoria University, have been invited. The (Continued on Page 8)

McGill Athlete Passes

"The Varsity" notes with great regret the untimely passing of Neil Buckley, 1st year student at McGill University. A short illness which later developed into pneumonia, resulted in his death last Sunday evening.

Neil had a prominent place in athletics during the past year, being a member of both the water polo and swimming teams at McGill. He was considered one of the most promising prospects in aquatic circles and his death is a loss to sport in general. During a recent visit to Toronto with the Intercollegiate water polo team his fine sportsmanship impressed all who came in contact with him.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS CLUB HAS ELECTIONS AT ANNUAL MEETING

Professor MacKenzie Elected Honorary President by Acclamation

NO ASSEMBLY NEXT YEAR

League to Appoint Delegates to Other Assemblies During Year

The League of Nations Club elected, as president, Earl Lautenslager, 3T1 Victoria College, Honour Modern History, at the annual meeting held in the Women's Union yesterday. Mr. Lautenslager was premier of the Ontario boys' parliament a few years ago. Professor N. A. MacKenzie was re-elected honorary president by acclamation. The remaining officers for the following year are Miss Mary Winspear, vice-president; Howard Norman, secretary; W. S. B. Wong, treasurer.

The executive elected consists of Miss Jane Grey, Miss Margaret Warren, Miss Betty Lang, Earl Davidson, M. Gebler.

In regard to plans for next year the League is not likely to repeat the Model Assembly, but hopes to send delegates to other assemblies in Canada and the United States. An invitation to Harvard for next year has already been received.

S. C. A. MAKES GIFT TO FORMER OFFICER

Miss Mary Rowell Presented with Table by Members of Association

AMUSING SKIT PUT ON

A beautiful brass coffee-table bedecked in pink paper and ribbon was last night presented at the Women's Union to Miss Mary Rowell, by the members of the S.C.A., as a token of their appreciation of her work as the secretary for three years. Miss Rowell resigned at Christmas and is to be married in the spring. Mr. F. J. Moure made a characteristic speech of appreciation to Miss Rowell.

A skit by the girls from U.C. pictured the joys of Elgin House conference amid much laughter. Refreshments were served and the evening ended with informal talking about the fire.

HUMBLE PEANUT INVADERS REPOSE OF VIC LIBRARY

Passing Hat for Coppers Breaks Tedium of Study for Victoria Pluggers

The question is raised if peanuts are conducive to study, or if they just lend to atmosphere.

In Victoria Library, Wednesday afternoon, March 19, serious students were disturbed by the noisy clattering of one cent coins to the floor; whereupon one brave youth seized a hat and, passing it among his friends, collected mostly coppers. When he had filled it sufficiently to his mind, he departed and no one expected to see him return. However, in less than five minutes he was back with five bags of peanuts, which he flung very dramatically to all corners of the room, not forgetting the ladies.

Over a foot of snow fell in the south western section of the United States last week.

THE VARSITY

The Undergraduate Newspaper

Published five times a week by the Joint Executive of the Students' Administrative Councils of the University of Toronto.

Editorial Rooms ..... Trinity 4015
Business Office ..... Trinity 5036
Night Phone ..... Trinity 0227
Women's Office Telephone—Tr. 5001 (switchboard)

Editor-in-Chief ..... LOU GOLDEN, '30
Women's Editor ..... GRACE MACAULAY, '30

MANAGING

W. F. Payton, '31; C. L. Coburn, '32.

ASSOCIATES

N. J. DeWitt, '30; P. E. Ussher, B.A.

NEWS

F. J. MacNamara, '30; J. C. Bowes, '31; Marjorie Beer, '31; Hazel Hammond, '32.

SPORT

L. C. Dawson, '30; J. J. Strenkowsky, '30; W. B. Wood, '32; Edith Blackwell, '31.

SPECIAL

Drama: A. E. F. Allan, '31; Champus Cat: M. R. Culbert, '30; Exchange: G. G. Brooks, '32.

Bysiness and Advertising Manager
A. GORDON BURNS, B.A.

Night Editor—Staff Johnston

FRIDAY, MARCH 21st, 1930

EXAMINATIONS, OR WHAT HAVE YOU?

Among the reasons why this season of the year is apt to be depressing to the student is the fact that so many things are coming to an end. To the graduating year this is particularly noticeable. The graduation banquet has been held, the final class parties have been celebrated in the usual manner, (with dancing extended till twelve o'clock as a special concession), the various activities are being wound up with due solemnity, and the smoke of elections has cleared away sufficiently for the candidates to begin to wonder what they fought each other for. In fact, everything possible is being done to ensure an uninterrupted academic atmosphere for the brief, the all too brief period that remains before the Armageddon (we almost said Waterloo) of examinations.

Before we touch on the inevitable, though unpopular topic, however, let us pause to sprinkle a few scathing remarks over the particular item of term examinations—(by request). Term examinations, it seems, are an invention of the devil. Besides being generally objectionable from the mere fact that they are examinations, these have the peculiarly obnoxious feature of immediately preceding and practically running into the greater evil of final examinations. And to add insult to injury, they are defended on the ground that they are essential to that similar blight—the term-mark. The relative value of the term-mark we have never exactly discovered, and opinions differ widely on the subject, but if it is a necessary evil, would it not be a humanitarian act to extract it is painlessly as possible? To this end the term examination, if it could not be abolished entirely, might at least be held at some less inopportune moment.

To revert to the subject of examinations in general, the question comes up at least once a year whether some less harrowing system could not be devised. Human nature being what it is, we are inclined to think not. Different systems do exist in different places, but judging by the results produced, we would not consider any of them any better. The ideal, we think, would be the system that while allowing the maximum amount of freedom to the student, produces the highest scholastic results. For this purpose, the system of constant supervision, with credits assigned for all work as it is done, can be criticized as deadening to originality. The danger of a system such as this, which prevails in many American colleges, is that in placing over-emphasis on attendance and industry, it tends to do away with the necessity of brain-work. It is a fact, in such cases, that it is almost impossible for the person who attends and goes through the regular routine of work, to fail. The effect of this may be to turn out a greater number of students with a modicum of education, but it cannot be said to give a very high value to the degree they obtain.

The opposite system, which may, for the sake of convenience, be designated the English system, is based on the assumption, sanguine perhaps, that people go to a university because they like studying, and are interested in getting an education. To this end they browse around in any subject in which they happen to be interested, and when they feel that they would like to do so, write off a thesis or examination in the subject. While this system may seem almost ideal in many ways, its main defect is that it requires the almost ideal scholar to carry it out. To the ordinary student, whose devotion to academic pursuits is wont to waver at times, it would be practically fatal.

The difference between our system and the first of these described is, perhaps, the difference between taking medicine in large gulps and in small doses. As such, it is largely a matter of taste, but allow us to recommend the method of the large gulp. The difficulty in applying the second system would be the one mentioned above, human nature. While knowledge gained through pure love of it, would, no doubt, be of high value to the student, it is doubtful if it would result in as high a standard of education being attained by as great a number of students. It is a fact that the human machine often does its best work under pressure, much as the necessity may be deplored at the time. Therefore, until the scientists succeed in perfecting that highly valuable gland for engraving any required amount of knowledge into the human brain, education will probably have to go on in the present manner, even though it makes each recurring spring hideous for the student.

Art and Drama

M.C. Players' Guild

The Players' Guild again ended their season most aptly with the production on Wednesday afternoon of a number of original skits. This, we feel, is an excellent idea; specially the burlesquing of productions of the year, of which perhaps too little was done.

The program opened with "Billowy Hoopskirt", a mad travesty of "Mel-loney Holtspur", and "The Roof", the Guild's evening productions. Raymond Card, who concocted this insane but delectable burlesque, provided most of the fun by his broad (and full) impersonation of an old maidservant, his frenzied rendering of a frolicsome frenzied rendering of a folksong being one of the tidbits of the afternoon.

This riot was followed by the Oil Barrel Inanities. Mr. Barrel turned out to be Paul Gardner, the rather woolly "oldest member" of the Guild. Of the ten skits comprised by his show, the best were "The Goof", a delicious take-off of the death scene in "The Roof", and "I'm Just a Vagabond Valet", an amusing parody. The melody of a fairly good mock-ballad, "Down by the Old Plum Tree", was unfortunately rather lost by Victor and Nancy, the Treestop Twins, who redeemed themselves later. Of the black-out skits, the best was "Our Child". An impression of the Guild by an outsider proved an effective satire, with the assistance of several members of the audience.

One skit which apparently only we found funny was the scene of a boy pausing in the midst of a heavy necking scene to ask, "May I call you Ruth?"

A very enjoyable afternoon's entertainment, which deserved far more witnesses than the handful which were present. P.A.G.

Italian-Spanish Club

At the Women's Union last evening the Italian-Spanish Club presented an evening's entertainment which highly delighted its members and their guests.

Miss Ruth Haldenby starred in a piece of smooth Italian salacity, de- (Continued on Page 8)

CHAMPUS CAT

"And what did you do when you were at college, father?" Little Gas-pard asked one evening as we sat by the fireside.

"Well, my boy, the time has come and I must tell you. All these years I have been dreading that question which I knew you would sometime ask. So,—I was a Champus Cat!"

The lad turned pale at the hideous revelation, but always a true McGuffey, his filial affection and respect overcame his impulse to dash to the kitchen for aspirin.

C-C

As it was he took a deep breath, (Continued on Page 8)

Your Eyes

Will be scientifically examined if you consult Luke.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

F. E. LUKE

Optometrist and Optician

167 Yonge St. (Upstairs)
(Opposite Simpson's)

PROFITABLE OCCUPATION

Old Colony Greeting Card Company will be interested to hear from Students who wish to carry a line of Personal Christmas Greeting Cards. A dignified and profitable occupation for the vacation and Fall months. High grade Canadian etchings. Experienced Agents preferred. Studios, 125 Wellington St. W. Toronto.

VILMORE TEA ROOMS

53 Harbord Street

NOW OPEN

Special Student Rates
Breakfast 25c. Luncheon 35c.
Dinner 40c.

We will appreciate a trial.

SUMMER WORK

A limited number of territories open for university men wishing to secure profitable position for the vacation period. Guarantee contract of $35 per week to those satisfactory. Apply at Alumni Employment Office, 43 St. George St., on Tuesday, March 25, between 2 and 5.

A pamphlet has been published containing the addresses of the President, General Smuts, and the Prime Minister of Ontario, as delivered at the Special Convocation in January.

Copies of this publication may be obtained, free of cost, by calling at the Extension Office, Room 222, Simcoe Hall.

RENT A TUXEDO
$2.00
STUDENTS PRICE ONLY
NEW SUITS LATEST STYLE
TELEPHONE TRINITY 8218

Mallabar COSTUMER
450-452 SPADINA AVE
at College St.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE MAGAZINE

Spring Issue

On sale in Rotunda and Women's Cloak Room.

FRIDAY, MONDAY and TUESDAY

March 21, 24 and 25

I've changed to Winchesters
—wonderfully mild and
—blended right

Twenty
for 25c

Winchester
CIGARETTES

SAVE THE "POKER HANDS"

IF SPRING COMES
SUMMER IS NOT FAR BEHIND
and then

A TRIP TO EUROPE

SCOTLAND
ENGLAND 43 DAYS
HOLLAND FOR BELGIUM $424.25
FRANCE

WHY NOT MAKE APPLICATION
NOW?

By so doing you will have preferred choice of cabin accommodation; and you will be under no obligation because the $10.00 deposit will be returned in event of necessary cancellation prior to 1 May, 1930

For Further Information Apply to

A. GORDON BURNS, B.A., Travel Sec., Hart House,
University of Toronto

National Federation of Canadian University
Students' Tour 1930

Saturday Tea Dansants

Every Saturday afternoon

In the Alexandra Room

King Edward Hotel

No cover charge.

Afternoon Tea and Dancing $1.00

Through the winter season, these smart Tea Dansants will be among the most enjoyable events at the King Edward Hotel. Being held from 4.30 to 6.00 p.m., the hour is convenient and the nicest people find pleasure in attending. Tea is daintily served and the music is rendered by the inimitable Romanelli and his orchestra.

In the Alexandra Room, parlor floor every Saturday

THE ART METROPOLE

Branch of
THE HUGHES OWENS CO., LTD.

36 ADELAIDE STREET WEST

Dealers in

DRAFTING OFFICE SUPPLIES
MATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENTS
SURVEYING AND OTHER SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS
ARTISTS' MATERIALS ZEISS MICROSCOPES
LABORATORY SUPPLIES

ESTABLISHED 45 YEARS

FORESTRY PLAYS SENIOR U.C. IN SIFTON CUP FINAL TO-DAY

U. C. AND VICTORIA FORESTRY HAVE LEAD IN BASEBALL FINALS IN SIFTON CUP FINAL

First of Two Title Tussles Will Be Played This Afternoon

SPALDING CUP IS PRIZE

Senior University College and Victoria College, have reached the finals in the interfaculty baseball series. Two games will be played to decide who will succeed Jr. S.P.S. as Spalding Cup holders. The first game will be played this afternoon and the return game will be contested on Wednesday, March 26.

In reaching the finals the Senior U.C. nine had to dispose of Senior Dentals and Ontario Agricultural College in the playoffs. Senior Dents were disposed of in two games by 4 to 0 and 5 to 1 scores, but the playoffs with O.A.C. provided a stiffer struggle and U.C. were forced to three engagements before emerging victorious. Senior U.C. lost the first game by a 3 to 1 count, but came through nicely to cop the next two by 5 to 1 and 6 to 1 scores.

(Continued on Page 6)

Woodmen Take 10-Point Lead into Basket Tilt with U.C. To-Morrow

CHAMPIONSHIP EMBLEM

Forestry will carry a 10 point lead into the return game with University College seniors in the finals for the Sifton Cup, emblematic of the interfaculty basketball championship, as a result of their 29 to 19 victory last Wednesday. The second game will be played to-morrow in the big gymnasium at noon.

The winners clearly outplayed the Artsmen in the first game, but the U.C. squad were noticeably below form and seemed unable to cope with the close checking tactics of the Woodmen. Forestry is represented by a hard fighting, fast team and the University College basketballers will have to be at their best if they are to overcome the 10 point lead.

Forestry checked the opposing team to a standstill and carried the battle to their opponents at all times. U.C. seemed very slow in comparison and time and again their passes were intercepted. The U.C. forwards failed

(Continued on Page 6)

SPEAKING OF SPORT

(Larry Dawson)

With to-day's issue "The Varsity" of 1929-30 comes to a close. For which we are truly thankful! Since September, 1928, it has been our aim to give the readers of "The Varsity" an unbiased criticism of sport in general and college sport in particular. It has also been our wish and we think that it has been faithfully carried out, to present only the most accurate and most up-to-date information possible. This has necessitated a great deal of work, particularly in the hockey season. It would have been a comparatively easy task to have written the "S.O.S." sometime during the day previous to publication. We are making no exaggerated statement in saying that some of the sport editorials in this paper in former years plainly demonstrated that they were written in this manner. Our first effort on "The Varsity" was to entirely eliminate this method. Again we have attempted to get away from "college paper" writing. By this we mean a certain attitude which mitigates against "rah rah stuff". But we have always kept in mind that "The Varsity" is first and foremost the University of Toronto students' paper and that the university teams should get the benefit of any "edge" that could in all fairness be given them.

As long as we have been responsible for the sport "quota" we have attempted to give each sport the space that its news value demanded. If certain people cannot understand why some of the minor sports did not get the space that those people thought they should get, it was merely because our space was limited and we did not feel justified in crowding out material that had a much wider appeal. We would also like to point out that this year interfaculty sport was given as much prominence as possible. During the past football season we discarded intercollegiate and O.R.F.U. practice dope in favour of writeups of interfaculty games.

The policy of the writer has been to publish what he believed to be in the best interest of sport. It has been but rarely that we have suppressed information which would have been of interest. The Sports Editor hopes that this paper will never become merely an official bulletin board and that those who succeed him will conduct their department according to the tradition which has made "The Varsity" a live student paper and one that is respected both by college papers and the press alike. In concluding we wish to express our thanks to Jack Strenkovsky and Bruce Wood, Assistant Sports Editors, to Art Cochrane, and Terry Fleming, sports writers par excellence, and to our other hard working associates, Miss Edith Blackwell, Miss Hazel Hammond and the women's sport staff contributed immensely to whatever success that the sport columns has had.

"MEN ARE LIKE CHILDREN"

Every man will have heard this jibe—and it's pretty near the truth as far as clothes go. When you come to think of it they still get pretty hard wear, even if we have given up sliding down the banisters. So buy your clothes at Eaton's, where suits are tailored to meet a strenuous life—and still look smart.

Suits from $25 to $50

THE T. EATON CO. LIMITED

COLLEGIATE NEWS AGENCY

269 College St. Trinity 5987
Harry Winfield, Prop.

CIGARS - MAGAZINES

Cigarettes - Tobaccos - Sundries
Name your city
We Have Your Home Town Paper.
Lending Library.

To the Graduating Class--Success

--with the desire that they always remember this firm

Dealing exclusively

in

Class Pins

and

Diamonds

A. E. EDWARDS

Insignia Jeweller

22 YONGE ST. ARCADE

ELGIN 3669

TORONTO

LOST

Hockey Skate at Interfaculty hockey game about February 15th. Finder please phone King. 3267.

RUGGER SEASON HERE WILL OPEN IN APRIL

Forecast Two Teams from Large Number of Available Aspirants

REG ROOME WILL BE GONE

Last night the annual general meeting of the British Rugby Union of Ontario was held for the purpose of election of officers and the completion of arrangements for the spring season. Ten clubs were represented at the most enthusiastic meeting of rugby followers that has gathered here yet. Varsity was welcomed on their entry to the first half of the spring schedule for the first time. Despite the dreadful proximity of exams, there has been a full turnout of all the players of last autumn as well as several newcomers who are taking the opportunity to get a little fresh air into their lungs before May. A great deal of enthusiasm is evinced by last season's XV. They are anxious to repeat the club's success of then, when they headed the league, although their schedule was cut short by the early arrival of Jack Frost. Johnnie MacLean, captain of the first team, is waiting Jack's departure so that he can get his men onto the field. The first match is to be played on April 5th at Varsity; there will be games at home every Saturday throughout April, and all will be well worth supporting. Meantime indoor training is going ahead apace, under the direction of Coach Alan Burton.

Reg Roome, plucky half-back, will be out for his last season with U. of T. He will be a great loss next year; although there are several promising successors.

MacLean and Ross Garner will be working hard for the chance to make the Ontario Rep. team which will play the senior team from University of British Columbia when they come through Toronto the first week in May. No doubt Archbold and other former B.C. men have the same hopes. Goldenberg, who was injured last October, will probably be playing again this season, along with George Lee, small but fearless tackle. From the numbers turning out, it looks as if the club will be able to field two teams, as they did last autumn, gaining the distinction of being the first club in Ontario to field two separate teams on the same afternoon. Several of the other Provincial Union clubs are going to put out two teams this year. It is for the purpose of discussing these possibilities that the club is having a dinner in Hart House on Saturday night.

MEET AT

"The Sign of the Lantern" Tea Rooms
5 WILLCOCKS STREET

Breakfast 25c. Luncheon 35c. Dinner 40c.
Open until 11.30 p.m.

AUTHORITATIVE NEW STYLES IN SPRING HATS

GYPSY BARON

HUMBERT

CORSAIR

Sunny blue skies. Snap in the air. Shoulders back, chest out. A smart new felt with a touch of Spring's formality—for Winter's gone and it's time for a new out-of-doors smartness. See the swagger new hats we're showing for immediate wear.

SMILE $3.85

BYRON $5.00

LONSDALE $6.00

BROCK $7.00

Calhoun, the Hatter

97 YONGE ST. (at Adelaide)

806 YONGE ST. (at Bloor)

OPEN EVENINGS

"Stores in all principal cities"

Dack's
Shoes for Men
(From maker to wearer)

That Custom-made look

Impossible to define—yet easy to see—is conveyed exclusively in Dack's shoes. Over 100 years' experience of most expert craftsmen working on the choicest materials produce both shape and comfort.

TORONTO SHOPS

16 BLOOR ST. EAST
73 KING ST. WEST

Also Montreal—Hamilton—Windsor—Winnipeg—Calgary

WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM.

43 glorious days with your $424.25
friends and fellow students,
and all expenses for

SCOTLAND ENGLAND
HOLLAND BELGIUM
FRANCE

A Special All Student Tour
arranged and directed by
The National Federation of Canadian University
Students

A chaperone will go with the Tour and an experienced leader will also accompany it throughout.
For further information apply to A. GORDON BURNS,
S.A.C. Office, Hart House, TR. 5036.
Sailing via Canadian Pacific

A large chain store organization is anxious to add several young men to its week-end staff. Experience in meats or groceries is not essential so long as applicant has an aptitude for the work and can be depended upon to report every week-end. This offers opportunity for steady summer employment as relief while regular staff are on vacation.

Apply, in first instance, by letter, giving age, and outlining any experience you may have had in the past in meats or groceries.

Address letter to S.A.C. Office, Hart House.

Medical Arts Coffee Shop

Students will find this new shop exceptionally handy and attractive.

Come in after the
game, or the theatre. Always open.

Our Twilight Musical Hour is particularly inviting.

NEW MEDICAL ARTS BUILDING
BLOOR WEST - at St. George

MONEY TALKS

By THE ROYAL BANK

DON'T LET IT SLIP THROUGH!
YOUR FINGERS!

With the Theatres

UPTOWN

"Honey" had Nancy Carrol, Skeets
Gallagher, Lillian Roth, some good songs—notably "I Don't Need Atmosphere"—and satisfactory dialogue.
The result was good entertainment.
And Jack Arthur offered a Maxfield Parrish stage bill which was quite the best thing the Uptown has done for some time . . . Beginning today the Uptown screen has a Madame Glyn opus, with a Baron Lowenstein motif. The title, with no apologies to the dead Caesar, is "Such Men are Dangerous."
—A.E.F.A.

IMPERIAL

Don't enjoy "Hot for Paris" unless you affect the moron pose. Willie Solar and the Albertina Rasch Dancers, however, uphold the honour of R.K.O.
—A.E.F.A.

STUDENTS STEAL NAG IN MIDNIGHT SPREE

Police Lock Up a Large Body of Carolina Students as Result

PROFESSOR TAKES REINS

Special to "The Varsity"

Chapel Hill, N.C. — The midnight wagon ride of a dozen State College students, capping a series of other pranks recently, ended the next morning when police escorted the youths to the police station and a college professor, attired in full evening dress, steered the nag back to her stall in the college barn.

The boys were detained by police for more than an hour. No charge is to be lodged against the midnight rovers.

About midnight the group rattled off the campus explaining to passers-by that they intended to ride uptown and back. They were overtaken by a student employee of the Animal Husbandry Department, who instructed the boys to drive the outfit back to the campus.

The coachman did an about turn and steered the craft west. Soon they were overtaken again, this time by the police. The officers rode slowly in their car alongside the wagon intend on seeing the horse and wagon safely returned to the barn.

After they had travelled a short distance, R. H. Ruffner, professor of animal husbandry, accosted them. The irate professor demanded that police
"lock up the whole bunch". The confusion and the professor dressed in evening clothes were too much for She reared and pitched and threatened the nervous system of "Old Dobbin", ed to run wildly up the street. All the boys protested ignorance of beasts of burden, none of them willing to take the reins. Professor "Bull" Ruffner himself climbed onto the wagon seat, took the reins and hawed the old gray mare back to her stall in the college barn.

The youths were carried or asked to come to police station. One boy walked the full distance, more than a mile. The collegians wise-cracked and joked with policemen while the minions of the law awaited instructions from the professor.

The information came by telephone.
Professor Ruffner told the police that the boys not only stole the college horse, but turned the cows out of the pasture as well. Later he again called, instructing police that he would file no charge.

At about 2 p. m. the lads, sleepy and tired, wandered back to the campus.

The raid on the college animals followed upon the heels of numerous other pranks. Earlier that night an airplane over 20 feet long was removed from the highway to the room of Watauga Hall, a machine placed on the second floor, and "State College Gangsters" hung in effigy. Early that afternoon, a coffee pot, ten feet high and six feet in diameter, was hoisted to the roof of Sixth Dormitory.

BRITISH RUGBY UNION ELECTS VARSITY MAN

Archbold First Undergraduate to Receive Executive Appointment

INTERCOLLEGIATE PLAYER

At the Annual General Meeting of the British Rugby Union of Ontario held last night, Seymour Archbold, Manager of Varsity Rugby, and left wing on the intercollegiate team, was elected to the executive committee of the Union for 1930-31. This is the first time that the provincial body has appointed a Varsity man to their headquarters staff, and it is an indication of the progress of the game being made at the university. Mention was also made of the fact that the Varsity club had been in unofficial communication with the newly formed British Rugby Club at Harvard and Yale, with a view to the obtaining of an international series.

CONJUGAL TROUBLES FEATURED IN PLAYS

Amorous Incidents of Married Life Shown by German Study Club

TWO COMEDIES PRESENTED

"Er ist nicht Eifersüchtig" and "Ein Knopf" were the two comedies the German Study Club presented as their annual production.

The first play showed a young married woman in great alarm because her husband was not jealous of her.
To satisfy herself of his devotion she schemed to kindle his passion by having an uncle of hers make love to her. The uncle although known to the husband proved to be a rather good lover when viewed from the street. A violent scene followed in which the wife regarded with pleasure the husband's jealousy and the play came to a happy end with the entrance of the uncle, who cleared up the whole dispute.

Cynthia Walker took the part of the young wife and Archie Hare played opposite her. Nat Shaw was the

MARCH 30 LAST VISITORS' DAY OF HART HOUSE YEAR

Whole Building Open from Two Till Four P.M.; Tea to be Served

VISITORS' DAY

Sunday, 30th March, being the last Sunday of the month, will be Visitors' Day in Hart House, when members may introduce visitors cluding ladies into the House between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m.
MEMBERS WILL BE ASKED TO SHOW THEIR MEMBER-SHIP CARDS AT THE DOOR.

The whole building will be open for inspection.

Tea will be served in the graduate dining room between 3 and 4.30 p.m. at 25c per cover.

ENERGY at your fingertips

the best
milk chocolate bar
made

GET THEM AT THE TUCK SHOP

husband and Mr. Wahl was the old servant, Hermann.

The second play was much shorter than the first. The plot hinged around the absent minded professor whose part was taken by Mr. Wynburn. The professor needed a reminder to pay due attention to his new wife and he found a suitable reminder in a big red button. This became lost and when it was found it was seen to be the button off another woman's shoe.
Complications arose, but in the end everything was happy.

Mrs. Boeschstein was the absent minded professor's wife, and Miss Dyer and Mr. McAndrew were the other pair in this amusing comedy.

MISS KILPATRICK HOME TO U.C. WOMEN TUESDAY

Tuesday, March 25th, 4-6 p.m., Miss Kilpatrick will be at home as usual to the women students of University College. The guests of honour will be
Dr. and Mrs. Pidgeon and Rabbi and Mrs. Eisendrath. This will be the last weekly tea of the season. Everybody very welcome.

Twenty-five Hawaiian students at the University of Southern California have founded a Hawaiian stringed instrument club, complete with floral wreaths.

Have Your Brakes Tested AND SAVE 10

SALEM'S BRAKE SERVICE
205 COLLEGE STREET at St. George Street

MEET AT VARSITY TEA ROOMS

KI. 6738

328 BLOOR ST. W.

FREEMAN'S--Varsity Valets for the last ten years

Largest concern for the rental of formal clothes of up-to-date styles and best qualities.

RATES SAME AS USUAL $2.00 ONLY

FREEMAN'S DRESS EXCHANGE
571 YONGE STREET KI. 3270

Secretarial Training —in your spare time

During the winter months, why not make use of a little of your spare time between lectures?

Full or part time, mornings or afternoons, every day or on special days, we provide individual instruction on subjects necessary to secretarial training.

For further information telephone KI. 5588, or write,

The Gregg College

"Toronto's model school for Gregg Shorthand and Secretarial subjects."

Bloor and Bay Sts.

Toronto

Correspondence

Correspondents are reminded that all letters must be accompanied by signatures, and they are requested to limit themselves to approximately 300 words.

University Chorus

Editor,
"The Varsity".

Dear Sir:

You have asked for a report on the University Chorus and an explanation of its fate, but if this letter is to be published, then I would like it to be understood that I am writing not so much to justify my own action or to attach the blame for its collapse to any individual, but in order to give a general statement of the career of the chorus and its possibilities.

The chorus began its rehearsals last fall and very rapidly developed into a body of keen, capable and enthusiastic members whose support was never at any time lacking. Unfortunately in your article on Thursday you stated that there had been in January a lack of interest which accounted for the uncertainty as to the outcome of the organization. That statement was the truly incorrect. The innumerable enquiries I have had in the last few weeks from members anxious to continue the work of the chorus prove most emphatically the falseness of a statement which I regret you should ever have had occasion to print.

A university organization which in itself has no official standing and is directed by an individual outside the university, must, if it is to prove successful, have more than the usual moral support offered to such an organization. It must have a definite representative committee with a policy that it will be prepared to support at all times. If that policy is outlined by the director at the invitation of the organization, then it is only reasonable that he should expect every assistance in the responsible task of carrying on the policy. When I accepted the invitation to direct the University Chorus it was purely on the understanding that I should be supported by a representative responsible committee. Unfortunately that committee, if it ever materialized, never to my knowledge met, and this term, worried by the many difficulties we had had to face, which I trust were more due to misfortune than carelessness, I felt compelled to insist upon the co-operation of the committee and to insist that if this were not forthcoming I should have no option but to abandon the rehearsals. Considerable inconvenience or misunderstanding led to my taking the latter step, very much against my desire. The fact that the committee has in the meantime done nothing to justify itself is too typical of its career to need explanation.

There is no reason whatsoever why the University of Toronto should not possess an excellent chorus. This year's attempt, which must be regarded as little more than an experiment, has provided a splendid nucleus with which I was most sincerely sorry to have to break connections. I only trust that next year a body with something more substantial and lasting than initial enthusiasm will invite me to direct a reorganized chorus. I will then be only too glad to do my very utmost towards establishing a chorus that is not only possible but both desired and necessary in the university.

Sincerely,
E. Mazzoleni.

SUNWHEAT

Irradiated-Vitamin BISCUITS

"Ask your Doctor"

The only biscuit of its kind in the world

Contains . . . of the six known vitamins and the essential minerals—calcium, phosphorus, and Iron. A food for body and brain.

Developed and Tested by the Nutritional Research Laboratories, Department of Pediatrics, University of Toronto, Developed and Prescribed in The Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto. Licensed for Vitamin "B" by the University of Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation.

13

MEDS DEFEAT SAINTS TAKE LEAD IN FINAL

Victory Gives Women Doctors
Lead in Round to Decide Championship

GAME FAST AND ROUGH

By reason of their 1-0 victory over St. Hilda's, Meds' women's hockey team will carry a one-goal lead into the final game for the interfaculty championship, to be played next Monday at the Varsity Arena. The game was very fast, and quite rough, although both teams were in very poor condition, due to a long lay off.

Bliss McQuarrie tallied for Meds in the first period from a scramble in front of the Saints' goal, and although both teams tried hard, neither could add to the score.

Molly Grant in the Meds nets is deserving of great credit. She saved several times on shots that looked like sure goals.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB HOLDS THEATRE PARTY

Visit to "Hansel and Gretel"
Will Form Finale
for Year

This year's work of the Women's Press Club will have its grand finale in a theatre party at the Royal Alexandra on Saturday, March 29, at 2.15 p.m., when "Hansel and Gretel" will be performed. Those members wishing to go will get in touch immediately with Miss Betty Gunnison, IV Victoria, or any of the executive. Tea will be arranged following the show.

LIVELY COMPETITION ENSUES IN ELECTION

(Continued from page 1)

dent; Dorothy Porter, secretary; Grace Beatty, treasurer; Hazel Bredin, social service representative.

3T1—Peg Willoughby, president (acclamation); Minerva Sinclair, vice president; Beatrice Crocker, secretary; Roberta Reade, treasurer.

3T2—Marjorie Phillips, president (acclamation); Jean Fraser, vice-president; Jean MacKecknie, secretary; Isabel Johnson, treasurer; Margaret Huston, S.A.C. representative.

3T3—Margaret Conboy, president; Connie McNeill, vice-president; Merle Storey, secretary; Jean Trimble, treasurer.

Student Christian Association—Beth Foster, president; Betty Lang, vice-president; Isabel Dickson, secretary; Betty Burton, treasurer; Ena Boone, group convenor; Helen Slater, new students and activities convenor; Constance McNeill, publicity convenor; Ruth Campbell, program convenor; Jean MacKecknie, social convenor.

TIP TOP CLOTHES

Choice of thrifty men at Canada's leading Universities!

College men know fine clothes—and clothing values. Style must be right—fit must be perfect—color and pattern correct—and, most important of all, the price must be right. It is significant, therefore, that thousands of university men from the Atlantic to the Pacific are wearers of Tip Top Clothes—in fact, will have no others.

Whether you are a college man or a bank president, a farmer or a mechanic, you are interested in being well and correctly dressed without paying more than necessary. Tip Top Clothes "fill the bill" perfectly, for they offer you the choice of several hundred of the world's fine fabrics—a designing service recognized as the country's finest—and guarantee you a perfect fitting suit or topcoat, tailored to your individual measurements, for $24.

Of course, only methods of buying, tailoring and distributing that are unusual, permit us to sell fine clothes at this price, but Tip Top Tailors are an unusual institution whom it will pay every shrewd man to investigate before buying Spring clothes.

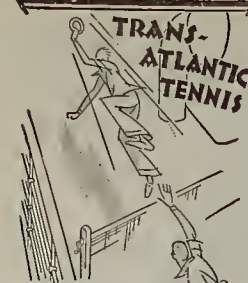

One Price Only

$24

Tip Top Tailors LIMITED,

A University Travel Club

deck tennis tournament . . . set all . . . five all . . . deuce. Bugle blew the "dress for dinner" ten minutes ago; but neither player will quit. A fizzer to Jim's backhand. . . . Jim holds it and returns a lob . . . John can't recover. Advantage in. A spinning serve . . . Jim wins! Plenty of recreation when you travel with the UNIVERSITY TRAVEL CLUB.

See Scotland, England, Holland, Belgium and France for

$415

(ALL EXPENSES)

Four sailings to choose from. Economical extensions to Rhine Valley and Switzerland, Passion Play at Oberammergau, French Riviera and Italy.

Write or call now for full information and suggested travel list from—

WALTER H. BILBROUGH

Assistant Secretary,
508 McKinnon Bldg — Adelaide 9543
or
20 Inglewood Drive — Hyland 5364

Throat easy

Buckingham CIGARETTES

20 for 25¢

NO COUPONS ALL QUALITY

MEDS WOMEN BEAT SAINTS FOR INTERFACULTY TITLE

Meds women won the interfaculty hockey championship for the first time in history when they defeated St. Hilda's, last year's champions, by a score of 2-1, in a two-game series. Meds took the first game 1-0, and were held to a 1-1 tie in the second game. The Saints tried hard all the way, and play was fast and exciting. They tied it up on the round early in the first period of the second game, but Meds went ahead in the second period on a nice shot by Bliss McQuarrie, and then successfully held their lead.

FORESTRY HAVE LEAD IN SIFTON CUP FINAL

(Continued from page 3)

to break for the basket and passed up many openings.

Forestry took up the lead early in the first period and held it to the end. They never were in any serious danger. At half time they were leading 13 to 8. All the Forestry regulars played well and figured in the scoring. Start and Grainger leading with 7 points each. Grainger played a heady game at centre for the winners. Wiley and Leslie paired up to form a strong defense, the former playing a particularly aggressive game. Sullivan and Mayor were the best of the losers. Sullivan's shooting kept U.C. in the hunt, while Mayor was a tower of strength on the defense.

Forestry (29)—Forwards, Simpson (4), Start (7); centre, Grainger (7), guards, Wiley (5), Leslie (4); spares, Raeburn (2), Gray, Townson.

U.C. (19)—Forwards, Sullivan (6), Foyer (3), centre, Mainey (6); guards, Mayor (2), Stringer; subs, Garden, Noyes (2), Keith, Davies.

U.C. AND VICTORIA IN BASEBALL FINALS

(Continued from page 3)

Victoria eliminated Jr. U.C. and Knox College. The Scarlet and Gold overwhelmed the Knoxers, but met worthy foemen in Jr. U.C. The latter only submitted to defeat after three hard games. Victoria took the first game 4 to 3, Jr. U.C. came back to capture the second by a 6 to 2 count. However, Victoria had the "goods", and took the deciding game 6 to 4, thereby earning the right to face Senior U.C. in the finals.

1930 TORONTONENSIS FOOTBALL PLAYER TO APPEAR APRIL 15 KILLED BY NEGRO

Mention of New Societies to Stimulate Student Interest

MANY NOVEL FEATURES

The Torontonensis for 1930 will appear about April 15, according to A. Gordon Burns, business manager. The staff is endeavouring to have the books in the hands of the graduating class before that date because certain faculties finish examinations early.

There are to be certain novel features in Torontonensis this year. The cover is to be of dark brown imitation leather with the University College tower embossed in gold on the front. It will contain pictures portraying campus life, academic and social, for which camera men have been at work throughout the year. There will be four or five pages of pictures of the university buildings on paper treated by a special process. This year's book is to be even larger than before because the Faculty of Pharmacy is to be represented.

An attempt is being made to have an even more comprehensive representation of student activities by the introduction of certain societies and clubs not represented before, in order to attract undergraduate purchasers via the channel of stimulated interest.

THREE MEDS STUDENTS ON ATHLETIC DIRECTORATE

The following students were elected to the Athletic Directorate for next season: J. W. Graham, III Meds; J. D. Keith, IV Meds; J. D. Sinclair, II Meds; D. H. Traynor, II Science; J. R. White, III Science.

The candidates were elected by a representative vote from all faculties and so do not represent their own faculties, but the whole student body.

All the successful candidates are well known athletes and have a representative knowledge of sport. Professor M. A. MacKenzie and Professor Wright remain as the faculty representatives on the board.

Meeting of the Lacrosse Club in Hart House, Room A, at 5 p.m. to-day.

"Tiny" Lawrence of Tulane Loses Life in Fight at New Orleans

MARDI GRAS MARRED

Special to "The Varsity"

New Orleans, La.—A former Tulane University football player, J. Adair "Tiny" Lawrence, was killed in a racial conflict in the Mardi Gras celebration at New Orleans, Tuesday. The gorgeous spectacle was marred when a gang fight stopped the progress of the long line of floats winding through the gaily decorated streets. Lawrence and others leaped from their float to clear the line of march for King Rex, the monarch of the procession.

According to witnesses Lawrence was struck twice on the head with an iron pipe wielded by a negro, and a few seconds later another negro shot him twice with a revolver. The second negro escaped, but the police arrested the first who admitted striking Lawrence, and gave the police the name and address of the man who fired the fatal shots.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE FRENCH SOCIETY MEETS

"Les Americains a Paris", a Student Play, Is Put on

The French Society of University College had a very successful meeting at the Women's Union Wednesday evening. The feature of the night was "Les Americains a Paris", an original play by William Percival Apps of the fourth year. Those who had spent many pleasant hours with "Francois" delightful little text had a hilarious evening.

Music was provided by Messrs. Connor, Knights and Finch. There was also a recitation contest with first prize going to Miss K. Stuart and second to Mr. V. Wynbourne. Some of the recitations were ghastly, but the audience did not mind.

Following the play the entire cast adjourned to the home of Miss Grace Elliott, where refreshments and dancing occupied the jaded spirits until the early hours.

ABOLISH HELL WEEK AT NORTHWESTERN

Would Banish "Obscenities and Brutalities" from All Initiations

SUPERVISING BOARD ACTS

Special to "The Varsity"

Chicago, Ill.—Hell week, the period in which informal fraternity initiation takes place, was formally abolished at Northwestern University last week at a meeting of the board of supervision of student activities. This action climaxes a campus sentiment that has been forming for several years and has at times been the subject of serious discussions by the interfaculty council and individual Greek groups.

"It is not the object of the board to do away with informal initiations," said Dean James W. Armstrong, "but to eliminate the obscenities, the brutalities, the indecencies, which have given fraternities a black eye in the view of the public."

When asked his opinion on paddling the Dean replied, "The term brutalities is taken to include excessive paddling. Whether or not the practice should continue depends on how it is undertaken." A "limited amount of paddling for disciplinary purposes" was favoured by Dean Armstrong.

Dean Armstrong in explanation emphasized the fact that the ruling was not without authorities and that fraternities failing to observe the mandate would be taken to task.

Keep in close touch with the folks back home

THERE is a direct path between your college and your home town — the telephone line. Let it keep you in the most intimate personal touch with your parents or friends.

Arrange with father and mother for a "call-home-day" each week, the calls to be charged to your parents' telephone. Hundreds of others are doing this — and all look forward to this weekly chat.

The cost is surprisingly low—wherever you call. The telephone book will tell you all about rates and service, and the reduced rates on station-to-station calls.

W. J. CAIRNS, Manager.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada

DENVER UNIVERSITY TO TRY NEW SYSTEM

Acting Captain for Each Game to be Appointed Every Week

CAPTAINCY RUINS PLAYERS

Special to "The Varsity"

Denver, Colo.—No captain will be elected to lead the Denver grid squad through the 1930 season if a movement instigated by Newell "Jeff" Cravath, athletic director at the University of Denver, is carried out.

Alfred C. Nelson, chairman of the faculty athletic committee, said yesterday that the committee would back the movement.

"Cravath said Wednesday that he has seen too many fine teams wrecked by the election of a captain, and that next season the man who has put forth the most effort, or shown the most improvement before a game, will be appointed acting captain for that game."

The coach said that many fine players have been ruined by being elected captains, and having to shoulder the responsibility that such a position carries.

One good man more or less on a squad of 50 doesn't make much difference," Cravath said, "but one off a squad of 15 is hard to replace."

This will be the first time that such a plan has been tried here, but with a team composed largely of seniors, many of whom would make good captains, Cravath sees it as the only thing to do.

Although definitely opposed to the idea of a team leader, Cravath named "Bozo" Smith, Crimson grid ace, as one of the finest captains he had ever seen on a field. He attributed Smith's success to the ability to "keep his mouth shut."

Students at Delhi University, Athens, Georgia, have formed a Liberty League to protest against encroachment upon their rights by the faculty.

Harry Skitch Says:

Fashion dictates delightful Grays, Blues, and Browns. Our new suitings in these colours reflect the beauty of Springtime. Call in and let's get acquainted. You are under no obligation to buy

Made to Measure suits, $35.00 to $50.00.

SPECIAL DISCOUNT TO STUDENTS

The Harry Skitch Company Limited

9 ADELAIDE STREET EAST Above Ellen Bradley's Grill

ARTISTS AND DRAFTSMEN THE WORLD AROUND, CALL ELDORADO "THE MASTER DRAWING PENCIL"

FOR SALE AT THE COLLEGE BOOKROOM

Your Spring Suit

Should Be Styled Like This

Coats—Are cut with fuller chest and a definite break at the waist line. Two-button coats are worn with the bottom button open, peak lapels.

Vests—Six buttons, five to button, the lower button remaining unbuttoned.

Sleeves—Are no longer flat at the top but fuller, accentuating the new cushion shoulder.

Trousers—Should hang without a break, wider at the knee and taper toward the cuff.

Sketched from life by our own artist

Pascoes Suits are correct in every detail

$25 to $45

Pascoes LIMITED

—Two Shops—

Kent Bldg. Stollery Bldg.
Yonge at Richmond Yonge at Bloor

Open Evenings Till 9

ORGANIZED 1910

Overseas Education League

ORGANIZED 1910

MAJOR F. J. NEY, Hon. Organizer

Summer 1930 Programme

SEVENTH ANNUAL VISIT OF UNIVERSITY UNDERGRADUATES

Including Graduates of 1929 and 1930; Normal School Students and Senior Students of Certain Schools and Colleges

TO GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE

(Together with GENEVA and OBERAMMERGAU)

71 Days - $535.00 (Approximately)

June 21st . . . Sail by S.S. "MINNEDOSA" from Montreal.
 June 29th . . . Arrive at GLASGOW.
 June 30th . . . From Glasgow to St. Andrews via The Trossachs.
 June 30th—July 4th . . . ST. ANDREWS.
 July 4th—July 10th . . . EDINBURGH.
 July 10th—July 14th . . . GRASMERE (English Lake District).
 July 14th—July 17th . . . HARROGATE.
 July 17th—July 21st . . . YORK.
 July 21st—July 24th . . . STRATFORD-UPON-AVON.

July 24th—July 27th . . . OXFORD.
 July 27th—Aug. 11th . . . LONDON.
 Aug. 11th—Aug. 15th . . . GENEVA.
 Aug. 15th—Aug. 16th . . . INNSBRUCK in the Austrian Tyrol, thence by Motor Coach through the most beautiful mountain scenery in the world.
 Aug. 16th—Aug. 18th . . . OBERAMMERGAU (for the PASSION PLAY).
 Aug. 18th—Aug. 23rd . . . PARIS.
 August 23rd . . . Sail from Cherbourg by S.S. "EMPERESS OF AUSTRALIA".
 August 30th . . . Arrive at Quebec

Members desiring to sail before June 4th or to return before or after August 30th, can secure reservations on other sailings through the League. Rates will be quoted on application.

Special provision is being made for men students to sail by the "Empress of Scotland" on May 28th, from Quebec direct to Southampton, to enable them to attend the Royal Tournament at Olympia and the Aldershot Military Tattoo. On the conclusion of this special London programme, this group will join the Undergraduates' party at St. Andrews on June 30th.

Extension Programme for Men Students Only

June 4th . . . Leave Quebec by the R.M.S. "Empress of France".

June 11th . . . Arrive Southampton and proceed direct to London.

In London the Students will be accommodated in Hotels at Lancaster Gate, opposite Kensington Gardens and Hyde Park.

For this period the programme will be optional and selected from the following items of historical and general interest. For events marked with an asterisk reservations for all members of this group will be made.

*May 29th—June 14th . . . Naval, Military, and Air Force Tournament. (London, Olympia)
 June 10th—June 12th . . . Agricultural Show. Hereford, Worcestershire and Gloucestershire, (near Droitwich)
 June 11th—June 12th . . . Flower Show. Iris, (Royal Horticultural Hall, London)
 June 12th—June 14th . . . Horse Show. (Richmond, London)
 June 13th—June 17th . . . Cricket, First Test Match. England v. Australia (Nottingham)
 June 14th . . . Polo. Lawson Cup. (Roehampton, London)
 June 14th . . . Coster Donkeys' Show. (Richmond, London)
 June 16th—June 21st . . . Golf. Open Championship. (Hoylake)
 June 16th—June 21st . . . Tennis. (Queen's Club, London)
 *June 17th—June 21st . . . Military Torchlight Tattoo. (Aldershot)
 June 18th—June 21st . . . Convention. British Architects'. (Norwich)
 June 18th . . . Racing. Royal Hunt Cup. (Ascot, near London)
 June 19th . . . Racing. Gold Cup. (Ascot, near London)

June 19th—June 28th . . . International Horse Show. (Olympia, London)
 June 20th—July 3rd . . . Trade Exhibition. Ideal Holidays. (Royal Agricultural Hall)
 June 21st—June 25th . . . Convention. Annual Advertising. (Hastings)
 June 23rd . . . (Prince of Wales's Birthday.)
 June 23rd—July 5th . . . Croquet. North of England Championship. (Buxton)
 June 23rd—July 5th . . . Tennis. Lawn Tennis Championships. (Wimbledon, London)
 June 23rd—July 5th . . . Chess. British Congress. (Scarborough)
 June 24th . . . Racing. Irish Derby. (Curragh)
 June 24th . . . Royal Horticultural Show. (Royal Horticultural Hall)
 June 25th . . . Racing. Summer Meeting. (Newbury)
 June 27, 28, 30 and July 1st . . . Cricket. Second Test Match. England v. Australia. (Lord's Cricket Ground, London)
 *June 28th . . . Royal Air Force Display. (Hendon)

The present estimated cost of this additional programme, including Tourist Third Cabin accommodation on the "Empress of France", rail fares Southampton to London, and London to St. Andrews is—$85.00.

ALSO THE FOLLOWING TOURS

Fourth Annual Summer School in French - $375

(For Teachers and Students)
 Lycee Victor Duruy, Boulevard des Invalides, Paris

Second Annual Summer School in English - $395

(For Teachers and Students)
 Oxford, Stratford-upon-Avon, London

First Annual Summer School in Spanish - $420

(In co-operation with the University of Liverpool)
 Santander, Spain

First Annual Summer School of Music - $520

(For Teachers and Students)
 Paris, Oberammergau, Munich, Bayreuth, Dresden, Berlin, London

First Annual Summer School of Folk Dancing - $395

(In co-operation with the English Folk Dance Society)
 Oxford, Malvern and London

The Undergraduates will be under the personal supervision of the Honorary Organizer—who will accompany the party from Montreal—assisted by the Rev. R. H. Ragg, M.A., (Cantab), (Rector of All Saints Church, Winnipeg) as Honorary Chaplain, and by the following Honorary Senior Group Leaders: Mrs. K. F. Pinhey, McGill University, Montreal; Miss Isabel Robson, Dean of Women, Regina College; Mrs. F. G. C. Wood, University of British Columbia; Miss Dorothy Somerset, Honorary Secretary, 1419 Pendrell St., Vancouver, B.C.

Application forms containing the usual detailed information regarding the various items of the League's programme for 1930 are available at the Offices of the OVERSEAS EDUCATION LEAGUE, Boyd Building, WINNIPEG.

FRED. J. NEY, Honorary Organizer.

or

HENRY BUTTON, Hon. Sec. Eastern Division, 224 Bloor St. West, Toronto.

Coming Events

MONDAY, MARCH 24
1.45 p.m.—Trinity 3T3 year picture at the college.
TUESDAY, MARCH 25
8.00 p.m.—Open meeting of Fabius Club at Wymlwood. Speaker: Mr. S. K. Ratcliffe of London, England.
8.00 p.m.—Italian-Spanish Club at the Women's Union, 79 St. George St.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26
1.30—Short service in Hart House Chapel. Address by Dr. Sclater.
THURSDAY, MARCH 27
8 p.m.—Final meeting of U. of T.

Headquarters for ACADEMIC GOWNS CAPS HOODS
See our samples and prices before buying
Sainthill-Levine & Co. LIMITED
126 Wellington Street West
PHONE EL 5391

ART AND DRAMA

(Continued from page 2)
ceitfully entitled "Chi non prova non crede." Her role of Annetta, an amiable lady, as well as her old Venetian costume, allowed her plenty of latitude, and she made the most of it. Mr. Nathaniel Shaw, the well-known musician, made a sprightly and scintillating Orazio, hawker of the pomegranates. Miss T. Cook, as Rina, the gardener's daughter, shone in a pleasantly romantic role, and the cast was well rounded out by Mr. A. Franceschelli, who played to the hilt the part of Donato, an old Roman shoe-maker. The production was full of verve, and showed the presence of a director at rehearsals.
Between the plays, Senorita Rosita de Carmen, the pupil of Senorita Lopez, received great applause for her dances, which were beautifully executed, and the large audience showed their appreciation.
"El Chalco Blanco", reminds one of the earlier work of Sir Arthur Pinero. A waistcoat containing a lottery ticket is lost, without which the hero cannot marry the girl of his dreams. A delightful romance de pension ensues, following the fortunate, if rather amazing, recovery of the ticket.
Miss Quinn, as Rosa, was a charming ingenue, and good support was given her by Miss Elliott and Miss Dolan, and by Messrs. Laughlin and Dawson.
M.W.

Chess Club in the South Common Room, Hart House. Tournament competition. All members out.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 2
1.30—Short service in Hart House Chapel. Address by Dr. Sclater.

BULLETIN BOARD

TRINITY 3T3
An important year meeting for men of 3T3 will be held in Room 5, fifth floor, Trinity House, to-day at 1.30.
RIFLE ASSOCIATION
The final event of the year will be the spoon shoot for March, which will be held next week. The annual banquet will be held on Tuesday, March 25th in the graduates' dining room, at 6.30 p.m. All members are requested to attend and make this year's banquet as great a success as have been those of the other years.

HARVARD GLEE CLUB CONCERT
The Harvard Glee Club, the world famous organization of forty Harvard undergraduates, will give a concert in Convocation Hall on Thursday evening 10th April. Student tickets at 50c each will be available at the hall porter's desk in Hart House.

ST. MATTHEW'S PASSION
The annual performance of Bach's St. Matthew's Passion will take place at 8.10 p.m. on Tuesday, 15th April in Convocation Hall. Student tickets at 50c each will shortly be on sale at the hall porter's desk, Hart House.

SUNDAY EVENING CONCERT
The Conservatory Quartet will give the last Sunday Evening Concert of the present academic year in the Great Hall of Hart House on 6th April.

U.T.S. OLD BOYS' ASSOCIATION
A reorganization dinner for all U.T.S. Old Boys will be held on Wednesday, April 2nd, at 6.45 in the Great Hall of Hart House.
Tickets are only $1.00 and every effort possible is being made to have the re-union a complete success. The committee is particularly anxious that all the Old Boys now at Varsity make a special effort to be present.

DR. SCLATER IN HART HOUSE CHAPEL
There will be two more mid-day services on Wednesdays in Hart House Chapel at 1.30, and the speaker on each occasion will be the Rev. J. R. P. Sclater, D.D. Wednesday, March 26 and April 2.

TRINITY 3T3
The first year pictures will be taken on Monday, March 24th at a Quarter To Two on the front steps of the college. Every man must be out. Gowns will be worn.
CHAMPUS CAT
(Continued from page 2)
braced himself and betrayed no further emotion.
"What course were you in, Dad?" he asked.
"Sh-h! No one must know! If the faculty were to connect me with the colm—" I shuddered at the very thought.
C-C
But son, when you follow in my footsteps and go down there to college, I want you to remember your old dad's advice. I don't want you to work too hard while you're there, but have a good time as much as you can without losing your year. And don't let me hear of your touching a drop of liquor—unless it's the best. There is nothing like cheap stuff to wreck a healthy stomach you know.
C-C
And another thing. Don't go and get on any of these here committees or executives or anything like that. I want my son to be above such things.
C-C
And if you want to join a fraternity well, that's your funeral. If you like the idea of spending one good evening every week in a stuffy chapter chamber, (with all the doors and windows locked for secrecy), listening to the dance committees report on the last deficit or the discussion on the re-arrangement of the bathroom furniture, all well and good. But don't blame me if you get a room mate who plays a hanjo, or tries to sing like Rudy Vallee, or borrows your dressing gown, or hangs Film Fun pictures around the walls, or wears your tux out, or leaves his soiled socks at the head of your bed. But you had better run along now, Son, it's your bed time!"
C-C

FABIUS CLUB
The last meeting of the Fabius Club for this year will be held on Tuesday, March 25th at 8.00 p.m. at Wymlwood. Mr. S. K. Ratcliffe, the eminent English journalist and lecturer, will be the speaker. All interested students are invited to this, the first open meeting of the Fabius Club.

CHESS CLUB
The U. of T. Chess Club will hold its final meeting this year on Thursday, March 27 at 8 p.m. in the South Common Room, Hart House. Tournaments will be completed. All members are urgently requested to be present.

FRENCH SOCIETY
The last meeting of the French Society of U.C. will be held April 2 at the Women's Union, 8.30 p.m. Elections for the forthcoming year.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB
Don't forget the Theatre Party on Saturday at the Royal Alex. It's a nice way of signing off.

U.C. ATHLETIC BOARD
Will the following please attend the final meeting of the Athletic Board at 3 p.m. to-day in the Lit. offices: Jackson, Sullivan, McGibbon, Cook, Vila, Arnold, Spence, Finningley, Secombe, Grey, Yeigh, McDonnell, Armstrong, Drury, MacCallum, Thorburn.

U.C. MEN
Will those who want pictures of the "U.C." holders or "U.C." holders please sign the lists in the common room. Price 50 cents each.

TEAM PHOTOGRAPHS
Will members of the Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Team and the Senior and Intermediate Basketball Teams wishing pictures please call at the Athletic Office and order them before noon on Saturday.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS
The old and new executives of the League of Nations Society of the University of Toronto will meet for lunch at the Sign of the Lantern, Willecks Street, on Monday at one.

The Italian-Spanish Club will hold the last meeting of the year at the Women's Union, 79 St. George St., on Tuesday, March 25th at 8.00 p.m. There will be the election of officers for next year. Musical program and refreshments. Everybody welcome.

STUDENT CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN FALL

(Continued from page 1)
dates are to be September 15-24. If you want to have a good beginning for your college year in as lovely a place as Muskoka and with congenial people from universities all over Canada, then make plans immediately to enrol for this year's conference. Folders can be had at the S.C.A. office, Hart House, and women's office, in the Lillian Massey Building.

And so we shall say good-bye to our collich friends. Let them be comforted with two thoughts. One, that we are through writing Cats, and two, that Little Gaspard may some day follow in our footsteps and take up the shovel from our faltering hands and allow us to spend the remainder of our days in the calm and quiet of our padded cell.
Gaspard McGuffey.

COLLEGE GOWNS
CAPS and HOODS
HARCOURT & SON
103 King St. W., Toronto

STEPPING OUT WITH SPRING FASHION

Smart pump in patent leather trimmed in modernist fashion with black suede. $8. Also in brown kid and brown suede, $8.50

A strap model of importance. In patent leather trimmed with black suede or brown kid with brown suede. $12. Also in beige kid and genuine water-snake. $14.

Ladies' Shoes

The step-in pump comes in black patent or black satin. $11. Brown kid and brown suede are smart in this shoe. $12.

Ladies' Shoes Third Floor

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

Christian Science

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, St. George St. at Lowther (Close to the University)
Services—Sunday, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.
Subject for Sunday, Mar. 23rd, will be "MATTER"
Wednesday Service 8 p.m.
In the Church Auditorium including Testimonies of Healing Through Christian Science
You are cordially invited to attend the services and use the Free Public Reading Rooms
1504 Metropolitan Bldg. Adelaide and Victoria Sts. Open 9.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.
Where the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased, and periodicals subscribed for.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA SHERBOURNE CHURCH

REV. RICHARD ROBERTS, D.D.
11 A.M.—"The Souls of The Righteous"
Memorial Service
7 P.M.—The second of the Series of Sermons on "The Discipline of Life."
"THE RIGHT USE OF SALT"

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH
381 Huron Street
(Five minutes walk from Hart House)
THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT.
7.00, 8.00, 9.30 a.m. — Holy Eucharist.
11.00 a.m.—Litany Sung in Procession and Holy Eucharist. Nicholson in G major. Preacher: Rev. C. J. S. Stuart, M.A., B.D., Rector.
7.00 p.m. — Evensong and Sermon. Preacher: Rev. F. J. Dykes, M.A., Rector of St. George's Church.
Wed., March 26th, 8.15 p.m.—Evensong and Instruction. Preacher: Rev. R. S. Rayson, M.A., B.D., Assistant Priest.
Fri., March 21st, 5 p.m.—Evensong and Address. Preacher: The Rector.

Deer Park United Church

ST. CLAIR AVENUE
(One block east of Avenue Rd.)
Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A. Minister
Rev. Douglas Kendall, M.A. Assistant Minister
Rev. G. Stanley Russell, M.A. will preach at 11 a.m.—A South Land.
7 p.m.—"I seek short-cuts. God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although it was near."
Students cordially invited.

TORONTO THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY
62 ISABELLA STREET
Lectures on Comparative Religion, Philosophy and Science every Sunday evening at 7.15.
Sunday, March 23rd
11.15 a.m.—"The means to vision."
7.15 p.m.—"The brothers of the shadow."
By ROY MITCHELL
Questions answered and free lending library.

DANCING LESSONS
GORDON REECE
Teacher of Modern Dancing
Latest Steps, 5 Private Lessons $5.00
Beginners a Specialty
12 Crescent Road at Yonge
(Third Car Stop North of Bloor)
Rand. 1885

Old St. Andrew's Church

(Cor. Jarvis and Carlton Sts.)
Minister—DR. SCLATER.
7 p.m.—"I seek short-cuts. God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although it was near."
Students Cordially Welcome

DANCING LESSONS
REDUCED RATES
Strictly Private - 6 for $5.00
Semi Private - 6 for $4.00
(Two pupils taking same lesson)
HARRY WALFORD—Rt. 4683
Address—55 WELLESLEY ST.

Easter Lilies and Pale Hands . . . .

tapering fingers clad in their Springtime beauty of new gloves, suave delicate beauty of line and color, with decoration that adds the touch of smartness to the costume of your choice.
Newly imported kid gloves, every stitch an important detail, colors that harmonize or adapt themselves to your outfit; skins that are soft and pliable, Paris-inspired from finger tip to cuff . . . priced from $1.98 up.
Smart ideas in fabric gloves, also, from 98c.

Tune in Every Wednesday 7 p.m., C.F.C.A. Virginia Dare and her Boy Friends.

VIRGINIA DARE Ltd.

164 YONGE STREET At Richmond AD. 8996
768 YONGE STREET Next door to Uptown Theatre R.T. 3660
2496 YONGE STREET Next door to Capitol Theatre HU. 4750
OPEN EVENINGS

Permanent Waving

is an Art, if properly done, No more frizz nor dried-out hair.

PEMBER'S

have FIVE different processes, one of which will suit your hair better than any other. Consult our Mr. Pember, the Father of Permanent Waving in Canada. He will advise you as to the best process suited to your particular case. You will then be sure of having a permanent wave with which you will be thoroughly satisfied. The larger and softer waves are more artistic and natural than too much frizz.

THE W. T. PEMBER STORES LTD.

Sole Canadian Distributors for INECTO-Rapid

129 YONGE STREET
Toronto, Ont.

Telephones EL 2388 and 2236-7

Branch Store: 272 Yonge St. Open Evenings Phone Ad. 4197

P
LE
V

242752

Author Varsity.

Title Vol. 48, Sept. 27, 1929 - March 21, 1930.

University of Toronto
Library

DO NOT REMOVE
THE CARD
FROM THIS POCKET

Acme Library Card Pocket
Under Pat. "Red Index File"
Made by LIBRARY BUREAU

